JOHN BULL MAY BE SATISFIED WITH NEW PANAMA CANAL BILL

Conference Report Removes Main Objection to That Measure.

Washington, Aug. 15.—It is said to be reasonably certain that no further protest will be made by Great Britain on behalf of English mercantile interests against the Panama canal bill if it finally takes the form reported yesterday from the conference committee. The British objection was laid against discrimination against British ships. As such shipping is not now privileged to enter into the American coastwise trade, which alone is to receive favored treatment in the canal, that objection is overcome.

It is regarded as possible, however, that in deference to Canada, the British government may be led to object to the prohibition against the passage of railroad-owned ships, but state department officials are confident that objection would not hold under the treaty, as the prohibition is to apply to American vessels as well as others and there could be no charge of discrimination there.

Agreement Reached.

The agreement on the Panama canal administration bill was reached by the conference committee of the house and senate late yesterday. Free passage is denied to American-owned

MANEUVER CAMP AT SPARTA BROKEN

Sparta, Wis., Aug. 15.—Today saw the breaking up of the big maneuvers camp at McCoy, when over 2,000 troops forming the provisional regiment left for their various posts, thus disbanding the organization which made the long hike from Dubuque to Sparta last spring. The regiment was made up of soldiers from Forts Sheridan, Snelling, Brady and Crook.

The Sixth cavalry returned home overland, as it came. It left for Fort Des Moines today.

TEN-YEAR-OLD BOY KILLS TWO PEOPLE

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 15.—Fighting for his father, 10-year-old Rudolph De Waters killed two persons and wounded a third in Lafayette residence park annex, an fashionable suburb, last night. The dead are:

Nicola Battilere and Marina Battilere, his wife.

Mike and Charles Battilere, brothers of Nicola, are in the hospital. The Battileres, it is claimed, charged on the De Waters home. The boy fired three shots and all three found their mark.

One of the two wounded men was struck by a shot from the elder De Waters' gun, according to the police.

FANATIC MAY BE GIRL'S MURDERER

Denver, Colo., Aug. 15.—In spite of general opinion of the police here, as entertained last night, that there only was a remote probability that a religious fanatic who gives his name as "William the Apostle," arrested at Colorado Springs, was connected with the assault and murder of Signe Carlzen, a young music teacher, last Friday evening, developments today caused a change of opinion in police circles as to probability of the man's guilt.

Mrs. H. B. Hall of 702 Julian street, when shown a picture of the Colorado Springs prisoner, identified it as that of a man who had called at her home and asked for something to eat on the day before the murder of Miss Carlzen. Mrs. Hall declared the man began to discourse on the evils of sexual relations and stated that "all barren women should be cut down."

The man decared that he never had been in Denver, although last night he did not deny having been here on Thursday and Friday.

STUDY FOREIGN RURAL CREDITS

Washington, Aug. 15.—The appointment of a commission by the Southern Commercial congress to investigate the rural credit systems in Europe, was indorsed today in a senate joint resolution. The commission, to consist of a delegate from every state, would report to the general assembly of the International Institution of Agriculture at Rome next May.

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD BOYS BURGLARS.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Wearing masks over their eyes, two "boy burglars," each 12 years old, were arrested early today and confessed they had robbed a restaurant of $75 a few hours before. The gave their names as Joseph Smith and John Doczola. Each had a "jimmy" in his possession. When arrested they told the police they were waiting to "break into another joint."

SECRETARY OF WILSON CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

JOSEPH E. DAVIES.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Joseph E. Davies of Wisconsin is secretary of the national Democratic committee that is directing the campaign of Governor Wilson for the presidency. He is a lawyer and was born at Watertown, Wis., Nov. 29, 1876. He has been a contributor to various law journals, notably on "Impeachment for Truth and Veracity."

HURRY CALLS FROM SENATE

Republicans Fear Tariff Bills May Be Passed Over Taft's Veto.

Call in Absent Members After Blocking Plan for Quick Action.

Washington, Aug. 15.—An effort to reach an agreement to dispose of the steel and wool tariff revision bill already passed by the house over the president's veto, failed in the senate today. Unanimous consent to vote on both measures tomorrow was objected to by Senator Briggs because there was a dispute about the arrangement of pairs.

Republican leaders decided to call in absent members to meet any attempt by the Democrats to repass the vetoed bills. Telegrams were dispatched to all absentees within easy reach of Washington to return to the capitol. The Republican force has been greatly depleted during the last two weeks.

RICH NEIGHBORS' ROW IN COURT

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 15.—Mrs. Clara Manger, a leader in exclusive society circles, filed suit today for $70,000 damages against the heads of six well-to-do families, alleging false arrest.

The suit is the outgrowth of a neighborhood children's quarrel which came to a climax when J. Goode Cabanne sought to have Mrs. Manger put under a bond to keep the peace. There was one trial with a jury disagreement, many continuances, a counter-arrest of Mrs. Cabanne, a fight between Cabanne and Mrs. Manger's husband, Frederick Manger, and much neighborhood bad feeling.

RECALL MASSACRE ON CHICAGO SITE

Chicago, Aug. 15.—One hundred years ago today the Indians attacked the early settlers of Chicago at Fort Dearborn. In commemoration of the massacre that followed, members of Chicago's allied patriotic and memorial societies gathered at the lake front and Eighteenth street at 10 o'clock today to begin services dedicated to the memory of the dead soldiers and pioneers, on the spot where the massacre occurred, some distance from the fort. It was at that hour, a century ago, that the massacre of the early settlers was begun.

WANT ACTION ON TRUST BREAK-UP

Washington, Aug. 15.—Representative Norris, Republican, of Nebraska, and Representative Webb of North Carolina, Democrat, condemned the house judiciary committee today for its delay in reporting the Cummins bill to provide a supreme court review of the dissolution plan of the so-called "Tobacco trust."

Both representatives declared they would fight to have the measure considered befor adjournment. It already has passed the senate.

LIMITS ARMY AND NAVY USE

Senator Bacon Offers Bill to Restrict Power of President.

Would Restrict Sending of Armed Men to Another Country.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Senator Bacon today continued his attack upon the use of the American navy and army for intervention in disorderly countries, and offered a bill to restrict the use of those forces by the executive branch of the government.

The measure would make it impossible for the president to order troops into a foreign country when congress is in session, without authorization by congress.

Senator Bacon had presented a similar provision as an amendment to the army appropriation bill last night, but it was rejected.

"We have another example set forth in the newspapers only this morning," said Senator Bacon, introducing his bill. "We heard yesterday that American marines actually engaged in a battle on foreign soil in a country with which we are at peace. They marched into the interior of that country with hundreds of armed men and met an armed force in battle.

"The attitude of some officials seems to be that the army and navy are toys and playthings for them to sport with."

The senator was referring to the use of United States sailors in Nicaragua.

JEALOUS WIFE MURDERS WIDOW

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 15.—Mrs. Alva Cave, daughter-in-law of Rev. R. Lin Cave, chaplain-general of the United Confederate Veterans, was murdered late last night, and Mrs. J. G. Jones, aged 24, is in jail accused of the killing, which is said to have been impelled by jealousy. The victim was a widow, 30 years old, and well known in Southern cities.

Mrs. Jones had filed a suit for divorce and was living apart from her husband. Recently, however, the divorce bill was withdrawn.

The killing occurred in Mrs. Cave's home. Mrs. Jones, according to the police, gained admittance to Mrs. Cave's room, and without preliminaries began shooting. Defenseless, Mrs. Cave was mortally wounded and died in a few minutes.

WILL USE AEROPLANES IN MEXICAN FIGHTING.

Chihuahua, Mex., Aug. 15.—Aeroplanes will be employed by Gen. Huerta in his campaign against the rebels unless Orozco's force at Juarez contrives to scatter in small bands, making formal warfare impracticable. The two monoplanes recently purchased by the war department and tested at Torreon, have been sent here, and it is probable they will be sent this week to Gallegos for scouting expeditions.

M'NAMARAS WERE NOT GUILTY OF MURDER, IS DARROW'S STATEMENT

Lawyer Addresses Jury in His Trial on Bribery Charge.

Denounces Present Methods of Fighting Crime and Criminals.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 15.—In order that additional time be given for the final argument of Clarence S. Darrow in his own behalf, the Darrow bribery trial was convened an hour and a half earlier than the usual time this morning. Darrow was expected to speak until noon, when the time allotted the defense expired and District Attorney John D. Fredericks was scheduled to begin the concluding argument at the beginning of the afternoon session.

Darrow declared that the blowing up of the Times was not the result of a plot to destroy lives. He absolved the McNamaras of any guilt of murder. The dynamite was placed there wrongfully and criminally, he said, but with no thought of taking human lives.

"The explosions stopped the printing presses," he said. "Unfortunately there was gas or oil that ignited, and the fire destroyed these lives."

"To Awaken Prejudice."

The explosion, he said, was "paraded before the jury" by Assistant District Attorney Ford "that in some way it may awaken a prejudice in your hearts against me."

"There never was a man charged

ALASKA VOLCANO VICTIMS NEEDY

Must Depend on Government to Supply Necessaries of Life.

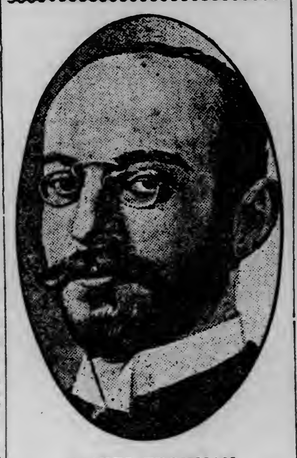

Washington, Aug. 15.—Alaska has not yet recovered from the effects of the volcanic eruption of Mount Katmai in June, and the federal government will be obliged to furnish emergency rations and supplies to many people for some time to come.

The people of Kodisk island are in need of the quickest attention. Their vegetable crops were ruined. Secretary MacVeagh has ordered ten tons of potatoes from Seattle, to prevent scurvy breaking out among the inhabitants.

Afognak island is recovering to some degree, but will need emergency rations during the coming winter.

The people on the mainland who were rendered homeless by the eruption have erected a new town on Ivanoff Bay, 150 miles west of the volcano, and christened it Perry, in honor of Capt. Perry of the revenue cutter Manning, whose heroic work in rescuing 500 people during the catastrophe won a letter of commendation from President Taft. The new village is flourishing and needs no assistance.

YANKEE CONSUL MURDER VICTIM

Colombian Government Will Be Given Chance to Act.

Bogota, Colombia, Aug. 15.—The investigation into the death of William B. MacMaster, the United States vice consul at Cartagena, whose body, riddled with gunshot, was found a few miles outside of that city on Monday, has proved without doubt that he was murdered.

No clews to the perpetrators of the crime, which was committed while Mr. MacMaster was on a hunting trip, have been discovered.

Let Colombia Act.

Washington, Aug. 15.—William MacMaster, American vice consul at Cartagena, Colombia, whose body was found in the jungle ten miles from that city last Monday, was murdered. American Consul Kemper at Cartagena today reported that evidence so far gathered bears out such a charge.

The Colombian government will have an opportunity to punish the assassins before any action is taken by the United States.

Missouri Drouth Broken.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 15.—Copious rains throughout Northwest Missouri last night and today broke a protracted drouth which had menaced the late crops.

SEEK CARS TO CARRY CROPS

South Dakota Faces Most Serious Shortage in Its History.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 15.—Wisconsin and other Northwestern states face a car shortage unparalleled in railroad history since 1907. Traffic managers of leading Western railroads, co-operating with the association of Western railroads, are writing letters to shippers forecasting a scarcity of rolling stock within the next thirty days unless all interests co-operate for the prompt handling of shipments.

Following this advice, the Wisconsin railroad commission is notifying leading manufacturers of the impending danger. It recommends that orders for future shipments be placed as soon as possible, and that every effort be made to load and unload equipment so that there may be no delay in holding cars.

Trouble in South Dakota.

Huron, S. D., Aug. 15.—How to transport the immense small grain crop now being gathered in South Dakota is the problem that railway freight traffic men are trying to solve.

That a car shortage, the equal of which has never before been known in this part of the Northwest, is imminent, is the view of the railroad officials, although thousands of cars have been brought into the state to handle the grain.

Fifty million bushels of wheat, 50,000,000 bushels of oats, 30,000,000 bushels of barley, 8,000,000 of rye and at least 3,000,000 bushels of flax will go to the market in South Dakota about the same time. Before these crops are out of the way will come the potato and corn crops—both of gigantic proportions.

LETS SETTLERS INTO MUD LAKE

(From The Herald Washington Bureau.)

Washington, Aug. 15.—Representative Steenerson today introduced a bill granting a preference right of entry, up to a total of 160 acres, to settlers around Mud Lake in Marshall county, Minnesota, which has been drained under the operation of state and federal laws. The secretary of the interior has ordered a survey of the lake bed, which embraces about 10,000 acres, following a decision by the attorney general that the lake was not navigable and that the lands should be disposed of under the terms of the Nelson act of 1889.

Settlers around the lake contended before the department that their riparian ownership extended to the center of the lake, and the Steenerson bill is designed to give the settlers a right to extend their entries to include enough of the old lake bed to make up a full quarter section of land. The remainder of the lake bed will be subject to entry upon completion of the survey.

WILSON PROPOSES TO TALK TARIFF.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 15.—Tariff issues, the high cost of living and agricultural development of the country, were topics which Governor Wilson planned to discuss this afternoon at Washington Park, twelve miles below Philadelphia on the Jersey side of the Delaware river.

"THROW BECKER TO WOLVES" IS SECRET WORD TO WITNESSES

Webber and Vallon Warned of Death If They Expose High Men.

Daniel Frohman Foreman of Coroner's Jury at Inquest.

New York, Aug. 15.—Before a representative body of prominent men, with Daniel Frohman as foreman, all the prisoners, with the exception of Lieut. Becker, involved in the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, were arraigned today before Coroner Feinberg for the formal inquest into the murder.

At the request of Assistant District Attorney Frank Moss, who said that "a practically complete case has been made out against all the defendants by the grand jury now in session," the hearing was postponed until Aug. 22.

An eager crowd assembled in court to catch a glimpse of the prisoners. "Whitey" Lewis had his face swathed in bandages, but attendants explained that he was suffering from a boil and had not been involved in any fighting of late.

Mr. Moss' reference to "a practically complete case," referred to the deliberations of the Rosenthal grand gury, which is expected to hand up indictments against all the prisoners, including a reindictment against Becker, before Judge Mulqueen sometime this afternoon.

Webber and Vallon "Reached."

Threatened with death if they revealed information regarding the three men "higher up" in the gambling graft scandal, "Bridgie" Webber and Harry Vallon, two of the associates of "Bald Jack" Rose, may prove to be recalcitrant witnesses. The two prisoners are confronted on the other hand by possible indictments charging them with the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, unless they tell the whole truth. The two prisoners tried to determine today what course to pursue.

Webber and Vallon have been "reached," and told, according to Vallon's counsel, "to throw Police Lieut. Becker to the wolves," but to shield the names of the three men now regarded by the state's attorney as directors of the graft system.

Letting Them Decide.

District Attorney Whitman is letting the two prisoners themselves decide what attitude they will take.

James M. Sullivan, Vallon's lawyer, says that for some time messengers from those "higher up" and from police

NO SUGAR BILL AT THIS SESSION

Washington, Aug. 15.—Complete disagreement between the house and senate on the sugar tariff bills in a conference report on the measure presented to the senate today by Senator Penrose. This indicates there will be no sugar legislation at this session.

MUST GIVE UP LAKE LINES

New Bill Will Prevent Railroad Companies Owning Steamers.

Interstate Commerce Commission Has Already Announced Its Attitude.

(From The Herald Washington Bureau.)

Washington, Aug. 15.—Separaton of ownership of the so-called standard lake lines and Eastern railroads is one of the probabilities as a result of the enactment of the Panama canal bill.

The bill provides that after July 1, 1914, "No railroad company shall own, operate, or control any steamship line, whether the steamship lines operate through the canal, or elsewhere," but gives the Interstate commerce commission power to postpone the operation of this provision indefinitely, if it finds that joint ownership and operation are not detrimental to the public welfare.

The commission, however, has already indicated that it disapproves the ownership of lake lines by the Eastern railroads.

In its decision in the case of the Flour City Steamship company, the commission said, "While there may not yet be any statutory inhibition against this common ownership of rail and lake instrumentalities of carriage, the uses which it has subserved cannot be said to be entirely consonant with the spirit of law."

In the Flour City case, the evidence showed that all the standard lake lines were owned exclusively or in partnership by Eastern railroads. In view of what the commission said about this ownership it is expected that it will order a separation of land and water carriers operating on the Great Lakes.

DOCK STRIKE ON AT ERIE

Strikes on the package freight docks of all lake ports seem quite the style since the Duluth workers put it in vogue about three weeks ago.

The latest strike is at Erie. The men walked out unexpectedly and demanded a raise in wages. They selected a most opportune time, there being several boats in the harbor to be unloaded.

Yesterday when the steamer Allegheny of the Anchor line docked at Erie, the men took off a part of her cargo and then quit work. Other men were obtained and the freight was reloaded on the boat and the cargo intact taken to Buffalo, where it was unloaded.

The Duluth dock workers started the style which has spread to all parts of the lakes. At Port Arthur recently several officers of the law were severely injured in gun fights with the strikers.

The men at Marquette struck recently and it is thought that the men at Cleveland and Toledo are thinking seriously of striking if their wages are not increased.

At Buffalo the men were recently given an increase. They now receive 32 cents an hour. Buffalo marine men state that the men have no grievance and that no trouble is expected. Buffalo is a big package freight town and a strike at that point would mean much delay to Duluth wholesalers.

It is understood that there is no dock workers' union at Erie. The men simply got together as they did in Duluth and decided to strike. The Duluth workers received an increase of 2½ cents an hour and have been back at work for more than a week. They had asked an increase of 5 cents and men from Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis had to be imported before they would agree to compromise the matter and return to work.

As in Duluth, the Industrial Workers of the World are behind the strike at Erie. It is stated that they will send representatives to Buffalo to try and stir up trouble on the docks of the Eastern terminal.

L. N. CASE SELLS LAKESIDE HOME

Through a deal which was consummated today in the office of J. B. Greenfield, real estate agent, the home of L. N. Case on London road, near Fiftieth avenue east, was sold to Patrick Doran. The consideration was approximately $11,500.

The home is one of the handsomest residences at Lakeside. The property fronts 100 feet on London road and runs 200 feet deep to the lake shore, where it has a commanding view. The grounds are attractively parked.

Mr. Case, the seller, has recently purchased a poultry farm in California. It is understood that it is his ultimate intention to go West and live on this farm.

TWO SUITS FOR COMMISSIONS

Two suits for commissions on timber land deals were started in district court this morning.

In one action, Victor Carlson is suing the Red Cliff Lumber company for $1,000 commission on a deal which he claims he made for the Red Cliff Lumber company which resulted in the sale of 1,840 acres of timber lands to the Johnson-Wentworth Lumber company for $22,500. The transaction took place in 1908.

In the other suit, John E. Lindgren, a real estate broker, is trying to recover $900 commission for engineering the sale of a large block of timber lands in sections 9 and 10, 56-14, this county, from Henry P. Gardiner to Victor and Hjalmar Carlson. Lindgren is suing Gardiner.

LAST DAY TO FILE CASES

Wednesday, Aug. 28, is the last day on which attorneys may file cases for the September term of the district court. Several cases have already been listed for trial.

The September term of court is usually one of the heaviest of the year. It is expected that the filing of cases and notices of trial for the coming term will be heavy during the next few days.

Up to the present time thirty-three cases have been listed. Of this number five are divorce actions, eighteen are for jury trial and ten are for the court to pass upon.

The calendar is expected to carry about 200 cases when the last of the filings are made.

"A NEW PLAY IS A GAMBLE," SAYS MARGARET ILLINGTON

"A new play is rather a gamble," said Miss Margaret Illington today at the Spalding. "You know 'Hazel Kirke,' the greatest success ever known in the theatrical history, was put on as a stop-gap."

Miss Illington is charming off the stage as she is on, though perhaps the word charming is not just the right one to apply to the acting of Miss Illington.

"Are you a Western woman?" Miss Illington was asked.

"Thank goodness, yes," she replied. "That's one of the reasons why I like to play in the summer months so much; you know it gives me the opportunity to travel in the West. We have something out here besides painted signs, dusty streets and the glare of lights. We have bigness and those things that go with the out of door life.

"Now this wheat crop of yours—isn't it immense? Isn't it something thoroughly typical of the West? We drove out from Fargo yesterday and watched them thrash. You can't know how much good that sight did me. And I couldn't tell you how proud I was that I could tell my husband all about it. That thrashing brought back to me dear and near recollections of the West, and I love it.

"About my play, now. It is the greatest success that I have ever had. That's one of the worries and yet at the same time one of the pleasures of our profession—the worry about your next success. When I was in 'The Thief' I kept wondering when I would ever be in a play nearly so successful. I suppose one must reach the climax sometime. Now I have 'Kindling,' and it is by far the greatest success that I have ever had.

"David Belasco says he is absolutely sure of the success of his plays before the premier. The extraordinary success of his productions tends to bear him out. But you never can tell, for sometimes the plays that seem to be great at rehearsals are flat failures when they are produced."

Here Mr. Bowes, her husband, told of reading this morning of the failure of George Broadhurst's latest play. "He told me that it was by far his greatest effort and was positive of its success. Well, here you are; I read that the play is absurd, a flat failure; in fact, about the worst thing Broadhurst has ever done. Will you kindly explain?"

Miss Illington will play until about the first of October in the present vehicle and then will rest. "That will give me the opportunity to see others act," said Miss Illington, "and you know that we can always learn. I will open in Washington after my rest and will later take the play abroad."

ORE TRAIN DITCHED.

Nine Cars Leave Track on the South Shore.

Marquette, Mich., Aug. 15.—Nine cars of a South Shore ore train jumped the track near Greenwood, west of Ishpeming yesterday. The cars blocked the main track for several hours, making it necessary to send the Iron-Copper express and the St. Paul over the tracks of the Northwestern to the western end of the county. The wrecking crew from Marquette succeeded in clearing the track in a few hours.

None of the train crew was injured.

DRUGGISTS FROM CITIES WIN IN CONVENTION.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 15.—Delegates from the larger cities attending convention of the National Retail Druggists were victorious today in the dispute over voting credentials. None of the city associations has a full quota of delegates present, but all claim the full number of votes to which they would be entitled by the constitution were all delegates present. In this contention they were sustained by a majority vote, despite the recommendation of the credentials committee.

A campaign to secure the co-operation of physicians in effecting a general use of standard grade drugs, based on United States pharmacopoea and national formulas were discussed following the report of the committee on propaganda.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC!

All Horseshoeing Shops throughout the city will be closed all day Saturday, Aug. 17th, on account of Picnic. BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

SENATE PASSES INDUSTRIAL BILL

Washington, Aug. 15.—The bill creating a commission on industrial relations to investigate labor conditions and the relations of employers and employes, passed the senate today with practically no debate. It has passed the house.

In outlining the duties of the commission, the bill says:

"The commission shall seek to discover the underlying causes of dissatisfaction in the industrial situation and report its conclusions thereon."

The smuggling of Asiatic labor into the country is made one of the subjects of the commission's investigations, by a senate amendment.

The measure appropriates $100,000 for the first year's expenses of the commission and provides for a report at the end of two years. The president will appoint its nine members.

NEW NATURALIZATION RULE TO BE TESTED.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Secretary Nagel's recent ruling that the citizenship of a naturalized alien automatically conferred citizenship on all his minor children, is to be called into question in the case of the wife and two small children of Thomas Risk of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The woman and children are detained in Marseilles, suspected of trachoma. Representative Good has appealed to Secretary Nagel to investigate the case, and raises the question that the recent ruling may admit them without test of the imigration laws. The Risks are Syrians.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Trachoma in Northern Minnesota Is Subject of Interesting Paper.

At a business meeting of the Minnesota State Medical association this afternoon Dr. R. J. Hill of Minneapolis was elected president to succeed Dr. Haldor Sneve of St. Paul.

Minneapolis was selected as the next meeting place for the convention. The time will be in October, 1913, the dates to be selected later by a committee.

Dr. H. C. Cooney of Princeton, Minn., was elected vice president and Dr. S. H. Boyer of Duluth was chosen second vice president.

Dr. Thomas McDavitt of St. Paul was re-elected secretary of the association and Dr. Earl Hare of Minneapolis was elected treasurer. R. J. Hill, the new president, was treasurer of the association during the past year.

Doctors Thomas McDavitt of St. Paul, Leo M. Krafts of Minneapolis and J. W. Andrews of Mankato were selected as delegates to attend the annual convention of the American Medical association, which will be held at Minneapolis in October, this year.

The delegates were slow to appear at convention hall at the Spalding hotel this morning and the session which was to have begun at 9 o'clock did not commence until after 10.

As a result of the delay a number of interesting papers had to be omitted, the time being taken up with the selection of officers and a talk on "Trachoma In Northern Minnesota," by Dr. Talaferro Clark, surgeon in the United States public health and marine hospital service at Evansville, Ind.

This talk was considered one of the features of the day's program and was to have been given this evening at a meeting open to the public. Many of the physicians found that they could be away from home no longer, however, and it was given this morning when President Haldor Sneve called upon Dr. Clark shortly before the convention adjourned at the noon hour.

The physcians will finish their business this afternoon and will leave during the late afternoon and evening for their homes in the different parts of the state.

The Duluth convention proved to be much larger than was anticipated. There were fully 250 doctors present at the session, the ballroom of the Spalding being none too large to accommodate them when reinforced by members of the Duluth Medical society, all of whom were anxious to hear the papers.

Last night the visitors were entertained on an excursion around the horn.

Will Question Perkins.
Washington, Aug. 15.—The senate committe investigating campaign expenditures will request George W. Perkins of New York to testify about his contributions to presidential campaigns of 1904 and 1908. INSANITY PLEA OF MRS. BERNSTEIN

"Furore Transitoria," was to be the plea of the prisoner, according to her counsel. Her testimony promised to be sensational.

"Furore Transitoria," Mrs. Bernstein's counsel explained, is a state of mental aberration, the result of violent hysterical agitation.

Mrs. Margaret Lavialo, an Italian interpreter, testified today that she had overheard a conversation between Mrs. Bernstein and her husband in a police station, some days before the shooting, in which Mrs. Bernstein pleaded with her husband to return to her.

"It's breaking my heart to give you up. Haven't I always loved you and been good to you? Please come home!" was Mrs. Bernstein's plea for her husband's return, according to the witness.

THREE PETITIONS BEING CIRCULATED

West Duluthians Want Two Streets Extended and Another Paved.

Three petitions are now being circulated by the business men and property owners of West Duluth.

The opening of Raleigh street east from Central avenue is interesting many and the necessary number of signers to the petition will be secured within a few weeks, say those behind the movement. The petitioners claim that the opening of the street will aid the wagons in going to and from the docks and mills. They are compelled to go about five blocks out of the way at present. Workmen are also compelled to go by a roundabout route in going to work at the shops.

The petition asks that the street be opened through the property adjoining the Carbolite plant, extending to the Fiftieth avenue water front. Dominic Martino is in charge of the petition and announced this morning that it will in all probability be presented to the council the early part of next month.

Joseph Becks, former street commissioner, is circulating a petition for the opening of Roosevelt street west of Fifty-ninth avenue west. Mr. Becks is confident of securing the necessary number of signatures from property owners along the proposed thoroughfare to allow the opening the latter part of next winter. The matter was taken up several years ago, but was laid aside at the time as being impracticable. With the growth of West Duluth in the past five years, Mr. Becks believes the improvement will be considered by the council.

A petition for the improving and grading of Thirtieth avenue west is also in circulation at the present time.

GOGGIN THOUGHT TO BE DEMENTED

This morning a telephone call was received at the West Duluth station to the effect that Joseph Goggin of 5101 Roosevelt street, who reported to the police last evening that he had been robbed of $40 while in a hypnotic state, is insane.

The sender of the message refused to give his name, but stated that he was a roomer at the same boarding house with Goggin and that he had watched the latter for several weeks. He said that Goggin believes himself hypnotized at various times and goes through foolish antics. Goggin will be examined as to his sanity, although it is not believed his condition is serious, as he is able to work continuously.

Goggin called at the police station last evening and told a unique story of how he had been hypnotized near the Alger-Smith mill and his savings of $40 taken away from him while he was in this hypnotic sleep. He said he was on his way to work and was stopped near the entrance to the mill by a man, who claimed to be a Northern Pacific railroad detective. The "detective" informed Goggin that he always caught his prisoners by means of hypnotism and immediately offered to make the latter a subject.

Goggin said he objected, but that the first thing he knew, he was under the spell and was soon asleep. When he awoke, the man was gone as was his $40, the savings of the past season. Asked to describe the man, Goggin said he was rather tall, heavy set, wore a brown suit and a derby hat. The police told Goggin to come to the station again this morning, but he had failed to do so up to noon.

WOMEN TO BE TAKEN INTO ROYAL LEAGUE.

Unusual initiation ceremonies are to be held at a meeting of West Duluth council, No. 255, Royal League, next Tuesday evening at Gilley's hall, 322 Central avenue.

For the first time in the history of the local order, a class of women will be initiated into the organization. A recent decision of the national officers allows women to take insurance jointly with the men. A class of twelve men will also be intiated next Tuesday evening. Charles E. Piper of Chicago, supreme scribe, will officiate at the ceremonies, following which a reception will be held in his honor.

Spencer Leaves.

William Spencer, proprietor of the Spencer Pharmacy, Central avenue and Ramsey street, left this morning for Oklahoma City, Okla., where he moved several years ago from West Duluth. Mr. Spencer spent the past week in this end of the city attending to his business interests.

Birthday Party.

Mrs. M. C. Murray of 419 North Fifty-fourth avenue west entertained a number of little folks yesterday afternoon in honor of the sixth birthday of her son, Rodger. The afternoon was spent in games, after which refreshments were served. The following were guests: Misses Mildred Richter, Dorothy Smith, Alice Minike, Bessie Minike, Marion Murray, Ruby Winton, Verona Feeley and Masters William Richter, Walter Richter, Henry Filiatrault, Leonard Murray and Robert Feeley.

MOTOR BOAT OWNERS TO ORGANIZE CLUB.

About thirty-five motor boat enthusiasts will meet this evening at the West Duluth Commercial club to organize the proposed West Duluth Boat club. Officers will be elected and a constitution and set of by-laws drawn up. A committee will be appointed to secure a suitable location for a clubhouse and another to request the government officials to clear the channel of sunken logs and snags.

Blomgren-Thorberg.

Miss Alma Blomgren of West Duluth and Adolph Thorberg of Midway were married last evening at the Elim Swedish Lutheran church, Fifty-sixth avenue west and Elinor street. Rev. J. A. Krantz, pastor of the church, read the service. Miss Nannie Thorberg, a sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and P. E. Highmark was groomsman. Mr. Thorberg will make their home at Midway.

Will Go to Canada.

T. F. Fitzgerald, proprietor of the restaurant at 315 Central avenue, has sold his interest in the establishment and is now planning to move with his family to Western Canada, where he expects to settle. Mr. Fitzgerald conducted the restaurant a number of years. He left yesterday for a short fishing trip at Grand Rapids, Minn., accompanied by Peter Deloyia of West Duluth.

Will Return Home.

Howard Vangan, the 5-year-old son of Chris Vangan, 410 South Sixty-sixth avenue west, who was run over by a Northern Pacific freight engine two weeks ago, necessitating the amputation of his right leg below the knee, will be taken to his home tomorrow from St. Luke's hospital, where he was taken immediately after the accident. Dr. D. E. Seashore is attending the boy.

"Dime" Social.

Gate City Temple, No. 10, Pythian Sisters, is holding a "Dime" social this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. G. Brink of Smithville. The West Duluth members went to Smithville on the Northern Pacific train. During the afternoon a program of musical selections and recitations was given.

West Duluth Briefs.

Mrs. J. Gustafson and son, Roy, of Smithville, are spending the month at their old home at Marquette, Mich.

Braydon Brown of 403 South Seventy-first avenue west has returned from a short visit at Carlton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Little and family of 102 North Fifty-sixth avenue west are spending the month at Iron River, Wis.

Mrs. M. E. Allen of 608 North Fifty-seventh avenue west left yesterday for Lake Nebagamon, where she will join a camping party.

Th Young Ladies' Society of Our Savior's Norwegian Lutheran church, Fifty-seventh avenue west and Wadena street, will hold a social and sale in the church parlors tomorrow evening.

The congregation of the Bethel Norwegian Lutheran church, Sixtieth avenue west and Bristol street, will hold a business meeting in the church this evening.

OLDEST OFFICEHOLDER IN WORLD RE-ELECTED.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 15.—John Laws, 90 years old, was elected Saturday for the thirty-first time as register of deeds in Orange county. Laws went into office during the gold excitement of '49 and has never been defeated. He has held office sixty-three years, and is the oldest living office-holder in the world.

He is remarkably well preserved, and always has voted the Democratic ticket.

Laws was a soldier in the Mexican war, and is one of the two surviving ones in North Carolina. He works without glasses.

SOO TRAIN HITS THRESHER.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Aug. 15.—Mrs. William Shaffer was seriously injured by a fragment of an iron boiler which crashed through the window of her home when the thrashing machine of C. W. Smith and John Yocken was struck by a Soo Line passenger and hurled forty feet from the crossing.

Following the collision the boiler of the machine exploded. The pilot of the big passenger engine was demolished and a serious wreck narrowly averted. The owners of the machine escaped injury.

GLEANED ALONG THE POLICE RUN

"Let me go and it's the wedding bells for me."

So said Hilda Beck when she and Adaline La Cooley were brought into police court this morning to answer to charges of vagrancy preferred against them.

Hilda explained that there is a man in Canada who has pleaded with her to become his bride, to which entreaties she turned a deaf ear. She didn't think that she was ready to settle down to domestic felicity. No marital bliss for her until she had seen a little more of life.

But when Hilda took the witness stand in the courtroom this morning she asserted that her outlook had undergone a change. She thought that she would like to have the knot tied which would united her to her further love. Her mother was in the room and she said that the young man had spoken to her when he was in Duluth some time ago and that she had told him he could marry Hilda if he would take care of her. The mother took a very businesslike view of her daughter's marriage, declaring that she has many small children to take care of and that it would lighten her burdens considerable if Hilda were to have an establishment of her own.

Adaline told the court that she would like to accompany Hilda on her journey to her future husband. "I'll act as the bridesmaid," she asserted, "and I'll go right along with Hilda."

The court continued the case until Monday morning and gave them their liberty. If they have gone to Canada in the meantime the case will be dropped. Hilda is 18 years old and Adaline says she is four years her senior.

Hilda was looking more prosperous than she was the last time she was in court to answer a similar charge. She was "all dolled up" this morning, (to quote the officer), with a light tailored suit and nifty trappings to match, while about her head she had a light ribbon.

Perhaps the lights of the downtown white way didn't burn long enough or bright enough or were of the wrong color to suit Hilda. Two nights ago she and her companion crossed the deal line, where the incandescents glow in red globes until dimmed by the rising sun. The police state that they spent the night in a resort. It was on leaving there that the two were arrested yesterday afternoon.

Adaline was not ragged out as "fashionably" as was Hilda. It appeared that she had been in town but a comparatively short time, during which she had chummed with Hilda. The latter said that she got the money with which to buy her clothes from her mother.

The police have been asked to locate Sam Findley, a barber, who is supposed to be in Duluth. His sister, Anna, died yesterday at Minneapolis at 3431 Queen avenue north. He can corroborate the report by calling Highland 1436, on the long distance telephone.

Gus Ferman, "King of the Bowery," had managed to stay away so long that the court gave him a suspended sentence when he admitted that he had been drunk. Gus hadn't been arrested for several months and the court commended his abstinence by letting him go. The police say that Gus hasn't been arrested because he has been out of town. So probably it wasn't all his own fault after all.

• • •

Charles Hornby was caught in the railroad yards yesterday afternoon while trying to steal a ride out of town on a box car. He was planning to "hit the rods," or in other words, ride the brake beam under the car. Any one who has tried it can testify that it's a pretty tough way to travel. No report was made against him and the court suspended sentence.

• • •

Seven men and one woman were arrested yesterday afternoon by Patrolmen Mooney and Callahan on charges of gambling. The blue coats broke up a game of "draw" in Eva Junnilla's boarding house near Sixth avenue west and First street.

Although it was a "nickel ante" and a "dime limit," Gus Carlson claims that he lost $6 in the sitting. Sore because he had lost, he squealed to the policemen, who made a raid on the place.

When arraigned in court Eva denied that she had been gambling and her trial was set for this morning. She was allowed to go on her own recognizance after promising to appear for trial this morning. She failed to show up and a bench warrant was issued for her.

John Mattson, Charles Maki, Victor Lehto and John Junlainen were able to show that they were on-lookers and not participants and given their liberty. Fred Maki, Henry Kari and Albert Oman admitted that they had been trifling with the goddess of chance, for which each paid fines of $5 and costs.

Andrew Smith, treasurer and manager of the Northland Mercantile company, waived examination when his second case was called for hearing in police court today. He was bound over to await the action of the next grand jury.

The last complaint against Smith charges him with the larceny of $1,310 of the company's money between September and December of last year. The first complaint alleged that he had misappropriated personal property of the company to the extent of over $2,000. He had his hearing on that charge last week and was bound over to the grand jury.

Glen Raymond, 21 years old, came to Duluth a couple of days ago to take in the sights. Yesterday afternoon the police arrested him on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. He said that he had no special reason for carrying a loaded revolver in his pocket. Upon his prome to return to his home at Aitkin the court suspended sentence after he pleaded guilty.

• • •

The board of fire commissioners received and opened the bids of three different companies for a combined auto chemical and hose wagon yesterday afternoon. The bids ranged from $5,250 to $5,500. The specifications differed considerably and an adjournment was taken until Friday to consider them. The new outfit will be stationed at headquarters and the hose wagon now there will be transferred to the fire hall being constructed at Seventh avenue east and Ninth street.

OBITUARY

Julien Emile Frederic Massenet, the well known musical composer, is dead at his home in Paris at the age of 70. He had been suffering for a long time from cancer, but his death was unexpected. Among M. Massenet's more noted works were "Le Cid," "Manon" and "Thais." He established his reputation in 1872 with "Don Ceser de Basan." Among others of his notable works were a four-act opera "Le Roi de Lahnre," and "La Navarraise."

Dr. Horace Howard Furness, the distinguished Shakespearean scholar, is dead at his home near Philadelphia. He leaves behind him the most valuable collection of Shakespearean relics ever assembled by an individual. One wing of his great mansion at Wallingford is given up entirely to the relics, works and memorials of Shakespeare. Here are found case after case about the great poet, together with pricless editions of his works. The collections of relics include not only souvenirs of Shakespeare himself, but relics of all the actors and actresses who have essayed Shakespearean roles.

William J. Bawlf, a pioneer grain merchant of Winnipeg, is dead of Bright's disease after an illness that confined him to the house for two months. Mr. Bawlf is survived by Mrs. Bawlf and two daughters, Kathleen and Gladys, both of whom were at home. He was a brother of Nicholas and Dennis Bawlf and has been associated with both in the many years he has been in the grain business in Winnipeg. Previous to going to Winnipeg about eighteen years ago, Mr. Bawlf was in the grain and elevator business at Port Arthur, having come west in the early days of the Western grain trade. He was 52 years of age and was born at Smith's Falls, Ont.

UNITED STATES MAY INTERVENE

Believed That "Kid" McCoy Is Being Held on Flimsy Charge.

London, Aug. 15.—It is thought in some quarters the United States government may intervene in the case of "Kid" McCoy (Norman Selby), the American boxer, who was arrested July 26, on a provisional extradition warrant on a charge of larceny alleged to have been committed at Ostend.

Sheldon L. Grossby, third secretary of the United States embassy, was present at Bow street police court today, when McCoy was again brought up. The magistrate remanded the accused for another week at the request of the Belgian authorities.

Although the papers connected with the suit arrived here several days ago, the attorney for the Belgian legation declared he was unable to proceed with the case until additional papers came from Ostend.

William Phillipps, secretary of the United States embassy, is making an inquiry into the facts of the case on behalf of the embassy.

Friends of the American boxer assert that the Belgian authorities, finding themselves involved in an inexcusable blunder, are endeavoring to negotiate the unconditional release of McCoy.

Detectives who have been working on the case declare openly they have no evidence against McCoy.

GOES TO HARVEST FIELDS.

Ashland Pitcher to Wrestle With Sheaves of Grain.

Ashland, Wis., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—William Snow, who has been pitching good ball for the Ashland team all season, left yesterday for the Head of the Lakes and from there will go to the Dakotas to work in the harvest fields. He was accompanied by Fablan Wier, who has been playing right field for the Ashland team this summer.

Snow has pitched eleven games this season and has won nine of them and the games lost were lost, not by poor pitching but by ragged support back of him. He has been rated as one of the best amateur pitchers in the Northwest.

FATE PLAYS CRUEL TRICK

Immigration Laws Will Prevent Wife Joining Her Dying Husband.

Nestor Norlund Pauperized Himself to Send Her Money for Trip.

Fate has played a cruel trick on Nestor Norlund, a dying pauper consumptive at the county poor farm.

Norlund recently spent his last dollar to provide money for his wife to come from Finland to America.

He has now been informed that strict immigration laws may forbid her landing because he is a dying pauper and she has no visible means of support. She is on her way.

Norlund, although but 29 years old, is said to be in the death grip of tuberculosis. He has been confined to a bed at the St. Louis county pauper hospital since Aug. 9.

He was brought to Duluth from Chisholm where he had been employed off and on as a section hand for the Missabe railroad for several months.

Everything above what it took to support him, Norlund put into a fund. Recently he found that he had saved enough to bring his wife from their old home in Finland to Minnesota. He sent her the money.

Shortly afterwards, illness forced him to abandon his work. Doctors whom he consulted told him that his days were numbered and that he had better go to a hospital. He had no money and was obliged to seek aid from the county.

Gust Norlund, a brother, yesterday told Charles Shogran, clerk of the poor board, that the sick man's wife was already on her way to this country to join him. He said that he did not think that she knew of his illness.

United States immigration laws will not permit the landing of an alien who has no visible means of support or who appears to be penniless.

Mr. Shogran has referred the matter to Brown McDonald, immigration officer, who is now making an attempt to learn when and where the woman is expected to land.

It is probable that she will not be allowed to land and that the steamship company will be required to give the woman return passage to Finland.

Norlund came from Finland two years and a half ago.

COUPLE PAST THREE SCORE AND TEN MARRY.

New York, Aug. 15.—At the age of 75 years, John Christopher Gillet, artist and traveler, married today Mrs. Rachel Kendall, 72 years old and a recent acquaintance of the bridegroom.

"Love makes us all young," said Mr. Gillet, who is a grandfather and whose prospective bride is a grandmother. Their honeymoon will be spent at Mr. Gillet's chateau in the Alps near Geneva.

ORDERED TO "MOVE ON"

Vehicles for Hire Must Not Stand on Superior Street.

Police Are Instructed to Strictly Enforce the Traffic Ordinance.

The police today caused the automobiles, tallyhos, cabs and hacks which have congested both sides of Superior street, particularly between Fourth and Fifth avenues west, to move to other quarters.

Chief Troyer has issued a bulletin to all the members of the department containing explicit instructions as to the enforcement of the traffic ordinance. Special reference is made to motor and other vehicles which are for hire. During the day they must not stand on Superior street. After 7 o'clock in the evening they may occupy the same space allowed them up to this time, except the upper side of Superior street between Fourth and Fifth avenues west.

The patrolmen and officers are further directed to enforce that clause in the ordinance which prohibits any machine from standing more than twenty minutes in one place on Superior street. This will compel the men who have been used to leaving their machines in front of their offices several hours at a time to place them on a convenient side avenue, or some other handy place.

Considerable complaint has been made to the police and other city officials relative to the machines and rigs which have been lined up on Superior street. They have taken up too much valuable space on the main street, which is none too wide under the most favorable conditions. Chief Troyer recognizes that it may make it rather hard for some of the men who are making a living with their cars, but he states that under the circumstances the action taken is necessary.

The bulletin will be of interest and is given in full as follows:

"To All Officers of This Department:

"You are hereby instructed that after this date all vehicles which are being used for hire on the streets of the city of Duluth will be prohibited from standing on Superior street for the purpose of soliciting trade, or for the purpose of waiting for business before 7 o'clock at night, except that space on the southerly side of Superior street west from the westerly line of the Soo depot to Eighth avenue west. After 7 o'clock they will be allowed to occupy the same space which they have been allowed to occupy up to tthis date, except that space on the north side of Superior street, between Fourth and Fifth avenues west. This space is to be reserved for vehicles going to the Lyceum theater when there is a show there. All these vehicles will be compelled to find standing room where they will be less objectionable and where they will congest traffic less than they could do by standing on Superior street, and I would suggest the following places where they may stand if they desire to do so:

"The westerly side of Fourth avenue west from First street to Second street; the northerly side of First street in front of all of the vacant space owned by the county; and that vacant space west of Fifth avenue owned by the government; also the westerly side of Fifth avenue west from First street to Second alley; the southerly side of Michigan street from Fourth avenue west westerly 300 feet; also any space on Michigan street westerly from Sitxth avenue west on tthe lower side.

"All officers are instructed to strictly enforce this order. All vehicles for hire have, however, the same right to drive on Superior street at any point to take on passengers or discharge passengers as any other vehicle would have to load or unload passengers, or do any other line of business, but shall not be permitted to solicit trade or wait for customers not already engaged and prepared to go.

"Officers are also requested to enforce the ordinance with reference to private vehicles standing on Superior street to exceed twenty minutes at a time. That is, to say, persons who wish to leave their automobiles or other vehicles on the street during the whole time that they are occupying their offices are requested to find space on the avenues or some other place other than Superior street, so that the traffic during business hours of the day may be kept clear for the use of the general public for the purpose of transacting business and driving thereon.

"C. H. TROYER,
"Chief of Police."

NO NEGLECT THIS YEAR

Duluth May Send 500 Boosters to the County Fair.

Several committees of the Commercial club, which have combined to make the Duluth visit to the county fair at Hibbing the greatest boosting effort ever attempted by Duluth, are preparing for a campaign to recruit a crowd of 500 to make the trip.

Tickets have been issued, which will be good for the fare on the special train, and admission to the fair grounds. Each ticket will be sold at a rate that will leave a sufficient margin to pay for the band, caps, badges, pennants and canes. The committee must sell 400 tickets in order that the margin over the regular fare may care for the extra expense and they believe they will sell many more than that number.

The fair visitors will leave Duluth on a special train at 9:30 a. m. Aug. 31, arriving at Hibbing at about noon. Headed by the Third Regiment band, the Duluth visitors will parade through Hibbing and to the fair grounds. The crowd will remain at Hibbing until 9:30 at night, and the special will arrive in Duluth on the return trip about midnight.

Duluth has neglected the county fair to a great extent, but the Commercial club will make an effort to make up for past neglect this year. The special train is being arranged for Duluth as a whole. The county fair is an institution in which Duluth should be as greatly interested as is Hibbing or any other town in the county. In fact, Duluth should show more interest than any other city, for the agricultural development of St. Louis county means more to Duluth.

All classes of business and professional men will be appealed to to make the trip to the county fair a big success by their attendance. The Commercial club committees are anxious that Duluth shall show its interest in the fair by large attendance and enthusiastic support, and if they obtain the co-operation needed to carry out the present plans, Duluth will make good.

RAILROADS

MANY MORE BUSHELS WILL BE MARKETED

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—About 4,000,000 more bushels of grain will be marketed on the Dakota division of the Great Northern this year than last year, the estimates received from all stations placing the total prospective yield at 32,000,000 bushels. Last year 28,000,000 bushels of grain were marketed on the division, which exceeded the previous record by 2,000,000 bushels.

On the Minot division about 28,000,000 bushels of grain will be marketed, according to the estimates.

SUPERIOR MAN IS GIVEN CONTRACT

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fred Baxter of Superior has secured the contract grading twelve miles Soo extension from Ironton west through the mining territory in sections 10, 9, 8, 17 and on to 18, township 46, range 29, thus opening up numerous iron mines on the north Cuyuna range.

Eight cars of material and a car of horses have arrived at Ironton and work has commenced at clearing the right of way. The terminus of the extension is only nine miles from Brainerd and the Soo is supposed to build to Brainerd soon.

WAS VETERAN ENGINEER.

Henry Noble, Killed in Milwaukee Wreck, Long With Road.

Aberdeen, S. D., Aug. 15.—Henry Noble, the locomotive engineer who was killed in the wreck of the Olympian, the fast coast limited of the Milwaukee road, near Seattle on Monday night, was one of the veteran railroad men of the Northwest.

Noble was in the employ of the Milwaukee road as an engineer for thirty-five years. He ran an engine on that road in South Dakota before the line reached Aberdeen, and was given a choice run on the Olympian when the railroad reached the coast city. He was a thirty-second degree Mason and a Shriner, holding his membership in the Aberdeen lodge.

Ross Heads T. St. L. & W. Road.

WILL EXTEND SOO LINE.

Bismarck, N. D., Aug. 15.—Confirmation of the reports that the Soo Line was about to extend its Plaza extension and Flaxton line has been given by the filing of resolutions with the secretary of state, authorizing such construction work.

The Plaza line will be extended from Plaza, Mountrail county, across that county, and in a southwesterly direction through McKenzie county, entering Montana at a point about thirty miles south of the Missouri river.

The Ambrose line in Divide county will be extended from Ambrose to the Montana boundary.

FREIGHT AGENTS ARE OPTIMISTS.

Richard Salter, traveling freight agent of the Minneapolis & St. Louis, is in the city today. Mr. Salter stated that the past month has shown an increase in the freight receipts of the Western railroads and that the present month is expected to show a still further increase in the business. Mr. Salter stated that the grain movement is expected to be the heaviest in years.

David Small, traveling freight agent of the Erie, is here today with the information that the freight receipts of his road are very satisfactory at the present time and that the coming fall is expected to be the best in a number of years.

CROSBY WOMAN IS HURT IN AUTO WRECK.

Crosby, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. W. A. Guith, wife of a prominent mining man of Crosby, was seriously hurt in an automobile accident, falling from a running car and striking on her head on a hard street in Crosby.

WEST END

HERALD BRANCH:
Herman Olson, Manager, 1823 West Superior Street.

Sanford W. Hill, one of West end's oldest residents, made the first purchase at the new public market place at the corner of Twenty-first avenue west and Superior street. He passed by the stands yesterday shortly after the first farmer arrived and seeing the fresh vegetables made a purchase.

The new market place is popular, if the interest taken by the women of this end of the city is any evidence. The produce brought by the farmers is all fresh and was easily sold to the women. Of the six farmers at the stands yesterday, not one was compelled to take anything home with him. One of the farmers brought his two daughters along and they proved to be capable saleswomen as the morning wore on.

Most of the farmers sold their produce and fruit by noon, after which they went about the West end and visited the department stores. Most of the farmers remained in the city until the latter part of the afternoon. The farmers, who were at the stands yesterday will come again Saturday morning. The market days are Wednesday and Saturday.

The prices of the produce and fruit yesterday were remarkably low. In addition to the low prices, the produce was fresh and clean. Among some of the prices charged yesterday for fruits and vegetables are the following: potatoes, 80 cents a bushel; cabbages, 5 cents a head; spinach, 15 cents a peck; radishes, three bunches for 5 cents; onions, 5 cents for four bunches; carrots, 5 cents for three bunches; head lettuce, 3 cents a head; wax beans, 5 cents a quart, and peas, 30 cents a quart.

LODGES ABANDON THEIR OLD HOME

Sloan Block, Headquarters of West End Societies, Being Remodeled.

With the exception of the large hall room, the Sloan building at the corner of Twentieth avenue west and Superior street will soon be forgotten as the meeting place of hundreds of lodge and church members. The second floor of the building is being remodeled and improved.

All the side halls are being changed into offices, while the rear rooms formerly used for banquets and parlors are also being arranged for offices. About $3,000 is being spent on this improvement. The work will be finished by the latter part of this month.

Residents of the West end remember when the Sloan building housed every lodge and organization in this end of the city. There was no other hall in the early nineties and the two-story brick building, the first in the West end, had things its own way. Political caucuses, church meetings, concerts, amateur shows and lodge meetings were all held in the halls of the building. With the construction of several new buildings in the past few years and more recently the Woodman hall, many lodges have left the old structure for the new and up-to-date lodge rooms.

With the departure of the lodges the owners decided to remodel the floor for offices. Already two of the suites have been leased to professional men. The offices at present are all occupied by physicians or dentists, with the exception of a real estate office to the rear of the floor.

SON MAY FOLLOW IN FATHER'S FOOTSTEPS.

Like father, like son.

Whether Walter A. Swanstrom is planning further political activity is not known, but old residents recall with interest the time when E. J. Swanstrom was county commissioner for the Third district. E. J. Swanstrom, father of W. A. Swanstrom, who is a candidate for county commissioner on the Republican ticket, was one of Duluth's pioneers. He was a member of the council, was elected state senator and representative several times and was appointed receiver for the land office by President Arthur.

The county commissioner office was the first held by Mr. Swanstrom and West end residents are wondering if history will repeat itself. The son was born and brought up in the West end.

Officers Installed.

The following officers of Lysglimt Lodge No. 7, I. O. G. T., were installed at a special ceremony held last evening at Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue west and First street: P. A. Carlson, chief templar; Anton Johnson, vice chief templar; Emil Peterson, secretary; Miss Johanna Strand, financial secretary; Harold Soberg, treasurer, and Mrs. L. A. Simonson, lodge deputy. Following the installation a social hour was enjoyed.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION

Will be given by YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY of the SWEDISH MISSION CHURCH, Friday, Aug. 16; steamer Columbia. Boat leaving Twenty-first avenue west dock at 7:45 p. m. and Lake avenue dock at 8:30 p. m. Admission 25c. Everybody welcome.

Plan Camping Trip.

De Vohn, A. R. De Vohn and Ben Schweiger. The part will be chaperoned by Mrs. Charles Heath and the outing will be spent at the Larchwood cottage.

Dies After Short Illness.

Hilma Bill, 25 years old, 1909 West First street, died at her home yesterday afternoon after a short illness from tuberculosis. Miss Bill was employed as a dressmaker in this end of the city and was well known among West end residents. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Olson & Crawford undertaking rooms. Interment will be at the Lutheran cemetery.

Will Give Social.

The Daughters of Norway will hold an ice cream and necktie social this evening at the Kalamazoo hall, 18 West Superior street. The Sons of Norway lodge has been invited to the affair, and about 400 members of the order are expected to take part in the festivities. A program of musical numbers and addresses will be rendered during the evening.

Attend Father's Funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Lundholm of 2506 West Third street left yesterday for Winthrop, Minn., where they attended the funeral of the former's father this afternoon. Mr. Lundholm, who was 69 years old at his death Tuesday, was one of the pioneers of Winthrop. Mr. and Mrs. Lundholm will return tomorrow.

Carlson Funeral.

Elizabeth Carlson, 20 years old, 2006 West Sixth street, died yesterday afternoon at St. Mary's hospital after a short illness. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the Olson & Crawford undertaking rooms, 2118 West First street. Rev. W. E. Harmann of St. Peter's Episcopal church will officiate and interment will be at the Lutheran cemetery.

West End Briefs.

The Parthenoe society of the Swedish Mission church was entertained last evening at the home of Erick Westlund, 619 North Twenty-first avenue west.

At the regular midweek services at Grace M. E. church this evening, the sacrament will be administered.

The French Naturalization club will hold a meeting tomorrow evening, and several of the candidates for county offices will be present and speak to the members.

LAWYERS WILL CONSIDER WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION ACT

Of special interest at the annual meeting of the state bar association next week at St. Paul will be a discussion of the proposed workmen's compensation act, which is fathered by William E. McEwen of Duluth, former state labor commissioner; J. L. Washburn of Duluth, H. V. Mercer of Minneapolis and L. S. Gillette.

If the bar association takes favorable action on the proposed measure it will go to the legislature at its next session. Mr. McEwen, who with Messrs. Mercer and Gillette spent considerable time in Europe studying labor conditions abroad with the view of securing ideas which might help in the drafting of such a law, will take part in the discussion at the bar association meeting.

The committee which will present it to the association consists of H. V. Mercer, Minneapolis; J. L. Washburn, Duluth; Charles Loring, Crookston; Henry Morgan, Albert Lea.

The proposed law seeks to provide a speedy and fair remedy for workmen who are injured, the compensation to be based on the wage scale. A synopsis of the law follows:

A code instead of a mere law.

An exclusive method of compensation for all injuries received by workmen under circumstances defined except such as are covered by federal compensation.

Dangerous employments so defined as to cover every injury received due to the dangers, risks or accidents of that employment in order that the unit of liability shall be the actual, as distinguished from the theoretical, danger in each individual case and industry—(an alternative provision suggested for enumerating employments so that some may be left out if that theory is preferred.

As to compensation in death cases if dependents.

No compensation for first two weeks except medical and funeral expenses.

A compensation based on 50 per cent of the first $2,000 of the wages for a period of five years if there are persons wholly dependent on the injured during that time. If no dependents, the medical, hospital and funeral expenses to the limit of $200. The limit paid for death is $3,000.

For loss of two members or an equivalent disfigurement, an additional 40 per cent for five years if workman remains alive.

For the loss of one member or its equivalent, 15 per cent.

If the body be otherwise disfigured, a just proportion of these percentages.

If a workman desires to contribute to the carrying charges he may get proportionately larger percentages of his wages.

Conditions varying compensation so as to be equitable to minors and allow cripples and aged to stand a relatively fair show of employment.

Regulation of doctors and control of attorney fees.

Procedure through a board of arbitration to fix the amount of compensation which shall be speedy in time, simple in conduct, and final in amount, unless set aside for fraud, gross error or want of jurisdiction.

If award is set aside by the court, it may refer the claim for assessment.

MRS. WILSON IS OPPOSED TO SMOKING BY WOMEN

Seagirt, N. J., Aug. 15.—For the first time since Woodrow Wilson became the Democratic presidential candidate Mrs. Wilson appeared in his campaign. She attended in person her husband's daily conference with reporters, although heretofore she has made special requests that she be not quoted or written about in the papers.

What Mrs. Wilson wished to have fully understood was that if she becomes the first lady of the land she will not, as has been said in a widely distributed interview, have packages of cigarettes in her personal desk at the White House and indulge in smoking them with her callers.

Through Governor Wilson, Mrs. Wilson asked that publicity be given to a letter she had written to the editor of the State Journal, at Columbus, Ohio, repudiating an alleged interview with her in which she defended cigarette smoking for women. The interview had come to her in a letter signed "American Citizen," which said:

"Dear Madam: I can scarcely think of any greater calamity to the young women of the nation than to read such a preachment as your interview offers them. I am a working man, and I see men lose their jobs almost every day because they are incapacitated for work by the use of the cigarette. If smoking does this for strong men, what will it do for girls and women?"

The "interview" was, indeed, a cordial indorsement of the woman smoker. Here are some of its assuring phrases, all credited to Mrs. Wilson:

"A woman writer for a syndicate of Sunday newspapers asked Mrs. Woodrow Wilson if she agreed with Gertrude Atherton's opinion of the smoking of cigarettes by women. She smilingly exhibited three cigarette boxes, piled in the corner of her desk, all but empty.

"'Why shouldn't a woman smoke, if she enjoys it?' she queried.

"'Why hasn't she just as much right to a cigarette as a man? Certainly, I agree with Mrs. Atherton that any existing prejudice against women smoking is to the last silly and absurd.

"'Some women feel that a cigarette calms their nerves and helps their brains into working order. Personally, smoking diffuses my thoughts instead of concentrating them. I enjoy it as I enjoy after-dinner coffee. Both are pleasant ways of ending and finishing off; both add to conviviality and good fellowship.'"

The editor of the Ohio State Journal, it was clear, had been much incensed at the apologies for the cigarette habit among women attributed to Mrs. Wilson, as he wrote on Aug. 10 an editorial in which he called for the defeat of Governor Wilson or a repudiation from his wife. If there was no mistake about it, he wrote "Mrs. Woodrow Wilson shouldn't be mistress of the White House."

If the Ohio editor was emphatic Mrs. Wilson was certainly not less so. After the reporters had said they would gladly publish her letter to the Ohio editor, she asked for an hour's time in which to write one. This was what she prepared:

"Dear Sir: I have just received a copy of The Journal with your editorial entitled 'Smoking Women,' and I beg leave to indignantly deny the statement that I approve of women smoking cigarettes. The interview upon which your editorial was based is a pure invention. I intensely dislike the cigarette smoking habit for women; in fact, so strong is my feeling on the subject that my real danger lies in being unjust and unkind in my judgment of those who differ with me in this respect.

"But, certainly no woman in our household ever has or ever will smoke. Quite apart from the bad taste of it, I believe with you that it has an extremely injurious effect on the nerves. ELLEN A. WILSON.

"(Mrs. WOODROW WILSON.)"

Governor Wilson, in approving the letter sent out by Mrs. Wilson, offered what he thought might prove an explanation for the interview.

"I do not think it was maliciouly invented," he said. "There is a rather well-known writer who signs herself Mrs. Wilson Woodrow, and she no doubt has been confused with Mrs. Wilson."

Mrs. Wilson Woodrow was formerly married to a relative of Governor Wilson, and it is understood that her views on the matter of women who smoke are different from those held in the household of the Democratic candidate.

Well Known in Duluth.

Mrs. Wilson Woodrow, who is a rather noted writer of short stories and also author of several books, is well known to many people in Duluth, having been a frequent visitor here years ago when her sister, Mrs. Jane W. Guthrie, resided here. Both Mrs. Woodrow and Mrs. Guthrie have made their residence in New York for several years past.

LET CONTRACT FOR SKYSCRAPER

Contractor George H. Lounsberry yesterday secured the general contract for five additional stories to the Fidelity building on West Superior street near Lake avenue. The construction will be carried through in reinforced concrete and will cost $50,000.

The additional stories will conform with the architecture of the present block and will give Duluth another skyscraper, twelve stories high, and second only to the Alworth building. In the additional space the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad has leased two floors. More than half of the new office room has already been spoken for. Work will be started at once. It is planned to have the building completed by June 1. C. E. Nystrom is architect.

WAS FIRST WHITE CHILD IN STATE

Born 78 years ago last June in the old Pokegama near Pine City, L. W. Ayer of Little Falls, the first white man to be left in Minnesota by the stork, is still hale and hearty and a most enthusiastic booster for the upper part of the state.

The old gentleman was in the city on business yesterday. He is a timber estimator and cruiser and continues to make regular trips the same as he did half a century ago.

Mr. Ayer says that Northern Minnesota is destined to be the best part of the state, which will make Duluth one of the largest and most prosperous cities in the country. He says that the agricultural possibilities are only being scratched and are due for a wonderful development in coming years.

NURSE AND SWIMMING INSTRUCTOR DROWNED.

Dubuque, Iowa, Aug. 15. — Miss Frankie Kemp, nurse in a local hospital and, Edward Erner were drowned in the Mississippi river here late yesterday. Erner was teaching the young woman to swim when it is supposed that he was seized with cramps. A sister of Miss Kemp stood on the river bank and saw them struggle in the water and go down.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

WILL SETTLE CONTROVERSY

"The meeting of the imperial council of the Modern Samaritans ordered by Judge Dancer for Aug. 26 will settle the whole controversy, I believe," said Z. H. Austin of Minneapolis last evening. Mr. Austin is a member of the imperial council and of the executive board, the membership of the latter being the storm center of the civil war within the Samaritan ranks. He is also actuary for the order.

He had just read the decision handed down by Judge Dancer in district court yesterday afternoon in which the court ruled that the imperial council meeting of June last was not legally held and that therefore the ousting of A. E. McManus from life membership of the council and from the office of imperial counsel, the ousting of Imperial Scribe W. A. Hicken, and the election of C. E. Bombach as treasurer were not legal.

Mr. Austin professed himself to be very well satisfied with the order of the court. He is of the Christie faction in the fight and sees no reason why the imperial council at its meeting this month should retreat from its former position at which time the expulsion of Mr. McManus by Imperial Good Samaritan Christie was ratified and provision made for the expulsion of Imperial Scribe Hicken should he not obey orders. The election of Mr. Bombach to succeed O. F. Collier as imperial treasurer also occurred.

"I cannot predict what the actions of the imperial council will be," said Mr. Austin, "for I do not know what their individual minds are, nor do I know what work has been done among them. But they were well informed at the last meeting of the actual state of affairs and were, one and all, very indignant with the Collier-Hicken crowd. There has been no reason for a change since, it seems to me, and I believe they will ratify their actions of June. That meeting will be legal beyond peradventure and will settle many points in the controversy —most likely all of them."

FAVOR AN EARLY LID FOR TEXAS

Democrats Renominate Colquitt After Cheering Senator Bailey.

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 15.—A thirty-minute demonstration for United States Senator Bailey was the feature of the final session of the state Democratic convention. The demonstration arose over the adoption of a resolution commending Senator Bailey for his course in congress.

Governor O. B. Colquitt was renominated, and his platform adopted. Among the principal planks are:

Compulsory saloon closing, 9:30 p. m. to 7:30 a. m.

Provisions to enable cities or towns to keep saloons out of residence districts.

Compulsory arbitration for labor disputes in Texas.

Prohibiting corporations from contributing to campaign funds.

Prison reforms.

Bonded warehouses for holding cotton.

A stock and bond law amendment permitting railroads to issue bonds for permanent improvements.

A 5-cent tax for Confederate pension purposes.

MINNESOTA POLITICS

Eberhart Press Agents Proceed on the "Claim Everything" Plan—State Expenditures, the Primary Law and Gross Earnings Tax Increase in Governor's Campaign—Sept. 17 Is Last Day of Registration in Three Large Cities.

Eberhart Files.

Adolph O. Eberhart has filed for the Republican nomination for governor of Minnesota. There is nothing surprising in that. The governor has been campaigning, more or less, for the last two years, and that he would file for renomination was to be expected.

Less than five weeks remain before the primaries. The first acknowledged campaign utterance from the Eberhart managers will come in a few days, when a pamphlet will be issued in defense of the Eberhart record. The governor has announced that he will speak at many county fairs this fall, and presumably several of the county fair speeches will come before the primaries.

A bombardment from all sides has put the governor on the defensive and some of his press agents are now picturing him as an unfortunate victim of a vicious conspiracy, who has been backed into a corner and is now prepared to fight. The governor is in a corner all right, and the voters of the state will be interested in watching the defensive measures adopted by him and his friends.

The press agents also declare that the governor will stand on his record. In calling attention to the record, they move on the "claim everything" theory, leaving others to convince the public that efforts are being made to mislead them. The claim that the governor's administration has been economical will hardly stand under the searchlight thrown on state expenditures by Chester A. Congdon, William E. Lee, L. C. Spooner and others, and the fact that the direct state tax in Minnesota this year is the highest in history is hard ot combat.

Eberhart's friends regard as a strong plank the calling of the extra session, which was called only after a party convention has issued a mandate to the state central committee to provide a direct vote on governor. The governor may not have thought of the second choice primary law when he called the extra session, but even though he did, he knew that the primary law would postpone the direct vote for three months. The governor may be no better off in public esteem now, but he certainly wasn't strong enough to count much in a direct primary last June, and a committee-arranged primary would have been held at that time.

The governor's friends will also claim credit for the increase in the railroad gross earnings tax. Anybody with even a superficial knowledge of public affairs in Minnesota knows how much the governor had to do with increasing the gross earnings tax. Legislators who were responsible for that measure are likely to say some unkind things of the governor when they find his friends are claiming for him credit to which he is not by the longest stretch of imagination entitled.

"The people will not stand for such abuse as has been heaped on Governor Eberhart," the Eberhart press agents cry in a plea for pity. Pity is about all the sentiment a majority of the people have for Eberhart—pity for the man out of his element.

Eddy Visits Duluth.

Frank Eddy of Sauk Centrre, candidate for the Republican nomination for congressman-at-large, was in Duluth yesterday.

"I have only two predictions to make," he said. "One is that Knute Nelson will be re-elected, and the other is that Martin Falk will not get more votes than all other candidates for governor combined. That's as far as I will go in making predictions."

Mr. Eddy says that he has been over the state and has found General Apathy in complete control of the situation. Nobody who has attempted to make speeches has been able to draw crowds, and personal work is difficult.

"With only five weeks before the primaries, nobody can do a great deal of personal work and the man who is best known and in whom the people have confidence will have the best chance at the primaries," said Mr. Eddy. "I look for a light primary vote, and unless a strong campaign is started to educate the people into the workings of the second choice provision of the primaray law, I do not look for the second choice to be generally exercised. Either with a willful desire to mislead the people or through ignorance of the effect of the law, many papers are advising voters to record only one choice."

Mr. Eddy is making a campaign on the plea that his congressional experience will make him more valuable to the people in the one term in congress than an entirely new man would be. The state will be redistricted before the next election, so the congressman-at-large will be able to serve but one term. Mr. Eddy claims that a new man could do little in one term, while his congressional experience would be a valuable asset.

Mr. Eddy represented the old Seventh district in congress. He lived at Glenwood, Pope county, at the time. When the Seventh was divided into the Seventh and Ninth in 1900, Mr. Eddy dropped out, and he has been out of politics since that time.

"The contest is between me, L. O. Thorpe and Jim Manahan," said Mr. Eddy. "Dehnel will not count much, and I don't know whether W. H. Eustis will file. Incidentally, I don't see how Jim Manahan could file for office on the Republican ticket. His Democratic record is as good as my Republican record, and if I should become a candidate for office on the Democrati cticket, I would be laughed out of the contest."

Mr. Eddy met friends in Duluth and talked over the situation with them. He said he is satisfied that he will fare well in the Eighth district, where he is well known.

Canfield Flies.

E. H. Canfield of Luverne filed yesterday for the Republican nomination for railroad and warehouse commissioner for the four-year-term. He will thus be a candidate against Judge Ira B. Mills. J. F. Rosenwald, who filed for the six-year term under the assumption that Mr. Mills would also be a candidate for that term, is chagrined over the shift by which Charles E. Elmquist becomes his opponent. He was thinking of amending his filing, but Mr. Canfield's action heads off any move in that direction. Mr. Rosenwald and Mr. Canfield have issued Progressive platforms and will make a contest on the plea that new blood is needed on the commission.

Working For Andrist.

Dr. J. Andrist of Minneapolis, a brother of C. M. Andrist, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, was in Duluth yesterday. Dr. Andrist says that his brother's strength over the state is increasing daily and that he believes he will be returned a winner at the primaries.

Sept. 17 Last Day to Register.

Primary election day, Sept. 17, is the last day of registration in Duulht, St. Paul and Minneapolis.

County Auditor Odin Halden and Special Counsel Charles E. Adams are satisfied that the new primary law implies repeal of the section providing for the last registration day the second Saturday before the primaries.

Duluth voters must register Sept. 3, Sept. 10 or Sept. 17, or they will lose their votes.

The law is said to be intended to prevent corruption in the three large cities. As a matter of fact, it is a "joker" intended to cut down the vote in the three cities. It is of a piece with the seven-senator law and other legislation effected through the alignment of the country against the cities.

If city voters are wise, they will not allow the "joker" to have the intended effect. They will arouse themselves to the privileges of citizenship and will register before the primaries, and vote at the primaries and at the election.

Heretofore the primary election day has been the first day for registration. Voters who failed to vote at the primaries had two more chances to register before the election. This year their chances will be gone with the primaries, and unless they take an interest in the election before the primaries and register, interest after the primaries will not save their right to vote.

The situation is one that calls for the attention of every candidate for office. A campaign of education is necessary to arouse city voters to their public duty, and even the greatest campaign that can be waged cannot prevent a great reduction in the vote in the three cities at the primaries and at the election.

King Is for Wilson.

Duluth friends of John E. King, former state librarian, have received copies of his new paper, the Hemet News, published at Hemet, Cal. Mr. King is a partner with W. A. Potter, also a former Minnesotan, and they are getting out a bright paper in the California town. Far from the scenes of former political activity, Mr. King is boosting for Wilson and confidently predicting that California will deliver its electoral votes to the Democratic nominee.

Keefe Flies Again.

Joseph R. Keefe of North Redwood has filed for renomination on the Democratic ticket for the house seat he now holds for the Nineteenth district. Mr. Keefe is the author of the Keefe law providing for the direct advisory vote on United States senator, and has been prominent in framing other beneficial legislation. He has served but one term, but made a remarkable record in that term. He will be opposed by C. M. Bendixen of Morgan, who has come out for the Republican nomination.

AGED WOMAN IS LOST IN WOODS

Word reached Duluth last evening that Mrs. Christine Lee, 63 years old, of Twentieth avenue west and Superior street, has been missing in the woods about Grand Lake for forty-eight hours. Grand Lake is a small settlement about twenty-five miles from Duluth, on the D., M. & N. railroad.

The information was telephoned to police headquarters by a man who refused to leave his name. When the news was conveyed to her home, the missing woman's daughters were shocked by the unexpected report. They said their mother had gone to Grand Lake to visit with the West family and had intended to pick berries while away. If she is lost, it is believed that she became confused while in the woods picking berries.

Her daughters left for Grand Lake today to join in the search which is being made for their mother, but up to 1 o'clock no word had been received from them.

PICNIC DAY IN ZENITH CITY

Two large picnics are being held in Duluth today. Clan Stewart is holding forth at Fond du Lac, while the local butchers are at Fairmont park in force.

Record crowds attended both gatherings. The steamer Columbia was loaded with people when she steamed into the harbor from Booth's dock at 9 o'clock this morning. The boat landed at the Fond du Lac dock shortly after 11 o'clock, allowing the picnickers ample time to spread their lunches before the beginning of the sports program.

At Fairmont park the activities were scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock, but some of the more enterprising began to gather with their baskets before that hour. Towards noon the street cars traveling parkwards began to be crowded. Hundreds more will go out this afternoon and evening. Those who wish may dance either afternoon or evening at the pavilion.

The programs of both picnics include the usual run of races and contests, for which suitable prizes have been offered.

M'NAMARAS WERE NOT GUILTY OF MURDER, IS DARROW'S STATEMENT

with crime," said Darrow, in concluding, "that I was not sorry for; that I could not find motives that moved his poor weak brain and I tell you today as Mr. Steffens told you from the witness stand, there will come a time when crime will disappear, but it will never come by building jails and penitentiaries and scaffolds, but by changing the condition of life under which men have lived and died."

Asked No Sympathy.

Darrow first faced the jury late Wednesday, at the conclusion of Attorney Rogers' argument, to make the final plea in his own behalf. At the outset he informed the jury that he would not appeal to their sympathies, against which they had been warned by the district attorney and there was no note of supplication in his opening remarks.

The Chicago lawyer poured torrents of wrath and denunciation upon those whom he declared had plotted to destroy him.

From an arraignment of his enemies, Mr. Darrow went briefly into his career as an advocate for labor, and then came to an analysis of the evidence produced against him to suport the charge that he had bribed George N. Lockwood, a prospective juror in the McNamara case. For three hours he spoke and touched upon every phase of the case.

Assistant District Attorney W. J. Ford, who sat near him, was made the object of repeated invectives. District Attorney Fredericks and Detective Burns were termed as the tools of the Steel trust. The National Erectors' association, designated by Darrow as the arch-conspirator against him because of his labors for the working man, was bitterly assailed as an enemy of society. Collectively, all were denounced as "as cruel a band of cut throats as ever pursued a man since the world was born."

"Not for Bribery."

Darrow declared he was not being prosecuted for bribery, but because he had led in the battle of organized labor.

"I have committed one crime," he said, "which is like the crime against the Holy Ghost, which cannot be forgiven. I have stood for the weak and poor. I have stood for the men who toil. And therefore I have stood against them. Now is their chance."

The enemies of labor, he charged, had long sought to get him out of the way.

"They would stop my voice, which from the time I was a babe my father and mother taught me never to raise except for justice and freedom and in the cause of the weak and the poor. They would stop it with the penitentiary.

"Oh, you wild, insane members of the Steel trust and Erectors' association! Oh, you mad hounds of detectives who are willing to do your masters' will! Oh, you district attorneys! You know not what you do! Let me say that if you can succeed in placing me behind prison walls, within the grayden walls of San Quentin, there will breed a silence more ominus and eloquent than any word that my poor lips could ever frame. And do you think that you could destroy the hopes of the poor and oppressed if you did?

Ten Thousand Would Arise.

"Don't you know that upon my persecution and destruction there would arise 10,000 men abler than I have been, willing to sacrifice more than I have sacrificed, in a righteous cause, and those men would carry this banner to the end?"

Enumerating all to whom immunity had been extended in the effort to convict him, Mr. Darrow asked why it was his associates in the McNamara case had not been prosecuted. The answer, he said, was because Davis lived in Los Angeles and it was not the intention of the authorities to prosecute any one in this city.

Bert H. Franklin and John H. Harrington, former employes of Darrow and the state's chief witnesses against him, were assailed with invective. Darrow declared they had perjured themselves in order to gain freedom for that service. Evidence of their alleged offenses, he said, was introduced for the sake of poisoning the minds of the jury against him. He defended his acts as chief counsel for the McNamaras and declared he had violated no law in preparing that case.

Referring to Ford's denunciation of him as being morally responsible for the Times explosion, Darrow again excoriated the prosecutor. He said he had never counselled crime or violence, but always gentleness, kindness and forgiveness to every human being. Conditions existed, however, he said, that brought about such crimes, and despite prosecutions, they would happen over and over again, "until you go down to the fundamental cause."

ships engaged in foreign trade, foreign shipbuilding materials are admitted free of tariff to the United States, and the interstate commerce commission is given power to break up any combination of rail and water lines which it finds is not for "the public good."

Two of the six members of the conference committee—Senator Brandegee and Representative Frederick C. Stevens of Minnesota—declined to sign the report. Those who did attach their names to the agreement were Senators Bristow and Simmons and Representative Adamson and Sims.

Provisions of Bill.

As perfected in the conference committee, the canal bill now provides in brief:

Free passage for American ships engaged in coastwise trade. American registry for American-owned foreign-built ships engaged exclusively in foreign trade.

No tariff on foreign shipbuilding materials for use in this country.

Trust-owned ships prohibited from the canal.

Railroads prohibited from owning competing waterway lines operating "through the canal or elsewhere," when such ownership is detrimental to the public welfare.

Interstate commerce commission authorized to investigate ownership of water lines by railways and sanction it where it is beneficial.

inspectors have surreptitiously visited Vallon and Webber in their cells and told them that they might tell what they pleased about Lieut. Becker, but they should be informed on the big fellows they might as well make away with themselves, as they would meet death later.

Has Case Against Becker.

Mr. Sullivan said, after seeing District Attorney Whitman:

"Whitman has made a case against Becker, and none of Becker's blackmailing employers seem to care a hang about Becker's situation. In fact, they have sent word to Rose, Webber and Vallon to throw Becker to the wolves. But they are determined that their own names shall not be brought out. Rose will make good, but Webber and Vallon have been reached, and I am afraid they have made up their minds to weaken. I have told Vallon that he is not playing square and that I will no longer act as his counsel."

In the confession of "Bald Jack" Rose, as prepared by the gambler for District Attorney Whitman and printed this morning with Rose's own spelling and punctuation, Rose declares that Becker had decided to kill Rosenthal himself if others had not done the work. After the murder, Rose says, he met Becker by appointment near the scene of the killing.

Part of Rose's Confession.

In his written confession Rose says:

I opened the conversation by saying: My God, Charlie, this is horrible. There will be hell to pay. He said: What is the matter? Don't worry. Leave all that to me. I asked: Have you seen him? and he said: I saw the squealing ——. I would have liked to take my knife out and cut a piece of his tongue out, and hang it on the —— building as a warning to possible future squealers. He said: Well, I was saved the trouble doing it myself. He said I because tired waiting for you fellows to get the gang to do it so decided tonight to do it myself.

I asked him how, well, he said, after I left Jack Sullivan I instructed Otto to drive by the Metropole and to slow down without stopping I intended if Rosenthal was there to take out my gun blaze away at him and then tell Otto to keep going, but he wasn't there. I said well what was these fellows he said I will take good care of everybody. Go to Webber he said, see that those fellows get enough money to get out of town any about a thousand dollars between them which Webber said he would, which makes 1500 from Webber.

The grand jury prepared to resume its investigation into the Rosenthal case today. District Attorney Whitman's assistants are making an investigation of real estate transactions, information having come to the state's attorney that within the last year one police inspector has invested over $200,000 in choice uptown lots.

Hold Big Mass Meeting.

The resolute determination of the citizens of New York to rid their police force of its system of graft and blackmail was given forcible expression last night at a mass meeting held at the historic hall of Cooper Union, when they appointed a vigilance committee of prominent women and men to see that the public officers now engaged in exposing "the treasonable alliance of the police with organized crime" do their full duty.

The mass meeting, which typified the public indignation aroused by the revelations of police corruption growing out of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was attended by a crowd that overflowed the hall. There were 4,000 in the auditorium, with hundreds standing up, while blocking the streets outside were thousands more who clamored for admittance.

No Levity There.

It was one of the largest "town meetings" held in the city in years, and there was no mistaking the earnestness which pervaded the gathering as it voiced its approval of the denunciation of the police "system," which the prominent speakers on the program employed when speaking of exisctng conditions. The atmosphere of levity often present at public mass meetings was wholly absent, and each speaker was heard with respectful attention, only interrupted by dignified applause.

The resolution appointing the vigilance committee, which was given the power to increase its number to thirty that if they informed on the big fellows they might as well make away with themselves, as they would meet death later.

The atmosphere of levity often present at public mass meetings was wholly absent, and each speaker was heard with respectful attention, only interrupted by dignified applause.

The resolution appointing the vigilance committee, which was given the power to increase its number to thirty and to solicit funds and to engage counsel, called "upon the police department to put forth additional efforts looking to the arrest of all those implicated in the Rosenthal murder; upon the district attorney to bend every energy of his office, "as he has been doing," the suppression and conviction of those guilty of this crime; upon the aldermanic investigating committee to make a thorough, nonpartisan and unsparing examination into existing conditions and into causes which give rise to systems of blackmail and graft, and to propose remedies by which these causes may be removed; and upon the citizens and officials having information on these conditions to lay it before the district attorney or the aldermanic committee, in the full conditions that they will be protected against terrorism and oppression of every sort."

Vigilance Committee.

The members of the committee were Eugene H. Outerbridge, Jacob H. Schiff, Eugene A. Philbin, Henry Moskowitz, Allan Robinson, F. S. Tomlin, Raymond V. Ingersoll, Mrs. Charles H. Israel and George B. Agnew.

On the platform on which Abraham Lincoln delivered an address at the opening of Cooper Union in 1860, sat representative men and women in all walks of life. The speakers included District Attorney Whitman, Dr. Lyman Abbott, Rabbi Samuel Schull, Alderman Henry H. Curran, chairman of the aldermanic police investigating committee; Emory R. Buckner, counsel for the committee; Henry De Forest Baldwin and Mrs. Charles H. Israel, a prominent social worker.

District Attorney Whitman was "the hero of the hour" and received a tremendous ovation when he arose to speak. When Mr. Whitman finally began his speech he was frequently interrupted by spontaneous cries of approval which had not been given to the other speakers until they had finished their addresses.

A telegram from Jacob H. Schiff, the banker, was read, pledging his willingness to "co-operate with the authorities to correct permanently the infamous conditions lately revealed." A message was also read from Bishop David H. Greer expressing the hope that "the work which has been begun be thoroughly and effectively performed and all reproach be removed from the city's fair name."

Schepps Starts East.

Rubin maintained his decision to obey literally the instructions of District Attorney Whitman not to announce the route to be taken or the probable time of arrival in New York.

It was not until late yesterday that Schepps made up his mind to return to New York with Rubin. Probably the arrival of Stewart, a prosecutor's detective, impelled the decision. Stewart had plenty of credentials and after he talked with Schepps, the prisoner readily consented to start from Hot Springs Thursday morning.

Lionized by Women.

Schepps seemed to have made many partisans during his visit in Hot Springs. Led by Mrs. Pettit, the wife of the acting mayor, many of the most prominent women of the city bade the New Yorker good-bye yesterday afternoon. They invited him to visit Hot Springs when he could come under more agreeable circumstances.

INDIAN GIRLS MAY WIN.

Get Encouragement in Fight to Save Ancestors' Graves.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 15. — Word that the house Indian affairs committee had reported the bill prohibiting the removal of the Huron cemetery in Kansas City, Kan., is the first encouragement in several years that has come to three sisters—the Misses Conley, descendants of the once powerful Wyandotte tribe—in their fight to prevent what they term a desecration of the graves of their ancestors. When it was announced several years ago that the old Indian burying ground, now one of the most valuable pieces of property in Kansas City, Kan., was to be sold to make way for twentieth century improvements the sisters objected.

When they saw that the order to vacate the burying ground would be carried out, one of the sisters, Miss Lydia Conley, studied law and was admitted to the bar in order that she could fight the sale in the court. She appeared before the supreme court of the United States in her effort to have the order rescinded, but failed.

When they failed before the courts, the sisters erected a fort in the center of the cemetery, and for three years fuarded it with shot guns.

The ground was given to the Wyandotte Indians in the early fifties, when it was not worth a good pony. The deed declared that "as long as grass grows and waters run this spot shall be used as a burying ground for the Wyandotte Indians."

"JOAN OF ARC OF WEST HAMMOND"

MISS VIRGINIA BROOKS.

Miss Virginia Brooks, a Chicago girl, has dedicated her life to the uplifting of the Polish woman. She is only 23 years old, but already has accomplished a great deal of good among the Poles living in West Hammond, Ill., where her father, on his death, left her some $30,000 worth of property. On her arrival at West Hammond to look over the property, she found the town in the hands of grafters who were ruling the Poles with an iron hand and robbing them by all sorts of fake "improvements." Miss Brooks decided that here was her work and at once began the study of the Polish language. This accomplished she started a desperate war on the saloons and dives and corrupt officials and published a newspaper in which she fearlessly exposed everything and everyone concerned. She was threatened with all sorts of bodily harm and was assaulted, beaten and even kicked by some of the guilty men. Her fight has been very successful and she has accomplished wonders for West Hammond. She is now known as the "Joan of Arc of West Hammond."

CONTEST FOR CORONER'S JOB

Dr. James C. Anderson Files for the Republican Nomination.

That a lively fight for the office of county coroner may be expected at the fall primaries developed today when Dr. James C. Anderson of this city filed with the county auditor for the Republican nomination. Dr. Anderson will oppose Dr. C. F. McComb, the present incumbent, who filed several weeks ago.

Dr. McComb was appointed by the county board in April to fill the unexpired term of Dr. J. A. McCuen, who resigned after having been elected mayor of Duluth. When the matter of appointment came up at the county board meeting, there were several candidates to be considered among them Dr. McComb and Dr. Anderson.

LAST HEARING ON NEW ORDINANCE

The last public hearing on the proposed housing ordinance will probably be held at the city hall Friday, Aug. 23.

The committee which is fathering the measure has set this date for a final consideration of the bill before it is submitted to the ordinance committee of the common council.

The Real Estate exchange has promised to file in writing the objections which it has to the ordinance as it now stands. The Builders exchange has filed its statement. Other organizations opposing some of its measures or having suggestions to offer are requested by the committee to place any statement in writing which they might care to make, with the committee before Friday of next week.

At the committee meeting, the various suggestions will be considered after which the ordinance may or may not be amended in some particulars before it is sent to the council for action.

THE GOSPEL OF HEALTH

Northfield Woman Devotes Entire Time to Spreading Knowledge of How to Prevent Disease.

Spreading the gospel of health is the work of Dr. Laura A. Lane of Northfield, who is state chairman of the committee for public health education among women of the American Medical association. She gave a brief outline of the work being done by the committee this morning.

The work was organized three years ago for the purpose of spreading accurate information concerning the nature and prevention of disease, and any matter that deals with the hygienic welfare of the people comes within its scope.

The members of the committee are presenting the work to women's clubs, public schools, settlements and other organizations.

They are making a great effort to-ward getting medical inspection for all schools, and establishing a health day in public schools.

For rural communities they are trying to establish rest rooms in small country towns for farmers' wives and will give there several times during the year, health talks.

They will establish traveling libraries on rural hygiene and sanitation. Excellent rest rooms have been established in Faribault and several other towns in the southern part of the state.

The committee members are also making an effort to have the larger hospitals establish health talks for convalescent patients, thereby sending these out to disseminate new ideas in regard to hygiene and community welfare.

Dr. Lane is also very much interested in the establishment of a "Babies' Health Contest," to be held as a department of the state fair, with a superintendent and cash prizes, and to arrange for contests also in county fairs.

Country Fair Opens

King's Daughters Stage Amusing Entertainment for Day Nursery Fund.

The King's Daughters' country fair was opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Twelfth avenue east and London road and Elmer Whyte, gate keeper in country costume is kept busy caring for the gate receipts.

The scene carries the spectator back a generation or two.

The merry-go-round is well patronized and is in charge of Mrs. Elmer Whyte, assisted by Mrs. Ring and Miss Carter, with Charles Morris as barker. Five or six vendors of flowers, popcorn, confetti, etc., dressed in colonial costume are mingling with the crowds, lustily crying their wares.

The most pretentious feature of the fair seems to be the vaudeville show, in charge of the Misses Swift, Schmied and Fitger, assisted by Paul Welch and George Barnum.

The country store where one can buy everything from a pair of suspenders to a bag of flour is in charge of Misses Katherine Hubbill, Genevieve Washburn and Marjorie Congdon, with I. K. Lewis as barker.

Great fun is had with the "nigger babies," which Charles Fitzgerald and Fred Wolvin have in charge. Miss Hartley has charge of the "high dive."

The monkey cage in which are four monkeys of the human species is in charge of Miss Isabel Patrick with C. C. Rosencranz to take the tickets and Telford Hartman and Mervin Armstrong as barkers. Miss Marion Fitger has a lemonade stand, and the Misses Lucille Bradley, Hazel Britts and Louise Norpell preside over sale of picture postals.

The woman's suffrage campaign is conducted by Miss Helen Congdon. The fortune tellers' booth is well patronized where Swamie Veva Canonde, Hindoo soothsayer, Nezilea Sewaya and the Witch of Salem hold forth. Mrs. Margaret Flarida and Mrs. John Hamilton are in charge.

There is a white elephant auction, in charge of the Misses Elizabeth and Dorothy Olcott, with William Harrison and Willis Spring as auctioneers.

At the Dutch kitchen a little buffet supper will be served by Misses Isabel Patrick and Marjorie Morrow in Dutch costumes. Ray Higgins is barker.

Supper will be served this evening by Misses Julia Morrow, Virginia Frick, Helen Potter, Virginia Harrison and Gertrude Hegardt.

SEX HYGIENE IN SCHOOLS

Minneapolis Woman Physician Advocates Course of Instruction in Sex Problems, and the Ballot for Women as Aids to Morality.

Dr. Mabel Ulrich of Minneapolis gave an intensely interesting talk at the council chambers of the city hall last evening, under the auspices of the Duluth Woman's Suffrage club.

Dr. Ulrich discussed the history of fallen women from ancient times step by step up to the present day, and spoke at length on the work of the vice commission of Minneapolis, of which she is a member.

Dr. Ulrich is strongly opposed to the segregation of the red light district and says that in every city in which it has been tried, it has been an utter failure.

Dr. Ulrich outlined the progress of the woman movement, stating that woman's suffrage, is an actual, tangible protest against the conditions of today. She spoke of the systematic manner in which women have gone about improving the sanitary conditions, and the suppression of dance and pool halls and kindred evils in the cities, where they have been allowed to conduct the work. She argued that if given the ballot and their share in the management of the government, they would try to have the streets kept clean, and would throttle the white slave traffic.

Sex Hygiene.

Dr. Ulrich then took up the question of the teaching of sex hygiene in the public schools. She spoke of the appalling ignorance of young girls in regard to the vital life problems.

The speaker expressed the belief that thorough courses in biology should precede the teaching of Latin and Greek in colleges and normal schools.

Dr. Ulrich thinks that until teachers are properly trained to handle this question intelligently, physicians should go into the schools and talk frankly on sex questions, women physicians giving talks to the girls, and men physicians to the boys. She gave as an example of the success of this plan, the marvelous results obtained from the teaching of sex hygiene in public schools of Cleveland, O.

Dr. Ulrich advocates the teaching of eugenics to advanced pupils. She says the colleges turn out young women absolutely unfit to meet life problems.

Following Dr. Ulrich's talk, those present were asked to submit questions in regard to the subjects under discussion.

Dr. Laura A. Lane, state chairman of committee for public health education among women, American Medical association, spoke briefly on the subject of her work.

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Education Cheats the Dentist.

As far back as the days of my attendance at the primary school the use of the toothbrush and the care of the teeth were urged on the tiny pupils who sat in the little chairs. Some of them wondered at having a teacher speak of a matter which had been a custom with them since they acquired their first teeth. I know that I did. Others, I am confident, first heard of the existence of a toothbrush through the teacher.

Dentists now make a point of this very question, recognizing its importance, nad they strongly advocate means which will further aid in educating children in the public schools in the proper care and preservation of the teeth. The school offers the best opportunity, they believe, for the instruction so necessary to a large body of those who come under its influence. One means of education which the fraternity urges is to issue and circulate in the public schools, at intervals, pamphlets which shall contain articles helpful to an understanding of the needs of the teeth and contributing to their better preservation.

Nearly everybody, all children included, ought to know more about their teeth than they do. We have all been advised of the desirability of brushing them after each meal. We have heard that cracking nuts between them is dangerous, for we may crack a tooth instead of the nuts. Warnings against snipping threads because of the harm it does to the enamel of the teeth may have been given us countless times, and the discomfort and pain of a cavity is all the cautioning we should require when our teeth decay and are in need of attention. But what we do not know about our teeth and what we suffer from ignorance combined with neglect will fill a book. There is need of deeper knowledge of what benefits them and what serves to destroy them.

"Candy is injurious to the teeth," says the mother when her offspring's appetite for sweets of this variety stretches beyond the limit of the family purse. There are many other things which people eat freely that are every bit as harmful, however. Certain foods often make the teeth decay very quickly. Therefore a knowledge of the acids that predominate in these foods and cause harm is as important as visiting the dentist every so often. The condition of the blood, the stomach, and other organs of the body has its effect on the teeth.

Often the teeth show impoverished blood, a deranged condition of the stomach, or some ill of the system before it can be traced to its rightful source. Did we know more about the injuries to the teeth which arise from the conditions within us and what we may do to avoid them, the general condition of the teeth of all people would be improved.

GREATEST OF ALL FAIRS

Minnesota Will Lead All States This Year, Says C. P. Craig.

Forty-Seven Counties Will Have Exhibits in Agricultural Building.

"This year the Minnesota state fair will take its place at the head of the state fairs of the Union in the matter of attention to agriculture," said C. P. Craig of Duluth, superintendent of the agricultural, horticultural and floricultural departments of the fair, this morning.

If the position of the Minnesota state fair as the greatest in the nation has been questioned in recent years, it cannot be questioned with foundation this year.

Mr. Craig, who is this year acting as superintendent of the three departments for the fourth time, is delighted with the prospect. When he took charge in 1909, the greatest number of counties to exhibit at any state fair was eleven, and the average was seven. In 1909, eighteen counties exhibited. In 1910, the number was increased to twenty-four. Last year, there were thirty-six county exhibits, and this year the number has been increased to forty-seven.

Not a foot of space will be sold in the big agricultural and horticultural buildings this year. Every foot will be given over to the displays and instructive features of the departments. With the co-operation of the University of Minnesota and the state school of agriculture, Mr. Craig has arranged some features that will surpass anything ever devised for entertainment and instruction at the fair.

A complete short course covering a wide range will be given. In the agricultural building, ten or eleven booths will be turned over to the agricultural school for demonstration purposes. There will be demonstrations of everything done on the farm. The judging of soil, the selection of seed, the different processes of seeding, caring for and harvesting crops will be demonstrated. In the big lecture room, which has been added to the building this year, lectures will be conducted at fifteen-minute intervals every day by some of the greatest authorities on farm topics in the West.

In the horticultural building some novel features have been arranged. The state department will have an exhibit showing the processes in grading grain, and farmers will be instructed in grading grain for themselves. The state department of weights and measures will have an exhibit. The department of mines of the auditor's office will have an exhibit showing the state's mineral wealth. Experts from the agricultural school will conduct a school in spraying, in which the methods of spraying will be shown and formulas for the compounds given.

"A man could spend a week in the two buildings and learn something every day," said Mr. Craig this morning. "We will have a complete short course. The exhibits will be the 'what.' The demonstrations will show the 'why' and the 'how.'"

No Concessions.

There will be no concessions and no hawking in the agricultural and horticultural buildings. Mr. Craig wants the undivided attention of visitors to those two departments. In the horticultural department, the plate displays will again give way to displays in commercial packages, and instructors will be on hand to give talks on sorting and packing. In both buildings, uniformed attendants from the agricultural school will give information on request.

Mr. Craig is proud of the attention given agriculture at the fair in recent years. He has worked hard and has obtained results. When he took hold, the agricultural, horticultural and floricultural departments were housed under one roof and didn't occupy all of the space. This year the two buildings, which give double the floor space of the one building formerly used, will be full of instructive displays.

Mr. Craig is anxious that Duluth be well represented at the fair on Duluth day. He says it is the greatest opportunity Duluth has ever had to do some valuable boosting for the city before the state as a whole. Duluth day is Wednesday of fair week, and the greatest crowd will be at the fair at that time. The agricultural and publicity committees of the Commercial club are now making arrangements for special trains Sept. 4 and they will endeavor to recruit a crowd that will make Duluth people, banners and advertising features the most prominent figures on the fair grounds on that day.

A. B. Hostetter of the Commercial club, who is arranging the St. Louis county exhibit at the fair, is making good progress and says the display will surpass all former exhibits. As St. Louis county has always figured prominently in the awards, Mr. Hostetter has set a task for himself. The homecroft society will also make a display of homecroft products in the St. Louis county building.

VETERANS GET PENSIONS NOW

Money Probably Will Be Distributed Next Saturday.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Pensions for thousands of veterans, held up by disagreement between the house and senate over the $160,000,000 pension appropriation bill, may be paid Saturday.

The house today agreed to the senate's demand to abolish the eighteen outlying pension agencies on Feb. 1, and passed the bill, with one minor amendment which will be adjusted today.

President Taft is expected to sign it immediately.

HELP FOR THE SETTLERS.

One of the biggest problems before the state of Minnesota today, and one that we must solve soon, is that of making more easy the settlement of the great tracts of fertile land in which the state is rich.

It is not enough that the presence and availability of these lands should be brought to the attention of men with money enough to invest in tracts, either for later sale or for the purpose of renting them to tenants who may work the soil. That is not the kind of ownership of land that Minnesota wants, or that any state will find desirable. The evils of extended tenantry have been set out forcibly on more than one occasion.

What Minnesota wants is to have her acres come into the possession of men who will live on them and cultivate them, not for the purpose of present enrichment of themselves, but with a view to the future of their children and their children's children.

But the kind of men who will do this do not have the money to buy uncleared land and then spend still more in getting it into shape for cultivation. In many cases the settler must make serious inroads on his savings to live while he is laboriously clearing the place of timber and stumps and brush.

How to meet this phase of the problem is one of the first things the state must decide, and to this end a suggestion worth considering is made by the Warroad Pioneer. It is that the state provide a scheme for financing the clearing of land taken by settlers, the cost to be repaid to the state in instalments by the holders of the land, and title to the property to be put in trust with the state until the obligation is met. For the actual raising of the money, the Pioneer would have the state sell bonds, and it says: "There is every reason to believe that these bonds would sell at about 3½ per cent, which would leave the state 1½ per cent to pay the expenses." To quote again: "As the owner would risk his equity in the farm against the cost of the clearing, the chance of the state having to take any of the land is very small."

Minor details of the plan have not been worked out as yet, but the Pioneer has suggested the following as a sample of the procedure under the system:

> The settler desiring to have eighty acres of his quarter section cleared will make application to the board, setting forth such facts as may be required. On receipt of this application, the board will send out an expert to examine the land, test the soil to determine what it will produce, secure information as to what produce and in what quantities has been raised on the land or on adjoining lands, the distance to market, probable cost of clearing, etc.
>
> On receipt of this report and after gathering any further information they may desire, the board would determine whether or not the total value of the land, after the clearing—including the entire 160 acres—would exceed the cost of clearing the eighty acres, and if so they would grant the application. Then bids on the work of clearing would be called for, and if a bid satisfactory to the owner of the land is received, the contract will be let.
> Before the letting of the contract, the owner of the land will deed it over to the state, and take in return a contract deed for the amount specified in the contract for clearing, and will agree to pay a certain per cent interest for the first five years, and one-tenth of the principal each year and interest on the balance until all is paid.

As indicating the acknowledged practicability of such a plan, the Pioneer refers to the Wisconsin law authorizing the formation of bond-issuing associations by settlers. Urging the value of the system, the Pioneer asserts that "it would do for a settler in one year what it otherwise would take him a dozen years to do."

There seems to be considerable merit in the Warroad Pioneer's plan, at least at first glance. Minnesota has several million acres within its boundaries that can be bought for from $5 to $20 an acre, and cleared at an average cost of about $30 an acre. This land then would produce a revenue as large as more expensive land in other states.

But this land will remain idle, unimproved and unproductive, unless some means is found to put it in the reach of the men of small capital who will develop it. Perhaps some such plan as has been suggested is the best way to solve the problem. At any rate, the idea is worth consideration, and if found to be of value it may be adopted at the next session of the legislature.

Are They Practical?

The anti-noise advocates are holding a convention in Boston. Queer place for that. Why don't they go to Oyster Bay, where they can have a clinic as a feature of the meetings?

TIME TO END THE GAME.

In the days when houses were not built so closely together that it was impossible for an active youngster to squeeze between them, and when the lawns were large and the houses not inordinately high, there was a game the boys delighted to play in the early evening, after the heat of the day had somewhat worn away.

They would take a ball, not quite so hard as a present-day baseball, but about that same size, and then divide their party into two groups. One group would go on either side of the house, and the others would choose some member of their side to throw the ball over the house to the fellows on the other side. As the ball started, the side from which it was thrown would shout "Heely, heely, over!" Then the receiving side would watch for the ball, and if one of them caught it before it touched the ground, he would run around the house and try to hit one of his opponents by throwing the ball at him. If the ball was not caught, it was thrown back with the same warning cry. Sometimes the ball would fail to go clear over, and then the side that threw it would shout "Back again!" and get ready for another throw.

All of which is called to mind by the game now in progress at Washington between the president and congress. Bills are being passed and vetoed and passed again, but always falling short of enough votes in one house or the other to become laws without the presidential signature. In the present session President Taft has vetoed eight bills, and promises to veto two or three more. And not one of the eight has passed both houses over the veto, and there is no likelihood that any of those yet to go the same way will find any better fate.

It's a very interesting game, albeit a trifle tiresome to the onlooker. There is not a man in either house who is not supposed to be there because he has constructive legislative ability, and because he knows what the men who elected him want. And certainly those qualities are to be credited to a man who can attain to the high office of president. Yet there seems to be nothing but stubbornness on display, and the kind of spirit that makes boys' games break up in fights and hard words.

With the tariff question in particular it has been a case of "heely-heely, over" and "back again" until the country is beginning to get sick of it all. If it is really as impossible as it appears for those men down there to get together and do something, why don't they give it up and quit? The only object that can be accomplished, apparently, by continuing the session, is the playing of politics by all who are so inclined, and in a campaign year there is enough of that kind of thing without continuing a futile session of congress to increase it.

Of course congress can fiddle around some more with different measures, and the president can write some more disapproval messages. But all that gets us nowhere, and meanwhile the expense of the session is piling up. So what's the use? Better call it quits now, after getting one or two financial matters adjusted as everybody knows they must be adjusted. The boys have played long enough. It is time they went home to bed and got rested up for the next time they are to meet.

Might Be a Subconscious Influence.

Dr. Doolittle has been appointed to do the work that Dr. Wiley did too well. Now, do you suppose his name had anything to do with getting him the job?

VERY NICE, BUT WHY?

Some of the kind-hearted and thoughtful gentlemen at Washington are urging the senate to vote an appropriation of $35,000 out of the people's treasury to go toward reimbursing William Lorimer of Illinois for the expense to which he was put in his fight to sit in the United States senate and stay there. This plan would be very nice for Mr. Lorimer. Very nice indeed. But why do it?

If a man tries to break into your house, or if he tries to deprive you of some specific right that you possess, or if he tries to trick you in some underhanded way, and gets caught at any one of these acts, are you to spend your money to make up to him what he may have lost by his own wrongdoing? Hardly. Yet here is a man who did his utmost to retain a position of public honor and profit, in spite of the fact that he was not legally entitled to it, and now the people of the United States are asked to defray at least a part of the expense of his fight.

The United States was obliged to expend something considerably over $100,000 before it was possible to oust Mr. Lorimer. Isn't that enough to put into a case of that kind, without paying a bounty to the man who was responsible for the original cost?

It is idle to claim that the corruption in the Lorimer case was too little substantiated to make the charge against him stand. The evidence was sufficient to secure two-thirds of the votes in the United States senate, and that is as much evidence as could be required by anybody of reasonable mind.

William Lorimer was sent to the senate for a purpose, and as long as he was allowed to occupy a seat in that body he worked to accomplish that purpose. He voted against a reduction in the tariff on lumber, and he voted against every other reduction in tariff that was proposed. He upheld the side of special privilege at every opportunity. Never once did he cast a vote that was in favor of lowering the excessive tariff taxes, or in any way lightening the burden that rests upon the ordinary citizen.

It was charged in the inquiries into Lorimer's election that he was in fact "put over" into the senate. The substantiation of those charges lies in the fact that he was declared illegally elected. Then why should not the men who "put him over" be left to reimburse him for any personal loss he may have suffered through being their tool? If they will not make good, that is his loss, and is part of the chance he took when he allowed himself to become their tool. It has been shown conclusively that the talk of "jackpot" and "slush fund" was common in the legislature. With his experience in politics, it is foolish to pretend that Mr. Lorimer knew nothing of these things.

It would be a very nice thing for Mr. Lorimer to have the expense of his fight to keep what did not rightfully belong to him, borne by the people of the United States. It would be exceedingly nice—for him. But there is no justice in such a proposition, and aside from being nice for Lorimer, there is not the least shadow of a reason for such an appropriation as is proposed.

Every little tariff bill has a veto all its own.

Ex-Governor Odell says Teddy did. Teddy says Teddy didn't. Which shows that the same old T. R. style of debate is still in use.

But we will stand for almost anything except the statement that this last Chicago convention was "a most a-moose-ing thing to watch."

The newly arrived John Jacob Astor starts life with accumulated capital of $3,000,000. Talk about being "born with a silver spoon in one's mouth!"

Panama is making the politicians a whole lot of trouble these days. Not so very surprising, either, considering how much it sounds like Tammany.

The only wool bill that has President Taft's unqualified approval is the kind that is rendered the first of the month after you have bought your heavies.

Both the senate and house now have passed some bills over the president's veto. One of these days they'll both do that with the same bill, if this epidemic is not subdued.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson says the price of meat is going to drop. Now maybe we're getting the cabinet mixed up, but we certainly thought Wickersham was looking after that item.

Johnny Bull says he won't play in our yard if we don't tax American ships for use of the Panama canal, and now Canada is hinting at a similar exclusiveness. That's one trouble about being part of an empire.

A HOPELESS STANDPATTER

By SAVOYARD.

Washington, Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Hon. Ebenezer J. Hill is a standpat member of congress from the state of Connecticut, and has held a seat in the national house of representatives since 1895. He is the business man in politics, being manufacturer and banker as well as statesman. He is a Yale man, but not very strong on letters. He says in his biography that in 1865 "he joined the army as a civilian and remained until the close of the war"—a sutler, perhaps, as there appears to be no record that he was a farrier. After the war he engaged in business, and presumably with success.

A Republican, Mr. Hill went off with Charles Sumner, Carl Schurz, Lyman Trumbull, Charles Francis Adams and many others of the aristocracy of the G. O. P. and supported Horace Greeley for president. That was in 1872, and the occasion was opportunity—of which it promptly and ignominiously availed itself, an inveterate habit that beset it in those days—to the Democratic party to give an exhibition of political asshood, when it made the Republican party a present of the office of president of the United States. For all now admit that had the Democratic party supported Greeley, its nominee, with half the loyalty it gave to Seymour four years earlier, or half the enthusiasm it brought to Tilden four years later, Greeley would have been elected. And while Greeley was manifestly unfit for the great place, he would have bridged the chasm that separated the sections, and the era of patriotic fellowship between the North and the South would have come in 1873 and not been deferred till 1898. Hill is mad about it yet, and so are many others of us.

Hill, along with about 1,000,000 other Republicans, scampered back to the Republican party, and the last state of all of them is worse than the first. A manufacturer of iron wares and woolen fabrics, Mr. Hill gave long and severe study to the tariff and is thoroughly committed to the dogma that custom taxes should be laid by congress to be collected by the manufacturers for their private gain. These gentry are to be made enormously rich by law in order that they may take care of the labor that creates the wealth for them rather than for itself.

The Hon. Hill is very much enraged over the action of the Democratic party at Baltimore. Here is what he says about it: "The nomination of Woodrow Wilson was murder. It was assassination; the killing of the party's obligation toward a man who deserved the honor. Champ Clark was the best man and should have had the nomination." That is what they all say. It is a poor compliment to Mr. Clark these gentry pay him. Let us all beware of Greeks bearing gifts. And let us hope, that the Hills, Rodenbergs, Mondells and Mannings will not go to law about it, throw the Democratic party into chancery, and have the thing done over again.

A few days after the adjournment of the Baltimore convention the Hon. Hill made a speech in the house and paid a tribute to the labor of a New England town. He told us how it was prosperous, how it built the town, how it worshiped God, how it was honored, how it was ennobled, and what not. It ought to be the law that a congressman should keep his mouth shut unless he knows something of what he is talking about, as when Mr. Hill strove to create the impression that labor is not honored at the South, that it is disreputable for a white man to work with his hands down there.

Now, the fact is that honest labor is as respectable at the South as it is at the North or anywhere else in the world, and it was always so. The humblest citizen who worked with his hands in the old South stood as high in his community as his fellow at the North in his neighborhood. The democratic spirit and the democratic custom have never flourished anywhere more vigorously than in the Southern states every moment since the adoption of the Federal Constitution. Who is the most honored citizen of South Carolina today? Why a farmer boy yet in his teens—Jere Moore—who with his own hands grew on a single acre of ground over 200 bushels of corn. All over the South are boys' clubs made up of youths like young Moore, each competing with every other one in the growing of corn, or cotton, or tobacco. Contrast the South of 1912 with the South of 1865, and the transformation will call to mind the lamp of Aladdin; but it was wrought by labor, more than 80 per cent of it white labor, and to say that labor is not honored there is simply absurd.

Then Mr. Hill proceeded to criticize some of the writings of Woodrow Wilson, who had made some strictures on the dogma of protection. But the house cared not, and the country cares not, a rap what Wilson thought, or said, or wrote years ago. What does Woodrow Wilson think and say and write now? That is what the American people are thinking about. But Wilson has not changed on the tariff.

A Mr. Reilly, a Democratic colleague of Mr. Hill, took a hand in the debate, much to the discomfiture of the Hon. Hill. The house was in good humor and greatly enjoyed the encounter. Hill lost his temper, for in his circle it is not meant for anybody to speak of—much less to know anything about—the tariff in the presence of Mr. Hill. Proctor Knott could convulse you with the story of Lige Pinkston,, who lived on the banks of Salt river, up which classic stream the G. O. P. is going in a leaky craft this fall. It was the height of bad manners for anybody to know anything about a dog in that neighborhood until Mr. Pinkston had passed "judgment" on the animal. Likewise Hill assumes exclususive jurisdiction of the academic phase of the tariff in congress.

In the next congress it is likely that Hill will head his party on the committee of ways and means. Dalzell is defeated for renomination. McCall has declined re-election. They are after Payne in the old William H. Seward district in New York, and his opponents say they have him beaten for renomination. If they get Payne's scalp and Hill should be re-elected, it would leave him the leader of the Republican side, for long as has been his service, Uncle Cannon has never been a member of the ways and means. He is not strong on questions that arise in that council, devoting himself to appropriations, which he certainly knows all about, and his voice has always been for honesty and against prodigality in public expenditures.

But then Uncle Cannon will vote for anything Hill approves so far as concerns the tariff, and we may look for the portly Yankee from Connecticut to lead his party in the Sixty-third congress if Payne is defeated, as is now confidently expected.

When the next corn show is held in the two Carolinas the Hon. Hill would add much to his stores of practical and valuable knowledge if he should take a run down there and witness the honor that is done the young men who produce corn with the labor of their hands. He will there learn that it is just as much a reproach to be a drone in the social hive at the South as it is at the North.

And he will not find labor so discontented down there that it goes on every full and change of the moon, as is the case in New England.

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters should not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

A SUGGESTION.

To the Editor of The Herald:

In regard to the editorial in the morning paper about using waste labor, why do we not start these men at work improving some of our parks and roads, camping them in the park while they are thus engaged? READER.

ANOTHER GOOD FRIEND OF DULUTH.

To the Editor of The Herald:

From my official position I was able to gather a consensus of opinion from various visiting delegates which were in your city last week, and I truly say that each and every one is grateful to the Rotarians and business men in general of Duluth for their cordial hospitality, amazed at the recent development of your city, greatly interested in its plans for its future, and they went away from Duluth pleased and with best wishes for the city and its citizens.

Again thanking you for your personal courtesy, I remain, yours very truly, CHESLEY R. PERRY,

SCRIPTURE TEXT BOOKS IN STATE SCHOOLS.

As the Bible is not read in all your state schools and having been recently in three states of America, which at present exclude Bible reading from their state schools, I found a feeling in favor of the introduction of a Scripture text book (similar to the Scripture lesson books used in Ontario, Canada, and in New South Wales, Australia) into their respective state schools.

The first step is to bring all churches into line on this great question, and I therefore respectfully suggest that all Protestant denominations, at their annual church conferences, assemblies or unions, should set up Bible in schools committees to consider which form of Scripture text book and system are applicable to the needs of their state schools; and also should be ready to unite with other churches to demand from school boards or the house of representatives a referendum on this important question.

No movement will succeed unless the Protestant churches are agreed upon one system.

As New Zealand is only twenty days' steam from America I would suggest that the official heads of churches invite the Rev. Canon Garland, organizer of the New Zealand Bible in Schools party, whose headquarters are in Wellington, New Zealand, to visit your state to explain the Australian system of Bible instruction in schools and methods of organizing. Canon Garland is the greatest living authority on the question here. He got two Australian states to adopt Scripture instruction in their state schools.

"The news that Canon Garland had been offered the leadership of the religious instruction in state schools campaign in New Zealand scarcely came as a surprise to those who are familiar with the work he has already done in connection with this subject. No man in Australasia can claim a greater knowledge of the question or greater ability to handle it than Canon Garland, and wherever the campaign is undertaken his advice would naturally be the first to be sought. He has already taken the lead in the successful efforts of West Australia and Queensland to secure religious freedom in the schools, and his acceptance of the New Zealand invitation is thus full of promise for the success of the campaign in that country."

I shall be pleased, sir, to aid any movement towards the attainment of the above object in your state, if advised. The postage to New Zealand is 5 cents. Yours faithfully

S. PEARSON,
253 Cuba street,
Wellington, New Zealand.

P. S. Samples of Scripture text books can be procured from the Public Instruction Department, Sydney, New South Wales, and Toronto, Canada. In the state schools of Ontario the Ten Commandments are repeated once a week. The Bible in Schools parties in New Zealand, Victoria and South Australia desire the New South Wales (Australia) system of Bible instruction in state schols. S. P.

How Roosevelt Created the Taft Myth.

F. P. Dunne in the American Magazine: Several years before the convention of 1908 Mr. Roosevelt organized the Taft boom and for the purpose of advancing it he created the Taft myth of almost superhuman sagacity, courage, learning, loyalty and patriotism. No doubt he believed everything he said at the time.

He pressed every one he met into this service and no president has ever made it a point to meet so many men of various achievements. We do not hesitate to discuss his personality. Nobody does. Although he is still one of the liveliest of living men the world insists on treating him as if he had been dead 10,000 years, debating his probable habitat, his ways of acquiring food, his mental dispositions, his means of providing for his young, and so forth. Thousands of persons are trying to "reassemble" him and show us the "real Theodore Roosevelt." That none of the reproductions is complete is no fault of these paleontolgists, but is due to the fact seldom encountered by investigators that the subject is still alive and changing. But certain things we know about him and one of them is that no man of our time has enjoyed a wider or more thoughtful range of interests, no one has found out more accurately what other men know, and of no one could it be more truthfully said that nothing human is foreign to him.

With this characteristic in mind it is easy to see why he has been the center of most amusing gatherings of men who had nothing in common with each other except his understanding and admiration of their achievements. In this period he would be found surrounded by cabinet officers, supreme court justices, generals, senators, ambassadors, champion tennis players, Bad Bill, the bowieknife expert from the Rio Grande; Professor Blabb, who had just returned from England, where he read his paper on the "Conscious Cerebrations of the Oyster," before the Royal society; Herschell Parallax, who discovered life on the rings of Saturn before he cleaned his telescope; Osric Gilfeather, the author of an essay on "The Decay of the Artichoke in Modern Times," and many other worthies.

On each of them Mr. Roosevelt impressed the glories of Mr. Taft—with the most amazing results. Everybody talks. There are no exceptions. Statesmen, lawyers, judges may be relied upon, soon or late, to tell all they know about other people. Although they may be restrained by scruples or conventions from attaching the facts to the name of any individual. A secret is something that nobody even suspects. And of all people professional writers are most prone to loquacity.

Went After It With Both Feet.

Detroit Free Press: "I consider it the greatest honor that ever came to me," said T. R. Did the honor come to T. R., or did T. R. go to the honor?

Silence Would Kill Him.

Philadelphia Record: Taft and Wilson will not take the stump, but Roosevelt would have no fun at all if he were not making speeches.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

•••Lewis Baker, manager of the St. Paul Globe, has been chosen chairman of the Democratic state central committee, succeeding W. M. Campbell. P. J. Smalley is secretary.

•••The June apportionment has been made by County Treasurer Crossett and County Auditor La Vaque. It is really a quarterly statement of the revenues of St. Louis county from March to June. The total is $868,637.66.

•••J. T. Clark, who is interested in the Lackawanna Iron company, has returned from a visit to the property, which is located in section 23, 57-22. The company has one pit down in red hematite of good quality. The officers of the Lackawanna are: W. G. Park, president; M. J. Davis, vice president; Charles Thornton, treasurer; E. F. Clark, secretary; J. A. Taylor, manager.

•••C. A. Towne is interesting himself in the formation of a Uniformed Republican club.

•••Mike Quick, ex-policeman, and Miss Anna Day of West Duluth eloped on Aug. 13 and were married. The girl's parents were much opposed to Mr. Quick, and hence the elopement.

•••James Kinney, agent of the Standard Oil company at West Superior, has completed a handsome residence on Seventh avenue at West Duluth and will soon move his family to that place.

•••Miss Pauline Erdman has arrived at West Duluth from Germany, and will make her home with her aunt, Mrs. M. Jollymore.

•••The plats of two new towns were opened this morning at the United States land office. The lands are in 65-25 and 65-26 and are about six miles west of Nett Lake Indian reservation and fifty-five miles north of Grand Rapids, in Itasca county. Over twenty homestead filings were made in a short time. The Big Fork river runs through part of the land, and it is believed there are extensive deposits of iron ore.

THE GOVERNORSHIP.

Progressive Candidate Insured.

Owatonna Journal Chronicle: That the Minnesota Progressives mean business was evidenced in the separate resolution adopted following the adoption of the platform by Tuesday's convention, which provided for a Progressive state committee and empowered that committee to bring about a Progressive nomination for any state, congressional or legislative office the Republican candidate for which, nominated at the primary election, is deemed a reactionary. This foreshadows the nomination of at least a Progressive candidate for governor should the brewery and railroad interests succeed in making Adolph O. Eberhart the Republican candidate.

Keeping Up Their Spirits.

Luverne Journal: Every time a new candidate enters the field for the Republican nomination for governor the machine press agents tell us that Eberhart's triumphant renomination is now assured.

Lack of Tact.

Middle River Pioneer: Governor Eberhart addressed the people at the Thief River Falls fair. He displayed a lack of tact in using up an hour of time and spoiling the race program, whereas a twenty-minute talk would have been all right and would have won him commendation instead of making nearly every one sore, as his long-winded speech did.

Who's Laughing Now?

New Ulm Review: We predicted some months ago that Governor Eberhart would have the fight of his life on his hands to secure a renomination for the office of governor and one of our contemporaries practically laughed us out of court. What is the situation now?

Vote Two Choices.

Biwabik Times: In the forthcoming primaries get it stuck into your mind that you are entitled to a first and a second choice on all state candidates. Of the candidates for governor there are three Progressives and one reactionary. Young, Gordon and Lee are Progressives, with little choice. Eberhart is the standpatter. In voting, therefore, do not fail to record both your first and second choice, making it seemingly impossible that Eberhart can slip in.

Cheap Campaigning.

Fergus Falls Journal: Governor Eberhart is said to be planning to appoint 10,000 delegates to the convention of the Minnesota Federation of Commercial Clubs. This cheap form of campaigning ought to be prohibited by the corrupt practices act.

A Suggestion.

Fertile Journal: Detroit osteopaths are discussing the spine. Governor Eberhart should have been there and got some pointers on how to strengthen his.

Some Egotist.

Hibbing Mesaba Ore: As an egotist Eberhart is trying to pattern after the Bull Moose, but as a punk governor he don't have to pattern after anybody—he's the original mold.

The Sleepy Song.

As soon as the fire burns red and low,
And the house upstairs is still,
She sings me a queer little sleepy song
Of sheep that go oer the hill.

The good little sheep run quick and soft,
Their colors are gray and white;
They follow their leader nose to tail,
For they must be home by night.

And one slips over and one comes next,
And one runs after behind;
The top of the hill they find.

And when they get to the top of the hill
They quietly slip away,
But one runs over and one comes next—
Their colors are white and gray.

And over they go, and over they go,
And over the top of the hill
The good little sheep run quick and soft,
And the house upstairs is still.

And one slips over and one comes next,
The good little, gray little sheep!
And she says that I fell asleep.

—Josephine Daskam.

The Express Monopoly.

Kansas City Star: "It is a matter beyond contradiction that, beginning sixty years ago practically with no assets whatever other than favorable contracts with one or more railroads, the express companies have out of their rates and the profitable investment of the proceeds of their operations, been enabled to pay large dividends upon shares representing no investment, and amassed over $150,000,000 worth of property."

The statement here quoted is from the interstate commerce commission's report on the express companies. The report shows that total dividend payments have amounted to $212,000,000.

The facts set forth throw new light on the method of accumulating great fortunes in this country at the expense of the public. The express business has been "farmed out" by the railroads to men who, through issues of stocks and bonds for which no consideration was given, have been able to accumulate unearned wealth and obtain dividends and interest because of excessive charges for services performed.

Express companies have been among the most insolent of all corporations that serve the public. They have now come under the jurisdiction of the interstate commerce commission, which has ordered radical changes in their methods.

Unconscious Humor.

Boston Transcript: Our school teachers need no comic papers. Funny enough things come their way in the shape of letters from the parents of their pupils, as witness the following received by a teacher out in Kansas: "Respected Miss—Please excuse Willie for absents. He has fell down stairs and we feered his internal insides was hurt at first, but they ain't. The doctor says that no part or his anattomy was hurt but the browsing of the eppydermis of the outside hide and also his hipp hurt some. So kindly excuse."

MAKING A BAD CASE WORSE.

New York World: Four years ago Mr. Taft's speech of acceptance opened with an extravagant eulogy of Mr. Roosevelt. This year's speech of acceptance begins with an attack upon Mr. Roosevelt. In 1908 Mr. Taft felt that the chief purpose of the Republican party should be to "clinch the Roosevelt policies." This year he asserts thath the defeat of the Roosevelt policies is "the supreme issue."

In his first speech Mr. Taft was lighthearted, hopeful and lavish with promises. In his second speech he is apologetic, cynical and bitter. It is true that the conditions discussed by him now are radically different from those that engaged his attention then, but the impression made by both deliverances is the same. Their author fails to grasp the political forces by which he is surrounded. Confronted by a Democracy never more confident and with his own party rent asunder by ambition and perfidy, it is not enough to point to the record of things accomplished by Republicans. It is not wise to dwell impatiently and unsympathetically upon popular unrest. It is not wise to accuse Democrats and "former Republicans" of Socialism. It is not wise to classify opponents as falsifiers and demagogues.

The president's situation is a difficult one, indeed, but he does not help matters any by assuming that Democrats and bolting Republicans are alike determined to wreck the Constitution, paralyze the courts, destroy industry and assail the rights of property.

We find but a single sentence in this speech revealing the smallest appreciation on the part of its maker of the personal and political shortcomings which have wrecked his administration, divided his party and brought the thunders of the oncoming Democracy within hearing of the White House. "It is difficult to understand," he says in his discussion of the high cost of living, "how any legislation or promise in a political platform can remedy this universal condition."

This is the last word on a promise not only disregarded but repudiated by a man who never tried a remedy of any sort. It follows a deceptive claim that the Payne-Aldrich law, which increased the cost of living, revised the tariff as a whole downward. It attends a misleading assertion that last summer's votes of the moderate nonpartisan tariff-reform bills were necessary to preserve American industry from the onslaughts of the ignorant and the violent. Is it an admission of hopeless incapacity or is it the merest jest of a trifler?

Popular disappointment in Mr. Taft has been growing rapidly in the last two years. Every paragraph of this utterance will give it a new reason. It is not even a clever defense of a bad cause. In part it is a confession. In part it is a defiance.

Fireside Adventures.

Walt Mason in Popular Magazine: It is not mine the world to roam; when I was born the fates decreed that I should always stay at home, and deal in hay and bran and feed. For mighty deeds I have no chance while I am rustling in my store; and yet my life has its romance, and I've adventures by the score.

For evening comes, and then, serene, to my abode I make my way, and grab this good old magazine, and leave the world of bran and hay. Through Arctic wildernesses cold, I follow the explorers' train, or seeking go for pirate's gold along the storied Spanish Main. Oft, by the miner's struggling lamp, I count the nuggets I have won; or in the cowboys' wind-swept camp indulge in wild athletic fun. The big round world is all for me, brought to me by the sprightly tale; o'er every strange and distant sea my phantom ship has learned to sail. I travel in all neighborhoods where daring man has left his tracks; I am the hunter in the woods, I am the woodman with his ax. I am the grim, effective sleuth who goes forth in a rare disguise, and quickly drags the shining truth from out a mountain range of lies. I am the watcher of the roads, the highwayman of wold and moor, relieving rich men of their loads, to give a rakeoff to the poor. I am the hero of the crowds, as on my trusty aeroplane, I cleave a pathway through the clouds, to milky way and Charles's Wain. I am the pitcher known to fame; I pitch as though I worked by steam, and in the last and crucial game I win the pennant for my team. I am the white man's final hope, on whom his aspirations hinge, and, notwithstanding all the dope, I knock the daylights from the dinge.

I am the man of action when, with lamplight gloating o'er the scene, I bask at leisure in my den, and read my favorite magazine. And so all day I stay at home attending to the treadmill grind; but when night comes afar I roam; and leave the workday world behind.

The Mysterious Handful.

He then took a plate in his right hand, passed it round, and a large sum was collected, every one meanwhile wondering what he held in his left hand.

"Why, it's very simple," said the leader when questioned. "We are all subject to temptation, and to be sure of the fidelity of our collector he has to hold five flies in his left hand, and we count these when he returns, to make sure of the money."

HARRY LEGG IS FAVORITE

Minneapolis Golfer Looks Like Winner in Trans-Mississippi Tournament.

Eight Players Representing as Many Cities, Still in the Events.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 15.—With eight golfers on the Minikahda course from that many different cities, a thing which veteran players in the Trans-Mississippi Golf association declares never has happened before, play in the first half of the third round of the championship flight is on today, Harry G. Legg, Minikahda, being the favorite. Legg today is playing H. P. Berd, St. Paul, former champion of the state, and by the form the Minneapolis man is displaying is expected to go into the finals without difficulty.

With Ralph Rider, Des Moines, runner-up in the 1911 tournament, defeated in the second round by R. W. Hodge of Kansas City, three down, two to go, there remains besides Hodge, G. F. Paine, St. Louis, William Sheehan, Des Moines, and W. D. Middleton, Denver, from whom one probably will meet Legg. With a record as runner-up in the 1910 tournament, and from the form shown in the present meet, Sheehan is a favorite as opponent to the Minneapolis golfer in the finals.

Second in interest today to the championship battle is the election of officers, and the choosing, probably late this afternoon of the place for the 1913 tournament. The Glen Echo club of St. Louis, and the Omaha Field club both have asked for the next tournament.

Several surprises were sprung in the second round of the championship 18 holes of match play, trans-Mississippi Golf tournament, over the Minikahda course here yesterday, and as a result eight men remain to contest in the third round today.

H. G. Legg, Minneapolis, for the last three years champion, and the two proceeding years runner-up in the Trans-Mississippi, playing in championship form yesterday afternoon had an easy time in defeating F. S. Gaines, Omaha, 8 up and 6 to play. One of the surprises, however, was the defeat of L. H. Johnson, Minneapolis, by W. D. Middleton, Davenport, playing from the Rock Island Arsenal club, 5 down, 6 to go. Johnson was runner-up to Legg in the recent state tournament and has defeated Legg in practice play. Another surprise was the defeat of R. H. Rider, Des Moines, runner-up in the 1911 tournament, by R. H. Hodge, Kansas City, 3 down, 2 to go.

One of the closest matches in the second round was that between H. P. Bend, St. Paul, former Minnesota champion, and F. P. Carr, Des Moines, the former winning 1 up, Carr driving short and putting his mashie shot in the play on the eighteenth hole.

H. B. Morrill, Omaha, made a record for play during the tournament, and one which seldom has been equalled on the local course, when he made the seventeenth hole, 130 yards, in one, two below par. Morrill, however, lost to J. D. Cady, Rock Island, president of the Western association, in the second flight, for the president's cup, 4-3.

The consolation flight, to which are eligible the sixteen players defeated in the first round of the championship play, began this afternoon and will be completed Saturday.

AMUSEMENTS

Margaret Illington.

One of the most notable engagements of the present theatrical season will be the appearance at the Lyceum on Friday and Saturday, with a Saturday matinee of Miss Margaret Illington in her new American play, "Kindling," by Charles Kenyon, a young California author. This play is proving the most successful of any of the many successes in which Miss Illington has appeared in recent years. The theme is novel to the stage and it is said to have been handled in a masterly and novel manner. The problem involved is one of utmost social importance. In addition to the gripping heart-compelling story, there is a vast quantity of comedy and the characterizations are intelligent and complete to the last detail. Miss Illington as Maggie Schultz, the young, ignorant wife of the tenements who steals in order to secure the money to go into a new land where there are trees and flowers and fresh air that her expected child may be born amid surroundings that will give it a fair chance in life, it is said, not only does the best work of her career but has created a character that will live in the history of the stage. Unlike a great many stars, Miss Illington believes in surrounding herself with the best obtainable company, and in her support this season are such well known players as Byron Beasley, Frank Campeau, Frank E. Camp, Ida Lewis, and Florence Robinson. The original cast and production exactly as was played in New York and Chicago will be seen during Miss Illington's engagement.

At the Odeum.

During the Dante's Inferno engagement at the Odeum last week thousands of people were turned away. In order that all who wish to may see this wonderful picture production the management has arranged for a return engagement, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 16 and 17. This is claimed to be the greatest picture production ever made, and was brought to the city at a large expense. The Friday and Saturday engagement will be the last chance for Duluth people to witness the production, as the company will leave Sunday for a four days' engagement at the Grand in Superior and from there to Minneapolis. The theater will open each day at 10 a. m. and the picture will run continuously until 11 p. m. J. F. Cubberley will deliver the lecture at each performance.

T. R. DENIES ODELL STORY

Declares He Never Asked Harriman for Funds for the Campaign.

Says Railroad Man Sought Money to Help Odell in New York.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 15.—The testimony of ex-Governor Benjamin B. Odell of New York before the senate investigating committee which is investigating campaign funds is contradicted by Col. Roosevelt.

"I am not interested in Mr. Odell's hearsay statements," Mr. Roosevelt exclaimed.

He declared that any man who attempted to refute the statements which he had made in reply to the allegation that he had requested E. H. Harriman to raise funds for the 1904 campaign, branded himself as dishonest and untruthful.

Col. Roosevelt at first said that no honest man could question his actions at this time after he had explained them fully in the past, and that he would not enter into another discussion of the matter. He reconsidered his decision, however, and dictated this statement:

"I have not a thing to add to what was contained in my statement containing the letters published at that time. These letters speak for themselves. Mr. Sheldon's testimony absolutely bears them out. I never directly or indirectly asked Mr. Harriman for a dollar, and he never spoke to me about giving a dollar to the national campaign fund. On the contrary, he asked me to help him get for Odell and the state campaign fund some large sums of money from the national campaign committee, on the ground that my election was safe anyhow, but that it was essential to help Odell carry the state ticket.

WICKERSHAM TALKS FOR TAFT AT CHAUTAUQUA.

Chautauqua, N. Y., Aug. 15.—George W. Wickersham, attorney general of the United States, spoke here Wednesday on the policies and record of the Taft administration. It was the first speech of a political symposium arranged by the Chautauqua management for the balance of the season. Eugene W. Chafin, Prohibition candidate for president, speaks this afternoon, and William J. Bryan will discuss the political situation from a Democratic standpoint on Friday. An effort is being made to get Col. Roosevelt to speak on the Progressive movement.

The portion of Mr. Wickersham's address that aroused the most enthusiasm was in reference to the administration's prosecution of trusts.

"Friend and foe have been treated alike," he declared with much earnestness. "President Taft has enforced the laws, civil and criminal, without discrimination and without fear."

HILLES GIVES TEDDY NOTHING

Claims Thirty-four States for Taft and Gives Wilson Ten.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican national committee, last night issued a statement claiming thirty-four states, with a total electoral vote of 384, for the Republican ticket; conceding ten states, with an electoral vote of 114, to the Democratic party; and listing four states, with an electoral vote of 34, as doubtful.

Following are the figures submitted by Mr. Hilles in what he calls a preliminary survey of the political situation in the country:

Claimed by the Republican Party.

State—	Electoral vote.	State—	Electoral vote
Colorado	6	New Jersey	14
Connecticut	7	New Mexico	4
Delaware	3	New York	45
Idaho	4	North Dakota	5
Illinois	29	Ohio	24
Indiana	15	Oregon	5
Iowa	13	Pennsylvania	38
Kansas	10	Rhode Island	5
Kentucky	13	South Dakota	5
Maine	6	Tennessee	12
Maryland	8	Utah	4
Massachusetts	18	Vermont	4
Michigan	15	Washington	7
Minnesota	12	West Virginia	8
Missouri	18	Wisconsin	13
Montana	4	Wyoming	3
Nevada	3
New Hampshire	4	Total	384

Conceded to the Democratic Party.

Alabama	12	N. Carolina	12
Arkansas	9	S. Carolina	9
Florida	6	Texas	20
Georgia	14	Virginia	12
Louisiana	10
Mississippi	10	Total	114

Listed as Doubtful.

Arizona	3	Nebraska	8
California	13
Oklahoma	10	Total	34

Mr. Hilles said that the Progressive party would draw no more heavily from the Republican than from the Democratic party.

Is Much Encouraged.

The president's former secretary met the members of the Republican executive committee in conference, lunched with Roy O. West of Illinois, and met a score of state leaders. He said he felt more encouraged and confident of Republican success than he had at any time since President Taft's renomination.

A NOTED DOCTOR SAYS,
Everyone should use some little antiseptic powder in the shoes. Confining the feet in shoes, is in itself unnatural and causes a moist or smarting condition. People of refinement now use daily, Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes, and would as soon go without a dentifrice as without the use of Allen's Foot-Ease.

BATTLESHIP TO BE BUILT

Washington, Aug. 15.—After a fight extending over many weeks, Democrats of the house of representatives have agreed to recede from their "no battleship" program in this session and to permit the battleship champions to vote in the house for one vessel. Unlike the four preceding caucuses, there was an absence of bitterness of feeling, and by a rising vote of 95 to 11 the resolution was put through. It is expected the senate will agree to the one battleship plan, ending the dead-lock over the naval bill.

There were present in the secret meeting 126 members, representing all opinions on the subject of appropriating for naval expansion, and of these twenty refrained from voting. While the solid support of the majority will not be given to the battleship program, the leaders are confident that they will have far more than the necessary strength when aligned with the Republican "friends of the navy."

Want Naval Monster.

Representative Sulzer of New York, who led the fight for two battleships in the pending bill, sought to have the caucus take no action as to the number of ships, but to release members to vote for one or two as they saw fit. Chairman Padgett of the naval affairs committee opposed Mr. Sulzer's resolution on the ground that it would further complicate matters.

An effort will be made to have the warship to be authorized the largest and most formidable fighting craft ever laid down. The vessel, if its sponsors win their fight, would be equal in fighting ability to any two battleships below the dreadnought size and far the superior of any of the latter class now afloat. A sharp fight is expected on this program, however, both on the ground of extravagance and the contention of many members of the naval affairs committees of both the senate and house that such a craft would be impractical.

Army Bill Passed.

The senate at a late session last night passed the army appropriation bill carrying $94,000,000, a bill replacing that originally passed, which was vetoed by President Taft. The new bill did not carry the provision of the original which would have legislated out of official life Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army.

An unsuccessful attempt was made by Senator Bacon just before the senate passed the bill to limit the appropriations so that not a dollar could be used to support the army if sent into foreign territory by the president when congress was in session without the consent of congress.

Senator Bacon cited the sending of American soldiers now in China and the sending of marines at various times to Central American countries as acts of war toward neighbors too weak to resent the invasion.

"There is no law and there never will be a law which will prevent the commander-in-chief of the army from protecting American citizens in countries too weak to give them protection," said Senator Root in reply.

Senator Bacon, after his proposal was voted down, declared that the senate would hear more about it.

Without Roll Call.

The senate committee, in striking out of the house bill the provisions objected to by the president, which reduced the cavalry forces, lengthened the term of enlistment and reorganized the officers of the war department, was approved by the senate without a single roll call.

The bill was amended on the floor by providing for a target range at Vancouver, Wash., and appropriating $50,000 for filling in lowlands at Fort Taylor, Pensacola, Fla., and in striking out the senate committee amendment providing for the offering of cups for the breeding of fine army horses.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 15.—James Whitcomb Riley has given $50,000 to Edmund H. Eitel, his nephew, who was married several days ago. Eitel has been Mr. Riley's private secretary.

MABEL BOARDMAN NOT TO HEAD TAFT WORKERS.

Manchester, Mass., Aug. 15.—Miss Mabel T. Boardman, president of the National Red Cross, announces that she cannot act as chairman of the advisory committee selected by the Republican national committee to conduct the women's work for the reelection of the president. Miss Boardman says that she does not believe that any one whose name has been closely associated with any great non-political work should permit the use of their names when it would carry more or less the influence of the organization with which they have been identified.

LINEMAN IN FATAL FALL

Companion Fell With Him But Is Saved By Striking Guy Wire.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—A message from International Falls tells of the death of one man well known in Virginia and the very serious injury of another.

While stringing a telephone wire over the power company's line one mile out of International Falls, A. C. McDermott and Robert Kellogg fell seventy feet to the ground. As he was making a connection McDermott came into contact with a live wire and was shocked into insensibility, and Kellogg, in trying to save him from falling, lost his hold and both fell to the ground.

Is Instantly Killed.

McDermott was instantly killed, nearly every bone in his body being broken.

Other than obtaining a severe jolt and some bruises, Kellogg was unhurt. He very fortunately hit a guy wire in the descent which broke the fall. A message from A. G. Rutledge, wire chief at Ranier, tells of the accident and states that the body of McDermott is being sent to Grand Forks, where his parents reside for interment.

POTATOES THRIVE ON MESABA RANGE

Swan River Country Patch May Yield 500 Bushels Per Acre.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Jake Hill of Hibbing will be a close rival of E. C. Chapman for the banner potato crop of St. Louis county this year, and has ten acres of oats that it is believed can not be equaled in the state. In Mr. Hill's potato patch in the Little Swan district to the south of Hibbing there are ten acres. The crop is ready for use, and those who have visited the ground say the yield will be over 500 bushels to the acre.

Grew Hay Last Year.

The land on which the potatoes were grown was meadow last year, and a crop of hay was cut from it in 1911. The yield and quality unquestionably establish a record for new soil. Chairman J. B. Connors of the board of supervisors of Stuntz township, who visited the Hill farm, says the oats field stands over six feet high in a dense, rank growth, and the yield is estimated at 80 bushels per acre. At the farm of Mrs. Koski, in the Little Swan country, there is a barley field with straw over four feet long. The harvest will begin in this section the first of next week.

ELY TEACHER IS NOW BRIDE

Miss Carmen Miller and Walter Eisenach Married at Ely.

Ely, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Carmen Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Miller became the bride of Walter Eisenach, the son of ex-Mayor Eisenach, yesterday morning at the bride's home on Chapman street. The home was tastefully decorated, the color scheme being orange and white, the bride and groom standing under an arch of smilax. The wedding march was played by Miss Sexton. Miss June Toal was ring bearer, while the bridal pair were attended by Miss Audrey Miller, and Clifford Miller, the brother and sister to the bride. The ceremony was read by Rev. E. F. Stidd. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, after which the couple left for a trip through the northern part of the state. Immediate friends and relatives were present and relatives were present from Winnipeg, Fort William and Oshkosh, Wis. The bride is one of the best known young ladies of Ely, having made her home here since childhood, and having been employed as a teacher in the Ely schools for the past year. Mr. Eisenach is connected with the Minnesota forest service, being superintendent of the district in Aitkin county, and having his headquarters at McGregor, and is an Ely boy. After the wedding tour they will make their home at McGregor.

FARMER DIES WITH NO DOCTOR'S CARE

Soil Tiller Near Zim Expires and Post Mortem Is Held.

Eveleth, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Ole Peterson, a farmer living a short distance west of Zim, died Tuesday night without medical attendance.

Deputy Coroner Helps went out to the place yesterday with two physicians, who held a post mortem examination and concluded that the cause of death was tuberculosis of the kidneys.

He leaves a wife and three children.

BOTH SEEK DIVORCE.

Hibbing Couple Promise Sensation in District Court.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—One of the most sensational divorce cases ever tried on the range will probably come on at the next term of the district court in Virginia. It is the case of Thomas vs. Thomas—both of Hibbing. Mrs. Thomas seeks a divorce from her husband on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and Thomas has filed a cross-bill, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment and desertion. Thomas some time ago started a suit against his wife and another man charging that he had been induced by fraud to attach his signature to deeds making over to his wife the title to a valuable homestead in St. Louis county and property in Hibbing.

OLD WOODSMAN DIES.

Frank Archer, Former Resident of Hibbing, Passes.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Frank Archer, a former well-known resident of Hibbing, died the First of the week at International Falls. Archer was one of the old-time woodsmen of this section and came here with Al Powers, now retired, as a lumberman, when the latter was one of the big operators in this section. Archer and James Boynton, better known as "Dublin Duke," who was killed last week at one of the Swan River Logging company's hoists, were old friends, and both were popular with many friends in Hibbing. Archer served during the Spanish-American war.

SEEKING MONEY FOR WARBA STAVE FACTORY.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. J. Russel of Muscatine, Iowa, is here endeavoring to interest local people in financing a new stave factory to be started at Warba in Itasca county in the near future.

HIBBING BUTCHER FINED.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—M. Siefer, proprietor of a meat market was fined in municipal court by Judge Brady yesterday, $15.60 including costs, on conviction of a charge of maintaining an unsanitary place.

Bridal Couple Return.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—County Attorney R. A. McOuat and his bride, formerly Miss Annie M. Becker, have arrived home from Brunswick, Mich., where they were married Aug. 7. Miss Becker was formerly instructor in music and drawing in the Grand Rapids schools. Mr. and Mrs. McOuat will be at home to their friends after Oct. 1.

Pretty Mothers

Health is the foundation of all good looks. The wise woman realizes this and takes precautions to preserve her health and strength through the period of child bearing. She remains a pretty mother by avoiding as far as possible the suffering and dangers of such occasions. This every woman may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and benefit to any woman in need of such a romedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers, which contains much valuable information.

SOME SCHOOLS TO BE CONSOLIDATED

Grand Rapids, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Blanks have been received by the local school board from the department of public instruction upon which to make application to change three District No. 1 schools into Holmberg schools. Under the Holmberg act passed by the legislature, special state aid is provided for districts which consolidate schools and do away with the unwieldy one-room school in which there are often under one teacher all grades, from the first to the eighth, and have pupils transported from a distance to a central or consolidated school where all the facilities of a city graded school may be taken advantage of.

The school board, after a conference consideration decided to consolidate several schools of the district into three Holmberg schools.

To Get $1,500 State Aid.

The Grand Rapids high school will be entered as a Holmberg school under Class "A", which entitles the district to $1,500 state aid, and the children of the Pokegama lake and McCormick schools transported to Grand Rapids.

The Cohasset school will be entered under Class "A" if possible, and if not under Class "B", which entitles the district to $1,000 state aid, and the children of the McMahon school transported there. The Blackberry school, if a building is erected according to plans and specifications approved by the state to comply with the requirements for Class "C" will be entered in that class, and will entitle the district, not only to the $750 state aid which attaches to that class, but also to $1,000 or $1,250 toward the erection and equipment of the building. At the Blackberry school the pupils from practically three separate communities would be taken care of by two transportation routes, the Blackberry, the McKinley and the Anderson neighborhoods.

A petition, well signed from the town of Foley, was received, asking that the Warba school be made a consolidated school, but as there is a little opposition to this move, the matter has been laid upon the table.

FUNERAL PARTY'S TEAM RUNS AWAY

Automobile Scares Horses and Eveleth People Are Thrown Out.

Eveleth, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mr. and Mrs. M. Sheehy, their son, Bud, and daughter, Pearle, and two small children, who made up one of the mourners' rigs in the funeral cortege that escorted the remains of the late Mrs. Mary Sharpe to the Virginia cemetery yesterday, on their return trip were the victims of a runaway accident. The horses took fright at the auto bus that runs between Eveleth and Gilbert. The driver lost control and the occupants were thrown out of the carriage. All were more or less bruised but fortunately none seriously. The rig was demolished and horses severely injured.

HAL CANTNER TO SOAR AT HIBBING

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Airship flights daily on all four days of the St. Louis County fair here, Aug. 29 to Sept. 1, will be one of the big amusement features of the fair.

The directors of the fair have just closed negotiations with the Moisant International aviators for the attraction. The aviator will be Hal Cantner, who has the speed record of the air made at Chicago last season.

Other amusement attractions that will be free at the grounds will be a daily relay race and wild west show, a thrilling hazard act by Lionel Legarr, who descends a spiral tower standing erect on a wooden sphere, besides vaudeville acts before the grand stand twice daily.

The speed card will be the best ever held in St. Louis county. The purses aggregate $5,000 and the entries come from some of the best racing stables in the Middle West, including the famous McGuire string of harness horses from Denver.

To Carry Exhibits Free.

Exhibits for the agricultural section will be transported by the railroads free of charge. Cattle and horses for the livestock exhibit will be transported for one fare, provided the animals are not sold while here.

Aug. 29 will be Hibbing and Chisholm day, Aug. 30, Virginia and Eveleth. Saturday there will be a special train from Duluth. The fair closes Aug. 1.

ing Aug. 15. The highest temperature yesterday was 62 deg. which is not the kind of heat that prostrates. Mr. Richardson believes that Duluth is due for showers tonight or tomorrow.

Warm weather prevailed a year ago today.

The sun rose this morning at 5:05 and it will set at 7:19 this evening, giving fourteen hours and fourteen minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"The barometric depressions centered over the Maine coast and over British Columbia and Arizona caused showers Wednesday or last night in North Atlantic districts, Virginia, Tennessee, Florida, Southern Wisconsin, Northern North Dakota, Western Manitoba, Washington, Oregon, Utah, Colorado, New Mexico, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Western South Dakota. Heavy rains fell over Southwestern Kansas and Western Florida. Hot weather prevailed Wednesday over New Jersey and most of the Southern states. The disturbances in the West will likely cause showers in St. Louis and Douglas counties during the ensuing thirty-six hours."

General Forecasts.

Chicago Aug. 15.—Forecasts for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Friday:

Upper Michigan—Fair tonight and probably Friday; slowly rising temperature.

Wisconsin—Unsettled with showers tonight or Friday; warmer tonight.

Minnesota—Showers tonight or Friday; warmer tonight in west and south portions.

Iowa—Showers tonight or Friday.

North Dakota—Showers tonight or Friday.

South Dakota—Showers tonight or Friday; warmer tonight in extreme west portion.

Montana—Local showers tonight or Friday.

Upper Lakes—Light to moderate variable winds becoming easterly; generally fair weather tonight and Friday.

TOWER PLANNING FOR COUNTY CLUB

Visitors Will Be Royally Entertained There on Aug. 22.

Tower, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The committee in charge of preparations for the entertainment of the St. Louis County club which meets here on Aug. 22, is rapidly getting things in shape. The committee wishes every club to send a good-sized delegation, even in excess of the four regular delegates allowed each club. As many as ten from each club can be cared for on the excursion. Arrangements have been made to use a private steamer and launches, if necessary, for the lake excursion. It is hoped to make this meeting the banner one of the county club's history.

TWO TEAMS PULL OUT.

Schley and Gilbert Departments Will Go It Alone.

Gilbert, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Following their action at the Biwabik tournament when they pulled out of the Mesaba Range Firemen's tournament association because they claimed to have been treated unfairly in the matter of securing the next tournament the Schley and Gilbert departments are taking steps to go it alone and have a tournament all their own. They expect other range towns to join with them, claiming to have assurances to that effect. The two departments met night before last and talked over plans. Another meeting of the two will be held soon when developments are expected.

It has been decided, however, that a tournament will be held here next summer and arrangements are already being made to provide funds. The departments have $300 on hand at present as a nucleus for the event and that will be added to by a series of entertainments and dances.

The first of these will take place Monday evening at which time the Schley and Gilbert departments will entertain at a concert and dance. They have secured the Troubadour Musical company as a feature, who will entertain the people with vocal and instrumental solos. The concert will take place in the earlier part of the evening, after which the company will furnish the music for the dance.

NO DEVELOPMENTS IN BANK ROBBERY

Itasca County Officers Hoping Two Yeggs Will Come From Hiding.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—There were no developments up to noon today in the Cohasset bank robbery. Sheriff Riley, if he has any line on the whereabouts of the two yeggs who "stuck up" Cashier Skocdople Tuesday noon and got away with about $1,600, is not talking to the press, while the sheriff has no active posse in the woods searching for the pair, it is known he is keeping in touch with points in the clearing where the two might come out for food or the endeavor to get away.

There is $750 in cash awaiting anyone who can bring the robbers to justice, $500 being the standing state rewards in such cases and $250 offered by the protective department of the Minnesota State Bankers' association.

Charles D. Brown, the detective in the employ of the protective department of the state bankers' association, who has been here and at Cohasset getting a line on the affair, has gone to Bemidji today on another matter, but will remain in this section in case there are any developments demanding his presence. The currency secured by the men is not in larger denominations than $20 bills or gold, being $2, $5, $10 and $20 bills and $5, $10 and $20 gold pieces, the ordinary currency used daily by the bank, which will make it harder to trace the highwaymen than if they had secured bills of large denominations, like $50 or $100, which, when offered in small communities always attract attention.

As the yeggs are supposedly on foot unless they had horses concealed in the brush a mile or so from Cohasset, it will not be as easy to trace them as it would if they were mounted and made a dash to get out of the county or state.

Descriptions of the men gleaned from what Skocdople recalled of the pair as they pointed their ugly guns at him and forced him to stand with hands aloft near a window while one rifled the teller's cage of money and went through the vault, then forced him inside and locked the door, have been sent broadcast especially to the larger cities and places like International Falls, where they might seek to escape from the country. It is hardly believed the men would have the temerity to visit large centers, where the officers are on the alert for the reward, at least not for a number of days until they have grown beards and perhaps secured a change of clothing. Some deserted lumber camp, of which there are many in this section, may be their hiding place. If they have it supplied with some food they can lay low until snow flies and excitement over the affair has died down, them tee.

Sheriff Riley feels quite confident he will land the couple somewhere else if not in Itasca county.

Many Theories Afloat.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—T. E. Haley is home from Cohasset, where the state bank was robbed of $1,600. Mr. Riley says there was a good deal of excitement at the village and Sheriff Riley is conducting a search for the fugitives. One report was to the effect that two men answering their description had been seen on the road to Bovey and deputies were dispatched there at once, but learned nothing of advantage. A good many sensational stories are in circulation according to Mr. Haley. Sheriff Riley's theory is that the robbers headed for the Canadian border.

Effective, Economical Complexion Beautifier

(Julia Orff in The Clubwoman.)

One reason I so strongly recommend mercolized wax is that it really takes the place of several different cosmetics, saving time, patience and expense. It is better than any cleansing cream, better than any massage cream, and better than any rouge, for accomplishing the results for which such articles are used. As the wax actually absorbs an old, faded or discolored cuticle, a little each day, the underlying skin which gradually appears, is clearer, softer, healthier-hued and more youthful than any cosmetic-made complexion. Spreading on a thin coat of this wax at night, washing it off mornings, in a week or so produces a marvelous transformation. Just one ounce of mercolized wax, obtainable at any drugstore, will do the work. There's nothing better to remove freckles, tan, sallowness, blotches, pimples or blackheads.

For wrinkles and loose, saggy skin, I invariably recommend a face bath made by dissolving 1 ounce powdered saxolite in ½ pint witch hazel. This has remarkable astringent and tonic properties.

CROWDS ARRIVE AT TWO HARBORS

Many Are Expected at Bi-County Sunday School Gathering.

Two Harbors, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—This city is in holiday attire for the bi-county Sunday school convention which begins this evening and lasts two days. A large number of delegates arrived today and a big crowd will arrive this evening from Duluth on a special train. It is expected that Lake and St. Louis county Sunday schools will be well represented at the gathering.

The berry pickers are still busy bringing in their fruit and canning is the order of the day.

Biwabik to Play Virginia.

Biwabik, Minn., Aug. 15.—The Biwabik baseball nine will play here next Sunday with the Virginia city team. The local nine has been materially strengthened during the past three weeks and the dopesters believe they will be able to take Virginia's measure. Last Sunday the boys won from the Ely team by the one-sided score of 18 to 2.

BRITONS STRIPPED BY MEXICANS

Horses and Clothing Taken From Two Mine Employes.

City of Mexico, Aug. 15.—Two Englishmen employed in a mine at Guerrero were held up by Zapata rebels in Morelos yesterday. Their horses were stolen and then the rebels stripped them of clothing and all personal belongings.

The Englishmen made their way to a telegraph station and wired here, asking for assistance. They gave their names as C. H. Sterling and C. Cruikshanks.

CHINESE REBEL LEADER CAUGHT

Has Documents Showing Selection of New National Officers.

Hongkong, China, Aug. 15.—The Chinese manager of a secret society of Chinese revolutionaries, whose headquarters are in the province of Kwang Tuan, was arrested here today, taken before a magistrate and sent to prison. Documents and badges found on the accused indicated that the revolutionaries had selected their own officials to succeed those at present holding positions under the Chinese government.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

MEETINGS AT GRAND FORKS

North Dakota City Will Entertain Two Notable State Gatherings.

Municipal League and State Hardware Dealers to Gather There.

Grand Forks, Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—For the purpose of organizing a municipal league, Mayor M. F. Murphy of Grand Forks has issued a call to the mayors of cities and presidents of villages to meet here Sept. 25. The plan was recently approved by the Grand Forks council.

The Municipal Legislative league, which is proposed, would have for its principal purpose the safeguarding of municipal interests before the state legislature, and the advancement of such measures as may be necessary to the better government of the municipalities.

Some time ago the state had such a league, but it was allowed to die.

Hardware Dealers' Meeting.

The North Dakota Hardware Dealers association will hold its annual meeting here Feb. 13, 14 and 15, next, according to the decision reached by the executive board at a meeting held here yesterday. Grand Forks and several other cities sought the convention.

As in the past two years, the hardware exhibit will be featured at the convention in the auditorium.

Secretary C. N. Barnes was placed in charge of all convention and exhibit arrangements.

SPENT $36,000 ON ROADS.

Ashland, Wis., Aug. 15.—Road Commissioner G. E. Foster has reported to the county board that under his direction $36,000 had been expended on road work in Ashland county and he thought that the money was very profitably spent. Of this amount $6,680 was spent on the Marengo road, $3,228 on the Morse-Cayuga road, $2,864 on the Minersville road, $5,000 on the Highbridge road and $20,000 on the Ashland-White River highway. Of this $20,000 half of it was spent for equipment which can be sold after it is used.

He stated that the iron ore for filling was a success and that probably that they would try and use it without top dressing it with other rock which would cut the cost of road building a great deal.

Mr. Foster said the greatest difficulty encountered was in moving the clay to get ready for the roads. He stated that the roads were in fine condition from Highbridge clear through to the southern end of the county but that between White River and Marengo the road was not completed and was pretty soft at the present time.

LANGUAGE TOO STRONG.

St. Paul Drummer Fined for Speaking Too Harshly of T. R.

New Richmond, Wis., Aug. 15.—For stating his opinion of Theodore Roosevelt and the "bull moose" movement, with strong adjectives in a local hotel, Theodore Loring, a commercial traveler from St. Paul, was arrested, hauled into police court and assessed a fine and costs aggregating $10, which he paid.

The complaint was made by Col. S. N. Hawkins, former mayor, who had abolished profanity within the city limits.

Hawkins had just made the statement that Roosevelt would carry twenty-two states in the November election, to which Lorig replied in language which caused his immediate arrest. Lorig took the first train out of town.

MONTANA SCANDINAVIANS

Hold First Annual Meeting at Great Falls.

Great Falls, Mont., Aug. 15.—The Scandinavian Brotherhood of Montana held its first annual state convention here electing officers and closing Tuesday with a banquet and ball. Miles City captured the honor of the next convention.

The officers were chosen as follows: Christ Nelson of Great Falls, grand president; Carl Egeberg of Miles City, grand vice president; Oscar Anderson, Helena, grand secretary-treasurer; David J. Erickson of Missoula, chaplain; J. F. Nelson, Butte, conductor; Ernest Fredell, Anaconda, inside guard; O. Simonson, Butte, inside guide; John G. Noren, Great Falls, grand past president.

MUST STICK BY PLEA.

Houghton Judge Makes Important Ruling in Murder Case.

Houghton, Mich., Aug. 15.—The defense cannot plead one defense and then seek to establish another, according to a ruling Judge H. P. O'Brien made yesterday in the trial of Jacob Ehler, a Hancock shoe merchant accused of killing Ernest Hendrickson, a cigar drummer, in Hancock, Feb. 18, last.

Judge O'Brien ruled against the introduction of evidence to show that the trouble up to the shooting was a long standing enmity between Ehler and Hendricksen, alleged to be due to improper relations between Hendricksen and Mrs. Ehler.

The court ruled that since the defense offered was self-defense, it having been shown that Hendricksen fired one or more shots at Ehler during the encounter, testimony regarding the relations between Mrs. Ehler and Hendricksen had no place in the evidence. The court said such testimony would only be admitted in case the defense should change its position and offer it as ameliorating Ehler's offense.

IS HELD FOR TRIAL.

Accused Lakota, N. D., Banker Waives Preliminary Hearing.

Lakota, N. D., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—F. A. Rahders, former president of the People's State bank of Lakota, will stand trial in the district court of Nelson county on the charge of accepting deposits after he knew the institution to be insolvent. He waived the preliminary hearing and was bound over under bonds of $4,000, which have been furnished.

This new angle in the sensational case, out of which has already grown one prison term for Rahders, and one for S. A. Floren, the bank cashier, is being followed closely.

BIG LUMBER CONTRACT.

Involves Cutting of 35,000,000 Feet of Montana Logs.

Kalispell, Mont., Aug. 15.—The biggest logging contract ever let in Northwestern Montana and probably in the state was made between the Somers Lumber company and H. W. Good. It calls for the delivery to the company of 35,000,000 feet of logs. Two years are allowed to complete the contract.

The timber is to be cut twenty-five miles northwest of Kalispell and will be sent down the Stillwater river and Flathead and across the upper bay on the Lake of Somers.

Three hundred men and fifty teams will be employed in the logging operations.

The contract is but one of the signs of the return of the lumber industry to its old form. The Somers company will let additional contracts and other companies will have forces of men in the woods.

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 15.—The Owl Drug store, on lower Front street, of which J. G. Love is proprietor, was entered at an early hour yesterday morning by burglars and the cash register was carried into the alley back of the store. The register was not opened, the burglar having been surprised by the approach of Officer Pickering. The entrance to the store was made by a skeleton key. No money was secured.

Locate Dead Senator's Son.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 15.—After a search throughout the Canadian Northwest Minneapolis relatives of Stanley Washburn have at last succeeded in locating him and informing him of his father's death. He was found at Fitzhugh, Alberta. He telegraphed his mother that he would return at once to Minneapolis.

Killed While On Duty.

East Grand Forks, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—That Gus Bella came to his death while on duty, was the verdict returned by the jury that conducted the inquest into the death of the Northern Pacific roundhouse employe, killed here. It was determined that Bella was engaged about his regular duties when he was caught between the cab of an engine and the frame work of a stall door, and was crushed to death.

Says Gordon Will Return.

Ashland, Wis., Aug. 15.—It is the belief of Chairman Driscoll of the town of Gordon, whose former chairman, E. B. Gordon, disappeared several weeks ago when charges of illegally converting bonds and other securities to the value of $40,000, belonging to the town, will return and face his accusers. He said that Mrs. Gordon corresponds regularly with her husband, and that it is generally understood at his home that the missing man is to return in a day or two.

Menominee Mill Hand Killed.

Menominee, Mich., Aug. 15.—Bart Baker, aged 43 years, was instantly killed in the Park mill of the Menominee & Marinette Paper company yesterday. He fell from a scaffold to the stone floor, breaking his neck.

Other Places Want Him.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 15.—Dr. Everett L. Firnbaugh, sent to the state prison from Minneapolis a year ago, after floating bad checks in payment for an automobile and other things, will meet police from several cities when he steps out after serving eighteen months. Firnbaugh, under the name of E. E. Adams, is wanted in Des Moines for forgery.

Marshfield—Charles Budtke, aged 24, living near Auburndale, was struck by a passenger train on the Soo Line Tuesday and instantly killed.

Green Bay—Mrs. Peter Moran, 70 years old, was found dead seated in a chair on the porch of her home.

Rhinelander — Game wardens of Eagle river arrested three Indians at Nixon lake in Vilas county. They had hides, deer heads and venison in their possession. The Indians were taken before Judge Oliver of Star Lake, where they pleaded guilty and were fined $30 each.

Sparta—Because he is in fear that bodily harm will be done him, the Rev. Mr. Stark, pastor of a German church at Ridgeville, has appealed to District Attorney Abel for protection. The trouble is said to be due to a factional fight in his congregation.

Eau Claire—Mrs. Emma Clock, formerly of Eau Claire, and her baby daughter were accidentally drowned while out in a row boat near Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Clock, who reside in New Jersey, were on their annual launch trip at the time. Mrs. Clock was Miss Emma Asper of this city.

Ashland—The tailor shop of Harold Hanson was entered on Aug. 10 or 11 and a number of bolts of cloth were stolen, consisting of men't suiting, both summer and winter, and also some overcoating goods. The thief or thieves entered by the front door, presumably with a skeleton key and vacated with their booty via the rear window.

Madison—J. A. Messerschmidt, second assistant attorney general, announced on Tuesday that he would state his findings in the case against Sheriff A. J. Schwittay, Marinette county, charged with malfeasance, to Governor McGovern in a few days.

Minnesota Briefs

St. Paul—John P. Galbraith was appointed receiver of the Monticello Cooperative company of Monticello, Minn. The appointment was made by an order filed in the district court by Judge Dickson upon a suit brought by Finch, Van Slyck & McConville, St. Paul, a judgment creditor of the cooperative company.

Minneapolis—A. G. Preston, bachelor real estate man, who died a week ago, has bequeathed approximately $26,000 to Enniscorthy, Ireland, to provide Christmas cheer for the poor of his old home town. His will was filed in probate court Tuesday.

St. Cloud—Joseph Blommer, aged 45, who lived here seventeen years, is dead. Surviving are his wife and five sons, William, Fred, Martin, Henry and Raymond, ranging in age from 7 to 17 years, Mr. Blommer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Blommer, Sr., five brothers and four sisters.

Brainerd—P. T. Brown, second vice president of the Sixth district of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor, has returned from a visit at Crosby, Deerwood, Cuyuna and Ironton, where he examined into labor conditions. His investigations and conclusions will be embodied in a report to the state federation.

Shakopee—Fire believed to have started from spontaneous combustion in mattresses early Monday night, caused $15,000 damage to the stock of Hircher & Son's furniture store and $600 damage to the building. There was $1,000 insurance on the building but none on the stock.

St. Cloud—Martin Reider died of paralysis Tuesday. Mr. Reider was nearly 70 years of age and had been a resident of this city for many years. He is survived by his wife and two grown sons, Henry and Joseph Reider. The funeral will take place Friday.

Fergus Falls—Miss Thelma Glorvigen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Glorvigen, fell on the sidewalk Monday evening and broke her right arm. This is the second time her arm has been broken within the past six months, she having fallen on some ice and broken it early in the spring.

Stillwater — The funeral of Otis Staples, who died in Spokane, was held from the residence of W. C. Masterman Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. John McCoy officiating at the house. At the Fairview cemetery the services were conducted by St. John's Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M. There was an escort of twenty members of Knights Templar, of which order he was a past eminent commander.

Alexandria—The Alexandria school board has elected John Hagen of Renville, superintendent of the public schools of this city, as successor to Supt. Yeager, resigned. Yeager has been elected superintendent of the schools at Browns Valley. Mr. Hagen has held a similar position at Renville.

Clinton—Ernest Erickson, a laboring man, attempted suicide by hanging himself to the water tower ladder, but was prevented by Night Watchman Betts and Station Agent Patrick.

SUFFERED EVERYTHING

Elgin, Ill.—"After fourteen years of suffering everything from female complaints, I am at last restored to health.

"I employed the best doctors and even went to the hospital for treatment and was told there was no help for me. But while taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use until I was made well." —Mrs. HENRY LEISEBERG, 743 Adams St.

Kearneysville, W. Va.—"I feel it my duty to write and say what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female weakness and at times felt so miserable I could hardly endure being on my feet.

"After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and following your special directions, my trouble is gone. Words fail to express my thankfulness. I recommend your medicine to all my friends."—Mrs. G. B. WHITTINGTON.

The above are only two of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which show clearly what great things Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound does for those who suffer from woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

This Week's Sunday School Lesson

WRITTEN FOR THE HERALD BY REV. J. S. KIRTLEY, D. D.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON: AUG. 18.

Mark V. 21-42: The Ruler's Daughter.

CONNECTION.

It was after the Master's return from that trip across the lake on which He delivered the demoniac from the legion of demons. We are not surprised that the people were waiting for His return. He had been gone only a few days and they were still filled with wonder at the wonderful parables He had spoken.

LESSON.

I.

Appeal to Christ's Sympathy. 21-24.

"And when Jesus had crossed over again in the boat unto the other side a great multitude was gathered unto Him: and He was by the sea. And there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and seeing Him, he falleth at His feet, and beseecheth Him much, saying, My little daughter is at the point of death: I pray Thee, that Thou come and lay Thy hands on her, that she may be made whole, and live. And He went with him; and a great multitude followed Him, and they thronged Him."

1. HEART BREAK.—The effect of the sickness of his child drew the man who had charge of the synagogue, who selected the participants in the service and directed the work of synagogue, to seek Christ's help. Dignity and prejudice gave way before that one sorrow of his. The popular talk about Jesus showed that He had miraculous power. That was what the man wanted. That was as far as he had gone with his faith. The centurion had gone farther and declared that Jesus could heal with a word. The father's agony was in that request. The child was a little daughter, and we know how a little girl can get hold of a father's heart strings; she was 12 years old, just the time to be most attractive. Note the abjectness of his petition, as he fell on his knees, in true Oriental fashion. Note the limitation on his faith, as he thought Jesus could heal only when with the patient. Note how he forgot his self-righteousness, as a pharisee, his fear of all scorn and criticism from his old friends, in his intense agony.

2. RESPONSE. — Curiosity, flattery and threats had no effect on Him, but the man's sorrow touched His heart; his faith won His response in spite of its defects; his abruptness was overlooked and forgiven. Jesus felt both sorrow and pleasure. Don't fail to notice that He received the man's homage without resentment or pride. Jesus knew He was worthy to receive man's worship, the reverence due only to divinity.

II.

Appeal to Christ's Wisdom. 35-39.

"While he yet spake, they come from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, Thy daughter is dead: Why troublest thou the Teacher any further? But Jesus, not heeding the word spoken, saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Fear not, only believe. And He suffered no man to follow with Him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. And they come to the house of the ruler of the synagogue; and He beholdeth a tumult, and many weeping and wailing greatly. And when He was entered in, He saith unto them, Why make ye a tumult and weep? The child is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed Him to scorn."

1. DESPAIR.—While they were waiting the child died and the father seems to have a tone of resentment as he said 'Give it up; it is too late.' The delay was due to the omitted incident of the woman who stole the blessing of a cure from Him. He owed something to such a person. The delay was worth it. Meantime the child was dead and the father was in despair. "Don't trouble the Teacher now," they said, rather doggedly.

2. CHEER.—It was wisdom as well as grace when He tactfully said He would go anyhow. It was wise when He told the man "Fear not, only believe," and then went with him. It was wise to allow no man but the favored and fitting three, with the parents, to go into the home. Too many would disturb; the rest were not enough in sympathy with Him.

3. DEATH.—What He said about death seemed unreal to them. A child was surely dead and they had the hired mourners to wail and beat their breasts as was the custom. For the burial of a wife a man had to hire one mourning woman and two flute players. Jairus was rich and he could afford a large number of mourners. They were on the watch and were on the grounds by the time he got back with Jesus, whom he had met down at the seaside when he returned from the east shore. Jesus always called it "sleep," instead of "death." He reserved the word death for that terrible thing that befalls the soul that is separated from God, the source of life, death in sin. Christ's body fell asleep on the cross as any martyr might, but that was not the death that forced the blood out of its natural channels. The separation from God which He experienced, when in the sinner's place on the cross, and the final condition of the persistently rebellious, He called death. No one else had made that distinction and the people scorned the idea.

III.

Appeal to Christ's Power. 40-30.

"But He, having put them all forth, taketh the father of the child and her mother and them that were with Him, and goeth in where the child was. And taking the child by the hand, He saith unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise, and straightway the damsel rose up, and walked; for she was 12 years old. And they were amazed straightway with a great amazement. And He charged them much that no man should know this; and He commanded that something should be given her to eat."

1. AUTHORITY. — The calm power He manifested gave Him an aloofness. It took the form of authority as He spoke to the noisy crowd and would not allow them to enter the house with Him, in spite of their curiosity. It took the form of mastery over death. When He said it was a sleep He told a deep truth and He announced a kind purpose—to awake her. He showed power in taking charge of the parents, for they did exactly what He said and went in with Him. The silence and the secrecy of it were befitting the occasion.

2. CARELESSNESS. — No publicity was desired for this case, as was shown by the small number allowed to witness it and by the command He afterwards gave to those who saw it. After saying she was asleep He might have wished to leave the people in ignorance of the miracle. He didn't wish to ground His reputation on the exceptional, but on the habitual. He took it a few for the sake of the girl herself, also for their sake that they might be trained the better. Those whom He took in were the ones He could depend on—three who were to be with Him on the mount of transfiguration and in the agony of the garden of Gethsemane. He was also careful in dealing with the girl, to take her by the hand, so as to give her the touch of life in addition to the word of life. She would also open her eyes on her parents, not on the faces of strangers alone. He was careful to have them minister to her physical needs. The body can never live on truths alone any more than the soul on bread alone. He never does for us what we can do for ourselves. He raises her from the dead; her parents must feed her.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

Sleep is not unconscious. It suspends the power of affecting or being affected by the world of sense, but does no more. We live and think and rejoice in sleep. It has the promise of waking. It brings rest. Therefore, our Lord takes the old metaphor which all nations have used to hide the ugliness of death, and breathes new hope and calming into it. Heathen despair spoke of an eternal sleep; Jesus shows us that if we sleep we shall do well and wake at his voice, leaving weariness and life's fever behind us in the empty bed.—Maclaran.

The evangelists never stopped to say to themselves that the miracles of Jesus were wonderful. To them these things were not astonishing, now as they looked back from the time of writing their narratives, for it was a fact, long familiar to their minds, that He who wrought them was divine; and so they calmly tell the story of miracle after miracle, without any exclamation or remark. But it was appropriate to mention, as they often do, the wonder felt by the persons witnessing a miracle, because this was one of the evidences of its manifest reality.—Broadus.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

1.—Why are the actual miracles of that day still miracles?

2.—Can we get such results through faith in Christ today?

3.—What is the best way of showing our grief for our departed?

4.—Should we now use the word "sleep" when we mean what we usually mean by the word "death?"

5.—Does Christ want us to tell no man about His miracles?

WHAT A MUNICIPAL SHELTER MEANS

A girl looking for work is found on the street after nightfall. She has no job, not any too much money, no acquaintances here. Where shall she go?

A woman with a family of small children is found at the railroad station. Her husband failed to meet her. She has not one cent, not even for food. She doesn't know a soul here and she can't speak English. What shall be done with her?

None of these people ought to go to jail. The strays can't be left to starve. There is no place where they really belong. What shall be done about it?

The board of public welfare which is charged under the charter with the conduct of "public lodging houses, houses of refuge and similar agencies for the well being of the unfortunates and delinquents of the city," has asked for $4,000 to start and maintain a municipal shelter for just that sort of people.

Chief Troyer needs some place where he can send people in his charge, like the runaway girl. He doesn't need it often but when he does he needs it very much. The deaconess who represents the Travelers' Aid at the station has such cases frequently. Girls and women apply to the state employment agency who ought to be taken care of a few days till they can find themselves.

DRY FARMING RULING.

Decision Made By Interior Department Affects Many Desert Entries.

Bozeman, Mont., Aug. 15.—Word has been received that the decision of the local land office in the case of Mrs. E. L. Houston against B. W. Spaulding, a desert land entryman, which it is said will affect hundreds of homesteaders through the West, has been confirmed by department officials at Washington.

Mrs. Houston's contention that the land in question was not desert land, as adjoining land of a similar character was yielding profitable crops without irrigation, was sustained. The decision recognizes the modern methods of dry farming.

FLAYS TEDDY AND PERKINS

Representative Stanley Makes Speech on His Steel Report.

Says Republicans "Picked Pockets of Shroud" for Campaign Fund.

Washington, Aug. 15.—The personal and political relations of Col. Theodore Roosevelt and George W. Perkins, formerly of J. P. Morgan & Co., were bitterly attacked on the floor of the house late yesterday by Representative A. O. Stanley of Kentucky, chairman of the Steel trust investigation committee.

In a speech supporting his bill to make the reports of the commissioner of corporations available for congress, Representative Stanley charged that Roosevelt had protected the Harvester trust from government prosecution, and described Perkins as the "go-between" of "big business and the government."

Representative Stanley's characterizations of Mr. Morgan's former associate were bitter. He dwelt at length on the absorption of the Tennessee Coal & Iron company by the United States Steel corporation, and charged that Perkins had been able to secure from Herbert Knox Smith, former commissioner of corporations, information which was denied in congress.

Attacked New Party.

The new Progressive party came in for an extended discussion at the hands of Mr. Stanley.

"I hear that this new party of Progressive capitalism," he said, "will sing hymns between the tirades of Roosevelt and the platitudes of Perkins and that Perkins is to be choir leader. I would suggest that they paraphrase the war cry of the Turkish Janazaries and adopt it as the battle hymn of the 'faithful from Wall Street':

"'Allah, Allah, Mammon is Allah's;
There is no God but Mammon and Morgan is his prophet.'"

In his attack on Perkins Mr. Stanley said:

"For several years the chief intermediary between big business and those who were invested by the executive department with the duty of investigating it has been a gentleman by the name of George W. Perkins. For years this fanatical, ardent partisan has broken through the restraints which deter better men and has unhesitatingly sacrificed every other obligation to society and to himself in the secret service of his party.

Other People's Money.

"In 1904 Mr. Perkins, in his eagerness to aid his party and his hero, Mr. Roosevelt, actually donated $50,000 of other people's money to the good cause. He gave his personal check to Mr. Bliss and was reimbursed by check of the New York Life Insurance company—No. 7283—payable to J. P. Morgan & Co. The proceeds of this check were traced to Mr. Perkins, and for this eminent service he was arrested under a warrant charging him with grand larceny.

"Perkins knew the consent of the policy holders was necessary to save this appropriation of their funds from the guilt of common larceny, and that consent was not and could not have been obtained.

"Who were these pilfered policyholders? The most pathetic and helpless figures in all this vale of tears. The young mother wrapped in the black habiliments of woe, orphans wailing the name of father. He robbed the widow of her slender patrimony and snatched the last crumb from the fingers of helpless childhood.

"Picked Pockets of Shroud."

"In all the loathsome annals of greed and graft there is nothing so sordid and pitiless as the creature who did this. This man escaped a prison cell by the skin of his teeth for having picked the pockets of a shroud for the use and benefit of the Republican party."

Representative Stanley declared that later Mr. Perkins came to Washington as "envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary from J. P. Morgan & Co., the Harvester and Steel trusts." After reciting that Senator Hansbrough was at that time demanding an investigation of the International Harvester company, Mr. Stanley said:

"It was to stay the department of justice and to silence the demands of Senator Hansbrough and to solicit the aid of the commissioner of corporations and of the president of the United States that Mr. Perkins made his unheralded appearance in the city of Washington.

"Here he remained for weeks, oscillating between the department of commerce and labor and the White House with the familiarity of a friend and the insolence of an ally. Upon the commissioner of corporations he exhausted all his powers of cajoling and coercing. He reminded him of his service and unique liberality to the party, and the precious and long standing friendship which had been so beneficial to the house of J. P. Morgan & Co., and to the administration of Roosevelt.

Impressed the Commissioner.

"So impressed was the commissioner of corporations with the necessity of suppressing the then Harvester investigation and preventing any further procedure against the other far-reaching 'Morgan interests' that he forgot the seal which the law had placed upon his lips. Facts which were withheld from the highest law-making body of the land were freely revealed to the emissary of the Steel and Harvester trusts."

Reviewing the information as to the absorption of the Tennessee Coal & Iron company by the Steel corporation, secured by the Stanley Steel investigating committee, Mr. Stanley said:

"The severest critics of Col. Roosevelt can hardly conceive that he would, in twenty minutes, have commissioned the Steel corporation to crush its last competitor. Had he possessed one-tenth of the information which the commissioner of corporations was afterwards forced by the investigations of this committee and the pressure of public opinion to publish to the world as suggested by the commissioner of corporations, the investigation of the Harvester trust was summarily stopped.

"The assurances of Mr. Perkins that the 'far reaching influences of the Morgan company, the Harvester and Steel trust were not to be sneezed at,' appears to have had great weight with the chief executive.

"Get Behind Me."

"On this occasion," concluded Mr. Stanley, "the colonel assumed the same relative position toward the masters from Wall Street that the Lord assumed toward the devil. The Saviour said 'Get thee behind me, Satan,' and Roosevelt said, 'I will stand in front of you, oh Steel trust; I will paralyze the strong arm of the law; I will silence the voice of public clamor and I will deliver to you the industrial dominance of the South.' And for that service, worth multiplied millions to the United States Steel corporation, it has not been lacking in gratitude from the day of merger until this good hour Perkins and Gary, brothers of the Steel corporation have been absolutely at the command of the ex-president of the United States.

"They were with him in the old party and they have staged and supported this political 'Punch and Judy' performance lately pulled off in Chicago, in which they fantastically figure. Roosevelt, McCormick and Perkins play their little parts, find their exits and entrances and take their cue from this insolent combination of political and financial highbinders which did not hesitate to rob a grave for the campaign funds in 1904, and which is now entrusted with the duty of providing provender for the "Bull Moose."

BOSTON COMPANY IS UMSTED'S CREDITOR.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Examination of the schedule of liabilities aggregating more than $1,500,000 filed in the United States district court by Franklin A. Umsted, who listed only $210 in assets, although he had sought to organize a $15,000,000 steel company, discloses that he alleges that he is indebted to the amount of $225,000 to the Union Trust company of Boston, and not to the New York company of the same name, at first mentioned as a creditor.

Umsted sought to combine independent steel companies to fight the United States Steel corporation. His venture was incorporated in 1903 under the laws of the state of Maine. The attempt failed, and memory of it was revived by the filing of the petitions for judicial relief from the enormous debt.

WILL URGE WOMEN TO HELP ROOSEVELT.

New York, Aug. 15.—Miss Eleanor Carpenter, who is in charge of organizing the women for the Progressive campaign, said that a call shortly will be issued to the women of the United States urging them to work for the Progressive ticket, as its platform contains the suffrage and industrial planks in which women are interested.

STEERS BRING RECORD PRICES IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Steers reached the highest price ever paid on the Chicago exchange yesterday, when a load of Indiana fed Herefords sold at $10.50 a hundredweight. A number of steers were sold for $10 or better. This class of stock is now at the highest level ever reached here. Sellers are of the opinion that prime steers will reach $11 before there is any check.

Have A Case Sent Home

IT'S a mighty fine thing to have a case of beer in your cellar. It provides for an ever-ready beverage for meals, lunches, etc. or for mere refreshment of the most healthful kind.

is particularly well adapted for the home on account of its purity and extra healthfulness. If you could spare the time to be shown through the brewery and bottling house you would understand why it is so good. Physicians recommend it as a tonic and builder of good, rich blood. For convalescents and nursing mothers it is the ideal liquid food.

DOOKS GRAB FINAL GAME

Back in 1812 Com. Perry caused intense excitement along the shoal banks and in the hearts of some of the original families, by briefly stating, "We have been presented to the enemy and they are ours." We also met the enemy yesterday and the Perry presentation of the case goes for us and Sweeny. Pause while we get a little local atmosphere. There was sunshine and many ladies present. It is meet and proper that they should travel along in company. There were bright hats, several creations produced by scheming ladies' tailors, and many beaming countenances. The grandstand held more glory than at any time this season. Let's break up this hit and run description—we defeated Grand Forks by the score of 5 to 1.

The day was set aside for sweet charity. There were not as many there as the officials looked for, but many bought tickets and did not come. But those present got their money's worth, for they saw some ball game. Claudie, and heaping baskets of bounding fun in the field sports.

Treat the last appearance of the Grand Forkers for the present season. They left here with two games and $20 worth of smoking tobacco. They are a bunch of good fellows and we failed to see them go. But life is stern and duty beckoned.

The stellar feature of the game was the killing of a fowl by Hargrove up against the grandstand. The feat was performed with one hand, making it the more Jimmy Archer. Mr. Wilson hit one that went up and then very naturally came down. Its caming happened right up against the wire netting of the stand. Back dashed Hardy and in one last plunge he stuck forth his mitt hand. The ball jumped into the mitt, turned comfortably several times and then stuck like a good sport.

Nothing serious happened until the second, then we scored. With Meniece out Mr Leber singled past the unsuspecting third baseman. McGraw doubled into the left pasture and the little one was across.

In round six we chalked two to the count. Johnson started nothing, going down from first to Foster. Mr. Bennett put down one of his most peculiar bunts and by clever legging beat the throw to the bag. He is very good at this sort of thing. After Mr. Bluhm had gone down through the Bell-Foster collecting agency, Mr. Sours was walked without malice aforethought, but Meniece, glaring forth menace with his big bat, was walked on purpose, thus populating the paths.

Here came Ted Leber and knocked one to Mons Morse in right. That gent promptly fumbled the fly and the two runs were over. Thus does fate cross the aims of pitchers and catchers.

In the next round we gathered two more, completing the labor of the day.

De Haven erred on McGraw's offering. O'Brien whiffed and Hargrove sangled. Johnson forced Hargrove and Bennett singled cleanly to right, scoring McGraw. Bluhm doubled and Johnson was in, Bennett being nipped at the plate on a fake throw to second.

The one count of the visitors came in the seventh, being brought about by Hyzer's walk, Sours' error and a single by Altman.

Field Sports.

The field sports furnished delight and several prizes. De Haven won the circling of the bases in 15 seconds. Jerry Edmunds of the same team being second. The 100-yard dash was captured by long-limbed Red Bluhm, Lucella Sours running second, Ted Leber third, Sycamore Bennett, J. Edmunds, Sam De Haven, one McArthur and others also running.

Van Dine won the fungo hitting contest. This is virtually knocking flies, its object being to hit the ball the farthest and to get the prize. Mr. Van Dine hit one to the far corner where standeth the flag pole. He won a mask which he promptly bartered for some safety razor blades.

Sours won the egg race, his competitors charging that he flattened his egg and made it lie dormant and quiet in his spoon. The present price of eggs is refutation against this base accusation. Jerry Edmunds won the sack race easily, he having been reared in North Dakota and had much to do with sacks.

"Doc" Miller, though suffering with a broken spoke, and, having been out of the game for several weeks, proved the worth of his whip by handily winning the long throwing contest, though Doc had to hop around on one peg. He heaved the pellet 302:10 and he says he can send her further. It was unnecessary.

SUPERIOR WINS FROM WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 15.—Cummings again proved his ability to beat the Peggers, holding them to five blows, Superior winning the game by the score of 8 to 2. McQuarrie and Peasley were easy for the visitors, thirteen hits being gathered by the Red Sox.

HIGHLANDERS AND TIGERS BREAK EVEN.

New York, Aug. 15.—New York broke even in their double-header with Detroit, losing the first game 6 to 3, and winning the second, 3 to 1. In the first game Detroit hit Fisher and Caldwell opportunely, while Mullin and Dubuc were at their best in pinches. Ford won a pitchers' battle from Willett in the second game. The batting of Daniels in the first game was the feature. In five times up he made a home run, a triple, two singles and drew a pass. Wolverton has been suspended indefinitely. The scores:

ANCIENT FIGHTER IS BECOMING A HUMORIST

THOMAS J. SHARKEY.

PRESENT WHITE HOPES CAUSE HUGE LAUGHTER

Just one humble word in passing.

There is, of course, humor in the challenge of Tom Sharkey—we have got into the habit of looking for the annual outburst from the grog keeper of Fourteenth street, Noo York. But—if adjectives could only be armed with spikes for this occasion—the present collection of misfits who are drawing money under false pretenses in the heavyweight class, is a joke so huge that one should begin to laugh immediately following luncheon to get the benefit of it.

Every hulking boob that stands over 6 feet, no matter how angular his shoulder line may be, no matter how banty his legs may be, no matter how flat his feet may be, is a white hope. Skiny-armed, big-lipped, ponderous mountains of misplaced fat, these creatures grin sickly out of the sporting page at us. The thing is so disgusting that it is really pathetically funny. There is Carl Morris. Here comes with his hand on the engine, as if he was about to push it over. There is one Luther McCarthy. He has his picture taken holding a cub lion in his arms. Rochester, Illinois, has another human person, horrid of physique line and looking about as much like an athlete as a crutch, who sticks two lean and unlovely arms forth in clumsy fighting pose, and yearns for fame.

It is a dismal day for the white heavyweight. Tom Sharkey may be laughed at now, but there was a day when he could have piled all of the present white hopes into one ring and beaten them on the same evening. He was a real fighter.

It disgusts a man with the whole sporting game when boobs like Morris, McCarthy and a few of the other misfits can be taken seriously by followers of fighting. Look the list of champions over and vainly try to discover where there was one "giant" among the list. A man has to have something besides hulking size to fight. He must possess muscles rightly woven with sinew; he must have heft of shoulder and breadth of back—and lastly, he must possess shrewdness of brain and a lion-like quality of the heart.

In the mad, delirious rush to discover a white heavyweight capable of removing the crown from the ebony brow of Lil' Artha Johnson these qualities have been overlooked.

They only look for size. The phiz and physique of some of the white hopes taat have been brought to the surface, would cause a sneer of contempt from the real fighting man.

Al Palzer is supposed to be the best white heavyweight. Bombardier Wells put him down several times and had him groggy. Palzer is said to be the strongest man—white man—in the ring at the present time. Compare him, just for tne moment with Jim Jeffries.

Joe Choynski, Tom Sharkey and Bob Fitzsimmons, three mighty sluggers, all of whom could probably hit harder than the English Wells, hit Jeff flush on the jaw, not once, but time and time again. Jeff in the early days was not hard to hit. Did they knock him down, or have him reeling around the ring in a groggy state, little brother? Answer: They did not.

The days of the Jeffries, Sharkeys, Corbetts, Fitzsimmons and even Ruhlins have passed. Time is slowly casting a burnish over the brightness of their deeds. Instead of men like these, we have in this hectic age, this commercial area of highly advertised athletic incompetency, boobs like Morris, McCarthy, Stewart and Al Kaufmann.

Yes, it is a joke these days, the annual challenge of Tom Sharkey—but—well Tom was a real fighter once, and 'tis better far to have the bright path of deeds behind thee than the pale and sickly path of incompetency ahead.

RITCHER MAKES WILD THROW AND HELPS LOSE GAME.

Louisville, Aug. 15.—St. Paul defeated Louisville in the last game of the series, 3 to 2. Laroy was steady in the pinches, while Richter helped lose his game with a bad throw to second which cost two scores in the sixth inning. Autrey was put out of the game for arguing with the umpire. Pitchers Toney and Grover Lowdermilk were today released to the Chicago Nationals and have been ordered to report at once. The former was turned back and the latter was sold for a price not stated. Score: R. H. E.

COLUMBUS WINS SEE-SAW GAME FROM MILLERS.

Columbus, Aug. 15.—Of five pitchers used in the 11-inning see-saw that Columbus took from Minneapolis 9 to 8, McConnaughey was most effective. He struck out Lellivelt and Clymer in the seventh with bases full and in the eleventh got Ferris and Gill with third and second occupied. The Columbus hitting was hard and clean, the losing team being helped by bases on balls. Miller had four hits for seven bases and Shelton three two-Baggers. Score. R. H. E.

JOHNSON WILL MEET JEANNETTE

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Jack Johnson has signed articles to fight Joe Jeannette ten rounds before the St. Nicholas A. C. of New York on Sept. 25.

Jess McMahon, who made the match, guaranteed Johnson $25,000 with a privilege of 50 per cent of the first $50,000 of the receipts and 35 per cent of all the gate over that amount. Johnson also is to get half of the moving picture returns.

The referee was not named, but McMahon says it probably will be Dan Tone, the club's official.

Jeannette's signature to the articles was obtained several days ago.

What his share will be was not announced.

MAKES TOMMY BURNS LAUGH

Calgary, Alta., Aug. 15.—"That's a joke," said Tommy Burns, ex-champion heavyweight boxer, discussing an Associated Press dispatch sent out from New York last night relative to Tom Sharkey's ambition to get back into the ring, and expressing anxiety to meet Burns.

"Sharkey was a great man in his day," continued the former champion, "but you can't always be great. If he really means it I might meet him if the financial inducements were strong enough. At that I wouldn't care to box in public, for the public don't care much for one-sided bouts. Just take a glance at the record books and you will see that even Jack Munro beat Sharkey in Philadelphia when the New Yorker tried to 'come back' before. I can't believe it is anything but a joke. I may go to Australia about Christmas to meet Sam Langford."

CANADIANS LIFT THE CUP

Chicago, Aug. 15.—The Canadian sloop Patricia won her third race and with it the international championship of the Great Lakes, defeating the American yacht Michicago by 8 minutes and 35 seconds. Patricia's elapsed time was 4:14:52. The contest was around a triangle four miles and a half to the leg, sailed twice.

In the motor boat races Baby Reliance III showed her class by taking two events over fifteen and twenty-mile courses. The boat is owned by J. S. Blackton of New York and was driven by her designer, John J. Ryan. He was driving Baby Reliance when it sank last Monday.

The fifteen-mile race was the second heat of the 26-foot motor class. Baby Reliance III took the event in 20:46, or at a rate of forty-four miles an hour. Crusader finished second and Debutante, an English boat, third. The English boat finished about fifteen minutes behind the winner, but was cheered.

The second race saw the start of Disturber III, James A. Pugh's new 40-foot hydroplane, which was expected to do better than a mile a minute. Although this race was for boats up to forty feet in length, Baby Reliance III, which is a 26-footer, won it. She covered the twenty miles in 26:49 3-5, an average of slightly less than fifty miles an hour. Disturber III developed engine trouble and failed to finish, as also did Debutante. Chicago was second and Eph third.

COME OUT AND BOOST FOR WINNIPEG SERIES

Winnipeg is here today for the last series of the season on the home grounds. If there is any love for baseball left in this city, the farewell series with the Peggers will bring out a fair-sized crowd.

Winnipeg is not out of the pennant race by any means. The Canadians have a long series of games at home and they are making every effort to land the rag. The fans of this city should get out during the remainder of the present week and root for a White Sox victory.

There are a few fans who have been out every day in the season. There are some men in the city who have not been out to the ball grounds during the summer. Every man in Duluth who cares for sports should make it an object to attend at least one of the games with Winnipeg.

It is quite needless to say that the men who wrote checks to place a team in the field, are behind the financial stove at the present time. This article is not a brief for them. To their credit as good sports let it be said that they have not whined nor complained. Everything has broken against them—yet they have been good little miners and have continued digging for money—in their own pockets.

Let us forget that there are but four teams in the league—let us forget a lot of things. The season is almost over and the fans of the city can at least show appreciation of the spirit of a few men who have made organized baseball possible the present season, by getting out and helping get others out for the few games that remain for the home grounds.

It looks like the pennant for Duluth, though this is not an assured fact by any means. Let's make it surer by getting out and rooting, even if the men in the game can't get all their clips back, it might help a lot if the fans would come out and boost for the remaining games.

The series with the Peggers is for four games and the Sox are out to take a clean sweep of the series.

OARSMEN GIVEN DINNER AT CLUB

The winning oarsmen, the winning canoe men and the members of the tennis team that competed in the recent state tournament sat down to a dinner at the boat club last evening, J. H. Barnes, president of the club, being the host. There were in addition to the members of the athletic teams the various officers of the club.

President Barnes told the different athletes how much their efforts were appreciated and how much they had done for the club. The dinner was a sort of mutual admiration gathering and was entirely successful.

Following the dinner the large cup won at Peoria was carried into the main room of the club and exhibited to the admiring gaze of a large crowd of the club members.

There was a dance following the dinner, there being one of the largest crowds of the season present.

CANADIAN HORSE BEATS PATCHEN

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 15.—History was made yesterday at the second day meeting of the Grand Circuit stars at the Fort Erie track when the sensational unbeaten pacer, Joe Patchen II, went down to defeat in the Fort Erie stake, purse $5,000 for 2:12 pacers. The horse to take the measure of the son of Joe Patchen was Knight Onwardo, owned by J. E. Grey of Toronto, Ont., and driven by Nat Ray, the former jockey.

Joe Patchen sold a hot favorite in the pools and had no trouble of disposing of the field in the first heat, covering the mile in 2:04¼. In the second heat, Patchen went to a bad break at the start but Fleming had the stallion pacing smoothly at the quarter pole. Fleming made a beautiful drive to overhaul Knight Onwardo but was beaten by a neck. Joe Patchen paced the three quarters in 1:30¾. In the third heat, Joe got away in front, followed by Knight Onwardo and Grand Opera. At the three-quarters Joe went into the air and Ray crossed the wire with plenty to spare.

The Dominion of Canada stake for 2:17 trotters was a long drawn out affair, six heats being trotted to get a winner. Ed Geers with Dorsh Medium won the race, taking the second, fourth and sixth heats. Annie Kohl, favorite in the pool betting got second money. Walter Cox, who drove the mare, was fined $200 by the judges after winning the third heat in 2:07½. The judges held that Cox did not try in the first heat which was won by Queen Worthy, the M and M stake winner, who was then drawn on account of lameness. The judges later announced that they would recommend to the national trotting association that the fine be remitted. Cox claimed that Annie Kohl broke at the head of the stretch and this statement was corroborated by other drivers in the race. The judges gave Cox the benefit of the doubt, holding that the field could not be seen clearly on account of the sun.

Denver Jay, second choice in the betting, won the 2:14 class pace in straight heats. Cheeney, the Texas mare, driven by Fleming, won the 2:10 class trot, after losing the first heat to Gordon Todd. In the final heat Gordon Todd broke and was distanced, losing second money.

MEETING OF THE CUBS AND GIANTS

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Those old and bitter enemies, the Chicago and the New York teams of the National league, prepared today to play the first of a series of three games on the West side grounds.

More than usual interest was attached to the series because of the Chicago team's great showing in their Eastern invasion just ended when they won fifteen out of eighteen games and cut the New York team's lead down to six games. Manager Chance declared today that his team would make a clean sweep of the series, but Capt. Larry Doyle of the New York club could not see the garden that way.

Johnny Evers, the Chicago second baseman, will be replaced by Jerry Downs, once of Detroit. Chicago followers of the team are hopeful that Downs, who has been playing a good game in a utility role, will fit Evers' shoes acceptably.

Marquard was scheduled to pitch for New York and either Richie or Lavender was to work for Chicago.

Duluth Board of Trade, Aug. 15.—This was rather a bullish day for wheat on the markets of North America, though the gains did not amount to a great deal. Duluth September closed ⅛c to ⅜c higher and October ⅜c to ½c higher. Duluth cash wheat closed 10c over September. Durum closed ¼c off, oats [illegible] off, rye ½c up and barley unchan[ged]. Duluth September flax closed [illegible] higher, October 1½c up and Nove[mber] [illegible] up.

Wheat on the [mar]kets of North America this [illegible] showed some reaction from t[he re]cent declines, though the upward movement did not amount to much. Probably the most bullish factor affecting these markets was the news from Europe. Liverpool wheat closed unchanged to ¼d higher, failing to respond to the influence of yesterday's bearish cables from this side of the Atlantic. Continued rains in the United Kingdom, unsettled weather in Germany delaying the harvests and reports of smaller shipments of Argentine wheat all helped to maintain and boost the Liverpool market. Berlin wheat also closed a little higher. The exchanges at Paris, Budapest and Antwerp were closed.

The weather over the American Northwest, while not quite so favorable for harvesting as it was yesterday, was on the whole propitious.

Duluth September wheat, which closed yesterday at 93c, opened today at 93⅛c bid and at noon, after various fluctuations was quoted at 93⅜c asked. Minneapolis September at noon was unchanged and Chicago September was slightly higher. Winnipeg October was also a little up.

Flaxseed Moves Slowly.

There was very little trading on the Duluth flaxseed market this morning. The weather, as far as it relates to flaxseed, is still a very uncertain proposition and few care to take any chances with it. For that reason both buyers and sellers have been holding pretty much aloof. Offers amount to very little. Today no cars of flaxseed were received for inspection. The principal business consisted in the trading that was done with Minneapolis interests who are expecting to receive or are receiving flaxseed, and were practicing a hedging game against it, anticipating the sale of the flax by selling futures, or buying back these futures after selling the seed itself. Duluth September seed at noon today was ¼c up at $1.78¾ and October ½c up at $1.71 bid. Winnipeg October at noon was ½c lower at $1.58½ asked. Buenos Ayres October was ⅛c higher at the close of yesterday at $1.70⅜. London-Calcutta August and September today closed 3½c up at $2.10.

MARKET GOSSIP

James Kidston of the Chicago Board of Trade was on the floor of the Duluth Board today renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Kidston was enthusiastic over the prospects of an enormous wheat crop in the Northwest and the probability that this country's wheat trade would no longer be on a domestic basis but there would be a great surplus to ship abroad. "One feature of the Duluth market that has been puzzling me," remarked Mr. Kidston, "is the big premium that is being paid on old cash wheat over September, but I am informed that it is because this is the time between grass and hay. Millers must have some of that old wheat right away and they are willing to pay high prices for it."

The Bartlett-Frazier Argentine agent estimated wheat shipments this week from that country at 1,600,000 bu against 2,260,000 bu last week and 656,000 bu last year. He estimates the corn shipments from that country this week at 6,860,000 bu against 6,061,000 bu last week and no shipments last year.

Allan Logan wired from Kansas City: "Kansas has raised 100,000,000 bu of wheat. My thrashing returns from every county show it."

* * *

Le Count wired from Melville, Sask.: "The weather has turned warm and is clear and favorable today. Wheat is looking generally good. It is ripening fast but the crop generally needs ten days more of favorable weather to mature. This is a weather proposition. Frost before Aug. 22 would lower grades on 60,000,000 to 70,000,000 bu."

There will be a large movement of Canadian grain into America during the coming year, in the opinion of Allen P. Allensworth, Canadian representative of the American Linseed company. Mr. Allensworth remarked today that there was no doubt at all that arrangements would be made by the railway commission of Canada and the interstate commerce commission of America to have grain rates from the leading grain centers of Saskatchewan to Duluth made equal to the grain rates from these same Saskatchewan points to Fort William. He said the railroads of Western Canada had not increased their facilities in proportion to the increase of the production of grain in that region and therefore an outlet by way of the United States was imperative. He also observed that the reciprocity sentiment of Western Canada had grown much stronger than it was a year ago when the grain-growing provinces sanctioned the proposed treaty with the United States.

Canadian shippers, Mr. Allensworth said, were preparing to mix grain at Moose Jaw for sale in the United States. To mix grain for sale in the Canadian markets was not permitted. Last year, he remarked, Canadian farmers always received the best prices for their cereals in the American markets. He said Moose Jaw was bound to become a heavy shipper of all grains, especially flaxseed, to Duluth and Minneapolis. Minneapolis crushers, he said, were able to pay a better price for low-grade flaxseed than was paid at Winnipeg.

Even if the United States produced enough wheat this year to have some for export, he said, and enough flaxseed to keep it down at prices so low that it would not pay to import it from Canada for sale in the American markets, there was bound, nevertheless, to be a heavy movement of Canadian grain into the United States for export to Europe.

Mr. Allensworth said that if frosts did not work great injury to the Canadian flaxseed crop, that crop would be very heavy. It would go chiefly to Europe. The Canadian farmers, however, would not realize the high prices they had received for last year's seed, because the foreign markets were much weaker. Argentina and India had heavier surpluses for export than they usually had at this time of the year.

Montana, he said, would be a heavy shipper of grain this year and most of this year's crop would go to Duluth. He remarked, however, that when the Spokane rate case was finally decided, Duluth would probably be placed on a parity with Portland in grain rates from Central Montana, and some of the grain rates to Portland might be even less.

Mr. Allensworth has made arrangements to leave Duluth tomorrow for Sioux City, Iowa, where he will begin an inspection tour of the American Linsted company's western mills.

Following is the weekly crop letter of the Van Dusen-Harrington company of Minneapolis:

"Since our last crop letter, Minnesota, North and South Dakota received general rains for several days, followed by cool weather, which seriously hindered harvesting and delayed the development of all grain, which was not yet ripe. However, during the past week weather conditions have been more favorable and today harvesting in southern Minnesota and South Dakota is completed and some thrashing has been done in that territory. In North Dakota harvesting is about half finished, but very little thrashing of any grain other than rye and barley has been done as yet.

"Minnesota thrashing returns have already been published in the newspaper, and, speaking generally, the results have so far been very satisfactory. From our own reports to date we would say that the following would be a fair statement of the yields of grain in southern Minnesota: Blue stem wheat, 18-20 bu; velvet chaff, 20 bu; barley, 35 bu; oats, 50-55 bu; rye, 25-30 bu.

"In South Dakota, eliminating that territory which suffered severely from drouth, the following we believe would be a fair statement of the thrashing returns as we have received them so far: Blue stem wheat, 15-18 bu; velvet chaff, 15-20 bu; durum wheat, 18 bu; barley, 30-35 bu; oats, 45-50 bu; rye, 20-22 bu.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Bullish Cables Offset Good Crop News and Wheat Prices Advance.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Wheat prices advanced slightly at the opening, bullish cables offsetting continued favorable crop fillings and ripening reports in the Northwest. Opening figures were unchanged to ½c higher. December opened a shade to ⅛@¼c up at 92⅝c to 92½c, touched 92⅝c and stood at 92½c.

A strong tone prevailed through much of the session, influenced by the cash demand. Late support was weaker and prices shaded off. The close was steady with December ⅜@½c higher at 92¾c.

Corn fluctuated with widely scattered sales, the nearby months showing the larger declines. Prices worked away from the low points. Opening figures were from 1c lower to a shade higher. First sales of September were a shade to ⅞@1c down at 70⅛c to 69½c. The month fell off to 69c and stiffened at 69⅞c. December opened a shade higher to ¼@⅜c lower at 54¼c to 53⅞c and rested at 54c.

Evening up trades and big crop prospects kept September easy, while new crop months stiffened later on covering by shorts. December closed ⅛@¼c higher at 54¼c.

Fair demand kept oats firm. The opening was from a shade to ¼c higher. December started ⅛c to ¼c higher at 32⅜c to 32½c and moved up to 32⅝c.

Export buying stiffened provisions at the start, figures advancing generally from 2½c to 12½c with October products $18.25 for pork, $10.97½ for lard and $10.90 for ribs.

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Slightly Firmer Tone to Wheat on Weather Predictions.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 15.—A slightly firmer undertone ruled in wheat today on account of predicted unsettled weather which will delay harvesting and thrashing in Northwest. September closed unchanged from yesterday. December, ⅛@¼c higher and May ¼c higher. Local elevator stocks decreased 525,000 bu for five days.

Carlot wheat receipts: Minneapolis today, 175; week ago, 126; year ago, 179. Duluth today, 4; week ago, 1; year ago, 6. Winnipeg today, 68; week ago, 75; year ago, 111. Cash wheat was a trifle easier. Discrimination was shown against velvet chaff grades. Old No. 1 northern sold for 14c above September and new No. 1 for 3c to 12c above. The lower premiums on the new was for velvet chaff.

Wheat: September opened 92c, high 92¾c, low 91¾c, closed 91⅞c. December opened 92⅝c, high 93c, low 92¼c, closed 92¼@92⅜c. May opened 96⅝c, high 97⅛c, low 96⅜@96½c, closed 96½@96⅝c.

Closing cash prices: No. 1 hard, $1.05⅜; No. 1 northern $1.05⅞, to arrive 99⅝c; No. 2 do, $1.03⅞, to arrive 97⅞c; No. 3 wheat, 99⅞c to $1.01⅞; No. 3 yellow corn, 75c; No. 3 white oats, 30½c; No. 2 rye, 63½@64c. Bran in 100-pound sacks, $19.00@19.50.

Flour — The market remained fairly active. Mills continued to book good sales on new crops. Limited export demand. Prices unchanged. Shipments, 53,008 bbls. Leading local patents, in wood, f. o. b. Minneapolis, $4.90@5.25; other patents, $4.65@4.90; first clears, $3.40@3.65; second clears, $2.50@2.60.

Barley — Receipts, 18 cars; year ago, 35; shipments, 20. Demand for barley only fair and prices unchanged. Close, 37@65c.

New York Grain.

New York, Aug. 15.—Close: Wheat—September, $1.01½; December, $1.00½@1.00⅝.

STOCKS ARE REACTIONARY

Prices Recede to Lowest in Final Hour and Close Heavy.

New York, Aug. 15. — Stocks were less active and more reactionary today with indications of diminished public interest. Canadian Pacific and one of its affiliated properties added to recent gains, but other standard railers, including Union Pacific, Reading and New York Central were distinctly heavy at times. Hill issues were firm, with strength in ore certificates. Steel seemed to reflect the uncertainty attending tariff legislation, but coppers yielded little of yesterday's rise. There was the usual jumble of gains and losses in specialties of minor importance with recurrent heaviness at midday.

Bonds were steady.

Gains and losses were about evenly distributed at the opening. Most of the active issues declined to heaviness, particularly Union Pacific, Reading, St. Paul and Northern Pacific. Greatest gain was in Pittsburg Coal preferred, which rose a full point.

Further irregularity was shown in the first hour, Reading and New York Central falling a point, while various minor specialties were up 1 to 2 points.

Slight fluctuations in Gould issues were the feature of the noon hour. Wabash 4's advanced 3 points and Missouri Pacific broke 1⅝. The general market was dull and heavy.

Prices hardened in the late afternoon with some increase of business, but failed in most cases to equal the best prices of the morning.

The market closed heavy. Prices receded to the lowest in the final hour, and many important stocks scored losses of a point or more.

Cotton Market.

New York, Aug. 15. — The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 2 points. There seemed to be considerable selling by local traders, but there was active buying by some of the leading wire and commission houses and prices sold up to a net advance of 13 to 14 points before the end of the first hour. Offerings increased on the bulge and trade interests appeared to be selling with the result that prices eased off 6 or 7 points from the best with the market rather nervous during the middle of the morning.

Futures closed steady; bids: August, 11.39; September, 11.39; October, 11.56; November, 11.59; December, 11.65; January, 11.59, February, 11.67; March, 11.73; May, 11.71.

COPPER STOCKS MOVE LOWER

Some of the more active copper stocks today closed at figures a little below those at which they closed yesterday, though most of the shares showed scarcely any change from yesterday. Trading was dull and fluctuations did not amount to much in either direction. The general stock market of New York was far from being encouraging to the copper stocks, the closes being generally weak. The news from the London copper metal market was likewise discouraging, spot closing 18s 9d lower and futures 17s 6d lower, compared with the closing figures of yesterday. Hancock today closed $1.25 to $1.50 lower than yesterday. Calumet & Arizona, Amalgamated and North Butte were a little lower.

* * *

Paine, Webber & Co. received from Foster at Boston the following closing copper letter: "Opening prices showed a gain all through the list, but the volume of transactions declined and prices did not hold. In the last hour considerable profit-taking appeared and the list showed a fractional decline. Calumet & Arizona declared the regular dividend as was expected and the price was practically unchanged. Superior & Boston took on new life and sold up to 2¼ on heavy transactions. Chino and Ray were notably strong all day, while Mayflower and Old Colony were weaker."

* * *

Gay & Sturgis received the following copper closing letter from Boston: "For the past five days the market has advanced steadily and it was only natural that we should have a healthy reaction which occurred today and which may go somewhat further. There was considerable profit-taking in the New York market but it was well absorbed and acted in a very orderly manner. There was very little feature locally, many of the stocks being quoted only in odd lots. Chino and Nevada Consolidated were the most active and showed advances."

DIVIDENDS UNCHANGED

C. & A. and S. & P. Companies Will Pay at Old Rate.

Contrary to the expectations of many of the stockholders of the Calumet & Arizona Mining company, the board of directors at a special meeting held today in Room 807 Lonsdale building, made no change in the dividend. An increase had been looked for, on account of the recent good earnings of the company, but the directors deemed it best for the present to continue the usual quarterly dividend of $1 a share. The same directors, holding the same offices in the Superior & Pittsburg company, that they do in the Calumet & Arizona, also declared the usual quarterly dividend of the Superior & Pittsburg, namely 30 cents a share. Both these dividends are payable on Sept. 23, 1912, to stockholders of record at the close of business on Sept. 6, 1912. Both of the companies close their books at the close of business on Sept. 6, 1912, and reopen at the opening of business on Sept. 16, 1912.

The officers and directors of the companies, holding the two meetings, were as follows: President, Charles Briggs; vice president, Thomas Hoatson; secretary, Gordon R. Campbell; and treasurer, Peter Ruppe, all of Calumet; George E. Tener of Pittsburg, and Chester A. Congdon and Charles D'Autremont of Duluth.

OFFER IS ACCEPTED

Chemung Stockholders Decide to Sell Mine for $1,350,000.

Stockholders of the Chemung Copper company at a special meeting held today in Room 807 of the Lonsdale building decided without division, though not without a fairly exhaustive discussion, to accept the proposition of Phelps, Dodge & Co. to purchase the company's holdings for the sum of $1,350,000 cash. This will be enough to distribute money to the stockholders at the rate of $6 per share after paying off the company's indebtedness, which amounts to about $100,000.

It has been decided thus to wind up the affairs of the company on the recommendation of the president, George E. Tener of Pittsburg, who was present at the meeting and gave a thorough explanation of the proposition and told why he deemed it wise to accept it.

Among the stockholders who were present at the meeting were Chester A. Congdon of Duluth, T. J. Crump of Pittsburg, and Gordon R. Campbell, Thomas Hoatson, Peter Ruppe and Charles Briggs, all of Calumet. All of those above-mentioned are well known in copper mining circles of this country.

BIG MINNESOTA CROPS ASSURED

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Minnesota crops will bear out the expectation that they are to be the largest on record, according to reports from twenty-one counties received today by H. J. Maxfield, commissioner of immigration.

Barley and oats, without exception, are better than was expected, and in some fields as high as eighty-seven and a half bushels of oats have been produced. Wheat is generally good and the yield is large, with but a few exceptions.

Corn in some places seems backward, due to some extent to the use of Southern seed. Warm weather and absence of early frosts will, however, make that crop a bumper one also.

The reports received come mostly from the southern and central counties, where the cutting has been completed and the thrashing is well under way.

DEERWOOD ROBBERY.

Deerwood, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The yeggmen are getting busy in this section. McManus' saloon here was entered last night and $25 taken. The holdups chased a young clerk away as they fled.

Dale & Baumgarden, railway contractors, of St. Paul, have the contract for grading and leveling the ground for the ore stockpile at the Adams mine, three miles southwest of Deerwood.

There is a big rush of mining men and prospectors and investors into the new Clearwater district, five miles south of Deerwood, in Bay Lake township, resembling a stampede of the early days of Cuyuna or the Klondike.

TAFT VETOES BIG PAYROLL

Washington, Aug. 15.—President Taft today returned to the house, with a veto message, the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, because of its amendments to abolish the commerce court and limit the tenure of office service employes to seven years. The cabinet read and approvd the president's message early today.

The president's veto is sure to extend the session of congress. Some members of the house believe the bill can be passed over his disapproval, as were the wool and steel tariff bills. None of the leaders, however, think that would be possible in the senate.

Holds Up Payroll.

One effect of Mr. Taft's vote of the bill today is to hold up his own pay, that of every member of congress, every federal judge, and every employe of the United States courts.

Some leaders have proposed a plan of passing a resolution to extend all last year's appropriations to Dec. 3, and to adjourn congress without passing the bill.

Mr. Taft's message was strong in its condemnation of the way congress had attached special legislation to an annual appropriation bill. The president wrote that he approved any system of promoting efficiency in the civil service, and favored a civil service pension system, but he could not approve any legislation to turn out of office employes who had given their best years to the government.

SUPERIOR

NEGRO IS ARRESTED ON MURDER CHARGE.

Detectives yesterday afternoon arrested a crippled negro, hiding in a culvert under the Great Northern trestle, who, they believe, killed Lezo Knezevich Tuesday evening and also fired the shots at Charles Sullivan, a prominent business man. The negro refuses to give his name or to discuss the murder in any way with the detectives. He was found with a large rifle and revolver in his possession. The negro is practically a helpless cripple, having lost his left hand, his right foot and part of his left foot.

Want Visiting Nurse.

The Public Welfare association will ask the county board to appropriate $400 for the services of a trained nurse for the balance of the year. It is proposed to have the nurse attend to the county's dependant sick.

Organize Social Center.

Residents of Billing Park last evening organized the first social center in this city. Addresses were made during the evening by the most prominent residents of the city, after which an organization was perfected. A. A. Campbell was elected chairman and a committee was appointed to draw up a set of by-laws. Permanent officers will be elected at a meeting next Wednesday evening.

FATAL ACCIDENTS FEWER IN STATE

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—The number of fatal accidents in those industries of Minnesota which are inspected by the state labor department has fallen off during the last year. According to advance copies of the report, issued by Labor Commissioner Houk, the percentage of fatal accidents in industries inspected by the bureau in 1910 was 3.6; in 1911, 2 per cent; and in 1912 but 1.6 per cent.

This record is the more marked in comparison with the record of the number of deaths in all accidents reported to the department. This was 2.3 per cent in 1911 and 2.5 per cent in 1912.

According to the law, railways in operation and mines are exempted from inspection by the labor commissioner.

The figures show but eleven months for this year, but, assuming the accidents in July were at the same rate as in other months, the total for 1912 of 146 fatal accidents would be fifty-one short of the annual average for the three years period and 105 less than in 1910.

In the same manner the total accidents not fatal, 5,808 in 1912, is 1,622 less than the annual average, and 2,356 less than during the year previous.

SCORES OLD PARTIES.

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 15.—(Special to The Herald.)—Emil Siedel, former mayor of Milwaukee and now candidate for United States vice presidency on the Socialist ticket, invaded North Dakota for a two days' trip today, coming here from Aberdeen, S. D. He spoke before a small crowd on Island Park. The Socialist candidate dealt little with specific national questions. The only reference to a presidential candidate was made when he said "Theodore Roosevelt, that arch reformer of today, is satisfied with a little regulation of railroads. I say you Democrats and Republicans are too cheap. Instead of being satisfied with a little bit of the railroads we want the whole railroad system, we want it because we have got to have it."

REPORTS OF SPECIAL COMMITTEES.
To the Common Council:
Your special committee, which was appointed to endeavor to settle the strike of the dock laborers, beg to report that on Thursday, Aug. 1, your committee met with a delegation of the striking dock laborers and from them heard their side of the controversy. On the 2nd of August your committee met with a committee of the employers, at which meeting the employers confirmed or reiterated their offer of 32½ cents an hour for handling merchandise and 35 cents an hour for handling cement. Your committee then recommended to the strikers that they accept the offer of the employers with the added condition that there should be no discrimination between men on account of the strike, and that there should be no loss in time during transfer to boats. On Saturday, the 3rd inst. the strikers refused to accept the terms of settlement by a vote of 67 to 44, but on Tuesday, the 6th inst., they reconsidered their action and by a vote of 67 to 44 decided to accept the terms recommended by your committee, and we understand that they are practically all at work again. All of which is respectfully submitted.
P. G. PHILLIPS,
Z. D. SCOTT,
Committee.
The report was received.

D. H., Aug. 15, 1912. D 252.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED VACATION.
Notice is hereby given that there has been filed of record in my office as City Clerk of the City of Duluth, Minnesota, a petition for the vacation of all that part of East Fourth street in the City of Duluth, Minnesota, from Sixth avenue east to the eastern limits of Portland division of Duluth, which lies within 20 feet of the northwesterly line of said street.
The object of the proposed vacation is to enable property owners to improve the street between the limits mentioned in the same general way as that part of Fourth street lying westerly of Sixth avenue east.
Said petition will be heard and considered by the committee of the Common Council on Streets, Alleys and Sidewalks on Monday, Sept. 23, 1912, at 3:30 o'clock P. M. in the City Clerk's office in the City Hall in the City of Duluth, Minnesota, at which time and place said committee will hear the testimony and evidence on the part of parties interested.
C. S. PALMER,
City Clerk, Duluth, Minn.
D. H., Aug. 15, 22, 29, Sept. 5, 1912. D 250.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CONDEMNATION.
Notice is hereby given that there is now pending before the Common Council of the City of Duluth, Minnesota, a resolution declaring the necessity of and directing the condemnation of an easement in land on both sides of Seventh street from Chester park to the Boulevard near Fourth avenue west, for the construction of slopes and retaining walls for cuts and fills upon the real property abutting upon said street. Said resolution will be considered by the Common Council at a regular meeting thereof to be held in the Council Chamber in the City Hall in the City of Duluth, Minnesota, on Monday, Sept. 9, 1912, at 7:30 o'clock P. M., at which time and place any person will be heard by the Common Council concerning the taking of such property.
C. S. PALMER,
City Clerk, Duluth, Minn.
D. H., Aug. 15 and 22, 1912. D 251.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CONDEMNATION—
Notice is hereby given that there is now pending before the Common Council of the City of Duluth a resolution declaring the necessity of and directing the condemnation of easements for the construction of slopes or retaining walls for cuts and fills on both sides of Grand avenue west from a point 160 feet west of the east line of Ironton, First division, to a point 340 feet easterly of said line in section 23, township 49, range 15, west of the fourth principal meridian.
Said resolution will be considered by the Common Council of the City of Duluth at a regular meeting thereof to be held Aug. 26, 1912, in the Council Chamber in the City Hall in the City of Duluth at 7:30 o'clock, P. M., at which time and place any person will be heard by the said Common Council concerning taking of said property.
C. S. PALMER,
City Clerk.
D. H., Aug. 8 and 15, 1912. D 244.

ORDER FOR HEARING ON PETITION FOR ADMINISTRATION—
State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis—ss.
In Probate Court.
THE PETITION OF Edgar Prochnik, acting Imperial and Royal Austro-Hungarian Consul, having been filed in this court, representing, among other things, that Miloj Matic, then being a resident of the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, died intestate, in the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, on the 2nd day of July, 1912; leaving estate in the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, and that said petitioner is the legal representative of the absent heirs of said decedent, and praying that Letters of Administration of the estate of said decedent be granted to Moritz Helm.
IT IS ORDERED, That said petition be heard before this Court, at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House in Duluth, in said County, on the 3rd day of September, 1912, at ten o'clock A. M., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted.
ORDERED FURTHER, That this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald, according to law, and that a copy of this Order be served on the County Treasurer of St. Louis County not less than ten days prior to said day of hearing, and by mailing a copy hereof to each heir, or interested party at least fifteen days before the said day of hearing.
Dated at Duluth, Minn., August 6th, 1912.
By the Court,
S. W. GILPIN,
Judge of Probate.
(Seal. Probate Court, St. Louis County, Minn.)

IF IT COSTS MORE TO LIVE,
IT COSTS MORE TO OVERLOOK THE ADVERTISEMENTS!

When things cost more, opportunities to buy economically are worth much more

No housewife in Duluth, who feels and knows the slightest hardship on account of high prices, can afford to remain blind to the daily opportunities for saving offered to her by the advertising merchants. These alive merchants are often able, through effecting quick and large sales of an article, to cut the selling price to very nearly the cost price.

The housewives should see that when they do this the volume of quick sales will always repay them.

POSTCARD CLEW MAY LEAD TO THE ARREST OF NEW YORK GUNMEN

"Bridgie" Webber Gets Word From "Lefty Louis" and "Gyp the Blood."

Reward of $5,000 Offered for Capture of the Two Men.

GUNMEN NOT ABOARD STEAMER TIONESTA

Marquette, Mich., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The officers of the steamer Tionesta, in port this morning, said that "Lefty Louie" and "Gyp the Blood" were not on board their vessel, so far as they knew, and never had been. The Tionesta was not searched by the police.

Reports from Erie, Pa., had been received to the effect that the two New York gunmen sought for the murder of Herman Rosenthal were believed to be on the Tionesta, Horowitz ("Gyp the Blood") being disguised as a woman.

New York, Aug. 16.—District Attorney Whitman today hopefully awaited word from Metheun, Mass., regarding Harry Horowitz, known as "Gyp the Blood," and Louis Rosenzweig, alias "Lefty Louie," the much-wanted gunmen in the Rosenthal murder case. Four detectives are searching Metheun for the gunmen, who sent a tell-tale postcard to "Bridgie" Webber.

Webber received the postcard yesterday enclosed in an envelope. The gambler tore up the envelope. The card read:

"Dear Pal: Do the best you can. We are all right.

"Your pals, L. and G."

The imprisoned gambler showed the card to his counsel, Max Steuer, saying that he was convinced that it was "Lefty" Lewis' writing. Mr. Steuer informed the state's attorney, and prison keepers combed Webber's cell for the bits of torn envelope, which, after much trouble, was reconstructed from the pieces. The envelope showed that it had been mailed from Metheun, Mass., on Wednesday night.

District Attorney Whitman telephoned to Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty, who at once sent four detectives to Metheun. There were re-

TORTURES BABY TO GET MONEY

New York, Aug. 16.—The haunts of ruffians and criminals were searched today for a robber who the police say is one of the most brutal crooks they have known.

In an apartment building on Eighth avenue the robber made two brutal attacks on women. The burglar in one case picked up an infant and dashed it against the wall to torture the mother into revealing the hiding place of her money. The mother, Mrs. Paul Standerton, had no money in the house.

The second victim was a young bride, whom the ruffian choked into insensibility and then robbed her of her jewelry and money.

NEGRESS SENT TO CHAIR IN VIRGINIA

Virginia Christian Electrocuted for Murder of Employer.

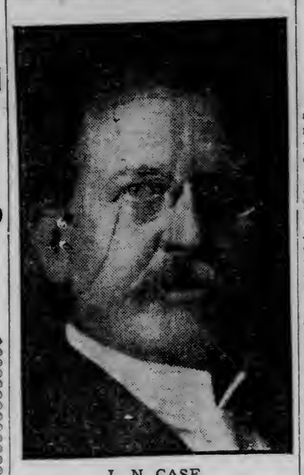

Richmond, Va., Aug. 16.—Virginia Christian, a negro, and the first woman to be put to death in the electric chair in Virginia, was executed early today. Governor Mann refused to yield to entreaties for clemency from several Chicago people. Virginia was convicted of a deliberate and atrocious murder and robbery of her employer, Mrs. Ida Virginia Belote, at Hampton, Va., March 18, 1912.

LAW STUDENT FLIES WITH A PASSENGER.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 16.—Grover C. Bergdoll, 19 years old, law student at the University of Pennsylvania, and a member of a wealthy Philadelphia family, accomplished an aeroplane flight with a passenger from Philadelphia to Atlantic City, about seventy miles, early today, landing at the lower end of the resort without mishap. His passenger was Charles Krouse, a mechanic.

Bergdoll maintained an average speed of about fifty miles an hour. His greatest altitude was 7,000 feet.

McCORMICK IS "AMAZED"

He Returns to Chicago Declaring Roosevelt Will Carry New York.

Claims Taft Will Not Get One State in New England.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Medill McCormick returned to Progressive party headquarters in Chicago from New York today and declared that Col. Roosevelt would carry New York because of the feeling among the upstate Democrats against men active in Mr. Wilson's behalf, and antipathy of up-state Republicans against President Taft.

"I was amazed at the situation that I discovered in the state of New York," said Mr. McCormick. "I am convinced Col. Roosevelt will carry the state with a handsome margin.

"President Taft will not carry a single New England state—not even Rhode Island. The Republican state ticket will run third in Vermont."

Mr. McCormick said the Progressive executive committee that will direct the campaign practically has been decided upon, but that announcement of the membership will not be made for two or three days. It has been reported that Jane Addams is to be a member.

"The list of members has been submitted to Governor Johnson for his approval," said Mr. McCormick.

Demand for Roosevelt Speeches.

He also stated that much of Col. Roosevelt's speaking itinerary has been mapped out and that Senator Dixon and other leaders in New York are at work on the itinerary for Governor Johnson.

"There are insistetnt requests for Col. Roosevelt in the West," said the Illinois Progressive leader. "Cities and towns of comparatively small population guarantee crowds of from 20,000 to 50,000 people if the colonel will agree to speak. Idaho Falls, Idaho, is among the cities that have put in such requests with guarantees of big crowds. There are a score of others."

Senator Dixon of Montana, director of the Progressive campaign, will return to Chicago from New York next Thursday, at which time an important conference of party leaders is expected to be held.

URGE WILSON TO TALK IN MAINE

Leaders May Get Him There Before the Election.

Sea Girt, N. J. Aug. 16.—Maine political leaders, it was learned today, are urging Governor Wilson to make a few speeches in their state before the gubernatorial election.

Governor Wilson's engagements are in the hands of his campaign committee and are rapidly filling for the early part of September. A week ago there was said to be little chance that the governor would campaign in Maine before the election on Sept. 9, but today some prospect was held out that he might, as the requests from Maine are numerous.

ELEVEN HURT IN RIOT ON DOCKS IN LONDON.

London, Aug. 16.—A fight between unionist and non-unionist longshoremen at Tilbury docks today resulted in eleven men being injured. The disturbance arose from the determination of the unionist laborers to prevent the employment of "blacklegs." The union men were victorious.

TENDERS HIS RESIGNATION

L. N. Case Severs Connection With City Water and Light Department.

Has Built Up Water and Gas Plants From Modest Beginnings.

L. N. Case, manager of the city water and light department, yesterday submitted his resignation to the board. It was reluctantly accepted and will become effective Oct. 1.

Mr. Case will leave in October for Elsinore, Cal., near which point he has purchased a ranch.

Mr. Case came to Duluth Oct. 13, 1898, just after the completion of the purchase of the water and gas works by the city. He found the city sore from the effects of the bitter political contest which resulted in the acquisition of the plants. He found both water and gas systems run down and insufficient. Water was furnished by the Endion plant. Gas was manufactured with out-of-date equipment located on Garfield avenue.

The water system at that time consisted of fifty-three miles, 456 feet of pipe. Now the city has 127 miles, 1,285 feet of mains. When Mr. Case took hold the city had twenty-nine miles, 2,643 feet of gas pipe. The city now has 111 miles, 3,937 feet.

Without the aid of an engineer Mr. Case designed and installed five independent pumping stations in addition to the Lakewood station. Through the Lakewood station and the independent

SAFE AT WINTON, MINN., IS BLOWN

Winton, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The safe in the local postoffice was blown by yeggmen last night and about $300 in stamps and $10 in cash taken. Nitroglycerin was used to open the safe, and the work appears to have been that of professionals. There is no clew, although a woman living near the postoffice claims to have seen three suspicious characters loitering about the building yesterday afternoon.

Postmaster Ole Berg had nearly $1,000 in cash in the safe yesterday morning, but removed it and placed it in the bank yesterday afternoon. It is thought yeggs in some way learned of such a large amount of money being in the safe and sought it.

About 1 or 2 o'clock this morning people heard an explosion, but as there is much mining going on here no attention was paid to it. When Postmaster Berg opened the place this morning he discovered the wrecked safe. The door was blown completely off, but the furniture in the office was not damaged very much, showing that the burglars had smothered the safe well. Mr. Berg wired the postoffice inspector in Duluth.

LEAVES WEST POINT TO SUCCEED GEN. GRANT

MAJ. GEN. THOMAS J. BARRY, U. S. A.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Maj. Gen. Thomas J. Barry, U. S. A., superintendent of the military academy at West Point, has been assigned to command the Eastern division with headquarters in New York, succeeding the late Maj. Gen. Frederick Dent Grant.

Col. C. P. Townsley, First artillery, in command of the Portland, Me., artillery district, will succeed Gen. Barry as superintendent of the military academy, Aug. 31.

Brig. Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, acting since Gen. Grant's death as commander in chief of the Eastern division, returns to his duties as commander of the Department of the East.

Root, Crane and Smoot Say It Will Not Pass the Senate.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Assurances were given to President Taft today by such regular Republican leaders in the senate as Root, Crane and Smoot that there was little chance of the senate's passing the wool or steel tariff bills over his veto.

MOVIES IN BIG TRUST

Government Files Suit to Dissolve Alleged Illegal Combine.

Philadelphia, Aug. 16. — The federal government attacked the so-called moving picture trust in a civil suit filed here today for the dissolution of Motion Picture Patents company and the General Film company. Ten prominent film concerns are accused of combining to monopolize the business, even to the extent of increasing or decreasing the number of motion picture theaters in which they have no proprietary interest.

Each of the defendants is alleged to have overstepped the bounds of the lawful monopoly granted by their patents, and the petition asks that several complicated interlocking license restrictions, tying patents together, be ordered canceled.

Competition Destroyed.

The government charges that unreasonable and oppressive restraints and conditions have been arbitrarily imposed on the manufacture and leasing of films and machines, depriving the public of the advantages of competition, especially the competition of foreign films, the importation of which is alleged to be restricted.

MRS. ATHERTON ON STUMP FOR WILSON

Tells California Women Roosevelt Is Colossal Bluffer.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 16.—Mrs. Gertrude Atherton, the California novelist, "took the stump" in a big hotel here last night to tell California's newly enfranchised women why, in her opinion, they should vote for Woodrow Wilson. She had a large crowd.

Beginning with the announcement that "I cannot see much difference in the personal platforms of Wilson and Roosevelt," Mrs. Atherton delivered an epigrammatic attack upon Col. Roosevelt, and a like defense of Mr. Wilson. She said in part:

"Seventy years ago Charlotte Bronte invented Roosevelt in the character of Rochester. Since that time women have loved Rochester, the man who was 100 per cent male. I confess that I have a sneaking affection for the type. Rochester was a colossal bluffer—the self-sufficient man. Roosevelt is of that sort.

"Woodrow Wilson is a man who always exercises self control. He will never be found acting like a bull moose. It will never be possible to call Woodrow Wilson 'Woody' as Roosevelt is called 'Teddy.'

"Recently Mr. Roosevelt burst out for suffrage for women. Wilson is opposed to woman suffrage and is too honest to say that he is for it."

DARROW CASE READY FOR JURY—VERDICT EXPECTED SATURDAY

Contrasting Portraits of Defendant Drawn in Arguments.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 16.—With the conclusion of District Attorney John D. Fredericks' argument to the jury today in the trial of Clarence S. Darrow, under indictment for bribery of a McNamara juror, it was said that Judge Hutton would read his instructions to the jury and that body would retire to deliberate upon a verdict.

More than 200 instructions to the jury were handed to the court by both prosecution and defense, and while it was not expected that all of these would be considered, it was learned that the court's instructions would be lengthy, and that probably two hours would be consumed in the reading.

The possibility of a verdict being reached sometime tonight was variously commented upon by those connected with the trial, but few were of the opinion that a report would be made before tomorrow.

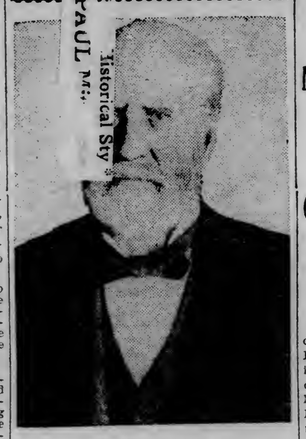

Two Sketches of Darrow.

Two word portraits of Darrow were held before the jury yesterday. The first by Darrow himself at the close of a remarkable plea in his own behalf, painted him as the life-long friend of the poor and oppressed, ready to sacrifice himself to better their condition. The other, drawn at the beginning of the final argument by District Attorney John D. Fredericks, presented Darrow as an enemy of society, "inciting class hatred and shedding maudlin tears of sympathy for murderers and dynamiters."

Still under the spell of the defendant's eloquence, hundreds thronged the courtroom at the afternoon session to hear Mr. Fredericks make the closing argument for the prosecution. He said he would not attempt to compete in oratory with Darrow, whose persuasive eloquence and pathetic pleas

CELEBRATES HIS 77TH BIRTHDAY AT CAPITAL

JAMES WILSON.

Washington, Aug. 16.—"Tama Jim" Wilson, secretary of agriculture, and the oldest man in President Taft's cabinet, today enjoyed his 77th birthday. Secretary Wilson said he was looking forward to quitting public life on March 5 next so that he might go home among his grandchildren, "don his overalls and move around among the common people."

Mr. Wilson has exceeded by four years the record for long service in the cabinet, and under his regime, scope of the department of agriculture has been widely extended.

SEIZE REBEL FROM MEXICO

American Civil Engineer Beheaded, Ambassador Wilson Reports.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Col. Robelo, a Mexican revolutionary officer wanted by the United States for violating the neutrality laws, was arrested at El Paso last night, according to a report from Gen. Steever.

American officials hope to aid in preserving order by refusing to allow persons not vouched for by the United States or Mexican consuls from crossing the line from El Paso.

Robelo says Orozco will leave a small guard at Juarez, pending the arrival of the federals, to prevent lawlessness. Evacuation of that city began last night.

American Beheaded.

City of Mexico, Aug. 16.—Beheaded by rebels after they had carried him away as a captive from a point near Morelia, capital of Michicosa, is the fate of Rowan Ayers, an American civil engineer, according to official reports given by the minister of war to American Ambassador Wilson.

The capture of Ayers was reported to the embassy several days ago, and Mr. Wilson requested the war department to send out a searching party. A detachment of troops was ordered out, but word was received from Morelia that a searching party had discovered the headless body of Ayers.

Gen. Luis Terrazas, a wealthy landowner of Chihuahua, now in Los Angeles, has been asked by Rafael Hernandez, minister of fomento, to use his influence in inducing Orozco to agree to terms of peace, according to private dispatches here.

Orozco Weakening.

Dallas, Tex., Aug. 16.—That Gen. Pasquale Orozco has receded from his demand that President Madero retire from office, and will abandon his revolution against the Mexican government if certain reforms are established, is the declaration of Dr. Henry Allen Tupper of Brooklyn, representative of the international peace forum, who interviewed Orozco at Juarez last week.

Dr. Tupper is in Dallas en route to Washington, where he will confer with President Taft next week.

Threatened Opposition Likely to Prevent Action This Session.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Threatened opposition to the proposal that the senate appropriate $35,000 toward William Lorimer's expenses in his three-year fight defending his rights to a seat, is expected to keep the senate elections committee recommendation to that effect from being reported at this session.

ROUGH RIDER IS SENT TO PERSIA

Washington, Aug. 16.—President Taft sent a number of diplomatic and consular nominations to the senate today. A majority are promotions, but there are many new appointments, all based on examination.

The new appointees are Craig Wadsworth of New York, a former Rough Rider and second secretary of embassy at London, which office he resigned in 1909. He is named as secretary of legation at Teheran, Persia.

Farman R. Furness of Pennsylvania, a Harvard man, goes to St. Petersburg as third secretary of embassy.

Hallett Johnson of New Jersey, a young New York lawyer and Columbia graduate, is made third secretary of embassy at London in place of Sheldon L. Crosby, also of New York, who becomes first secretary at Bangkok, Siam.

Henry F. Tennant of New York, a young lawyer with former diplomatic experience in the Lisbon legation, reenters the service as third secretary of embassy in the City of Mexico.

CATHOLIC PRESS BODY MEETS IN LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 16.—Members of the Catholic Press association are in session here today, preliminary to the meeting of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, which opens here Sunday.

The convention committee of the federation has received acceptances from 500 delegates, and this number will be swelled by many hundreds of visitors. Plans for the meeting as perfected by the local branch of the organization include a pontifical mass Sunday morning at the Cathedral of the Assumption, at which Most Rev. John Bonzano, papal delegate, will be celebrated, and a parade in which 15,000 persons will participate.

MOWERS HARM TWO CHILDREN

North Dakota Boy and Girl Crippled By Sickle Bars.

Beach, N. D., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—With his hand partly severed from his wrist, Clifford Olson, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Olson, unhitced the team he was driving from the mower, tied them to a nearby post with his one hand and then walked half a mile to a neighbor's to report his accident. A physician was summoned at once and the injured member was amputated.

Girl Loses Foot.

Fairdale, N. D., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—A harvest field accident near here resulted in the amputation of a foot from 6-year-old Anabelle Sunderland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sunderland. The little girl and her younger brother were following the mower and in their play Anabelle ran in front of the sickle, the member being practically severed before her 9-year-old brother, Fred, who was driving, could stop the horses. The amputation was just above the ankle joint.

BRAINERD SHOPS PAY OUT $75,000

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—A $75,000 pay day is the record set this month by the Northern Pacific railway shops here.

Wages, work and conditions are of the best and things were never in better shape in industrial lines. Crow Wing county will have a bumper crop in hay, wheat, oats, rye, corn and potatoes. Mining and development work are being carried on with the ardor which betokens good prosperity for the range. A train of ore is being shipped daily from the Armour No. 1, No. 2 and Kennedy mines. Drills are working in the very city limits of Brainerd and Henry Nelson of the Brainerd-Cuyuna Mining company announces that his company will in all probability sink a shaft this fall. It is freely predicted that Brainerd will have 50,000 people in five years.

ADDRESS HERALD, J-239.

OBJECTS TO ASSESSMENT

Street Railway Company Charges Discrimination in Tax Rolls.

Says Other Business Interests Are Assessed on Lower Percentage.

Despite the cry of unjust discrimination which comes from officials of the Duluth Street Railway company to the county board of equalization, now in session, it is quite probable that the 1912 personal property assessment of the company, amounting to about $1,225,000, or 48 per cent of the true value, according to the street railway company's claim, will stand.

The claim of the company that its valuation of 48 per cent of the true value is too high is based on its contention that only two-thirds of the company's property is located in Duluth, whereas the city assessor claims that nearly four-fifths of its property is located on the Duluth side.

The street railway company in a protest filed yesterday afternoon with the equalization board objected to its last assessment for personal property taxes as made by the city assessor. In the company's petition to the board, a request was made either to reduce the assessment to the same percentage as the wholesale and jobbing houses or raise the taxes on the latter to meet those of the traction company.

Although late this afternoon the county equalization board had taken no definite action, the indications were that the assessment as placed by the city officials would stand. The county will in all probability not hedge from its former position in view of the fact that some of the same issues are raised in a case which is pending in district court and which Judge Cant has had under advisement for several months.

Decision Expected.

Judge Cant's decision in this case, which is one brought by the county to enforce the collection of the 1910 personal property taxes of the street car company is expected in the near future. It may shed some light on the situation. The case was submitted on briefs to the court several months ago by attorneys for the traction company and Charles E. Adams, special counsel for the county board.

It is understood that as soon as Judge Cant's decision is announced, another action involving the same issues but which seeks to enforce the collection of the 1911 taxes, will be begun. If the decision is rendered before the September term of court, the new case will probably be put on this term for trial. There is little likelihood that it will be begun before the 1910 action is disposed of.

In the matter which is now before the equalization board, the traction company contends that there is unjust discrimination practiced by the assessors. It is claimed that the personal property of the street railway, bank shares, logs and lumber are assessed at about 50 per cent of their true market value; that coal is assessed as high as 75 to 80 per cent, but that in the case of manufacturing concerns the assessment is only from 20 to 25 per cent and that the stock of the wholesale houses is assessed at 25 to 30 per cent.

Schedule Unfair.

Such a schedule, the street railway officials claim, is manifestly unfair to the concerns and interests paying taxes on assessments determined from a higher basis of percentage than 20 per cent. In justice to the company, it is argued, the assessment percentages of the wholesale houses and jobbing interests should either be raised to meet the level of the street railway company and others paying higher taxes or those of the traction company and others reduced to meet the plane of the jobbers.

It is claimed by the traction company officials that the position of the county board has been that some distinction should be made in favor of the manufacturing and jobbing interests owing to the different nature of their business. The street railway company conducts a cash business and has a monopoly, whereas the jobber has bad debts to contend with, the crops to reckon with along with sharp competition and other uncertainties.

Duluth jobbers and manufacturers, taxing officials claim, are assessed at the same percentage as are those of the Twin Cities, with whom they have to compete. It is argued that it would be unfair to raise the assesment of the local jobbers if the Twin City merchants, their competitors, were paying taxes on a lesser percentage.

If the street railway company carries its complaint to the state tax commission, which is virtually a state board of equalization, there is a possibility, it is said, that the assessment rate for jobbers and manufacturing concerns may be raised in both Duluth and the Twin Cities.

The courts have repeatedly held that the remedy for unjust discrimination in tax matters is to raise the assessment of the low man rather than reduce the assessment of the complaining party. Under the law, assessments are supposed to be made on full true values, and the courts have recognized this standard.

FIREBUGS BUSY AT PARK RAPIDS

Park Rapids, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.) — Fire was discovered in a back door of the Gem theater at 3 a. m. today and an alarm was sounded and the fire was extinguished before much damage was done. An examination showed the work was that of incendiaries. A hole was cut through the panel, combustible materials poured in and set on fire. This is the fourth incendiary fire in two months.

GLENWOOD BOY SCOUTS PASS THROUGH BRAINERD.

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.) — Scout Masters N. H. Nagel, T. Rovelstad and G. T. Torgerson and company of sixteen Boy Scouts passed through Brainerd on their way to Glenwood. The whole company was neatly uniformed in khaki suits. Their tour embraced a visit to an inspection of the mines near Virginia, a trip to Duluth and Superior, a river excursion down the Mississippi from Grand Rapids to Sandy lake and a boat trip to Aitkin.

SEWER WILL COST $21,500

Engineer Submits Estimate on Proposed Park Point Improvement.

Four Booster Pumps Needed in the Three-Mile Stretch.

City Engineer John Wilson estimates that the proposed Park Point sanitary sewer will cost $21,500. The sewer will be nearly three miles long, running from Thirty-eighth street to an outlet in the canal.

Four booster pumps are provided for in the estimate. Three will be installed in Minnesota avenue at Thirty-fourth, Twenty-sixth and Twelfth streets and one in Lake avenue and Eighth streets. These are made necessary because of the lack of grade. In order to get the necessary fall by gravity the pipes will have to be laid in sections, a profile of which would resemble a jagged streak of lightning as commonly pictured. The pumps are to be placed at the vertical sections to lift the sewage from one section to another. The estimate was sent to the board of public works today.

The board opened bids for the grading and graveling of Forty-third avenue west from Grand avenue to Eighth street. George R. King will get the job on his low bid of $2,625.

COUNTY CLUB TO MEET AT TOWER

Duluth Will Be Represented at Session in Vermilion Range Town.

A number of Duluth people will attend the next meeting of the Country club, which will be held at Tower next Thursday, Aug. 22. F. B. Meyers of Biwabik, secretary of the club, has sent out notices urging a large attendance.

The Tower Commercial club has made preparations for the entertainment of the visitors. There will be a business meeting at 1 o'clock, after which a boat trip will be taken to the many beautiful points on Vermilion lake.

The Commercial club will send its full representation to the meeting and many others will probably make the trip. Tower and the surrounding country are beautiful at this time of the year, and the meeting will furnish a good outing, as well as an occasion for the discussion of matters of great importance to the country.

TOO MUCH, EVEN FOR NEW YORK

New York Visitor Comments on Rosenthal Murder Case.

"Naturally New York is somewhat stirred up over the startling revelations of police graft, and some of us are of the opinion that the surface has just been scraped on the astounding mine of corruption," said Harvey Williams, a New York traveling man at the Spalding today. "But in the opinion of many residents of New York, the authorities are going to encounter the gravest difficulty in getting to the bottom of the graft case.

"I believe that every large city has more or less of the same story to tell. The crime of the underworld of New York has been furtively hinted at for years, but the average person, hearing some weird tale of murder, casually questioned for the time whether it was true that a human being could be done away with and few questions asked, and then let the matter pass from his mind.

"If the present investigation is so successful as to get at the real truth, there is not the least doubt in the average New Yorker's mind but that the silver trail of graft money will lead straight up to the highest officials in the department. In that case there would likely be an overturning of the police department, and that means labor and plenty of it.

"You can vaguely realize the difficulties that are being encountered by the district attorney's office, when you realize that practically the entire underworld system is being used to hide the entire truth. It has required years to construct this system of graft, and therefore it may be natural to suppose that it will require some weeks or months to get to the bottom of the maze of grafting trails.

"'Why,' you or any one else may ask, 'was Rosenthal murdered in such an open manner?' They had to get him quick, but that does not explain the boldness of the murder. I am of the opinion that these gunmen, assured of the protection of those high up, grew bold and stepped across the bounds. There must always be an end to repeated crimes, and the rather crude job performed by these professional killers in the streets of New York was one step too far, even for New York, which is used to crime."

FRECKLE-FACE

New Remedy That Removes Freckles or Costs Nothing.

Here's a chance Miss Freckle-Face, to try a new remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles, while if it does give you a clear complexion, the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength, from Boyce Drug Store and one night's treatment will show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask Boyce Drug Store for the double strength othine, as this is the only prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB WILL MEET

A meeting of the Oneota Improvement club will be held this evening at the Merritt school, and a number of matters of importance to residents of that vicinity will be brought up for discussion and possible settlement.

Among other things, an incipient movement to have West Fifth street paved between Thirty-eighth and Forty-fourth avenues will be talked over. An attempt has been made to start a petition to the city council to have the street paved, but so far nothing has come of it. If, in the opinion of those present this evening, the work should be done, a petition will be started forthwith.

The matter of paving West Third street will also be talked over. This is more a question of proper and adequate paving material than anything else, for West Third street is a main thoroughfare now, and the problem is to get a paving that will hold up under the demands that will be made upon it.

Other matters of interest will come up also and a large attendance is desired.

HONORS FOR GOPHER CREW

Duluth Boys Make Clean Sweep of Competitive Events.

Complimented By Commander-in-Chief for Their Showing.

The Gopher cleaned up everything in sight yesterday in competitive contests. The Minnesota boys easily won the boat drill, and lost only one signal hoist all day. The men were complimented by the commander in chief of the fleet for the excellence shown in the maneuvers.

The Gopher was the only ship not called to attention by the flagship for being out of position. That record is an excellent one for the navigators and engineering crew.

The Gopher was sent to Manistee and Grand Haven after the maneuvers at South Manitou Island, and will proceed from here to Chicago for the sham battle and maneuvers. The ship will probably start for Duluth Sunday night.

stations, water is being supplied to every part of the city at pressure that never wavers. The gas system has been thoroughly reorganized and the gas service in Duluth now is as good as anywhere in the United States.

In 1899, the city sold 25,309,963 feet of gas and pumped 4,279,875 gallons of water for a daily average. Last year the department reports shows total gas sales of 275,776,800 feet and 6,905,016 gallons of water were pumped daily. The gas rates have been reduced from $1.90 per 100 feet for light and $1 for fuel in 1898 to 75 cents per 100 feet for light and fuel at present. The water rates have been reduced a total of 50 per cent for meter and flat rates. At the same time, the cost of operation has been reduced and the department's earnings have increased from year to year.

Mr. Case has been subjected to severe criticism from some quarters during the fourteen years that he has held the office, but he has acted at all times for what he thought to be the best interests of the city. The department has been put on a systematic, business basis and is pointed to all over the country as a model municipal department. The department has been run as any other business interest would be conducted—for the benefit of the stockholders, who are in this case the taxpayers of the city. From year to year Mr. Case has been reengaged without question by the board and his resignation was reluctantly accepted.

Before coming to Duluth Mr. Case was for forty years connected with the water department of Detroit, Mich. He worked up from the bottom, holding subordinate positions for thirty years. Ten years before coming to Duluth, he was chosen general superintendent, and held that position until prevailed upon to come to Duluth to systematize and build up the system which had just then passed into the hands of the city.

After fifty-four years of active service, Mr. Case believes he is entitled to a rest, and he hopes to find it on his California ranch.

During the Civil war Mr. Case served in the First Michigan Sharpshooters. He enlisted as a private at the beginning of the war, and was sent home ill a year later. After a year at home, he re-enlisted again as a private, and was mustered out with the rank of major at the close of the war. He was a major in command of a regiment at the age of 22 years, one of the most remarkable records of the war.

The board has not yet discussed the matter of a successor to Mr. Case, but one will be appointed before Mr. Case's resignation takes effect.

charge of the pending anti-trust suit against the International Harvester company and who has made an exhaustive investigation of the moving picture business, drew the petition filed today by United States Attorney John C. Swartley. In addition, the bill is signed by Attorney General Wickersham and James A. Fowler, his assistant.

The government's petition says that between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 feet of pictures are printed each week by manufacturers and distributed to thousands of exhibitors all over the United States. The government declares that a sum greatly in excess of $100,000,000 has been invested in the different branches of the business. The defendants control, it is added, from 70 to 80 per cent of the film business, furnishing approximately 7,000 exhibitors.

Business Is to Sue.

Other than collecting and distributing royalties among the defendants, the bill says, the Patents company's only business is the bringing of lawsuits under the patents it holds. Hundreds of suits have been brought, it is alleged, "to harass and oppress all persons engaged in the motion picture business who have not obeyed its mandates."

The General Film company, it is declared, has acquired the business or cancelled the licenses held from the Motion Picture Patents company, of every rental exchange in the United States, with one exception, at a cost of $2,243,089 in cash and $794,800 in preferred stock.

No one of the thousands of exhibitors throughout the United States, it is charged, can obtain a motion picture manufactured by any one of the ten defendant manufacturers, unless he has received a license from the Patents company, which obligates him to use the films of the alleged combination exclusively.

Have to Pay Royalties.

An exhibitor has to pay $2 a week to the Patents company, it is said, on every exhibiting machine owned by him, even including machines sold years before to the exhibitors without any conditions being attached to the sale.

"Defendants, through the Patents company," the petition adds, "were enabled to and did determine whether new motion picture shows should be opened and whether old ones should be closed, although defendants had no proprietary interest in such theaters."

Each of the ten film manufacturing defendants have license agreements with the patents company, providing that films shall not fall into the hands of exhibitors who use any but the defendants' exhibiting or projecting machines.

The Patents company agreed with manufacturers of exhibiting machines, stipulating that every machine should be sold subject to the condition that it shall be used only for the films of the alleged combination. These agreements, it is said, fixed the selling price of machines.

Is Important Action.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The moving picture anti-trust suit filed today is regarded by the department of justice as one of its most important moves under the Sherman law, as it squarely asks for a judicial determination of the relation of that statute to the patent laws. The suit will test the right of corporations and individuals to join their respective patent monopolies into one big monopoly through alleged combinations and agreements.

These issues, it is declared, are brought out more forcibly in today's suit than in any pending anti-trust litigation.

ports today that Horowitz has relatives in Metheun.

Reward of $5,000 Up.

A reward of $5,000 has been offered by District Attorney Whitman for the capture of the gunmen. The money will be paid for the fugitives dead or alive.

The district attorney said today that he did not want to start the murder trial until he had captured Horowitz and Rosenzweig unless he had to.

At the request of District Attorney Whitman, Governor Dix today designated Justice John W. Goff to preside at an extraordinary term of the supreme court to be held in New York Sept. 3 "for a speedy and vigorous prosecution of indictments which may be found" as a result of the Rosenthal investigation.

Try Becker Last.

First to be placed on trial, according to present plans, are the gunmen. Becker's trial will likely come last. John F. McIntyre, counsel for Becker, is in Baltimore today, but he has said that his client is ready to go before the bar at any time.

Justice Goff especially is well qualified for a sympathetic understanding of cases involving police graft. He was counsel for the now-famous Lexow committee, which uncovered much crookedness in the department years ago and he has also been an assistant district attorney here.

On the bench he presided in such well-known cases as the Kennedy, Patrick and Molineaux trials, the Meyer poisoning case and the case of the notorious Sam Parks. He was elected to the supreme court in 1906 and is about 66 years old.

Until the arrival of Sam Schepps, now on his way here under guard from Hot Springs, Ark., there seemed little likelihood of the development of any startling phases in the Rosenthal case.

Withheld Its Report.

At the request of District Attorney Whitman, the grand jury yesterday withheld the filing of its pending indictments against the murderers of Herman Rosenthal in order to hear the testimony of Sam Schepps, now on his way here from Hot Springs, Ark., in custody of Assistant District Attorney Rubin.

While the prosecutor believes the evidence thus far submitted to the jury is sufficient for the purposes of indictment, he advised the jury that it would be best to hear the testimony of Schepps in order further to strengthen the case. The district attorney expects that Schepps, said to have been a passenger in the "murder car," will add details of the manner in which the murder was planned, which will strengthen the bills contemplated against "Gyp the Blood," "Dago" Frank Cirofici, "Whitey" Lewis and "Lefty" Loule, the alleged murder crew.

Mr. Whitman believes Schepps will be able also to throw light upon the manner in which the alleged murderers were paid, corroborating the testimony of Jack Rose and "Bridgie" Weber that Lieut. Charles Becker, charged with instigating the murder, was responsible for the payment.

Hear Schepps Tuesday.

Schepps is expected here Saturday and will go before the grand jury Tuesday as a material witness, unless in the meantime he disappoints the expectations of the state by refusing to tell his story. In that event, it was intimated by the district attorney, one more indictment would be handed down Monday and the name of the man it would accuse of complicity in the murder would be Schepps.

Detective William J. Burns conferred with the district attorney, but has thus far, it was learned, turned up no evidence of importance. He told the prosecutor, however, that he was on a trail which he predicted would lead to a high city official in connection with police corruption. He also said that he expected to "get" three men known as "the disorderly house triumvirate," one a lawyer, one a police inspector and the other a hotel keeper. The detective also gave assurances to the district attorney, it was learned, that he would find "Gyp the Blood."

Schepps in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 16.—Assistant District Attorney J. R. Rubin and party, taking Sam Schepps to New York as a material witness in the Rosenthal murder case, passed through this city early today. It was said the party would stop in New York state before going into New York city next week, but Mr. Rubin declined to say where.

had caused jury, court officials and spectators to weep.

Brains No Sign of Virtue.

"You have listened," said Fredericks, "to one of the most marvelous addresses or orations ever delivered in any courtroom, when you heard Mr. Darrow. But that only reflects upon the ability of the man, and has mighty little to do with his guilt or innocence.

"His story teaches us that the most brainy men have gone wrong. This defendant's unfortunate predicament is the result of those peculiar views which go to make up his very nature. His insidious hand entered into bribery from the very beginning of the McNamara case; bribery is in his very nature. He had the idea that there was no integrity that could not be bought."

After reciting the substance of the principal evidance introduced by the state, Fredericks declared no one but Darrow could have been the man who provided the bribe money.

Quoted J. B. McNamara.

He scouted the theory that the Times dynamiters did not intend to do murder, by quoting from a statement said to have been made by J. B. McNamara in which he was reported to have expressed regret that he did not kill Harry Chandeler, the general manager of the Times. He lauded W. J. Burns as "having done more durhng the last ten years to uphold the cause of civic righteousness, civic decency and civic honesty than any other man in America."

Referring to John R. Harrington, the prosecutor said the actions of Darrow's former employe might not have been ethical, but they savored of honesty. He thought, however, that Harrington should have left Darrow's home before he turned against him. Fredericks confined himself principally to the evidence, many extracts of which he read to the jury.

ELEVEN FORTIES WILL BE STRIPPED

The Carlson Exploration company, consisting of P. H. Nelson, Thomas York and Gust Carlson, is about to strip eleven forties on the Cuyuna range, and has just taken options on several forties in sections 17 and 18, in 46-29 from John T. Murphy and others of Superior, Wis., and from the Williams-Carlson Ore company and Williams & Brown. All of these lie near Little Rabbit lake. It is claimed that about 20,000,000 tons of high-grade ore have already been shown up on the forties to be developed.

HURT PRESERVING FRUIT.

Moorhead Woman Loses Arm When Jar Explodes.

Moorhead, Minn., Aug. 16.—When Mrs. John Ellingson attempted to force down the cover of a preserving jar over a heaping jar of hot fruit Wednesday, the jar exploded with such violence that Mrs. Ellingson's right hand was practically blown off. Neighbors who heard the explosion found her in a faint. Physicians state that the woman will probably lose her hand. She is seriously ill from loss of blood.

"KINDLING."

Margaret Illington Delights Superior Audience in Her New Play.

Maggie Schultz, wife of an East side stevedore. Heinrich Schultz, is a woman of ideals, even though her station in life and circumstances give her little opportunity to advance. She longs for children, but is deterred in her desire by the sordidness and poverty of her surroundings and, her inability to provide the things that spell health and strength to a child.

Mrs. Bates, another resident of the poor tenement in which Maggie lives, tells her that for a small sum of money she can go to Wyoming where her baby can be brought up in the world and properly provided for. The difficulty is for Maggie to get the necessary money. Fate throws Mrs. Burke Smith, the woman who owns the tenement house, in her way. The wealthy woman offers Maggie a position in her home. Maggie accepts and presently sees a way to realize her ambition to secure the money to take her away to the West. She becomes an accomplice of a thief and for her share of the spoils she is given a diamond brooch, which she pawns. Heinrich, a ruggedly honest poor man, discovers the truth of the matter and returns the money and pawn ticket to Mrs. Burke Smith. Upon learning of the temptation and the condition of expectant motherhood, the wealthy Mrs. Burke Smith withdraws the charge of theft, and permits Maggie to go free. Alice, a niece of Mrs. Burke Smith, who has become acquainted with the case through her aunt, becomes interested in Maggie and presents the husband and wife with tickets and sufficient funds to carry them to the western country where it is presumed Maggie realizes her ambitions to bring her baby into the world in the right sort of condition.

Such in brief is the story of "Kindling" by Charles Kenyon, in which Margaret Illington and a thoroughly capable company were seen at the Superior Grand last evening.

In the great problem of eugenics, Mr. Kenyon has a comparatively new field for the dramatist, and he has approached it in a strong, virile manner.

Margaret Illington makes good her title as a worthy artist in playing the role of Maggie Schultz. She forgets the days of her drawing room emotionalism. She so surrenders herself to the character of the submerged tenement wife that her Maggie Schultz becomes the breathing embodiment of the possibilities of want and the desperation born of want. Only now and then her dawning mother love for the baby yet unborn, masters her darkened soul, if there is any saving illumination of that soul. It is love of Maggie Schultz for the unborn baby, the dread of her, as a mother, bringing a squalor cursed child into the poisoned life of the tenements, that ultimately leads Maggie to become a thief.

Miss Illington was last seen at the Head of the Lakes in "If I Were King," and while those who saw her then have pleasant recollections of her work, it gave no promise of the forceful emotional ability which she has developed.

Duluthians will greet an old friend in Frank Campeau of "Virginian" fame. It was a long jump from the "bad man" Trampas of the Western plains, to the sneaking New York cadet, Steve Bates, but Mr. Campeau is duplicating his excellent work in the new role.

Frank E. Camp deserves more than passing notice for his finished work in the role of Rafferty, the plain clothes man, and Ida Lewis gave an intelligent and not overdrawn interpretation of the part of the aged Irish woman, Mrs. Bates.

Byron Beasley plays opposite to Miss Illington in the role of her husband, an honest, hard-working stevedore with leanings toward Socialism, and gives a careful, well considered handling of the part.

There are but ten members of the company, but the minor parts have not been neglected. The play will be seen in Duluth tonight and tomorrow afternoon and night.

VICTIMS OF CRUEL HOAX

West End Young Women Informed Aged Mother Was Lost.

Say Policeman Told Them After Entering Rooms Unannounced.

After grieving for two days over the supposed death of their mother, Mrs. Christine Leaf, who it was reported had died while on her way to Grand Lake, her four daughters this morning learned that they are the victims of a cruel hoax and that their brother was compelled to make a wild goose chase to Grand Lake. He returned this morning with the information that Mrs. Leaf is in perfect health and that she will spend several days there with friends.

A Herald reporter found the four daughters this morning at 2002 West Superior street, where they were anxiously awaiting some report from their brother, Ernest, who went to Grand Lake yesterday in answer to the report that his mother had not arrived, and that in all probability had droped exhausted on her way out and was dead in the woods. Mrs. Leaf, who is 66 years old, left here Monday for Grand Lake, planning to pick berries on her way.

While The Herald reporter was talking to the girls they received a letter from Grand Lake signed by Mrs. Leaf, stating that she was all right and in perfect health. Although Mrs. Leaf does not write English the girls were of the belief that she dictated it to one of the members of the family with whom she was staying. Shortly after the arrival of the letter Mr. Leaf returned with the news that he had seen his mother and that she was well and safe.

The girls claim that on Wednesday evening Carl Sundberg, a policeman at Twentieth avenue west, walked into the house and began questioning the girls. He had gone in without knocking, they assert, and frightened the girls, who were alone at the time. He asked if everything was all right, looked about and then walked out. He repeated this several times, until finally one of the girls stopped him and asked him what he wanted, the girls assert. He asked the girls where their mother was and they told him that she was on her way to Grand Lake. He then walked out.

Sundberg returned a few minutes later accompanied by a short stout man in gray. They told the girls that their mother had not arrived at Grand Lake and that the people there were worried. Later on Sundberg again entered, this time accompanied by a sergeant, who explained the matter more fully to the girls.

Yesterday Mr. Leaf left for Grand Lake to investigate. The girls claim that the policeman had no right to walk into their home without knocking or go through the rooms without a warrant.

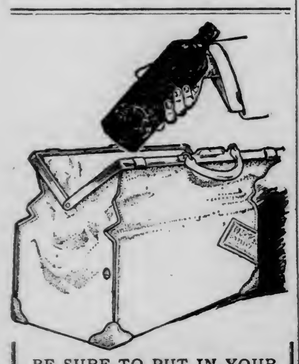

Mrs. Drew, a neighbor of the young women, told The Herald reporter at the same time, that on Wednesday evening she was awakened by some one in the kitchen. When she entered the room she found a policeman there with a flashlight in his hand. After a short discussion he left, she said.

The young women and their brother are determined to get to the bottom of the matter and say that they will take it up with the chief of police at once.

CALL NEWSPAPER CONTEST "FRAUD"

Postoffice Inspectors Arrest Men Who Managed One at Fargo.

Toledo, O., Aug. 16.—W. E. Ashley of Fond du Lac, Wis., was arrested at Fremont today by Postoffice Inspectors Carl Egge and George Chase of Fargo, N. D., and brought here for arraignment on the charge of failing to make good on prizes offered in a newspaper circulation contest in Fargo, after sending the papers through the mails. He pleaded guilty before a United States commissioner here and was held in bail of $1,000 pending his removal to the jurisdiction of the United States court at Fargo. The officers said that M. H. Hatcher and A. M. Baker, alleged accomplices of Ashley, are under arrest in Fargo.

BOAT CLUB ORGANIZED

West Duluth Boating Enthusiasts Form a New Organization.

Site Will Be Secured and Club House Will Be Erected.

The new organization will be devoted to motor boating, races, sailing and various other features offered in boat clubs. The organization will be run on a small scale at present. The members are enthusiastic over the new club and efforts will be made to enlarge the organization. A campaign for members will begin at once and a suitable site for a club building will be secured by one of the committees appointed last evening.

The following officers were elected last evening to hold office until next April, when the annual meeting and election will be held: Frank H. Wade, commodore; A. E. Swanstrom, vice commodore; Ernest Larson, rear commodore; Stanley Strand, secretary, and Merwin H. Murray, treasurer. Committees were appointed to draw up a constitution and a set of by-laws, to arrange for an active membership campaign, to originate a desirable pennant, to prepare race programs for the balance of the summer, and to secure a suitable site in this end of the city.

The site committee consists of Robert Jennings, A. E. Swanstrom, M. H. Murray, Charles Dahl and Melvin Olson. The members of the racing committee are: Ernest Larson, M. H. Murray, Ammon Fayling, Warren Crosby and Charles Dahl. Another meeting of the club will be held next week, when further plans will be made and discussed. A program for races on Sunday, Sept. 1, will be presented by Mr. Larson of the racing committee.

In all probability the clubhouse will be located in the vicinity of Fairmont park. If the desired property can be secured, the clubhouse will be built next to the proposed addition, which has good grounds and a river running through it for several blocks.

West Duluth Boys Will Enjoy Annual Y. M. C. A. Outing.

Several of the boys in the West Duluth Boys' and Girls' club, 208 Central avenue, are planning to accompany the Y. M. C. A. boys on their annual outing at Camp Miller.

The boys will leave here Monday morning, arriving at Camp Miller, near Deerwood, about noon. An advance guard left yesterday to prepare the camp and the tents for the boys. Eleven tents will be used by the boys during the camp. Norman McLeod, secretary of the boys' division of the Y. M. C. A., will be in charge of the party.

No Fires This Month.

Fire company No. 3, West Duluth, has not had a single call since the first of the month. That a half a month should pass by without a single blaze is out of the ordinary, say the firemen, who are now watching to see how long this "streak of luck" will last.

New Sidewalks.

New sidewalks are being laid on Roosevelt street, between Fifty-third and Fifty-sixth avenues west. The work has been going on for the past week and is expected to be finished within a few days.

Socialists Will Meet.

The West Duluth Socialist club will meet this evening at the Victor hall, 5528 Grand avenue. P. G. Phillips, alderman of the Eighth ward will preside at the meeting, during which the members will select a candidate for the office of county commissioner in the Fifth district. The meeting will start at 8 o'clock.

HARRIS SALOON WILL BECOME WAREHOUSE.

North Branch, Minn., Aug. 16.—One of the old landmarks of Harris is belngtorn down this week, what was formerly the old saloon building of H. J. Jarchow. The lumber will be used in the new potato warehouse Jarchow is building. Contractors Tell and Palme rare doing the work.

WILL CHOOSE DEPOT SITE

West Duluth Citizens Will Discuss Building at Mass Meeting.

Northern Pacific Will Abide By Decision of Citizens.

Martin J. Murray, secretary of the West Duluth Commercial club, this morning announced that a mass meeting will be held at the clubrooms this evening to allow the residents of West Duluth to choose a site for the proposed Northern Pacific passenger and freight depot.

Residents of this end of the city are requested to attend the meeting and to take part in the discussion. The meeting is open to the public, and following a series of talks, a vote will be taken on the subject. Mr. Murray stated this morning that the railroad officials have agreed to abide by the final vote of the people.

Last Tuesday a number of the business men in West Duluth met with Supt. Brown and H. V. Pierce of the Northern Pacific road at a special conference held at the Commercial club. At that time the station site was discussed, but the matter was laid aside for several days, as a conclusion at that time was hardly probable. Since then the residents and business men of this end of the city have been discussing the subject among themselves.

Several good sites have been suggested by both the officials and the residents, but of these, the best so far is the one seventy-five feet east from the present structure. The construction of the station at this point will take the congestion away from Central avenue and will also allow for a larger structure to accommodate both passengers and freight, according to the order issued early in July by the state railroad and warehouse commission.

The fact that the officials have agreed to stand by the decision will please many and will assure an early adjustment of the matter. The officials are anxious to begin building at once, as the commission's order calls for an early completion of the building.

Following the mass meeting, the members of the club will take up the business of the week. The public market place will be discussed and a resolution adopted asking for a hurried construction of the sheds. The contract has been awarded, said J. J. Frey, chairman of the market committee, this morning, and the members of the club are anxious to see construction work start next week.

BUTCHERS HOLD ANNUAL PICNIC

Forgetting business cares for one day in the year, nearly every butcher in Duluth yesterday attended the annual picnic of the Duluth Butchers' union held at Fairmont park. The shops were closed for the day.

It is estimated that over 2,000 people attended the picnic and took part in the festivities, which started at 10 o'clock in the morning. In the afternoon a program of races and field events was featured. The winners in the various events were as follows:

Fat men's race, L. Overton; fat women's race, Mrs. O. S. Johnson; thin women's race, Miss Myrtle Merle; young ladies' race, Miss Margaret Aredson; butchers' race, Sam Cherrick; race for boys under 10 years of age, Louis Gangor; girls under 10, Margaret Koonkenbaker; 100-yard dash, H. W. Pahke, and the three-legged race, R. Clark and H. W. Pahke.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schneider were awarded first prize for having the largest family on the grounds. They have eleven children. Olaf Peterson carried away first honors for being the fattest butcher at the picnic, his weight being 327 pounds. The prizes for the different events were donated by the Duluth packing houses. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening.

West Duluth Briefs.

Neddo Baldwin, member of the Third Regiment band of Duluth, returned home last evening from Sparta, where he spent the past ten days in camp.

Mrs. Theresa Mithen and daughters, Marie and Katherine, of Battle Creek, Mich., are the guests this week at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. E. E. Hawkes of Proctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brooks of Chicago are the guests for several days at the home of the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. McIver of West Second street.

The Citizens' State bank is open for all banking business from 6 to 8 p. m. Saturday evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Bethel Norweglan Lutheran church was entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. Pederson, 5924 Nicollet street.

The Dorcas Society of the Elim Swedish Lutheran church was entertained last evening at the home of Mrs. John Eklund of Fifty-fifth avenue west.

For Rent—Houses, cottages and flats. W. B. Getchell, 319 Central avenue.

Miss Ruth McMahon of Virginia has returned to her home after visiting for the past week at the home of Miss Annie McEwen of Proctor.

William Granholm of 4813 Grand avenue, who was operated on for appendicitis at St. Luke's hospital last week, is reported as convalescing.

Miss Blanche Beckman of Fond du Lac has returned to her home after visiting for the past week with relatives at Zim, Minn.

The new West Duluth library at Central avenue and Ellnor street is open every day, except Sundays, from 1 o'clock until 9 o'clock in the evening.

BEATS PATIENTS WITH SOAP IN SOCK

Elgin, Ill., Aug. 16.—Assault upon three patients in the Elgin state hospital by Ralph Lushbaugh, an attendant, resulted in his arrest today.

Lushbaugh, it is alleged, put a cake of soap in the toe of a sock and swung it at the patients. Each of the three victims suffered several contusions about the head and face.

TWO SHOOTING SUSPECTS FREED

Third Man Held By Milwaukee Police for Identification.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 16.—Joseph Mustachi and Peter John, two of three men held as suspects in the double shooting Tuesday, were released by the sheriff today.

Peter Roma will be held until Patrolman Korn, one of the men wounded, is in a condition to see him again in the hope of identification.

SECOND TRIAL FREES ALLEGED MURDERERS.

Marinette, Wis., Aug. 16.—Roy Day and Joseph Hubbard, Jr., of Wausaukee, convicted of murder and given fourteen years in state prison, have been discharged from custody at the conclusion of their second trial. They were convicted in the first trial principally on the evidence of one man, who identified them positively as the slayers of Melvin Bradrick. In the second trial the identification by the witness was not a positive one.

Bradrick was killed in the night while he was hunting chicken thieves.

PENSION MONEY AT LAST READY

Washington, Aug. 16.—President Taft signed the $160,000,000 pension appropriation bill today, and thousands of veterans and their dependents who have been practically without their usual government aid for many weeks will cash their checks.

As soon as the president signed the bill the sub-treasury was ordered by wire to at once honor the drafts of the eighteen outlying pension agencies, which by the provision of the law which so long delayed its passage, will go out of existence Jan. 31, 1913. After that date the pension bureau in Washington will mail checks direct.

According to Eugene M. Stevens, secretary, a satisfactory report will be offered. The interest-bearing notes which were issued at the time of the appointment of the committee have two more years to run.

TECHNICAL.

New York American: A bridge player went to her doctor before taking an ocean trip and asked: "Doctor, I want to ward off seasickness on this trip so that I can play bridge and enjoy myself. Now, some of my friends say I should eat all I want, and others say I shouldn't eat a thing. Which should I do?"

"Well, ma'am," replied the doctor, thoughtfully, "it's only a question of whether you prefer to discard from strength or weakness."

Ask yourself this question: "Can I afford NOT to advertise?"

DOWN TO THE SEMI-FINALS

Only Four Men Left in Trans-Mississippi Golf Tourney.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 16.—Four men today are battling over the Minikahda club course here in the 36-holes of match play of the semi-finals of the Trans-Mississippi golf association tournament for the honor of entering the finals tomorrow, with the odds all in favor that one of the men will be H. Legg, Minneapolis, three times winner of the championship. Opposed to him is W. H. Chambers of Omaha, whom Trans-Mississippi veterans term a "real golfer," but who they expect, considering the form which the champion is showing in the present tournament, will not be able to defeat Legg, with the advantage of his home course.

Opposed to Legg, or Chambers, if he should win today either G. F. Paine, St. Louis, or W. D. Middleton, Davenport, will be pitted, and their match today is expected to be extremely close. Middleton won his way into the semi-finals yesterday by defeating William Sheehan of Des Moines, runner-up in the 1910 tournament and considered favorite, until the match yesterday, to meet Legg in the finals Saturday.

With the exception of the consolation round, play for the president's, directors' and surprise cups will be completed today. The consolation event will not be finished until tomorrow.

One champion and one former champion of the Trans-Mississippi Golf association met yesterday in the third round, 36 holes of match play, and the former champion, H. P. Bend, St. Paul, failed to "come back," losing to H. G. Legg, Minneapolis, 8 down and 6 to go. Bend in 1904, the last time the tournament was held over the Minikanda course, won the championship, defeating J. T. Stewart of Omaha.

At no stage of the play was Legg in danger, starting the afternoon play 3 up. Keeping the middle of the course, he skillfully avoided the rough and bunkers, and often drove the green.

The surprise match of the day, however, was the defeat of William Sheehan, Des Moines, 1910 runner-up and strong favorite to meet Legg in the finals, by W. D. Middleton, Davenport, Iowa, playing from the Rock Island Arsenal club, 3 down and 2 to go. Sheehan, who started the afternoon round 1 down, was fighting his mashie game the entire day, while Middleton was playing an admirable putting game.

In the closest match of the day W. H. Chambers, Omaha, defeated M. A. McLaughlin, Denver, 2 up, starting the afternoon round with 1 up and bettering his score for the eighteenth hole, where McLaughlin drove into a bunker and had difficulty in recovering.

G. F. Paine, St. Louis, easily defeated R. W. Hodge, Kansas City, 5 up, 4 to go, being 6 up at the beginning of the afternoon round.

This morning Legg will meet Chambers and Paine, Middleton, in the first half of the 36 holes match play in the semi-finals.

New directors of the association elected Wendell Hertig, Minneapolis, for the last year secretary-treasurer of the Trans-Mississippi association and in charge of the tournament here, as president of the association for the next year. A. W. Warren, St. Joseph, was elected vice president. The secretary-treasurer, who must be a member of the Glen Echo club, St. Louis, where the 1913 tournament is to be held, will not be chosen until recommendations are made by Glen Echo club officials.

Directors of the association are: F. B. Boyd, St. Louis; F. L. Woodward, Denver; J. W. Hughes, Omaha; J. D. Cady, Rock Island; George Frederickson, Oklahoma City; A. W. Warren, St. Joseph; R. W. Hodge, Kansas City; E. H. Sprague, Omaha; F. P. Carr, Des Moines; J. R. Lenist, Denver, and Wendell Hertig, Minneapolis. The association also formally invited the two clubs of Winnipeg, Man., to join the association.

GOLF AT CLUB.

Several Events Will Be Played at the Northland Links.

There will be a number of important golf contests at the Northland Country club tomorrow. Play is getting down near the finals in the class handicap and some interesting games are on for tomorrow. Play is also getting along in the spring handicap and there are a number of matches scheduled for the open club championship. All of the crack players of the club are entered for play in the various events and one of the best days of the season is expected. The red card contest will be one of the events of the day.

Jelly Roll Recipe

Only Two Eggs Required

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

This Jelly Roll is fast becoming very popular on account of the way it keeps fresh. With proper handling it should keep fresh a whole week, providing it isn't eaten up in the meantime, for it is every bit as good as it looks. 33

K C Jelly Roll

One cup sifted flour; scant half teaspoonful salt; 2 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; grated rind of 1 lemon; 2 eggs beaten light; 1 cup sugar; ½ cup hot milk; glass of jelly; powdered sugar.

Beat the sugar into the eggs; add the lemon rind, then the flour, sifted three times with the salt and baking powder; and, lastly, the milk. Bake in a buttered dripping pan; turn out on a damp cloth, trim off the crisp edges; spread with jelly and turn over and over into a roll while still warm. Dredge the top with powdered sugar.

Hot milk used in the jelly roll enables it to be rolled without danger of cracking. Have the milk scalding hot, also be careful to have the eggs and sugar beaten together until very light and creamy. Bake in a moderate oven.

K C Jelly Roll is illustrated on page thirty-two of the new and handsomely illustrated 64-page K C Cook's Book, which may be secured free by sending the certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder to the JAQUES MFG. CO., Chicago, Ill.

ON CO-OPERATIVE CREDIT SYSTEMS

Exhaustive Report Being Prepared By Ambassador Herrick at Paris.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Ambassador Herrick at Paris reports to the state department that in his work of investigating the co-operative credit systems of Europe he has the voluntary assistance of Edwin Chamberlain of San Francisco, as representative of the American Bankers' association, and John D. Dillon, president of the Agricultural association of New York. These men are giving their services gratis simply to assist Ambassador Herrick in the compilation of his exhaustive report on European co-operative credit systems which it is proposed to make the basis of some system of land mortgage banks to be organized in this country.

Mr. Herrick also reports that E. N. Breitung of Marquette, Mich., and Breckinridge Jones of St. Louis, Mo., are now en route to Paris and will add their services in the work of investigating this question. Mr. Breitung is interested in the ore business and considers that the co-operative credit system will work wonders in the development of the waste lands of the Northwest, which for years have remained undeveloped, in his opinion, largely on account of the lack of cheap money. Mr. Jones is also a man of independent fortune and has volunteered to help Mr. Herrick simply because of the great benefit which he, as a banker, believes will accrue to the American farmer and, through him, to the entire nation through the adoption of the co-operative credit system in the United States.

Two other men have placed themselves on Ambassador Herrick's auxiliary staff, Todd Ford of California and Mr. Ingalls, son of Ex-Senator Ingalls of Kansas. Neither of these men is receiving compensation for his services. Mr. Ford is preparing himself for the diplomatic service.

The services of these men, Ambassador Herrick believes, will enable the embassy to so push the work of the compilation of the various reports which will be sent in by the American diplomatic officers that the final report will be ready for President Taft by October next, which will probably give him an opportunity to submit his legislative views at the next session of congress, which convenes in December.

SENATE APPROVES SEALING TREATIES

Passes Bill Putting Three Such Agreements Into Effect.

Washington, Aug. 16.—After four hours debate, the senate passed a bill putting into effect the fur seal treaties with Japan, England and Russia for the protection of seals in the Probilof islands. The measures prohibit Pelagic sealing, and by a vote of 42 to 18 the senate placed in it a provision prohibiting land killing on the island for ten years.

An effective fight against the ten-year closed season provision which was embodied in a senate committee amendment was made by Senators Lodge and Root. Senators Nelson of Minnesota, Hitchcock and Shively supported the amendment.

At the close of the debate Senator Dillingham of Vermont presented an amendment making the closed period five years, but on a roll call this was defeated, 27 to 32. The committee amendment was then adopted and the bill passed by viva voce vote.

BRITONS HONOR PILGRIM FATHERS

Southampton, Eng., Aug. 16.—The laying of the foundation stone of a memorial tower to be erected on the spot where the Mayflower was moored prior to her departure for America with the heroic band of pilgrims which set forth from this port 300 years ago in search of religious liberty, marked the second annual observance of Pilgrim's day yesterday.

The functions opened with a luncheon presided over by the mayor of Southampton. The toast of "The Immortal Memory of the Pilgrim Fathers" was proposed by Sheriff Hallett of Southampton and acknowledged by Arthur Lord and Joel H. Seaverns of Boston. Speeches also were made by Sir Edward W. Brabook and John Morgan Richards, formerly of Boston.

Among those present were Francis B. Loomis, formerly first assistant secretary of state, and Capt. Coleman of the United States training ship Adams. Letters of regret were received from Lord Montague, Sir William Portal and Dr. Samuel G. Smith of St. Paul, Minn.

Many American visitors, a number of whom were representatives of societies which preserve the memory of the Pilgrim Fathers in America, attended the various ceremonies.

A visit was made to the west gate through which the pilgrim fathers passed to the Mayflower on Aug. 18, 1620.

The mayor of Southampton has received messages of sympathetic appreciation of the objects of the proposed memorial from Woodrow Wilson, Democratic candidate for the presidency, and the governors of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Michigan and Pennsylvania.

"FORGET MERCY" IS THE ORDER

Special Counsel Named to Help Police Investigation in New York.

New York, Aug. 16.—Corporation Counsel Watson has announced the appointment of William McMurtie Speer as special counsel to represent the aldermanic investigation into police conditions. In a lengthy letter to Mr. Speer, the lawyer is enjoined to cooperate cheerfully with the aldermanic committee.

"Spare nobody," the letter continues. "Pursue relentlessly and seize with rough hand what you bring to bay. When you find an ulcer spot, burn it to the bone. When you find a bribetaker, one who has stultified himself, sold himself for a price, been faithless to his duty and his public trust, crush him, crucify him. Forget mercy and moderation. Put compassion, even discretion, wholly aside. Go at it your own way—only get results."

Gaynor Talks of Graft.

In an address last night to a meeting of news dealers called to protest against a new ordinance curtailing the number of street news stands, Mayor Gaynor expressed the belief that probably $1,500,000 in graft was annually collected from news dealers of the city.

"Two years ago it was called to my attention," said the mayor, "that all over the city men and women could not get licenses for news stands without paying middlemen or aldermen of someone else. I took the matter up once and tried to do what I could to do away with graft. I confess I have been baffled up to now.

"There are 7,500 news stands. If the people pay an average of $100 each for them and some pay $250 for them, that is $750,000, and I believe it is nearer twice that. This has been going on a long time and I wrote the board of aldermen and asked them to stop it by allowing the mayor to issue licenses through his own bureau without having to have an alderman's indorsement."

VEGETABLES ARE CHEAPER

Prices Continue to Work Downward as the Season Advances.

Summer Squash and Blue and White Grapes Here—Meats Lower.

Many of the vegetables on the Duluth market have worked considerably lower since a week ago. This movement, which has been quite a factor in the reduction of the cost of living, has been going on for many weeks, with the advance of the summer season.

Wax beans, which a week ago brought $1.50 per bushel basket, now sell at $1.35. Cucumbers have declined from 50 to 35 cents a dozen. Peppers, which a week ago brought $2.50 a bushel, now go for $2. Southern Minnesota peas have declined from $1.50 to $1.25 a bushel, new beets from 90 to 75 cents a bushel, new carrots from $1.25 to $1.15 a bushel, new turnips from 75 to 50 cents a bushel and new rutabagas from 75 to 65 cents a bushel.

A new vegetable that has just come upon the Duluth market is the summer squash. This comes from nearby vegetable farms in Minnesota and Wisconsin. It is bringing $1.50 a bushel, which is about an average price for this vegetable on its first arrival. There is no great quantity coming in as the demand is not particularly keen.

• • •

Two new kinds of fruit have just arrived. These are the blue grapes from Missouri and the white seedless or Malaga grapes from California. The wholesale price of the blue grapes is 45 cents for a ten-pound basket and that of the white grapes is $2 to $2.25 per crate. The grapes are arriving in small quantities, but the prices are not high considering that they have just come on the market. It is expected that as larger shipments are received the prices will quickly work lower.

• • •

The price of apples is slowly working downward, as the quantities arriving grow larger. A box of new apples which a week ago brought $1.85 at wholesale now goes for $1.75. Most of the box apples are coming from Washington and Idaho. Barrel apples are coming from Wisconsin, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri and many other states.

• • •

Cantaloupes are a little higher. This is a between season time. There are not many to be had from California now, and large shipments are not yet coming from Arizona. A crate which a week ago sold for $2.75 now brings $3.25.

Indiana gem melons, which are much like ordinary cantaloupes, but smaller, are now on the market, selling at 85 cents a basket. This is a lower price than these melons usually bring at this season of the year, when they first come.

• • •

Arkansas Elberta peaches are no longer coming and are off the market. The same thing is true of sour cherries, which have been coming from Montana, Washington, Idaho, Wisconsin and Iowa, but are no longer to be had. Gooseberries and red currants, home products, are likewise no more on the market.

• • •

On the whole both fruits and vegetables are very plentiful and comparatively low-priced. The price cannot be said to be strong on any of them.

• • •

The wholesale price of mutton, veal and lamb has gone off about 1 cent a pound. This is said to be because many of the farmers of the Southwest are about through with their harvest work and are again finding time to take their animals to market. This has increased the receipts on some of the Southern livestock markets and caused the prices to work down a little, but they are still very high.

• • •

Butter and eggs are still remarkably steady. Both maintain the same prices they have had for weeks. The manufacture of butter is said to be decreasing a little, because the pastures are not as rich as they were a little earlier in the season and the yields of milk are not so large. Eggs are scarcer than they were a week ago. Hens are moulting and therefore farmers are not getting large supplies of eggs. Moreover the Northwestern farmers are extremely busy with their grain crops, and few of them have any time to carry what eggs they have to the markets.

Cheese has gone a little lower, the wholesale price of the most popular grades being ½c to 1c lower. Local wholesale dealers seem to be unable to explain this decline.

• • •

The wholesale price of both cane and beet granulated sugar is 10c a hundredweight lower than it was a week ago. This is causing much comment in view of the fact that during this season of the year when so much fruit preserving is taking place sugar usually goes up and not down. This year there is even more of such preserving than usual, for fruits are plentiful and the prices are reasonable. There is a large consumption of sugar and yet the price goes down. Sugar dealers account for this by pointing to the fact that the beet and sugar crops in all parts of the world during the past year have been very good.

• • •

Hay is a little cheaper. The movement is still very small. Farmers have not yet had a chance to bring much of it in. There is no old hay left. All that is on the market now is new.

LAXNESS LAID TO WICKERSHAM

Washington, Aug. 15.—Senator Pomerene's resolution directing Attorney General Wickersham to bring criminal proceedings against officers of the Standard Oil and American Tobacco companies was forced to a place on the senate calendar today after a short filibuster and a sharp fight, during which Mr. Pomerene declared Attorney General Wickersham "had failed to do his duty."

"If due respect is to be shown the law, it must be enforced," said Senator Pomerene. "If these laws had been enforced as they ought to have been, we would not have the trust question before us today."

Senator Sutherland of Utah opposed the resolution, declaring it was outside the functions of congress, saying if the attorney general knew the statute had been violated and had failed to prosecute, the procedure should be for the house to institute impeachment proceedings.

"Has Not Done His Duty."

"Does the senator from Ohio mean to say that the attorney general has not done his duty?" he asked.

"Does the senator wish to press that question?" asked Pomerene.

"The question was perfectly clear," responded Mr. Sutherland.

"Then," exclaimed Mr. Pomerene, "it is my belief that the attorney general has not done his duty in these cases."

The opponents of the Pomerene resolution finally forced its reference to the calendar.

GOOD ROADS ARE AMERICA'S NEED

Washington, Aug. 16.—Emphatic indorsement of the purpose of the American Road congress which is to be held in Atlantic City, Sept. 30 to Oct. 5, is given in a statement by Representative Oscar W. Underwood, Democratic leader in the house, which has just been issued.

"The one great weakness of the movement for better roads in the United States," said Mr. Underwood, "has been the lack of correlation among the various associations working towards the same end but with different methods. One association has been agitating one plan and another association another plan. In consolidating their convention interests the American Association for Highway Improvement, the American Automobile Association, and the National Association of Road Machinery and Material Manufacturers have taken a great step forward. The plan that has been adopted for treating each phase of the road subject scientifically, having leading financiers in charge of the finance section, leading lawyers in charge of the administrative section, should appeal to the common sense of the entire country.

"I remember once being on the other side of the Atlantic ocean and I saw a great white fleet of ships that had traveled around the world, sailing into the foreign port, the national emblem of our country at its mast; as they came steaming up the harbor I was thankful that I was an American and felt thankful that we had the greatest fleet that ever sailed around the world. I remember once standing along the line of a railroad system in a distant country and as I saw a train of freight cars being hauled along the track, I noticed the locomotive that was pulling the cars and it was a Baldwin locomotive built in America, by our own people, carrying the commerce of the world and again I felt proud that I was an American. But when I went up into the mountains of Switzerland and Italy and saw those magnificent turnpikes, graded roads, running up the mountain sides, smooth as a concrete floor, gutters on the side, carrying off every drop of water, perfectly smooth, so that the people even in that mountainous country could carry their produce to the market at the lowest possible outlay; then I thought of the terrible roads that I had seen in my own home state, that I had seen in almost every state in the Union, and for once and the only time in my life, had to bow my head with shame and could not declare, that so far as our road system was concerned, I was proud of being an American citizen.

"I have already introduced a joint resolution which has been passed by congress providing for an appointment of a congressional committee to investigate all phases of the road subject. I have worked consistently to benefit the roads of the United States and I believe that the American Road congress will crystalize the movement and map out a plan on which the work can go forward in the future."

DANCE HALL INSPECTION

Duluth recently adopted a dance hall ordinance. It is an ordinance that naturally does not enforce itself.

They have a similar ordinance in Kansas City and they have found means of enforcing it without much friction. The board of public welfare has inspectors who visit the public dance halls. When they see a young fellow on the floor who seems tipsy they call the manager's attention to it and the manager tells the young man to "cut it out." He goes home quietly; it is not necessary to send for a policeman.

When the inspector sees a little girl on the floor who ought not to be there, he asks the manager to call her to one side. And without any fuss or disturbance he asks her about herself. If she says she came with her parents' consent, he calls on the parents. If the parents are to blame for the child's running wild he talks to them. If they thought she was "over to Mamie's," the inspector shows them where they were mistaken.

In Duluth the board of public welfare plans to do similar work through its probation officers, which the charter requires the board to appoint. That work has been done heretofore by Mr. McKercher of the humane society and Miss Poirier, the factory inspector, but it is outside their regular duty, and neither of them is in a position to attend to it systematically.

With the employment of probation officers, the ordinance may be enforced without disturbing anybody who is trying to attend to his business properly.

ALLEGED MURDERER OF STEP-CHILD CAUGHT.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 16.—Charles Eugene Greenfield of Chicago, charged with having slain his 9-year-old stepdaughter, Vivian, last Tuesday at Venice, a seaside resort, has been captured in Cucamonga Pass, a cleft in the mountains in San Bernardino county. Deputy sheriffs have been searching for him since the crime was discovered. Sheriff Hammel has gone to Cucamonga to bring Greenfield back.

GET RID OF RHEUMATISM

Rubbing with liniments, blistering the affected parts, plasters, etc., are usually helpful in relieving the pains and aches of Rheumatism, but such treatment does not get rid of the disease, because it does not reach its source. Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the blood. This acid circulating through the system acts as an irritant to the nerves, muscles and joints, and produces the inflammation and swelling, and sharp cutting pains characteristic of the trouble. Then Rheumatism becomes chronic and not only a painful but a dangerous disease. S. S. S., the greatest vegetable remedy, goes into the circulation, neutralizes and removes the uric acid, and by building up the thin, sour blood, safely and surely cures the disease. S. S. S. makes rich, nourishing blood, which quiets excited nerves, eases the painful muscles and joints and filters out every particle of irritating uric acid from the system. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free.

SOLDIERS ARE HOME

Handled Themselves Well in Maneuvers With the Regulars.

Minnesota troops handled themselves exceptionally well at the National Guard maneuvers with the regular soldiers at Camp Douglas, Wis., during the past two weeks, according to Maj. H. V. Eva, commander of the local battalion of the M. N. G.

"I think that the state troops got the best instruction that they ever received," said Maj. Eva. "Weather conditions were not ideal, but with the exception of one day, no time was lost on this account. Some very difficult problems were worked out by the National Guard in conjunction with the regulars. It was an experience approximating real warfare."

Duluth companies, A, C and E of the Third Regiment, M. N. G., returned yesterday afternoon. Maj. Eva said that the soldiers began leaving the camp early yesterday morning and that trains were leaving at ten-minute intervals.

"One of the most interesting features of the maneuvers," said Maj. Eva, "was the work of the regular cavalry. From the start, the cavalrymen demonstrated that they had the foot soldiers at their mercy in a country like that around Sparta, which is mostly wooded."

Maj. Eva said that in the mimic warfare it was hard to convice some of the soldiers that they were shot and supposed to be dead. The troops, both state and regular, he said, seemed to have a good understanding of what was wanted of them, however.

AMERICAN FIRM GIVEN CONTRACT

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 16.—The contract for the construction of the large government elevator at Fort William, involving $1,179,503, was awarded today to the Barnett-McQueen Company of Minneapolis. The structure is to be completed by Sept. 29, 1913 in time to assist in the moving of next year's Western wheat crop.

The amount of the tender is substantially below the appropriation of $1,500,000, made by parliament. The Barnett-McQueen bid proved to be the most advantageous in design, the earliest in point of completion and the cheapest in cost.

Five tenders were entered by the Canadian Stewart company, limited, Montreal; John S. Metcalfe company, limited, Montreal; J. A. Jamieson, Montreal; J. H. Tromanhauser, Toronto, and the Barnett-McQueen company.

The successful tender showed an advantage of $355,851, while the time of completion named by the next highest tender was December, 1913, or too late to handle the crop of that year.

LEAPS THROUGH GLASS DOOR

Thomas Arkkola of 1712 Jefferson street, escaped from St. Mary's hospital last night by leaping through the glass partition of the front door. He was recaptured within a short time by the police at Second avenue east and First street and removed to the county jail.

Arkkola has been a patient at the institution for three weeks and is said to be suffering from nervous trouble caused by rheumatism. While being taken to the county jail he told the officers that he wanted an opportunity to cut his throat, fighting and struggling to obtain his freedom. The police declared that he was insane.

Mrs. Arkkola went to the hospital last evening to see her husband. She found him fully dressed. Asking him what he was trying to do he shouted that he would not stay there another night. Springing through the door he dodged all pursuers and dove outside through the street door. He escaped with little injury.

RAID TENDERLOIN OVER THE POLICE

New York, Aug. 16.—Raids on eighteen alleged disorderly houses in the so-called Tenderloin district were made by the police last night. The descent on the dozen and a half places was by authority of warrants issued by a justice of special sessions court on evidence furnished by agents of the Society for the Prevention of Crime. Twenty-three prisoners were taken.

The Tenderloin was set all agog by the raids, which, though conducted by the police, were made over the head of Inspector William J. Leahy of the district, and the precinct captains. District Attorney Whitman was near the scene in person, as were Assistant District Attorney Smith, who was in charge of proceedings, and Deputy Police Commissioners McKay and Dougherty.

According to Mr. Smith, agents of the society have been busy for three weeks securing evidence against what is termed the "disorderly house trust," conducted, it is declared, by five widely known Tenderloin characters. On his request, after the warrants were issued, Commissioner McKay furnished policemen from various precincts to serve the warrants. The police detail was in charge of Lieut. Frank Rhonish, who succeeded Lieut. Becker, now under arrest on the charge of complicity in the Rosenthal murder, in charge of the strong-arm squad.

Smith said the evidence obtained indicates that the "trust" has a "clearing house" where women are frequently exchanged.

HARD TO GET NAVAL ATTACHE FOR KNOX.

Washington, Aug. 16. — Difficulties have been met in obtaining a naval attache to accompany Secretary Knox on his special mission to the funeral of the late Japanese emperor. Admiral Oscar F. Stanton declined the invitation on account of ill-health. Rear Admiral Aaron Ward then was ordered to go. He asked that the order be rescinded for the same reason. Now the department has ordered Rear Admiral Alfred Reynolds to accompany the secretary of state. Admiral Reynolds commands the Pacific reserve fleet. He is now at the Bremerton navy yard, aboard his flagship Virginia. The naval attache will join the rest of the party at Seattle Aug. 22.

The plan of having the big armored cruiser Maryland steam direct for Yokohama without stop has been abandoned. Under revised plans she will stop at Honolulu for coal.

LAND GRANTED BURBANK TO TRY HIS EXPERIMENTS.

Washintgon, Aug. 16.—The senate passed a bill placing at the disposal of Luther Burbank twelve sections of land in California, New Mexico, Arizona and Nevada for the propagation of the spineless cacti. The bill provides that if Burbank succeeds in growing on this semi-arid land cacti suitable for animal food for a period of two years, the land shall be sold to him for the regular $1.50 an acre government land price. The bill already has passed the house.

EASTERN TOURISTS ARE HURT IN WESTERN WRECK.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 16.—Several persons were seriously injured but none killed when train No. 4 on the Denver Northwestern & Pacific was derailed five miles east of Sulphur Springs, eighty miles from Denver, at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The train was loaded with Eastern tourists.

"SPEECHES" BY AKIN EXPUNGED FROM RECORD.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Certain "speeches" by Representative Akin of New York, inserted in the Congressional Record under the leave to print privilege, were expunged by vote of the house. They contained attacks against Secretary Wilson and Chief Willis L. Moore of the weather bureau.

"Is this a free masonry joint, where one member cannot say anything against another member?" demanded Mr. Akin.

The house voted the speeches out, nevertheless.

LORIMER CALLS COL. ROOSEVELT ANARCHIST.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Col. Roosevelt was accused of being a Socialist and an anarchist by William Lorimer in an address at a church picnic yesterday.

"Socialism and anarchy are rampant throughout the United States," Lorimer said. "Theodore Roosevelt is to blame for it. His socialistic tendencies were apparent as early as his second year in office. They long since have become a menace."

EXCURSION STEAMER TO ALASKA AGROUND.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 16.—A dispatch received by the Pacific Coast Steamship company from the captain of the steamship City of Seattle, which went aground near Ketchikan, says the ship will be floated uninjured at high tide, and proceed on her voyage to Seattle. The steamer was carrying a large number of excursionists returning from a trip to southeastern Alaska.

WHOLE FAMILY STARTS ON TRAMP ACROSS CONTINENT.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 16.—In an endeavor to locate a son, Fred, aged 21, who is supposed to be living in Pasadena, William Bardelang, with his wife and two sons, has left their home in Grogan, on a long walking trip to that city in the Far West. Members of the family have not heard from the young man for several months and the mother, who is very anxious to learn her son's whereabouts, suggested the long walking trip, as they are unable to pay railroad fare.

Aside from locating the son, Mr. Bardelang expects to regain his health. He is afflicted with a nervous trouble that often keeps him from his work as cabinetmaker. Mr. Bardelang came to Columbus about eight months ago after working as cabinetmaker in California where he learned his trade, for nearly three years. After arriving in Columbus he was unable to find employment, and when he did finally secure a position it did not pay well enough to support his family. He expects to find conditions better in Pasadena.

For ten years prior to his going to California, Mr. Bardelang was known in the southwestern part of Pennsylvania as the horseradish trust. On a five-acre tract of land near Washington, Pa., he succeeded in building up the largest individual horseradish business in the state, and was known for miles under the peculiar title.

LONE MASKED ROBBER ROBS EXPRESS MESSENGER.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 16.—A lone masked train robber boarded Southern railroad train No. 13, Spartanburg to Asheville, at 10:30 last night as it was leaving Biltmore, three miles from this city, and covering Express Messenger E. F. Carr with a revolver, secured a package containing $3,000 in bills. The robber then bound Carr's hands and locked him in the rifled express car. It is supposed that the robber left the train as it slowed up for the Asheville yards. When the train arrived at the Asheville station express employes found Carr. He was unable to give any description of his assailant.

You have to broil a beefsteak,
You have to boil a ham,
You have to fry a whitefish
And roast a leg of lamb.
But when a package of Post Toasties
Is lying on the shelf,
No fry, no broil, no roast, no boil,
Just go and help yourself.

IS GRATEFUL TO HOSPITAL

"Diamond Jim" Gives $220,000 Thank Offering to Johns Hopkins.

New York, Aug. 16.—James Buchanan Brady, vice president of the Standard Steel Car company, known from ocean to ocean as "Diamond Jim" Brady, has given $220,000 to the John Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, in gratitude for having his appetite restored.

After nearly six months of suffering from stomach and kidney trouble, in the course of which he could not indulge in the luxury of dry toast without suffering cruel penance in the process of digestion, "Diamond Jim," Brady was able to sit down to his first big spread last Thursday night. He gave this dinner at the Hotel Vanderbilt, and among his guests were Charles S. Mellen, president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, and several other wellknown railroad men. Mrs. Mellen was among his guests.

Whether $220,000 can be considered an excessive amount for the service the Johns Hopkins hospital did for Mr. Brady must be estimated after a study of the following menu, which the former dyspeptic and his friends had Thursday night:

Canteloupe.
Cherrystone Clams.
Chicken Gumbo, (Strained).
Sea Bass, Saute Meuniere.
Broiled Squab Turkey. String Beans.
Salad.
Demi-tasse. Cigars. Pol Roger.

Did Full Justice.

The head waiter of the Vanderbilt said that Mr. Brady had done full justice to every course. It was the first occasion in the last two months on which Mr. Brady had dined in a New York restaurant without his physician at his side to raise a warning finger when he showed a tendency to take too large a bite of toast, previously soaked in milk. In this period the sight of a word in the strange dialect of a restaurant menu affected him like a dagger thrust. That is why he thought he had $220,000 worth when he was put into condition to name what he wanted to eat and have all he wanted.

Mr. Brady has been ill since last winter. Early in April he went to the Johns Hopkins hospital at Baltimore in a serious condition from stomach and kidney troubles. His illness was aggravated by his mental condition. He loved good living, and, next to that he loved the theaters. For years he had been the most loyal of the old guard of first nighters. The big diamonds which had flamed all over the steel car magnate at the opening of every first-class show began to be missed by audience and stagefolk.

When he could not eat or enjoy a show, "Diamond Jim" Brady found little pleasure in life, and when he entered the hospital he was beginning to be despondent.

Rigid Course of Treatment.

His strong constitution and immense natural energy were in his favor, although he was well turned 60. He was put through a rigid course of treatment at the hospital, and about two months ago Dr. Plaggemeyer operated on him. The operation was successful, but still his recovery was somewhat slow. It was not until late in July that he began to round into tip-top form. In the latter part of July Mr. Brady began to feel so fine that he entertained himself one day by summoning all the children in the neighborhood of the hospital and scattering broadcast a bountiful supply of pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters.

Whenever he left the hospital he was accompanied by Dr. Plaggemeyer. Last week, however, the physician threw off the leash, telling him he was a well man and could eat and drink as he pleased.

The gift of $220,000 is to be applied to the ward of the John Hopkins hospital, in which kidney and stomach troubles are treated.

SUICIDE NOTE ACCUSES SANITARIUM EMPLOYES.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 15.—A note found in the purse of Mrs. Hallie E. Forrest, widow of a son of Gen. Nathan Bedford Forrest, Confederate cavalry leader, declares she had been dishonorably treated while helpless in a straightjacket in the city sanitarium. Mrs. Forrest killed herself yesterday in a public park.

The consequence of the treatment she wrote, had made it seem necessary to end her life, although "no woman ever killed herself that hated to do so as much as I."

The superintendent of the hospital denied that Mrs. Forrest had been handled while in a straightjacket by other than woman attendants.

GOVERNOR IS SUED.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 16.—A note of issue was filed yesterday in the Hennepin county district court in the $5,000 suit for damages brought against Governor Eberhart by Albia C. Dalquist of Minneapolis, in behalf of his son.

Dalquist alleges that his son was run into by the governor's automobile and that in addition to having his collar bone broken he received permanent injuries to his head which have made him deaf.

Governor Eberhart was not in the car at the time of the accident. It was in charge of his father-in-law, F. C. Koch.

PICTURESQUE JOBS FOR OUR COLLEGE BOYS IN SUMMER

BEFORE a canvas wall where the painter's art has done its worst to raise the curiosity and the hair, on a low wooden pulpit garlanded with the brightest wreathings of the cotton mills, in a crowded avenue of a cheap amusement resort not a thousand miles from New York, a young man holds his post for the better of fourteen hours a day, says the New York Sun.

His hat is slouchy, snappy and white, with a deep crimson band run through frequent slashes in the felt; his collar is soft, his arms are mostly bare; there is a bull mossey arrogance in the make of his massive oxfords and an academic flare in the cut of his trousers; his face is as fresh and carnest as a well conditioned baby's, and with lungs of triple bras he exhorts the populace:

"Git wise! Git wise! Step pup, ladies an' gentlemen! Don't let 'em bluff yuh; don't let 'em scare yuh; don't let 'em hold yuh back! Come one, come all! Bring the little ones; bring the pretty ones; bring the farm an' city ones! Bring the fat ones; bring the lean ones! Get wise! This show surpasses all the lucent marvels of the fabled East! Abb! So! Lutely! the greatest! weirdest! wildest! collection of human marvels ever gathered together!

"Thats right doctor, only 10 cents apiece, or one dime! Walk in, you generation of vipers, walk right in an' see the wonderful works of creation! See what P. T. Barnum never saw! See Eateero, the bottomless boy! Eats forty-eight meals every—don't shove, there. Stand in line—"

And much more to the same effect. Now and then the proprietor of the place takes the stand for half an hour to let the young man regain his wind. And the youthful "ballyhoo," who draws $20 a week and a bed under the platform in return for his oratory, spends most of his breathing spells in putting the proprietor's son through the required four books of the Iliad so that the youngster can get into Yale in the fall—and he draws a tutor's pay of $1.50 an hour for the service.

That is how one college boy has solved the problem of earning a start on his next year's expenses during the long summer vacation, and it is only one of the new wrinkles which impecunious students are everlastingly devising to turn this same trick. For even as a fish out of water, a bull in a china shop or a lone man in a department store is more conspicuously and typically fish, man or bull than when safe in his native element, by the same token the college boy, that strange, irrepressible mixture of sport, philosopher, genius and wild Indian, becomes delightfully more so after he has been turned loose from the campus upon a tolerant summer world. He is more serious about cash and more irresponsible about everything else; his clothes are louder, his heart is softer and his general perversity more astonishing than ever, and what he cannot hatch up for separating summer travellers from what he needs more than they do is not worth mentioning.

Three Yale men gathered last June and debated of summer needs and summer opportunities. Two of them were promiscuous musicians and the third was a student actor of much local fame. They agreed to start off for the summer as strolling minstrels and to live up to all the high traditions of the calling.

So they went out on the grass of the campus to be under the open sky and lifting up their right hands to heaven they bound themselves by a solemn vow. They were not to sleep two nights under the same roof. They were to make their way on foot or by stealing rides or by grafting them, but never by paying real money. They were to attend strictly to business, to stop for no bonus of family or petticoat friendship and they were to hold in common the four great staples of life tobacco, money, drink and song.

The week after commencement they started out with two mandolins, a guitar, a roll of music and three rubber blankets. The actor could not tell one note from another, but he always scrambled away at a mandolin with the rest and his collection of ballads and stories was a marvel.

Their method was to descend on a hotel at the hour when the lounging was heaviest and give an informal concert on the veranda or in the lobby or in the evenings down on the beach beside a big log fire. They did college songs and the standard old sentimental things, some eccentric dancing, some monologue and a very fetching and thorough turn at hat passing.

They made a specialty of serenades, being careful to pick a likely subject, usually a widow with some signs of personal attractiveness and unmistakeable signs of a communicative spirit. A couple of well placed serenades late of an evening, a morning concert to let the good news leaven the resort, afternoon and evening concerts and then more serenades to keep up the hopes of the community, was the day's procedure.

The three Minnesingers worked their way down the coast fairly coining money until, at a little place not far from Portland trouble loomed up suddenly. It came through a high spirited, blue-eyed, middy bloused young person who had met a second cousin of the unmusical monologist once at Niagara Falls and who looked on him with favor on that account.

Their friendship ripened into something deeper and tenderer in one afternoon. The student gave "Beautiful Evelyn Hope" instead of his funny stories at the moonlight concert that night; he followed it with "Maid of Athens, Ere We Part," and after the collection his partners led him away, a raving lover, swearing he was going to stay there all summer.

It was a deseprate case requiring a desperate remedy. Mindful of their vows, the two others resorted to the grillroom of the hotel to take counsel. There they met a man in yachting togs who proved to be a Yale man himself and moreover a fraternity brother of one of them. To him they told their tale. And at dawn the next day, on the turn of the tide, the two fell upon their lovesick comrade in his sleep, bound him hand and foot, stopped his mouth with a towel and carried him down to the water. They loosed him only when the little yacht was standing out of the harbor, and the craft kept well clear of the coast until at noon of the next day their benefactor landed the three of them at Gloucester.

That nearly broke up the partnership. But they found business good at the Gloucester hotels, and two days later the youth got a letter from the girl which eased his feelings mightily. They finished the summer together and cleared up nearly $200 apiece.

A young man from Princeton, a junior who had been a leading member of the staff of the college daily, originated the idea of starting a weekly paper at a summer resort on the Jersey coast, taking in the printer of one of the hotels as his partner. The paper was the Cape Blank Wave, and it started with a rush. It printed everybody's name and plenty of advertisements and went along swimmingly. Then the Wave started a reform.

Beach fires were in great vogue just then as a pleasant way of spending a quiet evening, and the Wave complained that the parties which gathered on the sand at night left bottles, cans, newspapers and other unsightly debris behind them. Also there was grave danger in the practice, for some one might cut his foot on a broken bottle. What the Wave demanded was that the hotels should refuse to sell anything in bottles to persons who expected to take them out to the beach.

The affair grew into quite a controversy. The hotels began to stop their advertisements and it looked black for the Wave. Then the local constable volunteered to pick up all the bottles on the beach every morning and sell them to the bottle man, and the Wave claimed a great victory for the enlightened press, and the hotel men gave him their advertising.

Not a few of the college boys spend their summers doing duty as lifeguards at the beaches. They are mostly athletes, for the work requires a powerful physique, keen eye and a ready brain and a good deal of physical courage in emergencies. Also a winning personality is almost as strong an asset for a lifeguard as for an actor, and one who can keep everybody good-natured is recognized as a prize by the beach managers. The pay is good and tips are often plentiful and large.

That matter of tip taking is one of the most curious things about the curious college point of view. In the New England colleges, where three-quarters of the students are poor and half of them do something or other undignified to scrape their way through, often the men who stand highest think nothing of taking tips right and left during the summer. But they draw curious distinctions.

For instance, a tip taken during the college year has a particularly unpleasant feel to it, and many students will not accept one although they may work all summer as bellboys and waiters in summer hotels and gather in everything that comes their way. Waiting where only students eat or in a hotel during the summer is quite another matter from waiting on common citizens during the two semesters.

Two years ago a student, a brilliant young fellow who had made something of a name for himself in one of the small New England colleges, was offered a trip to Europe with handsome pay besides to travel as the tutor and general mentor to the son of a Chicago man. He refused the offer and took a job as porter in a hotel in the White mountains—because he thought the other work would be humiliating. With a uniform on, if nothing more than the striped trousers and flannel shirt of a hotel porter, he could look people in the eye better.

There are certain standard sources of summer cash for which the rivalry is keen during the closing months of the college year. One of these is the job of local correspondent for the metropolitan papers in the summer resorts. A student who locates himself at the resorts as a curio seller or a lifeguard or a public stenographer will frequently handle the resort correspondence of four or five papers and make a handsome thing out of it.

The competition for work as bellboy and waiter in the summer hotels is always lively and in the signing up of agents for the summer the boys get a taste of competition on the other side of the fence which needs some explanation.

Usually there is a good crop of students who have never tried being book agents, and a few bright spirits who have tried and made a go of it, and the book agent collects $4.82 from each for an outfit and gets their signatures to his contracts and a guarantee letter from somebody who will be responsible for them.

While the more cautious freshmen—it is the freshmen who are the hardest hit—are still debating whether they out not to go to the farm this summer as the surer thing, along comes another agent, signing agent, who establishes hotel headquarters and sends out his student runners like the first. This one probably wants to sign agents for stereoscopes.

More college students than most people realize do plain hard work for the summer. The New England colleges in particular are full of boys who come from the farm or from farming country, and hundreds go home to work in haying time, the one season when the New England dairy farms needs extra help and gives extra pay. Hay is ready to cut in these latitudes just about the end of June, the time of the closing of the colleges, and the work keeps up pretty steadily through July and most of August.

The fishing craft along the coast ship a few dozen college men every year, and on the boats where they can be made to do real service they are put to work and are given a half share or a share with the rest of the crew.

Other students, usually freshmen, work out the summer as motormen, conductors, deckhands on steamboats and ticket men at amusement resorts and do other low paid work.

A job that is always in great demand is that of superintendent or athletic director for a boys' camp. Often these men find tutoring to do besides their regular work, for which they are well paid. A student from a technical school of some standing took a position as chauffeur to a prominent engineer who was building a canal in the Middle West. Most of the technical school men, however, find places on work that is in their own line as chainmen, timekeepers, gang bosses and draughtsmen and at minor engineering work of all sorts.

PETE'S A REGULAR BORDER RUFFIAN —By C. L. SHERMAN

MINNESOTA POLITICS

Senator Haycraft Denies Responsibility for Ante-Primary Registration Feature of New Law--Classification Provision May Not Extend to General Election—Lee Attacks Governor on Score of Expenditures.

∴ ∴ ∴

Haycraft Denies Charge.

Senator Jules E. Haycraft of Madella, whom the Minneapolis Tribune charged with responsibility for the primary law provision requiring voters in cities of the first class to register before the primaries, indignantly denies the charge.

Senator Haycraft says the provision was not in the senate bill and was added in the house. His information is that J. A. A. Burnquist of St. Paul was author of the clause. It did not come before the senate until the amended bill was returned from the house, Senator Haycraft says.

As to the charge that the bill was smothered in his committee and reported out in the closing hours of the session, Senator Haycraft declares that the primary bill was never referred to the senate committee on elections. It was drafted by that committee and introduced June 5, put at the head of general orders, 1,500 copies printed and distributed and the bill was considered by the senate in committee of the whole June 7, 8, 10 and 11. The bill was passed June 11 and sent to the house. At that time it did not contain the registration clause.

It appears that the registration feature was intended to check primary irregularities in the large cities, with special reference to St. Paul. Prosecutions were made in St. Paul after the last municipal primary and the registration feature before the primary was designed to give time for investigation of registered voters before the primaries.

The greatest objection to the provision in Duluth is that it does away with the last primary day, ten days before the election. A voter who fails to register on one of the first two days of registration may vote at the primary if he wants to go to the trouble of getting freeholders to corroborate his affidavit, but if he fails to register on any one of the three days, the last of which is seven weeks before the election, he will lose his vote. Likewise if a man should change his residence within the seven weeks between the primary and the election he would lose his vote.

It will be hard to arouse the interest of some men seven weeks before the election and the chances are that many will fail to register and will lose their right to vote. If the registration day ten days before the election had been retained, the effect of the new provision would not have been so damaging, and it would have been just as effective in preventing corruption.

More Confusion.

The political writer of the Minneapolis Journal claims to have discovered another odd feature of the new primary law. He says the classification feature of the law does not extend to the general election. Although candidates where there are two or more places to be filled, must designate the class in which they are to run at the primaries, he says that at the general election all will be bunched and the same old mixup will prevail.

For instance in the Forty-ninth district there are four candidates in the field for the Republican nomination in Class 2, and Cleon T. Knapp is the only candidate in Class 1. Only of the four in Class 2 can be nominated. S. Lekve of Hibbing has filed for the Democratic nomination in Class 1. Instead of Mr. Lekve being a candidate against Mr. Knapp only in the general election, he will be a candidate against both Knapp and the nominee in Class 2, and the two highest of the three candidates, or four if another Democrat files, will be elected, if the Journal is correct in its assumption.

The same applies to supreme court justices. Justice Holt and Justice Bunn have filed in separate classes. Judge Oscar Hallam has filed against Justice Bunn. The two highest in each class will be nominated under the non-partisan primary law, so all three names will go on the general election ballot. According to the Journal, the three names will be bunched with the instruction "Vote for Two," and any voter may vote for Hallam and Bunn, as against Holt.

The intent of the legislation was undoubtedly to extend the classification feature to the election, and it may be that the attorney general will so rule when an opinion is requested.

Lee Attacks Governor.

Despite the apathy of the voters, William E. Lee is making a speaking campaign. He is now in the Ninth district, where he is favoring the voters with a severe arraignment of Governor Eberhart's administration from the standpoint of expenditures. Taking a ten year period, he shows that in 1901 the cost of the legislative session was $145,920, while in 1911 the session cost $319,971.93. Continuing, he said in a speech at Fergus Falls:

"The executive expenses have been piling up fully as rapidly as the legislative expenses. Inspectors are out inspecting everything—for fees. In 1901 the executive expenses of Minnesota amounted to $124,212, and in 1911 the executive expenses footed up to $317,809.12. State board expenses for 1901 were $129,276. Last year they were $556,861.14. The total state expenses last year amounted to over $13,000,000.

"The state tax rate has increased from 1.5 mills only four years ago to 2.65 mills last year, and what is more the 1.5 mills was levied on a valuation of less than $800,000,000 while the 2.65 mills of last year was levied on a valuation of $1,212,000,000.

"Besides this increase in direct taxes which the people are paying the state, there has been an enormous increase in special taxes. The special taxes ten years ago amounted to $5,050,674, and in 1911 they had increased to $11,582,907.

"And what is Governor Eberhart doing about it? Why he is attending pink teas, and Chautauqua conferences in New York, and banquets on the Pacific coast."

Eastman Is Progressive.

Alvah Eastman of the St. Cloud Journal-Press, who is for Taft and party regularity, in practice, outprogresses the Progressives in theory. He is for non-partisan elections for state offices, with the short ballot. He writes in a recent issue of his paper:

While numerous candidates for public office are proclaiming themselves progressives, so far as we have been able to discover they all fall short of the real article. We have yet to hear of one who has the courage to advocate the short ballot in state affairs, and making the primary elections absolutely non-partisan. We are still waiting for the candidate who will recommend in his message to the legislature constitutional amendment making the attorney general, state treasurer, state auditor, secretary of state, clerk of the supreme court and railroad commissioners appointive, and to have the nominations for governor, lieutenant governor, speaker of the house and supreme court judges made at a primary election in which party lines will be ignored, and no candidate shall be given any party label on the primary ballot. Also to recommend non-partisan primaries for county offices. This plan is being adopted by progressive cities, and why not by the counties and state? When such a candidate appears, we are going to support him. But we much fear that this reform will have to be demanded by the press of the state until it becomes popular with the people, and then there will be plenty of candidates shouting for it and claiming to be originators of the idea. The newspapers and not seekers after office are after all the agency of reform and progress.

Thomas Fraser Files.

Thomas Fraser of Rochester filed yesterday for the Republican nomination for attorney general. He criticizes the administration of the attorney general's office in the Minnesota rate case, declaring that the state would have been upheld in the case had it been correctly presented. As Lyndon A. Smith was not attorney general at the time, the criticism does not apply to him. Mr. Fraser is one of the original Progressives of the First district and took a prominent part in the campaign against Tawney two years ago.

Mahnke's Platform.

C. F. Mahnke of Moose Lake, who has filed for the house in the Forty-second district, has published his platform. He advocates the initiative, referendum and recall, a fair workingmen's compensation act, railroad rates based on actual investment, county option, reapportionment, the sale of state lands to actual settlers at appraised value, the sale of state lands by the immigration department, investment of state funds in the bonds of municipalities within the state, good roads, industrial high schools and legislation which shall assist in the development of this state and the advancement of the welfare of its people."

Mr. Mahnke is editor of the Moose Lake Star-Gazette, has been prominent in the Northern Development association, and is regarded as a strong candidate in the district. He has received promises of support from many influential residents of the district and his friends believe he will be elected.

A New Campaign Issue.

Bertha Clausen has become a campaign issue. Mrs. Clausen is a Duluth woman who was detained at New York on her return from Sweden. She was demented, but was clearly a citizen of the United States, and could not be returned to Sweden. No funds were available for taking care of her. Governor Eberhart advanced $115 out of his contingent fund to meet the expenses necessary to bringing her to Duluth and committing her to the Fergus Falls asylum. Claiming that the expenditure has been criticized, Ralph W. Wheelock, the governor's secretary, has issued a statement defending her on the ground of humanity. If there has been any criticism of the expenditure, it hasn't been heard hereabouts.

Urging McCormick.

Another delegation of voters, the third or fourth, called on City Comptroller W. S. McCormick yesterday and requested him to file for county auditor. It was said yesterday that Mr. McCormick had privately consented to file, but he hasn't given any public expression of that intention. The comptroller isn't very anxious to get into the game, it is understood, as the time is short for a campaign. County Auditor Halden's popularity has often been demonstrated in St. Louis county and there is little hope of defeating him in a campaign in the short time before the primary.

Contest for Coroner.

Dr. J. C. Anderson filed yesterday for county coroner. Dr. McComb, the present coroner, who was appointed by the county board after Dr. McCuen had resigned, had already filed. Dr. F. P. Clark is also said to be a prospective contender for the Republican nomination

Many Want Overton's Place.

Four candidates are now in the field for the Republican nomination for county commissioner in the Fifth district. William Langslow of West Duluth filed yesterday. The others, who had already filed, are Albert Overton, the present commissioner; Ole Anderson of Duluth and Karl Eklund of Brookston. It is said that Charles Kauppi, former commissioner, may file again. Two Democratic candidates, Henry Norman of Midway and Joseph Gauthier of Industrial, have filed.

Calligan Returns to Range.

Charles Calligan of Hibbing, candidate for the Republican nomination for register of deeds, left for the range yesterday after spending several days in Duluth. He will return to Duluth next week and will remain for two or three weeks, working on his campaign. M. C. Palmer, the present register, is conducting a vigorous quiet campaign, and the contest is one of the warmest among those for county offices.

GEORGE D. McCARTHY.

NAT GOODWIN HURT.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 16.—Nat C. Goodwin, the actor, was injured yesterday at Rocky Point, twelve miles south of Hueneme, by first being thrown from a skiff on the rocks by the breakers, and then by being struck by the boat itself as it was dashed ashore.

Goodwin and a woman member of his company engaged the launch Nora and Capt. Albert Hyder of Santa Monica to make a trip up the coast with a view of locating some land which Goodwin said he wished to buy and convert into a summer resort.

The woman had a note which she told Capt. Ryder was for an Indian, who lived near Hueneme, and when a spot twelve miles south of that place had been reached she espied an Indian's hut and demanded Capt. Hyder take her note ashore and give it to the Indian. Hyder refused because of the strong tide and rough breakers, but Goodwin, taking off his coat and waistcoat, took the note and jumped into a row boat.

As the boat reached the breakers' line it was overturned. Goodwin was thrown upon shore and stunned. With the next roll of the breakers the boat was thrown upon Goodwin.

Hyder finally succeeded in getting Goodwin into the launch and hurried to Santa Monica, where the actor was placed in a hospital.

After a thorough examination, Goodwin's physicians announced the patient's injuries were not serious. Bruises and cuts constituted most of them.

PRINTERS TOLD OF PRESS STRIKE

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 16. — With Nashville, Tenn., chosen as the place for the next meeting, chief interest in today's session of the International Typographical union was centered in the expected report of the committee on subordinate unions, which was scheduled to be read at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The report deals with the Chicago pressmen's strike and makes answer to the appeal of the San Francisco printers to have a strike declared on the San Francisco Examiner.

Constables today continued their hunt for Mrs. Frank W. Long of Cincinnati, to obtain the papers of which she has custody as international secretary and treasurer of the ladies' auxiliary and which she has refused to give to the president, Mrs. C. E. McKee, since bolting from the auxiliary's convention.

Both the auxiliary and the typographical convention spent all of today in business sessions.

ALABAMA GIRL SHOT BY BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 16. — Miss Emily Yielding of Oneonta, Ala., was probably fatally shot at a hotel here by her brother-in-law, R. S. Couch, while they were in a room with John Beveridge. Miss Yielding says the two men induced her to go to the hotel with intentions of killing her. She gives no motive. Couch says the shooting was accidental, but Beveridge charges Couch deliberately fired at the girl.

VAN WAGENEN NAMED FOR HUBBARD'S SEAT.

Spirit Lake, Iowa, Aug. 16. — The Eleventh district Democratic congressional convention here nominated Judge A. Van Wagenen of Sioux City to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Congressman E. H. Hubbard.

PRINCE OF WALES MAY VISIT WESTERN CANADA.

London, Aug. 16. — It is stated unofficially, but on good authority, that arrangements are being made for the Prince of Wales and his brother, Albert, to pay a private visit to the duke of Connaught in Canada during the summer vacation next year, under the charge of their tutor, Henry B. Hansell.

The imperial princes are expected to remain in Canada for a month, during which time they will see something of the rising cities of Western Canada and indulge probably in a short big game shooting expedition.

The two youths may return home by way of the United States, staying for a few days at New York before embarking for England.

ATTRACTS ATTENTION.

Duluth's Dance Hall Ordinance Is Interesting Other Cities.

A letter from Marion E. Todd, secretary of the American Vigilance association, with headquarters at Chicago, has been received by the city clerk, with a request for a copy of the dance hall ordinance which was recently enacted by the Duluth city council. This ordinanme has been attracting the attention of social reform organizations in all parts of the country. It was introduced by Alderman Z. D. Scott of the First ward. It makes certain restrictions as to the hours of the dance, requires that a license be taken out by the proprietor, and that the hall receive the approval of the city health department as to ventilation and of the city building inspecor as to fire escapes, and forbids the sale of liquor within fifty feet of the dance hall entrance. The ordinance is meant to curtail the privileges of certain public dance halls where new-fashioned dances are said to be gaining in popularity.

GARFIELD IS BOSS OF PROGRESSIVES IN OHIO.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 16.—James R. Garfield, former secretary of the interior and supporter of Theodore Roosevelt for president, emerged from a meeting of the steering committee of six of the Progressive party as, for the time being, its dictator in Ohio. To Mr. Garfield was left the selection of the time and place for the state convention of the party. The call, Mr. Garfield said, will probably appear not later than Tuesday. Within that time he will be enabled to ascertain from Col. Roosevelt, Governor Johnson of California, and Senator Dixon of Montana whether they will be able to attend.

Cleveland, it is said, will be the place of assembly, and the time Sept. 4 and 5.

It is proposed that the convention nominate a complete state ticket and effect permanent organization of the party in Ohio.

Y. M. C. A. NIGHT SCHOOL WILL OPEN SEPT. 23.

The Y. M. C. A. night school, which will be opened on Sept. 23, will contain several new features. Among these will be a complete business course and special instructions in automobile operating. The instructors in English will carry their teaching into the boarding houses where foreigners live and into the shops. The corps of instructors, which is the same is it was last year, is as follows: Mechanical drawing and machine deign, C. C. Ferguson; architectural drawing, plan reading and estimating, M. N. Willis; common branches, algebra, geometry, trigonometry, G. A. Wylie; bookkeeping, H. A. O'Brien; business subjects, shorthand and typewriting, F. A. Carey; commercial geography, Eugene Van Clup; practical electricity, J. E. Hopkins; automobiling, W. H. Healy; English for new comers, E. A. Mooney, G. A. Paulus, H. J. Sopher, J. W. Johnson and J. Bergstrom.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 16.—The United States submarine "G-4," the first of its type to be built in this country, was launched at the Gramp ship yards yesterday. Miss Grace Anna Taussig, a granddaughter of William Cramp, christened G-4.

G-4 is 157 feet, 5¾ inches over all; 17 feet 6 inches beam. It has a displacement of 358 tons when in surface cruising condition, and 458 tons submerged.

Its armament consists of four torpedo tubes and eight 18 inch torpedoes, having a range of about 5,000 yards. The vessel is propelled on the surface by four six cylinder gasoline engines and by electric motors when submerged. A surface speed of 14 knots is calculated, with a submerged speed of 8 to 9 knots. About twenty similar submarines are now in use in the navies of Italy, Sweden, Denmark and Portugal.

FOND DU LAC MAN RAPS TITANIC FINDING.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Aug. 16.—Attorney Maurice McKenna, who reached home after an extended trip in Europe and who was on board the Carrope and who saw on board the Carpathia when it rescued the Titanic survivors, says the British board of inquiry did a great injustice to those who lost relatives in the disaster by exonerating Bruce Ismay. Mr. McKenna attended the hearings of the board in London, and from the evidence, he says, it was clear that Ismay was responsible for the high speed of the vessel when it struck the iceberg.

FIVE CARS OF TWINE SHIPPED BY EXPRESS.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 16.—The largest single express shipment which ever left Minneapolis was turned over to the Great Northern Express company yesterday by the International Harvester company plant of this city, when five carloads of binding twine were consigned to Fargo with a "rush" label on each.

The express charges on the shipment were $2,375 and the total weight of the twine 130,000 pounds.

Breakfast Monotony

—the same old chops, or bacon and eggs, and biscuit, for breakfast—may be avoided.

For a change, try this ideal breakfast:

Some fresh fruit
Saucer of GRAPE-NUTS and cream
A soft-boiled egg
Some nice crisp toast
A cup of POSTUM

This will give you an ideal combination of the three principal food elements—proteids, carbohydrates and fats—in the most easily digestible form.

And it means a wide awake individual with energy and a clear head to make a stir in the world; it replaces that dull, sluggish feeling which so often follows the too-much-meat-and-biscuit breakfast.

The man who has work to do can't afford to be overloaded with the kind of food that requires undue effort on the part of his digestive organs for a time and leaves him with a "gone feeling" just about the time of day when he needs his best mental and physical powers.

Grape-Nuts food affords real strength of mind and body with little effort (or waste force) in getting it converted in the system into energy and staying-power—the power to act and to endure.

STEEL BILL VETO HOLDS

Effort to Get Two-Thirds Vote in the Senate Is Failure.

House Declines to Pass Government Payroll Over the Veto.

Washington, Aug. 16.—An attempt to pass the steel tariff revision bill over the president's veto, led by Senator Simmons, was lost today, 39 to 32. The house had passed it over Mr. Taft's disapproval.

The Democrats received no support from the Progressive Republicans, Senators Clapp, Works, Poindexter and La Follette withheld their votes, Senator La Follette explaining that he had not been present when the bill passed and was not familiar with its provisions.

Mr. La Follette then moved to pass the wool tariff bill over the president's veto.

House Democratic leaders failed in their third successive effort to override the president when they sought to pass the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill over Mr. Taft's veto. The vote, 153 to 107, was twenty short of the requisite two-thirds of those voting. As a result, the bill will be shorn of the provision to which the president objected, fixing a seven-year tenure for government employes under the civil service, and sent on its way again.

Commerce Court Must Go.

The other feature to which the president objected, the abolition of the commerce court, will be left in the measure, but the temper of the senate on this program is yet to be ascertained. It is acknowledged at both ends of the capitol that there is a strong sentiment against the continuance of the court, and objection by the senate for this reason is not expected. So strong is the sentiment against the tribunal that leaders of both the senate and house believe if the president vetoes the bill as changed, it can be passed over his objection.

In the vote in the house there were many peculiar changes of front on the part of the Democrats and insurgent Republicans, the latters' votes having been the deciding factors in passing the wool and steel tariff revision bills over the president's veto. Eighteen Democrats deserted their party in the roll call, while thirteen insurgent Republicans voted with the majority.

Democrats Who Deserted.

The Democrats were:

Allen, Sharp and Whitaker, Ohio; Brantley, Georgia; Curley, Murray, Peters and Thayer, Massachusetts; Donohue, Pennsylvania; Hammel, Kinkaid, McCoy, New Jersey; Levy, Sulzer, Talcott, New York; Lobeck, Nebraska; O'Shaughnessy, Rhode Island; Riley, Connecticut.

Republicans who remained with the Democrats on the vote and who have voted with them throughout on the veto roll calls were:

Anderson Lindbergh, Davis, Minnesota; Good, Green, Haugen, Pickett, Kendall, Iowa; French, Idaho; Jackson, Young, Kansas; La Follette, Washington; Morse, Wisconsin.

Representative Johnson, a member of the appropriations committee, led the fight to pass the bill over the veto.

Pleading for the government clerk, Former Speaker Cannon twitted the Democrats with attempting a bogus reform on defenseless employes in order to strengthen their political fences. He charged them with cowardice for such action.

Cannon Opposes Plan.

"I am subject to the same cowardice," Mr. Cannon admitted, "and I am criticizing myself as much as any other member. There have been times when I was tempted to sing that old hymn, not 'Onward Christian Soldiers,' but 'Renew My Courage, Lord.'"

Minority Leader Mann defended the commerce court and termed "ridiculous" the action of one congress creating such a tribunal, only to knock it down at a succeeding congress before the system had been tried out. Representative Fitzgerald of New York retorted that the court "was the single pet idea of the chief executive of the United States." He added that the president's criticism of the house for putting general legislation on an appropriation bill came close to impertinence.

BITTER SPEECH BY LA FOLLETTE

Wisconsin Man Attacks Progressive Party in Senate Speech.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Senator La Follette attacked the third party in the senate today as an "obstruction across the path of the Progressive movement." He said the Progressive movement in the Republican party was bound to continue.

"The upbuilding of a third party movement around some individual whose personal ambitions may have received disappointment is not going to be allowed to destroy it," he declared.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE ROASTED

"Astounding Conditions" as to Use of Money Are Charged.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Charges of loose and dangerous practices in the state department's expenditurse of its secret emergency fund were renewed in an informal report today by Representative Hamlin of Missouri, chairman of the house committee which investigated what is termed "the astounding condition of affairs in the department." The investigation will continue next winter.

Mr. Hamlin reiterated that Secretary Knox had used a negro messenger from his department as a valet on his recent Central American trip; that a picture of Former Secretary Day, now a justice of the supreme court, had been paid for by misappropriation for which the committee had recommended the dismissal of William H. Michael, then chief of the department but now consul at Calcutta.

"The president seems to have taken no action," was the comment as to Mr. Michael's case.

The report says the committee discovered $732,000 spent from appropriations of only $575,000, and that other money was improperly used to make up the deficit. The informal report will be the only action of the committee at this session.

HATS WORN AT TABLE.

London Chronicle: Seventeenth century etiquette prescribed that hats should be worn at table. "The Rules of Civility, or Certain Ways of Deportment," published 1673, gives some directions on this point. Under the supposition that "a person of quality detains you to dine with him," it is laid down that "when the person invited is seated he must keep himself uncovered till the rest sit down, and the person of quality has put on his hat. * * * If the person of honor drinks a health to you, you must be sure to be uncovered. If he speaks to you, you must likewise be uncovered till you have answered him. If one rises from the table before the rest, he must pull off his hat."

In one week during the early part of last summer the Port Elizabeth (Africa) feather market reached the $170,000 point, the highest ever.

BOATS RACING FOR BIG PRIZE

Chicago, Aug. 16. — Motor boat owners were on the lake early today "tuning up" their entries for the American championship free-for-all for the $22,000 William Wrightley, Jr., trophy and the contest for the $1,000 William Hale Thompson prize for the first boat that attains a speed of fifty miles an hour.

Among the widely known power boats that were to start in these events were Baby Reliance III, Disturber II and Kitty Hawk II. Baby Reliance III has attained a speed of more than fifty miles an hour in other races; Disturber III has been heralded as a sixty-mile an hour craft, and Kitty Hawk II was leading all of her competitors in a motor boat race Wednesday when she caught fire and sunk. The damage to her was slight, however, and her crew announced today that she again was fit.

Commodore Thompson last night telegraphed a challenge to the Royal Canadian Yacht club for another match between the sloops Patricia and Michicago. The Patricia now holds the Great Lakes championship by virtue of having defeated the Michicago in the present meet. The second race, if one is arranged, will not be sailed until next year, it is thought.

RIVERS STARTED RING WORK EARLY

The Little Mexican Fought When He Was a Mere Urchin.

McHugh, who is one of McCarey's helpmates at Los Angeles in the promotion of big fistic encounters, says that when Rivers was but a slip of a kid, weighing about ninety-eight pounds, he used to hang around the training camps waiting for a chance to don the gloves with anyone that wanted him to act as sparring partner. He showed great gameness, but as he was a little fellow he invariably received a beating when he squared off with the bigger fighters.

Rivers repeatedly asked for a chance to show himself in a real battle, but it was some time before he was given a chance. One night when Louie Riess was supposed to go on in one of the preliminaries, his opponent failed to show up. Rivers asked for a chance, and McHugh, who was in charge, thought he would give the Mexican a tryout. Although Riess was much bigger, Rivers went on with him. When McHugh asked Rivers his name he said Jose Rivera, but McHugh, thinking this an inappropriate name for a fighter, introduced him as Joe Rivers, and this name has clung to him ever since.

Rivers did not have car fare to reach the pavilion where the bouts were being held and McCarey had to give him a nickel to get there. Rivers borrowed a pair of trunks, and some old worn out tennis shoes. Rivers was knocked down eleven times before the bout was stopped, but after each knockdown he jumped up and gritting his teeth screeched "I'll get you yet!" He gave a great exhibition of gameness and made a big hit. In his next fight Rivers met Max Weber whom he stopped in three rounds. He gained in weight after that and was soon considered a topnotcher.

McHugh, who will remain here all week, is a great admirer of the Mexican and thinks he will defeat Wolgast if they ever meet again. He does not think Wolgast is as good as he was a year ago.

GOOD CATCHERS MAKE GOOD TEAMS

No team can be classed as a truly ball club if it lacks a high-class catching staff. It is almost impossible to figure out the immense difference a classy and an ordinary catcher makes in a ball team.

The Washington team is a corking good ball club this year, but not one factor has played a more prominent part in the success of the club than the catching department. In John Henry and Eddie Ainsmith, Clark Griffith has two of the greatest receivers in the business. Both have wonderful arms, and it's always a long shot that the runner who tries to steal will be thrown out. Both are fairly good hitters, death on foul flies, and for catchers they are mighty fast on their feet. Better still, they do not get their pitchers continually in the hole by calling for waste balls. So true are their arms that they do not have to continually resort to the waste ball to get the runners stealing.

The Boston club is going well because Bill Carrigan is having the best year of his career, because Cady, secured from the Newark club of the Eastern league, has developed into a star in a year; because Nunamaker, who is doing very little catching of late, is a better receiver than the regulars on a number of the major league clubs. True, Carrigan hasn't a very good arm, but he manages to get the ball down to second in good time. With such a great man as Heinie Wagner receiving the throw, Carrigan doesn't have to be very particular about its accuracy, just so he gets it there ahead of the runner. Carrigan uses his brains to advantage and is a great aid to the young pitchers.

The catching staffs of the three tailenders, Cleveland, New York and St. Louis, do not compare with the clubs ahead. That is one reason this trio is down near the bottom. Baumgardner and Hamilton of St. Louis, Steen, Kahler and Blanding of Cleveland, and a number of other youngsters would be showing to better advantage if they had men like Henry, Ainsmith, Stanage, Carrigan and some of the other classy boys doing the receiving.

LAVENDER WILL OPPOSE "BIG SIX."

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Word came from the camps of the Giants and Cubs early today that Jimmy Lavender, Chicago's recruit pitcher, would oppose Christy Mathewson, the star of New York's pitching staff, in the second game of the series this afternoon.

Stirring scenes were expected and provided for at the West Side park. It was expected the crowd would be as large as the one which witnessed the first contest, and it was estimated that 25,000 fans packed the inclosure yesterday. Extra police were asked to handle the crowd. It also was arranged to open the gates earlier than on yesterday.

Victory for Chicago over the Giants has set Chicago baseball mad. The victory cut down New York's lead in the National league pennant race to five games.

A Poor Season.

New York, Aug. 16.—Men prominent in big league baseball councils here declare that the present year will be lean for several of the major clubs, although none of them are likely actually to lose money. The big money makers will be, as usual, the New York Nationals, Boston Red Sox, both Chicago clubs, the Pittsburgs, Washingtons and Athletics. It is estimated that the Giants will yield nearly $250,000 in profits. The Boston Red Sox have done a phenomenal business at home and abroad and expect to show a net profit of $200,000. Estimates on some of the other clubs are as follows:

Chicago Americans	$175,000
Chicago Nationals	150,000
Pittsburgs	100,000
Washingtons	100,000
Brooklyns	50,000

Were it not for the 50 per cent division of paid admissions at all major league parks, some of the unsuccessful clubs would sustain heavy losses.

INDIANS ADOPT LOUIS W. HILL

Blackfoot Tribe Names Him "Gray Horse"—Charles Griffin Also Adopted.

Glacier Park, Mont., Aug. 16.—Louis W. Hill, chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern railway; Harvey H. Bittner of Spokane, and Charles Griffin of St. Paul, were adopted into the tribe of Blackfoot Indians last night at the celebration of the Night-of-Black-Tail at St. Mary's Lake. Hill became "Gray Horse," Bittner was christened "Mountain Chief," and Griffin was given the name "Lame Bull."

YOUNG GEORGIAN WHO NOW IS CONGRESSMAN

WILLIAM SCHLEY HOWARD.

William Schley Howard, Democratic congressman from Georgia, is one of the youngest members of the house. He is 37 years old and was born at Kirkwood, Ga. When 12 years old he went to work for himself. He was a page in the house of representatives in Georgia from 1888 to 1889; calendar clerk in the house in 1890 and 1891; was appointed private secretary to United States Senator Walsh in 1893, and at this time began to take up the study of law. He was admitted to the bar in 1895. In 1898 he enlisted in the Spanish-American war and served during the campaign. He defeated L. F. Livingston for the sixty-second congress.

ALL JOIN IN WAR ON VICE

Churches Fighting Side By Side in Country-Wide Campaign.

Atlanta Uses Advertisements in Papers as Mode of Attack.

New York, Aug. 16.—Of late religion and reform seem to have made progress by waves, quickly rising, even while men look, but not subsiding as waves commonly do. The rapid dissemination of information in the present day is probably responsible for this, so that the plans of Chicago are known in San Francisco and Jacksonville within a week. Thus man and religion became a national institution, and created permanent lines of new activity all within a year. So the survey idea has taken hold of the churhes of a sudden. Even more marked is the growth of the social passion of the churches, and in particular, the war upon the social evil.

It is a fact of immense significance and importance that the thoughtful men and women of the whole world today and all who are enlisted in religious and philanthropic activity, have become newly aroused upon the social evil. A further fact of much meaning is that the churches are avowedly behind this movement.

Prudery to The Winds.

Within a decade the social question has come to be discussed publicly and privately, in small gatherings of specialists and from pulpit and convention platform, as well as on the printed page, with a definiteness and openness that would have made the most progressive churchmen gasp a generation ago. Even the Sunday schools have taken up the subject, and no conference upon the work of the public schools is counted complete without some treatment of what has come to be called social hygiene. The Y. M. C. A. has made this a department of its work. A convention upon the subject was recently held by the medical men in connection with the American Medical Association meeting at Atlantic City.

The Y. W. C. A., which does not advertise its activities as much as some other religious organizations, has accepted the heroic task of trying to prevent as many girls as it can reach from going wrong through ignorance. In every large city these young women's associations are doing a profound social work. The movement for the instruction of children in social hygiene has practically come to be accepted as a part of modern child training, in the home, as well as in the school. In all these branches magnificent foundation work is being done, and the next generation will be the gainer.

White Slave War.

The swift progress of the war upon the traffic in women is nothing less than amazing. It has appealed to the imagination of men and women everywhere. The rich women have given of their wealth, and a great company of social servants have given their time and tireless labors. Everybody has heard of the vice commission in Chicago and its startling report. Similar commissions have been established in many cities. Philadelphia, as a consequence of the reform administration, has etsablished a powerful vice commission which is already at work studying the local situation. The struggle of the church and social workers in Pittsburg has of late come into the newspapers.

Even the towns of the Southwest have taken up the subject with characteristic aggressiveness, and the stockade or levee, which has hitherto been accepted as a part of the city life, is being fearlessly challenged. That the war is a world war, and that its appeal is made to all denominations appears from the report of the recent convention in Europe of the International Order of B'nai B'rith reported by the Survey. It has instituted a world-wide campaign against the white slave traffic and is informing organizations in different countries engaged in similar work of the action taken by the order, with a view of securing their co-operation.

Jewish World War.

The plan of procedure of the B'nai B'rith includes the following policies:

"To enlist the press of the entire world in aiding the fight against the trade in girls and women; to organize special committees in the cities on the border and at harbors; to appoint well-qualified agents to be their executives for supervision and control; to distribute warnings against the traders by printed circulars and notices; to unite women's organizations for preventing the traffic; to send itinerant speakers to all lands; to teach adolescent youth the dangers of the social vice; to establish in every country an information bureau which shall be responsible and effective; to organize in the greater cities agencies for the protection of women and girls who are traveling, and, for the purpose of carrying out this work, to establish central bureaus of the order in Berlin, for Europe, and in Chicago for America.

"With special reference to the Orient it was decided to investigate the laws and ordinances of Turkey for the purpose of securing the prevention of the white slave traffic by the punishment of the white slave traders; to investigate the traffic, the forms under which it is carried on; to advise with regard to the ways and means of fighting it in different localities; to provide for the supervision of boat and railway traffic; to make provision for girls and women rescued from the traffic and to secure agents to carry out these plans."

Startling Advertisements.

Advertisements three columns wide and a page long appearing regularly in the newspapers of Atlanta have startled the people of that progressive city with the story of "The Houses in Our Midst." Social workers in the North who have seen these advertisements have shaken their heads and said that they were too radical, that they would merely shock and alienate the historically conservative South.

Nevertheless, the reports from Atlanta are that the public generally has approved of this sensational method of reform. Unquestionably the public opinion is being educated more quickly and directly than by any other medium, and definite action is inevitable, since the Atlanta churches are not lacking in leadership. Drastic action looking to the extermination of the social evil in the city is indicated.

A Man's Job.

The Holy Name Society of the Roman Catholic church has taken up the social question, and wherever the men and religion movement has gone the men have accepted the proposition that this evil is one that is to be solved not by the Women's Christian Temperance Union, or by the women's clubs, but by the men of the country.

It is notable that as a result of the swift enlistment of the interests of the churchmen of America through the men and religion movement the radical platform is being laid down for serious consideration that regulation of the social evil is a failure both in Europe, where it is open and official, and in America, where it is surreptitious and by way of graft. The slogan now is the total abolition of the social evil. Men are seeing its relation to all the other social and economic problems of our time, and they are daring to say that this thing, which has been tolerated by all civilizations since Babylon, must now be cast out from human society.

"Scandal in high society" makes a spicy general title, which, somehow or other, seems to get quick attention whenever it is mentioned.

The morning was quiet at headquarters and the talk turned upon some of the happenings about the town which, under ordinary circumstances, would have come within the province of the police. The old policeman was sitting with a couple of others in the rear office and he seemed to have had a bunch of such instances come under his eye or to his knowledge.

One recital led to another as will happen in any gathering of humans who have nothing of special importance to compel their attention and the grizzled veteran took up the thread of the conversation.

"You'll notice that it is generally the working classes who get the bulk of the advertising and make most of the work for the police court and the police," he was saying. "Not that the so-called upper strata are a bit better or have a whit less trouble, but that they know the ropes better and abhor the notoriety.

"It isn't only the laboring man who beats his wife. Take a case which happened only a couple of nights ago. A woman well known in the city was found downtown in a cafe with another man. He wasn't her husband, but it was hubby who did the finding. He was supposed to be in Minneapolis and wasn't expected to return for a week. But an urgent business telegram recalled him. Going home he found his other half was absent. I do not know whether or not he had reason to be suspicious, but I notice that he did not lose any time starting out to locate her. I also noticed that it did not take him very long to discover her whereabouts.

"He didn't fly off the handle, pull a revolver and create a scene in the big restaurant, which was well filled with people at that hour. Nor did he heap abuse upon the man who was with his wife. To all appearances he looked as though he had dropped in accidentally and rather expected to find his wife with friends.

"But when he reached home his aspect changed. Just what he said I am not sure. However, his actions were decidedly positive. He gave his wife a sound thrashing, such as she had not had since the days of her girlhood. And I haven't heard anything of it since, nor have I seen her with anybody outside of her own immediate family.

"That was just the reverse of what happened earlier in the summer. Two men about town, one single and the other divorced, started out with the wives of two other men. They got both the women pretty much under the influence of liquor and started away with them in a hack. One of them came to her senses before it was too late and demanded that she and her companion be taken home. The men protested, but without avail.

"After they got home the first women told her husband of what had occurred. To cut out the tears and the scene, etc., she was forgiven. Her husband went to the guardian and protector of the other woman. Together they started out to look for the men who had been with them. They found one of them in his office in a central downtown building and the other in his room at a hotel not far distant. What they did to that pair, one at a time, was more than a little. They beat them to a pulp. One of them went about for a long while with his head swathed in bandages and the other couldn't get out of bed for more than a week. And when he could get up he looked so fierce that he didn't dare show his face on the street for a week or two more.

"Those are only two instances and I suppose the facts are more or less known to some of the people of their respective sets. Many others might be mentioned, but you will notice that in the great majority of such cases they are kept as quiet as possible. The principals do not rush into the police court for warrants or call us in to make arrests. Once in a while that happens, but it is the exception which proves the rule."

Be sure you are right before you rush into the police station with a story that you have been robbed. You might place an innocent person under a nasty suspicion.

This morning a man called up headquarters saying that he had been robbed of a valuable gold watch and his purse while being shaved in a downtown tonsorial parlor. He declared that besides the barbers only one man had been in the place while he was there. It happened that no detective happened to be in the station at the time, so no one was rushed out immediately to investigate.

In the meantime the man who had done the telephoning returned to his room in the hotel. Lying on the dresser where he had left them were his watch and purse.

A large black leather grip containing masculine wearing apparel was picked up today on the boulevard, near Mesaba avenue. It was lying in the middle of the road, having evidently fallen from some rig. It is now at the police station.

The police reported this morning that Andrew Kalhi lets his wife take in washing to earn a living while he loafs about, getting drunk and begs from the neighbors. He admitted that he had been drunk yesterday when brought into police court, but his case was set over until this afternoon for disposition. The court wished to talk with his wife before taking any action.

Dotty Russell, colored, was arrested last night on a charge of selling liquor without a license in her place on First alley, between First and Second avenues. Jessie Sleet, also of pronounced dark complexion, was arrested at the same time on a disorderly charge. Both pleaded not guilty when arraigned in police court this morning. Their trials were set for Tuesday morning.

RAILROADS

SOO EXTENSION AT DEVILS LAKE

Last Spike Driven By Mayor McClory With Fitting Ceremony.

Devils Lake, N. D., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The last spike, marking the completion of construction work on the Soo railroad extension from Fordville, Walsh county, to Devils Lake, was driven last night by Mayor McClory of Devils Lake. The spike was driven at the site of the Soo depot on Kelly avenue, and the ceremonies were witnessed by hundreds of citizens.

Addresses were made by Mayor McClory, President F. P. Mann of the Devils Lake Commercial club, and by Supt. Whitman of the Soo construction gang.

Following the driving of the last spike, the laborers were feted by the Devils Lake Commercial club, and afterwards there was a theater party for the Soo gang.

The Drake end of the next extension is being constructed from that end, and the two construction gangs are due to meet near Tilden, Benson county, according to the present outlook.

OIL ENGINE QUITS AFTER HARD WORK

Gasoline Locomotive at Brookston Coal Chute Has Been Overworked.

Brookston, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The 25-horse power gasoline engine at the local Great Northern coal chute went all to pieces shortly after it was started Tuesday morning.

The engine has been in service about eight years and this summer it has been worked almost continuously owing to the heavy traffic on the railroad, and the strain was too much for it. It will probably be necessary to install a new and larger engine here to properly care for the business of the coal chute. A locomotive is being used to push the coal cars up the incline and the two auxiliary engines have been pressed into service to pump water into the tank.

COMPLY WITH ORDER.

Minnesota Railroads to Accept Joint Rate Ruling.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 16.—Railways have unofficially informed members of the state railway and warehouse commission that they will accept the recent order of the commission in regard to joint rates between points in Minnesota.

These rates provide that the joint rate shall in no case exceed 80 per cent of the sum of the locals and provides other modifications of existing tariff for the benefit of the small producer and manufacturer.

Railroad Notes.

Homer Grey of St. Paul, traveling passenger agent for the Illinois Central, called on Duluth railroad men yesterday.

R. H. Graham, traveling passenger agent for the Southern railway, came up from the Windy City today to make the rounds of the Duluth railroad offices.

Irving S. Kellar of Chicago, traveling passenger agent for the Missouri Pacific, is in the city today.

A. E. Hathaway, city ticket agent for the Great Northern, has returned after a two weeks' trip through Glacier National park.

BOOSTING FOR COUNTY FAIR

Hibbing Enthusiast Says It Will Break All Records.

A. P. Silliman of Hibbing, one of the live-wire agricultural enthusiasts and good roads advocates of the range town, is in Duluth on business today. Incidentally he is boosting for the St. Louis county fair, which will be held at Hibbing Aug. 29 to Sept. 1 and is urging Duluth people to attend.

The county fair will be the greatest ever this year, according to Mr. Silliman. Agricultural production in the vicinity of Hibbing has increased wonderfully and the exhibits will be a revelation to those who think that the range has nothing but iron ore as its wealth.

"We believe that raising our own products at home is better than shipping them in," said Mr. Silliman. "We have the best that nature can provide and we keep our money at home. The agricultural district around Hibbing is rich in products this year and anyone who misses visiting the county fair will miss an education that will create faith in the agricultural future of St. Louis county."

BALL GAME NETTED $250 FOR CHARITY

About $250 was realized by the Associated Charities at the charity ball game and field events Wednesday at Athletic park.

The exact amount which will go to the organization from the receipts and tickets sold for the game has not yet been determined as some of the ticket sellers have not turned in their reports.

The money will be turned into the fund which the organization is attempting to raise. About $6,000 is needed. Of this amount about $2,000 has been raised.

The financial campaign will be given fresh impetus next week.

WORE FIVE SUITS OF CLOTHES AND HAD $3,400.

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 16.—Richard Whalen, local Front street character, who died this week, was found to have on five suits of clothes and five shirts. Inside of one of the shirts the undertaker found nearly $3,400 sewed to the garment.

MILL CITY BOY KILLED RETURNING FROM PICNIC.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 16.—James D. Byrnes, 18-year-old son of J. J. Byrnes, 603 Eighth avenue north, was nearly instantly killed Wednesday night when he struck an obstruction as he was leaning out of the door of a baggage car on the Dan Patch line. The accident happened at Savage.

Byrnes, with about fifty other employes of the Minneapolis branch of Parke, Davis & Co., 224 First avenue north, had attended a picnic at Antlers park, and was on his way home.

GETS ELK HORN BOW.

New York Museum Representative Secures Prize.

Bismarck, N. D., Aug. 16.—A representative of the American Museum of Natural History of New York who has been sojourning among the Indian tribes in this part of the state, has secured an excellent specimen of the Elk Horn bow. The American museum of New York for the past number of years has been endeavoring to secure an Elk Horn bow and the representative feels very fortunate in securing such an excellent specimen.

The bow was secured from Wolf Chief of the Gros Ventra tribe at the Fort Berthold reservation and was made by Wolf Chief himself this summer.

ESCANABA MAN HEADS STATE SONS OF HERMAN.

Menominee, Mich., Aug. 16.—The twenty-fifth annual session of the Michigan grand lodge, Sons of Herman, closed last night. The following officers were elected: Grand president, Joseph Walsh, Escanaba; secretary, Charles Horst, Hancock; treasurer, William Wass, Laurium; delegate to supreme lodge, John Miller, Owosso.

DOG FIGHTS OFF BULL, SAVING LIFE OF MASTER.

Green Bay, Wis., Aug. 16.—A dog successfully fought a bull near here yesterday to save the life of his owner, Thomas Rohan, a Hollandtown farmer. Rohan was gored by the bull. The dog fought off the bull and his barking brought help to Rohan.

CLEARING SUPERIOR STREET.

Chief of Police Troyer has taken a good step by his order for the removal from in front of the stores on Superior street of the lines of taxicabs, automobiles and similar vehicles that have been halted there customarily for hours at a time, waiting for trade.

The presence of these vehicles has been a twofold nuisance, aside from the bad appearance they give to that section of the principal business street of the city. They have been in the way of other motor cars or of horse-drawn carriages whose occupants wished to stop to trade at any of the stores along the block, and they have caused serious inconvenience to the store-keepers by their presence.

Unquestionably, the block in question is the best place in the city in which to solicit the kind of patronage for which these cars are looking, but that is no excuse for their presence there to the detriment of the interests of the men who have immovable investments along that street.

What the city needs to accommodate this line of business is a place where taxicabs and similar vehicles kept for hire can make their headquarters, similar to the old plan of the cab stands. Then some arrangement could be made among the owners of the cars that would alleviate any advantages that might come from positions at those quarters.

Probably the most available place for such a stand would be in the section of Superior street left free to occupation by Chief Troyer's order—"the southerly side of Superior street west from the westerly line of the Soo depot to Eighth avenue west." This would give a full block and a half or more, and by arranging for the receipt and delivery of telephone orders, the space there could be utilized to good advantage by the drivers and owners.

Enforcement of the twenty-minute standing rule against owners of private cars will not bear nearly so hard, since those machines can be taken to garages or left in convenient places during the owners' absence. But the insistence on observance of that ordinance will help materially in keeping Superior street clear for constantly moving traffic, and will benefit the merchants by taking away obstructions from before their places of business.

Chief Troyer's order should be read and obeyed by every driver in the city. It is based only on fairness and the general good, and is perfectly reasonable.

Hope She's Satisfied.

Gaby Des Lys has been operated on in Paris, and her condition is said not to be serious. It has been rumored for some time that Gaby was making arrangements to have certain criticisms cut out.

"TO THE WOLVES."

Is there enough in it, really, to make it worth a man's while to get mixed up in crookedness and wrong-doing?

A case in point is that of Lieut. Becker of the New York police department. It is not incomprehensible that he should have fallen into the net of corruption in which he is involved, if we may rely on what has appeared thus far of the stories of other men and the evidence unearthed under the direction of District Attorney Whitman.

Take any young man of weak moral fibre, working for a salary of $2,250 a year, and put him in the way to accumulate something like twenty or thirty times that amount in the same length of time, and he would not hesitate to seize the chance, no matter how the money was secured. That, apparently, is just the kind of experience that came to Lieut. Becker, and, falling before the temptation, he sought to improve his personal finances by taking advantage of it.

For a time, it would seem, the scheme prospered. There were plenty of places where men and women could be driven into paying for police protection from the law. It was necessary that somebody should look after the collecting of the payments. That was a position of risk. There was danger of being caught. There was danger of being stabbed in the back or shot down in cold blood by some resisting tribute-payer. It was an infinitely more dangerous position than that of hushing things up and dividing the spoils. It should have brought a corresponding return, financially. And apparently that is what it did.

But it brought nothing else—no respect, no guarantee of personal protection, none of the kind of friendship or comradeship that is the natural accompaniment of legitimate business association. Instead of these things, when the crisis came, when it appeared that one victim had stood all he proposed to and was beginning to talk so much that it was desirable to get him out of the way, it fell to the lot of this assumer of risks to see to it. When the task had been done and he needed the benefit of all the scheming and money power those he worked with could bring into play, he was left to be arrested.

And now, according to apparently authentic reports, the underlings and the members of the system of which he was a part, and in the service of which he risked even his life, have been told by the men "higher up" to "throw Becker to the wolves" but to protect those higher men at all costs.

It reminds one, somehow, of the lines put into the mouth of the dying cardinal—"Oh Cromwell, Cromwell! Had I but served my God with half the zeal with which I served my king."

Of course Lieut. Becker got rich, but at what a price! And now, when he is most in need of the help of those to whom he has the right to turn for help, the response is, "Throw Becker to the wolves!"

But It's Drying Up.

President Taft's insistence on retaining the court of commerce couldn't be more marked if the court were in fact only a pond for lame ducks.

A DOCTOR'S VIEWPOINT.

Dr. Mabel Ulrich's talk at the council chambers the other night was one of the most valuable that have been given in this city in many months, as far as its bearing on the future of our young people is concerned. Dr. Ulrich gave the views of a physician on the proposal to teach sex hygiene in the public schools, and her words were an enthusiastic indorsement of the movement.

Certainly, if anybody is qualified to judge of the need of such instruction, a doctor is, for the medical profession not only involves a knowledge of the evils that come to human beings, but an understanding of those evils and their sources. Therefore, when a practicing physician tells us straight from the shoulder that ignorance of the vital forces of life is one of the most potent influences in causing disease and suffering and immorality, we are justified in taking off our hats and saying that we know we have heard the truth.

It is not only the doctors who are urging this line of instruction. Settlement workers, students of social problems, and educators generally are behind the movement. Some of those who are opposed to it are afraid of the result of letting the rising generation know enough to protect themselves from physical and moral evil. Their opposition arises from timidity about undertaking any great change in our line of thought.

But the great majority of those who are opposing thus broadening the instruction of our children are moved almost wholly by nothing in the world but that same prudery and false modesty—yes, and deep-rooted misconception and uncleanness of thought — that for years and years have operated to make men and women weak and miserable and immoral, a curse to themselves and everybody with whom they come into daily contact.

But we must take up this line of instruction in the right light. We must not teach the lessons that are to be learned as if the subject were something to be shunned and dreaded and spoken of only in whispers. We must learn, if we do not realize it already, and we must teach our young people, that there is as much of nature and honor, as much of uprightness and truth—yes, as much of God, if you will—in the physical life of the human race as there is in the lives of the most beautiful of our flowers or the most wonderful of the tiny animal creations that we study with so much appreciation.

Dr. Ulrich's advocacy of the teaching of sex hygiene in our schools only adds the words of one who is fully qualified to talk on the subject, to the arguments made by the originators of the present wide and worthy movement.

Bad Off As Ever.

The Democrats have decided to give in to the extent of one battleship, but in their haste they forgot to designate which one.

HIGH FINANCE AT THE CAPITAL.

There has been slowly growing upon the country a notion that all the high finance and money-juggling schemes in the nation centered in New York City. It is, therefore, with positive relief that the following incident, as related by the Washington Times, is noted at the national capital.

A certain boardinghouse keeper in Washington had among his patrons a man who was getting backward in paying his board bill. Remonstrances and pleadings were fruitless, and finally the landlord served notice that unless a settlement was made by night the boarder would have to look elsewhere for his daily bread. The boarder finally agreed to "settle" that same day, and the two men went about their business.

When evening came, sure enough, the boarder presented the landlord with the required funds and was given a receipt, and all was peace and friendship. Later in the evening the landlord, dressing to go out for the evening, missed his watch, and investigation showed that the delinquent boarder had taken the timepiece and hocked it to raise the money to pay his board. The landlord was dissatisfied, however, and had the man taken before a judge, who fined him $25 and ordered restoration of the watch.

Looking at the case at this distance and with a perfectly disinterested viewpoint, it would seem that the landlord was hasty. His action was calculated to nip in the bud the financial manipulations of a potential money king. History teaches that the man who can make somebody else foot all the bills while he himself reaps the benefits and enjoyments is entitled to a high place in commercial and political estimations, and here was a positive genius, rudely squelched in the very beginning of his achievements.

Perhaps the fact of his being so squelched indicates the difference between New York and other parts of the country in this matter of high finance. If this man had been operating in the metropolis the chances are that he not only would have "got away with" his deal, but would have found it to be only the stepping stone to yet larger operations. But the fact that he thought it out and put it into practice even though he lived elsewhere than in close proximity to Wall street, proves the baselessness of the popular supposition that New York has cornered everything of that kind that the country can boast.

Charles D. Hilles says that—Rats! What's the use?

When men begin to realize that the ballot is a privilege, there will be heavier voting at both the primaries and the elections.

Margaret Illington says a new play is a gamble. Was she speaking from the standpoint of the management, or the audience?

They're not going to cut the sugar tariff at this session. It's hard to understand why, for the reduction couldn't take effect now anyway until the canning season is over.

Col. Roosevelt says he is promising no federal offices in payment for support. The colonel is displaying unexpected wisdom, or else he is sincerely desirous not to disappoint anybody.

A new telegraph line is being built between Constantinople and Smyrna, and a chap they call Falk Bey is in charge of the work. Which indicates that the Young Turks have brought their country nearer a par with other nations than had been supposed.

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters should not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

THE ROCK PILE AND ITS COST.

It would be unfortunate if a statement in a worthy cause should in any way be misinterpreted. From the recent statement concerning the appropriation requested by the board of public welfare for rock crushing some will undoubtedly gain the impression that the men employed in cutting Superior street through the Point of Rocks last winter were performing labor which could have been done more cheaply by a rock crusher. Nothing could be further from the real facts. The men were employed in blasting through the Point of Rocks, with the use of steam drills, and in breaking the rock so blasted into sufficiently small pieces to be put through the crusher operated by the board of public works at Thirteenth avenue west and Superior street. Therefore, it is evident that none of the men's labor was used for anything that machinery could have done more cheaply.

When it is considered that the prime object in blasting the rock was to cut Superior street through, which is a most important improvement, and not to furnish crushed rock for the streets, it is seen that the crushed rock produced is merely a by-product and should be credited against the expense of making improvement. Because of the conditions at the Point of Rocks the work was necessarily carried on under conditions which were very far from ideal if the object had been simply to produce crushed stone. In spite of this, one of the members of the board of public works stated year before last that the stone was being produced as cheaply as if done by the regular employes of the city. Actual measurements last winter, made conservatively and with due allowance for shrinkage in measuring the rock, showed that the value of the crushed stone was 85 per cent of the wages paid the men sent to the quarry by the Associated Charities, as compared to a similar estimate of 92 per cent in the case of the municipal quarry in Kansas City. In neither case is allowance made for the salaries of the regular employes who supervised these unskilled laborers, so that it is impossible to determine exactly how the expenses of the two operations compare without further figures from Kansas City.

Therefore it appears that the money spent for cutting "Superior street through the Point of Rocks was a good investment from a business point of view, without considering the inestimable value to the city of being able to furnish employment to those who are desperately in need of it, passing them on to steady positions, and of being able to rid the city of tramps and impostors who claimed to wish work but did not really want it.

REGULATING THE SIZE OF LOADS.

Is there an ordinance in this city regulating the size of a load for a team of horses? If so, what can be done by an ordinary citizen to help the enforcement of such an ordinance? Overloaded teams may be seen ascending our avenues every day in the year, and scenes are all too common which make one either boil with righteous indignation, or else shut his eyes and ears, harden his heart a little and pass on. The average driver in this town appears to regard his horse as a feelingless engine and in many cases he uses very poor judgment in mating the best use of his engine, beating and abusing it until it is absolutely useless. Putting aside the matter of humaneness, there are scenes to sicken any normal being simply from a standpoint of conservation of good energy.

Is there any organized effort being put forth for the betterment of conditions along this line? Very truly yours, A SUBSCRIBER.

WORDS OF THANKS FROM A LIVE CLUB.

To the Editor of The Herald:

The Duluth Rotary club herewith extends to you sincere thanks for the co-operation and the manner in which the Duluth Herald extended the hand of fellowship and greeting to the several hundred visiting Rotarians here assembled in convention during the last week.

Words of commendation in our entire ranks have been extended in the strongest terms for the able manner in which the Duluth Herald responded in our efforts to send our visitors away loyal boosters for our city.

This is the true spirit of civic loyalty which should reign in the hearts of all Rotarians, and we sincerely hope and trust that all the business men and citizens of our city may co-operate on all movements of this kind which should make for our city a greater Duluth in the very near future.

Again thanking you, I beg to remain, yours respectfully,

DULUTH ROTARY CLUB,
By E. J. Filiatrault, president.

Fable of the Chinese Cook.

From a Chinese Fable: Prince Hui's cook was cutting up a bullock. Every blow of his hand, every heave of his shoulders, every tread of his foot, every thrust of his knee, every wh-sh-h of rent flesh, every ch-k of the clopper, was in perfect harmony—rhythmical like the dance of the Mulberry Grove, simultaneous like the chords of the Ching Shou.

"Sire," replied the cook, "I have always devoted myself to Tao. It is better than skill. When I first began to cut up bullocks I saw before me simply whole bullocks. After three years' practice I saw no more whole animals. And now I work with my mind and not with my eye. When my senses bid me stop, but my mind urges me on, I fall back upon eternal principles. I follow such openings or cavities as there may be, according to the natural construction of the animal. I do not attempt to cut through joints; still less through large bones.

"A good cook changes his chopper once a year—because he cuts. An ordinary cook once a month—because he hacks. But I have had this chopper nineteen years and, although I have cut up many thousand bullocks, its edge is as if fresh from the whetstone. For at the joints there are always interstices and the edge of a chopper being without thickness, it remains only to insert that which is without thickness into such an interstice. By these means the interstice will be enlarged and the blade will find plenty of room. It is thus that I have kept my chopper for nineteen years as though fresh from the whetstone.

"Nevertheless, when I come upon a hard part where the blade meets with a difficulty, I am all caution. I fix my eye upon it, I stay my hand and gently apply my blade until with a hwah the part yields like earth crumbling to the ground. Then I take out my chopper and stand up and look around, and pause, until with an air of triumph I wipe my chopper and put it away."

"Bravo!" cried the prince. "From the words of this cook I have learned how to take care of my life."

Awkwardly Put.

London Opinion: The chairman (finishing up eulogistic speech): "Our dear old friend here has lived among us for forty years, is living with us now, and as he says, hopes to live among us for many years to come. Gentlemen, I can only add that we are looking forward to burying him here!"

MINNESOTA OPINIONS.

The Farmer Is Rich.

Little Falls Transcript: They do say that Minnesota farms have Wall Street down, gagged and almost choked to death when it comes to a comparison of the wealth of the two as represented in dollar values.

Boost For County Fairs.

Gheen Record: The county fairs in Minnesota this fall promise to be better than at any time in their history—a condition of which the state may well be proud. Under the inspiration of increased state aid the county fair is fast becoming what it should be. Farmers are beginning to see in the county fair a chance to learn more about livestock, farm machinery, seeds, etc.

Mark Both Choices.

St. Peter Free Press: There has been a good deal said in opposition to casting the second choice vote at the coming primary. Our advice is not to miss casting it. In all probability none of the gubernatorial candidates will get a majority on the first choice vote and in that event the second choice will decide the contest. Be sure and mark both first and second choice.

Long Time to Wait.

Sauk Centre Herald: The plentitude and quality of the rye that's being harvested hereabouts this year ought to insure a fine brand of distillery product in about twenty years.

The Spuds are Growing.

Hibbing Tribune: Those Southern Minnesota statesmen who said that the range country would soon be nothing but a "lot of unsightly holes in the ground" ought to see the potato fields on the range this year. There are thousands of them and the crop is looking fine and what they don't know about us at the southern end of this state would fill more holes than we have been able to dig yet.

Hope Springs Eternal.

Politicians are promising "reapportionment at the next session." It is to be hoped that they will make good on some of these promises for Northern Minnesota is clearly entitled to reapportionment and people are getting tired of promises poorly kept.

It Will Be Tried.

Winona Republican: The prospects are good that this presidential year there will be no attempt to frighten voters from support of any candidate by prediction of dire business reverses to follow his election.

Good Suggestion.

Preston Times: There is a lot of good sense in the suggestion of Mr. Berger, the lone Socialist congressman, that the government should make provision to put the idle workmen of the country at making public roads at times of business stagnation. It would serve a twofold purpose, improve our roads, which sadly need improvement, and keep want from the door of those who are willing to work but cannot find it when the wheels of industry are moving slowly. As well build roads as battleships so far as the cost is concerned and the former is of infinitely more benefit to the country.

Business Enlightenment.

Collier's: The argument against Wilson was expected to be a scare. Where is it? The business men are showing friendliness to him. In the past the possessors of wealth really believed that if a few men were not encouraged with special privileges nobody would use his capital and nobody would be allowed to work. Take away honest and dishonest graft and the world would cease to revolve upon its axis. Such minds naturally deal in the absolute. They might well not see the Democrats and Woodrow Wilson doing away first, against great opposition, with a few of the worst tariff swindles, but paint in crimson colors a complete and sudden plunge into free trade. Of course we all know that it will be hard enough to get even a few of the most trust-breeding and price-raising schedules changed, but we are children, not easily affected by loud treats and deadly prophecies and a few factories conveniently shut down to teach the public to think. Some men are able to see clearly, even when they enjoy privileges, but in the past they have been few. The powers of privilege are not saying that Wilson threatens the very structure of the universe. Their mental habits are not so stereotyped as we thought. They know, of course, that once the tariff had been improved they would adopt it, as they did in railroad rebates, eight-hour laws, municipal ownership of gas and water, protection of women and children in factories, employers' liability acts, public-service commissions; as they did in universal suffrage and the divinity of kings; but we expected the dread first, and thought Wilson's reliance would have to be the favorite proverb of Sancho Panza: "Yesterday for you, today for me;" yesterday for privileges that have built up mighty fortunes, political corruption, and public timidity, now changing into public wrath: today, or perhaps tomorrow, for those who seek a slight approach to fairness upon this earth. Well, we were mistaken. Business, apparently, in the main, approves of Wilson. Why? We believe business has reached two very sensible conclusions. It has decided that work should and must go on, regardless of legislation, and times have been improving right through the political fury of recent months. It has decided also that readjustment of our legal, social, and industrial situation, to meet our ideas of justice, is inevitable and might as well be helped. Business men since the war have in the main been preoccupied with money making. They have been, on the whole, the ablest Americans; and their ability is now apparently to be more broadly used; they are going to continue to make money, while at the same time helping us to give stability to our civilization by giving justice to it.

Particeps Criminis.

Norfolk Virginian Pilot: The Indiana bank teller who hanged himself the other day, leaving a shortage in his accounts of something like fifteen thousand dollars, received, it now develops, a salary of $65 the month. On that munificent income he maintained a home and kept an automobile.

Thievery is, of course, always indefensible, but who shall say that the employers in this instance were not particeps criminis? The statement of the directors to the effect that they thought he had an outside revenue in no wise lessens the measure of their responsibility for the teller's untimely end or for the loss incurred by the institution which they are supposed to direct. The laborer is worthy of his hire, regardless of his financial condition. To pay an employe less than his services are worth because it is thought that he does not need more is to take a mean and parsimonious advantage; to give him the wages of a hod carrier, while granting him access to a bankful of money, is to put before him both the temptation and the incentive to yield to it.

Buying Foreign Sunshine.

National Magazine: The United States is paying $100,000,000 or more every year for foreign sunshine, this amount being paid out for foreign-grown sugar, which is only carbon, hydrogen and oxygen, and comes from the wind, rain and sunshine which sweeps over the fields. There is no reason why this sugar should not be grown within the United States. In that case the $100,000,000 that now goes abroad every year to pay for sugar would be distributed at home among American farmers and workmen and transportation companies. More important still, it would lead to a great improvement in agricultural conditions and an immense increase in farm yields, so that in this way it would benefit every citizen of the country.

Song for the New Party.

My country, 'tis of Me,
Sweet land of Mostly Me,
Of Me I yell,
Land to which I am sent,
Beyond all argument,
Choose me for President
Or go to—well.

—Hartford Courant.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Secretary John W. Noble of the interior department was in the city yesterday, accompanied by his wife. They had been enjoying fishing at the Brule and are now on their way to the Pacific coast. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bailey while in Duluth.

At a meeting of the West Duluth council last night, L. W. McManus and J. J. Frey were appointed members of the board of health.

Perry & Cochrane have bought the commission business of H. D. Hall at West Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Niggler of Two Harbors and Mrs. Spillman of Elizabeth, Minn., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Field.

Dr. Graham, wife and family, M. J. Davis and wife, Charles Gray and wife, Charles Wachtel and wife, F. H. Segrist and wife and probably Dr. Bridgeman and wife will leave on the Booth steamer H. R. Dixon tomorrow to make the grand tour of Isle Royale.

The first meeting of the new school board was held last evening in the Central high school building. The old officers were elected as follows: President, W. E. Richardson; secretary, Alfred Le Richeux; treasurer, F. W. Paine; clerk, H. W. Pearson; superintendent, R. E. Denfeld. The bids for constructing the new Jefferson school were rejected, as all were considered too high. The bid of A. V. Kelly & Co., at $84,000 was the lowest. Miss L. K. Noyes was granted a year's leave of absence.

E. Fredell, a carpenter employed by N. B. O'Meara on East Fifth street, fell from the second story of a building yesterday, breaking his collar bone and sustaining other injuries.

Leon Shaw left today for a European trip of three months.

About 200 of the laborers who are employed by the Duluth Street Railway company on extensions to the line struck for $2 a day yesterday. They have been getting $1.75.

J. L. Williams returned this morning from the Nipegon river, where he was fishing for a week. The other members of his party, James C. Hunter, Otto Hartman, D. R. Forgan of Minneapolis and Nick Millar are still there.

PINHEAD POLITICS.

New York World: Governor Wilson is already suffering the petty degradations that busybodies inflict on a presidential candidate. His wife is obliged to deny that she favors cigarette-smoking by women. If she had not thought it proper to deny this for her own sake, the governor's managers would probably have had to deny it for her, in order to save the anti-woman's-cigarette-smoking vote. As it is, there are grave fears that the denial has alienated the cigarette-suffragette vote.

Wilson managers are preparing briefs to demonstrate that he has never persecuted Roman Catholics, and other briefs to demonstrate that he does not favor them above all other men. They will have to furnish documentary evidence that he never believed any immigrant from Southeastern Europe to be base or mean, or smash goes the entire Italian-Hungarian-Polish-Servian-Bulgarian-Montenenegrin vote. But eureka! in escaping this danger he will not have to sacrifice the Chinese laundrymen's vote, for they have no vote.

Stump speakers will lay stress on the fact that the governor has a colored butler and therefore is deserving of the whole negro vote. Princeton men will be exhorted to vote for him for the sake of old Nassau. Secret-fraternity men will be organized to vote implacably against him because he was rude to them at Princeton. The Scotch-Virginian vote is for him because his ancestors came from Scotland and he was born in Virginia.

And so it goes, until at times it looks as if the only vote in the country which did not matter was the American vote, but in reality all this catering by politicians to narrow cliques will not make a ripple on the result.

The American people have developed beyond the influence of such parochial politics. They elect or defeat presidents these days on public principles, not on private prejudices.

Accustom a Child to Be Alone.

Robert M. Gay in the Atlantic Monthly: Thackeray has somewhere spoken of the advantage of turning a boy, or girl, loose in a library and letting him read what he pleases, and has counseled us to trust that the immature mind will keep what is good for it and reject the bad. There is a great deal to be said for the theory. We, at least, might learn to leave our children alone more than we do. There is a perversity in the infant mind that makes it hostile to formal teaching, and it very early generates a function for ejecting what it learns but finds unpalatable. We sometimes forget, however, that this function coexists with a thirst for knowledge that will make any information palatable if it is properly presented.

I studied botany for a year in school under a teacher so naturally anhydrous herself that she rendered all her surroundings dry. The consequence was that I so thoroughly detested botany that at the end of the term I could not tell a petiole from a pistil. But one rainy day, ransacking an old trunk in the attic for mysteries, I came upon an antique botanical textbook that, I have no doubt, my mother had detested as a girl.

The musty volume—I have always loved the smell of an old book—somehow aroused my interest, however, and I pored over its wood cuts and descriptions for the rest of the afternoon. What attracted me most were the allusions to the part insects play in the economy of fertilization—a subject, as I now know, that, at the time that the book was written, was just beginning to arouse a great deal of interest. By the time that the rain stopped I had learned what a stamen is and what a pistil, and how to name a plant by counting these organs.

It is a good thing to accustom a child early to be alone. It is in the long glorious hours of solitary play that he does his hardest thinking. For him as for us the world may be too much with him. If we could but learn merely to supply him the incentive in the form of book or garden or personal suggestion, and then leave the leaven to work. If we elders could but have a little more faith in nature, a little more strength to efface ourselves and let our children alone. Here is an element of education that all the textbooks seem to have overlooked. If we could but learn—well, some day we shall, perhaps.

The Ideal Newspaper.

Boston Globe: Occasionally it becomes the duty of a practical editor to give to the very intelligent and impractical people who are always demanding an ideal newspaper a very common sense reson why it will never be published.

And the reason is based on a few questions like these:

Has anybody ever seen or heard of an ideal minister?

Has anybody ever seen or heard of an ideal college president?

Has anybody ever seen or heard of an ideal doctor?

Has anybody ever seen or heard of an ideal banker?

Has anybody ever seen or heard of an ideal lawyer?

Has anybody ever seen or heard of an ideal merchant?

We are decidedly of the opinion that a loud and emphatic "no" is the answer to each question.

Why?

Because the representatives of the callings named are all human, with the usual number of virtues and faults. And editors, being human, are in the same class. Therefore, when the world is peopled by angels and the newspapers are controlled by archangels, we shall see the ideal newspaper, and not until then.

Paying Their Way In.

Youth's Companion: The young couple had taken a house in the suburbs of Boston for the summer, and they were besieged with company.

The men were enjoying the cool of the evening on the piazza, when one of the party remarked to his host:

"Do you know, Fred, there's something the matter with your front gate? It took all my strength to open it. It needs oiling, or shaving, or something."

"Neither one, old man; it's all right. Everyone who comes through that gate pumps two buckets of water into the tank up there on the hill."

PERKINS, TRUST BOOSTER.

Philadelphia Ledger: The consolidation of Mr. Roosevelt, the whilom trust-buster, and George W. Perkins, trust promoter, into one harmonious working force in a platform for the propagation of discontent and the promotion of the consequent socialism, is one of the weird manifestations that would cause predictions if Mother Shipton were alive or seers and wizards were not hotly pursued by the police.

George W. Perkins is a member of the executive board of what is called in the West the most agile and voracious octopus—the harvester trust; a member of the executive board of the Steel trust, and during Roosevelt's tenancy of the White House was the representative of the Morgan interests who cajoled and threatened the colonel when the suit against the harvester trust was withheld. It was questioned whether it would be wise to have Mr. Perkins closely associated with the progressive campaign, but William Allen White of Kansas said the colonel wished Mr. Perkins to be in the commanding position of chairman of the progressive executive committee, and "that settled it." Mr. Perkins will be the power behind the throne.

Mr. Roosevelt declared at Chicago that both the old parties are "bess-ridden, privilege-controlled, each a jumble of incongruous elements." The congruity of an alliance between Mr. Roosevelt, who wishes to effect a wider distribution of "prosperity," and Mr. Perkins, master mind of the harvester trust, whose operations among the farmers of the West are supposed to have been the stimulus of the growth of the insurgent movement, is not readily apparent, unless Mr. Perkins, in addition to the financing of the third party campaign, proposes to make restitution. Nothing less is to be expected from him on a platform which promises to bring general health to the "subjects" of the realm by act of congress, to make every tenant farmer the owner of the property, and to make prosperity for every inhabitant so general and easy to attain that it will become common and undesired.

It Never Can Happen Again.

Collier's: Six years ago it was possible to take some glucose, add sugar coloring matter and other adulterants, and sell it as pure pure Vermont maple sugar.

In 1902 more than one-half the members of congress, more than one-half the senators of the United States, more than two-thirds of the members of the various state legislatures, and public men of high and low degree all carried passes on the railroads and assented to the implied obligation thereby assumed.

On Jan. 4, 1903, fifty members of congress recommended Peruna, each with a signed testimonial, all grouped in a full-page advertisement in the large newspapers of the country.

Six years ago, when a president of the United States tried to make a combination of Republicans and Democrats to pass a railroad rate bill, he considered it necessary to work in secret, and when the arrangement was discovered everybody involved acted like persons caught in a scandal. Today no stigma attaches to a man who votes outside his party on a question of principle.

Ten years ago the president of a great life insurance company, ambitious to be ambassador to France, gave a lavish public dinner to a French actress and paid for it with the policyholders' money.

Twenty years ago a large portion of the party politics of the Republicans in congress consisted of waving the bloody shirt, of supporting force bills, and in general acting toward the South with that same vindictive hate which made the Reconstruction period the most detestable episode in American history. Today there remains but one United States senator who acts toward the South other than with respect and consideration.

The Englishman Was Puzzled.

Kansas City Star: "In St. Louis a few years ago," said a Kansas City man, "I took a dignified Englishman to his first ball game. Big-good-natured Robinson was catching. Behind him and near us a youth of about 12 was delivering a choice variety of rooting from the grandstand, to the evident puzzlement of my companion. 'Good boy, Robby!' was a frequent cry of the youngster.

"Restraining his curiosity for a time, finally, on inquiry, the Briton learned that probably no acquaintance existed between the catcher and the lad. 'Dear me!' he ejacuated, 'what assurance for that small boy to address that large gentleman so familiarly!'

"Shortly afterward the players surrounded the umpire, gesticulating angrily in dispute over a decision.

"'What is it?' the visitor asked.

"'They're kicking at the umpire,' I explained.

"'Fancy that!' said he, 'but, don't you know, I have not seen a man lift his foot.'"

Taxation.

Washington Star: "In what respect do you complain of being overtaxed?" asked the persuasive campaigner.

"Well," replied Farmer Corntossel, handing him several pages of literature, "chiefly in respect to my credulity."

Happy Guy.

Old Noah had his woes, but still,
What more could mortal wish
Than lean upon his window sill
And fish and fish and fish?

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating."

A range that will give good service first, last and always, is surely the range for you.

Almost any range will cook fairly well at first—will look well—but may be disappointing when you thoroughly investigate it, and see how it is made. A range may be either an asset or liability—a source of gain or loss. It may do its work in the MONARCH way—cooking and baking with real satisfaction, day in and day out with a satisfactory fuel bill—or, in the ordinary way—indifferent cooking with large fuel bills.

Let us show you conclusively why you can't afford NOT to have a

MONARCH MALLEABLE RANGE

Allow us to demonstrate WHY the Monarch will give as good service after ten or fifteen years of constant use as when new. BRAKEMAN DUFF DIES OF INJURY

Popular Employe of Northern Pacific Succombs After Fall.

Staples, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. C. Duff of this city died at the Brainerd hospital on Wednesday evening. Mr. Duff was one of the well known brakemen of the Northern Pacific railway and met with an accident while "braking" in the yards at Detroit. The train was switching in the yards at night and was signaled to make a drop. The train crew noticed that Duff's light went out and after waiting a short time started an investigation and found he had fallen from the top of a freight car and fractured his skull. In some unaccountable way he had fallen head first from the car and had struck one of the switches.

The Duluth train was held till 5 o'clock the next morning so that the injured man might be conveyed to the hospital. Mr. Duff did not regain consciousness though every effort was made to save his life. The remains will be interred in the cemetery at Winona.

SEIDEL RAPS ROOSEVELT.

Ex-Mayor Says Ex-President Is Humbug and Nature Faker.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 16.—Emil Seidel, candiadte for vice president on the Socialist ticket, bitterly arraigned Colonel Roosevelt in an address here last night. Mr. Seidel declared that the attacks on Socialism appearing in the columns of a magazine with which Col. Roosevelt is connected are nothing more than "Roosevelt humbug" and the colonel himself merely a nature faker.

Mr. Seidel denounced both the Democratic and Republican parties declaring there was no difference in them so far as the common people are concerned.

He discussed the Sherman anti-trust law and spoke of its application in a number of trust cases during the past few months.

"The present plan of smashing the trust is of no avail," said Mr. Seidel. "The more you smash them the richer they get."

Mr. Seidel will address meetings at Minot and Williston ntoday.

PINIONED UNDER CAR.

Chippewa Falls Women Have Very Close Call.

Hudson, Wis., Aug. 16.—An automobile driven by Earl Barker of Chippewa Falls, who was accompanied by Mrs. Barker and Mrs. E. E. Nussle, Jr., went over an embankment nine miles east of this place last night. Mr. Barker jumped and escaped injury. The two women were pinned under the car, which took fire, but they were rescued, although one of Mrs. Nussle's arms was broken and she was seriously burned. She will recover.

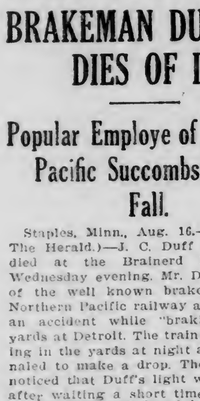

STOP PUMPING SOON.

Farmers Around Williston, N. D., Criticizes Department's Action.

Williston, N. D., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Officials in charge of the government irrigation project at this place have received word to close the season Aug. 31 and remove the pumping barge from the river. This cuts the season for pumping down to practically one month, as no water was needed until the latter part of July, when the first crop of alfalfa was cut. The second crop cannot be cut in time to irrigate before the close, and none of the land under crop can be watered for September plowing.

Many of the farmers of the community are inclined to believe that Washington authorities are acting blindly in the matter.

BICYCLIST HIT BY STREET CAR

Losing control of his bicycle while riding on Superior street last evening, Sievert Romenstedt, 24 years old, ran into an eastbound street car at Twenty-first avenue west. The young man was first taken to a physician's office but was later removed to St. Luke's hospital.

The accident happened at 8 o'clock. Romenstedt was going west and suddenly lost control of the front wheel, throwing him into an eastbound car. Romenstedt was badly bruised about the head and body and after being treated was taken to the hospital. The attending physician stated this morning that the young man will recover.

Romenstedt's bicycle was smashed in the accident. The young man was lucky in escaping from serious injury, as he struck the side of the car, instead of the front. Romenstedt lives at 2714 West Michigan street.

MOTOR TRUCK IS MADE HERE

First Automobile to Be Manufactured in Duluth Is Completed.

Martin Falk, president of the Martin Falk Paper company, 2203 West First street, has built the first Duluth-made motor truck. Mr. Falk was assisted by several men in his employ.

The various parts of the large truck were brought from the Eastern manufacturers and assembled by Mr. Falk and his assistants. The motor is a Beaver from Milwaukee, and was also installed by Mr. Falk. The body of the machine was made in Duluth and put together in the stockroom of the West end store.

The truck will be sent to Minneapolis in a few days and will be used by the branch office there. For Duluth Mr. Falk has a Wilcox truck, which he purchased two years ago for $2,750.

The machine is of 36-horse power. Although Mr. Falk is unable to state exactly what the truck cost him to manufacture, he said yesterday that such a machine would easily bring $3,000.

CHURCH WOMEN ANNOUNCE PROGRAM FOR THE YEAR.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Central Baptist church, Twentieth avenue west and First street, has announced its program of meetings for the remainder of the present year. The societies have not held any meetings during the summer.

The first meeting will be held by the ladies' aid society of the church Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 4, in the church parlors. Mesdames Curry and Murphy will be the hostesses for the afternoon. Besides the ladies' aid society, the auxiliary includes also the mission circle and the mothers' society. The meetings up to Jan. 1, 1913, are as follows:

Oct. 2—Ladies' aid. Hostesses, Mrs. Hanson and Mrs. Bergdoff.

Oct. 16—Mision circle; subject, "Buddhism." Leader, Mrs. Gunther; hostesses, Mrs. A. Campbell and Mrs. Gilliland.

Oct. 30—Mothers' meeting, in the church. Leader, Mrs. E. E. Churchill.

Nov. 6—Ladies' aid.

Nov. 20—Mission circle; subject, "Animism and Taoism." Leader, Mrs. Hutchinson; hostesses, Mrs. Glover and Mrs. Horton.

Dec. 4—Ladies' aid, annual meeting. Hostesses, Mrs. Mentzer and Mrs. Downie.

Dec. 18—Mission circle; subject, "Confucianism." Leader, Mrs. Jewell; hostesses, Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. Hutchinson.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Central Baptist church has a membership of nearly 100 women, all of whom are taking an active interest in church and civic affairs. The officers of the auxiliary are: Mrs. George B. Jewell, president; Mrs. F. G. Hanson, first vice president; Mrs. J. D. McPhail, second vice president, and Mrs. E. E. Churchill, third vice president. Each vice president has charge of one of the auxiliary societies during the year.

ANNUAL OUTING OF WEST END CLUB.

The Minnekahda club of the West end is holding its annual outing this week at Smithville. About twenty members of the organization are in the party.

The Minnekahda club is a social body organized two years ago by a number of West end young people. During the year the members give a number of dances, parties, informal gatherings and outings. There are fifty active members of the club at the present time.

The officers of the club are: Cyrus Olson, president; Luke Flood, vice president; W. E. Downie, secretary; A. C. Swanson, treasurer; Edward Flood, sergeant-at-arms; Carl Roske and Arthur Roske, sentinels, and William Kennedy, Luke Walla and Orlando Olson, property men.

French Club Will Meet.

The French Naturalization club will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening at the St. Jean Baptiste hall, Twenty-fifth avenue west and Third street. The various candidates for county commissioner in the Third district have been invited to attend the meeting and explain their platforms to the members of the club. Following the meeting a smoker and social hour will be enjoyed.

Carlson Funeral.

The funeral of Elizabeth Carlson, 20 years old, 2006 West Sixth street, who died at St. Luke's hospital Wednesday afternoon, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Olson & Crawford undertaking rooms, 2118 West First street. Rev. W. E. Harmann of St. Peter's Episcopal church officiated and interment was at the Lutheran cemetery.

Pastor Recovering.

Rev. B. B. Hanscome, pastor of the Clement's Mission M. E. church, 830 Garfield avenue, will return tomorrow from Eveleth and will preach at both services Sunday. Mr. Hanscome underwent a serious operation at St. Luke's hospital several weeks ago and has been recuperating at the home of his uncle in Eveleth. He will have charge of the pastorate for the remainder of the summer, after which he will again take up his work at Hamline university. Mr. Hanscome was given the pastorate of the local church during his summer vacation, following the recent death of Rev. J. A. Roberts.

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL HOLD MEETING.

Some important business will be taken up at the meeting of the West End Commercial club this evening, owing to the fact that the members have not met for the past two weeks.

Among the principal subjects to be taken up will be the prize gardens, the white way, the paving of First street, the new public market place and the publicity campaign. Arrangements are to be made this evening for a mass meeting to be held Friday, when candidates for county commissioner in the Third district will be invited to speak.

Gwiward Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Adeline Gwiward, 64 years old, 2816 West Second street, who died at midnight Wednesday after a short illness, will be held at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning from the St. Jean Baptiste Catholic church, Twenty-fifth avenue west and Third street. Interment will be at Calvary.

Tent Services.

Rev. H. Holm of Hayward, Wis., preached last evening at the tent services held at Thirty-ninth avenue west and Third street. This evening Rev. Edward Erickson, pastor of the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, who is in charge of the series of tent meetings for the coming month, will preach. Last evening Rev. Erickson preached at Fond du Lac.

At First Swedish Baptist Church.

Rev. L. W. Linder of the Bethel Baptist church will speak at the First Swedish Baptist church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, next Sunday afternoon. The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the church will hold its regular monthly meeting at 4 o'clock Sunday, after which Rev. Mr. Linder will speak.

West End Briefs.

Miss Edith Elmquist of 2714 West Huron street left yesterday for a short visit with relatives at Fargo, N. D.

C. E. Wester, Sunday school missionary for Northeastern Minnesota, returned yesterday from Grand Lake, where he conducted gospel meetings the first part of the week.

Rev. George E. Silloway of the Grace M. E. church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, conducted the weekly prayer meeting last evening.

Mrs. J. Dahle of Grand Forks, N. D., is a guest this week at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. Wulfsburg, 418 North Twenty-seventh avenue west.

Oscar Lillgren of Grand Lake, Minn., was a West end visitor yesterday.

Mrs. R. Viren and children of West Second street returned yesterday from a two weeks' visit with relatives at Grand Lake, Minn.

The Rebecca Guild of St. Peter's Episcopal church, Twenty-eighth avenue west and First street, held a lawn social in front of the church last evening.

The Sunday school teachers of the Bethany Swedish Lutheran church, Twenty-third avenue west and Third street, will hold a special meeting in the church parlors this evening.

STAPLES POLICE QUITE EFFICENT

Campaign for Law Enforcement in Todd County City Bears Fruit.

Staples, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The citizens of Staples have started a campaign for cleanliness and law enforcement to result in better conditions for citizens and business. The police force was under stringent supervision for some time and the department is now as efficient as any. So stringent are the officials that Staples has gained the name of a city that is not friendly to the hobo and they either go straight through or drop off outside of the city limits. The police force have had their share of the supervision of the saloons. Many complaints have been raised because of these places and their management. A number have been under suspicion of selling liquor to minors and on complaint of a number of citizens an investigation was started. Many of the saloons found that they would have difficulty in renewing their licenses. The council had many stormy sessions before their requests were granted and then only under direct promise of the proprietors to live up to the law, were they given the renewal of their license.

Parents Sent for Liquor.

A number of the saloons claimed that the parents sent their children to the saloons after liquor and even requested them to deliver the goods to their children. This fact has been dealt with severely for it is against the state law. It is expected that this practice will be stopped at once, for the city officials have put all of the places under strict orders to live up to the law or have their license revoked.

FIRST NORTH DAKOTA SOIL SURVEY WORK.

Valley City, N. D., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Barnes county's soil survey, which has been under way since last year, will be completed this fall. This will be the first county in the state to have such a survey, and the benefits expected from the work are many.

When the report is made, the county will be in possession of accurate information concerning the soils of every quarter section of land in the entire county. The soil survey has included the condition of the farms, the road-building elements, and all features that go towards the making up of the county's productiveness.

The state survey board, which is in charge of the work, has been assisted by federal surveying authorities.

WHAT CHANCE HAS MERE MAN IN SUCH CASES?

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 16.—If John M. Slaton is the next governor of Georgia he will owe it to his wife. He acknowledges that it was to oblige her that he consented to enter the race. And Mrs. Slaton herself confirms it.

"Tell you exactly how it came about," said Slaton, at his country home on Peachtree road. "We had talked over officeholding many times—Mrs. Slaton and her mother, Mrs. Grant, and myself—and their ambition, naturally, was for me. I told them I was perfectly satisfied with the honors the people of Georgia had already conferred upon me and that I'd like to keep my law practice, particularly as it helps out considerably in paying bills.

"But Mrs. Slaton would turn to Mrs. Grant and say that, of course, they wouldn't need those lilac curtains for the guest room or the dinner set they'd been looking at if I wasn't going to be a candidate—and Mrs. Grant would look at me with a look of wonder, and finally Mrs. Slaton said that I'd got to run for governor, because she wanted me to.

"So, I'm running. What are you going to do when you're a prisoner both to a wife and her mother?"

SECOND COLLEGE BEING AGITATED

Southwestern North Dakota Methodists Are Considering the Idea.

Jamestown, N. D., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Southwestern North Dakota Methodists who are seeking to establish a second Methodist college in the state will meet in Bismarck Aug. 20 for the purpose of taking the initiatory steps. The commission appointed recently at the Jamestown camp meeting, charged with the duty of conducting the preliminary work, will meet in Bismarck at that time and will organize.

It is expected that the commission will go so far as to consider tenders of sites for the college, expecting offers will be submitted from various of the cities on the Missouri slope and the central southern section of the state. Jamestown, Bismarck, Mandan, Dickinson and several other cities will make bids for the new college.

At the state Methodist conference held last year in Grand Forks, the proposition of establishing a new college was voted down. The southwestern people made an effort at that time to secure favorable consideration for the movement.

ROOSEVELT GOING WEST.

Will Speak at Progressive State Convention at Seattle.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 16.—Theodore Roosevelt will attend the Progressive state convention in Seattle, Sept. 10, and make an address. Senator Dixon, the Progressive national chairman, has sent this word to Progressive leaders in Seattle.

Johnson Coming East.

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 16.—Governor Johnson will start East about Aug. 27 for thirty days, to devote himself to the campaign of the new Progressive party, of which he is the candidate for vice president. He said it was expected Col. Roosevelt would come West in that time.

ATTEMPTS HIS LIFE.

Negaunee Man Who Figured in Murder, Cuts Throat.

Ishpeming, Mich., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Edward Lahti attempted suicide Wednesday afternoon in the home of Oscar Saline, on East Pearl street. He cut a gash about two inches in length in his throat, severing the windpipe, and it is not expected that he will live. He was taken to the Ishpeming hospital.

Lahti was the mysterious man in the murder case in Negaunee a year ago. When the officers were trying to round up the witnesses, Lahti could not be located, but he returned to Negaunee before the trial. He has been making his home in the two cities most of the time for the past six years, and is well known, especially to the Finnish people. He has been a hard drinker and he had consumed an unusual amount of liquor in the past two or three weeks. He worked in the woods for a time prior to three weeks ago, when he returned to the city. He is about 27 years of age.

NORTH DAKOTA TAX COMMISSION IS BUSY.

Bismarck, N. D., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The North Dakota tax commission, recently organized, is finding much to demand its attention, and two interesting cases have already been submitted, bearing upon the manner of making assessments in two different localities in the state.

One complaint arises from Williston, where there has been a heated controversy over the matter of making the city assessment. L. E. Birdzell, one of the commission members, conducted a hearing at Williston, and the testimony has been submitted to the full board. When the decision is made, the findings will be submitted to the board of equalization.

In Dunn county, a second complaint has arisen over the manner in which farm properties have been assessed. It is claimed that all lands, irrespective of their producing powers, have been assessed at the same rate. George Wallace is making an investigation of the situation there.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

VERY BUSY WITH GRAIN

Red River Farmers Working Long Hours to Harvest Crops.

Crookston, Minn., Aug. 16.—The advent of fine weather has made it possible for the Red river valley farmers to get to work again in full force in their wheat fields and if good weather continues there will be little grain left standing by Saturday night, and harvest will be generally finished by the middle of next week.

Traction engines are pulling as high as five binders and every available horse is hitched to a binder. Thrashing was resumed yesterday. One farmer reported a yield of 22 bushels of rye per acre, 41 of barley and 38 of oats. Another reported 18½ of rye, 39 of barley and 42 of oats, and a third 21 of rye, 35 of barley and 32 of oats. No wheat has been thrashed. Many farmers have started plowing their thrashed rye and barley fields.

Farm Help in Demand.

Harvest and thrashing help is at a premium. Small towns surrounding Crookston are telephoning in for from 25 to 100 men each, and there are no men available. Five hundred men can find work out of Crookston from now until it freezes up at from $2.50 to $3 per day. The farmers are hoping for the earnest co-operation of the Twin Cities and Duluth to help supply this demand, for the men are needed at once in order to take advantage of the present good weather. Thrashing machines will start at once in every locality if the necessary men are available.

North Dakota Harvest on.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Harvesting is in full swing in North Dakota, the past few days having afforded excellent opportunity for work. Following the long spell of wet weather, the farmers had become exceedingly anxious to get at their grain, and they are losing no time reaping it.

At the Elk Valley farm near Larimore, in the western part of Grand Forks county, twenty-seven binders are being operated from early morning till late at night. One run of the binders down the side of a field cuts a swath of about 200 feet, so that the rapidity with which the grain on that big farm will be cut is quite evident.

Thrashing operations on the O'Connor farm, south of Grand Forks, have been completed so far as winter rye and barley are concerned. The rye went 26 bushels an acre, while the barley ran 35 bushels an acre.

EXTENSION WORK OF STATE SCHOOL

Much Valuable Information Has Been Given on Farming Work.

Crookston, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Superintendent C. G. Selvig today made public his report of the extension work of the Crookston state school of agriculture. The various communities are just grasping the value of this great assistance which is available and are availing themselves of the privileges offered. The members of the school corps have been called upon to conduct the judging of stock, grains, fruits, vegetables, as well as industrial exhibits at the fairs of the northwestern counties, most of which are held early, before harvest.

There is also a surprising increase in the number of healthy, thriving, progressive farmers' clubs in this section, mostly due to the state school here. They hold frequent meetings when some certain subject is announced for consideration and discussion. Meetings of farmers' club have been held at Strathcona, Erskine, Karlstad, Stephen, Fosston, Wolverton, McIntosh, Winsow, Lengby, Gatzke, Newfolden, Viking and other Minnesota points and at McCanna, N. D., and students at the school are instrumental in arousing interest and organization. These organizations are the most fruitful of any for direct good results to the farmers who attend.

Addressed Many Farmers.

Acting in co-operation with the extension division of the agricultural college at St. Anthony Park, the state department of public instruction, St. Paul, and with the county superintendents of schools in this section of the state, Superintendent Selvig has addressed a large number of farmers and teachers meetings on topics of interest and value in connection with rural life and education, and as a result there is a strong growing sentiment recognizing a new dignity attached to the work of the progressive farmer, and an added importance to the work of the progressive teacher who becomes a real factor in the better development and upbuilding of the community in which the teacher labors.

A great deal of valuable work has also been done in the various short courses held in this section of the state. In all 120 engagements at county fairs, short courses and farmers' clubs were filled by Superintendent Selvig and his corps, including Professors Billsborrow, Brown, Baxter, Sargent and McCall and Misses Franklin and Rowe. The school has made known its willingness to assist on all such occasions and here a wide field of usefulness is opening up as the farmers' clubs are organized for discussion of vital problems, the solving of which means a general uplift and relief that is remarkable, adding new attractions to rural life.

NEW CATHEDRAL MAKES PROGRESS

Crookston, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The new cathedral, to cost complete close to $100,000, is progressing rapidly and will be ready for occupancy about the first of October. The brickwork will be finished within a week. The big bell, weighing over three tons and costing nearly $2,000, will be publicly consecrated by Bishop Corbett, with about thirty sponsors surrounding it, next Sunday. The spire of the edifice will tower 175 feet, overtopping everything in the city, and the bell can be heard distinctly a distance of ten miles.

The new convent of the Sisters of St. Joseph is also nearing completion. This building, in the heart of the best residence district of the city, will cost about $60,000, and, supplementing the Cathedral High school, which opened last year, will make excellent facilities for education in a denominational institution of learning of the Catholic faith. The convent will be ready for occupancy in the winter and school will open in the old building.

BIG CUTOVER TRACT TO BE COLONIZED

21,000 Acres in Clearwater and Hubbard County to Be Sold.

Bemidji, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Announcement is made that 21,000 acres of cutover land in Clearwater and Hubbard counties from seventeen to twenty-five miles southwest of Bemidji, owned by the Red River Lumber company, a T. B. Walker & Sons property, will be opened at once for settlement, with J. J. Opsahl of this city as the colonization manager. The land is to be sold in forty and eighty-acre tracts, each to front on graded or laid out roads. The prices are to range from $4.50 to $10 an acre and on the forty-acre tracts $20 is to be paid down, another $20 in six months and a third $20 at the end of a year, ten years' time being given on the balance. As an additional inducement to settlers the lumber company will furnish on $8 to $10 land four cows on eighty acres or forty sheep on eighty acres. The tract is said to excell in dairying possibilities. Six schools are already in operation.

To test the soil and demonstrate the value of alfalfa, the company, two years ago, distributed $500 worth of Grimm alfalfa seed with a result that much alfalfa is being grown.

Mr. Opsahl spent Wednesday in Akeley and Thursday at Mallard, perfecting the colonization plans.

At present the Walker mill at Akeley has only enough saw logs in sight to continue the mill for a couple of years, and it is because of the short life of the lumber industry that the lumbermen decided to promote agricultural development.

INSOLENT BLACK GETS FORTY DAYS

International Falls, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—A negro bootblack called "Count," who keeps a shining parlor, was sent to jail for twenty-five days because he did not have $40 to pay his fine. The charge against him was insulting a white woman.

The first election in the new village of South International Falls will be held on next Tuesday. At a caucus held Monday the following candidates were nominated for office: President of board of trustees, H. T. Crawford; trustees, Allen Spencer, Clyde West, Carl Hanson; clerk, George Dillworth; constables, Fred Hamm, Peter Richardson; justice of the peace, Emil Barrenfelt, Frank Watson.

New Street Commissioner.

Charles Hall was appointed street commissioner at the last council meeting to fill the vacancy made by John Berg, who will devote his time to politics. Mr. Berg will oppose R. T. Ellis for the office of judge of probate at the coming election.

George H. Snyder has deposited with Auditor Slocum the amount of money necessary to get his name placed on the primary ballot and will be a Republican candidate for the nomination. Richard Liljeblad is designated as Mr. Snyder's campaign manager.

TRAVELED OLD ROUTE.

Eastern People See Mementoes of Riel Rebellion.

International Falls, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The following young people who are enjoying an outing have just arrived from the East over the old Dawson route between here and Lake Superior: R. E. Rockwood, Columbus, Ohio; H. Duncombe, Jr., Chicago; C. D. Warner, St. Paul; Mr. Buck, Faribault; J. Theurer, Jr., Chicago.

The young men were seventeen days making the trip and thoroughly enjoyed it, as fishing was good and big game in evidence all along the way. So much have they seen many wrecks of the boats which were used in transporting the Canadian soldiers on their way West to quell the Riel rebellion, and this historic interest added to the pleasures of the trip.

DEER REPORTED THICK.

Sawyer County, Wis., Promises Great Sport for Nimrods.

Couderay, Wis., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Guides and timber cruisers report deer very plentiful all through this section. The deer wintered well and conditions for them have been ideal this summer as there has been no forest fires and wolves to drive them away, feed has been abundant and the deer are fat and sleek.

This will be good news for the hundreds of deer hunters from all parts of the state who hunt deer in southern Sawyer county every season.

HE WINKED AT GIRL.

This Resulted in Milwaukeean's Arrest and Cost Him Citizenship.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 16.—The cackling of geese saved Rome, a diet of friend onions cost Napoleon his empire and the stealthy droop of an eyelid lost Tony Salvatore his opportunity to become an American citizen. Tony has been in America fifteen years. One of his witnesses was asked if Tony had ever been arrested and answered that he had not. Tony had witness was mistaken. Tony had been in jail, and all because he winked at a girl.

"I am going by a factory one day," said Tony. "A lot of girls work there. I don't know them, but one girl smiles at me. I wink my eye. Then we go for a walk.

"Afterward, as I stand on the sidewalk, a cop comes along, he takes hold of my arm and tells me I am pinched. I ask him why, but he don't say anything, just takes me to the station. In the morning the girl comes before the judge and says I try to kiss her. It is not so, and I am let go, but now I can't get my papers, and I am out $20."

BOY IS DROWNED NEAR FERGUS FALLS.

Fergus Falls, Minn., Aug. 16.—Sylvan Rosmoss, 13 years old, son of Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Rosmoss of this city, was drowned at Wall lake, four miles east of here, while attending the Methodist Sunday school picnic Wednesday. The boy started to wade out to companions who were in a boat and came to a point where bottom dropped off suddenly and went down.

Woman's Realm

The Minnesota Women's Federated Clubs have arranged an elaborate program to be given on the state fair grounds, each day of the fair week, Sept. 2-7. Addresses will be delivered by some of the most prominent men and women in the state in the clubs' tent, which will be located at the east door of the Woman's building. There will be music every day.

Monday, Sept. 2, will be observed as Minnesota day. Governor A. O. Eberhart, Mrs. Edgar H. Loyhead, president of the federated clubs, and others will speak.

"The Health of the State" will be the subject of Tuesday's program, which will be participated in by Dr. F. F. Westbrook, president of the state board of health, Dr. H. M. Bracken, secretary of the board, and others.

"The Wealth of the State" will be discussed Wednesday by State Auditor S. G. Iverson and State Treasurer W. J. Smith.

The program on Thursday will deal with "The Children of the State." S. G. Schulz, superintendent of public instruction; Joseph R. Chapman, Jr., cashier of the Northwestern National bank, Minneapolis; Miss Fanny French Morse, superintendent of the girls' school at Sauk Center, and others will take part.

Friday will be devoted to "Farms of the State." State Immigration Commissioner H. J. Maxfield will talk on "Wild Land;" Prof. A. D. Wilson of the state experimental school on "Improved Land," and Mrs. C. J. Backus of St. Paul on "Forest Land."

"The University of Minnesota" will be discussed at Saturday's program. President Emeritus Cyrus Northrop will tell "What It Has Done," while President George E. Vincent will tell "What It Hopes to Do."

St. Paul clubs will receive on Tuesday, Minneapolis on Friday, Duluth on Wednesday, while the D. A. R. chapters will do the honors on Thursday.

Mrs. William Liggett is chairman of the state fair committee for the federated clubs, and the members are Mrs. Margaret Blair, Dr. Ella P. Webb, St. Paul; Mrs. Perry Starkweather, Dr. Clara Luther, Mrs. A. T. Oldberg, Minneapolis; and Mrs. C. W. Glotfelter, Waterville.

There will be a band concert by the Third Regiment band from 4:30 to 6:30 in the club bandstand. Tomorrow evening regular Saturda yevening dances will be given at the main house and Oatka with orchestras at both places.

COUNTRY FAIR NETS $1,000

The old fashioned country fair given by the King's Daughters at the corner of Fourteenth avenue east and London road for the purpose of raising money to add to their day nursery fund was a notable success in every way, and about $1,000 was secured.

The vaudeville show was a great money maker, and Mrs. Elmer Whyte, assisted by Mrs. Ring and Miss Carter, with Charles Morris as barker, was kept busy by both old and young, anxious for a ride on the merry-go-round.

Misses Katherine Hubbell, Marjorie Congdon and Genevieve Washburn, in their country store, showed their ability as business women by their splendid sales.

The fair grounds were crowded both afternoon and evening. There were about 2,300 people in attendance.

The amount realized was in the neighborhood of $1,000, the exact amount not yet being known.

There were two classes contesting for prizes.

In the first class, for babies under 18 months, little Helen Louise Reano won the first prize, a gold locket and chain donated by C. S. Bagley.

In the second class, for children under 5 years, the Larson twins won the first prize, a bread and milk set, donated by Jane Listman. Allie Kennedy won the second prize, a lace cap donated by Jane Listman.

"FOR BETTER, FOR WORSE"

New York Woman Holds to Certain Refreshing Ideas Concerning the Marriage Vows, Which Are Well Worth Considering.

HOW do you know when you are in love? After all, can anyone answer this question more authoritatively than a woman who has been in love herself and proved it by a happy and durable marriage? A woman who can say on her tenth wedding anniversary, "I loved ten years ago, but my love has increased every day since!"

What You Must Do.

It is possible to find such women, even in New York, says Marguerite Mooers Marshall in the Evening World. One of them is Mrs. Arnold Volpe, whose husband conducts the orchestra in Central park and who is the mother of two charming children.

These are Mrs. Volpe's "love texts":

First—You must be willing to take the marriage service literally and marry for life.

Second—You must love too much to elope.

Third—You must feel that your lover is absolutely different from and superior to any other man in the world.

Fourth—You must be ready to make all sacrifices for his sake.

Fifth—Your love must have in it the possibilities of growth.

Consider the Sacred Word.

"I have always thought," said Mrs. Volpe, "that so many unhappy marriages might have been avoided if the girl had only quietly considered the literal meaning of the promises she had to make. 'For better, for worse; for richer, for poorer; in sickness and in health; till death do us part!' They are tremendously big vows to take, as they are so often taken, without a moment's serious thought.

"A wife should interest herself in her husband's business, and prove to him that she can be wise, prudent, far-seeing—a really good partner. Instead of complaining at the size of the income, she should devote herself to making it go as far as possible. The thing that chiefly spurs a man toward the achievement of prosperity is the remembrance of a cheerful, plucky wife who believes in him with all her heart.

Her Closest Friend.

"Her husband should be her closest friend, and if she truly loves him she will count separation from others as naught compared with the possibility of having to leave him. She will stay until death, and that parting will be the bitterest sorrow of her life.

"Perhaps you think I have gotten off my subject," added Mrs. Volpe, with a quick smile, "but this is true marriage. And a girl in love must have an imaginative conception of all that marriage may mean, and she must be strong enough to say in her heart, 'So be it.' Or else she can be sure that she is not really in love."

BRILLIANT FUNCTIONS

Planned for Newport Society Will Cost Fifty Thousand Dollars.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 16.—About $50,000 will be spent by Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt for a ball Aug. 19, and a costume bill with Hammerstein's vaudeville in the Vanderbilt theater, on the Cliffs, Aug. 23. Mechanics, Newport shopkeepers, policemen, firemen, detectives, musicians, waiters, express men and others will thrive, while 500 guests will enjoy the two functions.

The Fish ball will be opened by a troupe of Russian dancers, presenting the March of the Nymphs. The dancers will next be seen in another figure, and the dancing of a specially arranged quadrille by the guests will follow.

Supper and dancing until early hours by guests from Newport, New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Providence will be other chapters.

Mrs. Vanderbilt, in addition to her costume ball with a quadrille by her guests, wearing Oriental costumes, is to have the biggest acts Hammerstein can secure. Some surprise features will be added that are being kept secret.

MRS. BERNSTEIN ON STAND AGAIN

Denies Emphatically That She Shot Her Husband.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Mrs. Florence Bernstein, on trial for the murder of her husband, George Bernstein, was prepared to resume the stand in her own defense again today, following emphatic denials yesterday that she had shot him.

Six alienists were present in court to watch her every motion and expression, preparatory to being called upon to testify whether she had been or still is a victim of "furore transitoria," the form of insanity which, her counsel explained, caused her to forget what she was doing when her husband was shot and killed as he lay in bed in their home.

Senate Authorizes Dam.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Construction of a dam across the Coosa river in Alabama for water power purposes is authorized in a bill passed by the senate today.

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Woman's "Stinginess" Forced Economy.

There is a belief, generally accepted, that women are stingy in money matters.

Almost everyone knows that the term cannot be applied to the average woman in what she gives of herself to make things move easily for her family. But storekeepers and all manner of tradesmen who give something in return for a specified amount of money have always had this grievance against women as a body.

Women, poor things, bear the unenviable reputation of haggling longer over a few cents than men do over the same number of dollars. It is believed that there is inherent in them a positive aversion to paying a fair price for a thing. Man, on the other hand, is the personification of liberality—of paying in full for value received. Whether it is beefsteak or bureaus that man has under consideration, all he does is ask the price, thrust his hand into his pocket and pay without demur. No flitting from place to place for him in an effort to save a few cents or better the quality of his purchase! Time is money with him and, besides, what do a few cents, or even a few dollars amount to, when you find what pleases you?

Obviously, few realize that it is women's economies practiced in the interest of husband and home that enable him to be the prodigal in even a slight degree—that, in reality, his stinginess to her personally accounts for what is described as such in her. If he was more liberal with her, she could afford to be with others. When a woman is expected to make one dollar do where a man would spend two, you can't blame her for deliberating or for refusing to part with the extra pennies.

Circumstances make it necessary, in many instances, for both husband and wife to exert economy, but usually the brunt of it falls upon the woman. The man will have his little fling now and then. But the woman has a conscience that will not allow her to take the food out of the mouths of her babes, except, of course, as we meet with one who proves the rule.

The old-fashioned notion held by some men that women cannot be trusted with money, together with the erroneous one that the wife is not entitled to any share of the husband's earnings for her personal use, are responsible for her niggardly fame. In the opinion of thousands of men who are very well-to-do, food, shelter and clothing are all that are necessary to the self-respecting woman and all that she can, in reason, expect.

In the future, before you condemn a woman for her bargain-hunting proclivities; her hesitancy over paying a little more for a superior article; and her refusal or failure to spend money as her station in life seems to warrant, ask yourself if it may not be that she is the helpless victim of selfishness and stinginess, instead of an offender first hand in these respects.

ON THE IRON RANGES

BIWABIK BUILDING MAKING PROGRESS

Work on New High School and Bank Building Going Right Along.

Biwabik, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The postoffice will be moved from its present location to the building now occupied by the First National bank. The change will be made about Dec. 1. Postal officials have already approved the change in location, and the building will be entirely overhauled, being brick veneered and the postoffice fixtures will be the most modern and up to date attainable. Work on the First National bank building is being pushed as rapidly as possible by Louis Phelps, who is the superintendent for the Bailey Marsh company of Minneapolis, who have the contract. When the building is completed it will cost over $20,000. The foundation is in. The building will be two stories, occupied by bank on first floor and offices on second floor.

The high school building work is also being pushed by Supt. Louis Phelps for the Bailey Marsh company, which has the contract. The foundation has been completed and the bricklayers are now busy going after their end of the work.

W. L. Hill, proprietor of the Hill hotel, has let the contract for the painting of his building to Elise & Henderson of this city, being the lowest bidders.

EVELETH LIBRARY IS NOW ASSURED

Library Board Decides to Proceed With Letting of Contract.

At a meeting of the library board held Thursday evening it was voted to proceed forthwith to secure architect's sketches and as soon as possible select plans with a view to going ahead with the building this fall and, if possible, get it up and enclosed before cold weather sets in. The secretary was instructed to issue a notice to architects inviting sketches up to Aug. 30, at which time it is hoped plans may be selected and a call issued for bids on the erection of the building.

Eveleth's structure will be similar to the new library at West Duluth, which is admired by every one who sees it. The board has limited the amount to be expended to $20,000, of this $15,000 is expected from the Carnegie fund. The balance will be paid by the city. The northeast corner of the new park site is where the building will be located. It will face on Pierce street and stand opposite to the fee owners' office building.

ARE BOOSTING FOR THE FAIR

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—One hundred Hibbing business men in twenty-seven automobiles and five automobiles from Chisholm are touring the eastern end of the Missabe range today in the interests of the St. Louis county fair. The party left Hibbing at 9 this morning and the towns to be visited during the day are Chisholm, Buhl, Mountain Iron, Eveleth, Virginia, Gilbert and Biwabik, besides several of the smaller towns en route. The party is in charge of D. D. McEachin, Dr. Welrick, J. B. Connors, R. L. Giffin and Lafe Kirby. Dr. Thomas will be in charge of the song birds and Oscar Widstrand will direct the little German band.

The boosters will mix with the business men in each of the towns visited, distribute advertising matter and generally tell the people about the big show to be held in Hibbing Aug. 29 to Sept. 1, inclusive.

Hibbing auto owners in the party are: J. A. Healy, Dr. G. N. Butchart, F. A. Moore, H. C. Hanson, J. B. Conners, E. C. Kieffman, R. W. Hitchcock, C. A. Remmington, E. W. Coons, J. L. Stewart, F. A. Klass, Thomas Peterson, W. J. Power, Victor Power, P. M. Smith, J. J. Cox, P. J. Ryan, Mike Salminen, Dr. B. S. Adams, Dr. S. S. Blacklock, S. O. Geiser, A. C. Schirmer, L. J. Micka, J. A. Miller, C. R. Rhodes, Paul Maras and Mark Atkinson.

BABY NEEDS WATCHING IN SUMMER TIME

Their Little Stomachs Get Out of Order Easily in Hot Weather.

Mothers should watch closely the condition of their children's bowels, babies especially. Keep the bowels regular and much of the illness to which children are most susceptible in summer can be prevented.

The most prevalent symptoms are constipation and diarrhoea. When waste from the stomach congests in the bowels and makes your little one feverish and fretful, with a feeling of heaviness or languor, try giving it a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at bedtime. By morning this pleasant, mild laxative will act gently, yet positively, and restore normal conditions. This simple, natural remedy is also invaluable in checking summer diarrhoea. By thoroughly cleansing the bowels, the foreign matter and poisons that irritate and inflame the tissues are eliminated. Don't torture the child with harsh cathartic, purgative or astringent remedies, that upset the whole system, and at best only relieve temporarily. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, while positive in its effect, acts gently and without griping or discomfort, restoring normal conditions.

In using Syrup Pepsin for children the mother can feel perfectly safe, as it contains no opiates or narcotic drug, being a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. By carrying off the dislodged tissues of mucous membrane that inflame the nasal passages it will quickly break the "summer cold" that is so annoying. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists for fifty cents a bottle — the larger family size, one dollar. A free trial bottle, postpaid, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

MUCH INTEREST IS BEING SHOWN

Bi-County Sunday School Association Meeting at Two Harbors.

Two Harbors, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Much interest was displayed in the subjects discussed at this morning's session of the St. Louis-Lake County Sunday School association, which began with devotional exercises led by L. A. Marvin.

The balance of the morning program follows:

"Relation of the Sunday School to the Church," W. B. Fatton; "The Sunday School Graded With Appropriate Graded Lessons," A. M. Locker; "The Social Side of the Sunday School," Rev. Ray E. Hunt; three simultaneous conferences, elementary (birth 12 years), led by Maud Sherwin; secondary, (13-20 years), led by Dr. R. W. Bowden; adult (all over 20 years), led by A. M. Locker.

The last features were fine. The attendance is up to expectation. The program this afternoon follows:

1:30—Devotion service, L. A. Marvin.
1:35—Reports of committees and election of officers.
2:15—Department symposium: Beginners, Mrs. W. S. Eaton; primary, Maud Sherwin; junior, Mrs. J. G. Hamaker; intermediate, Mrs. W. C. Culmer; senior, Dr. R. W. Bowden; teacher training, Mrs. C. M. Wilson; adult, Rev. Ray E. Hunt; home department, Mrs. D. J. McPhail; missions, Mrs. F. H. Rogers.
3:45—Conference on Sunday school problems, A. M. Locker.
4:30—Closing song, benediction.

Parade Thursday Night.

A mammoth parade was held last night.

A special train pulled in from Duluth at about 7:30 loaded with delegates. People had been coming in from the range towns all through the day. The parade was led by the Two Harbors volunteer fire department, H. K. Gillon and William Wade acting as marshals. About fifteen automobiles carried part of the delegates. Then came the body of the parade, consisting of old and young, all divided into sections. Pennants and standards were seen from all the nearby towns. After marching about the town the parade terminated at the Swedish Lutheran church. In order to accommodate the junior element of the various Sunday schools, special service was held in the evening after the parade in the Presbyterian church, which meeting was specially instructive.

This gathering includes representatives from all the Sunday schools in St. Louis and Lake counties, and is operated by a set of officers in connection therewith of which Thomas Owens of this city is president; Z. D. Scott of Duluth, vice president; J. C. Johnson of Duluth, secretary; Lachlan MacDonald of Virginia, assistant secretary, and E. H. Harbison of Duluth, treasurer. The officers work in connection with the state organization, of which A. M. Locker is state superintendent. In addition there is a local organization, of which R. B. Elliott is president; Miss Mabel Trevena, secretary, and J. T. Engstrom, treasurer.

DISCUSS SUNDAY SCHOOL THEMES

Annual Meeting of Itasca County Sunday School Association at Cohasset.

Cohasset, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual convention of the Itasca County Sunday School association will be held here tomorrow and Sunday under the direction of A. M. Locker, state secretary of the State Sunday School association.

The sessions will be held in the M. E. church, beginning Saturday afternoon. An exceptionally good program has been arranged and delegates are expected from all the surrounding schools.

The following program will be considered:

Saturday Afternoon, Aug. 17.

2:30—Devotional service, Rev. Justus Parish, Cohasset.
2:45—Address, H. J. Snyder, Grand Rapids.
3:15—"Christ, the Master Teacher," J. S. Gole, Grand Rapids.
3:35—Report of county secretary and treasurer and department superintendents.
4:00—"Our Stewardship," A. M. Locker, St. Paul.
4:30—Appointment of committees.

Saturday Evening.

7:15—Devotional service, Rev. C. E. Burgess, Cohasset.
7:50—"Graded Sunday Schools and Graded Lessons," Mrs. C. C. McCarthy, Grand Rapids.
8:00—"Our Text Book, the Bible," Dr. M. M. Hursh, Cohasset.
8:30—"Kingdom Calls to Kingdom Builders," A. M. Locker, St. Paul.

Sunday Afternoon.

1:30—Song and praise service, Rev. J. Blackhurst, Deer River.
1:45—Report of committees, election of officers.
2:00—"Teacher Training," Prof. R. Richards, Deer River.
3:00—"The Business End of the Sunday School," Prof. J. A. Vandyke, Coleraine.
3:30—"Conference on Sunday School Problems," A. M. Locker, St. Paul.

Sunday Evening.

7:30—Song service, Rev. J. J. Parish, Grand Rapids.
8:00—Address, "Harnessing Power," A. M. Locker, St. Paul.
Offering for county and state work.
Benediction.

There are about twenty-five Sunday schools in the county, about equally divided between the rural and town schools, and splendid work is being done in organizing every community for Sunday worship. Much credit is due to Rev. H. J. Snyder for the growth of the rural schools, in connection with his work as Sunday school missionary.

Biwabik to Play Virginia.

Biwabik, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Virginia baseball club will play the locals here next Sunday. The Biwabik team has been strengthened in the past two weeks and an exciting game is looked forward to. Biwabik has been playing good ball this season, a game being played with Ely at the Ely ball park last Sunday and defeated them by a score of 18 to 2.

An attractive score board was put up this week which reads as follows: "Make a safe hit by insuring with The Myers Company."

START PAVING IN CHISHOLM

General Contracting Company Starts Work on Village Job.

Chisholm, Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.) — The General Contracting company of Minneapolis, which has the paving contract, has started preliminary work on Lake avenue. The paving will be installed in about six weeks and will make Chisholm one of the neatest appearing towns on the range. The village has had a white way for some time and with its brick business houses of modern construction and beautiful residence district, Chisholm people feel they are entitled to the name of the Queen City of the Mesaba Range.

The Chisholm city team and the Golden Rules of Duluth will play baseball here next Sunday. The home team will be strengthened by several players from Hibbing and other range towns and hopes to win.

ALL GRAND RAPIDS GOING TO OUTING

Stores Will Close Saturday Afternoon for Annual Creamery Picnic.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The picnic to be held tomorrow afternoon at the creamery of the Itasca County Creamery association in celebration of the anniversary of the opening promises to be a successful and largely attended affair.

Local business places will close for a couple of hours from noon to give the business men and their clerks a chance to mingle with their best customers, the farmers. Immediately after the dinner, in order that all may stay to hear the program and still be through and get away as early as possible, there will be a program of speaking, etc., which will include a review of the officers' reports for the year.

Those attending will provide themselves with basket lunches. Coffee, lemonade and buttermilk will be provided free of charge by Grand Rapids business men.

POSTMASTER IS FINED $50

Government Official at Silverdale, Minn., Pays for Illegal Hunting.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—In the municipal court yesterday John Silverdahl, postmaster at Silverdale postoffice near International Falls, prosecuted by Game Warden Wood entered a plea of guilty to the charge of "shining" deer and a fine of $50 and costs was imposed. Silverdahl signed a statement saying he had been "headlighting" for three years and that recently he shot into a settler's cabin, mistaking the glare of the cabin light for a deer's eye. On this occasion he broke a lamp on the table around which the settler's family was sitting.

John Metovich, a former saloon keeper at Chisholm, now living on a homestead up near the border was at the same time found guilty of killing a bull moose and a penalty of $50 and costs was entered against him. Both convicted men are poor and the warden recommended that the fines be suspended. This was done in the case of exacting the penalty it was thought the families would be the sufferers.

MARRIED AT BARROWS.

Former Eveleth Teacher, Just Wed, Visiting Range City.

Eveleth, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Georgena Powell and Cyril Henry Williams were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Powell, at Barrows, Minn., by Rev. C. F. Davis of Brainerd. Miss Teckla Jackson of Eveleth was bridesmaid, and the groom was attended by his brother, Milton Williams. Both Mr. and Mrs. Williams are well known in Eveleth, having been connected with the Eveleth schools, the former as the superintendent's assistant and the latter as a teacher. They arrived in Eveleth Monday and since that day have been showered with congratulations and best wishes from their numerous friends. Mr. Williams has accepted the position of cashier of the Barrows State bank and he and Mrs. Williams will go there in a few weeks to make their home.

ESTABLISHES AN ALIBI.

Eveleth Man Accused of Assault Is Turned Loose.

Eveleth, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge Moylan Thursday rendered his decision in the assault case against Frank Caverelli. The man was acquitted. Caverelli was acquitted of going to the house of a neighbor at about 9 o'clock, Aug. 8, when no one but the woman and a baby were at home and attempted to assault Ercelli Alamenti. The defendant, however, through his attorney, F. S. White, established a good alibi by the testimony of four men, who swore that they were in the house playing cards with Caverelli at the time the offense is alleged to have been committed.

OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER

RAIN

Cool, summer weather continues and the ice man, the ice cream parlors and other vendors of summer specialities are not getting rich. The weather man missed on his shower prediction last night, but he hopes for better things and comes across with the same prediction today.

The sun rose this morning at 5:06 and it will set at 7:18 this evening, giving fourteen hours and twelve minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"Showers fell over Washington, Oregon, British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba, Montana, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, Louisiana, Tennessee, the Carolinas, Florida and Massachusetts during Thursday or last night, principally in connection with the disturbances centered over the Northwest and Southwest. Heavy rains fell over Nebraska and Northern Kansas. High temperature prevailed Thursday in Southeastern Montana, Oklahoma, Arizona and South Atlantic states. Conditions favor occasional showers over St. Louis and Douglas counties during the ensuing thirty-six hours."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Forecasts for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Saturday:

Upper Michigan—Fair and somewhat warmer tonight; Saturday increasing cloudiness and warmer with probably rain in west portion.

Wisconsin—Local showers tonight or Saturday; warmer tonight; warmer Saturday in east portion.

Minnesota—Showers tonight or Saturday; warmer tonight in east portion.

Iowa, South Dakota—Showers tonight and Saturday.

North Dakota—Showers tonight or Saturday.

Montana—Showers tonight and Saturday.

Upper Lakes—Moderate easterly to southeasterly winds; increasing cloudiness tonight probably followed by rain Saturday.

HIBBING'S AUGUST PAYROLL IS LARGE

Banker Estimates That About $400,000 Will Be Distributed There.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The total of the August payday in the Hibbing district will reach $400,000, according to the estimate of a banker. The Mahoning Ore & Steel company, the Missabe and the Great Northern railways, the Wisconsin Steel company, the Scranton, Crete and Utica mining companies, besides all of the Oliver mines will pay their employes during the next ten days.

The Oliver paid Wednesday at the district office, yesterday at the Mace, Mississippi, Harold and Dale-Uno mines and Saturday at the Morris, Winnifred, Hull-Rust and Burt-Sellers mines and the headquarters shops.

Last week was payday for the village and township. The former paid out about $12,000 and the latter about $13,000.

Local business conditions show much improvement and the head of one of the biggest firms in Hibbing said that collections had been better during the past month than at any time during the year. All the local merchants and business people are looking forward to the usual rush of trading following the monthly disbursement of funds by the mining companies and railroads in this section.

ALICE TO HAVE JAIL.

Range Village Preparing to Handle Troublemakers.

Alice, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.) — The Alice village council at a regular meeting has passed an ordinance extending St. Louis avenue across the Great Northern railroad tracks to permit the erection of a viaduct across the grade crossing on that street. It was also decided to call for bids for the construction and equipment of a jail. There are to be two steel cells. Until recently the village has been without police protection, and when an officer was appointed there was no place to confine prisoners. In most cases they were taken to Hibbing and confined in the jail there.

BUYS CHISHOLM PAPER.

Frank Harris to Take Over Tribune-Herad.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.) — A deal has been perfected by which within a week Frank G. Harris of Hibbing will become the owner and publisher of the Chisholm Tribune-Herald.

The Tribune-Herald has been published for the past year by Oscar Arnesen, chief clerk of the house of representatives, who succeeded his brother, James Arneson, who came to Chisholm about two years ago, but who for some months past has been devoting his time to managing the candidacy of Sam Gordon for governor.

Mr. Harris has been advertising manager for the Hibbing Daily Tribune for the past year and a half. He knows the newspaper business thoroughly and is devoted to it and will make a substantial success of his new undertaking. The Chisholm field is not new to Mr. Harris as he was for a time manager of the paper he has just bought and is well acquainted and very popular in Chisholm. Mr. Harris has made great success of his work in Hibbing and the Tribune parts with him with the greatest regret.

Possession of the Tribune-Herald will probably be given to Mr. Harris next week.

ARE PLANNING FOR LAKE COUNTY FAIR

Officers of Association Leaving No Stone Unturned to Make Success.

Two Harbors, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The officers of the Lake County Agricultural association will hold regular weekly meetings until the fair is held Sept. 26-28.

At the last meeting the premium list committee made a report which with a few changes and additions was accepted and the list ordered printed at once. The lists will be ready for distribution next week. Among the important changes this year in the list will be the increased premiums offered on stock. The premiums have been doubled on all the classes and in the dairy cattle classes have been more than doubled and a special prize known as the J. B. Streeter prize has been hung up for the best dairy herd consisting of three dairy cows and a sire. The first money for this class is $35 and the second $15. The poultry prizes paid out last year amounted to about $60. This year about $125 has been allowed for the poultry department. Another Streeter prize of $15 has been placed on potatoes.

It is expected that by next week something definite will be known as to whether or not the desired reduced rates on the D. & I. R. and D. M. & N. can be secured for the fair days. As this will so materially add to the attendance at the fair every effort will be made to secure this concession from the railroad company.

The Ladies' Guild of the First Presbyterian church will be entertained next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. J. Irwin, Fourth avenue. Mrs. R. E. Tubman will assist in the serving.

HIBBING PAVING CONTRACT PROGRESSES.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to Tho Herald.)—Coons & Butler, the paving contractors, have started tearing up the crushed rock on the south end of Third avenue preparatory to paving with creosoted wood block. All of Second avenue, Cedar and Center streets and a portion of Sellers street have been completed and all of Second avenue is now open to traffic. The steel for the tracks of the street railway is on the ground and will be put down with the sublayers of concrete. The prospect is that the entire contract will be completed and turned over to the city by the latter part of next month, at the latest.

DONNYBROOK FAIR AT THE STEVENSON

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Joe Gosprsoch, an Austrian, was badly cut during a free for all fight indulged in by about thirty-four of his fellow countrymen in the Stevenson location last night following a drinking bout. Four of the men were arrested by citizens who turned out to quell the disturbance which developed into a Donnybrook fair during which bottles, rock and other missiles were hurled about and some knives drawn, because the regular police officer for the location was away. The four taken into custody were haled before Judge Eddy and fined $5 and costs today. There were about thirty-four in the fighting party and from all accounts it was a red letter night for fighting, the one worst injured being cut over the head with an ice pick, officers are trying to find the balance of the fighters today.

FICTION READERS LEAD ALL OTHERS

Two Harbors, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The city librarian's report for the month of July shows the library was open 26 days, being closed on the Fourth of July; readers and reference workers numbered 625 as compared with 686 for the same month last year; books were circulated as follows: Adult fiction, 672; non fiction, 68; juvenile fiction, 163; non fiction, 75; or a total circulation of 972 as against 1,358 for July, 1911. Of this number 24 were Swedish and 20 Norwegian, making a total foreign circulation of 44, as compared with 125 last year. The percentage of non fiction was 15.02 as against 13 per cent in July, 1911. This decrease in circulation was expected by the librarian on account of the great increase in the business activity here this summer.

All the new fiction and some of the non fiction has been catalogued and otherwise prepared for the shelves. Lists of children's books, Norwegian and Swedish books for the traveling libraries have been made out in accordance with decision made by the board in the March meeting, to be carried out as soon as the county appropriation was available.

Some Library Improvements.

The library board has arranged to make improvements in the library building as follows: Hot water boiler will be installed and connections with the same made with the wash sink and a new wash basin with hot and cold water connections will be placed in the secretary's office on the library floor; also the drinking fountain which is now operated from the basement will be connected so as to operate from the library floor. Miss Borreson, librarian, will be away until Sept. 2 on her usual vacation, which she is spending on the north shore. The work of the improvements will be commenced upon her return. L. R. Ericson has the contracts for the improvements.

Mrs. Hazel Blood will be in charge of the library during the absence of Miss Borreson.

CUTS DRUNKEN INDIAN.

Kelly Lake Machinist Uses Steel on Red Man.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—George Rhinehart, a machinist employed by the Great Northern at Kelly lake is in jail pending a hearing on the charge of cutting Joseph Tehe, a Chippewa Indian, a boiler shop helper. The Indian is said to have been intoxicated and to have attacked the white man who used his knife cutting the redskin in the leg. The latter is not in serious condition. Rhinehart was arrested last night.

ODD FELLOWS ENTERTAIN.

Gilbert Lodge at Notable Function This Week.

Gilbert, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Odd Fellows entertained their friends at a musical concert given Wednesday evening in the Grand theater. The music was furnished by the band from the Orphan's home at Northfield. The band is composed of fifteen children from the home, boys and girls ranging from 11 to 15 years. It has been in existence only a year and yet the music discoursed by the band would do credit to many an organization of mature performers with years of training to their credit. Addresses were delivered by the grand master of the Odd Fellows lodge of Minnesota, Grand Secretary Botton, Supt. Palmer of the home, and by Mayor Cosgrove of Gilbert and by G. W. Wallace, Gilbert's Civil war veteran. Mr. Palmer was the first Methodist pastor of Gilbert and delivered his first sermon in the building now occupied by the postoffice. The affair was largely attended and reflects much credit upon the local lodge in providing such entertainment for their Gilbert friends.

THREE SHOVELS IN GENOA MINE

Mining Activity Continues Unabated Throughout the Gilbert District.

Three shovels are loading ore at the Genoa pit, and the No. 2 stockpile at the Gilbert mine is being shipped. It is rumored that the stockpile at the Pettit mine has been sold and also a large portion of the Schley stockpile, all of which will contribute to the prosperity of Gilbert.

Building Ball Park.

Work on the new ball grounds is progressing rapidly. The lumber and posts for the fence are on the ground and nearly all the holes are dug. The ground should be completely enclosed by the middle of next week if sufficient labor can be procured to finish the work. When completed the grounds will be in fine shape, so that the team can derive revenue from its games. Now that the boys have a place to practice it is likely that a much improved article of ball will be put up by the local artists. Next Sunday the Schley and Elba teams will play, the proceeds being used for the fence fund. Next winter it is proposed to use the grounds for a skating rink, which will give Gilbert a winter sport that has been heretofore denied.

Masterson & Roop are rushing the work of clearing and grading the high school athletic field and hope to have it ready for use by the opening of the school year, Sept. 1.

WILL LEAVE VIRGINIA.

Flashly Dressed Individual Convicted of Being Vagrant.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Wearing good clothes and with cash and checks amounting to $610 and with a bank book representing nearly $400 more, W. B. Clark, known about the city as "Billy" Clark, was found guilty of vagrancy and fined $25 and costs in the municipal court yesterday. Clark has been a well-known character about Virginia for several years. The fact that he had no regular occupation but was always well dressed and had plenty of money led the police to surmise and an investigation revealed that he was obtaining revenue from his alleged wife, known as Maggie Clark, who has maintained rooms at places other than where Clark made his home, which was usually at one of the hotels. The state law holds that a man who takes the illicit earnings of a woman is a vagrant and it was under this statute Clark was prosecuted. He paid the fine and agreed not to be seen in Virginia again.

AGAINST DISARMAMENT.

That Is Result of Ely K. of P. Lodge Discussion.

Ely, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.—The subject of world disarmament was discussed at the weekly meeting of the lodge Knights of Pythias, the principal speakers being H. Williams and James Mitchell. It was decided that the idea of disarmament was premature, and that war at the present time and conditions could not be abandoned. The subject of "Municipal Government" was assigned for discussion on Aug. 28 with Brothers M. S. Jackson, A. L. Sundholm and J. I. Laing leading the discussion. On Sept. 11 it was decided to have an open meeting, inviting the wives of the Pythians to the meeting and discussing the subject of "Woman's Suffrage." Brothers H. J. Lockhart, J. N. Osborne, Peter Schaefer and G. T. Ayres were appointed to lead the discussion.

Confirmation services will be held in the Swedish Lutheran service Sunday, Aug. 18. A class of eighteen will be confirmed.

LOOKING OVER LINE.

Canadian Northern Officals Are Inspecting Extension.

Virgina, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—A party of Canadian Northern officials from Winnipeg came to Virginia, arriving early Thursday morning by special car attached to the Winnipeg flier and started out to inspect the new Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific line between Virginia and Duluth. The party included W. M. McLeod, general manager of the system; J. R. Cameron, assistant general manager, and T. H. Graham, superintendent of bridges.

BERT JOHNSON IS SOME BLUEBERRY KING.

Virgina, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is admitted about Virginia that Bert Johnson, homesteaer of the Sand lake region is the "blueberry king," at least of the range country. This year he has taken the entire crop as picked by a party of Indians in the district of his homestead and has marketed more than 300 bushels of the wild fruit in Virginia, all at $2.50 per bushel. Mr. Johnson says the blueberry crop is larger this year than he has ever seen it in a dozen years.

CAVOUR MINER KILLED.

Kinney, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Struck by a revolving windlass at the Cavour mine, Dan Brobac, a miner, was instantly killed yesterday. He was hoisting timber by means of the windlass and had the heavy lagging in position some distance from the ground when he let go of the handle, causing it to fly around at a terrific rate. He made an attempt to grasp the handle as it flew around but was struck on the head. The blow broke his skull and killed him instantly. Brobac is survived by a widow and three children who are in the old country.

Tower Rebekahs Install.

Tower, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Tower Lodge of Rebekahs installed the following officers: N. G., Beatrice Peterson; N. G. Winnifred Brown; secretary, Maud Compaigne; Hattie Martin, R. S. to N. G.; Ethel Burgess, L. S. to N. G.; Myrtle McLaughlin, chaplain; Margaret Compaigne, warden; Christine Peterson, conductor; Nellie Helm, inside guard; Annie Colberg, outside guard; John Brewer, R. S. to V. G.; Minnie Compaigne, L. S. to V. G. Mrs. Carlson, president of the assembly of the Rebekahs did the installing after which a fine banquet was served.

Missionary Going to Oshkosh.

Virgina, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rev. Paul Gramness, for several years Sunday school missionary in the range and north country territory for the Presbyterian church, will leave with his wife Sept. 1 for Oshkosh, Wis., to take up a like line of work with a much larger field. A dinner was given Wednesday night at their home for Mr. and Mrs. Gramness by Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Hanson.

DOOKS LOSE FIRST GAME

Frist blood for the Peggers. We have met the enemy and they kicked us in the slats.

The fight for the flag is a stern one, the season is drawing to a close, Winnipeg has come to put a decided crimp in the gonfalon gallop of the locals—yesterday they thrashed us heartily by the score of 7 to 2. Flushed with the victory of the first game, Jim Brown predicts that he will make a clean sweep of the series and hurt the chances of the Sox for the flag.

The erratic Hirsch was on the mound for the Peggers. His flinging deserved a shut out. He had the locals swinging at wild ones, low ones and wide ones—and at nothing more substantial than the air. He sent twelve hitters back to the bench with the "K" mark after their names in the score book. He held the Sox to three scattered hits and had them jumping both ways.

Brackett of Alexandria, Minn., and of Winona, started the game for us. For five innings he behaved with discretion and commendable skill. Then came the fuss. The sixth inning spelled our ruin and tht following round was even worse. Young Mr. Johnson, whose heretofore habitat has been in some quit sylvan dell, next came on the scene and finished the game. He escaped with but little mutilation.

For five innings the best baseball ever seen on the local grounds was played. After that things happened that none of those present care to discuss. The asperities that rise to the tongue should be rudely cut with the keen kife of toleration. Let's go back and get them during the rest of the series.

In the first round Brackett whiffed two and sent the other soldier down on an easy infield hit. Things look great. Then Hirsch came and whiffed two and made the other man lift a weak pop, though excitement was encouraged to kick up its heels when two errors permitted two men to get on.

Brackett hit a man in round two, allowed a single, whiffed two and made the third gink foul out. Things still looked great. Hirsch came back and sent two down on infield hits and made the third dent the ozone. But still the chances were even.

In the following round two weak and emaciated popups and a weak little bunt disposed of the sterling sluggers from the border land. A single came in our willow-wielding turn, but two whiffs and an outfield fly grabbed Miss Hope by the locks and twisted until she screamed. Still, at that, we had an even chance.

In round four Kirkham singled and Miss Hope was further humiliated. But the next three men went out on infield offerings and the lady slowly raised her head. Hirsch came right back at us and whiffed all three of the batters. It looked bad; but, even so, we had an even chance.

Round fie rolled around. Here is where Mister Brackett made a noble effort. He put a lot of stuff on the ball and whiffed Hasty, Hirsch and De Maggio. Eight or nine lusty men with lungs of leather rose in unison and the bleachers gave vent to tidings of joy. We came back at Hirsch and with one gone singled, Brackett denting the H column.

A passed ball and a wild heave rounded Brackett up at third. Cy Bennett attempted the squeeze and Hirsch neatly nipped Brackett at the pan. Bluhm doubled and Bennett reposed on third. Sours walked and in the throw to catch Bluhm off the second bag, Bennett dashed for home as Peary dashed for the pole. The ball was heaved with abandon around the diamond for a while and then Hasty dropped the peg to home to get Cy. Sours walked and worked the double steal with Bluhm, and score two was over. Meniece whiffed. Hope sat up and straightened her locks. Why, cert; we had the best chance in the world.

One hesitates—but then it has to be told—Mr. Freer was hit with the ball, and that started the bloody row. Clothier came up and hit to Sours. Lucella let it go away. Kirkham sacrificed the two path holders. Baker was hit and there wasn't breathing space on the sacks. A passed ball let Freer come in. Then Krueger singled and two more runs came in. Miss Hope drew her handkerchief and resorted to tears real and salty. But what the—, why we had a chance at that.

One man was hit in our round, and that is about all. Hold your breath, everybody—here comes the next spasm. Hirsch doubled and Demaggio promptly singled. Freer also singled and Hirsch came over. Clothier forced Demaggio at third, but Kirkham's hit to Bluhm, the reliable, was heaved over Sours' head to head off Clothier, and Freer came over. Baker hit to right and Clothier was thrown out at the plate by Meniece. Krueger singled and Kirkham and Baker counted.

After this Johnson, a new one, you know, came into the box and the riot was stopped. We could do nothing with Hirsch, and Miss Hope leaned heavily on the arm of her companion as she walked from the grounds.

The Peggers are playing the last series of the season on the home grounds, and the Sox are going to make a mighty effort to get the rest of the series.

SUPERIOR WINS FROM DEACONS

The Red Legs Take Opening Contest By Score of 7 to 3.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 16.—Superior won the opening game of the series here yesterday by the score of 7 to 3. The Deacons marred the contest by some crude work in the field and on the bases. The hitting of the visitors was timely and hard.

MARQUARD IS EASY FOR CUBS

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Chicago won the opening game of the series from New York, 5 to 1, driving Marquard from the box in the fifth inning and reducing New York's lead in the race for the National league pennant to five games. It was estimated that 25,000 persons witnessed the contest. Every available spot in the grounds was occupied, and thousands had to be denied admission to the park for lack of space.

Marquard's finish came in the fifth inning. With Archer out, Richie singled and Sheckard walked. Merkle got Schulte's fly. Tinker drove a slashing double to the same spot, bringing Sheckard and Tinker home. Leach singled to right, scoring Zimmerman, and raced to second on Murray's throw to the plate. He took third on a wild pitch. Saier walked and Downs hit safely to right, scoring Leach and sending Saier to third.

Manager McGraw then sent Crandall into the game to replace Marquard. Archer lifted a fly to Murray, ending the inning.

Doubles by Murray and Merkle scored New York's only run in the fourth inning. Murray opened the inning with a two-base hit and Merkle sent him home with a two-base drive into right field. Merkle went to third on Herzog's sacrifice, but was caught between third and home when Meyers drove the ball at Zimmerman. Meyers then attempted to reach second, but Zimmerman relayed the ball to Downs, catching Meyers ten feet from the base.

Spectacular double plays cut off New York's chance for scoring early in the game. In the second inning with one out, Merkle was safe on Downs' error. Herzog doubled, sending Merkle to third. Meyers was purposely walked, filling the bases. Fletcher hit to Tinker, who caught Meyers at second. Downs shot the ball to Saier, getting Fletcher and retiring the side.

Richie pitched excellently for Chicago, holding his opponents to six hits. The tabulated score:

TO PLAY FOR CITY TITLE

The city championship tennis tournament will begin Saturday, Aug. 17, at the Longview tennis courts, Twenty-fifth avenue east and Fourth street.

All preliminary and first round matches must be concluded by Monday evening. The courts have been put in excellent condition and with favorable weather this tournament will undoubtedly bring out the best play ever seen in the city.

It is very probable that some dark horse will appear from the large number of new names which have been entered and there is much speculation as to who will capture the title and with it the beautiful Quayle-Larsen trophy which must be won two years before becoming the property of any player. The Longview club is the real successor of the old city organization, the Endion Tennis club and the city championship will be an annual event under the auspices of this club. The public is invited to all the games and seats and awnings have been provided for the ladies. Play will begin Saturday and will continue throughout the week. The club telephone is Melrose 5638.

The preliminary and first round draws follow:

George Barnum vs. Walter Fraker.
Dr. Park vs. R. Graves.
W. Amundson vs. R. Close.
G. H. Jones vs. W. C. Billings.

TWO LEADERS CLAIM THEIR TEAMS WILL WIN SEE-EYE FLAG.

"I will win the three remaining games of the series," says Darby O'Brien. "Brown has used his best bet, Hirsch. I have Johnson, Worman and Hoffman left for the Canucks, and you see what we do to them in the games that are left. The fight for the flag is a hard one, but my fellows are game fighters and we will be up there at the finish. Doc Miller will be in the game in a few days, according to the statement of the doctor, and he will help. We play best when we have to fight for every game. Some of our hitters are slumping a little, but they will come around before the season ends, and then it will be nothing but Duluth. This is the most important series of the year for us and we are going out and fight them tooth and nail. We'll outfight them and win."

Jim Brown says: "I have the best ball team in the league and my pitchers are going good at the present time. Winnipeg will be out in front, where she should be, when the bell rings down the season. Injuries and other mishaps have hurt our chances the present season. But we have forgotten that and are fighting to cut down the lead of Duluth. Watch what we do from now on."

WOLGAST WILL MEET McFARLAND

Cadillac, Mich., Aug. 16. — After months of dickering and dispute, Ad Wolgast, champion lightweight, and Emil Thiry of Chicago, representing Packey McFarland, signed articles for a ten-round no-decision fight between Wolgast and McFarland before the Madison Square Athletic club, New York, Sept. 27.

Wolgast's manager, Tom Jones, is in California, and the champion took charge of his end of the negotiations. The terms provided that Wolgast's share of the purse will be $15,000, with a controlling interest share of the pictures. McFarland is to get 17½ per cent of the receipts and 10 per cent of the picture money.

Wolgast consented to allow McFarland to weigh in at 135 pounds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

CONTESTS WERE VERY ORDINARY

Kenosha, Wis., Aug. 16.—There were no big surprises in the opening round of match play for the women's state golf championship on the links of the Kenosha country club yesterday.

The summary:

Mrs. E. R. Whitcomb, Milwaukee Country club, defeated Miss Janet Lance of Kenosha, 2 up, 1 to play; Miss Bessie Greene, Blue Mound, defeated Miss Harriet Cole, Kenosha, 8 up, 7 to play; Mrs. Harry Landauer, Woodmount, defeated Miss J. H. Dwight, Racine, 5 up, 3 to play; Mrs. Lyman Journique, Milwaukee Country club, defeated Mrs. J. C. Felber, La Crosse, 3 up, 2 to play. The pairing for this afternoon are Mrs. E. R. Whitcomb vs. Miss Bessie Greene; Mrs. Harry Landauer vs. Mrs. Lyman Bournique.

BOOSTER DAY PLANNED FOR SEASON'S WINDUP

Directors of Baseball Team Make Preparations for Biggest Day in History of Local Game.

Duluth Boosters' Baseball day has been set for Sept. 1.

Five thousand booster buttons have been ordered. These buttons will be sold with the tickets to the game. You will want to wear one, because nearly everybody in the city will have one with the ticket he buys.

The attendance record for the Duluth baseball park is something like 4,500. Every effort is going to be made to break this attendance mark on booster day.

Field sports participated in by the members of the Duluth and Superior baseball teams will be one of the features of the day. The sports held Wednesday made a decided hit with the crowd, and they will be repeated on booster day with many added features.

Over twenty-five hustlers have offered their services to the board of directors of the baseball association and they will act as sellers of the buttons. You will get a button with a ticket. There will be no advance over the regular price for the tickets.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the baseball team, held at the Spalding last evening, definite steps were taken toward the organization of the league for next season. The old desire to enter the Twin Cities still animates or agitates the directors of the local club, and immediately following the close of the present season, which comes Labor day, a delegation from the local club, headed by President Harry Blume of the See-Eye, will go to the Twin Cities and take up the matter with Cantillon and Lennon.

Every effort is going to be made to have an eight club league here next season. Virginia and Fargo will be formally asked to come into the fold, and if the old dream of having the Twin Cities in a league with Duluth comes true, the officials of the local club believe that one of the best minor leagues in the country can be organized.

Considering the wretched weather conditions that have proved a jinx to the game here this season, it is a wonder that the deficit that the local directors are facing is not larger. At the meeting of last evening steps were taken to meet the present financial condition. The men behind the game are in the baseball pastime for pleasure and not for money. That spirit was demonstrated at the meeting. Those present stated that they would dig to pay the deficit.

It is believed that Harvey Bluhm and Elmer Miller will be sold. The money received for the two players and the money that is realized from booster's day—for it is going to be the greatest success in a baseball way that we have ever had—may enable the men responsible for baseball here to break even on the season.

It would be a fine thing for Duluth to have 5,000 people in the park on next to the last game of the season. It would be showing appreciation for those who have gone down in their pockets to keep the game alive here, and it would prove the proper kind of encouragement for next season.

After the hustlers get through with their campaign there won't be many who are not wearing the booster buttons. The day is going to be the biggest baseball day in the history of Duluth—for the directors of the club have been promised the support of a large number of workers.

FALL REGATTA.

The Date Is Set for Annual Club Rowing Events.

The date of the fall rowing races of the boat club have been set for Sept. 28. There will be a junior eight race for men who have never competed in a race, the club doubles, a workboat race for coxswains and fours and eights for the older men. The fall rowing is the best thing for the new men and it is expected that there will be a large number of crew candidates out this fall.

Dan Mahoney will be the referee and Ham Peyton the starter. Julius Barnes and Murray Peyton will be judges at the turns and Jack MacGregor and Bill L'Estrange will be the judges at the finish.

New men will have all the opportunity to make a showing in the regatta.

Ladies' Day at Club.

One of the biggest days of the boat club season is on for tomorrow afternoon. The women of the club will have charge of the program and they will sail the boats, be at the wheels of the various motor boats and will also participate in the tennis tournament. The Third Regiment band will give a concert during the afternoon and it is expected that there will be one of the largest crowds of the season on hand.

CHAUFFEURS PROTESTING

Prepare Petition Asking the Mayor to Rescind the Order.

The chauffeurs driving automobiles for hire feel that the order of the police driving them from Superior street does them an injustice.

Until yesterday they had been allowed to stand on the main street and favored both sides of the block between Fourth and Fifth avenues west. They declare that their removal is playing into the hands of a large firm which makes a specialty of taking tourists on sight-seeing trips. It appears that this livery company has men soliciting trade in the hotels and that it has contracts with railroads and steamship companies. The chauffeurs assert that while they were allowed on Superior street they had a chance to catch a fair share of the trade, but that under the new ruling the single company will reap all the benefits. They have prepared a lengthy petition signed by the majority of the business men in the block between Fourth and Fifth avenues asking the mayor to use his influence to have the order rescinded. It is expected that a delegation will present the petition to his honor this afternoon or tomorrow.

ABANDONED MINE TAXED TOO HIGH

Republic Company Objects to High Assessment on Wills Property.

The Republic Iron & Steel company today filed an objection with the county equalization board, to paying high taxes on the Wills mine, town of McKinley, on the grounds that it is at the present time an abandoned property. The claim is made by the company that the assessment is too high. The board has as yet taken no action on the matter.

The Oliver Iron Mining company, the Meridan Iron company and other interests have filed objections with the board, protesting against large increases which have been made in assessments by the city of Virginia and the township of Stuntz.

Some of the property which is assessed high, it is claimed, is non-mineral bearing land and of small value. The companies claim that as such it should not be assessed at more than farm land prices.

The board has taken no action as yet.

SKIN TROUBLES VANISH WHEN POSLAM IS USED

"How much better your face looks."

To have suffered the embarrassment of unsightly eczema for years, and to realize that the trouble has disappeared after a short treatment with Poslam, is to experience satisfaction difficult to express. This is the story told daily from all parts of the country, of the actual accomplishments of Poslam, the perfect skin remedy. All skin diseases, including eczema, acne, tetter, salt rheum, itch, etc., are quickly eradicated.

Common troubles, such as pimples, red noses, sunburn, rashes, etc., respond so readily that overnight treatment is often sufficient.

TWENTY YEARS WITHOUT PAY

E. L. Raab Sues on Account of Surveying Done in 1892.

E. L. Raab, in a suit which he today filed against Michael Cronin in district court, claims Cronin failed to keep an agreement made in 1892 and wants the court to award him a judgment of $5,000.

Raab claims that he was engaged by Cronin in 1892 to survey certain lands lying in section 34, 58-17; this county which the latter had secured under the homestead laws.

Raab says that the agreement was that when Cronin secured his final patents on the land that he was to receive an amount equal to half of the value of the land. Cronin, he claims, secured his patents in 1911, but refused to settle with Raab.

Raab claims that the land is worth $10,000 and wants a judgment for half of that amount.

EXTENSION OF CITY MAINS

Three petitions for extensions were received and approved by the board of water and light commissioners yesterday. Water and gas mains will be laid for 356 feet in Twenty-third avenue west between Sixth and Seventh streets at an estimated cost of $684. Water and gas mains will be laid 1,036 feet in Dodge street, Forty-third avenue east and Peabody street at an estimated cost of $1,898.83. The third petition was for a gas main extension in Fifty-third avenue west from Sixth street to Paducah place, a distance of 275 feet. The estimated cost is $344.

PHYSICIAN DECLARES

72,000 School Children in Pittsburg Are Physically Defective.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 16.—That more than 72,000 school children of Pittsburg have physical defects and are in need of a doctor's care is the startling statement just made public by Dr. H. B. Burns, head of the division of school medical inspection of the department of public health. Of this number Dr. Burns reports 24,500 have bad teeth, leaving only several hundred more than 48,000 who are defective from real physical causes.

City School Supt. C. S. Heater has evolved a plan to organize the schools of the city so there will be fewer failures among the pupils. He plans special rooms for backward children, a seat for every child and accommodations so that each pupil will be provided a daily bath.

There will be established next month two schools for boys over 14 years of age who from necessity or inclination will not go to high school. A vacation and guidance bureau is to be established so that every boy who applies for a labor certificate to go to work will be given a mental and physical examination.

WIDOW OF FRENCH

New York, Aug. 16.—Seth Barton French, former partner of J. Pierpont Morgan, left an estate valued at $2,746,000. Mary Walker French, his widow, who has the distinction of being "the most court-presented American woman," will receive the income from $1,030,000. She also gets a cash bequest of $400,000.

Mrs. French was presented this year at the Berlin court. She has already been presented at the courts of Italy, Greece, Roumania, Servia and Russia. She makes her home in Paris, where it was reported recently she was engaged to J. J. Van Alen.

With her are her minor son and daughter, William B. French and Clarice N. French. They receive the income from a $600,000 trust fund. Mrs. Mamie French Stole, wife of Charles Stole, received $300,000 from her father's estate. John H. French, her brother, was given an equal sum. George Barton French, another son, received $200,000.

YOUTH'S HEALTH NOT IMPAIRED

When Made to Grow Seven Inches in Six Months.

Edinburgh, Aug. 16.—A Scottish physician has sprung a surprise on the apathetic British public, coming forward with the assertion and the proof that he has been successful in making a youth of 18 grow seven inches in six months.

At a recent meeting of the British Medical association in London, Dr. George Alexander Gibson, physician of the Royal infirmary, Edinburgh, explained how he had made this 18-year-old Peter Pan grow up through the employment of thyroid extract—a potent substance influencing blood distribution and nutritive possibilities in the most powerful way.

'This boy," said Dr. Gibson, "whom I made to 'grow up' is the son of one of my medical friends. He was in his eighteenth year one inch below five feet in height. Like many children, he was stunted in growth but excellent in form. He had set his whole mind on entering Woolwich academy, for which the one and only chance was just about six months ahead.

"In order to enter Woolwich he had to be at least 5 feet 3 inches tall. The family turned to me in deep distress.

"By the employment of thyroid extract the youth grew seven inches in six months, and, as he obtained one of the highest places in the examination for entrance into Woolwich, it was obvious that his health had been in no wise disturbed by this treatment."

Dr. Gibson described the process of making the extract.

"A goat or sheep is killed," said the physician. "As soon as life is extinct the thyroid gland is taken out and all fat removed. The fat is then minced up into fine pieces and dried in a temperature of 90 to 100 deg. Fahrenheit. When all remaining fat is removed, with the aid of petroleum, it is ready to make up into tablets.

"It is only with physically strong patients (and preferably youths) that a doctor can undertake this growth treatment," remarked Dr. Gibson, in conclusion. "Personally I have had great success with thyroid treatment for stunted growth."

BIG LUMBER DEAL.

Sale of Property of John R. Davis Lumber Company.

Ashland, Wis., Aug. 16.—A million dollar deal has just been closed according to word received by A. W. Sanborn, receiver for the John R. Davis Lumber company, through the taking up of an option on the timber and plant of the Phillips concern by the Kneeland, McClurg, Durant company of Milwaukee. The Milwaukee concern had an option on the property from the Davis company which expired Aug. 15. It has a force of experts busy going through the timber holdings in order to get an estimate on which a Detroit trust company was to issue bonds to finance the deal.

Under the terms of the deal the concern will have until Sept. 15 to pay the consideration and take possession.

The liabilities of the Davis company amounted to more than three quarters of a million dollars and under the provisions of the deal completed, the receiver will pay secured creditors 100 cents on the dollar, while unsecured creditors will secure 50 cents.

DIETZ PARDON PETITIONS.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 16.—Clarence F. Dietz has filed petitions with Governor McGovern asking for the pardon of his father, John F. Dietz, who was convicted of murdering a deputy sheriff in 1909 and sentenced to life imprisonment at Waupun.

The petitions contained more than 23,800 names. The signatures were obtained from all parts of Wisconsin. The matter was placed on the next pardon calendar and will be considered by the board at the next meeting.

Cannot Speak at Bemidji.

Bemidji, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Emil Seidel, former mayor of Milwaukee and Socialist candidate for vice president of the United States, will be unable to come to Bemidji on Aug. 18, as had been planned. He will speak in Brainerd, but train connections make it impossible for him to come to Bemidji.

CONFIDENCE IS GENERAL

Fear of Politician Thrown Off By Active Business Man.

Nothing Political Promises to Interfere With General Trade Interests.

New York, Aug. 16.—Business goes on with as much confidence as ever and the influence of the political results in the coming campaign is absolutely nil, now that the various parties have placed their candidates in the field.

There has been no demonstration in any of the political conventions as against honest transactions in business legally conducted, but there have been assurances by all the conventions that it is only dishonest and illegal business affairs that are to be banned and eliminated.

The influence of the trusts and combines of the so-called money power of this city and the country, does not appear in favor of any of the candidates, nor in united opposition to any one of them.

"Honors are easy" as to the support of candidates by the men who are supposed to manage or be in control of the money power, for some of them are supporting the Republican candidate, others the Democratic nominee, and still others active for the leader of the National Progressive party.

Politics in this city, as far as the national form of them is concerned, never occupied less time in the business men's daily existence than they are doing this year.

Business Men Cheerful.

Downtown one only hears of the excellent prospects for the railway companies and of the tremendous tonnage that will be theirs to carry this year, of the great productions of our mines and manufacturing establishments and the record-breaking exhibits of our exports and imports.

In the financial institutions there is the utmost cheerfulness in view of heavy transactions, active security markets and anticipation of large demands for funds at higher rates than are now obtainable.

In shipping circles the utmost activity exists; and now that wheat is at export figures, with a large surplus to be carried across the oceans; that corn bids fair to give hundreds of millions of bushels to go abroad to feed the inhabitants of other lands; that cotton, which did so well in furnishing ocean cargoes during the past twelve months, promises even more tonnage for the next twelve; that hay is ready in huge quantities for export, and coal, copper, zinc and products of the farms and the mills and the factories are to be transported in greater quantities across the seas, exporters, captains and crews are in a most comfortable state of mind.

Uptown the great department stores are preparing for the largest trade in their history, and expect that September, with the crowd of tourists passing to the West and South from the various Northern and Eastern resorts to their homes, will inaugurate a most profitable season's business.

Hotels Well Patronized.

The hotels throughout the city report the largest transient patronage that they have had in July and August for many years, and attribute it to the growing custom of the tourists upon vacation making a practice of stopping over for a few days in this city.

They also give credit to the increased transportation facilities with nearby resorts, such as on the Jersey, the New England and the Long Island coasts, for the bettering of the city hotel business during the usually very dull months of the summer.

There have been remedies by the score offered for the excessive cost of living, and in no city of the country have such remedies been more closely considered than in this very city of New York.

There seems to be a concentration of public sentiment here for a system of municipal markets, to be scattered all over the city so as to be convenient to the residents.

It is proposed to have these markets equipped with cold storage plants and warehouses in which perishable articles can be placed by the producers, the shippers or the retailers, and with a time limit upon such stored articles so as to keep the law of supply and demand in free operation at all times and thus prevent any hold-up of commodities needed by the people of the city.

The markets, it is argued, should be connected with the great and small railways that enter the city, and also have rapid and direct connection with water terminals, so that supplies by that cheapest of all transportations could be easily brought to the consumers.

These municipal markets seem to meet with the approval of the great majority of the people of New York, and while it will take considerable time to have the project put into operation, there is organizing a sentiment that will compel its adoption by the municipal authorities in the very near future.

Mayor Gaynor but a few months ago gave his approval in a direct way to the municipal market system without, however, entering into the details of the proposition under discussion.

His view was to bring the producers and the consumers into the closest relations possible, eliminating the costly middleman to the greatest degree.

SUPERIOR

Loses on Technicality.

A. J. McDonald failed to get the contract for the improvement of Bardon avenue, although his bid was the lowest, because he had not submitted a certified check and bond with the bid. The county board at its meeting yesterday dropped Mr. McDonald's bid on this technicality and the contract was awarded to Pat Carroll, whose bid was $4,000 more than Mr. McDonald's.

Golf Match.

R. T. Goodell, R. S. Patrick, E. P. Alexander and W. D. Leith, Duluth's four crack golfers, will hold a match with Superior's best players tomorrow afternoon at Gitchinadji club.

Laborer Brings Suit.

Mike Julius yesterday filed suit against the Superior Manufacturing company through his attorney, Hanitch & Hanitch. Julius is suing for $2,000 for alleged injuries, which he claims he received through the negligence of the company. He also claims that his fingers were broken and that he received a nervous shock as a result of the accident.

Plan Annual Picnic.

The Douglas County Suffrage society at its bi-monthly meeting yesterday decided to hold its annual picnic in connection with the Labor Day celebration. A speaker will be secured by the society to address the members during the day. Reports were made by the various committees yesterday.

Doctors Give Support.

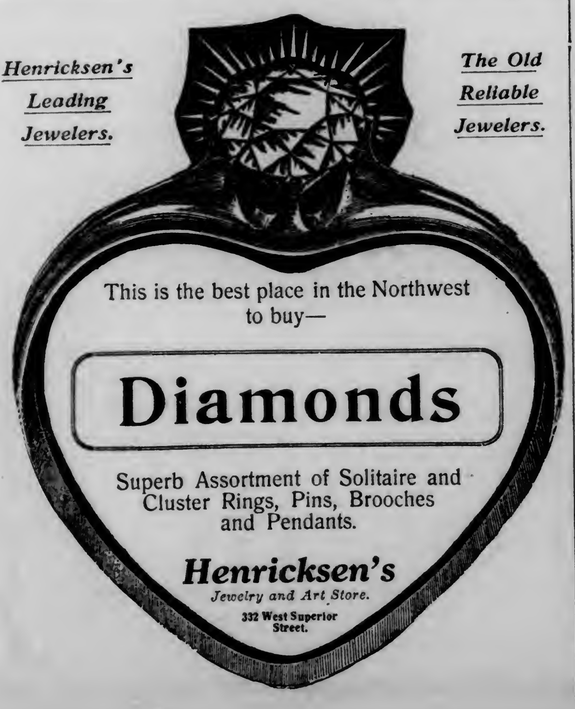

All the physicians and surgeons of Superior are supporting the plan of the public welfare society for the employment of a visiting nurse by the county. The medical men have indorsed the proposition and have promised to give their assistance to the society in the campaign.

STOLE THE CHUCH PULPIT.

Gary correspondent Indianapolis News: Members of the Nineteenth Avenue Baptist church reported to the police the church pulpit was stolen and today Shepherd King, employed as a janitor by Mayor T. E. Knotts, was arrested and charged with the crime. The pulpit was recovered.

TWENTY TRAMPS BURN TO DEATH

Lose Lives in Burning of Old Chicago Panorama Building.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Fifteen or twenty tramps are said to have been burned to death in a fire which destroyed the old Panorama building, South Wabash avenue and Hubbard place, this afternoon. James O'Neil, rescued from a window in the dome after he had been burned severely, told the police that twenty companions were asleep in a closed loft of the building.

LOOKING FOR ORE UNDER CROSBY

The Crosby Exploration company has started work on a piece of ground in the very heart of the city of Crosby. The property on which the shaft is being sunk is but three blocks from the business portion of the city. If a vein of ore should be discovered it will mean that a part of the residence district will have to be moved.

KISSING NOT SO BAD.

Boston Post: Kissing is not so serious a malady as the Milwaukee Physician's association would have us believe according to officers of the Massachusetts Medical society.

The Milwaukee doctors have declared war on kissing as "a disease and a menace to health and decency." So much in earnest are they that they are preparing a bill for the next legislature which aims to prohibit the practice.

The physicians of Boston do not take the matter so seriously. Dr. George B. Shattuck president of the Massachusetts Medical society, when asked his opinion of the proposed law, said:

"My ideas on the subject are not for public consumption. You should go to some more experienced man."

Dr. Walter L. Burrage, secretary of the society, was more explicit.

"Of course kissing is not a disease," he said. "It is a natural act or process and is not in general a menace to health. Indiscriminate kissing is liable to pass disease such as tonsilitis, diphtheria, intluenza and certain blood disease.

"But kissing is essentially a family practice and as such cannot be prohibited by the body politic. Such a law would be more in place in countries like Germany, where everybody, men and all, kiss indiscriminately."

THE USEFUL LITTLE CARROT.

Good Housekeeping Magazine: Housekeepers who do their own cooking and strive after dainty hands, know the almost permanent stains that one harmless looking little bunch of carrots will leave on the fingers. The writer has found that they will not need scraping if they are washed and then boiled for about five minutes. Pour off the boiling water, let cold water run on them till they are cool enough to handle and the skins will slip off like beet skins.

Barthe-Martin Editorial

WE HAVE THE RIGHT IDEA

We have put into execution, this idea, this principle, of selling to everybody at wholesale.

We buy from the manufacturers and sell to you.

The jobbers buy from manufacturers and sell to the retail stores.

The retail stores sell to the consumer.

We eliminate the retailer.

You all know it costs the retailer money to carry on his business. He has his rent, help, etc., to pay. The best authorities say it costs the retailer 20 to 25 per cent to do business—that means 20 to 25 per cent has to be added on to the cost of the goods that he gets from the jobber. The jobber has, of course, already added on 10 to 15 per cent to cover his cost of doing business—that means the consumer is paying the manufacturer's cost of the goods plus the jobber's cost of doing business, plus the jobber's profit made on the goods, plus the retailer's cost of doing business, plus the retailer's profit; and after all is said, who pays the bills for those who do not pay?

BARTHE-MARTIN CO. take no losses on credits, as they do a cash business, whereas the corner grocery could not do business if it were not on a credit basis.

MADE PLAIN BY FIGURES:

$1.00 Manufacturer's cost.
.10 Jobber's cost of doing business.
.05 Jobber's profit.
.25 Retailer's cost of doing business.
.05 Retailer's profit.
.05 Retailer's loss on credits.

$1.50 Cost to consumer.

On all perishable goods Mr. Consumer must add 25 to 40 per cent for spoilage, making his cost $1.75 to $1.90 above the original cost $1.00; so you see the original cost has nearly doubled.

The consumer is beginning to realize that the retailer cannot run up to his or her house, several times a day with groceries and not pay for same. The costs of all these trips is on your bill, but cannot be seen. Also the retailer learns that the jobber cannot send around a salesman two or three times a week, but that he is paying for same. But his worries on that score are short, for he puts same on Mr. Consumer's bill.

Imagine, on a Monday morning recently there were six jobbers' salesmen calling on a corner grocery for his order—all there at the same time, and it only costs a jobber $10 to $20 per day to travel men about the country. The consumer pays for it.

RAINY WEST AIDS BULLS

Flaxseed Market Still Dull—Buyers and Sellers Waiting.

Duluth Board of Trade, Aug. 16.—Wet weather in the West caused wheat to close higher on the markets of North America today. Duluth September closed ½c to ⅝c higher. Cash wheat closed 10c over September. Durum closed ⅜c higher, oats ½c up, rye½c up and barley unchanged. Duluth September and December flaxseed closed a cent higher and October and November half a cent higher.

The rains through the Northwest, as shown by the weather map today, bulled wheat on all the principal markets of North America, though the harvest reports continued to be good. The upward movement, however, was not drastic or sensational. The primary receipts of wheat on the American markets were today, as usual, far in excess of those of a year ago.

Duluth September wheat, which closed yesterday at 93¼@93⅜c bid, opened today at 93⅝c asked and at noon was quoted at 93⅞c bid. There were also higher quotations from Chicago, Minneapolis and Winnipeg.

Liverpool wheat today closed ⅛d to ¼d lower. This was due to a forecast of larger world shipments this week, the prediction of clearing and warmer weather in the United Kingdom, larger receipts of wheat for the last three days and more favorable Argentine reports.

Flax Market Lifeless.

Today the Duluth flaxseed market was again a lifeless proposition. There were scarcely any offers from the country and no flax arrived for inspection. Crushers were not at all in a hurry to buy. There was some demand, however, for the September option by Minneapolis hedgers, and it went up in price. Duluth September flax at noon today was 2c higher. October and November were unchanged. Buenos Ayres October closed last night unchanged at $1.70¾. London-Calcutta August and September today closed 1⅜c up at $2.11⅜.

MARKET GOSSIP

W. D. Sammis of the Minneapolis grain commission company of Carter, Sammis & Co., one of the oldest houses operating on the chamber of commerce of that city, having been a member since 1881, was in Duluth today as the guest of J. H. Cook, who represents that house on the Duluth board of trade. Mr. Sammis remarked that in his opinion the vast amount of grain of the Northwest was almost bound to cause a shortage of cars during the grain-moving season.

"Jim Hill has told us that there will be no such shortage on his road," said he, "but Hill has made such statements before. There is almost invariably a shortage of cars for a time, even when the crop is light, for the railroads, finding less than the usual amount of traffic in moving the crops, divert their cars elsewhere, where they can make more money with them. For a time last winter there was a scarcity of cars for the Minneapolis trade because a large number of cars had been diverted from their usual channels of commerce of that time of the year and had been set to carry bonded grain from Western Canada to Duluth.

"I believe the banks will have plenty of money for the movement of the crops. In fact, I think that within the next sixty days the country banks will have received such large deposits of farmers' money that they will have money to loan. A vast amount of money is going to flow into the Northwest this year and right into the farmers' hands.

"There is quite a premium now for No. 1 northern cash wheat, both old and new, over September. The old keeps about 2c above the new on the Minneapolis market, because of its superior milling qualities, but there is a big premium on the new. I believe this is because the new is being mixed with the old in the milling, though, if you ask a miller if that is so, he will tell you that it is not. But the premiums are gradually working down, as Septemebr approaches.

"The new wheat that is being received now at Minneapolis amounts to about 100 cars a day, being partly winter and partly spring wheat. Much is coming in now from this year's crop in South Dakota."

* * *

Matt Hewitt, manager of the plant of the Zenith Milling company at Lake Park, Becker county, Minn., who was a guest today on the Duluth Board of Trade, said the grain crops of Becker county were looking fine. He said the wheat crop was made and beyond all possibility of damage by any other cause than hail. Cutting of wheat in Becker county, he said, had just begun, and it would run 15 to 20 bushels to the acre. Last year it ran 10 to 18 bushels, being greatly damaged by black rust. This year he said he had heard of no black rust at all in that part of the state.

The Anoka, Minn., Union says: "Anoka county has raised 1,000,000 bushels of potatoes this year."

A dispatch from Minneapolis says that the flour mills of that city are doing the biggest business in more than two years. In the past ten days sales of 1,000,000 barrels of flour have been made, including those made yesterday for export to England, Scotland and Continental Europe. The production record for Minneapolis this year is the prediction made by milling men here. The record is 16,260,105 made in 1902. Last year's production was 15,795,470 barrels.

"Minneapolis will make a new high record for the crop year of 1912," said Fred G. Atkinson, manager of one of the large mills, today. "I expect that the flour production from Sept. 1, 1912 to Sept. 1, 1913, which is the crop year, will exceed that of any preceding crop or calendar year."

The Chicago, Paint, Oil and Drug Review says: "The linseed cake market is quiet and very little business is reported. The previous quotation of $29 f. o. b., Minneapolis, is confirmed, plus $1.50 freight to Chicago."

The Modern Miller, St. Louis, says: "A considerable amount of winter wheat is still in the fields and in the shock. Rains are delaying thrashing, this being mostly the case in soft winter wheat territory. In localities where the weather is favorable, plowing has begun. Many farmers have stopped selling and are holding their best wheat."

Indian wheat shipments this week, 1,952,000 bu; last week, 1,048,000 bu; last year, 552,000 bu.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Wheat Trade Is Light With Tendency to Bull Side.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Wheat traders today leaned to the bull side. Trading was light with cash demand and rainy weather in the Northwest moving factors. The opening was steady to ¼c up, with December unchanged to ⅛c higher at 92¾@92⅞c. That option speedily went up to 93⅛@93¼c on a fair demand rested on the high level.

Unsettled weather, a good cash demand and lighter receipts in the principal markets kept values firm. Covering by shorts was a late factor. The close was strong, with December ⅝c higher at 93½c.

September corn forged slightly ahead of the distant months on fears of wet weather delay to immediate downstate movement. The opening was strong and well supported by purchasing by large traders. September started ¼c to ⅜c up at 69⅞c to 70c, and added ⅛c at the top. December moved up to 54¾c after opening a shade to ¼c higher at 54¼@54⅜c to 54½c.

Some short covering and a strong demand led to further upturns. The close was strong and near the top. December finished ⅝@¾c higher at 54⅞@55c.

Covering by shorts and rainy weather delay of arrivals made oats strong. Cash houses laid in supplies of September. December opened a shade to ⅛@⅜c higher at 32¾@33c and ruled firm within the opening limits in the early trading.

Good demand for provisions gave firmness to the entire list, January product leading. Initial sales varied from unchanged to 10c advance. October products were: Pork, $18.27½; lard, $11.07½, and ribs, $10.95.

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Light Rains and Forecast of More Make Wheat Firmer.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 16.—Scattered light rains in North Dakota and unsettled weather predicted for three states made wheat rule firmer. September closed ⅞c higher than yesterday, December ⅜c higher and May ⅜@⅞c higher. Local elevator stocks decreased 575,000 bu for the week.

Carlot wheat receipts follow: Minneapolis, today, 194; week ago, 14; year ago, 177. Duluth, today, 1; week ago, 3; year ago, 17. Winnipeg, today, 91; week ago, 117; year ago, 91. Cash wheat was steady for blue stem and easier for velvet chaff. The latter sold at a discount of 10c or more below the former. Demand was good for milling grades. No. 1 northern (blue stem) sold for 11c to 13c above the September contract. Millstuffs shipments, 2,034 tons. Prices were a trifle easier and demand trifle more active.

Wheat—September opened 92c; high, 92⅞c; low, 91⅞c; closed, 92¾c; December, opened, 92½c; high, 93¼c; low, 92⅝c; closed 93@93⅛c; May opened, 96⅝c; high, 97½c; low, 96⅝c; closed, 97⅜c.

Closing cash: No. 1 hard, $1.06⅛; No. 1 northern, $1.06⅜; to arrive, $1.00⅜; No. 2 northern, $1.04⅜; to arrive, 98⅜c; No. 3 wheat, $1.00⅜@1.02⅜; No. 3 yellow corn, 74½@75c; No. 3 white oats, 30@30½c; No. 2 rye, 63½@64c.

Minneapolis mills continued to book good flour sales. Most orders were for deferred shipments. Export business of small volume. Prices unchanged. Shipments, 51,906 bbl. Leading local patents, in wood f. o. b. Minneapolis, $4.90@5.25; other patents, $4.65@4.90; first clears, $3.40@3.65; second clears, $2.30@2.60.

Flax—Receipts, 1 car; year ago, 3; shipments, 1. Demand god for flax. Spot, No. 1 seed quoted 5c above Duluth September. Close, $1.86.

Barley—Receipts, 45 cars; year ago, 37; shipments, 20. Demand only fair for barley at best and offerings heavy. Prices unchanged from yesterday to 1c lower. Close, 36@64c.

DECLINES IN STOCKS

Special Weakness Shown By American Tobacco and General Chemical.

New York, Aug. 16. — Trading on the exchange today was almost the dullest of the week with a tendency toward reaction. Leading issues ruled under yesterday's final quotations in the first hour, but made some recovery towards noon. Coppers and equipment issues were exceptions to the general trend. Canadian Pacific abruptly declined 2 points and American Tobacco fell almost 5. The movement as a whole reflected nothing quite so much as public and professional indifference. By way of outside news the most interesting development was an order of the interstate commerce commission suspending for a long period certain proposed freight rate advances. Bonds were easy.

Opening prices of stocks today indicated a resumption of yesterday's late selling. All the prominent issues were down from minor to material fractions, with a two point decline in Canadian Pacific. The only issues of importance to manifest strength were Great Northern Ore certificiates and Ontario & Western.

Strength in specialties such as Pullman, North American company and Chino, was the feature of the afternoon, active issues showing no marked changes from the midday level.

The market closed irregular. Selling of the active list caused general recessions to lowest prices in the last hour but something of a rally came in the final dealings, Steel and Union Pacific showing support. American Tobacco and General Chemical were especially weak, with losses of 8 and 7 points, respectively.

Cotton Market.

New York, Aug. 16. — The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 6 to 14 points in response to weak Liverpool cables, but rallied 8 to 10 points right after the call on covering and bull support from some of yesterday's big buyers influenced by a private condition report indicating a deterioriation of a little over 3 per cent in the crop outlook since the end of July. Leading spot interests were heavy sellers on this rally, however, and the market later sold off again to a net loss of 18 or 20 points. Trading was active and the market very nervous during the middle of the morning with prices 2 or 3 points up from the lowest.

Futures closed weak. Closing bids: August, 11.06; September, 11.06; October, 11.25; November, 11.29; December, 11.33; January, 11.26; February, 11.33; March, 11.39; May, 11.45.

New York Money.

New York, Aug. 16.—Money on call, steady, 2⅝@2⅞ per cent; ruling rate, 2¾ per cent; closing bid, 2⅝ per cent; offered at 2¾ per cent. Time loans, easier; 60 days, 3½@3¾ per cent, and 90 days, 3¾@4 per cent; six months, 4⅝@4¾ per cent.

Close: Prime mercantile paper, 5@5½ per cent. Sterling exchange steady at $4.84.50 for 60 day bills, and at $4.87.10 for demand. Commercial bills, $4.83¾. Bar silver, 63c. Mexican dollars, 48½c. Government bonds, steady; railroad bonds, irregular.

London Stocks.

London, Aug. 16.—American securities opened steady today. During the forenoon Canadian Pacific was weak and declined 2¼ points, but the rest of the list held within a small fraction of parity.

COPPERS MAKE FEW CHANGES

Most of the copper stocks closed today with scarcely any changes from the closing figures of yesterday. Trading was not active and both buyers and sellers were conservative in the extreme and disposed to maintain a waiting attitude. Butte-Alex Scott closed 75c to $1.25 higher. Amalgamated also closed somewhat higher. Butte & Superior at today's close was a little lower. The general stock market of New York was somewhat higher at the close, though trad'ng was not active. The London copper metal market closed with spot and futures 7s 6d higher than at the close of yesterday.

* * *

Paine, Webber & Co. today received from Foster at Boston the following closing copper letter: "The strength in Ray and Chino, especially the latter, was the only feature of the local market. The balance of the list showed a tendency to sag, but buying just at the close brought prices back to last night's level. Superior & Boston was in good demand, due to encouraging news from the mine. The action of the general list was good today and showed the strong undertone. The buying increased on the reactions and the bear raids only resulted in loss of stock without forcing any liquidation."

* * *

Gay & Sturgis today received from Hall at Boston the following copper closing letter: "There was considerable profit taking in the market today. There was no real pressure, but a general recession. In the final dealings the market rallied on the announcement that the senate had sustained the president's veto of the steel bill. We feel that a reaction was due and technically the market is in a stronger position for it. It is hard to see how the market can go very far wrong, with almost assured bumper crops, and that the American people would rather see good crops and a poor president than a good president and poor crops."

* * *

Gay & Sturgis and Paine, Webber & Co., received cables showing larger amounts of copper on the other side of the Atlantic. The foreign visible copper supply in England, France and afloat thereto on Aug. 15 was 46,101 tons, an increase of 1,075 tons within the past two weeks. Stocks at Rotterdam and Hamburg decreased 415 tons.

INVISIBLE INKS.

Answers: There are several ways in which two persons can correspond with each other unknown to even the persons before whose eyes the very letter is held.

For instance, new milk may be used as ink. When dried this is invisible, but if coal dust or soot be scattered upon the paper the writing becomes legible.

Diluted sulphuric acid, lemon juice, solutions of nitrate and chloride of cobalt or of chloride of copper wire colorless, but on being heated the characters written with the first two become black or brown, and the latter green. And when the paper becomes cool the writing disappears, leaving the paper blank again.

Two good invisible inks are made by saltpeter dissolved in water and equal parts of sulphate of copper and sal ammoniac dissolved in water.

DULUTH, MINN., AUG. 16, 1912.

Just returned from the West after visiting the Butte & Superior, Butte-Alex Scott and the Coeur d'Alenes. Regarding Butte & Superior, I believe the shares will sell above $100.

Mr. Wolvin took me through the entire mill and it is one of the greatest of its kind in the world.

Duluth people who are heavily interested in Butte & Superior should take a trip out to the mine, and they would then easily understand why Eastern people are buying shares.

The Butte-Alex Scott is easily figured out and while at this property Superintendent Stone told me he could not understand why shares were not selling at $25.00 or above. You see this Scott mine is very rich. The ore body on the 600 is about 30 feet wide, say nothing about the very big rich ore bodies below. Scott is the great independent earner of money in Butte today.

The day I was in Butte Mr. Stone sent back to the company here a very large check. Last month was the greatest month the company ever had.

Calumet & Sonora is very much in demand at present and we understand the showing at this mine is something wonderful. There is no reason why this stock should not double in price and looks cheap at that figure. I believe this is one of the safest stocks on the board.

I spent ten days in the Coeur d'Alenes and made a study of the camp. We visited every mine in the district.

This is one of the most wonderful districts in the world. The Tamarack & Chesapeake, Hercules & Mammoth Consolidated are the big rich mines and the Puritan, located on the same ledges and on the same mountain is the most promising new proposition that I have ever seen. James F. Callahan is president of the Puritan and August Paulson, one of the big owners of Hercules, is heavily interested.

I think Scott stock is due for a big advance and advise the purchase.

Butte is the heavy buyer again and that means higher priced shares.

MARRIAGE IN OTHER LANDS.

Chicago Tribune: Married life differs so widely—and so do marriages. But they are all sacred.

In Borneo the bride and groom sit on metal logs before the priest, who gives them cigars and betel while he blesses them. He waves above them two fowls bound together. The bridegroom then places the betel in his bride's mouth and a cigar between her lips. They are married.

There are other places where customs are even more unique.

You, little girl, wooed for months before you give your consent, have perhaps never read of Morocco. For there the wooing never precedes marriage—it follows. Often the wife doesn't see the husband until after she has been wedded to him, and it is only by chance that the husband sees his wife or knows what she looks like.

Suppose you were just married. Would you like it if you could talk to no one for three days? Yet that is the fate of the Chinese girl. For three nights after the marriage the Chinese bride, veiled, must stay awake and listen to the teasings and jokes of some girl friend who is there just on purpose to make her laugh.

But the Chinese bride must not allow her voice to escape her. She must show, by staying silent those three nights, that she will be a quiet wife. There are seven reasons for which a Chinese man may divorce his wife, you know and one of them is talkativeness.

Among the Mezeyn Arabs the bride runs away and hides in the mountains. The groom hunts until he finds her or dies in the attempt. If he is lucky he will lead her to her father's tent and proclaim they are married. Then the bride must stay within the shadow of that tent until she becomes a mother.

The wedding invitation means much in Barcelona, Spain. For then everyone who receives one must go and give a coin to the bride. That is for her dowry. The father is usually unable to furnish one. He has had to buy a house for her and fit it up, and that is usually expensive.

In Japan, lanf of flowers, they hold funeral services at the home of the bride's parents the night she is married. This is to show that the young lady is dead to her father and mother.

The marriage ceremony is simple. The bride and groom seat themselves at a table where there are three flat cups, each a little larger than the other. The cups are filled with wine and the bride and groom drink from them in turn, taking the smallest first and graduating upward. After this is done the go-between, who has arranged the marriage, announces they are wedded.

The Bedouin marriage does not take much time. The groom cuts the throat of a sheep and spills the blood on the sand of his father-in-law's threshold and the wedding is over.

The Swedish girl prays for a rainy day on which to get married. Then before she goes to the ceremony attired in her wedding clothes she milks the cow, feeds the calf, and steals a breast feather from the hen. This is to bring her the necessities and luxuries of life.

Small transformers that may be screwed into electric light sockets to permit the use of low voltage lamps on high voltage circuits are a German novelty.

An attachment for a telephone receiver by which another person can hear what is being said over the wire—a stenographer, for instance, who is to take both sides of a conversation—has been invented.

WILLING TO BE EXPLICIT

Will Speak at Atlantic City to Spanish War Veterans.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 16. — "It always has been found to be a very easy job to make me explicit," remarked Governor Woodrow Wilson today when his attention was called to reports from Oyster Bay that Col. Roosevelt in his New England speeches would call on the Democratic nominee to be more specific in his interpretation of the Democratic platform.

The governor admitted today that "strong pressure" was being brought to bear upon him to have him speak in Maine before the gubernatorial elections on Sept. 9. The governor's present expectation is not to go, but indications are that he may be persuaded to change his mind.

The governor announced that he expected the western headquarters at Chicago to be opened at once. Joseph E. Davies, secretary of the national committee, is due in Chicago Monday. It is the intention of Mr. Davies, after establishing the Western headquarters, to make a tour through St. Louis, Denver, San Francisco, Seattle and other Western points to determine the best centers for branch headquarters.

Governor Wilson has accepted an invitation to speak at the encampment of Spanish War Veterans at Atlantic City Sept. 10. The same week, but on different days, Col. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft have been invited to speak.

The governor received an invitation to review the Olympic athletes Aug. 25, but said he probably would be unable to go.

DEAL FOR STATE FARM IS CLOSED

Greysolon Farm Site of Agricultural School Purchased By State.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 16.—The state of Minnesota yesterday bought two farms, one of 235 acres in the outskirts of the city of Waseca. The other, 245 acres, is three miles from Duluth. Both are to be used for experimental purposes and cost $40,000.

The tract referred to in the dispatch is the site of the Duluth demonstration farm school at Greysolon farms, the terms for which were agreed upon some time ago.

CAMPING BY BERRIES.

Cloquet, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—About a mile from the Sawyer station, on the Northern Pacific, all the Indians who are not farmers, for a radius of several miles, have built tepees and for several weeks have been camped for the purpose of picking blueberries. They have have a rude board warehouse for storage purposes and the berries are shipped from Sawyer. The berry woods extend for miles in either direction, much of them in heavy timber on Indian land which has never been cut over.

Seven Automobiles Burn.

La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 16.—The public garage of Jacob Zimmer here burned last night after an explosion of gasoline caused by a car coming into the garage with kerosene lamps. Seven automobiles were burned.

MARINE

TONNAGE IS SCARCER

Market at Duluth and Cleveland Is Becoming Stronger.

Records in Unloading Ore Are Being Broken Frequently.

The demand for tonnage at the port of Duluth is steadily increasing. The market at Cleveland is constantly growing stronger. Ore has been at times rather scarce but it is now offered more freely and more of the wild boats are busy than a few weeks ago.

At the beginning of the season and for several weeks following the opening, the market was brisk in all lines. Gradually, however, there was a falling off and some of the boats have been idle for some time. They are all being pressed back into service and at the present time it looks as though there will be more offered than can be cared for, all boats working.

Hard coal is now moving freely and while the local port needs a great deal of this commodity, it is believed that with quick dispatch of the boats from this time on there will be plenty of coal received for local as well as shipping needs.

During the past ten days thick weather has interfered seriously with lake shipping. In some instances it has held up the passenger boats, many of them going to anchor until the fog lifted at different times.

All the boats have lost more or less time and this has given the docks a chance to catch up.

Records Broken.

Docks down the lakes are making records every day; in the matter of quick unloading. Tuesday at Conneaut, Ohio, the F. A. B. Widener was relieved of 10,636 tons of ore in two hours and fifty-two minutes. This is an average of sixty-two tons a minute and is the record up to this time. At the beginning an average of 160 tons a minute was lifted out of the boat, but towards the end it took more time. Never before had a boat of this size been unloaded in less than three hours.

There hasn't been much fall chartering for shipment of grain as yet and no charters for winter storage have been made with the possible exception of one which was reported from Cleveland about ten days ago.

The grain rate remains at 1½ cents, but the likelihood is that the rate will be raised within the next few weeks. Ore is still being carried for 40 cents.

The pleasant weather of the past few days has brought out passenger business with a rush. Several of the companies are booking passages some weeks ahead.

Movement in package freight is rapid. The boats lost some time during the strikes of dock laborers and the business was piled up to such an extent that the boats are now being rushed up and down the lakes in record time.

Lumber shipping has never slackened its pace since the opening of navigation. It opened with a boom and it has continued constantly up to this time and looks good to marine men for the rest of the season.

A cargo of oil cake was taken down the lakes yesterday. Oil cake is what is left after the oil has been squeezed out of flaxseed. It is the first cargo of the kind sent down the lakes this year.

OFFICER OF BOAT IS ARRESTED

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 16.—Thomas E. Johnson, steward on the steamer E. G. Crosby, was fined $50 and costs in the district court for permitting the operation of slot machines on the vessel in Milwaukee harbor. The court ordered eight machines confiscated.

Johnson is one of the three officers of the vessel arrested on the above charge by federal authorities recently.

LOGGING WORK IS ABOUT COMPLETED

Cloquet, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Three weeks more will see the completion of logging operations of the Northern Lumber company on Big lake. A steam loader and crew of men have been busy there nearly all summer hauling the logs out of the lake, where they were landed two years ago, loading them and shipping to Cloquet over the Northern Pacific, running them on a temporary spur into Sawyer, where they strike the main line. Z. B. Hoyt of Cloquet is in charge of the camp, which is on reservation land, which is about ten miles from Cloquet, and the road leading to it is crossed and recrossed many times by the beds of old railroad tracks which have been laid when the country was covered with big timber and there was a camp every three or four miles. At the completion of the work at Big lake the track will be taken up and the camp buildings abandoned to the Indians.

HOMESTEADERS' MONEY IS GONE

James Posey, Federal Land Commissioner, Accused of Stealing It.

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charged with embezzling over $400 of homesteaders' money taken on final proofs, James Posey has been arrested at Dawson. He was United States land commissioner and his appointment has been revoked by Judge Amidon of the federal court. Posey claims he sent the money to the local land office and that it was lost in transmission.

NORTH DAKOTA ACREAGE IS LARGE

Amount of Farming Land in Flickertail State Gains Steadily.

Bismarck, N. D., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—All but five counties in North Dakota report an increased acreage over last year, according to the figures so far received in the state auditor's office on the assessed acreage for 1912. In the western counties, especially, is the gain in the number of acres sown to grain remarkable. McKenzie county shows an increase of 124,030 acres, Divide county 59,780 acres, Mountrail 61,001 acres, Burke 20,824 acres, Ward 17,221 acres, Benson 15,242 acres and several others report a similar increase.

The slope country and southern counties show even a greater increase over the past several years. Morton's increase is 108,759 acres over last year, Bowman 73,049 acres, Dunn 39,050 acres, Emmons 25,519 acres, Hettinger 31,660 acres, Kidder 48,867 acres, Logan 27,142 acres, McIntosh 24,949 acres, Sheridan 21,050 acres and Stark 37,837 acres. In the five counties where a decrease has been shown the range is from 10 to 500 acres.

DIES IN MINNESOTA.

Belvidere, Ill., Man Called at Summer Resort Near Brainerd.

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.) — Myron D. Perkins, aged 62, a prominent real estate man of Belvidere, Ill., died yesterday at Emily, where he had been spending his summer vacation. The remains were sent to his home and were accompanied by his wife and two sons.

MANDAN WILL HAVE AGRICULTURAL STATION.

Mandan, N. D., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—The agricultural and horticultural station authorized by the federal government, and for which an appropriation of $50,000 has been made, probably will be established next spring, according to telegraphic advices from Washington. Suitable land for the agricultural station can be secured, it is believed, for about $20 an acre, which makes the original appropriation great enough to make the purchase and to erect the buildings necessary.

The Commercial club has been interested, for a long time, in the proposition of securing the station, and is well pleased at the success achieved.

UNDERTAKER BADLY WOUNDED BY BULLET.

Walton, Ky., Aug. 18.—Dispatches from Verona, Ky., today contain a denial of the death of M. T. Wilson, undertaker and a prominent citizen, who was shot yesterday by William Littel. The first reports were that Wilson had died instantly. His physicians say he has little chance for recovery, however. The murder charge against Littel was changed to shooting with intent to kill. Littel is under arrest.

Sues Inland Steel Company.

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—Anton Lindstrom, a miner employed near Crosby, has commenced suit for $15,000 damages against the Inland Steel company for injuries alleged to have been received while he was in the employ of the company. Lindstrom alleges he fell from an inner level a distance of forty-five feet down the shaft, striking in his descent a plank and landing in a pool of water at the bottom.

GLENWOOD PARK, AT WOODLAND.

FOUR BLOCKS WEST OF END OF WOODLAND CAR LINE.

Acre and half-acre garden tracts, ideally located for the man who works in the city. The cleanest, prettiest and most healthful neighborhood, which, at the same time, gives easy access to your business.

Here is a chance to reduce the cost of living. Have a cow and chickens; raise your own vegetables; be independent of the grocer and milkman, and live better.

Why pay rent, which is wholly lost, when we give you a chance to buy a home with the same money?
COME OUT TOMORROW.

ALLIANCE REAL ESTATE COMPANY, 205 LONSDALE BLDG.

BARROWS.

THE NEW MINING TOWN ON THE Cuyuna range, offers splendid opportunities for investment and for the establishment of business in various lines. This town is located in the richest part of the range, adjoining the Barrows mine, which will ship ore this season, and where a large force of men is now employed in putting down the third shaft, two being already completed. A number of other mines adjacent to the townsite will be opened up, making Barrows one of the greatest mining centers on the range. Streets are graded, cement sidewalks in, and buildings are going up rapidly. Lots are now offered at from $150 to $400 on the partial payment plan. Buy now while you can buy at the first offered price; get located in a live new town and prosper with the development of the country.

A few years ago lots that were sold in Hibbing, Virginia and Chisholm at the prices we are now asking are worth today several thousand dollars. For further information apply to

IS THE SUNDAY PAPER IN THE OUTSIDE TOWNS

The Saturday Herald is delivered bright and early Sunday morning to thousands of regular subscribers in the Copper and Iron districts of Northern Michigan.

The Saturday Herald is the favorite Sunday paper on the Iron Ranges, being delivered by our own carriers to thousands of regular subscribers.

The Saturday Herald, always 28 to 32 pages, is replete with features interesting to all members of the family. The news of neighboring towns furnished by our own correspondents, is one of the pleasing features of The Saturday Herald.

The Saturday Herald furnishes the Sunday reading for the great majority of homes in Duluth and tributary towns.

The Saturday Herald has a circulation greater by thousands than that of any other Saturday or Sunday paper in this territory.

GOFF TO BE INQUISITOR

Underworld Panic-Stricken and Many Are Fleeing From City.

Evidence of Over $1,000,000 Annual Graft Has Been Found.

Police Commissioner Waldo Convinced Whitman Is Right.

New York, Aug. 17.—A general investigation into police graft in all its phases is to be undertaken by the extraordinary session of the supreme court presided over by Justice Goff, who has been designated by Governor Dix to sit in the trials of Police Lieut. Becker and others charged with the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal.

News that the supreme court would conduct a grand jury inquisition, with Justice Goff having full powers of compelling testimony, caused a panic in the underworld today, and many gamblers and others hurriedly left the city.

It had been supposed that the appointment of Justice Goff was only for the purpose of trying the Rosenthal murder cases, but it leaked out that the supreme court would begin a John Doe inquiry that would delve into the innermost relations between the police and keepers of gambling and disorderly houses.

Under John Doe proceedings, Justice Goff can call gamblers and keepers of disorderly houses and force them to tell how much money was paid for police protection and to whom the money was paid. The aldermanic inquiry, it is expected, will co-operate with the work of the supreme court.

Evidence is in the hands of District Attorney Whitman that disorderly houses in the city paid more than $1,000,000 for police protection during the last year and that this money went to certain police inspectors and others "higher up."

The punishment inflicted upon Inspector Hayes by reducing him to the rank of captain and then suspending him on the charge that he failed to keep his district clean, is believed to be a forerunner of a general shakeup

CALL ALIENISTS IN BERNSTEIN CASE

Chicago Woman's Story of Husband's Actions to Be Impeached.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Three alienists were prepared to testify today whether Mrs. Florence Bernstein was suffering from "furore transitoria," and therefore insane when she is said to have shot her husband to death.

Witnesses to impeach Mrs. Bernstein, whose story of the alleged cruelty and abuse of her husband thrilled the courtroom spectators for two days, were to be called late in the day. This would conclude the taking of evidence.

It was not expected the case would go to the jury before Monday afternoon.

W. H. WORKMAN REPORTED KILLED

Bombay, India, Aug. 17.—W. Hunter Workman, the American mountain climber and explorer, is reported to have been killed by an avalanche while climbing in the Himalaya range in the north of India. Native coolies attached to the expedition report that a great avalanche overwhelmed the Workman party and killed one of them. No definite information was obtainable from the coolies as to whether the victim was Mr. Workman himself or one of the guides.

Both W. Hunter Workman, who is a native of Worcester, Mass., where he was born on Feb. 16, 1847, and his wife, Fanny Bullock Workman, also of Worcester, Mass., have been for many years engaged in mountain climbing, principally in Asia. They have usually made their ascents together. In the intervals of their mountain ascents Mr. and Mrs. Workman have delivered lectures on their travels. They have written many books and have received a number of foreign decorations.

LINING UP "SPIELERS"

Campaign Managers Lay Out Plans for the Oratory.

Progressives Launch the Fight for Illinois Offices.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Work at the speakers' bureau at both Progressive and Republican headquarters in Chicago was started today and tentative lists of "spellbinders" compiled by the campaign managers.

Henry F. Cochems of Milwaukee took personal charge of the Progressive bureau on his arrival from New York. It was said the Progressive campaign would be in full swing before Sept. 1.

David W. Mulvane of Kansas, director of the Chicago Republican headquarters, assumed the direction of the Republican bureau, pending the selection of a permanent manager for this division of the campaign. Mr. Mulvane said the Republican organization found itself with a large surplus of speakers.

Start State Campaign.

The Illinois state Progressive campaign was launched today at a meeting held at the Hotel La Salle. Medill McCormick, state chairman, presided at the meeting, which was convened at 10 o'clock. The state central committee will select a secretary, treasurer and an executive committee to manage the state campaign.

State Senator Frank Funk of Bloomington, candidate for governor on the Progressive ticket, issued a statement in which he outlined what the Progressives expected to do.

"We Progressives propose to make Illinois a free state," said Senator Funk. "We propose to give the state government back to the people. We propose to bring state laws abreast of the industrial needs of the hour.

"When I say a 'free state,' I mean a state like California and Kansas, where the people have thrown off the control of big business and bad politics and have taken their own government into their own hands."

AUGUST RAINFALL THROWN IN SHADE

North Dakota Harvesting and Thrashing Is Temporarily Halted.

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Up to last night the heaviest August rain that had ever fallen in Fargo was 2.30 inches, but last night's downpour was .04 more. While the rainfall was general over the state, it was not so heavy as here.

All harvest and thrashing work is temporarily suspended, but no serious damage was done by the rain, as it was not accompanied by wind. The weather is threatening today, but an improvement is predicted for tomorrow.

CATHOLIC PRESS MEN ENDING CONVENTION.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 17.—Concluding sessions of the Catholic Press association's annual meeting are in progress today, preliminary to the opening here tomorrow of the convention. The federation ceremonies will begin with pontifical mass at which Most Rev. John Bonzano, papal delegate, will officiate.

Election of officers of the press association late today will conclude the sessions. It is reported the present officers, headed by E. J. Cooney of Providence, R. I., as president, will be reelected.

ROOSEVELT HITS WILSON

Bull Moose Candidate Makes Speech at Revere Beach, Mass.

Revere Beach, Mass., Aug. 17.—Honesty in nominations and elections, and social and industrial justice, were the text of a speech delivered here by Theodore Roosevelt today. The Progressive candidate also contrasted the Progressive platform with the Democratic platform as discussed by Governor Wilson in his speech of acceptance.

Whereas Governor Wilson, he said, stated that "the platform is not a program," Col. Roosevelt declared that the Progressives treated their platform as a program and a "contract which we shall scrupulously fulfill if the people give us the power."

Col. Roosevelt said in part:

"Men and women of Massachusetts—and on the platform on which I stand I make the same appeal of serious and sober purpose to the women as to the men—I come to this state, with its background of adherence to lofty ideals, and ask you in the name of Massachusetts to place the Massachusetts of today on the side of those who battle for all that is highest and best in our national life.

"Clear of Old Parties."

"In making my speech here in Massachusetts on behalf of the Progressive party, I wish to emphasize the fact that we are absolutely clear from affiliation with either of the old parties,

COLUMBUS MAYOR SUSPENDS CHIEF

Head of Police Department Accused of Incompetency and Wrongdoing.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 17.—Mayor Karb today suspended Chief of Police Charles J. Carter on charges of incompetency, accepting and converting fees belonging to inferior officers, and of knowingly permitting eighteen gambling resorts to operate.

SNAKE STORIES FROM OHIO AND INDIANA

Hamden, Ohio, Aug. 17.—The prize snake story comes from Lilly, south of here. Of late Mrs. Daniel Cottle had been considerably worried over the disappearance of china eggs she had been using as "teasers" to keep her hens on the job. On a visit to the hennery Tuesday to make the daily gathering she was horrified at the sight of a large blacksnake, which held full possession. Her husband, with a shot from an old musket, blew off the reptile's head. About six feet in length, its body was found to be knotted with peculiar protuberances. On slitting it open all of the missing china eggs were recovered from within.

HERE'S ANOTHER.

St. Clairsville, Ohio, Aug. 17.—The telegraph trunk lines passing through here were out of commission for several days and linemen, hunting the trouble, found a snake, six feet long, tangled to the wires in such a manner as to put several lines out of commission. The linemen say the snake had climbed the forty-foot pole and, getting caught in the wires, formed short circuits and was electrocuted.

BETTER CHANGE BRAND.

Petersburg, Ind., Aug. 17.—While coming to Petersburg P. M. Stafford, John Shouse and Charles Dobson, living two miles north of here, killed the largest chicken snake ever seen in Petersburg, the reptile measuring 7 feet and 8 inches.

BAY STATERS TEDDY'S HOSTS

Boston, Aug. 17.—The program laid out for Col. Roosevelt during the few hours that he was to be in Massachusetts today was one to keep the Progressive candidate for president almost constantly on the move. A party of local Progressives left Boston early today for Providence, where the former president formally opened his campaign last night, to greet their guest and accompany him to this city.

The party was expected to arrive here shortly before noon, Col. Roosevelt going to the home of Dr. Sturgis Bigelow for luncheon and for a conference with the Massachusetts leaders. This was expected to occupy his time until 2:30, when the escort was to accompany Col. Roosevelt to the Point of Pines, Revere Beach, to the chief address of the day at the outing of the Massachusetts Progressives.

In the evening the new party is to have a banquet at Revere, and again Col. Roosevelt will be the chief speaker. Matthew Hale, head of the Progressive movement in Massachusetts, will be the toastmaster. The former president's stay at the banquet will be short, for at 8 o'clock he is due to address an open air meeting on Boston commons. This latter meeting was not on the original program, but the committee announced at the last moment that it had been arranged, "because of the tremendous demand for a mass meeting in Boston."

PACIFIC MAIL BOAT SINKS AT PANAMA.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 17.—The Pacific Mail liner Newport was sunk at Balboa, Panama, this morning, by the collapse of the wharf to which she was moored. All on board were saved.

NEW JERSEY AT SEA GIRT

Delegations From Other Parts of State Go to Hear Wilson.

Governor Insists on Removing Bar to People's Approach.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 17.—Today is New Jersey day at Governor Woodrow Wilson's summer home. Delegations and marching clubs from many parts of the state with brass bands and campaign flags gathered to hear Governor Wilson deliver a political address. Arrangements were made for a large crowd. Extra tents had been pitched on the grounds near the governor's cottage. The Women's Wilson and Marshall League of New Jersey set up headquarters adjacent to the governor's house.

Governor Wilson superintended the arrangements for New Jersey day. He was up early directing the roping of the automobile space near the lawns. State Chairman E. E. Grosscup also was busy.

"What's that rope for?" queried the governor as he turned toward the cluster of elm trees which rose from a knoll to the left of his cottage.

"That's to keep the crowd back," answered Mr. Grosscup.

"But I don't want to keep the crowd back," smiled the governor, and the rope was promptly removed.

ALLEGED COKE TRUST PROBED

Washington, Aug. 17.—The department of justice has begun an investigation of the coke interests in the Connellsville, Pa., region, to ascertain whether there is any combination to increase prices in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Private interests, it is understood, conducted an investigation recently, and laid certain results before the department, which placed the investigation in the hands of a special agent.

Taft Promises Second Veto If Commerce Court Is Attacked.

All Other Objectionable Feature Removed From Payroll Bill.

Washington, Aug. 17.—President Taft told callers today he intended to fight congress for the retention of the commerce court if it kept him in Washington all summer. He declared he again would veto the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill if it came to him containing the provision to abolish the court, as reported to the house yesterday.

Mr. Taft was aroused today over reports that Democratic house leaders planned to retaliate for his veto by refusing appropriations for the counsel of the state department, the bureau of trade relations and other adjuncts of the department which he considers of immense importance to interests engaged in foreign trade.

Two Republican senators, Smoot and Sanders, assured the president today the senate might pass the bill as reported to the house yesterday, but they were confident it would not pass over a second veto.

When the house today again takes up the vetoed legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, that measure still will contain one of the features for which President Taft vetoed it. It is the section to abolish the commerce court. There is some doubt whether the bill can again pass the senate with that provision.

President Taft probably again will disapprove the measure if it carries such a provision, and congress is anxious to adjourn and get away. The bill was reported out of committee too late for action yesterday. The leaders look for quick action today. The section to limit tenure of office of civil service employes has been left out.

ALASKA TO HAVE SENATE AND HOUSE

Conferees on Home Rule Bill Reject Senate Amendment.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Conferees on the Alaskan "home rule" bill today agreed to report in favor of striking out the senate's amendment for a territorial senate only, and provide as originally proposed for two legislative bodies, to be known as the senate and the house of representatives of Alaska.

The other senate amendment proposing the appointment of a railroad commission to investigate the transportation situation in Alaska will remain in the bill and it will be pressed for passage at this session.

NO MEETING DATE SET BY OHIO PROGRESSIVES.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 17.—Chairman James R. Garfield of the Ohio Progressive party steering committee today said that the announcement from Columbus that the state Progressive convention will be held in that city Aug. 26 and 27, is incorrect.

"No decision has been made," said Mr. Garfield. "Columbus and Cleveland are under consideration, as are also the dates Aug. 26 and 27."

Gen. Edwards Given Command.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Brig. Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, recently at the head of the insular bureau, has been assigned to command the brigade post at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo.

CONSIDER CASE ONLY HALF HOUR

Echo of McNamara Case Results in Acquittal of Lawyer.

Judge's Instructions Bar Lockwood Affair From Consideration.

Also Eliminate Testimony of "Accomplices" as Corroborative.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 17.—Clarence S. Darrow, the noted Chicago lawyer, was found not guilty today on the charge of bribing a juror in the McNamara case. The jury was out just thirty-four minutes.

Three ballots were taken by the jury. The first resulted 8 to 4 for acquittal and the second 10 to 2.

Although warned against any demonstration by the bailiffs, there was a spontaneous outburst of applause when Foreman Williams, in response to the court's query, stated that the jury had found a verdict of not guilty.

There was a rush to the side of Darrow, which was stopped by the bailiffs, but it was renewed a few moments later after Judge Hutton thanked and discharged the jury.

Embraced by Jurors.

Then ensued a remarkable scene. Darrow approached the jurors still in the box to thank them, and two of them, Jurors Golding and Dunbar, threw their arms about him and patted his back.

The scene gradually resolved itself into a reception for Darrow and the jurors and friends of the erstwhile defendant crowded up to congratulate and shake hands with the jurors, while the flashlights of newspaper photographers boomed in different parts of the courtroom.

The case went to the jury at 9:20 o'clock this morning after instructions

PENNSYLVANIA TRAIN IN DITCH

Only One Passenger on 18-Hour Limited Badly Hurt.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 17.—The eighteen-hour New York-Chicago flyer on the Pennsylvania railroad was wrecked early today near Middle Point, Ohio, and three passengers injured, but none killed. Three sleeping cars are in the ditch, according to information received here.

Albert Bernard of Chicago was the only passenger who suffered more than trivial injury. He was injured in the head.

A special train was made up and hurried to Middle Point to take the passengers to their destinations. It is expected to arrive at Chicago about noon. The accident occurred at 5:38 this morning The cause has not been determined.

CROZIER HEAD OF ARMY WAR COLLEGE.

Other Changes Also Made Among the Army Officers.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Brig. Gen. William Crozier, U. S. A., chief of the bureau of ordnance, has been selected to succeed Brig. Gen. A. L. Mills as president of the army war college.

Gen. Mills became chief of the division of military affairs, relieving Brig. Gen. R. K. Evans, assigned to command the Department of the Gulf, recently commanded by Brig. Gen. Wotherspoon, now in nomination before the senate to be major general.

Brig. Gen. E. Z. Steever, temporarily in command of the Department of Texas, succeeds the late Brig. Gen. Duncan as commander of that division.

REPAY POSTMASTER FOR WHAT WAS STOLEN.

Washington, Aug. 17. — Senator Bourne, for the committee on postoffices, today favorably reported the senate bill for the payment of $11,236 to Postmaster George W. Hoyt at Cheyenne, Wyo., for sums embezzled in his office last year by a subordinate.

THE POLITICAL CIRCUS SEASON IS NOW ON.

MILLIONS FROM DULUTH TO MOVE THE GRAIN CROP

Duluth Banks Will Provide $7,000,000 to $8,000,000 in Cash.

Duluth banks will provide $7,000,000 to $8,000,000 to move the grain crop.

The demand for loans with which to move the vast grain crop of the Northwest this year is going to make interest rates of short-time loans higher. So say bankers of Duluth.

Last year money could be obtained with which to move the crops at 5 and 5½ per cent interest, but this year the banks will ask 5½ to 6 per cent. This is not on account of any scarcity of money. The amounts of money on deposit in the banks are large and there is no fear that there will not be plenty on hand both to move the crops and take care of the needs of other lines of business in the matter of short-time loans. But the fact remains that the immense harvest is going to make an unusually large demand for loans, and, in accordance with the law of supply and demand, the rate of interest must naturally advance.

It is thought that Duluth and Minneapolis together will send at least $50,000,000 to move the grain in the country tributary to these cities. Duluth alone will probably send $7,000,000 to $8,000,000. This money will move many times its value of grain, for the money is to be kept in motion. Money is borrowed from the banks by large grain-purchasing houses in the two big grain centers of Minnesota and in turn is loaned by these houses to the country elevator companies for the payment of the farmers as they market their grain. As the grain is shipped by these elevators, the bills of lading are sent to the purchasing houses in the big grain centers, and are often used as collateral for fresh loans, long before the wheat arrives. Later the wheat is sold and the loan money paid back to the bank only to be borrowed again for the same purpose. Sometimes the purchasing houses merely store the grain away, and borrow money on their storage receipts for the purchase of more grain.

There is thus a flow of money from the large grain centers to the farmers, as the grain moves in the opposite direction. This movement is largest in volume during the months of September, October, November and December. The grain, however, keeps moving from the country to the big centers in greater or less volume all the year round. During the last third of the year the farmers usually receive more money than they spend, though their money keeps coming back at a more or less rapid rate to the cities at all times in the year.

No Scarcity of Money.

Whatever factors may arise to impede the movement of grain, there will be no scarcity of money to act as a handicap. There is plenty of money to move the crops, and the money will move just as fast as the grain does. If the railroads fail to provide cars as rapidly as they are needed—and this is almost certain to be the case in a greater or less degree—the movement of money and the general progress of business will be correspondingly impeded. If the roads are too muddy to allow farmers to haul their grain to the country elevators as rapidly as they do over good roads, business in general must suffer proportionately. The farmer will buy less at the country store, and the country store will be a poorer customer of the city jobbing house, which thus will receive less money to pour into the channels of trade.

There has not yet been much call on the Duluth or Minneapolis banks for money with which to move the crops, for the marketing has not yet fairly begun.

In making the loans to the country elevators care is taken to make them short-time loans. Otherwise the elevator companies might use the money for other purposes than the buying of grain. For instance, they might use it in the building of new elevators. Thus the money would be tied up for a long period and would not come back, as it does under the short-time loan system, to be sent out again for the moving of more grain. A few years ago the banks did not make use of this safeguard, and thus a great deal of money that was needed to help along the grain trade in the fall and early winter was tied up in other kinds of industry.

by Judge George H. Hutton, the reading of which occupied just an hour.

Judge Hutton eliminated the first count in the indictment, that Darrow had bribed George N. Lockwood, a regularly drawn juror in the case of J. B. McNamara. The evidence, Judge Hutton instructed, did not justify a verdict of guilty on the first count.

The second count charged Darrow with attempting corruptly to influence a man about to be drawn as a juror.

The court also instructed that a verdict of guilty could not be found on the uncorroborated evidence of accomplices.

"If you had no evidence independent of the testimony of accomplices," said the judge, "you must find the defendant not guilty. Admission made to accomplices by the defendant should not be regarded as corroborative. The testimony of a feigned accomplice, however, does not require corroboration."

This instruction applies to Lockwood.

Outcome of McNamara Trial.

A direct outcome of the abrupt ending last November of the trial of J. B. McNamara for the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building, the trial of Clarence S. Darrow, chief of counsel for the McNamara brothers, was the result of an indictment by the county grand jury for the alleged bribery of George N. Lockwood, a prospective juror in the McNamara case.

On Nov. 28, 1911, Bert H. Franklin, chief of detectives of the McNamara defense, was arrested for the bribery of Lockwood. On Dec. 1 the McNamara brothers pleaded guilty, J. B. McNamara to murder in destroying the Times building, and J. J. McNamara to dynamiting the Llewellyn Iron works.

On Jan. 15 Franklin made a confession to Assistant District Attorney Ford that he had bribed Robert H. Bain, the first juror sworn to try the McNamara case, and that he had sought to bribe five other prospective jurors, including Lockwood.

The latter had reported early in November to the district attorney that Franklin had approached him, and from that time he acted under the instructions of the prosecutor.

Indicted Jan. 29.

On Jan. 29 two indictments were reported by the county grand jury against Darrow for the alleged bribery of Bain and Lockwood. The trial on the Lockwood indictment was begun on May 15, and just thirteen weeks and two days elapsed until the case went to the jury, making it the longest criminal tria lever held in Los Angeles county.

Approximately 2,000,000 words were transcribed by the court reporters, for which the cost to the county was something like $6,000.

The entire cost of the trial was $30,000.

HUSKY MINNESOTA BOYS CHOSEN AS FAIR GUESTS.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 17.—Statistics in the hands of the state fair managers show that the Minnesota farmer boys are lusty. At the farm boys' encampment, which will be held the week of the fair, there will be boys from eighty counties chosen as guests of the fair through winning county essay contests.

Secretary J. C. Simpson has secured the measurements of the boys, so they can be fitted out in uniforms when they arrive, Aug. 31. The average of the measurements is as follows:

Waist, 32 2-3 inches; trousers, 31 1-20; shoes 7½; hats 7¼, and shirts, 14½. These are for boys, 16 to 19 years of age.

MINNESOTA POLITICS

Progressives Call on Governor Eberhart to Withdraw in Interest of Party Harmony—Roosevelt Elector Petitions May Not Be Circulated Until After Primary—Coe Challenges Tawney in Defense of Nelson.

Call on Governor to Withdraw.

Republicans who fear the result of the bitterness between the two factions in the state are advancing harmony measures. The measures suggested commonly take the form of withdrawal of one or more of the many candidates for governor. The latest suggestion is that Governor Eberhart withdraw, and petitions to that end will be circulated over the state, it is said.

It has been suggested that the committee of fifty, to be appointed by J. F. Jacobson, who was chairman of the Progressive state convention, have charge of the circulation of the petitions, which will call on the governor to withdraw and leave the field clear to the three Progressive candidates, Gordon, Young and Lee.

The Progressives claim that the governor's affiliations with Taft make his election uncertain, even if he should secure the nomination. If Eberhart should be nominated and the committee of fifty should put a Progressive candidate in the field against him, Democratic success would be almost certain. They will call on the governor to withdraw in the interests of party harmony and Republican success.

There is about as much chance of the governor withdrawing as there is of Gordon or Young withdrawing. The withdrawal of one of the Progressive candidates has been suggested by Progressives, who are beginning to fear that the state machine will be able to overcome the second-choice primary law and put Eberhart across. The governor, who is convinced that he is a "man of destiny," isn't likely to withdraw from the race in the interest of party harmony or in any other interest.

It is hard to see how the Progressives can figure that the withdrawal of any one of the Progressive candidates would help the situation. Under the second-choice primary law, with the field split as it is, it is hard to see how Eberhart can get a nomination on first-choice votes, if the three Progressives can hold the Progressive strength, in both first and second choice votes, the governor's defeat will be certain. The state is overwhelmingly Progressive and the governor doesn't begin to measure up to Progressive standards. All Progressives will not be consistent and vote a first and second choice for Progressive candidates, but a great majority of them will.

The Roosevelt Petitions.

The suggestion has been made that the Roosevelt men will have trouble getting their presidential electors on the ballot. The petitions may not be circulated until after the primary election, and they will have to be filled by Oct. 5. It has also been suggested that no voter who votes at the primary election may sign the petitions.

Section 215 of the Revised Laws provides "No person who has voted at a primary election shall be eligible as a petitioner for any nomination to any office for which nominees were voted upon at such primary." As nominees for presidential elector will not be voted upon at the primary, it is likely that any voter may sign the Roosevelt petitions, regardless of whether he voted at the primary.

As no more than one nomination may be made by any one petition, twelve separate petitions will be necessary to nominate the Roosevelt electors. It will be possible for each signer to sign all twelve petitions, although better progress could probably be made by spreading the petitions. Each petition will require at least 2,000 signatures.

Challenge to Tawney.

James A. Tawney is the reactionary "goat" in Minnesota. He is the embodiment of standpatism, and as such is forced to bear the burden of Taft and the old guard of the Republican party. Now, W. T. Coe, manager of James A. Peterson's campaign, would also make Tawney sponsor for Senator Nelson, which would not be greatly to Nelson's advantage. Mr. Coe has sent the following to the former congressman from Winona:

Dear Sir: On the 9th inst., we published an open letter containing a challenge to the friends of Senator Nelson, asking them to debate his record, with any one of the Progressive leaders who are suporting Peterson, and to date no one seems willing to defend Nelson's record.

I remember that in your campaign two years ago with Sydney Anderson, Senator Nelson loyally came to your support, and urged the voters of the First district to return you to congress. It would now seem proper that you take up the "gauntlet" on behalf of your friend, and accept our challenge to debate at an early date, either in Minneapolis or St. Paul. We will pay all expenses.

The Progressives charge that Senator Nelson has, by his votes in congress, misrepresented the people of Minnesota, and represented the railroads and great corporate interests.

Don't you want to meet us?

Nye to Drop Out.

Reports from Minneapolis say that Frank M. Nye will definitely announce his retirement from congress in a few days. Mr. Nye has intimated several times that he might drop out of the race, but has made no definite statement. Judge G. R. Smith has already filed for the Republican nomination, and there is some talk of Milton D. Purdy becoming a candidate. Several others are among the "also mentioned." Elnar Holdale is expected to be the Democratic nominee.

Miller Will File Soon.

Congressman Clarence B. Miller will file next week for the Republican nomination in the Eighth district. Thus far no opposition has appeared, and Mr. Miller is likely to have none on the Republican side. There has been talk of Democratic opposition, but none of the candidates mentioned have come into the open. Mr. Miller will name R. M. Hughes as secretary of his campaign committee.

HOUSE CANDIDATE IN FIFTY-SECOND DISTRICT

I. T. PERSINGER, Of Cloquet.

Electors Slow to Resign.

Only six of the ten Republican presidential electors who announced their intention of resigning have sent their resignations to Secretary J. A. O. Preus of the state central committee. Chairman E. E. Smith is waiting for the resignation of the other four before calling the state central committee together to fill the vacancies.

Reply to Winona Speech.

If Theodore Roosevelt comes to Minnesota during the campaign, Winona Progressives will make an effort to have him stop at that town and make a reply to the famous Winona speech of President Taft on the Payne-Aldrich tariff law. Very likely Theodore will take advantage of the opportunity, for the Winona speech excited widespread comment and a reply by the Bull Moose leader, delivered at the same spot, would be widely quoted and commented upon.

Will File in Fifty-second.

F. T. Persinger of Cloquet will file against C. F. Mahnke of Moose Lake, P. H. McGarry of Walker and any other candidates for the Fifty-second district house seat from which T. M. Ferguson retires this year. Mr. Persinger is an attorney and has practiced at Cloquet a little over a year. He was raised on a farm near Howard lake and worked his way through school. He was assistant educational director of the Y. M. C. A. in Minneapolis for two years, working nights and studying law by day, and then reversed the order for two years, acting as principal of the truant school by day and studying law by night. He took his degrees from the University of Minnesota in 1908. He was principal of the Cloquet high school in 1910-11 and opened a law office at the close of the school year.

Mr. Persinger has issued a thoroughly Progressive platform, in which he advocates reapportionment, good roads, county option, initiative, referendum, recall, equalization of transportationn and public service rates, extension of industrial education, more liberal laws to encourage settlers and stringent enforcement of the corrupt practices act.

Warner In Candidate.

C. H. Warner of Aitkin has announced his candidacy for re-election to the house and he will probably be unopposed for the Republican nomination. Other announced candidates in the Fifty-second have indicated that they will not oppose Mr. Warner. He was a strong champion of constitutional reapportionment, author of the 1911 law taxing state lands for local school purposes, the law providing for the monthly sale of state lands, and was joint author of the law increasing the gross earnings tax on railroads from 4 to 5 per cent. Mr. Warner was also sponsor for the state drainage investigation. His record is such that his friends believe there is little doubt of his return to the house.

Gafvert Files.

Otto Gafvert filed yesterday for the Republican nomination for county treasurer. He announced some time ago that he would be a candidate and he and his friends have been at work lining up support. Mr. Gavert has been deputy internal revenue collector here for a number of years and has a wide acquaintance. George H. Vivlan, deputy county treasurer, has also filed for the nomination for treasurer. No other candidates have appeared and the contest will probably be between Gafvert and Vivlan.

Kauppi Enters Race.

Charles Kauppi, former county commissioner from the Fifth district, filed yesterday for the Republican nomination he being the fifth in the field for that nomination. Two Democratic candidates have also filed so the Fifth should see some enthusiastic campaigning this year.

that we regard both the old parties' machines as hopelessly corrupt and incompetent, and that we appeal to the rank and file of both the old parties equally to stand with us for good citizenship in the spirit of true Americans.

"Ex-Democrats and ex-Republicans alike, we hope, will share with us the task of building up the Progressive party and we invite into our ranks men and women entirely without regard to their former political affiliations, to their creed, their birthplace, or the color of their skins.

"Ours is a movement to secure the right of the people to rule.

"The first essential in securing the right of the people to rule is to secure the unsparing condemnation of dishonesty in nominations and elections. To steal a nomination or to steal an election is even worse than to steal a purse, for it is a theft of the people's rights; it is a theft from the people as a whole. Every honest man should set his face like flint against such dishonesty whether it takes the form of swindling at the polls or debauching a legislature or of the theft of a nominating convention.

The Lorimer Fight.

"Two years ago the fight against Mr. Lorimer was started by a great Chicago newspaper and was continued by certain private individuals. And we, who then took part in that fight did so at a time when the average public man obviously thought it would come to nothing. Gradually, and especially in the recent contest in the Republican primaries, we hammered into the heads of the politicians that the people were against Lorimer and Lorimerism; and then the very men who had been seeking to profit by Lorimer's support so long as they believed he would be useful to them, even some of the men who had hitherto defended him, turned against him.

"But friends, remember that our real concern was not in smashing one bad man who by improper methods had secured his own election to the senate, but in smashing the kind of politics which he symbolized. It is a bad thing to win a senatorship by such methods as Mr. Lorimer employed, but it is not one whit worse than to steal a nomination for the presidency by such methods as were employed by the bosses who controlled the convention at Chicago.

"Steal" at Chicago.

"Certain of our New England senators took the lead both in conducting the campaign for the defense of Mr. Lorimer and in putting through the steal of the Republican nomination at Chicago. Whatever else is to be said against these senators, at least their action in these respects was consistent. When Senator Crane, Senator Aldrich, Senator Penrose, Senator Guggenheim, Senator Gallinger, Senator Dillingham and their associates, together with Senator Bailey, Senator Johnson and their associates on the Democratic side, stood by Senator Lorimer and Senator Lorimer's right to sit in the senate, they were doing precisely and exactly what Messrs. Penrose, Crane, Guggenheim, Gallinger and their representatives later did when they secured the triumph of Lorimerism in the Republican convention at Chicago. There was no difference between the iniquity which culminated in the theft of the Chicago convention. I condemn those who stood for both forms of iniquity.

Wilson and the Platform.

"In his speech of acceptance as reported in the New York Times, Mr. Wilson is quoted as saying of the Progressive platform that 'it would require a Sabbath day's journey to drive through it,' and that for that reason he had not yet been able to find out what it was all about. If Mr. Wilson has not been able to find out what our platform means it is because he has not taken the trouble to try.

"You may remember that Mr. Wilson stated, two days after his own nomination, that he had not yet looked at the platform upon which he was nominated. I do not wonder that when he did at last look at that platform he became so thoroughly discontented with it that he new feels a distaste for all platforms.

"Mr. Wilson speaks as if the Progressive platform were very long. As a matter of fact it is of almost the exact length of his own platform. The difference is that our platform states explicitly and definitely what we intend to do on the vital questions of the day, and that it is entirely sincere and entirely practical, whereas Mr. Wilson's platform avoids the most important issues before our people, and as regards the other issues makes such impossible and conflicting promises as to render it out of the question to believe that there was a sincere purpose to have these promises taken seriously.

What Is the Meaning?

"In his speech of acceptance Mr. Wilson asks himself:

"'What is the "meaning" of the Baltimore platform?'

"His answer to his own question is so very vague that it was obviously unsatisfactory even to himself, and he continues by stating that he does not ask the people of the United States to adopt the platform, and that 'the platform is not a program.' We Progressives are much more fortunate in our platform. We do not have to apologize for it, or speak of it in language so carefully guarded as to convey the impression that we are endeavoring neither to repudiate it nor support it. We stand on our platform.

"We do ask that our platform be adopted by the nation. Our platform is our program, we treat it as such, and what is more, we treat it as a contract which we shall scrupulously fulfill if the people give us the chance. Our plans are definite and concrete and our intention is to enact them into law and to make them part of the active governmental policy of the nation.

"At this moment, I ask your attention only to the proposals that we make to secure social and industrial justice. In the first place we set forth definitely what we want to try to secure at the present time in the way of social and industrial justice—for instance, to secure by law one day's rest in seven for all wage workers, an eight-hour day in continuous twenty-four-hour industries, the prohibition of child labor, the establishment of an eight-hour day for women and young persons, the erection of minimum wage standards for working women, workmen's compensation acts, the securing of proper conditions of life and labor for workingmen and women, and the prevention of occupational disease and the fixing of occupational health standards.

Amend Constitution.

"We do not intend to let either executive or legislative officers forbid us to have such laws; and my friends, neither do we intend to let the judges forbid us to have such laws. Therefore, in our platform we have stated that we intend to provide more easy and expeditious methods of amending the Federal Constitution, and that when in any state a state court declares that a law passed for social and industrial justice is unconstitutional, then after an ample interval for deliberation, the people shall have the opportunity themselves to decide by vote whether the act is to become law, notwithstanding such decision. For, as the platform says, the Progressive party demands such construction of the power of the courts as shall leave the people themselves the ultimate authority to determine fundamental questions of social welfare and public policy.

"Those wealthy people whose eyes are blinded by their own fatted pride so that they can no longer see justice, the great corporation lawyers who serve these capitalists, the big politicians who, in close and crooked alliance, serve them and are served by them, and the editors of those newspapers whom they control and who do their bidding will all clamor against what I say; for these men are the beneficiaries and apologists of privilege, and of late years they have striven more and more to entrench privilege in the courts.

Assailants of Courts.

"These men who insincerely assault us for attacking the courts are themselves the worst assailants of the courts, for nothing will so harm the courts as to persuade the average American citizen that they are the bulwarks of privilege. Our proposal is to leave the courts absolutely unaffected in the exercise of their judicial function. But where they exercise legislative function and where they thwart the will of the people expressed through the legislative branch of the government, we propose to give the people themselves, after due deliberation, the right finally to decide whether, in any case, they regard the legislature or the courts as representing the best."

by Police Commissioner Waldo, who is now convinced that the police have deceived him as to gambling and vice conditions. Commissioner Waldo said: "There is proof now of laxity and bad work on the part of certain inspectors and policemen. If these men have been downright crooks the truth will come out and they will be punished. If they have erred through stupidity or carelessness, they will be required to change their ways or I will fire them from the department."

Schepps at Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Sam Schepps, at present the central figure in the Rosenthal murder inquiry, and who arrived here last night en route from Hot Springs to New York, was the guest of Assistant District Attorney Rubin and two detectives on a sightseeing trip to Niagara Falls today.

Mr. Rubin is uncommunicative, the detectives are reticent and Schepps varies his program from absolute silence to veiled references to the Rosenthal case with reminders to the newspaper men that he has issued "no authorizzd statement" since the party left Hot Springs.

Schepps arose early today, in anticipation of his trip to Niagara Falls, and gave evidence of the reputation for fastidiousness that he has acquired since he was taken captive.

Has Manicure's Services.

The officers humored the prisoner in his vanities today, which ranged from a manicure in his room to a new suit of clothes. When Schepps was dressed he announced himself ready for the Falls trip and the start was made.

According to present arrangements the party will leave for New York by the New York Central Sunday night. Schepps has denied all knowledge of the actual shooting of Rosenthal.

Considerable mystery attaches to the status of Bernard Sandler, who is said to have been retained by Schepps' brother to look after "Sam's interests."

"Don't know anything about him," said Schepps when questioned today about Sandler.

Sandler was in Pittsburg, Pa., last night, but he had not arrived here up to midday.

GEORGE H. VIVIAN

To the Voters of St. Louis County:

I take this method of announcing that I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of County Treasurer.

I have been a resident of the county for more than twenty-eight years, and during the past eight years have been filling the position of Chief Deputy in the County Treasurer's office.

The present Treasurer, Mr. Holgate, is retiring from the office at the end of this year, and is not a candidate for re-election.

Under these circumstances, I feel justified in seeking the nomination, and solicit your support in the belief that I can give you a competent, efficient administration of the affairs of this important office.

FARMERS HIT THE MOST BY TARIFF, SAYS WILSON

Consume All the Things Taxed Under the Tariff System.

Suggests That Express Companies Have Delayed a Parcels Post.

Gloucester, N. J., Aug. 17.—"When did the farmers ever occupy the center of the stage in our politics?" asked Governor Woodrow Wilson in his speech at the farmers' day celebration here. "I don't remember any time," he added. "I have seen the interests of a great many classes specially regarded in legislation, but I must frankly say that I have seldom seen the interests of the farmer regarded in legislation. And one of the greatest impositions upon the farmer of this country that has ever been devised is the present tariff legislation of the United States.

"I have not heard of farmers waiting for a hearing before the committee on ways and means of the house and the finance committee of the senate in order to take part in determining what the tariff schedules should be. While you were feeding the world, congress was feeding the trusts. Nobody doubts what the process of tariff legislation has been, because everybody who has been curious enough to inquire knows what the process of tariff legislation has done.

"I would be ashamed of myself if I tried to stir up any feeling on the part of any class against any other class. All that I am modestly suggesting to you is that you break into your own house and live there. And I want you to examine very critically the character of the tenants who have been occupying it. You have paid the money which enabled them to live in your own house and dominate your own premises.

Tariff Is Made by a Few.

"My indictment against the tariff is that it represents special partnerships and does not represent the general interest. It is a long time since tariffs were made by men who even supposed that they were seeking to serve the general interest, because tariffs are not made by the general body of members of either house of congress. They have in the past been made by very small groups of individuals in certain committees of these houses, who even refused information to their fellow members as to the basis upon which they had acted in framing the schedules.

"One of the gentlemen who has been most conspicuously connected with this thing has in recent years prudently withdrawn from public life. I mean the one-time senior senator from Rhode Island, Mr. Aldrich. I at least give Mr. Aldrich the credit of having had a large weather eye.

Aldrich Even Fooled Interests.

"He saw that the weather was changing in Rhode Island—even in Rhode Island as well as in the rest of the Union: that men who had long known that he was imposing upon them felt that the limit had been reached, and they were not going to be imposed upon any longer. They saw that he was not even doing what he pretended to do, namely, to serve the special interests of Rhode Island, because he was serving only some of the special interests of Rhode Island and not all of them.

"The tariff intimately concerns the farmer of this country. It makes a great deal of difference to you that Mr. Taft the other day vetoed the steel bill. It makes a difference to you in the cost of practically every tool that you use upon the farm, and it is very significant, or ought to be significant, to you that a Democratic house of representatives has just passed the steel tariff reduction bill over the president's veto, a thing I am informed is unprecedented in the history of the country, that a house should have passed two tariff measures, the wool measure and the steel measure, over the veto of the president.

Farmer Is Real Consumer.

"Tariff measures are not measures for the merchant, merely, and the manufacturer. The farmer pays just as big a proportion of the tariff duties as anybody. Indeed, sometimes when we are challenged to say who the consumer is, as contrasted with the producer, so far as the tariff is concerned, I am tempted to answer, 'the farmer,' because he does not produce any of the things that get any material benefit from the tariff, and he consumes all of the things which are taxed under the tariff system.'

The governor explained the benefits that might accrue to the farmer from the digging of the Panama canal if the merchant marine were restored. He continued:

"One of the great objects in cutting that great ditch across the Isthmus of Panama is to allow farmers who are near the Atlantic to ship to the Pacific coast by way of the Atlantic ports. Now, at present there are no ships to do that. And one of the bills pending, just passed by congress, provides for free tolls for American ships through the canal and prohibits any ship from passing through that canal which is owned by any American railway company. You see the object of that. We don't want the railways to compete with themselves, because we understand that kind of competition.

For a Parcels Post.

"Then there is another thing in which you ought to be deeply interested, which is in the program of the great party I belong to. That is the parcels post. This is the only civilized country in the world where the government does not see to it that rates established by the government enable men to ship their goods, large and small, as they please from one end of the continent to the other. We have no parcels post until you reach the ports, and from the ports to the other side of the Atlantic you can have parcels post rates, but you cannot have them inside the United States. Because—may I conjecture the reason?—because there are certain express companies which object.

"Now, I move that the objections of all private enterprises be overruled. I move that we establish a parliamentary procedure by which they will not even be considered, not in order that men who have made legitimate investments of capital may not have their proper return for it, but in order that they may not look to the government for their proper return for it.

"Tied to Grandmother's Apron Strings."

"The trouble with the business of the United States under the tariff is that men think they can't make money without the assistance of the government. And as long as you allow them to think that, every mother's son of us is tied to the apron strings of the old grandmother sitting in the capitol at Washington.

"But I want, at every turn of every argument that I make of this nature, to say that the legitimate business enterprises of this country have absolutely nothing to fear provided they will stand on their bottoms, but that they have everything to fear if all they have under them is the prop of a tax which everybody is obliged to pay in order that they may be able to conduct their business; and I believe that that is the just principle of government.

Platform for Vocational Education.

"There is another matter in which I am deeply interested. There are only three lines devoted to it in the Democratic platform, but there are no lines devoted to it in the Republican platform, and there are so many lines in the Bull Moose platform that I have not found it yet. But in the Democratic platform there are three lines in which the party declares it to be its duty to devote such funds of the national government as it may constitutionally devote to such purposes, to the promotion of industrial, agricultural, vocational education."

The governor explained that the platform in this connection meant a system of university extension to the farmer, making available to the farmer the knowledge stored in the university of the country on scientific farming. He referred to a bill pending in the house of representatives to promote agricultural development in that way.

"You see," he remarked, "the men in the house are not waiting until you elect national officers on their platform. They are going ahead with their duty now, because our platform is not molasses to catch flies; it means business.

Says It's Restrictive Tariff.

"If prosperity is not to be checked in this country, we must broaden our borders and make conquests of the markets of the world. That is the reason America is so deeply interested in the question of which I have already spoken, the merchant marine, and that is also the reason why America is so much interested in breaking down that dam against which all the tides of our prosperity have banked up, that great dam that runs around all our coasts, and which we call the protective triff. I would prefer to call it the restrictive tariff. I would prefer to call it the tariff that holds us back. I should prefer to call it the tariff that hems us in, the tariff that chokes us. The tariff that smothers us, because the great unmatched energy of America is now waiting for a field greater than America itself in which to prove that Americans can take care of themselves."

MOOSE PARTY "WILL GO ON"

Roosevelt Tells Rhode Islanders It Is Not One Man Affair.

Big Crowd Hears Colonel Denounce Both Old Parties.

Providence, R. I., Aug. 17.—With cheering and songs and prayer, the Progressive party's national campaign was opened here last night. Theodore Roosevelt came to Rhode Island, which he described as a boss-ridden state, to open the campaign, and received a welcome which, as he put it, would have done credit to Kansas.

When Col. Roosevelt reached Providence at 5 o'clock several thousand persons blocked the way to his hotel and cheered him until he stood up in his automobile and made a speech. He was halted a second time in front of the city hall and made another address.

Three hours later Col. Roosevelt stood on the stage at Infantry hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the colonel beat time. Outside the building were hundreds who were unable to get in.

When the din finally died away Col. Roosevelt stepped to the front of the stage and looked down at the audience.

"I was told only six months ago," he said, "that there was not a Progressive in Rhode Island. I think it is pretty plain that statement is erroneous."

Movement "Is Going On."

"Right at the outset," he continued, "I wish to answer a question that has been put to me two or three times since I reached Rhode Island. Men have asked me if this movement is going to go on, or if it is just a movement which is counted with me. This movement is going on just as sure as fate. This is a real movement, springing from the needs and hearts of the people of the United States.

"The only part that I have made in it is that perhaps I have brought it on two or three years earlier than it would have come anyhow. The man is blind who does not see that our people are tired of having other people govern them. Our people were making up their minds that there must be a new party which should deal with live issues instead of dead ones.

Lincoln and the Party.

"Lincoln had been a lifelong Whig," Col. Roosevelt said, "when it became evident that the Whig party was unable to longer face the live issues of that day, and he joined the new party that could face the issues.

"This is a permanent movement. It is a permanent party, a new party. Every man who does not want the bosses to rule, whom we can get at, is going to be for us. The only difficulty is in getting at enough of them."

Col. Roosevelt kept his audience in a happy mood with epigrammatic remarks which he interjected into his speech.

"The boss in private life could not look you in the face without grinning if you called him a servant of the people," he said.

At another time he compared the Republican and Democratic parties to a pair of wolves with the voter as a sheep.

"When two wolves fight for a sheep," said he, "each wolf dislikes the other, but there is not any benefit to the sheep in that dislike."

Getting More Radical.

The colonel said he was taking a more advanced stand constantly as he went forward with the new party movement.

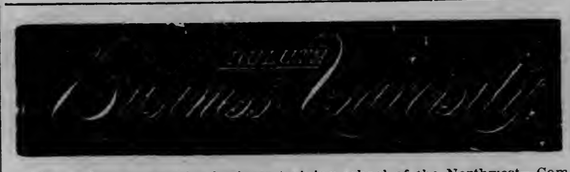

"As this movement develops," he told his hearers, "instead of being less radical, I have become more radical. I am ready to go further than the platform.

"The president's usefulness ceases when he no longer represents the people. Some time I'm going to develop that thought. For the present I shall go no further than the platform."

In his prepared speech, Col. Roosevelt assailed the Republican and Democratic parties and discussed the tariff and the currency question. He devoted one portion of his address to criticism of Senator Lippitt of Rhode Island.

Lakeside is quite wrought up over a series of burglaries and attempted burglaries which have occurred the last week.

The prowlers have operated in at least half a dozen different residences but only in part of them have they obtained any loot. Among other things they have helped themselves to some valuable watches, some diamonds, and a quantity of miscellaneous pieces of jewelry.

If the robberies have been reported to the police the officials have been keeping very quiet about it, as nothing has been given out concerning them. The only job of that nature which has been made public in the last week was the entry of a second-hand store on Lake avenue south the night before last.

Sleeping on the porch proved to be first-class insurance against burglary at one of the residences approached by the thieves. One of two young women who were slumbering on the porch was awakened when the men attempted to open the screen door. Unable to see anyone but sensing that something was wrong she screamed at the top of her voice. She heard the sounds of heavy feet running away.

In each case the men have operated before 11 o'clock at night. It is believed that they have been skulking about watching the different residences. Seeing the families leave their homes they have taken advantage of their absence to explore the premises in search of valuables. In the case of the young women they believed that they had clear sailing ahead of them. The other members of the family left before 8 o'clock. The thieves did not know of the two girls who had stayed behind and slept on the porch. The prowlers were probably as startled as the girls were frightened.

When Detective Terry and Patrolman Youngberg marched James Cooper and Israel Fox down Superior street this morning after having arrested them on charges of peddling without a license, scores of people jumped to the conclusion that the officers had "Lefty Louie" and "Gyp the Blood" in custody.

People began to follow them down the street. "Is dem de two guys wot's wanted fer killin' dat gambler in New York?" shouted one kid who had read or heard the report that the two gunmen are suspected of being on board the Tionesta, which docked this morning.

The policemen did not have the heart to wreck their sensation. And they were having a bit of fun out of it themselves. "Sure," they answered.

"Gee, don't dey look it, dough," said another whose strained ears had caught the "sure" of the officers. "I don't see how dey could mistake dem. I cud spot 'em in a tousand. Dat's 'Lefty Louie' and dat's 'Gyp de Blood'."

The concluded, pointing out the "despirit moiderers" to the person crowding his elbow with a volley of questions spouting forth as fast as he could get them out of his system.

"Aint dey de tricky cops," cried another. "Dey pulls down de reward for five tousand simoleons, which sure am some big bunch o' kale. Wot wouldn't I do wid a bundle o' cush like dat."

When Cooper and Fox were brought into police court they pleaded guilty to charges of peddling without a license. The police reported that they had been selling so-called "phony" watches and had been working in the city for several days, coming here from Detroit.

Cooper stated that they get from $5 to $10 each for the tickers. He admitted that they had been stamping cases, which cost them 60 cents each, with the words, "Guaranteed for 20 years," but claimed that they were only following a practice which is common throughout the country. He said that the movements cost them $4.50 each.

The court took the position that the practice may be common throughout the country, but that he would not encourage it to become common in Duluth. He assessed each of them $20 and costs, which were paid. Fox peeled the requisite greenbacks from a roll which was not greatly lessened in size by the operation.

Martha Stewart pleaded not guilty when she was arraigned in police court yesterday on a warrant sworn out by W. C. Auld charging her with assault. She pleaded not guilty and demanded a jury trial, which was set for Sept. 3.

Charles Orman and Helen Haley, arrested early yesterday on disorderly charges, were taken from the rooming house over the saloon at 1 East Superior street and not from the La Salle hotel, as originally reported. The La Salle is just across the alley, which caused the confusion. Alma Hendricks, one of another couple arrested yesterday on the same charge, is the same girl who complained a short while ago that a young man had insulted her on the street. She claimed that he tried to "date her up" and had spoken to her several different evenings. The man claimed that she was the one to make the first advances.

A squad of six policemen raided the Velvidere hotel at 119 East Superior street, almost directly across the street from headquarters at 2 o'clock this morning. Three women and one man were arrested. They gave their names as Clara La Salle, Mabel Allen, Helen Brown and Roy Brown. All forfeited bail except the Allen woman. It appeared in police court this morning that she has two children to support and as her record was in her favor her case was continued for three months. If she commits no indiscretions during that time the case against her will probably be dismissed.

Abnormal quantities of fire water had about the same effect on Ed Packnett, an Indian, that the writers of early history say that it had upon his redmen ancestors. Except that he was garbed in the clothes of civilization, the police state that he became a veritable wild man. He was arrested by a policeman while doing a war dance on the Bowery and became so restive when taken into custody that it was necessary to bring him into headquarters in handcuffs. When his supper was brought to him in the bull pen he imagined that the dishes were tomahawks and began hurling them at the grated door of the lockup. In police court this morning he pleaded guilty to having been drunk and got $10 and costs or ten days in the county jail.

Mrs. Theophile Blisson has been using the tracks of the D., M. & N. as a sidewalk when she wished to go up town, which resulted in her arrest yesterday on a charge of trespass. The police reported that she refused to stop when told to do so by railroad specials. It appeared that she lives on one side of the track and found it a very convenient highway. The court suspended sentence after warning her not to repeat the offense.

L. C. Elberson was able to get $43.50 worth of board from Matt Ahern of 2803 West Superior street on the strength of Ahern's acquaintance with his father. Having had since June 15 to settle his bill and having failed to do so, Ahern yesterday caused his arrest on a charge of defrauding an innkeeper. Elberson pleaded guilty to the charge and got $50 and costs or thirty days in the county jail. He said that he would take the thirty days.

Jessie Sleet, the colored woman arrested on a disorderly charge when the police raided a place in the alley, changed her plea of not guilty to guilty in police court this morning. Her mother accompanied her and said that she had never known Jessie to do anything wrong before. Jessie promised to be good and her case was continued for three months.

PENNILESS AND FEVER STRICKEN

Wisconsin Boy Applies to Poor Commissioner for Help.

Desperately ill of typhoid fever, Floyd Wilson, 19 years old, drifted into the office of Charles Shogran, clerk of the poor commission, this morning and asked to be cared for. His fever was 102, and he was so weak he could hardly stand. He was immediately sent to the county hospital and given attention.

Wilson hired out with a circus at Butte, Mont., some time ago and was with it in Canada when he was taken ill. He left the circus and started for his home at Crivitz, Wis., but he arrived in Duluth two days ago penniless and very ill.

The boy left his home four years ago and has been knocking around the country since. He said his father, John Wilson, lives at Crivitz, but is a cripple and can barely earn his own living. The boy is not a resident of the county, but there was no time to send him home and Mr. Shogran sent him to the county hospital where he will receive care.

CROWDS GATHER ABOUT THE LATEST GOTHAM VEHICLE

NEW YORK'S NEW "SKY-SCRAPER."

New York, Aug. 17.—The "Sky-scraper" car was seen on Broadway this week for the first time. It will seat 88 passengers and accommodate 171 as compared with 60 seated in the long and 40 in the short open cars, 51 in the stepless cars, 41 to 47 in the pay-as-you-enter car, and 25 or 26 in long and short closed cars respectively. An automatic cash register, an electrical street announcer and automatic control of ventilation and brakes will be introduced. The floors can be converted into open compartments for summer use and readily changed to suit winter purposes. The ventilation system is designed to clear the upper dock of tobacco smoke, so it can be used as a smoking compartment in the coldest weather.

PETITION FOR JUDICIAL ROAD

Barnum Man Has Project for New Route to Duluth.

A petition for the designation of a judicial road from Barnum to Duluth will come before Judge Dibell at the special term of district court next Saturday.

The road was laid out and the petitions circulated by C. J. M. Bratberg of Barnum, who has worked single-handed on the project for some months. The route runs from Barnum to Wrenshall, across the St. Louis river and to Duluth on a line which Mr. Bratberg claims is far superior to any road now existing.

Opposition is expected to be offered Carlton county on the ground that the proposed road would be a duplication. Carlton county has laid out a comprehensive road plan covering the entire county, and some of the people there believe that the road proposed by Bratberg would be a superfluity.

To learn the joys of big, new, all-steel palace sleepers take a trip to the Twin Cities on the new all-steel train leaving Duluth 11:10 p. m., Superior 11:40 p. m., arriving St. Paul 6:20 a. m., Minneapolis 7 a. m. Ticket office, Superior street and Sixth avenue and 430 Spalding hotel.

NEW RATES ON DRUGS SUSPENDED TO DEC. 17.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Increases in the east-bound trans-continental transportation rates on olive oil, drugs and medicine, uarticularly from California points to Eastern destinations, ranging from 35 per cent to 150 per cent, have been suspended by the Interstate commerce commiesion from Aug. 19 to Dec. 17.

Socialist Picnic.

The local Socialist organizations of Duluth, Superior and Two Harbors will have an excursion from Duluth to Two Harbors on Sunday, Aug. 18. The gathering will be addressed by various speakers, the chief of whom will be Morris Kaplan, Socialist candidate for congress. At Two Harbors there will be various kinds of games and contests, with prizes for the winners. The boat will leave the Booth dock at the foot of Lake avenue at 9:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. and it will leave Two Harbors on the return trips at 5 p. m. and 9:30 p. m. The affair is not for Socialists only but for anybody who cares to attend.

Carlton County Fair Sept. 25.

Barnum, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The dates for the Carlton county fair here this year will be Sept. 25-27, inclusive, the dates being later this year in order to assure well ripened crop exhibits. There will be many other good attractions including horse racing.

AMUSEMENTS

Margaret Illington.

"Kindling," in which Margaret Illington is featured, was presented last evening at the Lyceum, before a well filled theater, and repeated the success scored the previous evening in Superior.

A matinee is being given this afternoon, and the last performance will be given this evening.

Nat Goodwin Better.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 17.—Nat C. Goodwin, the actor, injured Thursday when his rowboat was dashed ashore on "Rocky Point" beach, was pronounced out of danger today. His physicians said he would be out of bed tomorrow.

Exchange the Silent Piano in Your Home for a

Pianola Piano

The Piano that anyone can afford and everyone can play.

IN this practical, reasoning (and enjoying) Age, the "silent" piano has become a matter of waste, pure and simple.

Bought perhaps for your children and unused save for an infrequent hour of melody, the hand-played instrument with lid down and voice silent is a mere travesty of usefulness and enjoyment. Replace this old instrument now with the Pianola Piano and what a difference there will be.

There is no drudgery in the use of the Pianola Piano—no unremitting practice—no faltering fingers. All the music of the world—all the old and all the new—is at your command to amuse you, to cultivate your taste and relax your tired nerves.

Discernment is Necessary

SUCCESS has always called forth imitation. In view of the world-wide prominence of the Pianola Piano and the rapidity of its adoption by music-loving people in every quarter of the globe, it is not remarkable to find many other instruments upon the market claiming to produce similar results.

It is important therefore, to remember that no Player-piano save only the Pianola Piano has successfully passed the critical tests of leading musicians or been endorsed by the foremost musical educators of the world. The world's five leading pianofortes in their respective grades may be obtained as Pianola Pianos. These are:—

The Steinway, the Weber, the Steck, the Wheelock and the Stuyvesant and Stroud Pianola Pianos.

SUPERINTENDENT IS APPOINTED

M. J. Thompson Will Have Charge of Demonstration Farm.

M. J. Thompson has been appointed superintendent of the Duluth demonstration farm school, which will be located on the tract purchased by the state from the Greysolon Farms company.

Mr. Thompson graduated from the agricultural school of the University of Minnesota last June, and this summer has been engaged in work in Michigan for the department of farm management of the United States government.

In addition to the superintendence of the school itself, Mr. Thompson will also have charge of the demonstration work, and the school is expected to exert a great influence among the settlers in Northeastern Minnesota. Mr. Thompson will assume his duties here Aug. 20.

OZONE-ELECTRICITY

"Nature's Own Remedy" Employed to Restore Health of Broken-down.

Proves More Powerful Than Medicines, and Cures Prove More Reliable.

The Electro Medical Doctors at No. 26 West Superior street have received a great many patients who suffered for many years. There is hardly anything more wonderful than the method of these doctors, and it probably would be hard to find people who are more happy than those who have been treated by the Electro Medical method. Mrs. Gustavson of Duluth said that she has been troubled with stomach trouble for the last eleven years and there was nothing which did cure her, she had received only three treatments and feels entirely free from pain and feels at least ten years younger. She said that a thousand dollars would not be as welcome to her as her health is now. Among other patients was a man whose left arm was paralyzed for ten months; he spent six months in the hospital without getting any better; a few treatments have brought new life in the arm so that he can move it fairly well. The doctors say that there is absolutely nothing wonderful in the treatments, nor is there any mystery in the rapid improvement of the patients. While the patient is put under the influence of 20,000 volts of the Ozone-Electro—X-Ray power, every tissue in the body gets new life and the patient has the most pleasant feeling. This Electro Medical power is so strong that uric acid crystals are dissolved in the blood as well as in the joints, and other poisons, which are the cause of so many diseases, are carried away and the nerves, stomach or the joints are made healthy in the most natural way.

Healing disease through the medium of high electro-medical power is but a natural phenomena whereby the nerves and vitality itself is restored and liberated from disease and the blood will flow unobstructed through veins and arteries of the body.

Electricity has been the master key which has unlocked the doors which have revealed nearly all of the important discoveries up to the present time and there is no doubt that the solution of the medicine difficulty lies in electricity.

The trend of science on all sides is to electricity. Discoveries made hour by hour point to one grand conclusion—the bed-rock of Nature is electricity. Life, force and mind are intimately connected with electricity. A man, brain and body, is a battery, and the nerves correspond to wires. The power that drives the body is electricity. Life is electricity and ozone its normal supplement which supplied the red corpuscles of the blood with the element of life.

The word health now means a normal supply of electricity and ozone in the body and the word disease means an insufficiency of that power.

It will be but a matter of a few years when the public will look back on the days of the calomel, quinine, strychnine, liver pills, stomach powders, etc., and these days will seem just as distant as the days of stage coaches.

That does not say that the doctors are strictly opposed to medicines. Greater, however, than all power of medicines, in the art of curing diseases, is the power of medical electricity. The Electro Medical doctors desire a few more cases of people who found no cure elsewhere. They will accept them for half the fee. Those, however, who are poor and cannot pay will be treated free of charge. There are separate waiting rooms for men and women and so are the treating rooms. All consultations are free 9 to 12, 1 to 5, 6 to 8 and Sundays 10 to 1. Married women, however, are requested to be accompanied by their husbands.

WOMEN'S BALLOT.

Women may vote on county superintendent of schools.

DULUTH VOTERS SHOULD KNOW:

The primaries will be held Sept. 17.
The general election will be held Nov. 5.
The days of registration are Sept. 3, Sept. 10 and Sept. 17.
Voters should register on one of the first two days of registration in order to be entitled to vote at the primaries.
Voters who do not register on one of the first two days may vote at the primaries only by registering and filing an affidavit of residence, corroborated by two freeholders of the district in which the voter's residence is located.
Voters who do not register on one of the first two days of registration may register on primary election day, but may not vote at the primary unless the affidavit of residence required is filed.
One freeholder may not corroborate the affidavits of more than five voters.
Voters should record a first and second choice for all offices on the party ballot at the primary.
The second choice cannot affect the first choice, as the first choice candidate must be eliminated before the second choice vote can be counted.
A second choice may not be voted on the non-partisan ballot.
Voters may not receive entertainment, meat, drink, provisions, clothing, liquor, cigars or tobacco from a candidate on pain of exposing himself to challenge and suffering the rejection of his vote.

CANDIDATES SHOULD KNOW:

A candidate is "any person for whom it is contemplated or desired that votes may be cast at any election or primary and who either tacitly or expressly consents to be so considered."
The last day for filing is Aug. 28.
Candidates for offices in districts wholly within one county must file with the county auditor, and in districts in more than one county must file with the secretary of state.
Where two or more offices must be filled, the candidate must choose the class in which he will file for the nomination.
The only expenditures allowed by the corrupt practices act are for necessary traveling expenses, postage, telegraph, telephone and public messenger service, rent and furnishing of halls for speeches, payment of speakers and musicians at public meetings, printing and distribution of lists of candidates, sample ballots, pamphlets, newspapers, circulars, cards, hand bills, posters and announcements, copying and classifying poll lists, making canvasses of voters, challengers at the polls, filing fees, contributions to party committee, campaign advertising.
No payment may be made or promised for articles in newspapers and magazines unless such articles are headed "Paid Advertisement," and are accompanied by a statement at the top giving the amount paid or to be paid, the publication, and the name of the author.
The following limits are placed on expenditures by candidates: For governor, $7,000; other state offices, $3,500; state senator, $600; member of the house, $400; presidential elector-at-large, $500; presidential elector for congressional district, $100; county, city, village or town officer or for judge or other officer, sum not exceeding one-third of salary for first year; for office to which no salary is attached, $100.
Candidates may make and others may solicit no contributions for religious, charitable or other causes, nor subscriptions for the support of any organization, nor purchases of tickets, nor payments for space in book, program or periodical, except ordinary business advertisements. Causes to which candidates have been subscribers for six months prior to candidacy and regular church contributions are excepted.
Campaign literature must bear name and address of the author, name and address of the candidate and name and address of the person or committee causing it to be published.
Candidates may not pay another to become or not to become a candidate for any office.
Candidate may not give and a voter may not receive meat, drink, entertainment, provisions, clothing, liquor, cigars or tobacco.
Candidates may not bet on the result of the election.
Candidates may not pay a person for loss of time or damage due to attendance at the polls or to register.
Candidates may not pay for personal service on day of primary or election, except to persons to act as challengers and to watch the count.
No person may buy, sell, give or provide political badges, buttons or insignia to be worn at polls, and none shall be worn.
Candidates may not provide transportation for voters to the polls.
No person may solicit votes within 100 feet of the polling place.
No person may distribute campaign cards, candidates' cards, pincards or campaign literature on the day of primary or election.
Every candidate and the secretary of every personal and party committee must on the second Saturday after the candidate or committee has made a disbursement or incurred an obligation, and on the second Saturday of each calendar month, and on the Saturday preceding the election or primary, file a sworn statement of money and pledges received, and from whom, and disbursements and obligations incurred.
The name of a candidate chosen at a primary election will not be placed on the ballot until his expense account has been filed.
No person, firm or co-partnership shall disburse, expend or contribute in any manner whatsoever for political purposes a sum of money in excess of $50, except through a political committee.
No candidate may promise an appointment.
Failure to file expense account is ground for prosecution, and the county attorney is required by law to prosecute.
Twenty-five voters or any defeated candidate may contest the right of any candidate to nomination or office on the grounds of deliberate, serious and material violations of the provisions of the corrupt practices act.
Contests must be begun within ten days after primary or thirty days after general election.
The penalties for violation of the corrupt practices act, unless otherwise therein provided, are imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month, nor more than one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of not less than one year nor more than three years, or by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $1,000, or by both imprisonment and fine.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE ELECTION LAWS PROVIDE

That all candidates for office in Minnesota shall be nominated at direct primaries held seven weeks prior to the election.
That the chief justice, associate justices of the supreme court, district court judges, probate court judges, county superintendents of schools and officers in cities of the first class shall be nominated on a non-partisan ballot.
The two candidates receiving the highest vote for the nomination for offices on the non-partisan ballot will go on the final election ballot.
Candidates for chief justice or associate justice of the supreme court may be presented for the primaries by petition of 500 names, and for judge of the district court by a petition of 250 names.
The voters shall be given opportunity to express first and second choice for all offices on party ballots at the primaries. The tally sheets shall be arranged to show the first choice vote for each candidate and the second choice votes of those who voted for him as first choice.
If no candidate is found to have received a majority of the first-choice votes cast for the office, the lowest candidate is dropped and the second-choice votes of those who voted for him as first choice, are to be added to the first-choice votes of the candidates for whom they were cast. The elimination process is to be continued until some candidate is found to have a majority of the first and second-choice votes credited to all candidates remaining.
Nominations may be made by petition after the primary. Nominating petitions for state office must contain 2,000 names; for congressional or judicial office, 5 per cent of the vote, not exceeding 500 names; and for other office 10 per cent of the vote cast at the last preceding election.
Nominees for state offices, the state legislature and United States senators and representatives and all officers whose terms extend beyond the first Monday in January shall meet at the state capitol at noon on the second Thursday after the primary to choose state and congressional committees.
Nominees for the legislature, for county officers and senators and county officers whose terms extend beyond the first Monday in January shall meet at the courthouse at noon on the first Tuesday after the primary and choose a county committee.
Corporations may not contribute to political funds under penalty of $10,000 fine, the dissolution of domestic corporations and the revocation of the right to do business in the state of foreign corporations.
Any agent of a corporation violating the act is subject to a penalty of a fine of $100 to $5,000, or imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one and not more than five years, or by both fine and imprisonment.
The personal campaign committee of any candidate may not spend more money than the limit placed on the candidate, and party committees may not spend more than $10,000 in the state for any election.

Since the legislature of Minnesota, in special session, provided a state-wide primary and a new corrupt practices act, there are pitfalls in the path of every candidate and every voter.

Each perusal of the new primary law and the corrupt practices reveals new and wonderful slants of the legislative mind, as expressed in the two laws produced in extra session.

The Duluth voter who doesn't register at least seven weeks before the election can't vote.

The voter who doesn't register before the primaries can vote at the primaries only on presentation of an affidavit of residence, corroborated by two free-holders of the district.

The voter who accepts a cigar from a candidate may have his vote challenged with good ground.

These and others are pitfalls of which the voter must needs be wary if he is to reserve the right to express himself on candidates and questions submitted at the primary and general elections.

Many are the stumbling blocks in the candidate's path. He may not "buy" for a friend. He may not purchase a ticket for an entertainment. He may not spend more than a fixed amount. He must have a personal campaign committee in most cases. He must do the proverbial 101 things and then a few, if he is to be certain that he may retain the nomination or the office if he captures it.

The primary ballots this year will be a yard long. In addition, each voter, regardless of his political party, will receive a non-partisan ballot.

The voter is called upon to exercise two choices for each office on the party ballot, and if he is wise, he will do so, but some will be confused by the provision.

Returns will be slow in coming in. The election judges will be entangled in a maze of provisions new to them and unless they are men of more than average intelligence they will have troubles that will keep them on the job long into the day following the primary. The elimination process provided by the second-choice primary law will call for careful work from county and state canvassing boards, and not until several days after the primary will the results be definitely known.

TAFT PLEADS FOR PARTY

Reads Progressives Out of Any Right to Republican Name.

Tells Maryland Editors Protective Tariff Must Prevail.

Washington, Aug. 17.—President Taft yesterday made his first political speech since that he made when notified of his renomination. Addressing members of the Maryland Republican Editorial association in the East room of the White House, he declared bluntly that presidential electors were "dishonest men" if they let their names appear on the Republican ballot and intended to vote for the candidate of another party. He asserted that those who were not for the Republican party were against it, and should get out of the way.

"All we ask is a fair fight. A man cannot be in the Republican party and in a third party at the same time, and should be compelled to make his selection," he said. "Regularity or feeling of regularity and respect for the Republican party, for what it has done, what it is capable of doing, are going to bring over into the Republican party many a man who has been doubtful, and it is going to increase that number, in my judgment, as we approach the election.

Make Cleavage Clear.

"It is therefore essential that we make the cleavage as clear as it can be made, so that those who are Republicans shall be Republicans, and those who are with the bolters shall bear their name and title, and not be Republicans and bolters, because they cannot be—at least they ought not to be—in all fairness.

"We ought to have electors in each state bearing the emblem of the Republican party, bearing the names of the candidate of that party for president or vice president at the head of the ticket, covering the electors who are going to vote for those names. If there are any men on that list who are not going to vote for the man at the head of that ticket, I don't hesitate to say that they are dishonest men, in that they are holding out to the people who are to vote for them an implied promise that they will vote for the names on the ticket, when they, in fact, intend to vote for somebody else. I think that is just following the plainest kind of principles of ordinary morals."

"We Are Republicans."

The president began his speech with a brief summary of what the Republican party stands for. He said:

"We are Republicans. That means that we believe in certain principles; that we believe in the Constitution of the United States; that we believe in maintaining that Constitution; that we believe in progress along the lines that Constitution indicates. We are protectionists, and we are in favor of maintaining the present prosperity by maintaining a tariff system which shall preserve business as at present and preserve wages to the wage earners, and we wish profit to those who invest capital. These propositions cover a good deal of Republicanism.

"Being a party, we are anxious to have the opinions that our party represents put into force in the operation of the government. The only way we can do that is by electing a congress and a president who will carry them out. Now, that means that we have to be a single party, and not a party of two parties. I don't think we are unfair in asking that we be given a chance for a fair fight, and in counting those against us who are not with us.

Before and After Convention.

"To have a man on both sides of the fight when we are on one side, is uncomfortable, especially when he is behind you.

"Before the convention it is all right that we should differ as to the men best qualified to represent us in carrying out the principles of the party. But after the convention, each voter's influence should carry its proper and proportionate weight in the election of the party's candidates."

SHORT COURSE IN AGRICULTURE DURING STATE FAIR WEEK

In the new lecture room of the agricultural building at the state fair grounds there will be conducted during state fair week a real agriculture short course that will be free to all visitors.

The state fair managers have provided space to build a lecture room perfectly equipped for the purpose. In cooperation with the farm school faculty Supt. C. P. Craig of Duluth will give daily programs that will furnish both entertainment and instruction in the most advanced subject in which farmers are interested.

This program will be supplemented by demonstrations and working exhibits which will be arranged in booths near the lecture hall. It will include moving picture shows as well as addresses by men prominent in agricultural work in Minnesota. In short, it will be an effort to attract people to instruction by entertainment.

The program as made up and which will be subject to only a few minor changes is as follows:

Daily Program, Sept. 2 to 7.

10-10:15 a. m.—"Liquid Air"; college of engineering.

10:30-10:45 a. m.—"Farm Management," illustrated colored slides, Prof. A. Boss.

11-11:15 a. m.—"Rural Schools" illustrated, by state department of public instruction.

11:30-11:45 a. m.—(For women) "Personal and Social Hygiene" by Dr. Norris.

1-1:30 p. m.—Gyrascope demonstration by Dr. New Kirk.

1:45-2 p. m.—"Drainage," illustrated lecture with colored slides by Prof. J. T. Stewart.

3-3:15 p. m.—"Selection of Seed Corn," illstrated, Prof. C. P. Bull.

3:30-3:45 p. m.—"Alfalfa in Minnesota," illustrated, Prof. A. C. Orny.

LA FOLLETTE FLAYS NEW PARTY IN SENATE SPEECH

Rehearses Roosevelt's Record and Says He Would Bring No Relief.

Declares Intention to Stay in Republican Ranks and Fight.

Washington, Aug. 17.—In a picturesque, spontaneous outburst during debate of the president's wool tariff veto in the senate, Senator La Follette attacked the new Progressive party and swore new allegiance to Progressive Republicanism.

"The original insurgent," quivering with emotion, with clenched hands and strained face, poured out a flood of impassioned oratory that kept the floor and galleries of the senate rapt and silent. Standing in the well of the chamber, Senator La Follette assured his associates that he intended to "keep up the fight in the Republican party to make that party really progressive," and to "keep on until the last bell rings and the curtain falls."

After reviewing briefly the trust record of Col. Roosevelt, Senator La Follette declared that the former president was "not the man to find the way out now." He asserted that "no obstacles dragged across the path of the progressive movement in the Republican party can now stop its advance."

Diverted at Chicago.

He declares that when the Republican party, through its Progressive associates, had reached a point where it would "respond to the purposes for which it was born, an attempt is made at Chicago to divert it."

Senator Stone asked Mr. La Follette whether he meant the nomination of President Taft or the nomination of Ex-President Roosevelt.

"I am awfully surprised," Senator La Follette began, "that I left the senator from Missouri in doubt. I hope I did not leave doubt in the mind of any one else."

Then, moving down the center aisle until his outstretched, shaking hands almost touched the stenographers' tables, he continued:

"On the day that Theodore Roosevelt was president of the United States there were 149 trusts and combinations in the United States. When he turned this government over to William Howard Taft there were 10,020 plants in combination. When he became president the trusts had an aggregate capitalization of $3,000,000,000 and when he left the presidency they had an aggregate capitalization of $31,000,000,000, and more than 70 per cent of it was water.

Applying Sherman Law.

"Their power has gone on growing and spreading. There has been no diminution in the present administration. The present administration has sought to apply the Sherman anti-trust law more vigorously than its predecessor; but the time to have applied the Sherman anti-trust law effectively was in the infancy of these trusts, when there were only 149.

"I don't believe that the man who was president for seven years while the greatest trust growth occurred, at the very time of all times in the history of the Sherman anti-trust law that it could have been made potential in deterring trust organization—I think that the man who was president then is not the man to find the way out now."

Then, turning to Senator Stone, Senator La Follette bowed and inquired: "Does that answer the senator from Missouri?"

"That does fairly well," responded Senator Stone, dryly, amid the laughter of the senate.

Senator Pomerene inquired if Senator La Follette would tell how many of the 10,020 trusts were "good" ones and how many of them "bad."

"Good and Bad" Trusts.

"I have no way to differentiate," returned Senator La Follette, "because none of the trusts is my friend. If any of them were supporting my propaganda with large contributions, I suppose I would be human enough to call them 'good trusts.' They know about the Wisconsin system, and they know it is the real panacea for their business.

"So I have no George W. Perkins and no Munsy supporting me. It is a lone, practically single-handed fight I have been waging for twenty-five years, and, Mr. President, I am going to keep on until the bell rings and the curtain falls."

Senator La Follette's outburst came without warning to the senate. He arose to make an analysis of the president's veto message on the wool bill, but had spoken scarcely a dozen words when the break came. As his eyes roved around the chamber he saw that many Republican senators had left their seats as he began to speak, and with a bitter smile he turned to the president of the senate.

"I note the fact," he said, "that on the Republican side there are just fourteen senators present. I am constrained to speculate a bit about this. I am impelled to question whether that condition may not be a sort of prophesy of what is to come."

Senator La Follette then remarked that he remembered the first time he addressed the senate and practically every seat on the Republican side was vacated as a rebuke to him "for presuming to know anything about legislation."

His Former Prophecy.

"I propitesied that when the people came to understand the sort of service they were getting those seats would be permanently vacated. Since, there have been some thirty of those seats vacated. I don't believe that the public of this country is going to find any measure of relief from that condition by wandering off into unexplored fields under the guidance of a pilot who exercised a very supreme control while we were getting into exactly the same condition the country is in now.

"I believe the redemption of representative government in this country will be accomplished by the Republican party."

As Senator La Follette continued he grew more earnest. Several times he realized that he had forgotten the original purpose of his speech and interrupted himself.

"Go on; go on," urged Senator William Alden Smith, who sat near him.

"I didn't intend to make this sort of a speech—I vow I didn't," said Senator La Follette. "But I would like to go on. I'm just seething with it. I intend to go on in two or three weeks, night and day. I am never going to stop until the Republicans in the house and senate and each of the legislatures are truly Progressives. I am going to keep the fight in the Republican party. I think that it is the best instrument through which to progress. Now, when it is the purpose to make the Republican party respond to the purpose for which it was born, an attempt is made at Chicago to divert it. It will not succeed. It will only disturb the surface of things a little. The Republican party was born to make all men equal, and that is all that lies back of the movement of the true Progressives."

PARISH HOUSE IS PLANNED

Duluth May Have Institution Modeled After Hull House.

West End Bible Class Members Studying Social Conditions.

Duluth will have a parish house similar to the Hull house in Chicago and the Bartholomew church parish of New York, if the present plans of the Servo Adult Bible class of the Second Presbyterian chuuch, 1515 West Superior street, materialize. The members of the society and the congregation of the church are now considering the plan of building a parish house, which will serve the entire community.

The idea of establishing a parish house in the West end originated at a meeting of the Bible class last winter, following an address by Attorney Elmer F. Blue on "City Environment." Since then the members of the society and Rev. J. A. McGaughey, pastor of the church, and head of the society, have been investigating the social conditions of the West end. They have found that there is much room for improvement and that there is a splendid opportunity at present to do effective work in this end of the city.

Rev. Mr. McGaughey in speaking of the plans yesterday afternoon said that in all probability a new structure would be built by the church. The members are anxious to remedy the evils now existing, he said. The parish house or social center will be built next to the present church structure and is to contain some of the features now found in Hull house at Chicago.

Hull house of Chicago, which is today one of the greatest social centers in the world and which is known throughout the country as the result of the work of Miss Jane Addams, will be followed in the arrangement of the local parish house. This fall the members of the Bible class will make a special study of Miss Addams' work. That similar results could be accomplished for Duluth, is the belief of the members of the society.

The Bartholomew church parish house of New York is another social center of national repute. The house now has 200 paid and 800 volunteer assistants doing work in the parish. Over 3,000 meetings are held each year and the building used for these purposes is nine stories high. A free employment bureau is conducted in connection, as is also a bank to loan money to the poor on low rates of interest. The parish also conducts a hospital and dispensary.

Rev. Mr. McGaughey has done parish work in Chicago, where he worked in a settlement for several years. He is well acquainted with the conditions in a large city and has also had experience in meeting them. In all probability Rev. Mr. McGaughey will have charge of the parish house here and will be assisted by the members of the Bible class.

EXPLAINS THE ELECTION LAWS

Warren E. Greene, assistant county attorney, fully explained the election laws recently enacted by the state legislature, at a meeting of the French Naturalization club held last evening at the St. Jean Baptiste hall, Twenty-fifth avenue west and Third street.

Mr. Greene impressed on the members of the organization the fact that it is absolutely necessary to register on Sept. 3 or 10 if they wished to vote at either the primary or general elections. He said that as far as he understood the law there are no other registration days. The primary day, he said, is also registration day, but the voter registering on that day will be unable to vote without securing an affidavit from a notary and being vouched for by two resident citizens.

County Commissioner Joseph W. Cumming, who is a candidate for renomination on the Republican ticket in the Third district, gave a short talk to the members on the proposed penal farm. He explained the plans of the present board and asked for his renomination to carry on the work in St. Louis county. Addresses were also made by Walter A. Swanstrom, Republican candidate for county commissioner, and Arthur Gauthier, candidate for commissioner in the Fifth district on the Democratic ticket.

MISSIONARY DAY AT CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Giffin of 1927 West Second street, who will leave Oct. 1 for a seven years' stay in China, will hold a missionary day next Wednesday at the Central Baptist church, Twentieth avenue west and First street.

In the afternoon a program will be given especially for the children. No admission will be charged and any one interested in missionary work is invited to attend. There will be eight people in Chinese costumes, besides Rev. and Mrs. Giffin and their two children. Addresses will be given on the work in China and several character stories will be read. Following the program, which includes also several piano and vocal selections, Mr. and Mrs. Giffin's collection of curios from Japan, Honolulu and China will be placed on exhibition.

A special program will be given in the evening, starting at 8 o'clock. Rev. and Mrs. Giffin, assisted by their two children and eight others, all in costume, will render a program of addresses and readings. "A Chinese Lesson," showing how a missionary works in China, and "An Eastern Romance," displaying the various features of a Mongolian wedding, are among the character studies in the evening and every one is invited to the affair.

Following the program the curio collection will again be exhibited. Rev. and Mrs. Giffin are now preparing to move to China with their family.

NEW FACTORY BEING ERECTED

One of the most up-to-date factory buildings in the city is being built at 2115-2117 West Michigan street for P. George Hanson & Son, real estate dealers. Work on excavating the ground for the foundation was begun yesterday. The structure will cost $12,000 and is expected to be finishd by Nov. 1.

The building will be three stories high, with a full basement. Construction will be of brick, with the latest reinforcements and improvements for factory structures. The building will have a frontage of 50 feet and will extend 70 feet to the alley. The entire building will be fireproof.

Winkler & Winkler, candy manufacturers, will occupy the entire building when it is completed. The first floor will be given over to showrooms and salesrooms, while the second and third floors will be arranged for the factory proper. A freight elevator will be included in the construction of the building. Contractor Alfred Peterson has been awarded the building contract.

Pastor Returning.

Rev. and Mrs. Milton Fish of 502 North Twenty-fifth avenue west are expected here today from Boston, where they spent the past two months with relatives.

Rev. Mr. Fish is expected to occupy the pulpit at both services tomorrow. During Rev. Mr. Fish's absence the pulpit has been filled by Rev. J. H. Giffin.

Quarterly Conference.

The congregation of the First Swedish M. E. church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, held its quarterly conference last evening. Rev. John Anderson of Marquette, Mich., superintendent of the Lake Superior district of Swedish M. E. churches, presided at the meeting and was informed by the congregation that Rev. C. W. R. Wermine has accepted the call from the church.

Meeting Postponed.

The regular meeting of the West End Commercial club was postponed until next Friday evening, when the business of the organization will be taken up. Failure on the part of the members to attend the meeting last evening caused the postponement to next week. The white way committee and the garden committee are both ready to make their reports.

Annual Boat Ride.

The Young People's Society of the Swedish Mission church, Twenty-first avenue west and Second street, held its annual boat ride last evening. About 300 young people from the West end enjoyed the outing. The steamer left the Twenty-first avenue dock at 8 o'clock and returned about 10 o'clock.

Gwiward Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Adeline Gwiward, 64 years old, 2816 West Second street, who died Thursday evening after a short illness, was held at 9 o'clock this morning from the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. A. M. Orrvar, 1123 Michigan street, and at 9:30 o'clock from the St. Jean Baptiste Catholic church, Twenty-fifth avenue west and Third street. Interment was at Calvary.

Bill Funeral.

The funeral of Miss Hirma Bill, 25 years old, 2006 West Sixth street, who died Wednesday afternoon at St. Luke's hospital, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Olson & Crawford undertaking rooms, 2118 West street. Interment was at Lutheran cemetery.

Residence Sold.

P. George Hanson & Son, 1915 West Superior street, real estate dealers, yesterday afternoon sold the house and lot at 2631 West Second street to L. T. Butchart. Mr. Butchart paid $3,400 for the structure and expects to move into it with his family next month.

Sunday Services.

Rev. J. A. McGaughey, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, 1515 West Superior street, who returned last week from a month's visit at Storm Lake, Iowa, will preach his first sermon tomorrow morning since his return to the city. The subject in the morning will be "The Rest of Toil." In the evening he will preach on "The Weak Point in a Strong Man."

If the weather is favorable tomorrow evening the Christian Endeavor society and the Servo Adult Bible class will hold an open air meeting at the corner of Garfield avenue and Piedmont. Rev. Mr. McGaughey will preach and the choir will render several numbers.

Series of Sermons.

Rev. C. W. R. Wermine, pastor of the First Swedish M. E. church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, will preach tomorrow morning on the third of the series of sermons on "Travels of Christ." The subject tomorrow will be "Christ in Rome and Judea." In the evening Rev. Mr. Wermine will preach on "Do You Know It?"

False Report.

B. J. Enger of the firm of Enger & Olson of 1830 and 1832 West Superior street returned this week from a month's pleasure trip in the West and on the Pacific coast. Mr. Enger made the trip alone and reports that conditions in the West are most promising. The report in Wednesday's Herald on Mr. Enger's return that he was accompanied on the trip was incorrect.

West End Briefs.

Miss Nora Olson of 3225 West Third street is visiting for several weeks with relatives at Hudson, Wis.

Mrs. Frank O'Donnell of 421 North Twenty-first avenue west is visiting this week with relatives at Elroy, Wis.

Duluth assembly, No. 595, E. F. U., will hold its first annual picnic next Tuesday at Lincoln park, Twenty-fifth avenue west and Third street.

Mrs. K. O. Lenman of Biwabik has returned to her home after visiting with West end relatives for several days.

Rev. Edward Erickson conducted the tent meeting last evening at Thirty-ninth avenue west and Third street. There will be no meeting this evening.

The Epworth league of the First Swedish M. E. church was entertained at a lawn social last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Sundeen, 2113 West Second street.

Prof. and Mrs. A. E. Anderson of Humboldt Park, Ill., left yesterday for Litchfield, Minn., after spending several days at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Daniels, 215 North Twenty-first avenue west.

GO TO GARY

We Are Selling Gary Division Lots For 25 Per Cent Less Than Others Who Hold Similar Lots in This Division!

Here is your opportunity to participate in the enormous profits which will be created by reason of the millions in wages which will be paid to the 5,000 steel plant employes every year, beginning next fall.

Come out and see for yourself what the place looks like and let us tell you what is going to happen here.

Those who are familiar with property about the Steel Plant do not need to be told that Gary Division is the best located piece of property; if you do not know the lay of the land, it is an additional reason why you should visit the place.

We can best judge of the possibilities for profitable investment here by examining into the history of similar developments in other steel manufacturing centers, such as Buffalo, Pittsburg, South Chicago and Gary, Indiana. You have probably learned already that wherever steel plants have been established, real estate values have jumped from two to a hundred times what they were in a very short space of time.

Now, a word of caution:

Don't think that you can take advantage of this opportunity any time. It is open to you now, but there is small likelihood that you will have anything like as good an opportunity here if you wait even one week. Others are alive to the situation and are taking the choicest lots remaining, day after day. ACT NOW!

W. A. McGonagle, president of the D., M. & N. Ry., in an address before Greater Duluth club, said:

"The time will come when this plant will be in operation to mill the extra millions of tons of ore that will be demanded in the steel industry, and Duluth will then take its rightful place as the center of this industry"

SPECIAL!

Call up and arrange for a place in one of our automobile parties. We will take you out to the plant, show you all there is to see, and get you back to the city in about three hours.

BASEBALL

SUNDAY—DOUBLE HEADER
DULUTH vs. WINNIPEG
First Game Starts at 2:30

IS DRAWING TO A CLOSE

Only Two More Weeks of the Herald Excursion Season.

Two more weeks and the excursion season of 1912 will be a thing of memory only, for the scheduled trips which have been carried on under auspices of The Herald during the summer months will then cease. September is not figured on as an excursion month for the reason that the hot weather in the cities is practically over and the stormy season approaches.

The excursions carried on this year by The Herald up the river and down the two shores of the lake, have been singularly successful, and to judge from the numerous inquiries received by telephone as to how much longer they will be available, it seems as though a great many are figuring on taking in all that remain and are loath to part with the opportunity to see pretty sights from the steamer decks and to enjoy the cooling breezes on warm days. But the end of August sees the end of these opportunities.

These excursions have had a greater attraction for out-of-town people, for with the residents, it is the old story of that which is at one's door and available almost all of the time, is the most neglected. Duluth people who have had visitors from outside of the city and would otherwise have been put to it to provide such entertainment as their guests would enjoy have repeatedly thanked The Herald for the opportunities offered by the weekly excursions given.

Those opportunities to entertain guests will be available for two more weeks and no more this year. Each Monday morning the steamer Columbia takes a crowd up the river to Fond du Lac, each Tuesday an excursion to Two Harbors on the north shore takes place, and each Wednesday the pretty sights of the south shore to Port Wing may be seen from the steamer.

ON A VISIT TO VERMILION RANGE

Four Prominent Minneapolis Men to Look Over Iron Property.

Dr. C. J. Ringold, a leading surgeon of Minneapolis and president of the Odin club of that city; R. A. Jacobson, the railroad contractor and treasurer of the Odin club; G. W. Allen, owner of the Allen hotel, and A. W. Skog, register of deeds of Hennepin county and famous as a raconteur, all of Minneapolis, were at the new St. Louis hotel today.

The party left this afternoon for the Vermilion iron range to visit the property of the Irona Iron Mining company, in which they are interested. The Irona company is drilling on its property adjacent to the Commodore Vermilion mine, a few miles from Tower and has shown up a large ore body.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION

MISSOURI SLOPE COUNTIES IN DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE.

Bismarck, N. D., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Every county on the Missouri slope has perfected the organization of a local league to be affiliated with the Missouri Slope Development league, Kidder county being the latest to fall in line. At an enthusiastic meeting held in Steele, attended by representatives of all sections of the county, Col. W. P. Tuttle was elected president of the development organization; Charles Roberts was named vice president; C. W. Cross was appointed secretary, and John F. Robinson was made treasurer.

Fourth North Dakota District Bankers.

Oakes, N. D., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Bankers of the Fourth district met here and organized a district bankers' association.

Milnor was selected as the place for the next meeting and the following officers were elected: President, J. Caldwell, Monango; vice president, F. S. Graham, Oakes; secretary and treasurer, R. B. Withington, Cayuga.

SEEK REDUCTION IN EXPRESS RATES

North Dakota Shippers Will Ask Railroad Commission to Cut More.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Radical reductions in the express rates of North Dakota, greater than those proposed by the state railroad commission, will be sought by the shippers of Grand Forks, who met yesterday and formulated a statement which will be presented to the commission when it meets here next Wednesday to conduct a hearing on the express rate question. Comparing the rates of Minnesota and of South Dakota with those proposed in North Dakota, the Grand Forks shippers point out that there is a wide difference, this state, even under the proposed schedule, being compelled to pay greatly in excess of the amount charged in South Dakota, where the railroad commission has been successful in the courts of the United States in establishing their right to exact such schedules as have been promulgated.

Under the present North Dakota merchandise rate, the charge on 100 pounds for fifty miles is 75 cents, while the new rate shows the same charge. On special implement parts, the new rate proposed is 60 cents. The Minnesota merchandise rate on 100 pounds for fifty miles is 50 cents, while the South Dakota rate is 35 cents.

Iowans Enjoy Minnesota Climate.

Cass Lake, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—F. C. McIlhaney and family of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Mrs. P. Young of Hazelton, Iowa; and E. P. Moyer and wife of Des Moines, Iowa, who have been spending the last three weeks on Star Island occupying the Marshik cottage, left Monday for their homes.

Paper From Sugar Cane.

Ashland, Wis., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The United Fruit company is to build and operate a plant here for the manufacture of paper from sugar cane, the same as the plant at Madison. The plant will adjoin that of the Menasha Paper company here, running on a small scale at first, gradually being increased.

NEW DULUTH GROWING FAST

Steel Plant Expected to Double Its Population Within a Year.

Big Public Improvements Under Way and New Business Blocks.

This Section of the City All Ready to House Thousands of Workmen.

BY GEORGE REID.

Important public works are under way in New Duluth and before cold weather comes it will have nearly all the modern improvements possessed by the most favored part of the city and form a section of Duluth to house the thousands of workmen in the steel plant. The business center of New Duluth is only a little more than a mile from the mammoth works and this subdivision of Duluth extends to within four blocks of the main entrance to the plant. New Duluth is only a short walk away—just far enough to escape the noise, smoke and fumes inevitable in a great steel plant. There seems to be no reason to doubt the belief of the business men of that part of the city that New Duluth will double its population within a year and for several years to come will be the fastest growing section of the city.

New Duluth was founded before the steel plant was contemplated. It has paved streets and sidewalks, brick business blocks, electric lights, police and fire protection, churches and schools and a good moving-picture show, and before winter sets in will have its own water supply. In a few more months the Duluth street railway will be extended to New Duluth, which will then enjoy all of the advantages possessed by other sections of the city.

The city of Duluth is installing a $25,000 water system in New Duluth which will have three miles of mains and eighteen fire plugs to begin with. Work has been begun on four driven wells. The water mains are of standard size and when connected up later on with West Duluth will supply water from Lake Superior instead of the wells. Much of the water pipe is on the ground and before snow flies it is expected the water system will be completed.

A mile and a half of concrete sidewalks are being built. An equal length has been constructed each year for the last three years, and by fall New Duluth will have nearly seven miles of concrete sidewalks having a width of five feet on residence streets and eight feet on Commonwealth avenue, the main business thoroughfare. The roadway of Commonwealth avenue is macadam. Altogether forty-eight blocks of streets are paved. Recently a board walk four feet in width was completed from the center of New Duluth to the main entrance to the steel plant. A storm sewer extends from the northern limits to the river. The city has recently installed electric street lights and the Duluth-Edison company is supplying current for business houses and residences.

New Duluth has a fire hall and apparatus, with two paid city firemen and twenty-five volunteers. A new $6,000 police station is being built. Sergeant Robert McDermott and three patrolmen are stationed at New Duluth.

The roadway from Seventy-first avenue west is being put into shape for the extension of the Duluth street railway from its present terminus at that point to the steel plant and New Duluth, by way of Commonwealth avenue. Street cars will be running into New Duluth several months before the steel plant is in operation in a little more than a year from this time. In view of all these facts it is not to be wondered at that New Duluth business men figure on the population doubling within a year.

New Duluth has a fine graded public school, from the first to the eighth grade, housed in a handsome brick building. There are so many children in this part of the city and it is growing so fast that last year a portable schoolhouse had to be pressed into use to care for the overflow. The Fond du Lac branch of the Northern Pacific railway gives frequent train service, having five passenger trains each way daily, with low commutation rates to the Union station.

Much building has been done during the last year, including the Becklinger brick block, costing $14,000, and the Frank Brand block, also brick, costing $6,000. Pictures of these buildings appear on this page. Ten residences have been built, costing from $1,000 to $1,700. The John H. Brigham block has been doubled in size and other buildings have been improved. New Duluth's population today is about 1,000 and is increasing rapidly as the gigantic steel plant nears completion. The Thompson Furniture company, next to the steel plant New Duluth's chief industry, makes bedroom furniture, operates the year round and ships its product as far as the Pacific coast. Local business men have subscribed $12,500 toward the stock of the New Duluth State bank and it is expected that outside capital will subscribe an equal amount.

New Duluth has its own postoffice. Here the cancelation of stamps has increased from $25 to $100 a month during the last year, an indication of the growth in business and population. It has four churches, Roman Catholic, Presbyterian, Congregationalist and Baptist. This part of the city is on the same level plateau as the steel plant, and slopes gently to the bank of the picturesque St. Louis river. The scenery hereabouts is beautiful.

While it is a delightful place in which to live it is as a manufacturing district that New Duluth will be known in the years to come. It has more than 100 acres of manufacturing and dock sites lying for a mile and a quarter along the river, with twenty-two feet of water in the channel. The Belt Line railroad, connecting the steel plant with Allouez bay and every railroad entering the Head of the Lakes, crosses one end of New Duluth adjacent to its splendid sites for big manufacturing plants.

Next to the steel plant the New Duluth Commercial club is responsible for the impetus that it is being given to this most promising section of the city. It has 150 members, all of them live wires. Dr. C. J. Wallace is president, Noble Sampson vice president, Melvin Becklinger secretary and D. H. Lewis treasurer.

FRANK BRAND BLOCK.

It Houses the Largest Mercantile Business of New Duluth.

In the brick block are the departments devoted to dry goods, notions, clothing, men's furnishings, men's, women's and children's shoes, tableware, etc. Adjoining and connected by doorways in the center is Mr. Brand's large frame building holding the meat and grocery departments.

Mr. Brand has built up a large trade in New Duluth and the neighboring territory. It takes five employes and two delivery wagons to take care of it. This big business Mr. Brand has built up by close application and honest business methods. He always aims to give the lowest possible prices. Just now workmen are constructing a large ice box in the rear of the meat department to keep all meats fresh during warm weather.

Frank Brand was born in Switzerland and came to this country twenty-nine years ago. He has been in business in Duluth for twenty years. For two years he was in West Duluth. Eighteen years ago he established himself in New Duluth and his business has grown steadily ever since, until now it is the largest in this section of the city and is bound to increase more rapidly than ever before because of the impetus of the steel plant.

Mr. Brand early showed his faith in rapidly growing portion of the city of Duluth John O. Johnson told the writer yesterday that New Duluth's population is certain to double within a year and, in his opinion, New Duluth would outstrip any other part of the city in growth for years to come.

JOHNSON BROTHERS.

Dealers in Clothing, Furnishings, Shoes and Hats.

A stock that would do credit to the older section of the city in magnitude and the latest styles is carried by Johnson Bros. No. 306 Commonwealth avenue, the business center of New Duluth.

The Johnson Bros. moved to New Duluth in 1909 from Scanlon after that town went out of existence, and by clean-cut business methods and reasonable prices have built up a large trade in New Duluth and the surrounding territory in clothing, furnishings, shoes and hats.

The firm is composed of John O. Johnson and George Johnson, brothers, who were born in Norway, coming with their parents when children to Iron River, Wis., where they were raised. They made their first business venture in Scanlon and were successful, but when the great sawmills were suspended the town soon disintegrated. Taking no more chances of building up a business only to have it dissipated through no fault of their own, the Johnson Bros. established themselves in New Duluth, where a great steel plant was being built, insuring permanent prosperity. In the most which carries everything in drugs, patent medicines and toilet articles at right prices. The New Duluth pharmacy also conducts a steamship agency, selling tickets over the Cunard, American, White Star, Red Star, White Star Dominion, Holland-American and Leyland lines.

NEW DULUTH PHARMACY.

Up-to-Date in Every Way—Fine Soda Fountain.

The New Duluth pharmacy, Commonwealth avenue and Hurd street, draws trade from the Fond du Lac and Steel plant locations as well as from New Duluth. It is finely equipped, a regular city drug store in every respect. A feature is a handsome marble soda founting serving all of the latest cooling drinks. Another feature is the jewelry department under the direction of Paul A. Rubin.

A. J. Lindgren, manager, is also head of the splendid Spencer pharmacy at Fifty-fifth avenue west and Ramsey street, West Duluth. H. W. Connors, a registered pharmacist, is in charge of the New Duluth pharmacy.

RANKS WITH THE BEST.

The New Duluth Mercantile Company's Modern Store.

Johnson & Jermstad, well known for their meat and grocery stores at 510 North Fifty-eighth avenue, West Duluth, and 2609 Twenty-first street, Superior, are the proprietors of the New Duluth Mercantile company, which has a model meat, provision and grocery store at 207 Commonwealth avenue, New Duluth.

M. L. Carscadden, the manager, has built up a fine trade for the New Duluth store. Here a specialty is made of Beehive butter and the freshest of eggs. All meats are kept in a large icebox with a glass front, and thus kept fresh and protected from any possibility of infection.

Manager Carscadden aims to give the best of service at the lowest prices consistent with good quality. His policy is attracting new customers daily.

THE PIONEER MERCHANT.

U. C. Tower, Postmaster, Erected the First Store Building.

The oldest merchant in New Duluth is U. C. Tower, who has been in business there for twenty-two years. He erected the first store building on Commonwealth avenue, at what is now the business center. He occupied the building for four years and then erected the building he now occupies at 219 Commonwealth avenue, which contains the postoffice and Mr. Tower's grocery and hardware store.

Mr. Tower was New Duluth's first postmaster, beginning in July, 1890. He was out of office from 1895 to 1898, when he was reappointed and has served continuously ever since. His long continuance in office is the best proof of Mr. Tower's popularity.

Everything in groceries and hardware, at the right prices, is to be found at the Tower store, which has a large trade.

BRIGHT NEW QUARTERS.

Bergquist's Grocery and Meat Market in a New Building.

C. O. Bergquist, who has lived in Duluth for twenty-one years and who was in business on Ramsey street, West Duluth, for ten years, opened a first-class grocery and meat market in January last in the handsome new Becklinger brick block, pictured on this page, at Commonwealth avenue and Hurd street.

Here he has a model grocery and meat market. Meats are not exposed, being kept in a huge ice box with a glass front. Everything in his stock is fresh and good and prices as low as can be found anywhere, quality considered. A feature of the store is a 5 and 10-cent department, which New Duluth housewives find most useful as well as economical.

THE ELITE THEATER.

It Shows the Best of Moving Pictures Nightly.

In the way of amusement, New Duluth has a first-class moving-picture show in the Elite theater, in the fine Kulaszewicz brick building, at Commonwealth avenue and Fifth street.

The theater is handsomely appointed and well equipped. It is as safe from fire as it is possible to make it. A fire wall separates it from the storeroom adjoining. The operating room is so equipped that in case of a blaze the doors will close automatically, confining the fire to the operating room.

The latest and best licensed pictures are shown every night, beginning at 7:30, and the theater enjoys and merits a good patronage.

NEW GUN IS FOR AEROPLANES.

New York Sun: Perhaps the most remarkable gun in the world is just now receiving its tryout at the army aviation camp, at College Park, Md. It is even said that probably Uncle Sam will accept it as an official arm, and equip the fleet of aeroplanes with it.

The gun, which is the invention of Lieut. Col. I. N. Lewis of the army, is a rapid firearm, manufactured especially for aeroplanes. It is small enough and light enough—the weight is twenty-five pounds—to be carried on the lap of a passenger in a biplane. Moreover, it is said to be the only air cooled rapid fire gun ever invented.

It looks like a toy, but tests by officers unfamiliar with its mechanism, and not used to firing at targets from the air, have proved its value, in the opinion of observers on the ground.

The new gun is fired by a passenger on a biplane. It can pour out a perfect hail of steel jacketed bullets. There is practically no recoil and the mechanism is of the simplest.

Army and navy officers who have witnessed the tests unite in declaring it is the most powerful arm for the special purpose for which it is designed that has ever been projected. That it will have a place in modern warfare is a general opinion here.

FORTY WEST DULUTH WOMEN ARE TAKING THE HOMECROFT COURSE

About forty West Duluth women and girls are taking the course in cooking at the Irving school, which is being conducted during the summer under the auspices of the American Homecroft society. Mrs. R. P. Boyington and Miss Irene Walker are in charge of the classes.

At present the members of the class are canning vegetables and fruits, many samples of which are to be used for the exhibit of the Homecroft society at the state fair this fall. Most of the women bring their own fruits and vegetables to class and prepare their winter supplies while attending class.

This plan has proven popular and those at the head of the work have decided to give all the West Duluth women the same opportunity. For the next two weeks any woman interested in the work and anxious to prepare her canned fruits or vegetables under the direction of experts is invited to join the class free of charge. This was announced this morning and goes into effect next week. The exhibit to be shown at the state fair, will be on display here for several days before it is sent to Minneapolis.

Next week the classes will meet on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings and afternoons.

RECOMMEND STATION SITE

Northern Pacific Road Will Build East of Present Depot.

In all probability the new West Duluth passenger and freight station will be built fifty feet east of the present structure. The above was given out this morning by Supt. A. V. Brown of the Northern Pacific railroad, who stated that the railroad is willing to abide by the wishes of the people and that if everything is satisfactory and there is the necessary room for the station, the structure will be built at once.

At the regular meeting of the West Duluth Commercial club last evening the members unanimously indorsed the selection of a site fifty feet east of the present structure. The vote was taken after a general discussion on the subject, during which several sites were brought up and considered. The matter was reported to Mr. Brown this morning, who stated that if everything is satisfactory, the road will abide by the vote of the club.

Mr. Brown stated this morning that he will personally go over the proposed site and examine the land with regard to the dimensions ordered by the state railroad and warehouse commission, which are as follows: A men's waiting room not less than 30 by 30 feet; a ladies' waiting room not less than 16 by 20 feet; an office not less than 16 by 20 feet; a freight room not less than 30 by 50 feet; perishable freight and baggage rooms each not less than 12 by 14 feet, and separate toilet rooms for men and women.

With the construction of a station fifty feet east of the present structure, the congestion on Central avenue will be done away with and access to the freight station will be much easier. At present Central avenue is closed to traffic whenever a train comes into the station.

CLUB BACKS LIBRARIANS

Wants Two West Duluth Girls Reinstated at Branch.

The West Duluth Commercial club at its regular meeting last evening passed resolutions requesting the reinstatement of Miss Lyda J. Marble and Miss Maybelle F. Robb, both of whom were dismissed following the opening of the new library this week at Central avenue and Elinor street.

Miss Marble had been librarian at the former branch for a number of years, while Miss Robb, her assistant, also held her position for several years. The members of the club claim that the services of the two young women were always satisfactory and that being West Duluth girls they are entitled to a position in a West Duluth institution.

The resolution was drawn up by L. A. Barnes, Emil Zauft and M. J. Murray and will be forwarded to the members of the library board at once. Mr. Barnes, former member of the library board, said last evening at the meeting: "We, as residents of West Duluth, should have some say as to our own institutions. The people of West Duluth have always been satisfied with the service given by Miss Marble and have been pleased with the work of her assistant, Miss Robb. It is only proper that we protest against the removal of a West Duluth girl from a position in a West Duluth institution for the purpose of giving that employment to a young woman from uptown."

Miss Earhart, librarian at the Central library, stated this morning that Miss Robb would leave Sept. 1 and that Miss Marble would leave a few weeks later. She also stated that Miss Margaret Ryan, a graduate of the normal school this year, will have charge of the library after Miss Marble's departure.

WANT TWO STREETS PAVED IMMEDIATELY.

The paving of Third street and Fifth street was the principal business taken up at the regular monthly meeting of the Oneota and Hazelwood Improvement club held last evening at the Jerome Merritt school. There was a good attendance and the matter was discussed at length by the members of the club.

That Third street should be paved at once to allow for a good thoroughfare to West Duluth from the center of the city, is the unanimous opinion of the club. The members say that the street is in a deplorable condition in various places and that the entire road should be paved to West Duluth. The members are also anxious to pave Fifth street from Thirty-eighth to Forty-fourth avenues.

A committee was appointed to advertise the advantages of this section of the city to small industrials and lumber mills. The members of the club are anxious to bring a large number of business houses to this end of the city. The committee consists of the Messrs. Rosenwald, Clifford and Anderson.

GIVES LUNCHEON AT SUMMER HOME.

Mrs. S. George Stevens entertained at a luncheon at her summer home, "Balm o' Gilead," at East Fond du Lac, Friday. She was assisted by Miss Daisy Stevens of Hibbing, and Miss Gladys Shaw. The table decorations were nasturtiums and mignonette, the color scheme being yellow and red. Other flowers carrying out this color scheme were used about the cottage. The following ladies were present:

Mesdames M. M. Gasser, Robert Graham, C. S. Pierce, J. E. Catlin, E. W. Kaltenbach, L. I. Greeley, C. H. Merritt, A. M. Frazer, S. Dix, W. J. Works; Misses Eleanor Thompson, Jennie Thompson, Mary Emily Merritt, Myrtle Pierce, Dorothy Pierce, Wilhelmina Works, Katharine Graham, Ruth Graham.

Leaves for Texas.

B. J. Ross of 714 North Fifty-sixth avenue west left last evening for Trinity, Tex., where he will visit at the home of his son, Benjamin Ross, for several days. He will then go to Fullerton, La., where he has a position as manager of the Gulf Lumber company.

At Merritt Church.

Rev. C. W. Ramshaw of Proctor will preach tomorrow morning at the Merritt Memorial M. E. church, Forty-sixth avenue west and Halifax street. Rev. C. W. Emery, pastor of the church, will conduct the services tomorrow evening at the Harvey Webb Memorial M. E. church of Smithville. Sunday school will meet at the latter church at 10:30 in the morning and the Christian Endeavor society at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Arrested for Slander.

Mrs. Goldie Liberty of 420 North Fifty-eighth avenue west was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant sworn to by Miss Nora Vashaw, housekeeper for Andrew Myles, 423 North Fifty-eighth avenue west. Miss Vashaw alleges in her complaint that Mrs. Liberty called her a prostitute and has been slandering her to the neighbors. Mrs. Liberty pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Justice J. J. Moran and her trial was set for next Saturday morning. Mrs. Liberty was allowed to go on her own recognizance.

West Duluth Briefs.

G. F. Warren of Windom, Minn., has returned to his home after spending the past week at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. A. Stoughton, 518 North Fifty-eighth avenue west.

Rev. Israel Bergstrom of Superior will preach tomorrow evening at the Third Swedish Baptist church, Fifty-ninth avenue west and Ramsey street.

Miss Isabel Anderson of 328 South Fifty-ninth avenue west, left yesterday for Hibbing, where she will spend the next week with relatives.

S. E. Gilliuson of 405 Central avenue returned yesterday from a business trip to International Falls, Minn.

H. C. Wier of Mount Pleasant, Iowa, left for his home yesterday after visiting for the past week at the home of his brother, J. P. Wier, 409 North Fifty-third avenue west.

Rev. J. A. Krantz of the Elim Swedish Lutheran church, Fifty-sixth avenue west and Elinor street, is spending several days at Grand Lake, Minn.

Rev. C. V. S. Engstrom of the Swedish Mission church, Fifty-ninth avenue west and Green street, is spending the week with relatives on the range.

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

MATHEWSON VS. RICHIE

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Today's game between the New York Giants and the Chicago Cubs promises to be the hardest fought of the present crucial series between the two National league pennant leaders.

Manager Chance of the Chicago team predicted that with Johnny Evers, the suspended second baseman, back in the game, and with Richie now pitching at his best, there was little likelihood of a defeat.

From the other camp came the news that Christy Mathewson, the idol of the New York fans, was scheduled to take the mount against the pennant contenders.

The attendance at today's contest promises to surpass that of the two previous days. It was announced last night that every reserved seat in the big grandstand had been sold.

As early as 8 o'clock this morning the "fans" were arriving at the park and taking places in line at the various gates and ticket windows. Small boys were selling soapboxes as seats to the waiting crowd before the gates were thrown open. Other youngsters who had arrived among the first were holding places in line for which they were to ask a premium. Lunches under the arms of the patient waiters were common.

Showers were predicted by the weather bureau for this morning.

Ball Games Postponed.

No games are being played today in the See-Eye league.

Rain prevented the contests scheduled for both Duluth and Grand Forks this afternoon.

AMERICA'S MOST EXCLUSIVE SOCIETY AND SOME OF THOSE WHO ARE COVERED BY ITS SACRED MANTLE

MRS. W. G. LOEW.

MRS. OLIVER HARRIMAN.

—Copyrighted by George Grantham Bain.

MRS. JOHN N. BROWN.

MRS. LOTA ROBINSON.

MRS. A. LADENBURG.

Rev. C. W. de Lyon Nicholls, Palatine of America of the society of Scions of Colonial Cavaliers, author of the 469 Ultra-Fashionables of America and the Ultra-Fashionable Peerage of America, says that I. Townsend Burden, Jr.'s strictures upon Newport society are manifestly unfair and that quite the contrary to Newport's being overrun with newly rich people who do not make desirable neighbors for gentlemen, as Mr. Burden alleges, Newport is enjoying its banner season above any in a dozen years.

Newport and other fashionable resorts are at times haunted by groups of crude newly rich families who from a social point of view, are justly accounted nonentities, but their stay is not long in a large percentage of instances, or their probation is so lengthly, that they acquire presentable manners. Aside from the addition this year of people of distinction from Washington and elsewhere to Newport's summer colony, the main element of its success is the opening of great villas of long established cottages which have been closed for several seasons, owing to absence abroad of their owners, and the leasing of long lists of cottages by fashionable New Yorkers, many of whom are of patrician lineage, and who also had been elsewhere of late years.

As for social entertainments, they are so numerous that dates are overlapping each other in awkward confusion. The season might justly be termed Newport's renaissance. The smart set at Newport whom Mr. Nicholls has christened the Golden Caste of Vere de Vere, the real pinnacle of society there is made up of about 200 ultra-fashionable folk from New York besides representations of national society from Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore, San Francisco, and Providence, Chicago being without delegates this season. Wealth, Mr. Nicholls admits, is a chief ingredient entering into the composition of this social trust, but good manners are also requisite. The Townsend Burden family was made what it is largely through wealth aided by the good offices of Ward McAllister. Any of the old patrician families of Troy can recount the humble beginnings of the Burden iron smelters in their community. An amusing "on dit" is that Pittsburg which has been so pointedly challenged by Mr. Nicholls for several years, has forced him by the logic of events to give representation in the national ultra-fashionable set. The recently announced engagement of Irwin B. Laughlin of Pittsburg to Miss Therese Iselin, daughter of Adrian Iselin of New York, and niece of C. Oliver Iselin, and Mrs. De Lancey Astor Kane, places Mr. Laughlin in the innermost circle of the American Marlborough house set. The social campaign of the Andrew M. Morelands of Pittsburg is being watched with interest.

Washington.

Washington has not had as influential a coterie at the City by the Sea in a decade the Russian ambassador and Madam Bakhmeteff are being dined and wined by the exclusive element and have thus far eluded getting into the folds of "the other set" as those out of the true inner circle are dubbed at Newport. The whole Beale and John R. McLean family connection bids fair to be brought into ultra prominence by Mme. Bakmetsmart juxtaposition by Mme. Bakmetsmart juxtaposition by Mme. Bakmetoff, who was a Miss Beale. Washington's Ward McAllister, Preston Gibson has been received with acclaim and has taken the Atherton Blightwills "Shady Nook," for this season. Other Washington ultra-fashionables here are Senator George Peabody Wetmore and family, the Misses Janet and Helena Fish, Secretary of the Navy George Von L. Meyer and family, and Rear Admiral Cameron McR. Winslow and Mrs. Winslow, Truxton Beale, and Stephen B. Elkins.

Philadelphia.

So far as the Quaker City goes, Mr. Nicholls says it is a Craig Biddle season. The Clarence W. Dolans are also quite to the fore. The various members of the Widener family present are, of course, in deep mourning. Miss Beale of Philadelphia is one of the latest additions to the smart set, having been informally presented by her cousin, Mme. Bakhmeteff. The selection of Newport as its summer headquarters by the Russian embassy has been one of the features of the season.

Boston.

The specially important delegation from the National Society of the Hub at Newport are Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Winthrop, nee Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Lothrop Ames, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hollingsworth, Miss Eleanora Sears, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Prince and Frederick H. Prince, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Lawrence and Miss Prescott Lawrence. Miss Mary Shreve Ames of North Easton, Mass., was welcomed to the ranks of the ultra fashionables and her name inserted on its roster by means of one of the large division dances of the season given in her honor by Mrs. French Vanderbilt.

Providence.

This city is quite sparsely represented at society's summer capital this season, but its social leader, Mrs. John Nicholas Brown, nee Dresser, entitled to such position both by birth and wealth, being a scion of the Stuyvesants and Le Roys and sister of Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt, is taking more lively interest in society's routine, in behalf of her niece, Miss Susan Le Roy Dresser of New York. The Dressers, who are patricians to their finger tips, are as a family averse to ostentation. The William Gammels, who are almost the only other members of the ultra smart Providence set at Newport, do occasional entertaining, but for the most part seem to prefer to sit apart on an Olympus of their own and be ministered to by society.

San Francisco.

Mrs. Braguiere and Louis Braguiere, finally settled in their sumptuous villa, bid fair to keep up the traditions of the Golden Gate for the delectations of Newport's Golden Castle of Vere de Vere.

Baltimore.

The Henry Barton Jacobs of the Oriole City seem to be late in returning from Europe. The Alexander Browns, at the time of their visit to the Suffern Tallers, when they were in close communication with the whole newspaper world, gave it out that they were leaving immediately for Darkest Maine, but they are over at Narraganset Pier, all the same, rubbing elbows with some of the smart Newport element drifting their way. Mrs. Henry T. Walters is, as usual, Baltimore's beau of society in Newport, and Miss Lota Robinson, who is dividing her time between Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish's and Mrs. Herman Oelrich's villas, is the most courted by society of any of the Oriole City's fair contingent at the City by the Sea. The mother of Townsend Burden, Jr., who within a few days has been stirring up such a hornet's nest over the invasion of Newport by a few newly rich folk, was Miss Evelyn Byrd Moale of Baltimore, the alliance in its day being esteemed a highly fortunate one for the Burdens, who were themselves newly rich people of humble beginnings. Townsend Burden, Jr., married a daughter of Dennis Sheedy, a Western mining man.

Mrs. Ogden Mills, America's social queen, is abroad this Newport season, the vice regency being shared by Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mrs. Vanderbilt, Mrs. John R. Drexel and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt.

JUDGE GLAD AT VERDICT

Congratulates Darrow and Says Many Will Rejoice.

Prosecutor Declines to Comment on Outcome of Trial.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 17.—Trial Judge Hutton was one of the first officials to congratulate Clarence S. Darrow today when the lawyer was declared not guilty of jury bribing.

"Hundreds of thousands of hallelujahs will go up from as many throats when they hear of this," said the judge, as he grasped the hands of the vindicated lawyer.

Darrow dictated the following statement to the Associated Press:

"It has been a long, hard ordeal, and of course I have a great sense of relief at its close. None of those who knew me ever believed I was corrupt, and their encouragement and faith has been my greatest help in this trial. The indictment and prosecution could not have happened except under the tense excitement and strain of the dramatic close of the McNamara case. "I shall spend the rest of my life as I have those years which have passed, in doing the best I can to serve the cause of the poor."

Fredericks Not in Court.

District Attorney Fredericks was not in court when the verdict was announced. When informed of it he said:

"I have nothing to say. I think the jury has taken into count what has been said by the defendant's counsel more than they have the evidence. However, we do not quarrel with the dicts. It is our business to present evidence, the juries to consider it.

"I imagine we will try the Bain case. I do not know of any reasons why we should not. It is a far stronger case than this was."

Vacuum cleaned every day, the Soo Line all-steel trains to Twin Cities offer the most inviting trip you can imagine, whatever the weather may be. Two trains each way daily, afternoon and night. Ticket office, Superior street and Sixth avenue west and 430 Spalding hotel.

SIZE OF CROP EXAGGERATED

A. D. Thomson Says It Will Also Be Late—Praises Glacier Park.

"People who talk about the enormous wheat and flax crops of the Northwest are painting pictures and exaggerating the real condition, as far as the northern part of North Dakota is concerned," remarked A. D. Thomson of the Duluth Board of Trade, today, "for I have just passed through that country. I make no hesitation in saying that wheat is very late and the crop is not so large as is generally represented. The same thing is true in regard to the flax crop."

Mr. Thomson, accompanied by his son, Adam Thomson, and John Killorin, has just spent ten days on a western trip, during which the party visited Glacier Park, Montana. Mr. Thomson is very enthusiastic over the scenery of Glacier Park, which he declares to be the finest in the world. "Glacier Park," he said, "will prove to be the great playground and camping ground for the people of America."

RED RIVER MOTOR BOAT OWNERS FIGHT.

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Owners of motor boats on the Red river here will fight a case with customs officials in court. Boats were tied up because they were not equipped as provided on navigable waters. The owners contend that the stream is not navigable and that the dam across it at this point and the bill by congress permitting the construction of a solid bridge is positive evidence.

WORM BLIGHTING RANGE POTATOES

Farmer Near Chisholm Claims Pest Is Killing the Plants.

Chisholm, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Shank, one of the extensive potato raisers north of town states that a worm has raised havoc with potatoes and cabbages this year and ventures the opinion that the crop will not come up to more than one-half of last year's crop. The worm is about an inch long and begins operations at the roots and in time kills the plant. Upon close scrutiny he states the plants that are effected turn yellow at the stem near the ground. He has pulled several of these stems effected silghtly and finds that they yield no potatoes. The cold wet spring he also states is greatly to blame as crops are considerably backward and believes if the crop had made the proper advance earlier in the spring the worm would not have gotten in its deadly work until too late to do any damage.

LA RUE MINER IS BADLY HURT

James Dorgan Has Right Arm and Shoulder Broken —May Die.

Nashwauk, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—James Dorgan is near to death in Shellman hospital as the result of injuries sustained early in the week when he was hurt while working on the shovel at the La Rue mine. With others he was standing on the beam of the steam shovel putting in place the dipper sticks when the iron chain that operates the dipper was suddenly tightened, striking Dorgan on the shoulder and head, knocking him off. He fell about ten feet, striking the circle on the shovel with his back and head and rolled off the circle to the ground, a distance of seven feet, landing on ties and other timber. He was taken to the hospital where he is hovering between life and death. His right arm and shoulder blade are broken and he has numerous other bruises about the body. His relatives are here and everything possible is being done to save him.

FRANCHISE NOT TO BE ANNULLED

Chisholm and Range Power Company Expected to Patch Up Differences.

Chisholm, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The differences between the Range Power company and the village council appears to be in a fair way to adjustment and the threatening attempt to have the franchise annulled will be dropped.

Recently the Winston-Lieere contractors at the stripping operations of the Great Northern railway applied to the local lighting company to furnish them with sufficient light to permit them to operate day and night crews at the strippings. As the lighting company is in the hands of the receivers and unwilling to make any extensions of the plant and as several applications from residents of the city had been refused, the council set about to have the franchise annulled.

By permission of the courts the receiver has been able to have the money set aside for the necessary extensions and shipping of the material has been made and will be installed as soon as the material arrives on the ground. Shortly before going into the receiver's hands a year ago the company came near losing their franchise and an effort was made at that time to have the city acquire the plant, but the figures asked were beyond those the council saw fit to expend.

City May Acquire Plant.

As the courts have ordered the sale of the plant, and while no date has been set, the council at a recent meeting decided to call a special election for the purpose of having the people deciding upon acquiring the plant and have it operated by the municipality. Under the terms of the new franchise granted last year the city can step in at any time within three years and purchase the plant at an appraisal fixed at that time. The company is also holders of valuable water power right in the Sturgeon and Little Swan rivers and the electric railway officers are desirous of gaining possession of these without buying the local plant and are anxious that the courts set a date so that they can act together with the council and take over those rights and the city the local lighting plant.

SOUDAN BRIEFS.

Soudan, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Misses Ethel and Leoline Gardner attended the wedding of their cousin, John Pryor of Eveleth.

Mrs. M. Coffee of Ely motored to Soudan to visit her sister, Mrs. E. J. Morcom.

Supt. and Mrs. Frank B. McComb and sons have arrived to make their home here. Supt. McComb has charge of the Tower, Soudan and Little Fork schools. L. Borst will succeed Mr. McComb as principal in the Soudan school.

Mrs. H. F. Praleigh, her daughter and son were Ely visitors Monday.

Miss Agnes Fosmark, a former kindergarten teacher here, has resigned to accept a position in Grand Forks, N. D.

While playing, Edith Hendrickson jumped upon a needle which imbedded itself in her right foot, causing her much pain, which was alleviated by Dr. R. L. Burns who extracted the needle.

John Kurrie and Hilma Puncher were quietly married in Ely Tuesday. Miss Naima Kultala acted as bridesmaid. The couple will make their home in Soudan.

Hart Hewett and family have moved from Jasper street to their new residence on Main street.

The Soudan Methodist Sewing club and the Boy Scout club are making arrangements for an ice cream social, which will be held in the near future.

DELAY IN BOATS HITS ORE SHIPPING

Decrease in Movement of Ore From Mesaba Range This Week.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—There has been a decrease in the ore movement from the Mesaba range this week owing to the boat situation at the lower lake terminals. Shippers are complaining of poor despatch at the docks at Duluth and as a result there is also a congested condition with regard to ore cars for delivery at the mines. The condition will be short lived, however. There will be an increased ore movement from this district from this time on provided the vessel situation is such that the lake movement can be taken care of.

The Scranton mine, which is shipping from the stockpile, yesterday transferred its business from the Great Northern to the Missabe, owing to the fact that they were unable to get the prompt delivery of empty cars.

More Exploration.

That there will be increased activity in exploration work on the Mesaba is indicated this week by the fact that a number of drills have been shipped to various points on the range by the local exploration companies. The Carlson company is redrilling some ground in the Buhl district for the Arthur Iron Mining company and is also doing some development work on its own properties on the Cuyuna. The Longyear company also shipped out several drills this week. There is much interest here in the development of the new Mesaba district, where the Graham and Vivian properties are to be opened up. Mining men say this will be, comparatively speaking, a small proposition.

There is no present prospect that the Sellers mine will soon be reopened. With the litigation in which the property is involved and with other suits threatened it is not probable it will resume during the present stripping season.

EXPLORING FOR ORE.

Keating Property in Crosby City Limits Is Being Drilled.

Crosby, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Exploring for iron has begun on the Keating property within the city limits of Crosby, by the Crosby Exploration company. The Keating property lies south of the Thompson mine, and is within the city limits, but is unplatted and lies west of the main part of the city. There are no buildings on the property as yet, so that no residences will have to be moved if ore is found.

PETERSON HAD DOCTOR.

Zim Man Did Not Die Without Medical Treatment.

Zim, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Ole Peterson of this place who died this week did not die without medical aid, as state in an Eveleth dispatch to The Herald and his relatives ask that that statement be corrected. Mr. Peterson had been under a doctor's care for a year, his family states and was in Eveleth to consult a physician only a few days before he died.

BETTER PHONE SERVICE.

Mesaba Telephone Company to Heed Chisholm Requests.

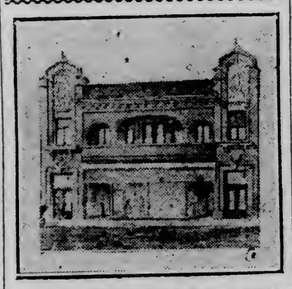

Chisholm, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.) — The Commercial club has been advised by the Mesaba Telephone company that the material for the changes as requested by the club will arrive shortly. The switchboard for the "dropper" system is already here and the telephone instruments and other equipment will arrive in time to have the change completed by the middle of November. New and larger quarters have also been secured so that the company can more properly care for the increased business at this point. The entire floor over Bosich & Schrup's grocery on Lake street has been leased by the company for their new quarters.

L. H. Minor has completed an elegant log cottage on Long lake, eight miles north of town. The cottage is located on a point extending into the middle of the lake and a bridge more than a hundred feet long was constructed from the mainland so as to give more easy excess to the grounds. Several families will leave with the the Minor family for the cottage this week to spend the remainder of the month.

A deal was closed Thursday whereby R. W. Hitchcock of the Hibbing Daily Tribune becomes the owner of the Tribune-Herald of this place. Frank Harris, who is associated with the Hibbing Tribune, and formerly the editor of the Tribune-Herald, will have charge of the local paper here. The new owners will take possession Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Austin left yesterday for a trip down the lakes to Buffalo and will visit several of the Eastern points before returning. They were accompanied from Virginia by Mr. and Mrs. John Costin.

VIRGINIA HEARS BAND.

Odd Fellows Musicians Play and Superintendent Palmer Talks.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—About 500 people went to the roller rink last night to attend the entertainment by the juvenile band from the Odd Fellows' home at Northfield. There were addresses by W. R. Palmer, superintendent of the home; Mrs. Clara Carlson of St. Cloud, president of the Rebekah assembly; Dr. Isaac Van Domlin and Edw. C. A. Johnson of the local membership, both of these being members of the grand lodge.

Supt. Palmer and the band went to Biwabik to spend Sunday, he having formerly lived there and held a pastorate at that city for a long time. The first half of the coming week will be spent on the Vermilion range.

THEIR HORSES KILLED.

Hibbing Men En Route to North Dakota Suffer Loss.

Cass Lake, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Two horses were killed on the Great Northern tracks, a short distance east of town, Monday night. They belonged to a party from Hibbing who were on their way to the North Dakota fields and camped here for the night. They claim their horses were tied to the wagon, but in some way got loose and wandered onto the track.

Miss Jessie McGhie of Duluth is visiting Miss Annabelle Clark.

Mrs. H. A. Heyn of Marquette, Mich., with her little daughter, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. B. Holley.

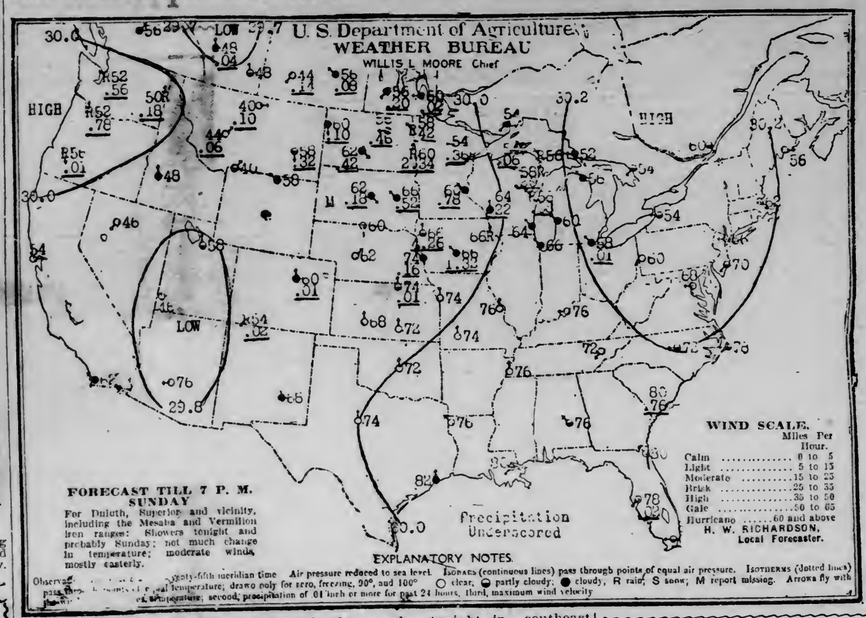

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

RAIN

Another northeaster with rain and cold weather descended on Duluth last night and today is one of those gray, drizzling chill days that makes real Duluth weather all the more enjoyable by contrast. More showers are predicted for tonight and tomorrow.

A year ago today was a beautiful summer day.

The sun rose this morning at 5:08 and it will set at 7:16 this evening, giving fourteen hours and eight minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"The disturbances centered over Alberta and Southwestern states have remained about stationary during the last twenty-four hours. In the meantime these depressions resulted in light to heavy showers throughout the Northwest and West. Very heavy rainfalls occurred in Western Minnesota and Western Iowa. Temperatures of 90 deg. or higher were recorded Friday in Kansas, Oklahoma, Arizona and Gulf states. In St. Louis and Douglas counties further showers may be expected until Sunday night."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Forecasts for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Sunday:

Upper Michigan—Showers tonight and Sunday; slightly warmer tonight.

Wisconsin—Showers tonight and Sunday.

Minnesota and Iowa—Showers tonight or Sunday.

North Dakota and South Dakota—Showers tonight or Sunday; cooler tonight.

Montana—Local showers tonight or Sunday; cooler tonight in southeast portion.

Upper Lakes—Moderate to brisk southerly winds. Overcast weather and showers tonight and Sunday.

HIBBING FUNERAL.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The last rites were said at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament at 9 a. m. today for Earl La Nore, aged 29, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil La Nore, who died at home Thursday after an illness of several months. He lived here many years, being long in the employ of John A. Healy, and was very popular.

Invited to Virginia Wedding.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Hibbing friends of Miss Rose Aronovitz and Rubin Latz have received invitation to their wedding at Lyric hall, Virginia, Sunday evening, Sept. 1, at 8:30. Both are well known here and Mr. Latz was for some time engaged in business here. They will make their home at Virgina at 222 Hickory street.

Farmers Thrive Around Nashwauk.

Nashwauk, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Farmers are coming into Nashwauk daily with loads of produce and seem to have no trouble disposing at a high figure. Hundreds of tons of timothy and red top clover have been stacked near Nashwauk, the crop being harvested from the numerous natural meadows.

Buys Stillwater Business.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Harry Shanedling, who has grown from boyhood in Virginia and been associated with Shanedling Bros., and been in business alone, has acquired the business of the Hirsch Clothing company of Stillwater and will leave in a few days with his family to take over the business and to reside there.

Buhl Railroad Man Leaves.

Buhl, Minn., Aug. 17.—Martin C. Nygard, for two years local agent for the Great Northern, has been transferred to Grand Rapids, taking a more important position with the company, as a result of several changes made there.

FAREWELL BANQUET TO PHYSICAL DIRECTOR.

A farewell banquet will be tendered A. F. Olson, assistant physical director of the Y. M. C. A., who has resigned and will leave Sept. 1 for Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to accept a position as physical director at the Y. M. C. A. of that city, by the noon business men's volley ball class at the local association building on Monday evening next at 6:30 o'clock.

The arrangements for the affair have been made by a committee of which H. W. Coffin is chairman. A good program of speeches has been provied. W. A. McGonagle will act as toastmaster. Covers will be laid for fifty. The following are the members of the class: William A. McGonagle, W. J. Olcott, Pentecost Mitchell, John U. Sebenius, R. E. Mace, Herbert Westaway, E. E. Hunner, W. N. ANOTHER FARGO PAPER IN FINANCIAL DIFFICULTY.

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Following the sale of the Fargo Courier News last week under foreclosure, announcement is made that the Fargo Forum is now under receiver. For some months it had been in the hands of trustees but the insistence of one creditor has made receivership necessary. A new company may be organized soon to take it over.

WILSON MAY MEET THE PARTY SCRIBES.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 17.—Democratic editors throughout the country soon may be invited to gather at Sea Girt for a conference with Governor Woodrow Wilson.

Josephus E. Daniels, national committeeman from North Carolina and chairman of the committee on publicity, had a long talk with the governor last night, in which he broached the plan for a meeting of editors of Democratic and independent papers, the time to coincide with the annual meeting of the American Newspaper Publishers' association in New York next month.

With Mr. Daniels came William G. McAdoo, vice chairman of the campaign committee. They told the governor that Chairman McCoombs, who is ill, would be able to be at work again in about two weeks.

The governor announced that he had accepted an invitation to speak on Aug. 19 before the Plattdeutcher Volkefest Verein at Hoboken, N. J., and also would make an address at the New York state fair at Syracuse on Sept. 12.

Postoffice Clerks Meet.

At a meeting of the postoffice clerks the following officers were elected to serve one year: Bert A. Erickson, president; Antheny Gruesen, vice president; Stewart Browning, corresponding secretary; Carl Onse, financial secretary; Arthur Gylenborg, collector.

During the past summer a state convention of clerks was held here and such a good time was given the delegates that they want to come again. No delegate will be sent to Boston to the national convention, but next year it is planned to send delegates.

The association is in a prosperous condition both financially and as to the number of members.

Fish Dynamiters Fined.

Crystal Falls, Mich., Aug. 17.—John Hallman and Yalmer Streem were fined $50 and $25 respectively and costs by Judge Davidson this week for dynamiting fish in the Michigamme river.

FINN NOTABLES VISITING ELY

Two Prominent Ministers From Old Country Will Deliver Addresses.

Ely, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Ely is to be the host to two distinguished Finnish men for Sunday, Rev. Joseph Mustakallio and Rev. Mr. Savola from Finland. Rev. Mustakallio is president of the Mission church at Helsingsfors, Finland, and will speak at the Swedish Lutheran church tomorrow at 2 on the general subject of missions, speaking in both the Finnish and Swedish languages. The Rev. Mr. Savola has been for twelve years a missionary in Africa and will speak in the Finnish language on missions. Both will speak Sunday evening at a meeting to be held in the Knights of Kaleva hall at 8. After the program refreshments will be served. They are making a tour of this country and visiting the centers of the Finnish populations. Both will speak at Soudan Saturday night.

FRANK EDDY SCOUTING AROUND MESABA RANGE.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Frank M. Eddy of Sauk Center, candidate for the Republican nomination for congressman-at-large, spent yesterday here meeting former friends. Mr. Eddy has not visited the range before since 1882, when he was in the employ of the Northern Pacific railroad and before the Missabe was built and was much impressed with what he saw in this section. Mr. Eddy went fromHibbing to Chisholm and will visit all the principal towns and villages of the range before returning to Duluth.

HIBBING MILITIAMEN BENEFITED BY OUTING.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The officers and members of Company M returned last night from Camp McCoy, Wis., where for the past ten days they have been participating with the Third Regiment in the maneuvers with several of the regiments of the regular army.

The officers and a majority of the company say the camp resulted in more good practical experience than any that has ever been participated in by the Minnesota national guard.

VIRGINIA BOOSTERS TO HAVE CLAM BAKE.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Virginia Boosters' club, a new organization, will have the biggest clam bake ever held on the range at Half Moon lake Sunday afternoon. Autos will run between the lake and the city, also from Eveleth and Gilbert for the accommodation of those who will attend.

Two Harbors Maccabees' Picnic.

Two Harbors, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Ladies of the Maccabees of the World will hold their picnic at Lakeside park next Tuesday, Aug. 20.

Keewatin Picnic Success.

Keewatin, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The first annual picnic given Wednesday at Welcome lake under the auspices of the Commercial club was a success. All the stores in the village were closed in honor of the holiday and the town was practically deserted for the entire day. Races and various games were pulled off for which prizes were awarded by the committee in charge.

IS DIVIDED INTO TWO ASSOCIATIONS

Northern and Southern Divisions of Association Are Created.

Two Harbors, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Hereafter there will be a southern and a northern division of the district Sunday school association that formerly included all of St. Louis and Lake counties. This was decided upon at the St. Louis-Lake County Sunday School association, which concluded a very successful session here yesterday afternoon.

Duluth, Two Harbors and other towns near the lake will comprise the southern division, while Northern St. Louis and Lake counties, including both iron ranges will be in the northern divisions.

The meeting was a most successful one, many matters of importance to Sunday school work being considered. Nearly all of the 117 Sunday schools affiliated with the association were represented. The people of Two Harbors were liberally praised for the hospitable entertainment extended the city's guests.

Thomas Owens President.

The officers elected follow: President, Thomas Owens, Two Harbors, reelected; vice president, W. B. Patton, Duluth; secretary, Brewer Mattocks, Duluth; treasurer, Richard Close, Duluth; superintendent of elementary grades, Mrs. A. E. Schulze, Duluth; superintendent of secondary division, Mrs. F. G. Hanson, Duluth; superintendent of adult department, W. L. Smithles, Duluth; superintendent of teacher training department, Mrs. C. M. Wilson, Duluth; home department superintendent, T. F. Upham, Duluth; missionary superintendent, Mrs. Milton Fish; temperance superintendent, Bert N. Wheeler.

DULUTH BREWER IS SUMMONED

A. W. ANDERSON.

A. W. Anderson, a resident of Duluth for the past twenty years, died after a short illness Thursday afternoon at the home of his brother, F. O. Anderson, St. Paul.

Mr. Anderson was visiting relatives in St. Paul. Sunday afternoon he took an automobile ride to Lake Minnetonka. Monday he was taken ill and became unconscious and remained so until the time of his death. Hemorrhage of the stomach is given as the cause of his death.

Mr. Anderson was born fifty-three years ago in Sweden. He is survived by his wife and an adopted son Arthur, one brother, living in the state of Washington, two brothers in St. Paul and his mother, two brothers and two sisters in Sweden. At the time of his death he was in business at 210-212 Lake avenue south. He was treasurer of the People's Brewing company and was a member of the Eagles. He acted as trustee for a number of years, and was also a member of the Druids and Owls. The funeral will be held from the residence, 119 East Fourth street, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Swan of the First Swedish church will officiate, and interment will be in the London road cemetery.

LOCALS BAT OUT VICTORY

Sox Smear Defeat Over Peggers and Win By 9 to 8 Score.

Sours and Meniece Lead Onslaught and Hit Long Home Runs.

(BY BRUCE.)

High waves were rolling on the baseball sea yesterday, kid. It was one of those afternoons when fans stand up and yell red-coated adjectives at the umpire and shower pink encomiums on the players of the home team. Enthusiasm made a speech and waved a violent red banner. Miss Hope was there in a Panama hat with gay baby blue ribbons, and everything but the weather and the size of the crowd was lovely. People went home to dinner or supper, just as the case may be, hungry and asked for the beans or caviar, just as the case may be, with husky voices. Permit us to say that we won by the score of 9 to 8.

During the course of the afternoon Glass got his, and the poignant and bitter mustard of got was smeared on with a spoon shaped like a baseball bat. The Glass, the hungry hit kid, was sent to right field in the sixth round to think of the adversities that every now and then kick one on the shins.

Mr. Hoffman started for us and did only fairly well during the long afternoon. There were eight hits gathered from his delivery and six runs marked up on the blackboard while he held possession of the hill. Eddie Stark finished out the game and got off with his life and nothing more. In the ninth the pernicious Peggers had us all holding our breaths and casting sheep's eyes at Miss Hope. We won out by an eye lash and one score, the last victim going out with two hostile runners on the paths.

Heading Act.

Messrs. Sours and Meniece staged the headline act of the afternoon. These two gents gave a double batting dialogue in the fifth round. First Mr. Sours took the stage and hit one far over the barrier in right field that is constitutional to restrain impulsive youth and those without two bits. The hit was a pippin. Up to the time of going to press the pellet had not been recovered. Then came Mister Meniece, hit her in the same place, old boy," cried a fan with resin in his voice. Sam did. He is awfully good about that sort of thing. This was also a pippin.

Mr. Glass was nonplussed and those other things that are served with it. He had a purple peeve and a deep blue funk. It was shortly after this that he went to right field and watched Brother Peasley work.

We gathered three right under the gun. Messrs. Bennett and Bluhm hit ones right through short and were both on their toes and ready for an emergency when Lucella Sours hit a slashing two-baser into center field, both boys crossed safely. Lucey went to third on the heave to the plate and counted when Samuel Meniece hit a sacrifice fly to right field. After Leber had been disposed of McGraw singled, swiped second and then let ambition slap him in the eye, for he tried to steal third and was neatly nabbed.

Nothing happened for either conbatant until the fourth. Freer singled to right and got to second after being caught between bases, on Bluhm's wild heave. With Kirkham and Baker gone, Krueger singled, sending Freer to third, from whence he scored on a passed ball. Then we came to bat and counted on Meniece's single and theft and a slashing single by O'Brien to center field.

The enemy rushed our lines in the fifth inning. Besides putting a damper on our feelings they scored three runs. Seaton whiffed and Hasty walked after he had had two strikes on. Glass was perfectly safe on Bennett's perfectly good error, and then Count Demaggio doubled past McGraw, and Hasty and Glass were over. Freer flew to Bennett and the next hit to Cy was fumbled and the count counted.

"Twas in our willow half of the fifth that things happened. Oh, you should have been there. The crack of the bat was music to the domestic ear. Hoffman was safe on Baker's fuzzle of his semi-weekly popup. While Bennett was being retired at first Hoff moved to second. Bluhm walked. Then came Lucella Sours. We have told what he did. Then came Meniece and you also know. One glorious round of hits, runs and pleasure.

The opposition dragged down one in the eighth through a trio of singles. We also gathered one through Meniece's triple to deep center and McGraw's single.

In the ninth they gave us one of those cold, clammy, shakedown frights—the kind that doctors advise against at so much per advice. Demaggio doubled and advanced on Freer's single. Clothier walked. Kirkham singled and two runs were over. Peasley flew to left, Krueger flew to center and Seaton ended things by whiffing.

During the course of the matinee Bennett essayed to play short, the hoodoo posish, later going back to left field, sighing Cy. Lucella Sours again came back to short, saying things under his breath. Baker was hurt and left the game, Seaton coming in from right to don the mitt at No. 3 place.

During the afternoon there was some furious work with the bludgeon. Sours got a homer, double and single. Large Mr. Meniece got through the afternoon with a single, homer and cracking triple. Little Demaggio picked off two doubles, while Freer, Baker, McGraw and O'Brien got two hits each. It was a nice day for averages.

GIANTS EVEN UP WITH CUBS

With Tesreau Pitching They Have Easy Time Taking Second Game.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—With Tesreau pitching superb ball, New York defeated Chicago, 7 to 4, and evened up the series. The big righthand pitcher held the locals to three hits until the ninth inning, while the visitors drove two pitchers off the rubber early in the game.

New York fell on Jimmy Lavender, who started the game for Chicago and forced him to retire before he had pitched two innings. Then Reulbach was sent in, but gave way to Cheney in the seventh after New York had made four runs off him. New York got a run off Cheney in the eighth, and he was relieved by Toney in the ninth.

Tesreau was given brilliant support. Murray made two sensational catches, running back into the crowd and pulling down drives that otherwise would have gone for two-base hits. The New Yorkers ran wild on the bases—stealing six off Archer and one off Cotter. The visitors started off their winners in the first inning. Snodgrass hit the first ball pitched into left and Doyle walked. Becker grounded to Saier, Snodgrass scoring on the throw to the plate. Merkle singled and worked the double steal, Doyle scoring.

With one down in the third, Murray was hit by a pitched ball and stole second. Merkle struck out and Herzog singled to left, sending Murray to third. Herzog and Murray worked a double steal, Murray racing home. Meyers' single to left scored Herzog. New York scored two more in the fifth when Becker walked, stole second and came home on Herzog's single. Another was added in the eighth when Fletcher walked, went to second on Tesreau's sacrifice and came home on Doyle's double.

Chicago made its first run in the second. Saier walked, went to third on Archer's single, and home when Reulbach laid down a perfect bunt. Errors by Becker and Meyers allowed Sheckard and Zimmerman to score in the fifth. The locals started a rally in the ninth when Sheckard doubled to right and Schulte followed with a drive to the same spot. Murray made a spectacular catch, spearing the ball with one hand while running into the crowd. Sheckard went to third on the play and scored on Zimmerman's single.

Johnny Evers, whom President Lynch of the National league suspended for five days for umpire baiting at the recent Boston series, will return to the game today.

BROOKLYN OUTHIT REDS BUT LOSES GAME.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 17. — Cincinnati defeated Brooklyn, 4 to 3. Although outhit, the locals connected safely at opportune times, two hits in the first three innings being productive of three runs off Rucker. He was then relieved by Yingling, who pitched good ball. While Fromme was in many holes, he was at his best in pinches. Score:

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 17.—Toledo bunched hits in the fifth inning and defeated St. Paul in the first game of the series here today. Rain stopped the game in the seventh inning. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
St. Paul	0 0 0 0 0 1 0 —1	6	2
Toledo	0 0 1 0 3 0 0 —4	5	0

SLAPNICKA ROBBED OF A SHUTOUT BY ERRORS.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 17.—Slapnicka pitched fine ball and with errorless support would have scored a shutout. The score was 3 to 1. A wild throw by Link was responsible for two of the Milwaukee runs. The fielding of Ingerton and Lewis featured. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Indianapolis	1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1	5	1

Batteries—Slapnicka and Hughes; Link and McKee. Umpires—Irwin and Connolly.

KAWS DEFEAT COLONELS IN EXTRA FRAME CONTEST.

Kansas City, Aug. 17.—Coulson's fourth hit of the game, Burch's error and Shaw's single scored the winning run for Kansas City from Louisville in the tenth inning of a pitcher's battle between Powell and Northrup. Fiene's homerun in the left field bleachers in the seventh caused the tie. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Louisville	1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0—3	6	1
Kansas City	0 0 0 1 0 1 1 0 0 1—4	11	2

WINNIPEG MAKES LAST STAND HERE SUNDAY

Winnipeg is due to make the farewell appearance of the season here tomorrow. There will be a double-header with the scrappy players from the Peg and one of the best baseball dishes of the season will be put out for the fans.

The season is drawing to a close. There are but a few more games left for the home grounds. Those who have not seen a game the present season might stroll around tomorrow afternoon and see the team in action. If you see a game like that of yesterday you will get more than your money's worth.

Right at the present time the teams of the See-Eye are on the home stretch. Sommers of Superior says his team is going to win the pennant—but then he has been saying funny things all the season. But the Peggers have a chance for the flag and they are fighting hard to stem the tide of Duluth victories.

A shakeup is due in the Winnipeg team when it returns to the Peg, according to the advices from the Western Canadian metropolis. The directors and James Brown, Esq., had somewhat of a run in before the team left for the present trip. The men behind the financial barriers were in favor of reducing the large squad that Brown has been carrying all season. Brown begged for him. He asked to let him have all the players for the Duluth series, as he wants to put the Sox out of the running. When he gets home he will be asked why, bluntly and sans smile.

Winnipeg has by far the largest squad in the league. When you consider the fact that the White Sox are leading this aggregation, you have to hand it to the managerial worth of O'Brien. If Brown had the baseball ability of Darby his team would have raised havoc during the present season.

It is stated that several amateur players of Winnipeg will be tried out when the Peggers get home. It is stated that at least three of the present members of the Maroons will be cast adrift when the team choo choos into Winnipeg. Baseball has its troubles.

MIDDLETON IS RUNNER UP

Davenport, Ia., Man Meeting Champion Harry Legg in Golf Finals.

Minneapolis Player Wins Way to Finals By Defeating Chambers, Omaha.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 17.—H. G. Legg, thrice champion of the trans-Mississippi and twice runner-up, today will defend his title over the Minikahda course here, against W. D. Middleton of Davenport, Iowa, playing from the Rock Island Arsenal club. Legg won his way into the finals yesterday by defeating W. H. Chambers, Omaha, 3 up and 6 to go in the afternoon round of the 36 holes of match play, while Middleton obtained his position by defeating G. F. Paine, St. Louis, 2 up. Much of the afternoon play was in driving rain, accompanied by a high wind. Chambers, several weeks ago, won the consolation of the Western by defeating Mason Phelps.

Legg started the afternoon play 8 up on Chambers, but did not play in his usual form, when he made a medal of 0, the record for the course. Chambers, however, played in much better form in the afternoon round, being 1 up on Legg on the tenth hole, which he made in 2. He halved the eleventh hole, but lost the match to Legg on the twelfth hole of afternoon play, when he missed an easy putt for a half.

Legg by winning up 6 on Chambers has defeated all opponents since the elimination matches of the tournament began by that same score, with the exception of the first, which was won from F. E. Mahler, St. Paul, by default.

Middleton, who started the afternoon round 2 up, and Paine again this afternoon played a see-saw 18-holes, both men turned in a medal of 79. Middleton's medal for the morning was 82.

G. F. Piper, Jr., of Minneapolis, by defeating C. P. Williamson, Minneapolis, 2 up, won the Sears cup, and James Hubbell, Des Moines, defeated W. R. Townlee, Burlington, 6 up and 5 to go; winning the Directors cup. Dudley Mudge, St. Paul, defeated E. B. Douglas, Minneapolis, 3 up and 2 to go for the Sears cup.

Surprise cup winners were:

James Wallace, Des Moines; G. C. Beckwith, Minneapolis, and W. P. Lightner, St. Paul.

WELSH HAD BETTER OF PHIL KNIGHT

Bout Was Tame, But Very Entertaining to Large Canadian Crowd.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 17. — Freddie Welsh had the better of every round of the twelve boxed here last night against Phil Knight of Kansas City and won the fight by the largest number of points possible.

Knight relied on his "haymaker" as his chief asset in the affair but it went for naught against the exceptional cleverness of the little Briton. The bout was generally considered a tame affair, though Welsh's tactics in smothering the Kansas City man in his efforts to land a knockout punch delighted the crowd.

FIVE GAMES SCHEDULED

By the North Dakota U With Two Dates to Fill.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Five games have already been scheduled for the 1912 football season by the University of North Dakota, and there are two open dates which will be filled soon.

The dates announced by Manager Bruce McDonald follow:

Oct. 12, Hamline at Hamline.
Oct. 19, Carleton at Grand Forks.
Oct. 26, Macalester at Macalester.
Nov. 2, North Dakota Agricultural college at Grank Forks.
Nov. 9, South Dakota university at Sioux Falls, S. D.

O'Keefe vs. Kilbane.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 17.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, and Eddie O'Keefe signed for a 10-round go at Madison Square Garden, New York, Sept. 19. O'Keefe is to make 122 pounds.

SPORTING EVENTS OF THE WEEK AS SEEN BY HERALD CARTOONIST

OUTSIDE STARS WILL COMPETE

Range and Twin Cities Players Will Enter Local Tennis Matches.

The cup to be played for in the singles of the open tennis tournament that will be begun next Thursday at the Oatka courts of the Duluth Boat club and continued through on Friday and Saturday, will be a challenge trophy and will not become the permanent possession of the winner until it has been won three successive years.

Medals will be given to the winners in the doubles and also the runner up. The prizes will be handsome ones and envious eyes from the Twin Cities are being cast at them.

It is expected that there will be a large number of entries from the crack players of the city as well as from the various range clubs. It is also expected that there will be some players from the Twin Cities. Secretary Langely of the Minikahda club having written and asked whether St. Paul and Minneapolis players are eligible. They are and it is believed that a number may be up.

Duluth Swimmer Entered.

A. Hulting of Duluth will enter the national swimming meet at Boston next week. He is a very well known swimmer and is in possession of a Carnegie hero medal, won for life saving. He has also several medals he has won in swimming contests.

BASEBALL PLAYERS ARE IMMUNE TO THE HEAT

Pittsburg, Aug. 17.—If you were to suddenly ask Fred Clarke, manager of the Pirates, why is it that ball players are seldom if ever overcome by heat, he will look at you out of those penetrating, direct-gazing eyes of his and perhaps fire back: "Why is a mule?"

You can't help to mind when you have seen a dead mule, and Manager Clarke by the same token will have to ransack his memory to call up a time when a ball player has been carried from the field because of sunstroke.

He looked positively stunned when the question was thrown at him, gazed at the newspaper man with positive apprehension as to the complete sanity of the latter and then said slowly:

"Why, there's nothing in that. These men are in training from the beginning of the season, work into condition along with the weather and think nothing about it. They are dressed in loose, cool clothing, English cricket flannel. They come in from the field to the bench between innings and rest and cool out. They have cool water to drink if they want it. In fact, they are not always busy. A man may stand in the field throughout an entire inning and do nothing. You might ask about him. He is always busy, all padded up and has no chance to rest. You might worry about him, but I do not remember ever to have seen an umpire succumb to the heat.

They're Always in the Open.

"The fact appears to me all these men are out in the open. They begin training in the early spring, usually in the South because they get warmer weather earlier to begin work and so they work into the season and think nothing about the weather. Occasionally a man may be temporarily laid out, but it is generally because he has cooled off too suddenly and perspiration has been checked. There is danger in that.

"But look at these men who work in sewer trenches. They're worse off a good sight. They're boxed in without any chance to get air, with the sun beating right down on their heads for hours. Why are they not overcome? Simply because they're used to it. That is all there is to it. Now, next to the umpire you might take the pitcher. In cool weather you can't take a pitcher and put him roughshod into the game without a chance to warm up. He must warm up."

Few Ever Keel Over.

"Well, is it not true," asked the reporter, "that men do their best work in warm weather or hot weather rather than chilly weather?"

"That doesn't make any difference," said the manager, "except as regards the pitcher possibly. There are some men who will do their best work at the plate in cold weather and others who are better in warmer weather. As a rule the pitcher ought to be best in warmer weather, but there are both kinds and some men pitch better ball in cool periods. But," and he smiled the rare Clarke smile, "out of the 10,000 ballplayers in the United States you will find a mighty small percentage who are overcome by the heat."

The big leader of the Pirate team could see no need for sympathy for ball players during the heated term which sets other city dwellers to sweltering.

And he was not so far wrong. Take, for example, the men who work from sunrise to sunset in the harvest fields of the country. Did you city folks ever see an old-fashioned wheat field sweltering in the blistering heat of a noonday sun, heat waves radiating across its billowy expanse until they are actually visible to the eye? There the thermometer stands at 110 and maybe more. Yet round and round went the sweating horses, dragging an old pattern bullhead reaper cutting an eight-foot swath.

And How They Do Work.

Men on stations break in and follow that monster, raking, gathering into their arms and binding the bundles and tossing them aside as they walk to the next, and so without ceasing, except for a hasty pull at a jug of half-warmed water set under a chance tree in the shade, or possibly for a few minutes while the horses are being rested.

On the average farm a thought may be given to the team, but seldom to the men who sweat and tire, and yet keep on. That is a man's game, and yet in all the wide experience of the average farmer he would find it difficult to recall a case of sunstroke among farm hands or farmers. With horses the same is true. They become inured to the strenuous game and once their harness is off and they have had a roll in the cool of the grass they are ready for their supper and a bedding down.

Stay With the Weather.

Stay with the weather out of doors and it will not be unfriendly or unkind to you. City people are pampered too much. They house too closely in winter, they hunt the shade too much in summer. If it is cold they kick, and if it is hot they grumble. On the contrary, take the average out-of-doors man. Coop him up between four walls and you are far on the road to trouble. His case is akin to that of old Leatherstocking in Cooper's tale. He lived in the wilderness. It was food and drink to him. When his nearest neighbor came within fifty miles he moved and gave as his sole excuse that the settlement was getting too thick for him.

COLLEGE MAN ATTACKS THE GAME OF FOOTBALL

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Professional baseball carries off the palm as king of sports, as chief agent of American democracy and a moral uplifter, according to the decision stated by Prof. George Elliott Howard, the University of Nebraska authority, in an article in the American Journal of Sociology published yesterday at the University of Chicago. The educator gives the pastime a clean bill of health ahead of the recreation indulged in by the colleges of the land.

Prof. Howard makes a vigorous attack upon intercollegiate athletics, declaring them an unmixed evil and recommending that they be abandoned. He declares that college athletic spectacles lowers the moral tone of the spectators' emotions, destroy the most important business of the institutions and threaten to bring on other evils more serious.

"Under existing conditions," he declares, "the spectator crowds at an intercollegiate football contest fosters ideals much lower than those suggested by a game of professional baseball."

All Classes Meet.

"Psychologically, for instance, the great American game of baseball is a powerful democratic agent. Vast crowds of both sexes and of all ages, persons of every economic, social, religious or intellectual class touch shoulders. They shout, thrill and gesture in sympathy. They are just human beings, with differentials of rank or vocation laid aside.

"The chief menace to the general use of recreational activities come from the extraordinary vogue of college athletic spectacles. The primary business of the student is or ought to be to study. Naturally, he is inactive during a third or more of the day. There is plenty of time for this form of recreative exercise if it be made use of. But the student cannot keep his bodily and mental energy up to the mark by exercising vicariously. The vicarious play of the team, however fascinating, does not exercise the spectator's muscles.

"It is to improve that that the college authorities recognize the athletic functions. Play for all is the best form of educational recreation.

Menace to Education.

"Let us get nearer to the heart of the problem. Its crux lies in the distinctive features of intercollegiate sports. As now conducted, such sports are a menace to American higher education; and it seems probable that the only efficient remedy is their entire elimination.

"Because of their enormous prestige the saner forms of recreation play are crowded out and intellectual activities and achievements are overshadowed. The football champion is a hero, although sometimes his superior qualities can be appreciated only by the pound. The contests become battles between opposing institutions; and in popular sentiment the relative rank of such institutions is gaged by victory or defeat.

"A singular example of mental perversion, an absurd and immoral custom tenaciously held fast in mob mind, has its genesis in the partizan zeal of athletic spectator crowds. I refer to the practice of organized cheering, known as rooting. From every aspect it is bad. Morally it stands on the level of the 'toe hold,' the card trick, the stuffed ballot box, tainted news or the campaign canard, and, like the canard, it is apt to prove a 'boomerang.'"

FRANK CHANCE ACCUSES LYNCH OF BEING UNFAIR

Boston, Mass., Aug. 17.—Manager Frank Chance of the Cubs was furious when he heard that President Lynch of the National league had suspended Johnny Evers for five days and imposed a fine on Heine Zimmerman.

The unusual length of Evers' suspension was attributed to the fact that he passed his hand in front of Finnernan's face after the game in question. The fact that Zimmerman was not suspended also is proof of the fact, Lynch believes, that Zimmerman times his umpire baiting so as to be left out of each series with New York.

Players Were Peeved.

The players punished were highly peeved, particularly Evers, who had not missed a game this year until Monday. He claims that Finnernan pushed him in the face with his open hand, and Johnny wants to know why the umpire wasn't suspeded too. Evers will not be eligible until Saturday, when half of the New York series will be over, weather permitting.

Manager Chance immediately wired President Lynch a red-hot message, asking why Evers was suspended and not Finnernan, and asking Lynch if he was afraid New York would not win the pennant if the Cubs were kept intact. He also threatened to beat out New York in spite of the handicap.

The manager sent President Murphy a long message stating that he was tired of trying to win pennants in a league conducted as the National league is conducted.

Giants Run the League.

"There is no doubt in my mind," said Chance last night, "that the New York club runs the league. When Lynch was in Chicago last month he told Murphy that he was going to let out Finneran as soon as he got Al Orth for his staff. Then we go to New York and Umpire Bush gets hit by a batted ball, which bit of luck helped us win a game. I heard McGraw tell Bush that he would get his job. Inside of a week Bush was fired instead of Finneran.

"In the last New York series Meyers openly pushed Umpire Klein after a close decision at the plate, and Doyle kicked worse than any of our men ever did. They were put out of the game, but were not suspended. Why? Because we had three games more to play there, and it would cripple the Giants, that's why. But the first time we were in New York Tinker and Zimmerman were both suspended for the rest of that series, for doing no more than New York gets away with."

Proctor and Cloquet.

Cloquet and Proctor will play at Proctor tomorrow and the game is expected to be one of the best that has been played at Proctor the present season. Both teams are strong and a close and hard fought contest is looked for. Proctor has one of the best teams in the history of the village and is expected to defeat the invaders.

Wisconsin-Illinois.

Rockford, 3; Wausau, 7.
Racine, 11; Oshkosh, 1.
Madison, 1; Green Bay, 11.
Aurora, 3; Appleton, 5 (13 innings.)

FAMOUS LIGHTWEIGHT AND "DUMB" DAN MORGAN

DAN MORGAN. K. O. BROWN.

HOW TY COBB WAS FOUND

A man sat on the topmost tier of the grandstand at Columbia, S. C., says Harpers. The upper rows of the structure being vacant, he perched there in strange isolation, all unmindful of the clamorous fans below him. At times he drew a gilt-edged memorandum book from his pocket, made some notes, replaced it, and resumed his steady scrutiny of the field. There Atlanta and Columbia of the Southern league were playing. The score was close; it was lively baseball; yet the man never became enthusiastic. Only when Atlanta's slender, blonde-haired outfielder swaggered to bat, danced about the base lines or swept cross lots, pulling down high-hit balls, did the man become interested. Then the little notebook would appear again, and as quickly vanish. Innings passed, and when the Atlanta young outfielder had stolen his fourth base, a look of satisfaction came into the man's face. Later he left the grounds as quietly as he had come.

That night a message went over the wires from Columbia to the headquarters of the American League baseball club in Detroit, Mich. The message read: "Transfer your option on Pitcher Cicotte of Augusta to Outfielder Cobb of the same club." And Detroit did, for the sender of the message was the mysterious man of the grandstand—a major league scout.

That is how Tyrus Raymond Cobb, called "the greatest player that the game has seen," was discovered.

GREAT POWER BOAT RACES AT CHICAGO

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Keen competition in the power boat race for the William Wrigley, Jr., $22,000 trophy, was expected today at the water carnival. Only two boats—Disturber III and Chicago—contested in the first heat of the race yesterday, but unless the Disturber III repeats today two more races must be held. Among the new entrants that were expected today were Baby Reliance III and Kitty Hawk II.

The high sea yesterday prevented competition for the William Hale Thompson $1,000 prize for the first power boat making fifty miles an hour and the event was again carded for today.

The third heat of the Columbia Yacht club's race for the Sir Thomas Lipton cup was another feature on the program. Susan II, with two straight victories to her credit, was picked to win this event. By finishing fourth or better she could win the cup.

A naval sham battle was on the night program. Exhibitions and drills by United States seamen apprentices and life saving crews have been arranged for Sunday afternoon, night and Monday afternoon.

Susan II again finished first in the Columbia Yacht club's race for the Sir Thomas Lipton trophy yesterday and thereby put herself in a better position to take the cup if she lands fourth place or better in the final contest today. Her time for the two laps around a six-mile course was 2:25:37, or two minutes and fifty-five seconds better than that of her nearest competitor, Spray.

The other yachts finished as follows: Jackson Park, Chevron, Cherry, Columbia and Ste Claire. The new Illinois did not finish and the Bug failed to start.

Susan II took the lead at the start and never was headed. A heavy sea was rolling, making fast time impossible. All entrants were from Chicago.

Only two entrants appeared for the first heat of the William Wrigley, Jr., $22,000 trophy power boat race. John A. Pugh's Disturber III took first place, negotiating the 25-mile course of five laps in the slow time of 1,16:54. Chicago, formerly Disturber II, was second.

Golf at Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—By defeating G. R. West 1 up yesterday, R. S. Scott became amateur golf champion of Chicago and won the trophy that accompanies that honor. Scott is a Hyde Park high school boy and comparatively new in golf.

Coffee Firm Bankrupt.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—C. H. Richheimer & Co., coffee merchants, have been filed against in federal bankruptcy court after sustaining losses of more than $100,000 in three weeks. Counsel announced that the firm had failed because of the operations of a band of coffee men in New York, who, with Brazilian interests, were attempting to control the coffee output. In the petition filed against the coffee firm liabilities were given as $365,000, and assets of $275,000.

AUTOMOBILES

ROAD ROUTE COMPLETED

Pathfinding Automobile Makes Trip From New York to Frisco.

Route Takes Tourist Through Both Yellowstone and Glacier Parks.

The first complete road route between New York city and the Pacific Northwest has just been completed by the arrival in Seattle of A. L. Westgard, official A. A. A. representative, who left the metropolis on July 11 for the purpose of charting a complete transcontinental route via Buffalo, Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Bismarck, N. D., Miles City, Billings, Livingston, Butte, Missoula, Mont., and Spokane, Wash. Between New York and North Dakota the schedule laid out in advance was easily kept; but owing to a cloudburst and heavy rain there was a delay of over a week along the Yellowstone river in Montana, which made it impossible for the exposition to reach the Anaconda good roads convention. However, some of the stretches that were covered with difficulty have already been slated for improvement, and good roads interest has been aroused throughout Montana.

One excellent result of this trip, which is appropriately was made with a Pathfinder car, will be a complete log with odometer distances, all landmarks and other necessary information through to Yellowstone national park, and also to Glacier national park. The transcontinental route passes through Livingston, Mont., but upon his arrival there Mr. Westgard went down to Gardiner, the northern entrance to the park, in order to get complete details. Similarly, on arrival at Kalispell, he made a northern detour to Glacier national park, taking equally complete notes; and of course this also makes a complete route, connecting Yellowstone and Glacier national parks.

Though the route lay over some rough country, good time was made through Northern Idaho to Spokane, and from Spokane to Seattle, running through Snoqualmie pass on the direct route. It is not expected, however, that travel generally will go through Snoqualmie pass, except during midsummer, and a safer way is now being figured out, to connect from Spokane to the Columbia river and Portland, where one branch will be connected north to Tacoma, Seattle and Vancouver, and another extended south toward San Francisco.

After a short rest at Seattle, the expedition started south to take complete directions and landmarks for a strip map over the "Pacific highway," through Portland, Salem, Albany and Medford, Oregon; Yreka, Redding, Merrysville, Sacramento and Stockton, Cal., to Oakland and San Francisco. While the "Pacific highway" has been traveled by a number of cars up to this time, full data over the route has not been available.

Upon arrival at San Francisco Mr. Westgard will start East on the second leg of his triple transcontinental tour, running through Reno, Ogden (or Salt Lake City) Laramie and Cheyenne to Omaha, thence over the upper route through Iowa to Chicago. From Chicago he will retrace that part of the going trip as far as Buffalo and Geneva, thence down through the lake region of Central New York to Binghamton, the Catskill mountains and the Hudson river. It is expected that the transcontinental Pathfinder will be able to start West on the third leg of the triple tour about the third week in September.

MANY ENTRANTS FOR LONG TRIP

Glidden Tour Will Be Popular With Motorists This Fall.

Entries are going to be numerous for the 1912 national reliability tour of the American Automobile association, much known as the "Glidden," which will start from Detroit, Mich., during the second week of October and will run through Adrian, Ft. Wayne, Muncie, Anderson and Indianapolis to Louisville; thence from Louisville to Nashville, with two brief detours en route—one to visit the Lincoln farm near Hogdenville and the other to the Mammoth cave.

From Nashville the route will go down through Columbia, Tenn., to Florence, Sheffield and Tuscumbia, Ala., where a turn west will be made to the Mississippi river at Memphis. The tour will then go nearly directly south to Jackson, Miss., thence west to Vicksburg and either return to Jackson or follow a southeasterly direction below Vicksburg, entering the main line at a point below Jackson. Its final course will be from Baton Rouge to New Orleans.

The A. A. A. tour is always the leading event of its kind in the automobile world and this year should be greater than any of the previous ones. It will be, in effect, a "Lakes to Gulf Tour," and besides traversing interesting sections of Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana, will open up a through line between the North and the South that will be sure to attract a great deal of tourist travel. It will also be the greatest possible stimulant to good roads in the territory through which the tour travels.

Up to 1911 these tours were participated in largely by manufacturers, who competed with each other for the honor of winning the trophies. Beginning with 1911, however, the event became more an individual tour event, which will be particularly the case this year. Individual entries are welcome from all quarters, and entry blanks and all other information can be had promptly from A. A. A. Touring bureau, 437 Fifth avenue, New York city.

BRANCH OPENED IN ZENITH CITY

Case Thrashing Machine Company Has Quarters at 430 East First Street.

The Case "40," "the car with the famous engine," is now being sold to Duluthians through the local branch of the J. I. Case Thrashing Machine company at 430 and 432 East First street, recently established.

For years the name "Case" has been a mark of quality on machinery of all kinds, especially that which is used on farms.

The Case is a famous racing car and has made many records, both on the track and in endurance runs. A number of them are in daily use in Duluth. They are particularly strong on motors, the car being known as one of the best hill-climbers made.

The public is invited to visit the new salesrooms at the above mentioned address and look over the farm machinery as well as the automobiles.

PACKARD IN NEW QUARTERS

New Sales Rooms Are at Washington Avenue and Superior Street.

Walter Rightmire, the Packard agent, moved into his fine new garage at Washington avenue and Superior street during the week.

The new sales rooms are perhaps the best in the city. Mr. Rightmire features the Packard product and he has ample proof from satisfied owners that Packard cars are delivering the goods. Mr. Rightmire also sells the popular Flanders electric.

This little car has attracted more attention on the streets of the city than most new types of cars. The beauty of design, lines and finish together with its smooth working qualities has made it popular with the women of Duluth from the start. A number of them have been delivered and are said to be giving perfect satisfaction.

The Packard people are building cars in several different models this year. Everything from the roadster to the big, roomy seven-passenger car is a model of completeness. "A car for every purse" is now the motto of the Packard factory.

The new home of the Packard and Flanders electric in Duluth was but recently completed. It was designed especially for a garage and salesroom and is considered a model. The new building is a valuable addition to "automobile row."

BIG LIST FOR ELGIN RACES

"Teddy" Tetzlaff, the Latest Entrant, Will Drive an Italian Car.

The entry list for the Elgin road races, Aug. 30-31, has been swelled by another star nomination. "Teddy" Tetzlaff has entered both the Elgin trophy and free-for-all events and will be at the wheel of E. E. Hewlett's Fiat. This makes a total of eighteen entries to date. Tetzlaff reached Chicago during the week and shortly will pitch his camp on the course at Elgin. It is quite likely that Mr. Hewlett, the Los Angeles motor enthusiast, will send the big Grand Prize race Fiat for the free-for-all, the only event at Elgin for which it would be eligible. Dave Lewis, who won the feature 100 mile race at Old Orchard on July 4, and who has done notable work in Pacific coast races, may have this mount.

F. S. Dusenberg has entered a Mason car in the "baby car" race for the 231 cubic inches and under class. This is a remarkably fast little car and in practice trials on the Indianapolis speedway has developed a speed of seventy-five miles an hour.

George Clark of Texas entered a high powered Mercedes car a few days ago and it will appear in the Elgin trophy and free-for-all. This car was seen at the recent Galveston meet.

Owing to the fact that the Schacht cars have been suspended from competition, the entry which Harry Endicott was to have piloted has had to be eliminated. In the Elgin National entries at present are: Bruce Brown, Fiat; Ralph Mulford, Knox; Len Zengel, Stutz; "Billy" Knipper, Stutz; two Mercers, one to be piloted by "Hughie" Hughes; Clark, Mercedes, and Tetzlaff, Fiat. In the free-for-all, Bruce-Brown, Fiat; Bergdoll, Benz (the same car with which he won the last Fairmount Park road race), Mulford, Knox, a pair of Mercers, George Clark, Mercedes; Tetzlaff, Fiat.

EIGHT HINTS ON CARE OF AN AUTO

To one not familiar with its construction, the automobile may seem a complicated mechanism—a confusion of mechanical contrivances, but it is surprising how quickly both the complications and confusion will clear themselves if the car owner will make a study of his car.

The automobile, like every other piece of mechanism that gives consistent service, needs a certain amount of attention, and the car owner will find it to his advantage to watch certain adjustments and perform various minor duties. Herewith is offered eight suggestions, which, if every owner will observe with regularity, he will have an automobile that is always ready to respond to his call for service. The suggestions follow:

"First—See that the gasoline tank contains a sufficient quantity of gasoline; that there is plenty of oil in the crank case; that the radiator is filled with water and that the tires are properly inflated.

"Second—Lift hood and screw down grease cups; inspect the cooler connections and the wiring to the magneto, coil and spark plugs; oil the valve stems and push rods; inspect oil pump and fittings.

"Third—Screw down grease cups on front springs and front axle; see that the nuts on the spring bolts are tight; give grease cup on steering gear housing a turn.

"Fourth—Remove floor boards and oil the gear shifting mechanism; also the clutch and brake mechanism.

"Fifth—Screw down grease cups on the rear springs and see that the spring bolt nuts are tight. Inspect the differential housing for loose nuts or bolts; examine the brakes and screw down grease cups over brake shaft.

"Sixht—Fill lamps if necessary; inspect body bolts and fender bolts; fill all grease cups with good grade of medium weight grease; keep the wheel rims free from mud and sharp edges; clean the body and fenders.

"Seventh—Occasionally jack up car under frame; pry the spring leaves apart with a heavy screw driver and lubricate between leaves with graphite mixed in oil; keep transmission case and differential case two-thirds filled with a good grade, medium gravity grease.

"Eighth—Occasionally drain oil from crank case and then flush out crank case by pouring gasoline or kerosene through breather tube. Every ten days or so put two or three tablespoonfuls of kerosene in each cylinder to cut carbon, and let stand over night. If ever a foreign or unfamiliar noise develops, satisfy yourself as to what it is; negligence of this may result disastrously."

SENATE CONFIRMS ARMY APPOINTMENTS.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The senate in executive session last night confirmed the appointments of Brig. Gen. Clarence R. Edwards as an officer of the line; Col. Frank McIntyre as chief of the bureau of insular affairs, with rank of brigadier general; Col. E. Z. Steever, Fourth cavalry, as brigadier general; Col. George Andrews as adjutant general of the army with rank of brigadier general, and a number of minor militar yappointments.

BOY, SOUGHT MONTHS BY DETECTIVES, FOUND DEAD.

Lone Rock, Iowa, Aug. 17.—The search for the missing Marlowe child, which has been in progress since last spring, ended yesterday when the body was found by the child's grandfather about one mile from the spot where the 2-year-old boy so mysteriously disappeared. Hugh Marlowe, a wealthy farmer and father of the child, employed detectives who scoured the country in an effort to locate the boy. An inquest will be held.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Some Promises Made by the Press Agents for Coming Attractions

AT THE LYCEUM

Rube Welch and Kittie Francis are playing in the latest musical comedy, "The Show Girl" will be at the Lyceum one week beginning Tuesday, Aug. 20.

Delightful music and real comedy promised by the management and a feature will be the pretty chorus. The novelty of this attraction is, that there are not any waits or intermissions as there are eighteen big musical numbers introduced during the action of "The Show Girl." Miss Kittie Francis whose main desire is to break into New York society, by giving the "Royal Reception" at her home, is the prima donna. There is a chorus of twenty singing and dancing girls.

* * *

Full of pleasing melodies, and offering an amazingly lavish production, "The Prince of Tonight," enhanced by the prestige afforded by the presence in the title role of Tom Arnold, should live up to its record as a phenomenal magnet for the play goer when it appears here at the Lyceum Labor day.

The large cast of principals in support of Mr. Arnold, evidences the choice of the best to be had in the musical comedy field, and the chorus is a typical beauty gathering of girls, who can sing and dance, and make the audience wonder if the producer cornered all the pretty girls. As the prince of the mythical land of Lualtania, wherein he succeeds in winning the girl of his heart, Mr. Arnold, presents a portrayal with all the mischievous twinkles, apt witticisms and bubbling good nature that won him so strong a regard in the hearts of theatergoers.

* * *

One of the most remarkable dramatic events of the theatrical season will be the engagement of George Broadhurst's biggest play of our time, "Bought and Paid For," which will appear here at the Lyceum for one week this fall under the direction of William A. Brady, Ltd. The mere fact that the new comedy drama is rapidly approaching its fiftieth consecutive performance in New York city is an assurance that it must be substantial in fibre, consistent in story and fresh and natural, no less in the drawing of its characters than in the flow of its dialogue.

* * *

"High speed on a laughing track" is the way one enthusiast wrote in describing the attractiveness of "Officer 666" the player of that name which Cohan & Harris will present in this city at the Lyceum this fall. "Officer" story has to do with a great police mystery, into the scenes of which is introduced a marvelous crook, a wonderful policeman and a most fascinating love affair.

Two days of September are being held by Manager Marshall of the Lyceum for the possible appearance in this city of America's greatest singing organization, "The Sheehan English opera company," including Joseph F. Sheehan, America's greatest tenor, notable opera stars, a big chorus, and special orchestra, in all 100.

W. H. THOMPSON,
Baritone With "The Show Girl" at the Lyceum One Week, Beginning Tuesday, Aug. 20.

AT THE EMPRESS

Patrons of the Empress commencing Sunday matinee will have the pleasure of hearing one of the most noted and best singing acts in vaudeville, as the management has secured the four Van Staats, who have been engaged to tour the Sullivan & Considine circuit. The act has just returned from a very successful European tour, where it played the principal halls the past twelve months. The title of their offering is "An old Dutch Musicale," which is a singing novelty that has not only beautiful harmony in voices, but contains a few laughs, a solo cellist and a beautiful special scenic setting. Lovers of sweet singing, harmony and musical classics will enjoy the act produced by the four Van Staats. The following is from the Chicago American a few weeks ago: "The four Van Staats, who are billed as the feature attraction at the Empress were easily the hit of the show. The singers have exceptional voices and offer a real singing novelty."

A gymnastic novelty that will attract much attention and wonderment will be little Olga, who has an exceptionally strong and daring novelty in contortion and aerial feats. Little Olga is a European artist and has been with the biggest of American circuses, played the American hippodromes and is now making her first vaudeville tour since coming to this country two years ago.

A comedy singing, talking and novelty act that has been a big success wherever it has appeared, will be Budd and Wayne, who will fill the comedy position for the week's program. Mr. Budd is considered one of the best eccentric comedians in vaudeville, while Miss Wayne, his partner in their act, is an accomplished singer and of pleasing personality which always wins favor with her audience.

The moving pictures for the week will be three reels of the very latest pictures. No picture shown at the Empress has been seen in Duluth, as each one comes direct from the maker, the seal being broken for the first performance of the week. The opening picture will be "A Messenger of Kearney," a Western picture that is full of thrilling experiences of Fremont on his expedition into California in 1846. One of his experiences is the rescuing of the beautiful girl who has been captured by a Mexican army officer. It is during this scene that Fremont makes a desperate ride into the Mexican camp and takes her from the very arms of the Mexican officer who shows the white feather and refuses to fight the American. The entire picture introduces several daring feats and experiences that keep the audience in wonderment as to what is coming next.

"The Old Wedding Dress" will be one of the feature films for the week. This picture tells the tragic life story of a sweet old woman whose young love dreams are blighted by a bitter prank of fate. The story leads up to the wedding of Aunt Betsy's niece, when the old wedding dress is to be worn on the morrow by the niece. This picture is a beautiful story, full of laughter and tears, redolent with tenderest of memories.

The comedy picture for the week will be one by the Vitagraph company entitled "Suing Susan," with John Bunny, the well-known comedian, and Miss Flora Finch, celebrated character woman, as the stars of the picture. This is one of the best and most amusing pictures that the Vitagraph company has turned out this season, and one that will keep an audience in roars of laughter from the time it is thrown on the screen until the end of the picture.

Daily matinees are given from 1:30 to 4:15 p. m. and performance every night from 7:30 to 10:45 p. m.

GOSSIP OF THE RIALTO

A. H. Woods is making preparations for the coming season's tour of the Franz Lehar comic opera, "Gypsy Love," which begins in Trenton, N. J., Oct. 11. After an engagement of two days in the Jersey capital a fortnight's stay will be made at the Forest theater, Philadelphia. Phyllis Partington, in the role of Zorika, and Arthur Albro, as the gypsy lover, will head an entirely new production and a first-class company in "Gyspy Love." Woods has wisely decided to retain the version presented last season, which was made by Harry B. and Robert Smith.

* * *

Twenty-four members of the Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm company and eleven of their friends have gone to Liverpool. The company will open in the Globe theater, London, in September, where a long run is expected. Among those who left were Edith Taliaferro, who will be Rebecca of the piece; Hayward Gunn, Archie Boyd, Samuel Colt and his mother, Mrs. Sarah Colt; Miss Ada Devers, the Misses Lella and Lorraine Frost and the Misses Violet and Clare Meserean.

* * *

H. B. Warner, after three years spent in impersonating the criminal in "Alias Jimmy Valentine," is to continue his career as a stage lawbreaker. He will appear next season in "Buxl," a German play which the Liebler manager obtained while abroad recently. The production will open on Thursday evening, Sept. 5, at the Hudson theater. "Buxl" has been very popular with the German audiences, but has never been seen outside of Germany. Mr. Tyler arranged while in Europe for an English adaptation. This was made by Rudolph Besier, author of "Don."

* * *

Four and possibly five of Louis N. Parker's plays will be seen in this country next season. Besides "Disraeli" and "Pomander Walk," there will be his new historical play for Simone and a new play of Irish life and manners. Negotiations have not as yet been definitely concluded for the American presentation of his play called "Drake," which Sir Herbert Tree is preparing for production at His Majesty's in London this fall.

* * *

Ida Vernon is once more to appear with William Hodge in "The Man From Home." Miss Vernon is one of the links between the past and the present of the American stage. She was once Edwin Booth's leading lady and engaged to be married to that great actor. She was the star of the company in which the present Mrs. Fiske made her debut. She was famous as "Camille" when that play was still fairly new. She created the role of Sister Genevieve in "The Two Orphans." This season will be her forty-fifth of actual stage experience and her sixth in "The Man From Home."

* * *

Arnold Daly has signed with H. H. Frazee for a term of two years. Included in the arrangement is an agreement whereby Mr. Frazee acquired a number of new plays which Mr. Daly secured in Europe and several new plays by American authors. Mr. Daly will appear first in "The Wedding Journey," a new play by John T. McIntyre, a hitherto unknown author, who is said to be a Philadelphia newspaper man.

"The Wedding Journey," deals forcibly with a phase of the middle-class American home, which has never before been touched by the dramatist. Following "The Wedding Journey" it is planned to present "The Deluge," a play by Herman Berger, the Swedish playwright, which has been performed in every capital of Europe except London and Moscow. "Lorenzo the Magnificent" is the title of another pretentious drama by Sam Benelli, the Italian poet-dramatist, which will become a part of Mr. Daly's repertoire.

* * *

Messrs. Shubert announce James T. Powers to begin his season in "Two Little Brides" early in September. His tour for the coming season will include this city. Mr. Powers will be supported by practically the same company which appeared with him during the engagement of "Two Little Brides" at the Casino theater.

* * *

Charles Dillingham announces that he has engaged Miss Lydia Loupoukowa as premiere danseuse for the Elsie Janis-Montgomery and Stone-Joseph Cawthorn production. Mr. Dillingham brought this young dancer to America two seasons ago for an engagement in "The Echo." She later danced with Mordkin.

* * *

Harry Askin, the Chicago manager, announces that the new musical comedy which is to be produced under his supervision on Sept. 1 at the La Salle opera house in that city is to be called "The Girl at the Gate."

* * *

Beautiful Julia Frary, who will be remembered as the larger but younger sister to Elsie Janis in "The Slim Princess" is to be married. The name of the lucky boy is not made public.

* * *

"Broadway Jones," George Cohan's new vehicle, is a paradox indeed, as it is said to be a real acting piece, devoid of slang, short on songs, and yet George claims authorship.

* * *

"Bought and Paid For," which reaches its four hundredth consecutive performance tomorrow in New York, is one of the early bookings at the Lyric.

* * *

The tour of "The Blue Bird" for the coming season will cover over 22,000 miles. The attraction is scheduled to open in Syracuse early in September. After an engagement in Chicago the play will move to the coast.

* * *

Mizzi Hajos is to be starred in a musical version of "Such a Little Queen," in which Henry B. Harris successfully starred Miss Elsie Ferguson two or three seasons ago. Just who will furnish the music for the production has not been definitely settled, but Werba & Luescher have in mind a well-known composer with whom they will undoubtedly close a contract soon.

* * *

Messrs. George Hazelton and J. H. Benrimo have found a market for their Chinese play, "The Yellow Jacket," in the new firm of Harris & Selwyn, composed of William Harris, Jr., and Edgar Selwyn. The piece will be the latter's initial production of the season.

* * *

The second company of "The Quaker Girl" has been assembled for rehearsals. Victor Morley will head the cast in Clifton Crawford's original role, Natalie Alt will sing and dance the title part, and a newcomer, named May Allison, has been chosen for the role of the princess.

* * *

The Liebler company announces that Nat C. Goodwin will not appear in their Oliver Twist production when it is sent on tour next month. Back of this announcement is the report of the separation of Mr. Goodwin from his managers, based on a letter which he sent to them last week. The usual call for rehearsals was issued, Mr. Goodwin receiving notification that "Oliver Twist" would open at the Illinois theater, Chicago, about Labor day. He replied at once, and his letter is said to have contained the information that he would not be present when the roll was called. The story goes that he wrote to Hugh Ford that he had signed to play a six weeks' engagement in "Oliver Twist" at the Morosco theater, Los Angeles, and this would keep him on the coast. The Los Angeles managers are said to have written to the Liebler company that they had the Mordaunt version of the play, but that they would prefer the Comyns Carr version if the Liebers would send it on. The advice is also said to have been added that it would not be worth while for the Liebler all-star company to come to Los Angeles after the Morosco company played "Oliver Twist" for six weeks. Another report from the coast says that J. Hartley Manners is rewriting a version of the play for Mr. Goodwin.

The Liebler company has shifted Wilton Lackaye to the part of Fagin, and another star will be found for the part of Bill Sykes, opening as already arranged.

* * *

Martin Beck's arrangement for touring Sarah Bernhardt in "Queen Elizabeth" in America is not the only venture in legitimate production which he will undertake. Mr. Beck said he has acquired the American rights to two plays, one a musical piece by Franz Lehar. He has the option on the American rights of Prof. Max Reinhardt's next production.

FROM A SEMINARY GIRL TO A TRAINER OF LIONS

NERO, THE RIDING LION WITH THE BARNES' CIRCUS.

From a seminary girl to a lion trainer is the life story in tabloid form of Miss Martha Florine. The two occupations are widely different, almost like night and day, but it only goes to show that the twentieth century is but brimful of new and startling happenings. This story is the life sketch of a little lady whose daring ways have startled all Europe and the greater part of America.

Down in the southern part of the United States in the state of Kentucky is the little village of Hickman. It nestles in the foothills on the banks of the mighty Father of Waters. It is not unlike a hundred other quaint little villages that may be found in the South. It was here that Miss Florine first saw the light of day. Her father was a lawyer and as it was a peaceable community it rrequired not a little hustling and work at other professions to keep the wolf from the door.

When Martha grew up and finished high school she was bundled off to the Wesleyan seminary. In the summer time when school was over she would journey back to her Kentucky home. On a Sunday morning she could be found in the village choir, for she possessed quite a voice. But seminary life palled upon her and finally with a few other college girls she abandoner her books for the lure of the footlights and calcium. She joined a musical play called "Peggy From Paris" and traveled over the greater part of the United States. Finally the show went to Europe. In Germany the members of the company awoke one morning to learn that the manager had gone south with the bank roll.

Here was little Martha Florine, a Kentucky maider, in a strange country, far from her home and penniless. She finally made her way to Hamburg, where she sought a position. As she could not speak Dutch she was not successful. She learned that an animal trainer was looking for a trainer. Martha applied for the position and got it. The manager forgot to tell her that only the day before the lions had eaten the trainer. Anyway Martha worked hard and finally won the animals with patience and today she is one of the foremost animal trainers. She will be seen in Duluth Monday, Aug. 26, when the Al G. Barnes circus comes for two performances.

OPENING OF THE ORPHEUM

Duluth Theater Will Begin Its Third Season Aug. 25.

The opening of this year's Duluth Orpheum season, which begins with the matinee on Sunday, Aug. 25, marks an epoch in the history of this famous circuit, the twenty-fifth anniversary of which was celebrated in San Francisco on June 30 of this year.

Additional significance and importance were given to the event by the fact that about the same time the Orpheum made its entry into New York city through an arrangement by which the Orpheum Theater & Realty company in conjunction with B. F. Keith and his Eastern associates, purchased the Percy G. Williams' circuit, consisting of the leading vaudeville houses, some ten in number, in greater New York. At the same time an affiliation was entered into, binding for twenty years all the high-class vaudeville theaters of the United States and Canada to book jointly so the acts may be engaged for several consecutive years and unprecedented inducements offered to the foremost artists of the world to enter vaudeville.

It goes without saying, therefore, that the Orpheum circuit has the first call on every vaudeville act of note, and its patrons will get the very best shows that capital, brains and enterprise can obtain.

Special arrangements have been made for the coming season to take particular care of telephone orders, the box office being open every day from 10 a. m. to 9:30 p. m. and seats ordered by phone will be held for matinees until 2 p. m., and until 7:30 in the evenings with the exception of Sunday performances. Usual prices for the coming season will prevail, 10 and 25 cents for the matinees, and 10, 25, 50 and 75 cents for the evening performances.

Manager Billings annouces his staff to be practically the same as last season, with the exception of House Superintendent William H. Dean, who has resigned to enter the real estate business. He has been replaced by Rupert Smith. Arthur B. White will again look after the comfort of patrons in the box office and the orchestra will be under the leadership of Fred G. Bradbury, and will be made a feature as heretofore. The art gallery will again be open free to patrons on the Mezzaline floor.

SYNDICATE UNABLE TO STAND AGAINST SHUBERT'S PLUS ENERGY AND HOURS

"The Little Man of Thirty-Ninth Street" Is on Top.

He Knows No Limits of Time, Physical and Mental Energy.

Gives Personal Attention to Details of Vast Theatrical Organization.

LEE SHUBERT.

About fourteen years ago the manager of a theatrical troupe spent an evening in Syracuse where his company played. He was particularly impressed with the conversation of the theater treasurer, who was a wiry little fellow and had the most wonderful aspirations.

"I laughed at him as he glibly rattled off how he was going to become a metropolitan manager and control theaters in New York and attractions on the road, said the manager. "I listened to him on that occasion and at other times, but only thought him a harmless dreamer, as I had heard others talk in the same strain; but I was doomed to disappointment."

The treasurer was the late Sam S. Shubert, whose memory is kept alive by the maintenance of a chain of theaters extending from coast to coast and representing millions of dollars in capital. Lee Shubert, a brother of Sam, is the directing head of this vast enterprise and its manifold ramifications, with Jacob J., a younger brother, an able assistant.

At the time referred to by the manager above, Lee Shubert, who was also living in Syracuse, had little idea of entering the "show business" but Sam soon leased "A Texas Steer," sent the company on tour and with the money so gained leased the Grand Opera house in Syracuse, then the Baker theater in Rochester, and soon surprised older theatrical managers by sending on tour "The Belle of New York." Just previous to this time, however, Lee Shubert became an active partner with his brother. By a quick and shrewd move the Herald Square, New York, was leased, which brought the brothers to New York. Then they acquired the Casino and Lyric theater and their operations even carried them to Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Chicago.

Just about this time, however, Sam Shubert, while traveling from New York to Pittsburg, was injured in a railway wreck and died shortly afterwards from his injuries. Lee Shubert was in London at the time. He hastened back to New York and took charge of the enterprise which was fast assuming world-wide proportions.

Independence of the Drama.

Lee Shubert has always fostered the idea of the independence of the American drama. It has been his life battle. He staked his fortune and today the world recognizes a victory for "the little man of Thirty-ninth street." Before Mr. Shubert and his brothers Sam and Jacob came to New York, the entire theatrical business of the United States was, in the main, controlled by the "syndicate." This organization was composed of men who owned few, if any theaters, but they undertook to supply attractions and exact a booking fee. The commissions so obtained ran into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The Shuberts began acquiring leases of theaters and building where they could not lease. Gradually they formed a circuit which now includes every important city in this country. Then came the overthrow of the "syndicate." As an organizer and captain of an army of artistes, Lee Shubert is without an equal. It was Mr. Shubert who toured Madame Bernhardt in a tent. It was Mr. Shubert who rescued the vast Hippodrome in New York from financial disaster and placed it on a firm footing. It was Lee Shubert who, in a single season, placed under contract and secured plays for more stars than any four other managers, and so his achievements go nd infinitum.

Today the Shuberts control and manage twenty-one theaters in New York city and in other cities. He manages such stars as Sothern and Marlowe, Forbes-Robertson, Sam Bernard, James T. Powers, Gaby Deslys, Al Jolson and about twenty others.

Strong in Details.

Mr. Shubert is a master of details. While he has a vast staff surrounding him, he is constantly in touch with every move. This is particularly true of the play readers, the booking department, the stage directors, the numerous composers and producers who are either associated with Mr. Shubert or are in his employ, the construction and leasing department (which sees to the leasing or building of new properties), as well as other officials and departments. After having attended an opening performance, visited four or five stars at their theaters and met with possibly two or three fellow producers, Mr. Shubert will lock himself in the booking department and "route" a half dozen shows and give directions as to when this or that attraction will terminate its engagement in New York. From 5:30 p. m. until long after midnight Mr. Shubert puts in his most telling work. And practically the same routine is observed on Sundays and holidays. He doesn't know what rest means. In the Shubert offices there are no holidays. It is work, work work. Over the desk of every stenographer and many of the executives of the Shubert Theatrical company is a framed motto which says: "Success is strictly a thing of energy and hours. Enough energy and enough hours, and you may shake hands with success. And the motto is signed: "Lee Shubert."

PLAYGROUNDS FOR GROWN-UPS

Recent Peagants Suggest a Need Formerly Unsuspected—Demand Growing to Keep Playgrounds Open at Night—Results of Experiments Last Year.

By Alice A. Hills.

(Exclusive Service The Survey Press Bureau.)

Twenty-five years ago children's playgrounds were almost unknown. Since the formation in 1906 of the Playground Association of America about 400 cities and towns have acquired supervised playgrounds. Their value is self-evident; as a medium for doing philanthropic work they are especially useful. Parents' hearts are immediately won if special attention is shown in teaching Leah to dance or Jacob to jump, and bananas and soda-water are lavished upon the instructor. Extreme poverty is sometimes brought to light through playgrounds, and occasionally a young Jesse James is discovered, who quite often proves to be just mentally defective.

But what is being done for the child's parents and elder brothers and sisters? Some rich people lead such lives of luxury that their condition is almost as lamentable as the very poor, but at least they have the means, if not always the energy, to better themselves. The poor person's strongest instinct is to play, but having no facilities for wholesome recreation, most of his leisure time and money are expended at the saloon. The middle-class men and women are confined to lives of constant economy—in money, time and pleasure, and not having the independence of the very rich or the very poor, their lives are greatly constricted. They ride sedately home at night, and on holidays indulge in the doubtful recreation of theaters and amusement parks.

As a result we have worn-out nerves and misery and drunkenness, conditions which are due largely to lack of proper recreation by means of which to counteract the monotony of the day's work.

In Germany and Russia gymnastics is an important part of the training in the standing army, in which every man in the country is compelled to serve a period of two years. In Sweden the government requires that a certain part of the day be devoted to gymnastics in the public schools. In England out-of-door sports and exercises are the common rule; while in our own country public gymnasiums and recreation centers are almost unheard of except in very large cities.

You say it would be absurd for grown people to play like children. Then hear where it is actually done:

In England every year at Stratford-on-Avon there is a pageant given in honor of Shakespeare; hundreds of the townspeople take part—men, women and children who dance and give scenes from the life of Shakespeare and his great plays. In our own country we have the festival of the Mardi Gras in New Orleans, and during the past summer a pageant was given in the town of Thetford, Vt., in which men and women of the community as well as children participated. This plan of recreation for grown people was tried by the Department of Docks and Ferries in New York in the early '80s, but a rough element proved too much for inadequate supervision and the attempt was not repeated. At Rutherford, N. J., the past year playgrounds were used constantly in the evening by grown people who lacked courage to attend during the day. As a consequence of this interest it was decided to open the grounds to older persons two nights a week. A few weeks ago the writer attended a mothers' club meeting under the auspices of the children's aid society, in New York, and instead of seeing the mothers sit down and talk over their daily cares, she saw them dance folk dances and play basket ball. Did they look absurd and undignified? Not in the least. They danced gracefully and learned quickly, but the important thing about it was that they were enjoying it and forgetting their cares.

Some people say, "Grown people don't need recreation—they stay at home." But where do the people come from who parade the streets at night? They are merely looking for amusement, recreation—but what they find is not elevating to themselves or of especial credit to an American city. As a result, police stations and almshouses are filled. If the roughs who "hang around" street corners could work off their energy in play or legitimate sport, they would not be so ready to assault and rob; if they were physically well, they would not be so willing to drink.

There are gymnasiums for them to attend, you say. There are approximately 3,476,476 adult inhabitants in New York; there are about 150 public gymnasiums and recreation centers, including settlements, Y. M. C. A.'s, etc. This would make it necessary for about 23,000 people to attend one gymnasium. But even if there were enough to accommodate this number, they would not be filled; one of the essentials of play is the open air.

Of course, on grown people's "playgrounds,' the sand-box and sliding-chute would be superfluous,—but these could be substituted by gymnastic apparatus, baseball, basket ball and tennis corts. There are several games for adults which have become almost obsolete in this country; archery is a sport much used in past years, requiring skill and practice; bowling on the green is another game almost forgotten; moving pictures are given on some grounds; pageants, dramatics and folk dancing could be made especially interesting.

It would be a comparatively simple matter to open the day playgrounds at night for grown people, and though there would no doubt be difficulties to overcome, the results would be gratifying in the end; for fresh air and physical exercise performed in a spirit of play is a sure recipe for a normal state of mind. This course would be but following out the natural development of the child's playground movement. Well supervised recreation grounds for grown people should become a part of every city system.

SOME TOWN CHRISTENINGS

How Indian Legends and Romances Figure in the Naming of Cities.

INDIAN legends and romances are the basis for the names of many of the towns in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, says the Kansas City Star.

The river bluff on which the town of Arrow Rock, Mo., was built, and from which it derived its name, was a conspicuous landmark long before there was any town, or in fact, any settlement of white persons there. The "Arrow Rock" was known as such and by that name it is first mentioned by Lewis and Clark in their well authenticated history of their journey up the river and across the country to the Pacific coast in 1804. After that the "Arrow Rock" is mentioned by nearly all of the early travelers and navigators of the river, the name being attached to the bluff at an early day away back in the Sixteenth century. It has its origin in an Indian legend.

At this place the river is about 350 yards wide, running north and south. On the Saline county side there is a high rock bluff. On the eastern bank of the river a band of Indians were encamped in the river bottom. The beautiful daughter of the chieftain was much sought in marriage by the young men of the tribe. The old chieftain, not desiring to offend any of his tribe, told the young men that he would give his daughter in marriage to the one who could stand on the eastern bank of the river and strike with an arrow, shot from a bow, the rock bluff on the western bank. On the day of the contest, which was so full of interest for the persons concerned, the Indian braves took their bows and selected the best arrows they could find, and entered the lists for the maiden's hand. One after another they attempted the shot, and one after the other they saw their arrows fall short of the mark and their hope of winning the coveted prize vanish, while those who were to succeed them rejoiced.

The last Indian to shoot was the one the maiden loved. He was tall, straight, supple — a bronzed child of the forest. His bow was twice the length of that of any other brave in the contest. When the thong of deer sinews was looped over the end of the bow, it seemed as though no man could draw it farther. The arrow was of straight reed, barbed with a slender flint and headed with a feather from an eagle's wing. The youth smiled to his sweetheart, and, stepping to the river's bank, placed his arrow across the bow. Pointing it at an angle of about 45 deg., he drew the thong until the barb on the arrow touched the center of the quivering bow. The twanging of his bowstring announced the beginning of the arrow's flight; it sailed high over the waters of the Big Muddy, and as it struck the rock bluff on the opposite side of the river, the delighted maiden exclaimed in broken English to her father, "Arrow Rock." And so "Arrow Rock" was christened.

The town of Broken Arrow, Okla., obtained its name from a similar Indian legend. In a very beautiful part of the prairies, near the Arkansas river, lived many tribes of Indians. So many differences arose among these tribes that soon they were broken up into hostile tribes and war was declared. At the end of a fierce and sanguinary conflict the chiefs of the various tribes met together on a conspicuous mound near the present town of Broken Arrow. Here their quarrels were composed and in celebration of the event their arrows were broken. This action was their sign of peace. And so the name Broken Arrow.

The name Anadarko, Okla., is the basis for another Indian legend. William Shirley, who died in 1910, married the last member of the Nadarko tribe of Indians and his son, Harry Shirley, is the only living survivor of the Nadarko tribe.

The name Anadarko came about in this way: A government official, visiting the tribe, desired to select a name for a postoffice. Shirley was an Irishman and when the official asked him for a suitable name, he said: "Call it 'Nadarko' in honor of my wife." The official did not catch the answer clearly because of Shirley's brogue and wrote it "Anadarko" and so the name has survived.

Shirley had been in the Caddo country for many years and was a very old man at his death. He had built a sort of castle about a mile and a half north and east of Anadarko, the remains of which are still standing. There are also some springs named in his honor.

The town of Ocheltra, Okla., was named for an Indian chief. This chief's name was "Oo-chee-la-tah," and his English name was Charles Thompson. The name "Oo-chee-la-tah" means eloquence, a musical voice, and sometimes it is applied to music. Thompson was one of the orators of his day in the Cherokee tongue, although he could speak no English. He was tall, stately and handsome, straight as an arrow, and weighed two hundred pounds.

Nowata is another town in Eastern Oklahoma with an Indian name. This name came from the Indian word "Nowah-tah," the English of which is medicine. Another is Talala, which came from the word "Tah-lah-lah," meaning redhead. Tah-lah-lah is the name of a bird, called in English the woodpecker, which has a very red head. In all probability many of these birds were found in the tall timber which grew near the site of the present town of Talala.

• • •

Pawhuska in the Osage Indian language means white hair. White Hair was the principal Indian chief thereabouts when Pawhuska was located, hence the town was named for him.

• • •

The name "Muskogee" is derived from the Muskogee or Creek tribe of Indians, which for many years as one of the Five Civilized Tribes occupied the Indian Territory now a part of the state of Oklahoma. The Muckogee or Creek tribe occupied what was generally known as the Creek Nation, comprising that section of Oklahoma lying between the Canadian river on the south and the Arkansas river on the north and the old Indian Territory and Oklahoma line on the west and the Arkansas river on the east.

In the treaties and agreements between the Indians and the Dawes commission this tribe is referred to as the "Muskogee" or "Creek" tribe, and from this tribe the old trading post of Muskogee derives its name, this name being adopted by the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway company, which built through to Texas in 1872. As the home of the United States Indian agent for the Five Civilized Tribes in the early days, and the headquarters of the United States interior department officials, including the Dawes commission, which had the matter of the settlement of the business of the Five Civilized Tribes in hand, Muskogee naturally appropriated the name.

The town of Rich Hill was named for an obvious reason. The hill upon which it is located is rich in coal. The original postoffice from which the present town takes its name was established soon after the war two miles north of the present site. E. W. Ratekin, an old settler, was the principal factor in obtaining the establishment of the postoffice, and when the question of a name was under discussion he suggested that "Rich Hill" would be a very appropriate name, as he regarded the site of the office the richest coal hill in the country. This it afterward proved to be, the royalty on the coal alone paying the owner of the land more than $2,000 per acre.

The odd town name of Newkirk, Okla., came about in this way: The government first established a town called Kirk, about a mile and a half north of the present site of Newkirk. The town of Kirk was named for a man of the name of Kirk, who was in the employ of the government at that time. When the town of Kirk was moved to the new site it was given the new name, Newkirk.

LET ELECTRICITY WARM AND BRIGHTEN YOUR HOME!

The Mazda Tungsten Light!

ONE beauty of the Mazda-Tungsten light is the fact that it does away with the low hanging lights in the home, or the necessity of having a light close to your work at the office.

The Mazda-Tungsten gives such a bright light, and spreads its white glow so evenly over the whole room, that it can hang high up and out of the way.

The Mazda-Tungsten is the most perfect of all electric lights. It is from two to three times as bright as the common incandescent light. It has about two times the life of a carbon lamp. It can be run on as low a voltage as the simpler lights. Therefore, when you use Mazda-Tungsten lamps you get the best of all electrical illumination at the cost of inferior lighting.

Let us demonstrate the advantageous features of the Mazda-Tungsten and we believe you will choose this light for your home and for the office.

The Electric Radiator!

FOR the next two months it will be cold enough to make a fire necessary a part of each day. Try the Electric Radiator.

To make rooms absolutely comfortable, heat them with electricity.

Our Electric Radiators are especially adapated for the quick heating of the home or the office. We have both stationary and portable models.

The heat may be instantly turned off or on at will, thus eliminating the loss of time in preparing the furnace fire and waiting for the fire to heat up.

Wherever our Electric Radiators are in use, they receive nothing but the most enthusiastic commendation. These Radiators are so simple, so economical and so easy to operate, that we believe all homes and every office should be supplied with at least one.

We want to demonstrate all the advantages of the Electric Radiator, and point out to you how economically heating with electricity can be done.

NOTED SPEAKERS WILL BE PRESENT

At Annual Meeting of North Dakota Educational Association Oct. 23.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.) — With men of renowned educational authority from Boston and New York as lecturers, the feature of the annual convention of the North Dakota Educational association, to be held here Oct. 23-26, will be the several addresses by these lecturers before the general association and various departments. The officers of the association have completed the detailed program and predict that 1,500 teachers and educators will attend. It will be the biggest gathering held here in several years and the conventions committee of the Commercial club has already held preliminary meetings with a special committee of citizens for the purpose of planning entertainment for the visitors.

The increased attendance expected at this convention is due to the change in the time of the gathering which goes into effect for the first time this year. Formerly it was held during the holiday vacation and could not be made compulsory for the reason that teachers were not given their time. This year every teacher in the state will be allowed their time and must attend.

J. Adams Puffer of Boston, Mass., a specialist on vocational education, is one of the outside lecturers engaged. He will give two addresses before the general association, speaking the first day on "The Boy and His Gang" and the second day on "Vocational Guidance."

Dr. Hutchinson to Speak.

Dr. Woods Hutchinson of New York city is another modern educator and eminent authority who has been secured for two addresses. His lecture on "The New Education" will be the evening feature of the opening day of the convention while another address will be given on the second evening, his subject being "Fresh Air in the School Room and Elsewhere."

The promotion of the public playground movement is the motive in securing Dr. Henry S. Curtiss of Olivet, Mich. He also appears twice before the general association, speaking the second day of the convention on "The Playground Movement and Its Significance" at the morning session and on "The Message of the Playground Movement to the Teachers" at the evening session.

S. Henry Wolfe of Minot is president of the state association and will preside. F. G. Knowlton of Fargo is first vice president, Miss Thea Picard of Rugby is second vice president, Clyde R. Travis of Mayville is secretary and Richard Heyward of Grand Forks is treasurer. The election of officers to replace this staff is the business set for the morning session of the second day.

TWO INDIANS KILLED BY TRAIN IN IOWA.

Marshalltown, Iowa, Aug. 17.—James Money and his wife, both Indians, were killed, and George Youngbear, aged 14 years, was seriously injured when they were run over by a passenger train on the Chicago & Northwestern railway east of here. They were walking on the track, and the engineer did not see them in time to stop his train. The boy's arm was crushed, and he was otherwise badly bruised, but will recover. They belonged to the Tama reservation.

STEVENS MUST WAIT FOR DATA AS TO COAL.

Washington, Aug. 17.—There will be some delay in obtaining figures on the coal situation which Representative F. C. Stevens of Minnesota has asked the department of commerce and labor to furnish. Mr. Stevens called on Secretary Nagel to urge that the data be completed as soon as possible.

Secretary Nagel told him that while the statistics would be prepared in accordance with his request, they could not be tabulated hastily. Some of them must come from the bureau of mines, under the jurisdiction of the secretary of the interior. Other work must be done by the bureau of statistics. Both bureaus are now at work on the compilation, which Secretary Nagel said would be furnished as rapidly as the circumstances would permit. He could give no definite assurance as to the date of their completion.

PROPHET HILLES.

Charles Dewey Hilles—erstwhile secretary to President Taft and now chairman of the Republican national committee—has essayed a new role, that of political prognosticator. By his assumption of the prophecy business, Mr. Hilles has shown that he is determined to prove to the country that he is exceedingly versatile. Further than that, he has made up his mind that if you just believe a thing is so, it must be so. He would revise the old saying so as to make it read that "As a man thinketh in his heart, so things will turn out."

Except for these few points, Charles Dewey Hilles' entrance into the arena of prophecy would seem to have no particular significance except to demonstrate to what amazing lengths enthusiasm can lead a man of normal intelligence. For instance:

In his forecast of the result of the coming presidential election, Mr. Hilles made the statement that thirty-four of the states were sure to vote for Taft. Going more into detail, he named those thirty-four states.

In that list he included:

Indiana, which has its own governor in the second place on the Democratic ticket and which, in view of the pronounced progressive element in the state, should at least be counted as "doubtful."

Kansas, where the Taft electors were snowed under and the Roosevelt electors chosen in the recent primary.

Maryland, which is indulging in its first Republican governor in many a year.

Michigan, where the feeling against the president is so strong that the state convention developed into a riot.

Minnesota (save the mark!).

Missouri, proverbially Democratic.

North Dakota, which is extraordinarily progressive as opposed to the Taft reactionary policies.

New Jersey, with its own governor at the head of the Democratic ticket.

Wisconsin, in which Taft has just a shade less show than George III would have had in the New England colonies.

It looks very much as if Mr. Hilles is determined to turn humorist. Perhaps he takes the present campaign seriously, but that doesn't seem possible in the light of such a list of claims as he gave out at Chicago. He ignored the Roosevelt vote altogether, a fact that in itself indicates absolute failure to grasp the situation.

Mr. Hilles may feel very confident. He says he does, and it would be most rude to contradict him on so personal a matter as that. But there are limits of reason beyond which even confidence has no right to drag a man, and Mr. Hilles has been pulled far, far beyond those limits.

If he had said the president would get the electoral votes of ten states, his standing as a prophet would be unimpeachable. But thirty-four — and the thirty-four he named at Chicago—No, no!

Error Exposed.

Consul Griffith at Pernambuco, Brazil, reports that there has been ninety-three inches of rainfall there since the first of the year. And yet lots of people have thought the diplomatic service was a dry proposition.

GOING IT BLIND.

Once upon a time a man who probably had been aggravated more than usual burst out with the declaration that "the only respectable kind of a maxim is a maxim mum." Here's hoping that the dictum doesn't apply to rephrasing of old ones, for a case in Detroit, Mich., tempts to a recasting of that line about "Cut your coat according to your cloth." It is this—Pay the preacher according to your pile.

It appears that a young man and a young woman in Detroit decided to get married. They had a bit of money and as soon as they had decided to take the momentous step, they hurried off and picked out a wedding ring. Then they went to the preacher's house and the nuptial knot was tied.

Immediately the bridegroom found himself in a serious fix. With the first misgiving of his married life, he asked the reverend gentleman what his services were worth for the occasion. The pastor named a figure that was disconcerting to the happy bridegroom, but he was "game," and he paid it. And the result was that in order to get the money for the wedding breakfast the happy pair had to make a visit to the pawnshop, where the bride removed the wedding ring from her finger and handed it to the man behind the counter in return for a little ticket and a bit of money.

It would be interesting to keep track of that couple's married life. If they make a success of it with a start like that, the idea of financial plenty as a requirement for matrimonial success will get a serious jolt.

But the chances are all against a happy life for that couple, for the same lack of foresight that led to the necessity of pawning the wedding ring immediately after the ceremony is very likely to lead them into other hasty courses that will mar the bliss they hoped to attain. A little foresight now and then is a mighty good thing. It's as well, in marriage or anything else, to find out in advance, if you can, what the preacher is going to charge. Then, if you find your little pile will not stand the strain, put off the ceremony at least until after the next payday.

His Time's Coming.

Let the man who regards baseball as tame, cheer up. Football season is almost here.

MR. CASE'S RETIREMENT.

The announcement that L. N. Case, manager of the water and light department, has tendered his resignation because of a desire to remove to California where he has purchased a ranch, has been received with regret by all who are acquainted with the important work that he has performed. When the city purchased the water and gas plants from the Duluth Gas & Water company, Mr. Case was chosen by the commissioners as manager, in view of the splendid record he had made at Detroit, Mich., and it was soon seen that no mistake had been made in his selection. It was a work of great magnitude upon which he entered — the practical reconstruction of the old plants, the laying of the intake pipe and building of the pumphouse at Lakeside, in order that a pure water supply might be secured, and extending the service to many parts of the city which were without a supply. The gas plant was also modernized —in short it was necessary to practically reconstruct the water and light systems. All this was accomplished in a manner that won the commendation of the public. Mr. Case laid the foundations of municipal ownership in Duluth solid and secure.

While the work of construction and reconstruction was carried on, the people were also relieved of the burdensome high rates which formerly prevailed. The cost of water and gas to the consumers was steadily reduced, until today Duluth stands in the front rank of cities with municipally-owned water and gas plants, both in quality of service and cheapness of rates. Mr. Case's work has shown the value of municipal ownership and what may be accomplished under efficient and economical management. He retires with the confidence and respect of the citizens, and the hope will be general that he may live long to enjoy the pleasant surroundings of his new home.

POSTAL INSURANCE.

Some years ago F. W. Fitzpatrick, whom some at least of The Herald's readers in Duluth will remember as a former fellow citizen, interested The Herald in the project of postal savings banks. The Herald took the subject up and began to agitate for the plan. Other newspapers and individuals joined in, and today, in spite of long and bitter opposition, the postal savings bank in the United States is an accomplished fact. More than that, it is an acknowledged success, and the acknowledgement comes from its former opponents as well as from the men who favored it from the first.

Mr. Fitzpatrick did not originate, or claim to have originated, the idea of the postal bank. He saw the plan in operation in Europe, recognized the practicability of its application in this country, and started out to get it. And he got it. Now he has studied out another plan for making the postoffice yet more useful to the people, and once more The Herald is glad to join with him in trying to bring it to a realization.

This new plan, a sketch of which by its author will be found on another page of this paper, is that of postal insurance. Briefly stated, its object is to put within the reach of the man of small means, the day laborer and the small wage-worker, the same benefits of protection against poverty in age, suffering and want from illness, and destitution of families through the death of the husband and father, that now are within the reach of only those who can spare enough from their bare living expenses to enable them to buy expensive policies from the private companies doing such business.

A glance at the figures presented by Mr. Fitzpatrick will convince one of the value of the postal insurance plan. Here are some of the facts on which he bases his plea:

There are 35,000,000 employes in this country, and the average of their wages is only $433 a year. Our best economists agree that the lowest living wage is at least $600 a year; yet there are 21,000,000 working people who get less than $400. The result of this inability to do more than eke out an existence during the period of greatest working ability is that there are 1,250,000 former wage earners today dependent on the public or on relatives for support. Maintaining this same ratio, out of every 500 men now living, there will be 200 in abject want at the age of 65 years.

Under Mr. Fitzpatrick's plan, the investment of his own home postoffice of one per cent of his annual income would "provide an adequate premium for a postal insurance policy that will guarantee commensurate indemnity to one's family in case of his death, an annuity for his old age, and protection for the family in case of his sickness or injury by accident." The insurance would be given at cost, whereas Mr. Fitzpatrick points out that in the better of the industrial insurance companies now operating 37 per cent of the premium payments goes into salaries and expense accounts.

Against the cry of "paternalism" which he foresees will be raised to meet his plan, Mr. Fitzpatrick presents two unanswerable arguments. The first is that nothing "done for the people by a government of the people by the people" can properly be classed as paternalistic, but is rather simple self-helpfulness. The other argument is that a plan of insurance so conducted would be infinitely less paternal than the poorhouses, asylums, homes for the aged and such government institutions that now are pauperizing our people.

Mr. Fitzpatrick's suggestion and his presentation of it are full of the kind of thing that strikes home to a man. It is backed by the experience of European nations with less simple forms of providing for the protection of those least able to buy protection from the private corporations that sell it at rates so arranged as to insure profits to themselves.

Congress has yielded to the demands of the people in other things. Now let the people demand a chance to protect their families and themselves against want and dependence, and if the demand is insistent enough, congress will have to grant that, too.

Great Chance.

With a theatrical producer as foreman of the coroner's jury, what may we not expect in the way of dramatization of the Rosenthal case?

HOLD HARD!

Next Friday the last hearing will be held by the council committee on the proposed new housing ordinance. By that time, it is expected, such objections as have been or may be made to it will be reduced to writing and presented to the committee. On that date the final opportunity will be given the public to express its views. Some opposition to the restrictions proposed has appeared already, and it is not unlikely that much of this will be repeated then.

There is one thing that the framers and supporters of the ordinance must remember in their work, and that is that the purpose of the work is the betterment of the conditions in which human beings must live. Any suggestion that leads away from that point must be rejected.

Duluth is not now a city of slums. It is, according to experienced men who have studied conditions here and elsewhere, much better off in that respect than many other cities of similar size and topography.

We do not want Duluth to become such a city. We do not want people in Duluth forced to live as some are forced to live in other places. If we go wisely about the removal of such undersirable spots as we now have and the prevention of the establishment of others, we can make Duluth stand out pre-eminent as a city of clean and healthful homes and low death rate, and what is more, we can keep it in that position.

We have made a good start. Now we must hold hard to what we have, and see that nobody is allowed to keep us from making new progress.

Dear, Dear!

I. Townsend Burden says the old 400 has shunk to 238. How beastly plebeian!

LET US SHUDDER!

From Manila comes a report that will send a shudder down the mental spine of the nation. It is that the Philippine government, taking note of the short rice crop in the islands and fearing that somebody might corner it and put the price up just when people needed the rice most and were least able to pay a high price for it, has purchased small quantities of the grain and proposes to hold this in store so as to prevent later manipulation of the market.

This is the kind of thing that fills with horror such minds as those in New York's courts that refused to let the city of Schenectady sell ice at a reasonable figure to the poor people of the city. It is a practical application of government for the people. And there are some men in this country who cannot look with equanimity on anything like that.

It is terrible to consider what might happen if any such course as that adopted in the Philippines should be attempted anywhere in this country. Two Harbors, up in the northern part of our own state, tried to conduct a somewhat similar plan, with the coal supply as the base of its operations. There was an immediate protest and a deal of fuss and feathers over it before an adjustment was reached.

We must not forget, in spite of such horrible examples as this from the Philippines, that ours is a government of, by and for the people, but we must refuse to sanction anything that tries to make that phrase literal in its application. Therefore, when we think of this flyer in the rice market, let us shudder, and shudder hard. For if we do not, there may come a time when we will feel like shuddering at such a thing as this, and will wish we had improved the present opportunity.

Has Something Coming.

Medill McCormick says he was "amazed" at what he found out about the sentiment in New York state. If he has any amazement left he'd better hold onto it until November. He'll need all he can raise.

THE HUGHES BILL.

At least one good thing has come out of the present session of congress, and that is the enactment into law of the Hughes bill, providing for an industrial commission. There is no apparent limit to the value which such a commission could be to the nation. Not only in times of labor disputes, but when industry apparently is moving along in all smoothness, there are problems that constantly arise which such a body could study with great benefit to the people as a whole.

The wage question is brought forward so frequently that it often is considered the most pressing of all factors in the relations between labor and capital. But we should not lose sight of the questions of housing, of sanitation in working places, of the dozens of small matters that are rising daily here and there, and which, on being successfully solved in one place, could be solved yet more readily elsewhere if the successful experience were to become known.

Even apart from its direct work in the interests of industrial peace and well-being, the commission could establish a kind of clearinghouse of ideas in the industrial world and by that means give the entire country the benefit of the experience of each small portion.

Establishment of the industrial commission means a great step in advance in the industrial life and interests of this country. It should prove an active factor in furthering the well-being of both labor and capital, and in insuring healthful and human surroundings for the workers.

It is disappointing to find that President Taft will stoop to any means to throw the hooks into Col. Roosevelt. Now he has gone and appointed a Rough Rider to a diplomatic job in Persia.

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters should not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

WHAT A GNESEN FARMER THINKS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

In these changing circumstances of economic development only to a few of the hundred factors which enter into the constitutional growth and activity of Duluth generally heed and attention are given. The few receiving attention are enormous as icebergs and therefore cannot but call the public to their inviting presence. The many of lesser import although very influential paddle their way principally by fate and accident. They are too small to awake the attention of the hustling business man, and too unproductive to reach the conscience of the very very rich man and therefore must wait patiently until either they become more prominent so as to be noticeable, or until our business man will look with keener insight into the causes of economic development or lastly, until the remorse of conscience shall awaken even the rich to invest a few dollars in a noble cause which in general will promote the interests of Duluth and in particular those of the towns in the vicinity of that city.

Such in general is the philosophy of the farmer echoing and re-echoing as to the reasons why so little improvement is given to a town striving to enable Duluth to promote its interests and trying to benefit as much as possible humanity at large.

We had a railroad, but, sad to say, the company demanded an enormous amount for its maintenance and this could not be paid, so at present the rails are being picked. When at first it was rumored about its building, and later when already built the star of hope appeared sparkling on the threshold of every farmer. Now, too, with equal veracity it can be said that with its farewell will disappear the short but very usefully lived sparkling star of economic hope in Gnesen.

Something, also, was in the air about the building of a street car track from Duluth to Island Lake. This was met with great applause by all the farmers, for it certainly would go through Gnesen and so doing it would have benefited them very greatly. But to the surprise of everyone, the rumor was more fleeting than the clouds that come and go, for after some length of time some others appear, but this never reappeared. It is dead.

Now after two failings we are willing to try again and see whether we cannot be successful in the third attempt to get something to stir the attention of every soundly thinking one in the city by asking them to help us in the near future to get a telephone. At present the greatest distances north to which the telephone is stretched are Arnold and Calvary cemetery. From either of these places it would take but six miles to reach Gnesen, where many would be willing to have it in their homes. There are many reasons why it would benefit both farmers and city people. For the sake of clear perception it would be well to cite a few instances. Among the more common are accidents, such as runaway horses, automobile collisions, breakdowns, etc. These may demand medical attendance at once and how are you to get it? A doctor may arrive but the person is dead. What about those hurt in the woods, kicked by horses, smashed by logs, or those that cut themselves accidentally with an ax? If fire breaks out and someone is badly burned does he not at once demand medical service? How many of the above would survive if medical service would be but an hour earlier? Those who value their lives somewhat ought to give this thought sound deliberation and act accordingly. Now is the time. What a convenience to brokers and agents! Think of it, which is cheaper, to hire a team from the stable or talk to a farmer in Gnesen or reach for the receiver and say "Central, number so and so." Lastly what an enormous economic step of progress for the farmers; what an inestimable principle of saving time, protecting wagons and horses, avoiding discomforts of storms and blizzards. Are not farmers sometimes sick, also?

REGULATING THE SIZE OF LOADS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

It was with deep interest that I read the letter in your last evening's edition signed "A Subscriber," asking if there was not an ordinance in Duluth regulating the size of a load for a team. Some years ago a few people were interested enough to agitate the question, and tried to pass such an ordinance, only to fail, the excuse being given by the city attorney that the strength and size of horses varying made such an ordinance impossible. One horse would safely pull what another could not. Other cities, I believe, have passed the ordinance and have made a success of it.

If "A Subscriber" thinks Duluth horses are having unfair treatment in summer what would he think could he but see the horses falling all over the avenues after the ice storms that always come before the snow? It is indeed sickening and so few people care, that year after year no action is taken by the police, or arrests by the humane society, so the evil continues.

Is it not Boston that has the law, that if one witness says a horse or team is overloaded, that evidence in court brings a verdict of guilty by the judge and a fine for the teamster? Could not an agent be employed constantly on our avenues to try to regulate the loads? Surely there must be enough people interested in a city of Duluth's size to support such a one. This same agent could be sent on emergency cases when the humane agent is called out of town. Now there is no one, often for three or four days at a time, to investigate cases reported during his absence. If a horse is injured on our streets there is no wagon or ambulance to remove him without unnecessary suffering to a stable. Surely there must be enough people who wish to see our horses have fair play to help correct these evils.

A CITIZEN.

Duluth, Aug. 17.

Gambling Forbidden by Will.

Pittsburg Sun: By a will probated at Baltimore a young man is allowed the income of a certain sum of money by his aunt as long as he refrains from gambling in cards, races or any other sport or game. It is a wise precaution, justifiable even if the nephew has never shown a disposition to gamble. It will keep him freer than ever from temptation. It is a pity that provision is not made in every will against the use of money in a way that wrecks rather than builds up. Legacies in the hands of certain irresponsible individuals have done more than anything else to create a feeling against wealth. It is hard to behold such worthless individuals, who never contributed anything to the wealth of the community, enjoying the fruits of others' toil and ingenuity. Nothing could have a more wholesome effect than the spectacle of such irresponsibles being withheld from the foolish expenditure of money.

Imparted Valor Even to a Mouse.

Kansas City Star: A new arrival strolled into the lobby of a popular Muskogee hotel a few evenings ago and walked rather unsteadily to the desk to register. Turning to follow the porter to his room, there was a crash and bits of glass and an amber colored liquid spread along the floor.

Before a porter could be summoned to mop it up a tiny mouse crept from under the cigar counter and lapped greedily at the liquor. Then, mounting the edge of a cuspidor, the mouse exclaimed:

"Where is that cat that was looking for me last night."

MINNESOTA FOR WILSON.

Safe and Sane.

Laporte News: Governor Wilson's statement that he believes the tariff should be revised gradually and thoroughly will win him many votes among dissatisfied Republicans who believe it is the only "safe and sane" way of treating the question.

Thinks for Himself.

Cokato Enterprise: Woodrow Wilson, candidate of the Democratic party for president of the United States, absented himself from the public eye and mind for a few days past—to write his acceptance speech. Mr. Wilson is a man who acts and talks for himself and naturally is capable of writing his acceptance speech alone and in the American language, without the aid of any Bull Moose terms. He stands out today the strongest man in American politics. No trumpet announced his coming; he just appeared. Mr. Wilson is a man of knowledge, and to him belongs the honor and distinction of rising to political fame on his merits. He, as governor of New Jersey, engineered many needed reforms in that state, and who can foretell the good he can do as president of the United States?

Strong Favorite.

Princeton Union: Thirteen is not necessarily an unlucky number. Woodrow Wilson has thirteen letters in his name and at this time it looks as if he had about thirteen chances to one of winning.

Wise Republicans.

Cambridge Independent-Press: Old line Republicans throughout the state predict that Governor Wilson will carry Minnesota in the November election. Wilson stands for a square deal and the people know it.

"The Rule of Right."

Winona Independent: Woodrow Wilson's pet phrase is "the rule of right," and it somehow seems to have a more decent ring than the "square deal." It is time that some effort was made to divorce the science of government from the stock phrases of the gaming table.

Wilson Is Strong.

St. Cloud Times: Roosevelt is said to be very strong in the First, Second and Third congressional districts in the southern part of the state. In the northern part of Minnesota the progressive sentiment seems to center on Wilson. There are many who believe the fight in Minnesota is between Wilson and Roosevelt with Taft third man in the race.

Stamped as Statesman.

Luverne Journal: In his speech of acceptance Woodrow Wilson, Democratic nominee for president, gave voice to principles the belief in which stamp him as a statesman. Governor Wilson's position on the tariff is especially satisfactory. He is not desirous of going into office and "ripping" the tariff from one end to the other. He favors a gradual reduction of the duties so as not to create business disturbance. But he vigorously demands immediate action on those schedules which enable the trusts to maintain monopolies. And no man, Democratic or Republican, can dispute the soundness of his argument on that score.

"Hobble Skirts" and Silk.

New York Times: The mere fact, of course, that women's skirts have been shaped to their figures explains largely the recent consternation in the silk trade, since fewer yards of cloth are needed in making up the apparel and the silk underskirt has been quite eliminated. The American Silk Journal declares that the statement that 50 per cent less cloth is needed "is hardly an exaggeration." But it is believed that panic and ignorance have forced the wholesale price of silk down below the cost of manufacture.

The mills did not reduce their output. Instead, their sales agents cut prices—"cut, and cut, again and again"—permitting the buyers for retail houses to "dominate and to trample on the market." As a result, the retailers are selling more silks than ever before, and the basement bargain counters have reaped great profits. Now the silk men are taking thought about the situation. They denounce as an evil the supposed necessity of carrying stock by the mills. Too many widths are demanded; the color requirements change in a kaleidoscopic manner; while buyers narrow their demand to a few fabrics, with a resultant cut-throat competition in these lines among the makers. The mill men will eventually take care of themselves. Meanwhile the feminine wearers of silks are finding great bargains.

The New Gastronomy.

Hartford Times: Every New York newspaper carries a dispatch from Newport, telling of Mrs. Vanderbilt's latest contribution to the welfare of humanity. The marvelous woman has invented a new dish. No longer must Newport beguile its jaded taste with the preliminary ganoids unadorned. In a flash of brilliancy she served the caviar with hot griddle cakes. An achievement truly, for mere Rhode Island or mere New York! But what is it in comparison with the record of Connecticut? Southport shelters the gifted Commodore Jennings, founder of that delectable dish wherein a Welsh rarebit rises in superstructural magnificence upon a base of hot mince pie. In Ryelots abides the rotund Ed Beach, who taught an admiring constituency how to surround a ham and egg sandwich with an oyster stew and devour the two in glorious union. Minor Smith of the Sound shore, possesses the secret of mingling crab and lobster in perfect goulashian harmony, and Fred Gaylord of Ansonia remains a vigorous and vociferous testifier to the fact that the Compounce shades, which speak so eloquently of Gad Norton, remain, of all the world, the finest place to drink baked sheep.

Turkey Trot Kills Worms.

Washington correspondence New York World: M. M. Kickilghter of Groveland, Ga., has discovered a sure cure for the army worm, now devastating the Southern states. In a letter to the house and senate he says:

"I saw your advertisement in the Atlanta paper for aid to check the army worms. I had ten acres of corn and the army worms had just started in my corn, and I had a large drove of turkeys. I drove my turkeys in my field and they ate the army worms up in two days, and if it had not been for my turkeys I would not have had any corn now. That is the only way to get rid of army worms. If it had not been for my turkeys I would have lost 500 bushels of corn by these worms. That is the only way I know how to check these army worms, which are a pest to the farmers, and if they are not checked they will ruin the Southern farmers. So please send me a check for said amount, for that is the only way to destroy the army worms."

The Danger of Distilled Water.

Harper's Weekly: Continued use of distilled water reduces the strength of the physical organism, because, while distilled water is chemically pure and free from germs, it contains nothing but oxygen and hydrogen. The indispensable mineral salts are left behind during the process of distillation. As long as life persists in the body the elimination of mineral salts goes on and this means the rapid demineralization of the organism. Demineralization predisposes the system to tuberculosis. The numerous cases of tuberculosis among the young sailors of the French navy are attributed to the demineralization of the organism by continual use of distilled drinking water, the water used aboard ships of war, where every effort is made to protect the men from bad hygienic conditions of life below decks. The fact is regarded as of very serious interest. The surgeons of the French navy are studying the best means of treating the distilled water used aboard ship with mineral water.

The Right Expedient.

Louisville Courier-Journal: "Life is a burden to me."

"Take an interest in something. Have an avocation. Take up golf."

"Aw, life isn't worth living."

"Then take up aviation."

SATURDAY NIGHT TALK

Rough Diamonds.

Early and late I have known a good many of them; not the kind that they pick out of the soil of the Transvaal, but the kind that live in the next block, and sit beside you on the morning train to town, and belong to the same golf club. The diamonds in question are human beings and not stones.

To say that one is a "rough diamond" is to declare him kind and genuine at heart. It is also to infer that he is not nearly as attractive as he would be if his rough exterior could be trimmed and polished. The edges of "rough diamonds" are needlessly sharp and their beauty is only dull and undeveloped.

The rough diamond will jab you with careless words and vex you with tactless treatment even when you know he means well. You must put up with a lot of boorish conduct because you value him for what you know him to be underneath it all.

It may take persistent grinding to change an honest but blundering boor into a delightful friend and companion. The potential value of a gem becomes actual and market value after contact with the emery wheel. When they pulled the famous Cullinan diamond out of the "blue" earth of South Africa the rough monster weighed over 3,000 carats. It had to spend a year, however, in the shop of an Amsterdam lapidary before it was fit to shine in the British crown.

One who adds to his qualities of strength and courage, kindly and tactful courtesy has a power for good that is nearly irresistible. Manners, as Tennyson said, "are not idle, but the fruit of loyal nature and of noble mind." Far from being a mark of weakness they are the sign of strength and distinction. The late distinguished American artist, Mr. Abbey, related how when he was engaged in painting his most important historical canvas, "The Coronation of Edward VII," which required sittings from more than 100 distinguished personages, the most considerate and reasonable of them all were King Edward and Queen Alexandria themselves.

It is strange that young men do not more often recognize courtesy as a business asset. Honesty and energy are foundation qualities in the temple of success but politeness is one of the pillars. These are shops that one avoids, not because he will be treated dishonestly in them, but because he is pretty certain to be treated rudely. And, on the other hand, many of us will wait some time to deal with a clerk showing the instincts and behavior of a gentleman.

"Be courteous" is a Bible command and it is also a dictate of common sense. The boor does not realize how he loses out. Your good-natured, blundering fellow cannot understand how much needless pain he causes or he would surely mend his ways.

These clumsy feet, still in the mire
Go crushing blossoms without end;
These hard, well-meaning hands we thrust
Among the heart-strings of a friend.

The hope in the case is that even a rough diamond is a diamond still and needs only absolute polishing to emerge as a gem "of purest ray serene."

THE PARSON.

WHERE GERMANY HAS FAILED.

Portland Oregonian: An article in one of the current British reviews takes the astounding ground that German imperial diplomacy since Bismarck's death has been a failure. It is conceded by the author that the population of the empire has increased rapidly. Its actual growth has been from about 40,000,000 in Bismarck's time to 65,000,000. It is also admitted that Germany is today the richest country in Europe, surpassing either England or France in this respect. In commerce, also, the empire has made great advance, displacing England in some of the world's markets and successfully competing with British manufactures in England itself.

But there is another side to the matter. While Germany has been gaining so much in population, wealth and trade, it has been losing one diplomatic battle after another and has managed to acquire a reputation for insincerity and double dealing which must work to its disadvantage in future emergencies. Germany's diplomatic problem arises from two circumstances. The first is its exposed boundaries on the east and west, with an enemy ready to pounce upon it from either direction. The second is the presence of Austria on the south.

Comprised between Russia and France the empire is obliged to maintain an inordinately large military force in order to be reasonably secure. The kaiser, forgetful of this fundamental fact, has neglected the army for the sake of building up a navy. His maxim that the future of Germany lies upon the sea has led to what is supposed to be a dangerous weakening of the military arm. This error is made doubly serious by the decay of the triple alliance. Italy is more disposed at present to favor France than Prussia, while Austria is likely to be hostile in case there should be anything to be gained by it. Germany has plundered Austria on many occasions and must expect retaliation when the opportunity for it arises. On the other hand, a triple entente has grown up which includes France, England and Russia, so that Germany, as its need of allies increases, is likely to be more and more isolated. For these reasons our author concludes that the apparent strength of Germany is deceptive and that the empire is likely to collapse in the face of an attack by a first-class power.

He Struck Me!

A man I scarce knew, although he had my name,
Came into my office, repeating the same;
And talked for a moment of this and that;
Remarked that he thought I was putting on fat;
Referred to the weather, repeated a dull tale;
That I laughed at because 'twas exceedingly stale.
And then when I said I am busy today,
Whatever you've come for I wish you would say,
He struck me.

He struck me!
He struck me without any reason at all,
For a second I staggered and thought I should fall.
This stranger who'd asked of the health of my wife,
My cousins and aunts, and had picked up my knife
To manicure nicely his finger nails while
He used up my time in his own breezy style;
But I said, "Make it short, I am busy," and then
He struck me.
Yes, boldly he struck me—for ten!

An Extreme Measure.

Brooklyn Eagle: The police system is not newly accused of partnership with vice. It is newly accused of partnership with cold-blooded murder. The public is shocked not because of the protection of gamblers, but because killing a prospective informer is too bold and extreme a measure to be accepted just yet as a mere common incident of the system's operations. Later we may come to accept it in that way. At such high philosophy of apathy we have not yet arrived.

Jealous of the Candidate.

Baltimore American: "What's the trouble with the campaign glee club?"

"Disbanded. Our best tenor got jealous because he thought the candidate was getting more attention than he was."

TAFT AND THE TARIFF

By SAVOYARD.

Washington, Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Republican plan of battle is very simple, but not at all novel. It has been practiced repeatedly by the G. O. P. and several times with success. Business is to be alarmed and rallied to the rescue of the party of Rockefeller and Morgan, of Jay Gould and C. P. Huntington of Russell Sage and Kuhn, Loeb & Co., of Andrew Carnegie and Henry Clay Frick, of Edward H. Harriman and H. H. Rogers—in short, the party of Wall Street, of Monopoly and Privilege. The speech of acceptance delivered by Mr. Taft Aug. 1 is an appeal to capital to enter the campaign and maintain the present order of things, especially the tariff. Standing pat on the record of his administration, the president seeks to impress on business that he alone stands between it and Socialism, when, in fact, Socialism gets its being from the abuses that are the fruit of Republican rule. Had there been no favoritism in the tariff, we would never have heard of Socialism in politics.

There is shrewdness in the scheme of the president. In 1872 business was frightened by a declaration of Horace Greeley that "the way to resume specie payments is to resume." In August that year Greeley had Grant beaten, but the manufacturers, the bankers, the merchant princes were rallied and they forced cajoled their customers and their employes to support the Republican ticket and Greeley was disastrously defeated. Four years later the Democrats had for nominee the ablest business man as well as the wisest statesman in the country. Business refused to be alarmed. Tilden was successful and the party of "Great moral ideas" stole the election. In 1880 Hancock was as good as elected in September. He was indiscreet enough to felicitate the Democrat, Greenbacker, who was elected governor of Maine. That alarmed business. Levi P. Morton convened the Union League club and raised an enormous boodle fund with which the electoral vote of New York was bought in open market and Garfield was "elected."

That is the history that it is hoped to repeat by the party which would turn this country into a field cited in "On the Road to Mandalay," "Where there ain't no ten commandments," but "Even the weariest river Winds somewhere safe to sea."

And in 1912 the Democrats have the election nailed down if they can keep it nailed down, and they will prove themselves the most stupendous chumps in the world if they should fail. Mr. Taft would have the tariff question for paramount issue against both Wilson and Roosevelt. There is just one way to destroy the Socialist party and that is to extirpate from the laws the favoritism the Republican party has incorporated in them and Woodrow Wilson is the only candidate of the three who is willing and able to do that thing. Socialism is the offspring of the G. O. P.

The present tariff is not the work of congress, though it is named for the chairman of the ways and means committee of the house of representatives and the chairman of the finance committee of the senate of the sixty-first congress. Neither Aldrich nor Payne knew what was in the bill when it became a law, no man who was ever a member of either branch of congress knows what is in the bill now, and Taft, the day he signed it, knew less about the bill than anybody else who had anything to do with it. That bill as was the Dingley bill of 1897, the McKinley bill of 1890, the "Commission bill" of 1883, and every other tariff bill enacted by a Republican party was written by the manufacturers who got the swag. This is notorious. In a fit of candor the late John J. Ingalls besought the Republican party to put the protected manufacturers on the fire and fry enough fat out of them to buy the election of 1884. And that is what has been going on all the time and is going on now—so much tariff for so much "fat."

• • •

Why didn't Aldrich admit that his clerk, who was the secretary of the wool manufacturers of New England, wrote schedule K, and didn't the wool manufacturers vote that extra of some thousands of dollars for this work as soon as the bill was passed? Schedule K, that Dolliver made such heroic battle against, was not the work of Payne or Aldrich, or that clerk; but it was the work of the wool manufacturers of New England, who were thus allowed to levy tribute on every man, woman and child in the United States.

That is what makes Socialism. William Howard Taft by his approval of that bill as president of the United States, has made tens of thousands of Socialists since the summer of 1909, and now he beseeches "business" to enlist under his banner and help him fight Socialism in politics. It's infanticide.

• • •

Taft says protection doesn't increase the cost of living. Then what is it for? What service does it render the manufacturer if it does not enhance the price he may successfully charge for his wares? What practical use is it to him if he gets nothing out of it? Why does he suffer the Republican party to "fry fat" out of him if he gets nothing in return? What is he doing here every session bullying and buying and cajoling congress into allowing him to write entire protection in the tariff if he reaps no benefit from it?

Alexander Hamilton, who knew more about the tariff than all the Republicans together who have projected with the thing from 1854 until 1912, admitted that it increased the cost of living; but that is was necessary to establish industries and force the people to sustain them while they were infants. Daniel Webster, who had as much sense as Hamilton himself, was what they termed a "free trader" as late as 1824, when he said the office of a protective tariff is to tax the people en masse to support business that cannot support itself. And that is all a protective tariff ever was or ever can be. After Hamilton's "infants" got to be lusty fellows the advocates of protection changed their tune and said that protection was not for the infant manufacturers, but its office was to give the farmer a home market. And they let it go at that until the farmer concluded that he didn't care a damn whether the food he raised was eaten by a workman in New England or in old England. He was tired of the tax.

• • •

Then they made another wonderful discovery—that the tariff is not for the manufacturers' infant industry, not to give the farmer a home market, but to give high wages to American labor. The tariff was seventy years old before they found that out. They let it go at that—stood pat on it—for a long time and some of the simple-minded believe yet that manufacturers write high taxes in tariff bills for no other reason than that it adds to the price of that they have to buy. The people got tired of that nonsense, and then it was that William McKinley came out of the Western reserve with a miraculous revelation to mankind, and it was this—the mission of the tariff is to make things cheaper for the consumer. John Wanamaker knocked the trotters from under that absurdity by advertising that his goods would be advanced in price as soon as the McKinley tariff went into operation and the tin plate schedule of that tariff was an object-lesson to every householder.

• • •

And now comes William H. Taft with yet another revelation and it is this: The office of the tariff is to save the country from the clutches of Socialism.

When will the old fraud get to the last ditch? It is 123 years from the ditch Hamilton dug for it in 1789 to the ditch Taft dug for it in 1912.

THE SUPREME COURT AND THE CONSTITUTION. By Charles A. Beard, associate professor of politics in Columbia university. New York: The Macmillan company. $1 net.

The question, "Did the framers of the federal Constitution intend that the supreme court should pass upon the constitutionality of acts of congress?" forms the basis for this work.

The emphatic denials of such men as Chief Justice Clark of North Carolina and Dean William Trickett are given in Chapter One.

Chief Justice Clark, who is quoted from at length, says among other things: "Had the convention given such power to the courts, it certainly would not have left its exercise final and unreviewable. It gives congress power to override the veto of the president, though that veto was expressly given, thus showing that in the last analysis the will of the people, speaking through the legislative power, should govern. Had the convention supposed the courts would have assumed such power, it would certainly have given congress some review over judicial actions, and certainly would not have placed the judges irretrievably beyond 'the consent of the governed,' and regardless of the popular will by making them appointive, and further clothing them with the undemocratic prerogative of tenure for life.

"Such power does not exist in any other country, and never has. It is therefore not essential to our security. It is not conferred by the Constitution, but, on the contrary, the convention, as we have seen, after the fullest debate, four times, on four several days, refused by a decisive vote to confer such power."

For the affirmation the author begins with the statement: "No proposition to confer directly upon the judiciary the power of passing upon the constitutionality of acts of congress was submitted to the convention. On this point a statement made in Chief Justice Clark's address, cited above, is misleading. The proposition which he refers, and which forms a part of the Randolph plan, was to associate a certain number of the judges with the executive in the exercise of a revisionary power over laws passed by congress. This is obviously a different proposition. Indeed, some members of the convention who favored judicial control opposed the creation of such a council of revision, as the question of judicial control, accordingly, did not come squarely before the convention, in such form that a vote could be taken on it."

In defense of this position the author quotes largely from the "Fathers," as he terms the framers of the Constitution. The strongest quotation is that of Hamilton's, taken from the "Federalist," in which he says: "The complete independence of the courts of justice is peculiarly essential in a limited Constitution. By a limited Constitution I understand one which contains certain specified exceptions to the legislative authority; such, for instance, as that it shall pass no bills of attainder, no ex post facto laws, and the like. Limitations of this kind can be preserved in practice no other way than through the medium of the courts of justice, whose duty it must be to declare all acts contrary to the manifest tenor of the Constitution void."

Governor Morris, speaking of his part in the work of framing the Constitution, says: "Having rejected by redundant and equivocal terms, I believed it as clear as our language would permit; excepting, nevertheless, a part of what relates to the judiciary. On that subject conflicting opinions have been entertained with so much professional astuteness that it became necessary to select phrases which, expressing my own notions, would not alarm others nor shock their self-love."

That some things were left to posterity we learn from a speech made by Abraham Baldwin, a member of the convention from Georgia, who said: "The few (subjects) that were left a little unsettled might without any great risk be settled by practice or by amendments in the progress of the government." He believed this subject of rival powers of legislation and treaty was one of them and some questions relative to the judiciary another.

One chapter deals with the temper and mind of the states ratifying the Constitution, and under this head quotations are made from John Marshall, Grayson and Wilson, showing that the states were not ignorant of the power of the judiciary under the proposed Constitution.

Of Marshall, the writer says, "It is true that it was Marshall who first formally declared an act of congress unconstitutional; but the fact should not be overlooked that in the case of Hylton vs. the United States the supreme court with Ellsworth as chief justice and Paterson as associate (both members of the convention) exercised the right to pass upon the constitutionality of an act of congress imposing a duty on carriages."

In closing the writer says, "In the face of the evidence above adduced, in the face of the political doctrine enunciated time and again on divers occasions by the leaders in the convention, it certainly is incumbent upon those who say that judical control was not within the purpose of the men who framed and enacted the federal Constitution to bring forward positive evidence, not arguments resting upon silence."

The author, manifestly having decided the question affirmatively in his own mind before starting, makes a clear and intelligent study from his viewpoint. There is this to be considered, however, that even granting that the framers of the Constitution intended the courts to have absolute veto power over legislation, unchecked by an authority, the question today is not so much what the Fathers intended, but what the people of this enlightened age desire. Whether they have the right or not, the courts do veto legislation, and they have the final say unless the people amend the Constitution. The question of what the Fathers intended is academic; the question of what the people of the United States today want is practical and important.

LAME AND LOVELY: Essays on Religion for Modern Minds. By Frank Crane, author of "Human Confessions," etc. Chicago: Forbes & Co. $1.

Mr. Crane's religion seems to be the religion of common sense—and that is nothing at war between common sense and Christian gospel. Certainly he uses common sense in treating his subject—or subjects, for there are many divisions of his main subject. He is cheerful, sane, optimistic, penetrating. This book of charming essays on "lame and lovely" humanity will be greatly relished by all lovers of stimulating and refreshing literature.

Among the Magazines.

Lippincott's August number opens with an unusually bright and entertaining novelette—"Lady Make-Believe." This is the first long story of a writer whose short-stories are attracting wide attention—Florence Selden Peple. The scenes are laid on an ocean liner and in Paris. The author displays a delicious sense of humor, as well as strong descriptive powers. Among the short stories is a remarkable one called "Yellow Water," by Will Levington Comfort, whose time is too fully taken up with writing "best sellers" to do much in this line. Other interesting stories are "The Heritage of the Serpent," by Stanley Olmsted, and "A Belated Rosebud," by Emily Newell Blair. A new series of "Short-Story Masterpieces" starts in this number, Russian authors now being represented.

There is a fascination in reading the account of two great political conventions in one magazine, written by one man. The National Magazine for August contains as its feature article "The Passing of Great Political Conventions," written in the easy and colloquial style of Joe Mitchell Chapple. The struggles at the Coliseum in Chicago and at the convention hall in Baltimore are pictured in Joe Chapple's own unique way, from personal observations on the firing line.

The leading place in the Engineering Magazine for August is devoted to the first of a series of articles by Edwin C. Eckel on American iron ore reserves. This series will discuss certain phases of the iron ore reserve problem, in both its industrial and political relations, including consideration of the manner in which the American ore reserves are now held, and of the factors which limit the extent of the control; estimates of the total extent of the American and tributary reserves, and of the probable future demands upon them; and determination of the elements involved in the valuation of such reserves.

"Burbury Stoke," a summer novel by the author of "The Clammer," of happy memory, is published complete in the August Atlantic. The flavor of Mr. Hopkins' stories outlasts their entertaining plots, and the sunny atmosphere of "Burbury Stoke" is full of the whimsies which the author's name suggests. For summer discussion this issue of the Atlantic presents two fruitful topics,—Woman, as an impersonal being, creator, as the author maintains, of nothing individual, but conserver of the race and so the channer of race progress to which she contributes nothing, and that other question which will not down, "Filling the Churches." The Atlantic treats this in two spicily contrasted articles, one on "The Church and Smith" and the other on "Smith and the Church."

The Popular Science Monthly for August opens with an article on the eminent mathematician Gauss and his American descendants, by Prof. Florian Cajori of Colorado college; Prof. Richard M. Pearce of the University of Pennsylvania, contributes the fourth of a series of articles on what has been accomplished by medical research; Dr. Edward F. Williams of Chicago reviews the development of modern thought in its relation to science.

The August number of the World's Work is dedicated to the Panama canal. William Bayard Hale, from personal observation, describes the works as they appear now, practically completed, waiting for the freeing of the waters. Farnham Bishop characterizes the feats and the humors of the builder of the canal, the benevolent despot of Panama—Col. Goethals. Edward Neville Vose by means of pictures, maps and exposition, shows how the new waterway will alter world-trade, and C. M. Keys, demonstrates the effect it will have on our own transcontinental trade routes.

In Harper's for August, W. D. Howells, writing of the Spanish city of Toledo, points out the interesting fact that the population has decreased from 200,000 to 20,000, so that every one has his own house. Arnold Bennett contributes his fifth paper on his impressions of the United States, pronouncing our sleeping cars "worse than Siberian prisons" and calling American homes the most comfortable in the world. "Grim Grand Manan" is the title of an illustrated description by Holman Day of the Island off the Maine coast. Albert Bigelow Paine tells of Mark Twain's now forgotten speech at the great Grant dinner in Chicago in 1872. He had been asked to respond to "The Ladies," but changed his toast to "The Babies,"

For covering furniture in summer, a writer Harper's Bazar for August says that crash toweling makes far more artistic slip covers tha nthe ordinary linen so long used for that purpose. This ordinary linen, however practical, is unconsciously associated with hotel furniture and theater seats in the minds of most of us. Surely we can be a little original. The gray Russian crash harmonizes with almost any color scheme and does not wrinkle easily, but it is narrow. That is its great disadvantage.

The leading fiction offering of Woman's World for August is the first installment of a new serial of romantic adventure, "The Dare Devil," by Mrs. Baillie Reynolds. S. R. Crockett's "Sandy the Perfervid" is concluded in this issue. Arthur Henry contributes a short story, "Only Jenkins." Herbert Kaufman writes an editorial of sympathetic encouragement to the poor boy, and other articles of up-to-the-minute interest. "Life's Healings," by Dr. Frank Crane; "The Girl That Happens Herself," by Maude Radford Warren; "The Woman That Is Disliked," by Dr. Edith B. Lowry; "Tips," by Berton Braley, are other attractions of this number.

Sir Gilbert Parker is a notable contributor to the August Metropolitan with "Life-Pieces from Arizona," a series of entertaining sketches of personal experiences in the Southwest. Another excellent feature is Brand Whitlock's human analysis of the political conventions, with character sketches by Art Young. The second of Morris Hillquit's articles on "Socialism Up To Date," is a succinct and telling account of "The Causes that make for Socialism."

"What a Girl Expects of a Man," is the subject of a lively article in the August Woman's Home Companion. Another interesting article in the same number is an account of how a girl can earn her way through college—at least partially. The author of the article is a girl who did the very thing she writes about. A feature of considerable importance, as well as interesting, is an account of "The American Girl Out of Doors," in which J. Nilsen Laurvik reports the great development of athletics among women in America, especially in the colleges and boarding schools.

For dull hours and hot days take August Ainslee's. "Where couldn't he a better tonic." "The Eternal Two," complete novelette, by Marie Conway Oemler, will prove this, so clever its dialogue, so interesting its Bad Girl Lady, its audacious Irish hero, and its sadly rich young Doine. "Duke Rafferty, Prohibition Cop," by Robert E. MacGlarney, is an invigorating, breezy story, presenting with keen understanding and humor many interesting phases of New York life.

The August American Magazine is a story number. It contains an amusing love story told in baseball varnacular by George Fitch; a dog story by John A. Moroso; a love story by Lucille Baldwin Van Slyke; a remarkable yarn by Albert Hickman about a drunken man who bragged too much and got "taken down a few pegs;" a story of adventure and gambling, by William J. Locke; an Emma McChesney story by Edna Ferber; andd a Phoebe and Ernest story by Inez Haynes Gillmore.

The vacaton number of Outing contains a golf article by Harold H. Hilton—of international fame, a discussion by Dillon Wallace of the proper equipment for canoe cruising, and an article upon the relative advantages of the yawl, ketch and schooner rigs for small craft by Herbert L. Stone. Stories of the real outdoors by Nevil Henshaw and Frank H. Crawford and Hulbert Footner's account of the "Unexplored Rivers in the North" are in keeping with the season.

The summer season is always marked by a greater activity in aeronautics, and all the month's events, disasters and developments are described in the August number of Popular Mechanics Magazine. Chief among these are the motorless man-flight tests in France made with machines called "aviettes" or, as H. H. Windsor dubs them in an editorial, "flying bicycles;" new wireless installations for aeroplanes; the first hydro-monoplane; latest war dirigible of the French army, and the Vanniman airship disaster, which marks the end of the American attempt to cross the Atlantic by airship.

There is a sketch for older readers of St. Nicholas in the August number—a narrative of the noble life and splendid work of that English hero of whom Sir William Butler said: "Absolutely without parallel in our modern life, Charles George Gordon stands out the foremost man of action of our time." Additional interest attaches to the sketch when it is known that the author, Hamilton Fish Armstrong, was still a lad in school when he wrote the article.

"Short-bred," Peter B. Kyne's new novel, which is printed complete in the first September Popular Magazine, is the life story of a jockey. It has the charm and human interest that goes with an intimate study of any life. It has excitement and stir and color. "Short-bred" shows the racing game from the inside. You can see the ugly seams where the picturesque cloak that surrounds the race track is stitched together. The novel embodies the story of the passing away of the race track in one state. It is a big piece of work.

Fifty-seven varieties of millionaires and multi-millionaires, not to mention the many multi-millionaires, have so pauperized Greenwich, Conn., the second richest town in America, that the citizens became very loath to pay good money for what they might get by a little judicious begging. In "The Rich Town and The Poor Schools," May Ayres in The Survey for August tells how dependence on chance and indiscriminate charity has resulted in conditions which, when skillfully brought home to the taxpayers through an exhibit, shamed them for the first time into serious consideration of their neglected schools.

The Wide World for August is a particularly interesting number. A. E. Johnson describes and illustrates "The Black Forest and Its People;" Randall R. Howard writes a stirring paper on "Hunting the Wild Horses of the West," and Jack Woodson describes "The Dog-Derby of Alaska." John Boyes continues the romantic story of "How I Became a King," and F. Harris Deans brings to a conclusion the amusing account of his European walking tour in which he covered fourteen hundred miles on foot.

This week's Life is not a special number, for which let us be duly grateful. Among other things it contains an admirable sattre, entitled "Why Not Be in Harmony with the Universe?" and is a humorous take-off on psychical matters which will be read by a great many people. Life's contest, "What's on the Signboard?" continues this week, with a prize of one hundred dollars.

In the issue of Harper's Weekly for Aug. 10 appears a continuation of the "Progress of a Campaign" feature, in which the editor diarizes the salient events of the political struggle. The secretary of commerce and labor contributes an article entitled "A National Chamber of Commerce." Other articles in this number are: "The Mayor Behind the Goats"—the story of an Arkansas boy's courage—by Joseph P. Watkins; "The Inexcusable Rear-end Collision," by William Inglis; "Who Cares for a Cent?" by Richard M. Winans; "Roosevelt's Morality Play," by A. Maurice Low; "A Republic of Fishermen," by M. C. Krarup; "Bryan, Wilson, and Democracy," by Sydney Brooks.

POSTAL INSURANCE

By F. W. FITZPATRICK.

Since the mighty Senator Platt was gathered to his fathers there is some hope that before long we will have parcels post. Already postal savings has been in operation for a year and still we are clamoring for one more postal advantage—postal insurance. They throw "paternalism" at us, but we don't rear and kick. We are not shouting for the government ownership of everything, but we do believe that, within reasonable bounds, the government can do some things a little better than can the individual or the private corporation. Moreover, can anything be done for the people by the government of a people by the people properly be called "paternalistic"? Isn't it rather merely self-helpfulness?

It took twenty years of hard work, tons of printers' ink and endless hammering at congress to get postal savings through. The bankers were the chief opponents and they feared Comptroller Murray Crane, but when their private savings petition with their private savings banks. They've wakened up to the realization that instead of hurting them, postal savings has already materially helped them. People can only have a limited amount in postal savings, they get into the habit of saving and after that limit is passed put the larger sum in other banks, invest it in land, or buildings or industrials, they become embryo capitalists. And postal savings is doing it. It cultivates the saving habit. It makes it easy to save. It puts a government depository, safe and near, within the reach of everyone. Soon there will be an opportunity to deposit money in every one of our 60,000 postoffices, at every crossroads and water tower village. No more occasion for putting money away in bed ticks or hiding it under hearths. The government and the banks have pronounced it a success and no longer an experiment. Why it should have been thought the latter is beyond me, for it has been the successful operation in Great Britain and other lands since 1861, and ours was the last of civilized nations to adopt it.

And now we are clamoring for postal insurance. We do not ask for or want the compulsory insurance Great Britain is reluctantly adopting at the behest of an ultra-socialistic and powerful labor party, nor do we particularly desire the German form of industrial insurance whereby the employers and employes to aid in insuring their employes and the government itself contributes to that insurance. These things do savor of "paternalism."

We simply ask that along with its postal savings banks our government should give us an opportunity to buy life, sickness and accident insurance and annuities under government guaranty, managed by the government with offices wherever there is a reasonably sized postoffice and at cost.

True, there are all kinds of insurance these days, and most of our business men carry a lot of it in its different forms. But only the better off can pay the cost of those tontine, straight life, health and accident policies. Naturally the companies are organized for gain, and fat salaries and dividends have to be paid. The poor man can't touch these policies, they are beyond him. So if he thinks of it at all, he betakes himself to the industrial companies and there, generally, he is fleeced good and plenty. A milder term might be used but I can't see it any other way than "fleeced." Most of those companies are catch-penny affairs, here today and defunct tomorrow, glaring frauds in most part. In the better ones 37 per cent of the premiums received goes into salaries and expense accounts; in Postal Insurance but a little over 1 per cent is needed for that account! One of our oldest industrial companies, just for instance, in a certain number of years has taken in $287,000,000 in premiums and has paid out but a trifle over $92,000,000 to its policy holders. Besides over 70 per cent of its poor patrons drop out in less than three years' time and lose all that they have put in. In postal insurance there are no lost premiums.

And the working man, the laborer, the house servant, the farm hand, needs insurance it anyone does. Think of it! 35,000,000 employes in this great and prosperous land receive a wage averaging only $433. Our best economists agree that, reduced to the lowest denomination, a living wage has to be at least $600 a year. Twenty-million working people get less than $400. Is it to be wondered at, therefore that there are 1,250,000 former wage earners, passed 65 in age, who are in want, supported by public or private charity, a load upon the community or more favored relatives? Who, with a family and earning $600 a year, can pay the high insurance rates charged by private insurance companies, either the old-line reliables or the wild-cat Industrials?

It's a rather gloomy outlook, I grant you, but a fact, nevertheless, that of every 500 of us men now living, rich and poor, by the time we have reached 65 at least 200 of us will be in abject want! Of our paupers class eight-tenths are people who are over 65. Yet, even at the low average wage it is possible to make some provision for the future, but only possible via governmental postal insurance. It takes just 1 per cent of a man's annual income to provide an adequate premium for a postal insurance policy that will guarantee commensurate indemnity to one's family in case of his death, an annuity for his old age and protection to the family in case of one's sickness or injury by accident.

The thought of a poverty-stricken, dependent old-age is maddening. Eliminate that probability and you have a different type of man. Don't do it as a charity, simply arrange it so that the man can do it for himself. Give him the opportunity. The government can and should give its people that opportunity. That sort of helpfulness is desirable and commendable, better far than that it is giving us now, infinitely less "paternal" than the "poorhouses," asylums, homes for aged and such government institutions that are pauperizing our people. Give us postal insurance and it may not empty those poorhouses, but we can rest well assured, it certainly will contribute immensely to the lessening of the numbers that are now headed in that direction.

The management and distribution of offices, the handling of funds and all such matter are purely detail. The postoffice department is getting its postal savings machinery into prime working order and this need be but an additional feature, not a separate matter. It has the experience of all of Europe to draw upon, where such insurance has long been established; it is progressive and American enough surely, to devise extra safeguards, ease of operation, advantages to its patrons, the people, all its very own and far superior to the European brand. The one thing we need worry over is to get the matter properly before congress, and we've gotten other things, we thought we were entitled to, and if we but keep together and give a good and a long pull we'll get postal insurance too.

TUESDAY—Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Cutler will entertain in honor of Miss Carolyn Marshall at a dance at the Northland Country club.

WEDNESDAY — The Staples-Holgate wedding, the Kennedy-Hill wedding and the weekly sports at Oatka branch of the boat club.

THURSDAY—The weekly bridge tea and dinner dance at the Country club.

FRIDAY—The midsummer party of the Assembly will be held at the Spalding hotel.

The leading event of the past week in social circles was the country fair given by the King's Daughters Thursday afternoon and evening. It was for the benefit of the fund for founding a day nursery, and proved a great success in every way. There were about 2,500 people in attendance, and approximately $1,000 was realized. The young women demonstrated their executive ability in the way they conducted the fair.

Other social affairs of interest were the reception and dance given by Mrs. A. M. Marshall Wednesday afternoon and evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Carolyn; the luncheon given Thursday noon at the main house of the boat club by the auxiliary to the St. Louis County Medical association, to the wives of the physicians in attendance at the State Medical association in session here this week, and the numerous dinners, luncheons and showers given for the brides-to-be.

Today was to have been the annual women's day at the boat club, but the weather prevented the program being carried out, and it was postponed one week.

Mrs. E. W. Bohannon of 2223 East Fifth street gave a reception Tuesday afternoon. The color scheme was in yellow. The decorations in the living room were in pink poppies.

Mrs. Bohannon, assisted by Mrs. Claude Washburn, received on the lawn. Assisting on the lawn were Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Costello, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Stocking and Mrs. Pardee.

Miss Genevieve Washburn, assisted by Mrs. O'Donnell, presided in the dining room, and Mrs. Douglass, assisted by Mrs. Fesler in the living room.

Events of Interest

Miss Ruth Kennedy, one of next week's brides, was the guest of honor at the bridge party given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Gage Baldwin at their home, 2016 East Fifth street. The decorations were in yellow and white. There were forty guests present.

LITTLE PATIENT AT ST. LUKE'S SHOWS ABILITY AS ARTIST

LAURIE MACKIE AND HIS CHUM, ENO.

Laurie Mackie, a very bright, clever little boy of 12 years, has been an inmate of St. Luke's hospital since last November, but is very much improved and will be sent to Nopeming soon, where he is expected to recover his full strength.

Laurie is very clever with his fingers and has quite a keen sense of humor. He has done some very clever bits of drawing and delights in enlarging the drawings of The Herald cartoonist, C. F. Naughton.

He has also carved a very excellent bow and arrow gun with his penknife.

Laurie enjoys fishing, too, and several of his men friends who have been patients have taken him out with them for the day.

Little Eno, who is in the picture with Laurie, is a very great friend of Laurie's, who wanted very much to have Eno in the picture with him.

Weddings

A very pretty home wedding occurred Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crassweller of 4701 Cook street, when their daughter, Elsie Irvine, became the bride of LeRoy William Deetz.

The bride entered the room escorted by her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march.

The ceremony was performed under a bower of palms, smilax and daisies in the presence of the immediate families.

Rev. F. J. Barackman performed the ceremony.

The bride's gown was of ivory satin trimmed with duchess lace and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. There were no attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Deetz left immediately for a trip down the lakes and will be at home at 1924 East Dingwall street after Oct. 1.

THAT boy of yours—it seems like yesterday that mother mourned the transition from skirts to trousers—his rocking horse will soon give way to the baseball and the pigskin.

HE'S developing, changing every day, and you haven't had his picture taken in more than a year—yes, it's two years last Christmas.

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Beware of the Jilted Lover.

Nearly everyone will agree that a spite marriage is ample cause for a divorce, if there are any conditions when a severance of matrimonial ties can be justified. The sacrifice of either man or woman on the altar of wounded vanity is one of the cruelest things that human heart can conceive.

Very recently a woman received a decree on the ground that her husband had been jilted by a former sweetheart before he married her and had never really loved her, as subsequent treatment proved. No great number of marriages are deliberately entered into in a spirit of retaliation against the one who has broken faith. Such marriages are commonly the outcome of friendliness and sympathy extended to the dejected and despairing lover by one of the opposite sex at a time when sympathy is very soothing.

Gratefulness has been mistaken for love, in the opinion of the individual suffering in the affections, many more times than the jilted person has wantonly linked his life with one for whom he felt no love, for the short-lived satisfaction of "getting even."

Yet it has been done with malice and forethought, and the victim is deserving of our prayers and tears and entitled to such redress as the law dispenses. The man or woman who purposely to spite someone and fails to maintain the illusion of love with the one victimized is deserving of the harshest censure. No mercy should be shown the creature who deceives another in the deliberate process of trying to appease an ignoble pride.

Of a certainty, men and women have wed under such circumstances fully intending to do their whole duty as loving helpmates. Very often they have understood that they were not capable of bestowing an ardent love, but they have respected and admired the one whom they have joined unto themselves and have meant so to conduct matters that love and its fair accompaniments should not be lacking in the life of the other.

However, they have not always been able to cope with the difficulties that have arisen, nor have they reckoned with the susceptibility of the partner to such an existence, who, if really in love, is likely to be most keen to its defects or to an assumption of feeling that does not exist. Sometimes the unhappy conclusion of such marriage is brought about by the innocent one, who scents the falseness of her position; sometimes by the jilted lover husband, who finds the life he thought tolerable, positively impossible.

A few words of warning can be interjected here without more ado. They are directed to those who have commenced to feel more than a passing interest in one whose heart has been rejected. Remember—a heart caught on the rebound cannot be relied upon to remain steadfast, even when it bestows its attentions with such persistency that one is entitled to believe that it is staunch and true.

Sympathy is sweet to all, but especially, does womanly sympathy and acquiescence appeal to the man-heart shorn of its vanity and wounded deeply in its pride. A heart caught on the rebound should be tested long and carefully before it is accepted as a true lover's heart, for that reason.

Foreword

Grand Exhibition of Wonderful Fabrics to Be Worn By Society's "Elect" the Coming Social Season.

Announcement

Antedating the Fall Exhibit of New York and Chicago houses by several weeks, Donaldson's announces to the ladies of Duluth the formal opening of an unprecedented display of marvels of loom and shuttle.

Exclusiveness

In accordance with our custom, the peculiar and distinctive richness of the Donaldson importations have been safe-guarded. Duplications are impossible.

For "Grande Toilettes"

In evening silks, the ultimate has been reached. Gorgeous brocades, reminiscent of the Courts of the Georges in their brilliant colorings, stiff with threads of gold and of silver, marvelously unique in their Eastern dyes and rarely beautiful designs, are unsurpassed in loveliness. Also the clinging textures, bordered, and in new blends of design and weave, are in infinite variety and limitless in rainbow and opalescent tints.

Velvets

The velvets, velveteens and corduroys are in a full and complete range of colors and shades. Woven in widths to forty-two inches, in chiffon as well as heavier weights, and in matchless silkiness of pile, they comprise an assortment that cannot be equalled in the Northwest.

Suitings

Innovations in wools for the coming season include a ridged cord diagonal of silk and wool, heavy and lustrous, and some especially rich poplins. Scotch mixtures, broadcloths and whipcords are in standard and many new colors. These are in varied weights for coat suits or one-piece frocks. New ideas in coatings are also markedly different from last year's designs.

Engagements

Modistes are now booking engagements for fall toilettes and the shopping has commenced. Restricted and limited novelties will not be obtainable later on, and where these exclusive patterns are desired, it is advisable to make the selection soon.

The Display

The Exhibit is complete. Every field of high grade materials is represented, and all await your inspection.

DULUTH ACTRESSES AND THEIR PLANS FOR THE COMING THEATRICAL SEASON

MISS LAURA FRANKENFIELD.

Duluth has a growing list of young women who are earning a reputation for themselves in theatrical circles, and their plans for the coming season will be of interest to their friends here.

Miss Laura Frankenfield, who is playing this summer with the Shubert Stock company in Minneapolis, will finish her engagement Sept. 1. Miss Frankenfield has received a very flattering offer to head Gilson & Bradfield company of the West, but owing to the state of her health has decided to rest for the winter. Miss Frankenfield, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. Frankenfield of 307 East Third street, will leave for California about Jan. 1, where they will spend the winter.

MISS EDNA MUNSEY.

Miss Adelade Thurston, who is spending the summer in Switzerland, is expected home about Sept. 1.

Amelie Rives, the novelist, has spent the summer dramatizing one of her most popular novels, "Hidden Douse," for Miss Thurston, who contemplates starring in this play this season.

Miss Edna Munsey has signed a three years' contract with Al. H. Wood and expected to appear in "Tantalizing Tommy," which will open for an indefinite run in Chicago Aug. 30, but owing to Miss Munsey's serious illness last month she was unable to go to New York for rehearsals. She will appear in one of the Al. H. Wood productions this coming season, either in New York or Chicago. Miss Munsey, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. George S. Munsey of 1432 East Superior street, will leave for New York Monday.

Renee Vivian Smith, Duluth's dramatic opera singer, is in New York and will continue singing in comic opera this winter.

STUDIED WITH FAMOUS PIANIST

MISS EDNA HARRIS.

Miss Edna Harris of Lakeside, one of Duluth's most promising pianists, has returned from Chicago, where she has been studying with Mrs. Fanny Bloomfield-Zeisler and her assistant, Miss Delia Thal, for the past six weeks.

THE SUMMER COMPLEXION

In one way the summer is a boon to the beauty seeker. There is nothing so beneficial to the skin as profuse perspiration, as it cleanses the pores of impurities in a way that no Turkish bath can accomplish, writes Mme. Jeanne La Place in the Woman's World.

To help this process, drink plenty of cool, fresh water. Don't drink ice water; it creates rather than quenches thirst, retards the digestion of food, and may cause serious intestinal troubles.

On the other hand, the end of the summer will find many women in despair over their complexion troubles. For one thing, it is sometimes difficult to get hot water for washing purposes in the summer. You cannot keep the skin clean by washing exclusively in cold water; indeed, if the face is really grimy, the cold water will "set" the dirt. Insist on the daily warm bath for your complexion during the hot weather if you have to heat the water over an oil stove.

A good deal of trouble caused by tan and sunburn is due to carelessness. Don't go out in the hot sun without a hat. A bad case of sunburn is a serious matter, from which the complexion may be long in recovering.

If your skin becomes seriously tanned or burned, don't neglect it until you go home from your vacation of until the weather is cooler. It may then be too late to repair the damage.

Never wash the face in cold water immediately after exposure—use water as hot as you can bear it. Fresh buttermilk is an excellent remedy for the sunburned skin. Wash the face in it as if with water, and allow it to dry in.

It is better not to use soap on the skin if it is irritated and inflamed. Apply cloths wrung out of hot water to the face until the impurities are removed. Then dry the face carefully and rub in (while the skin is still warm) a liberal supply of cold cream. Remove the surplus cold cream with a soft cloth, and apply cloths dipped in cold water to the face. Do this several times. The water for the last application should contain a few drops of benzoin, or an astringent should be dabbed into the skin before the powder is applied.

A half hour's attention to the complexion every night during the hot weather will prevent roughening and coarsening of the skin that is often the result of the vacation season.

A PICKUP LUNCHEON

From Good Housekeeping Magazine: An American, who had accepted an invitation to dine with the sultan of Morocco, was surprised to find the table minus forks, knives and spoons. A large silved bowl filled with a concoction closely resembling our good old-fashioned stew was placed before the sultan. Without a moment's hesitation his majesty plunged in his hand and laoled out the mixture. When the second course was passed the American did not wait for an invitation from the host, but immediately plunged in his hand, determined this time to have the first plunge in this "pickup" banquet.

The story recalled to Mrs. Frederick Nathan, president of the National Consumers' league in New York city, the delight so keen in childhood for eating with the fingers. The fascination for this primitive method of eating never quite dies, even in children of an older growth, and Mrs. Nathan determined to test its charms in a "pickup" luncheon, to which she invited members of the family. In addition to the novelty of this affair, there are several practical features which suggest that the idea is a good one for picnics and other summer entertainments. Here is an easily prepared menu:

Consomme in cup, lamb chops, St. Regis potatoes, watercress, cold asparagus, unhulled strawberries, coffee, crackers, cheese and fruit.

Imagine a table charmingly decorated with flowers and the unusual accompaniment of radishes, olives, pickles, celery and nuts, but not a piece of silver in sight; not a fork, nor a spoon, nor a knife, even to the salt shakers, which had been poured into shakers so that the salt spoon might be eliminated. The first thought of surprise is followed by one of dismay—how is the food to be eaten? It is then that the full significance of the affair is realized. A "pickup" luncheon must be eaten with the fingers.

The first course is easily managed. Even on formal occasions soup may be drunk from the cup. The second course was more juzzling. The chops were arranged in mound form in the center of the platter, their bony ends hidden in fascinating frilly pantalettes. The potatoes were large. Saratoga chips cut in lattice fashion and fried very dry so that they might be picked up handily with the fingers. By arranging the potatoes around the chops it was posible in serving to knock them off onto the plate with the chop. Watercress, always more easily manipulated with the fingers than with the fork, was served as the vegetable. Squab, which had previously been carved, and chicken might be substituted for the chops with quite as much success and perhaps more merriment.

The numerous facilities for facilitating the eating of asparagus testify to the difficulty of eating this delicious vegetable with the fork and the salad course of cold asparagus, which just has to be eaten with the fingers, is sure, therefore to be hailed with delight. The simplest of deserts would be fruit. At this luncheon unhulled strawberries surrounded a mound of powdered sugar, the strawberries being easily picked up by their hulls and dipped into the sugar. Cake was a part of this course, which was followed by the demi-tasse of coffee with cheese and crackers, the cheese having previously been cut.

Magazines to read with big, comfortable chairs to sit in, elegant smoking rooms, beautiful parlor with observation platform—all these in a big steel car on the Soo's new train to the Twin Cities. Leaves Duluth 2 p. m., Superior 2:30 p. m.; arrives St. Paul 6:15 p. m., Minneapolis 7 p. m. Ticket office, Superior street and Sixth avenue west and 430 Spalding hotel.

PARCELS POST BILL BACK IN CONFERENCE.

Washington, Aug. 17.—As the result of a renewal of Republican Leader Mann's fight to secure a direct vote on the Bourne-Bristow parcels post system, which the senate put into the postoffice appropriation, the house was forced to adopt a substitute plan, offered by the Democratic leaders.

Mr. Mann secured a reconsideration of the vote by which the bill was sent into conference. He then moved that it again be sent to conference, and the house conferees be instructed to agree to the senate's parcels post plan. As a substitute for this Chairman Moon of the postoffice committee offered a new plan for an experimental system confined to fourth class mail matter and farm products. The scheme was based on the zone system, as was the senate plan, which charges ranging from 5 cents to 12 cents a pound and a limit of weight to fifteen pounds for a single package.

The Moon substitute was adopted by a vote of 143 to 86. Representative Mann's motion subsequently was defeated. The postoffice bill then was sent to conference, where the conflicting provisions will be adjusted.

Laugh and the World Laughs With You

But if you're without money—
And can only weep—
The world will turn you down.

You may not always be able to earn money. You'd better begin saving a part of your wages this week. Then when you get out of a job, are sick, or "up against it" from any cause you needn't ask any odds of your friends or anybody else.

A dollar will start an account with us, and a few dollars saved and put by each week, will after a while enable you to look the whole world in the face and tell it to "go to blazes."

Be a man. Be independent. A bank book is ten times better than a letter of recommendation. Deposit $1 or $5 with us today, and make a start.

We pay 2 per cent interest —compounded.

CRITICAL TIME OF WOMAN'S LIFE

From 40 to 50 Years of Age. How It May Be Passed in Safety.

Odd, Va.:—"I am enjoying better health than I have for 20 years, and I believe I can safely say now that I am a well woman. I was reared on a farm and had all kinds of heavy work to do which caused the troubles that came on me later. For five years during the Change of Life I was not able to lift a pail of water. I had hemorrhages which would last for weeks and I was not able to sit up in bed. I suffered a great deal with my back and was so nervous I could scarcely sleep at night, and I did not do any housework for three years.

"Now I can do as much work as any woman of my age in the county, thanks to the benefit I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."—Mrs. MARTHA L. HOLLOWAY, Odd, Va.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. We know of no other medicine which has such a record of success as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for woman's ills.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

TAX TITLE LAW POINT

Question Raised By Purchaser of Tax Title in Marshall County.

Claims He Suffered By Failure of Auditor to Properly Advertise.

Crookston, Minn., Aug. 17.—The supreme court of Minnesota will soon be called to pass upon a question involving the validity of a tax title, which has never been passed upon by that body before. Attorneys claim the point has been raised in no other state.

The question is whether a county auditor is liable to the purchaser of a tax certificate if the purchaser fails to get a tax title after the time of redemption has expired because the county auditor failed to publish notice of the sale the required two weeks before the sale takes place.

J. H. Foster of St. Paul purchased a tax certificate on a piece of land in Marshall county which is now worth $3,500. When he attempted to perfect the title the original owner of the land stepped in, claimed that the notice of the sale had not been published the required two weeks in advance, paid the back taxes and secured the land.

Mr. Foster then brought suit against ex-County Auditor Malmberg of Marshall county to recover $3,500, the value of the land, which he said he had lost through the negligence of Malmberg to properly advertise the sale. Malmberg's bondsmen were also made defendants.

Auditor Not Liable.

Judge Grindeland in deciding held that the auditor was not liable in Foster because of the irregularity, and that Foster was entitled only to recover the amount he had paid as taxes and the interest provided by law in such cases.

The case will be carried to the supreme court for adjudication and is very important, as other cases of a similar character exist, but no action has been taken under them, here or elsewhere. Attorney F. A. Grady of this city, representing Malmberg and the bondsmen, admits there is a very pretty questio nof law involved, while all admit there is a most important one as to the liability of the auditor for negligence.

INDIAN BOY WINS IN ESSAY CONTEST

Beats Other Beltrami County Youth in State Fair Contest.

Bemidji, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Alex Everywind, aged 17, a full blood Chippewa Indian, who won the Beltrami county essay writing contest to determine which boy living in the county should attend the state fair at the expense of the management divided his composition into four sections in discussing the question proposed "Our Home Farm," and the judges decided he had eclipsed his white competitors.

"A. My home is out in the country. The house is built of logs and lumber. The land has timber on it and this should be cleared up and the brush and logs should be burned, the stumps pulled out and the land well plowed. We have one barn, one wagon and one sleigh, one team of horses and an ox team, also a few pieces of machinery.

Likes Farm Life.

"B. I desire to stay on the farm because I think I could make a good living there and I like farming because it is composed mostly of out door work. I like to work in the fields, getting the soil ready for the crops and then watch them grow and do all I can to make good crops. In haymaking time I like to work in the fields cutting the grass and raking it up for the stock or haymow. In harvest time the grain must be cut and the bundles put up in little shocks, then after a few days the grain can be stacked. The reason for stacking is that it gives the grain a better color and makes more solid kernels. After the grain has been in the stack and has gone through the sweat it is ready to be thrashed. After the tharshing comes the fall plowing. Then the winter months are easy on the farm for there is little work to do and we can look back to see how much money we have made in the past year and plan our work for the coming spring and summer, and after the holidays we can begin to prepare for the spring work.

"C. More land should be cleared up and larger fields made. Fences should be built around the pastures and fields. Such machinery as mowers, plows, disks, hay rakes, wagons, buggies and harrows are needed, also buildings as barns, warehouses and machine sheds. More cattle, horses, hogs and chickens should be kept to carry on the farm work better.

"D. To make our farm life more enjoyable we need good comfortable buildings and plenty, pretty lawns. There should be music in every home, also a library. Daily newspapers should be kept that we may know what is going on every day out in the world. If the home is near a lake shore a row boat could be kept. The farmer ought to have a light team with light harness and buggy that the family may drive to town and to the neighbors."

DAIRYING GROWS IN NORTH DAKOTA

People of All Classes Recognize Money to Be Made in Industry.

Bismarck, N. D., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—"The time is coming when practically every farmer in this entire state," said Dairy Commissioner R. R. Flint, "will more than meet the running expenses of his tract of land with the proceeds from his dairy. The money that he receives from the sale of small grain and vegetables will be that much velvet, that he can stow away in the bank."

North Dakota's harvest this year is the best it has been for over twenty years, according to pioneer farmers. This is the first year in the history of the commonwealth when a bumper crop will aid the dairy industry. This has been brought about by the stern lesson taught the farmer by the unfavorable conditions prevailing during 1910 and 1911, and the reversal of the effect of bumper crops of former years upon diversification marks an important epoch in the state's progress.

Business Men Boost Dairying.

The quickening of interest in the dairy industry in North Dakota is not limited to the farmers. Bankers and other business men have come to a realization of its importance, and are doing all in their power to stimulate further interest along this line. Many banks are purchasing pure bred cows and placing them on farms in their immediate communities, permitting the farmers to pay for them as they are able. Other business men are boosting silo construction. During the present summer 200 new silos are being constructed in North Dakota, and next year twice as many more will be built.

The marked interest being shown by merchants and business men in the dairy industry is a sign of the times. The line of demarcation between the effects of methods of operating, as employed by the diversified, dairying farmer, and his accumulations, and that of the exclusive grain raiser, is being seen much more clearly. One Western North Dakota merchant stated recently that by merely glancing over his books and checking up his balances he could tell who of his customers were patrons of the local creamery, and who were not.

Many Inquiries About Creameries.

There are at present eighty-five creameries in North Dakota, of which 75 per cent are run on a co-operative basis. Despite the fact that a bumper crop is being gleaned this year, the dairy division of the state department of agriculture and labor is receiving more inquiries than ever regarding the methods of procedure required for the establishment of farmers' co-operative creameries.

Realizing the importance of giving impetus to the statewide interest already being manifested in dairying, Commissioner W. C. Gilbreath has added a dairy show to North Dakota's second annual industrial exposition, to be held Oct. 1 to 13. A large new building is in course of remodelling and construction that will be devoted wholly to this department.

IN SELF DEFENSE.

Accused Hancock Merchant Tells What Prompted Him to Kill.

Houghton, Mich., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The defense rested late yesterday in the trial of Jacob Ehler, the well known Hancock shoe merchant, in district court on the charge of murdering Ernest Hendricksen, a traveling man, in a Hancock saloon Feb. 18, last, during a pistol duel. The last witness was the accused, who told the jury why he killed Hendricksen, whom he suspected of maintaining illicit relations with his wife. He claimed in effect self-defense, although the "unwritten" law has figured more or less in the trial.

Ehler said Hendricksen drew a gun and he (Ehler) quickly pulled a pistol from his overcoat pocket and fired three shots, each taking effect. He said he considered his act was in self-defense. Hendricksen returned the fire with a single shot, according to the defendant.

Ehler also testified to having hired Harry Warner of Detroit, a private detective, some weeks prior to the killing of Hendricksen, to shadow Hendricksen and Mrs. Ehler. Warner made regular reports to him, he said, of the occasions when the two were in company.

Building Colony Church.

Escanaba, Mich., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Work has been commenced on the church that its to be built by the Escanaba river colony on the lands that are to be peopled with a big Catholic colony. It will be established under the auspices of the Association of Belgian and Holland Priests of the United States.

YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

STAPLES IS PROGRESSIVE.

Todd County Town Red Hot for Better Roads.

Staples, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Staples is in the lead of all of the cities in this part of the state in its support and demand for better roads and bridges. This was one of their strong drawing cards during their campaign for county seat. The state highway commission sent C. E. Nagel to this city last Monday to investigate the needs of this territory. They proposed new bridge will be erected on the county line over the Crow Wing river but as there are no funds in the treasury at the present time this city will have to be content to wait until next year. The bridge will tap an entire new territory and bring a large trade to this city.

CANADIAN RUSH IS OVER.

Commissioner Maxfield Says Minnesota Crops Hold People.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 17.—"The rush to Canada seems to have stopped so far as farmers in this part of the country are concerned," said H. J. Maxfield, Immigration commissioner, in talking of the effect of the big crops.

"The land men who formerly operated solely in Canadian lands are sending settlers to Minnesota farms," continued the commissioner. "There was a man in the office yesterday who had been selling land in Canada. He wanted information about Minnesota in order to sell land here. The movement to Canada seems to have spent itself.

"Minnesota's bumper crops this year will hold people here who may have had an idea of moving on, and the great prosperity of the entire Northwest will make American farmers envied by those who are renting high-priced land."

FIREBUG SENTENCED.

Hinckley Man Who Burned Property Sent to State Prison.

Hinckley, Minn., Aug. 17.—John F. Misgen was sentenced to state prison by Judge Stolberg Wednesday on the charge of arson in the third degree.

Misgen for some time has been running the Phoenix hotel, coming from Banning. Soon after he came to Hinckley his house at Banning, that has been practically abandoned, burned. The insurance company, who was somewhat suspicious of the origin of the fire, offered Misgen $450 in lieu of the $1,000 the house was insured for. Misgen is said to have eagerly accepted the offer and this confirmed the suspicion of the company, who put detectives at work. The case was soon plain, as Misgen had burned the house about as he was apprehended and confessed.

The maximum length of time he can be required to serve is seven years.

HIGGINS WILL SPEAK.

Dr. Ira Landrich, regent of Nashville university, will also speak. Nearly 1,000 people are expected at the convention.

Two Murder Suspects Taken.

Moorhead, Minn., Aug. 17.—With J. B. Flannigan and William Thomas behind the bars of the county jail at Breckenridge, police officials believe they have in custody the men who cut the throat of a man and placed the body on the top of a Milwaukee railway coach, where it was discovered at Milbank, S. D. Bert Fitzgerald, sheriff at Breckenridge, is confident that Flannigan and Thomas are guilty of the murder.

Escanaba—William Zoellner, the man accused by Mrs. Mary Junco of having attacked her in the E. & L. S. yards a few nights ago, for which crime he has been held for trial in the circuit court, is an escaped prisoner from the Wisconsin State Reformatory at Green Bay, according to information received by Chief of Police Iverson.

Crystal Falls—Henry Bellmore, the trapper who was recently removed from Fence river to a place of detention here having become insane, is dead. Bellmore was about fifty years of age and had spent many years in the woods along the Fence river. He became insane while alone in his cabin, where he was found by men from the Dykes and Bennett ranch.

Iron Mountain—J. F. Martin, district manager for the Michigan State Telephone company, has been notified that $13,000 has been added to the original appropriation of $18,000, making a total of $31,000, to be expended in reconstructing and remodeling the telephone system in this city.

Calumet—Paul Babic, aged about 35, met almost instant death while at work in the No. 15 shaft of the Hecla mine Wednesday. The deceased was a married man and is survived by five children, all of whom are with their mother in Austria. He was a member of several of the local fraternal societies.

Wisconsin Briefs

Oconomowoc—Miss Gabriella M. Ackley of this city has been appointed to the position of librarian at the Humboldt branch of the Chicago public library. She has been librarian at the Watertown library.

Madison—Senator Walter C. Owen of Malden Rock, a supporter of the income tax law, declared here that sentiment is shifting in its favor and that its opponents have misrepresented it.

Oshkosh — The Wisconsin Daily league, representing fifteen of the newspapers of the state, elected the following officers at the annual summer outing and meeting: President, F. E. Noyes, Marinette; vice president, O. J. Hardy, Oshkosh; secretary-treasurer, H. H. Bliss of Janesville.

Green Bay — Whitney Hoagland plunged into the Fox river with his wagon and horse, but succeeded in swimming to the dock. The horse was drowned.

Neenah—Hans Kithelson, aged 45, a farmer of the town of Winchester, drowned in Rat river.

Dakota Briefs

Grand Forks, N. D.—An appeal to the supreme court has been filed in the city extension contempt proceedings. The case will come before the state's highest court at the October term. Judge Kneeshaw refused to find that the city officials were guilty of contempt in assessing the property that is included in the district sought to be included as a part of the city through the extension plan.

Jamestown, N. D.—There was a small strike at the roundhouse this week when eleven of the thirteen boiler and machine helpers walked out. According to one of the strikers, an increase of 4 cents an hour was demanded, the boiler makers' assistants asking 25 cents instead of 24 cents and the machinist helpers 21 cents instead of 17 cents. Master Mechanic Larrison requested a week's notice, but the workers walked out. A new force was sent from St. Paul.

Grand Forks, N. D.—W. H. McNeill returned several days ago from Denver, where he has been visiting Mrs. McNeill, who has been spending some time there for the benefit of her health. Mrs. McNeill may return for a month or two this fall, but will spend the winter West.

Bismarck, N. D.—Manager Vesperman of the local Western Union office opened his new quarters for business Thursday in the apartment formerly occupied by the H. T. Murphy insurance office on Fourth street. For about fourteen years the Western Union has occupied the basement under the First National bank.

Fargo, N. D.—Vasselle Yurief, assistant director of the Kharkow Central Agricultural experiment station, which is located at Kharkow in South Russia, was a visitor at the North Dakota agriculturl experiment station Thursday.

Bismarck, N. D.—During the month there were filed in the local land office fifty-eight original homesteads, of which 40 were allowed, 4 rejected and 10 suspended. One hundred and fifty-one proofs of homesteads were made, of which 110 were allowed, 3 rejected and 37 suspended. One state list selection and fifteen relinquishments were filed.

Minot, N. D.—Mistaking a vial containing lodine for another bottle of medicine, Mrs. George Jones, wife of a colored farmer residing about twelve miles south of Minot, drank a quantity of the poison before realizing her error and narrowly escaped death.

Minnesota Briefs

Braham—About 150 neighbors and friends surprised the Sam Johnson family Saturday evening in North Maple Ridge. Martha Johnson circulated a list and collected $50. A cow was purchased with this amount and presented to the family.

Albert Lea—Leonard Hanson has made a demand upon the city of Albert Lea for $5,000 for damages alleged to have resulted in his being run into by H. W. Jensen's car on East Clark street a few weeks ago. The ground of his claim is that the city was negligent in allowing wagons to stand in the street and obstruct it.

Mankato—It is said that the Widell company of Mankato has leased the land belonging to the Huginin estate at Kasota and will soon commence quarrying stone there on an extensive scale.

Isanti—Miss Geneva Lindberg has resigned her position in the Northwestern Telephone office and will attend the Cambridge high school. Miss Mary Miller succeeds Miss Lindberg in the telephone office.

St. Cloud—On Wednesday, Aug. 21, the St. Cloud Grocers' association will hold its annual picnic at Sauk river. All the grocery stores will be closed all day.

Princeton—Early Monday morning the home of Clarence Hill, in the southern part of the village, with its furniture and other effects, was entirely consumed by fire, but the members of the family escaped. The loss is about $1,500.

Little Falls—One of Minnesota's historical spots will soon be given over to commercialism by the erection of a solid cement dam at Pike Rapids, five miles south of Little Falls on the Mississippi river.

MEN'S SPECIALISTS

We have cured thousands of men in Duluth. Treat men only. All our knowledge and skill is confined to diseases of men. We are in Duluth for twenty years. We guarantee our cures.

BLOOD POISON manifests itself by various stages. Any form of this destructive disease makes itself known by such evidences as ulcers of the mucous membrane in the mouth and throat, sores on any part of the body, aching of the bones, spots and discolorations of the skin, which signify decay.

Our treatment for blood poison is a Specific composition that completely reorganizes the blood corpuscles, by which means every particle of poisonous matter is eliminated. Under our system of treatment it is unlikely for poison to remain in the blood, and purity and health are the results in every case. Our Specific treatment removes manifestations of disease soon after beginning treatment, and by increasing the albuminous portion of the blood after removing the poison, a normal state of health is resumed.

NERVOUS DECLINE OR WEAKNESS means weakness of the nerves and nerve centers, or general debility of the whole nervous and male systems. No man can be strong and manly if his nervous system is impaired, because the nerves propel the blood, and when the proper circulation in any organ ceases, disease is bound to result.

In treating pelvic diseases, from which nearly all nervous disorders and weaknesses originate, we know that we have a very great advantage over many other physicians, because we have a thorough knowledge of the seat and causes of the disease, which is always necessary to insure success in treating any affliction. Our thorough course of treatment stops nervousness, drains, exhaustive dreams, relieves backaches, all effects of youthful folly, and, by adding flesh and muscle, the patient is restored to health, strength and complete vigor.

CURE VARICOSE VEINS BY DESOLVING PROCESS

You feel the cords to be thick, varicose and wormlike; you have a dull, dragging pain extending into the abdomen or down the legs; that is a varicose condition. The veins are overfilled and dilate with poisonous blood. In time your whole blood is saturated with poison; this poison by and by goes into the Nerves, makes you nervous, easily tired, fagged out, broken down, melancholy, drowsy and much of your ambition will be lost, your vitality weakened and you feel that you are not the man you ought to be. Many men have brought on a rupture through neglect of this condition. The disease is often associated by Hydrococele, Large Prostate, Stricture, Bladder Trouble and the whole train of associated troubles. We found out that in cutting out these veins patients were not cured. We worked for years in search for a process which would give us better results than operations do; at last we came to it, by accident—instead of cutting we dissolve the diseased condition and this method is as superior to the old-time butchering and drugging as the modern electric light is to the old-fashioned candle. Once this condition is cured, the patient will stay cured forever.

CATARRH AND LUNG TROUBLES The Progressive Medical Doctors are among the most skillful specializing physicians of this country They have invented a medicine for catarrhal and lung diseases which is not equaled by any other. We use it with the Roentgen machine, and there is nothing which helps a patient more than this. Any one suffering from Catarrh and other lung troubles should not hesitate to consult us at once, for we have to our credit the cures of many hundred patients during our 20 years of activity in Duluth. Think of how many people have developed quick consumption from catarrh and death from bronchitis!

Consultation free to every man. Call for our instructive book on men's diseases; if living out of town write for it and for our symptom blank. Office hours are from 9 to 8 every day; 10 to 1 Sundays, at No. 1 West Superior Street.

TOBACCO HABIT CONQUERED IN 3 DAYS

I offer a genuine, guaranteed remedy for tobacco or snuff habit, in 72 hours. It is mild, pleasant, strengthening. Overcomes that peculiar nerv ousness and craving for cigarettes, cigars, pipe, chewing tobacco or snuff. One man in 10 can use tobacco without apparent injury; to the other 9 it poisons and severely injures the health in several ways, causing such disorders as nervous dyspepsia, sleeplessness, gas, loss of memory and will power, impure (poisoned) blood, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, heartburn, torpid liver, loss of appetite, bad teeth, foul breath, emaciation, backache, lack of ambition, weakening and falling out of hair and many other disorders. It is unsafe and torturing to attempt to cure yourself of tobacco or snuff habit by sudden stopping—don't do it. The correct method is to eliminate the nicotine poison from the system, strengthen the weakened, irritated membranes and nerves and gradually overcome the craving. You can quit tobacco and enjoy yourself a thousand times better while feeling always in robust health. My FREE book tells all about the wonderful 3 days Method. Inexpensive, reliable. Also Secret Method for conquering habit in another without his knowledge. Full particulars including my book on Tobacco and Snuff Habit mailed in plain wrapper, free. Don't delay. Keep this; show to others. This adv. may not appear again. Mention if you smoke or chew. Address: EDWARD J. WOODS, 534 Sixth Av., 899A, New York, N.Y.

SCRAMBLE FOR CLAIMS IN BUTTE DISTRICT IS ENDED

Two Companies Are Incorporated for the Operation of Properties.

Butte-Alex Scott Shipping 250 Tons Daily to Smelter.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The scramble for claims in this district is about over, and now the various interests are talking about organizing plans for the operation of the different properties. Already two companies have been incorporated. One is for $1,500,000 and the price of the stock is $1 a share. The incorporators are well-known citizens and include Edward Hickey, president of the Tuolumne and Pilot Butte companies; P. J. Brophy, capitalist; Patrick Sheehan, superintendent of the Tuolumne and Pilot Butte companies; J. J. Harrington, secretary of the Tuolumne and Pilot Butte companies; Charles R. Leonard, a prominent attorney, who was for a time connected with the Heinze interests; Ray J. McDonald and F. X. Girard, capitalists. The property secured by the new company consists of five claims, some of them in a state of development. The Sinbad claim has a shaft which is down about 700 feet, and experts who have examined it lately report several streaks of high grade ore. The five claims are about 2,000 feet distant from the Leonard mine of the Anaconda company, and one of the claims is said to carry the rich Colusa and Leonard veins. A surface plant is to be secured at once, and inside of sixty days the work of sinking a shaft on one of the claims is to be commenced. The operating will be under the direction of Patrick Sheehan, superintendent of the Tuolumne and Pilot Butte companies, who has had many years of experience in mining in this district.

The other company is known as the Butte-Minnesota Mining company and is incorporated for $750,000 to operate some claims in the northeastern part of the district.

Pilot Butte.

Shaft sinking in the Pilot Butte has reached a distance of 1,540 feet. The new hoist ordered some time ago from Milwaukee, has arrived and is being installed. Just as soon as it is ready to go into commission shaft sinking will be resumed and carried to a depth of at least 2,000 feet. The Berlin claim of the North Butte company is expected to be intersected at a depth of 1,800 feet.

Butte-Alex Scott.

The Butte-Alex Scott is continuing to ship about 250 tons of ore a day to the East to smelter, running about 6 per cent copper. This ore is being nearly all secured from the 600, 1,200 and 1,600-foot levels. The new hoist ordered is expected in about thirty days, and just as soon as it is installed the output will be increased and the shaft will be carried down at least another 200 feet. The shaft is now down to a depth of 1,800 feet. A short time ago a fine body of ore was opened on the 600-foot level running better than 6 per cent copper. In cutting the West Colusa shaft at a depth of 2,000 feet the Butte-Alex Scott vein was cut, showing a good width, and it is believed to be the main vein, a split from which was cut at a depth of 1,800 feet. This vein apexes in the Butte-Alex Scott ground, but is not being opened on the lower levels. In the course of the next thirty days it will be opened on the 1,800-foot level. The first dividend of 50 cents a share was paid by the Butte-Alex Scott a few days ago, and at the rate the company is earning, this dividend can be easily maintained.

Butte & Superior.

Both engineers representing the Clark and Butte & Superior interests are now at work proving up the ground in consequence of the claim made by W. A. Clark that the Butte & Superior company was encroaching on the Elm Orlu ground. This mode of settling the dispute was brought about by D. C. Jackling, vice president of the Butte & Superior company, and who has a high reputation as a mining man in Utah. It is said that it will require several months to complete the work. In the meantime the Butte & Superior company is going ahead with operations under the immediate direction of Mr. Jackling. Only a short time ago Mr. Jackling made a very thorough inspection of the property, including the new concentrator, and he expressed himself as well pleased with conditions. He says that in a few weeks the new mill will be giving every satisfaction. He has explained that the process in use at the mill was one which had been proven a theoretical success before it was adopted, but had never been applied, and therefore it has been necessary to make a few changes of a mechanical character in order to obtain the best results. Mr. Jackling says the mine is showing the ore bodies to increase in size at depth.

Anaconda Buys Gold Mine.

The Anaconda Copper Mining company has purchased the Ore Fine mine in the Georgetown district for $250,000. The property adjoins the Southern Cross, secured by the company many months ago at a cost of $500,000. The mine has been a steady gold producer for several years, and the fact that President E. B. Thayer of the Anaconda company announced just before leaving the city that it was intended to sink the shaft of the Southern Cross 200 feet at once would seem to indicate that the company intends to carry on quite extensive mining in the Georgetown district. The extension of the Butte, Anaconda & Pacific railroad into the district is being pushed along with all possible speed and there seems no doubt but that it will be completed within the contract time, which is Nov. 1. The fact that the company has become interested in two of the best producing mines of the district has created quite a boom and many owners of small properties are pushing along development work.

The Tramway Mine.

A crosscut is being driven on the 1,500-foot level of the Tramway mine to a point underneath the Berkeley shaft and a sinking force is at work in the Berkeley shaft from the 1,000-foot level. As soon as the crosscut is made underneath the Berkeley from the Tramway, raising will be commenced to meet the sinking party. Bad air has been encountered in the crosscut and only one shift is working there and it is principally for ventilating purposes that the connection is being made. The Berkeley is making a very fine showing and is yielding 14,000 tons of ore a month.

Raven.

The Raven shaft has been lowered to a depth of 1,700 feet and men are now at work building a station. After the water was removed from the 1,100-foot level down to the 1,500-foot level it was decided to carry the shaft down another 200 feet in the hope that exploration would result in the opening up of a rich ore body at depth. Just what will be done after the station on the 1,700-foot level has been completed has not yet been decided on, but the directors are expected to reach a decision in the course of a week or so. Some development work has been carried on on the 1,100 and 1,300-foot levels, but the results have not been of a very encouraging character. There is great hope that the mine will show up well at depth.

Barnes-King.

Negotiations are pending between the Barnes-King company and the North Moccasin people whereby the former will take over and operate the latter property. The two mines adjoin and according to the arrangements in course of consideration the Barnes-King company will operate the North Moccasin through the Barnes-King workings. The North Moccasin was formerly owned by John A. Drake of New York and a few others. It was equipped with a lot of first class machinery and for a time showed a good profit on the operations. A cave-in in the shaft left the property in a bad condition and financial troubles followed, which finally resulted in the mine being sold under foreclosure proceedings. Some of the richest and largest ore bodies in the whole Kendall district were opened up in the North Moccasin and there is no question that the Barnes-King company, having the capital, can operate the property at a profit. It is stated that the negotiations have reached the point where there is only a difference in a few minor details and that they can be easily adjusted.

Has Increased Wages.

The Anaconda Copper Mining company has decided to increase the wages of its mechanical employes along the lines of the increase given the miners and smeltermen. The machinists, boiler makers, structural iron workers, carpenters, electrical workers, plasterers, pattern makers, moulders and blacksmiths have all been given an increase of 25 cents a day as long as copper remains above 15 cents a pound. The increase includes all the men mentioned employed by the company in this city, Great Falls and Anaconda.

Tuolumne.

The Tuolumne company has commenced to sink its shaft from the 1,800 and it is the intention to carry it down at least 400 feet. Development work is proceeding on the 1,400, 1,600 and 1,800-foot levels and a large amount of ore is being blocked out. During the remainder of this month the shipping of second class ore will continue at the rate of about 250 tons a day with about 50 tons of first class to the Washoe smelter. By the first of the month a large amount of the second class ore will have been got clear of it and the shipments of first class ore will be resumed on a larger scale. With copper above 17 cents, the Tuolumne is making a profit on its second class ore.

RAPID PROGRESS IS BEING MADE

In Raising the Shaft of the Calumet & Sonora Company.

Cananea, Mex., Aug. 17.—The Calumet & Sonora Mining company is making rapid progress in the raising of the shaft from the 525 to the 400-foot level. There is at present almost a full quota of men employed at the property, which is located about two miles northwest of Cananea, and they are divided into two shifts. At the wet and dry mills only a day shift is being worked.

The company is at present producing at the rate of 300 tons of zinc and copper concentrates and fifty of lead concentrates monthly.

Much new work is being planned and upon the return of Dr. Walter Harvey Weed, manager and consulting engineer for the company, it is expected that much new work will be commenced.

During the fiscal year of 1911-12 the Mexican government issued titles to mining ground to the total of 2,390. The total amount of land covered by these denouncements amounted to 38,160 pertenencias. Of this amount Sonora leads with the greatest number of denouncements and number of pertenencias.

NORTH BUTTE'S FUTURE IS BRIGHT

Beginning to Open Up Rich Ore Bodies of North Section.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 16.—The policy of the North Butte Mining company, to thoroughly explore the northern portion of its property, is being received with complete satisfaction and from the results of the past few weeks there is everything to indicate that the North Butte has only begun to mine its extensive ore bodies and that the future is particularly bright. Recent developments in opening up the Snowball, North Cresus and Berlin veins on various levels is especially encouraging and promises to greatly increase the ore reserves. It is being proved gradually that as depth is attained the Snowball vein is becoming richer and that the ore bodies are widening out. On the 1,800, 2,200 and 2,400 foot levels drifting is now in progress and ore is being blocked out at a rapid rate. From the Snowball vein the company is now shipping some of its richest copper ore.

The Berlin vein, which lies but a short distance north of the Snowball, is up to every expectation. It has been opened, according to recent reports, in several places and shows more than six feet of good ore at the points of intersection. The ore averages better than 6 per cent copper and carries from 10 to 13 ounces of silver to the ton. At that depth the ore was found to be in bunches. On the 1,800-foot level, where the exploration work is now going on, it is expected that large ore bodies will be found. The Berlin is one of the strongest veins yet opened in the North Butte ground and there is every indication of permanency. It is understood to be the policy of the company to at once extend the crosscut on the 1,800-foot level north to explore the Carlisle and Protection ground, a large interest in which recently was acquired. The surface indications are particularly strong, but it is generally believed that the veins will develop heavy zinc deposits. The Carlisle and Protection claims lie immediately east of the Elm Orlu, which has developed both copper and zinc, the copper lying in a lens south and alongside of the zinc.

SEVERAL NEW PRODUCERS

Carpenter Property Near Crystal Falls Is to Ship Next Season.

Warner Tract and Cortland Mine Are Also Probable Shippers.

Operations that will result in the addition of an important producer to the list of mines in the Crystal Falls district of the Menominee iron range have been started. This is the development of the Carpenter property by M. A. Hanna & Co., of Cleveland. The tract has been thoroughly drilled and has been proved to contain a large and valuable ore body. It comprises forty acres in section 31, 43-32, two miles southwest of Crystal Falls and between the Tobn and Dunn mines of Corrigan, McKinney & Co. Machinery has been ordered, both the Chicago & North Western and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroads are preparing to extend tracks to the property, and Hanna & Co., are arranging to push the work of development with vigor. Operations are in charge of Ira Rowe, recently appointed district superintendent. It is planned to have the Carpenter on the shipping list next season. Hanna & Co., have been engaged in opening the Ravenna property the past year, and this mine is now making its initial shipments. In the neighborhood of 25,000 tons will go forward this summer. The Ravenna is west of Oglebay, Norton & Co.'s Bristol mine and one and one-half miles northwest of Crystal Falls. It possesses a large deposit of ore and during the winter it will be given a plant of machinery commensurate with its importance.

The biggest mine in the Crystal Falls field—once it is opened—will be the New Mastodon property of the Nevada Land company, a close corporation controlled by E. J. Longyear and associates. The tract is to be leased to one of the big mining concerns of the Lake Superior region, the negotiations now being in progress, and it is the understanding that development work will be instituted the coming fall. The New Mastodon is in section 13, 42-33, some five miles southwest of Crystal Falls and two miles south of the Dunn mine. Its ore body is claimed to be the largest discovered on the Menominee range since the opening of the big Chapin mine at Iron Mountain, surpassing even that of Pickands, Mather & Co.'s Caspian mine in the Iron River country. The Keweenaw association of Boston is interested in the fee. Exploratory work continues.

Two More Shippers.

Another property scheduled to join the shipping ranks of the Crystal Falls district next year is the Warner tract of Pickands, Mather & Co., of Cleveland. This exploration is in section 9, 44-33, eleven miles northwest of Crystal Falls and between the Michigan and Gibson mines, it adjoining the latter on the north. The showing is such that the tracks of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad are to be extended to the location and additional equipment is to be installed, preparatory to the institution of active development work. The lease to the Hilltop mine at Crystal Falls has been surrendered by the United States Steel corporation and the property has reverted to the Roberts Ore company, of which C. T. Roberts of Crystal Falls is the head. The Hilltop corporation was unexpected. The Warner was drilled last summer and considerable ore was found. It is regarded as an excellent prospect and no doubt will soon be taken over by outside interests. A new shipper in the Iron River district of the Menominee range this season will be the Cortland mine of the Wickwire Steel company of Buffalo. The property has been in course of development since 1907 and a good-sized stockpile has been accumulated. The Chicago & Northwestern is extending a spur line to the mine, and with this completed, probably Oct. 1, ore will go forward.

In the village of Commonwealth, in the Wisconsin portion of the Menominee range, the Florence Iron company is sinking a shaft at its Ernst property, so named in honor of the late Ernst Thallman of New York, an official of the corporation. A plant of machinery has been installed. The shaft will be put down to a depth of 300 feet, at which point the ground will be tested laterally. Ore previously had been located by diamond drilling and it is believed the deposit is of goodly dimensions.

Pickands, Mather & Co., are shipping 30,000 tons of ore from the Calumet mine in the Felch district of the Menominee. A similar amount has recently been forwarded from the same company's Vivian mine at Quinnesec. The shipments are from stockpiles, both properties being inactive.

Hartford Started Again.

Illustrative of the increased demand for ore, the Republic Iron & Steel company is again at work at the Hartford mine at Negaunee, Marquette range. The property had been closed for months, only sufficient forces having been maintained to keep the pumps in operation. The operations at present are confined to shaft sinking. As this work is fairly under way, mining in the older workings will be resumed by degrees, until by winter it is expected that more than 200 men will be on the payroll. The shaft, now bottomed at nearly 1,000 feet, will be put to the 1,300-foot point. The Hartford has a very good showing of ore in its lower workings, some of which extend under the waters of Teal lake, on the south shore of which the mine is located. The additional depth attained will open still further ore bodies. The shaft was badly damaged by fire two years ago, but it was repaired and is in excellent condition. As was formerly the case, the Hartford shaft not only will take care of its own ore, but the product of the company's adjoining mine will be hoisted through it as well. An electric tramming system is installed. The resumption of mining will extend to the Cambria, also closed for nearly two years.

Mining activity in the Negaunee field is more pronounced than in various other districts of the old ranges. The mines of the Breitung interests are shipping briskly, as is the Queen group of the Steel corporation. The Jones & Laughlin Steel company's Rolling Mill property is forwarding a good-sized tonnage daily. The Cleveland Cliffs Iron company is taking on additional men at the Maas mine, which had been idle for more than a year, pending costly and extensive repairs, and operations at the same company's Negaunee mine are being enlarged. The development of the Lucky Star mine, in which work the Breitung estate and the Cleveland Cliffs interests are associated, is in progress. In the Ishpeming field, the Cleveland Cliffs Sallsbury property has been closed in order to permit of changes in the hoisting and pumping equipment. The suspension probably will continue a month. The steam hoist is to give way to one operated by electricity. A centrifugal electric pump has been installed on the eighteenth level where it will take the place of a Cornish pump that has been in commission for many years.

THIRD RICH DISCLOSURE

Rich Copper Ground Again Encountered in the Mayflower Acreage.

Property Apparently Has the Making of a Valuable Mine.

Houghton, Mich., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Mayflower Mining company reports a disclosure of rich copper ground at a depth of 982 feet in the No. 20 drill hole. This hole is sunk on the extension of the lode disclosed by the No. 16 drill hole some months ago. It continued in heavy copper ground for a distance of fifty feet and at a depth of 1,030 feet was again sinking in trap rock. An assay made of the sludge taken from this hole showed a copper content of 1.65 per cent or about thirty-three pounds of copper per ton of rock. This is the third disclosure of rich copper ground in the Mayflower acreage, the first being obtained in drill hole No. 15 and soon thereafter followed by a strike of very rich ground in No. 16. The property apparently has the making of a valuable mine but is being systematically boosted and booomed and in a manner altogether unwarranted.

Isle Royale.

The Isle Royale has drilled into excellent copper ground at a depth of 350 feet on the site of the new No. 7 shaft. The drill which is being operated for the purpose of locating the southerly extension of the Isle Royale lode reached bed rock at a depth of about 130 feet and at 350 feet entered what presumably is an extension of the lode sought. Another test pipe will be driven in an attempt to locate a shallower overburden than was disclosed by the present hole, the overburden at this point being entirely too thick for economical shaft work. A much shallower overburden will likely be found by going a few hundred feet to eastward. The company also has a diamond drill engaged in exploratory work in the horizon of the Kearsarge amygdaloid. There have been no important developments at the latter point. The Kearsarge lode is one of the most important mineral bearing formations in this district and where exposed on surface in Isle Royale acreage appears most promising.

New Baltic.

The New Baltic continues to center activity in exploratory work on the 500 level of the shaft sunk in the probable horizon of the Baltic lode. A drift south on this level has attained a length of 250 feet in a strong and well defined vein, carrying mineral largely in the nature of pockets, with occasional bunches of great richness. A cross-cut to westward has attained a length of 485 feet and for some time has been driving in barren ground. This opening exposes several promising amygdaloid lodes, which, however, are not receiving attention at the moment, owing to the scarcity of labor and the further inadequacy of the present equipment, which has about reached the limit of its capacity and must soon be replaced by heavier machinery.

New Arcadian.

The New Arcadian is prepared to resume shaft sinking below a depth of sixty feet, where the shaft has been bottomed during the time necessary to install a concrete collar. An air compressor has also been added to the surface equipment to facilitate shaft work. The shaft is sinking in the Isle Royale-Portage bed and for some time has been in fair copper ground.

Mass.

The Mass is shipping in the neighborhood of 600 tons of rock daily and expects to increase the output to around 1,000 tons before the end of the year. The rock is yielding an average of eighteen pounds fine copper per ton of rock milled. Development work is showing excellent copper ground in the two formations under investigation, particularly in the Butler lode, tributary to the "C" shaft. This lode is prolific in the production of mass copper. The work in the Evergreen lode is showing first class stamp rock and is resulting in the creation of ground reserves at a rate equaled by few mines in this district today. There has been a remarkable betterment in the underground situation during the past two years and the mine now bears all the ear marks of a coming profitable producer.

Lake.

The Lake is again producing regularly at the rate of 400 tons of rock daily, about one-half of the output is coming from underground openings, the balance being made up of shipments from the stock pile. A recent mill run of selected rock yielded forty-four pounds of mineral per ton of rock milled. It is not probable, however, that such a yield will be maintained. The Lake is a small, though exceedingly rich mine, and may be expected to class with such mines as Champion, Baltic, Tri-Mountain and Superior. It is opened on a formation markedly similar to that in which these mines are operating and which may be expected to give a yield of eighteen to twenty pounds fine copper per ton of rock without undue selection. The new shaft has reached the tenth level and is now a regular producer. Stoping is in progress in several levels between the third and eighth. The ninth level is under development.

SOCIAL CENTERS AND THE WELFARE BOARD

"Public halls and similar places of public recreation, convenience and amusement," are by the charter amendment placed under the jurisdiction of the board of public welfare.

That means naturally social center and playground activity. One of the first things the board did after organizing was to call a conference of the people who had been most active in this direction, at which it appeared that the one thing they all wanted was systematic supervision. Some of them said they could not go any further without it and some of them felt they must abandon what they had begun unless it was provided.

So the board of public welfare has included $2,500 in its estimates for public recreation.

Out of this fund it is proposed to employ a man who will be advance agent and manager for all the features in the schools or parks or anywhere else that may call for his services.

For instance, he could get up a homemade lecture course and arrange its dates from one end of the city to the other. There could be lectures on how the charter is made and what is in it, lectures on public health, on city planning, on local social problems and on wider problems like initiative and referendum or the best way of putting up currants, anything people were interested in.

It might be possible to get some outside lecturer and arrange to have him appear for a week from one end of the city to another and perhaps music and picture shows. If the neighborhood club wanted to organize he would help them to get together. If the boys wanted to form a singing society or the girls a sewing class he would help them. Or he would find where to go to get someone to take charge.

Duties of that sort would keep a live man busy.

CLASSES ARE NOW FREE

Homecroft Society Opens Remainder of Course to the Public.

Duluth Women Offered Assistance in Preparing Winter Supplies.

There are but two weeks remaining of the Homecroft Cooking schools and during this time every woman in Duluth is cordially invited by the society to join either of the classes absolutely free of cost.

If she has any fruits or vegetables which she wishes to can she may bring them to either the Salter or Irving school and the teachers will assist her with the work absolutely free of cost. When the work is done the product may be taken home by the owner for winter consumption.

There will be demonstrations in canning and the preparation of vegetable dishes for the table at each session of the school. Visitors are asked to inspect the work of these schools at any session.

An exhibit of all canned fruits and vegetables is now being prepared, which will form a very attractive part of the St. Louis county exhibit at the State fair.

Following is the class schedule:

Irving School.

Monday, Aug. 19, morning and afternoon.

Wednesday, Aug. 21, morning and afternoon.

Friday, Aug. 23, morning and afternoon.

Tuesday, Aug. 27, morning and afternoon.

Thursday, Aug. 29, morning and afternoon.

Salter School.

Tuesday, Aug. 20, morning and afternoon.

Thursday, Aug. 22, morning and afternoon.

Monday, Aug. 26, morning and afternoon.

Wednesday, Aug. 28, morning and afternoon.

Friday, Aug. 30, morning and afternoon.

HOUSE SPLITS ON THE CANAL BILL

Senate Refuses to Pass Tariff Measures Over the Vetoes.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Such unexpected opposition to the amended Panama canal bill developed in the house last night that an adjournment was taken as the best way out of an embarrassing situation. Representatives Moore and Olmstead of Pennsylvania, Republicans, led the attack. They charged that the conferees had added matter not passed upon by either the house or senate, and insisted that by so doing, had exceeded their authority.

The senate earlier in the day had adopted the conference report by a vote of 48 to 18, after a hard fight led by Senator Brandegee, chairman of the senate conferees, who had refused to sign the agreement.

Senate Sustains Taft.

The senate voted to sustain the vetoes of the president on the wool and metal tariff revision bills. The metal bill the motion to over-ride the president did not even obtain a majority. On neither measure did the vote approach the necessary two-thirds.

When the wool bill vote finally was taken, forty-nine senators voted in favor of passing the bill and thirty-six against it. The following Republicans voted with the Democrats to over-ride the wool bill:

Bristow, Clapp, Crawford, La Follette, Poindexter and Works.

REFUSES TO TELL OF SHOOTING OF WIDOW.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 17.—After she had been held in $10,000 bond, Mrs. J. G. Jones, accused slayer of Mrs. Alva Cave, refused to tell her version of the tragedy, and the events leading up to it.

The funeral of Mrs. Cave, who was a daughter-in-law of Rev. Dr. R. Lin Cave, chaplain general of the United Confederate Veterans, took place yesterday afternoon. Floral tributes were sent by friends from all over the South.

Mrs. Jones admitted that Mrs. Cave, who was a widow, had not been involved in events which were recited in the filing of a divorce bill against Jones. She intimated the charge, however, that Mrs. Cave played a part in the domestic drama that separated Mrs. Jones and her husband a second time, after the divorce bill had been withdrawn.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE

New York, Aug. 17.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade today says: The industrial and trade situation fully maintains its recent improvement and a further advance in activity is noted in the reports from the leading centers.

Everything points to a continuance of the present activity in iron and steel, and the advancing trend of quotations promises increased profits to the producer. Consumers of pig iron are devoting more attention to their requirements for the first half of next year, but future business is not readily accepted unless higher prices are offered.

Basic iron is strong at $14 valley, while Bessemer rules at $14.50 and $14.75, valley. Crude steel is becoming scarcer and merchant pig iron furnaces have practically contracted all of the output for the third quarter. Bessemer billets are firm at $23, Pittsburg, and open hearth at $23.50 Pittsburg. Demand for merchant steel bars, plates and shapes, continues to tax capacity, while thn plate and sheets are very active and there is prospect of an advance in quotations.

Well maintained activity is still the leading feature in drygoods. Some hesitation was caused in the cotton goods division by the substantial decline in raw cotton, but the only effect noted was a slight softening in print cloths, drills, sheetings, duck and heavy colored cottons show no abatement in strength, and some lines of the goods have advanced under the influence of scarcity caused by reduced production incident to labor troubles.

A few sales were reported for China shipment, but export trade as a whole is slow, although the movement on old orders is good. Cotton yarns are quiet and practically unchanged, but worsted yarns are in good demand and firm.

Although the demand for footwear shows further improvement, the enhanced prices asked by manufacturers still cause much conservatism on the part of the buyers. All kinds of leather continue in good demand, without any large transactions, tanners still refusing to contract ahead in any considerable quantity at present quotations.

Trading in upper leathers is steady, but no special activity is shown. Business is in steady volume, and would be still more active were supplies not so closely cleaned up.

RAIN IN WEST BULLS WHEAT

Precipitation Is General Throughout the Spring Wheat Region.

Cloudy Weather Deprives Flax of Sunshine—Price Is Higher.

Duluth Board of Trade, Aug. 17.—Wheat on the Duluth market went higher today on account of rainy weather throughout the spring wheat region of both America and Canada. There was also some rise at Winnipeg, though, strange to say, there were other causes that prevent the same movement at Minneapolis and Chicago. On both of these markets wheat closed slightly lower. The American primary wheat receipts of today were again away ahead of those of a year ago.

Duluth September wheat closed ⅜c higher and December ¼c higher. Cash wheat on the Duluth market closed 10c over September. Durum closed ⅜c lower. Oats and rye closed ½c higher and barley unchanged.

Wheat on the Liverpool market closed ⅜@½d higher. This market was bulled by strong American cables, by continued unfavorable weather reports from all parts of Great Britain and by strong bidding on the part of France for Australian cargoes.

Flaxseed Is Higher.

There were some buying orders on the flaxseed market today but practically no offers. The wet and cloudy weather throughout the Northwest, which has been retarding the ripening of flaxseed, caused those who had flaxseed to be very careful about placing it on the market. Duluth September linseed closed today 1c higher and October and November 1½c higher. Winnipeg October flaxseed closed today unchanged at $1.60, being just 13c under Duluth October. Such a small margin does not give much promise of a chance to import Canadian flaxseed into the United States at a profit. Buenos Ayres October flax closed last night 1⅛c higher at $1.71½. London Calcutta August and September seed today closed ⅞c up at $2.12⅝.

B. M. Miller, a young man living at Oxford, N. Y., who happened to be a guest on the Duluth exchange today on his way home from Western Canada, declared that there was a bumper crop of wheat and flax in the region of North Battleford, Saskatoon and Kindersley, where he spent about twelve days. He said that if weather conditions were favorable the cutting of wheat in that region would begin after about ten days. "The growth of the settlements in that country has been wonderful," said he. "Saskatoon now has about 20,000 people and North Battleford about 4,000."

CHICAGO MARKET.

Wheat Opens Higher on Small Offerings and Rain Prospects.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Wheat felt the force of small offerings and continued prospects of rainy weather, at the start opening from ⅛c to ⅜c higher. Commission selling of considerable volume eased prices off later.

September opened ⅛c to ⅜c up at 94⅛c to 94½c and quietd at 94⅜c. December advanced at the outset ½c to ⅝c at 94c to 94¼c and fell away to yesterday's closing point, 93½c.

The market ruled firm within narrow limits after the early bulge, unsettled weather in the crop country continuing as a factor.

The close was steady with December ¼c lower at 93¼c, the low point, after an early high mark of 94½c. May closed ⅜c off at 97¼c, the bottom level.

Corn enjoyed a brief upturn with wheat, but heavy offerings set prices speedily downward to about ½c below final figures yesterday. The opening was at an advance of from a shade to ½c. December started a shade to ¼@½c higher at 54⅞c to 55c and fell away to 54½c.

Prices eased off on heavy offerings. The close was steady at nearly bottom prices. December traveled between 55⅛c and 54c, closing at ⅞@1c lower at 54c.

Strong demand for oats gave a firm tone to the start, but willing sellers met all requests and prices fell off slightly. December opened ⅛c to ⅜c higher at 33¾c to 33½c and rested soon afterward at 33⅛c.

Investment buying in January products helped provision prices. Opening figures were unchanged to 12½c higher, with October at $18.32½ for pork, $11.12½ for lard and $11.00 for ribs.

Cotton Market.

New York, Aug. 17.—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 1 to 6 points and sold off to a net loss of 10 to 12 points during the first half hour, under a renewal of spot house offerings, bear pressure and liquidation by prominent buyers of earlier in the week. After a very weak opening Liverpool had rallied rather sharply, and early weather news suggested that yesterday's report of rains in South Texas had been exaggerated, but sellers seemed to be confident owing to the reports of heavy Southern selling in Liverpool and of increasing offerings for new crop shipments. Covering for over the week and checked the decline around 11.13 for October and prices rallied 5 to 6 points from the lowest during the middle of the morning.

Futures closed steady; closing bids: August, 10.98; September, 11; October, 11.19; November, 11.23; December, 11.26; January, 11.20; February, 11.27; March, 11.32; May, 11.39.

New York Money.

New York, Aug. 17.—Money on call, nominal; time loans, easier; 60 days, 3½@3¾ per cent; 90 days, 3¾@4 per cent; six months, 4⅝@4¾ per cent.

Close: Prime mercantile paper, 5@5½ per cent. Sterling exchange steady at $4.84.50 for 60 day bills and at $4.87.50 for demand; commercial bills, $4.83¾. Bar silver, 63¾c; Mexican dollars, 48½c. Government bonds steady; railroad bonds easy.

South St. Paul Livestock.

South St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 17.—Cattle—Receipts, 350; killers steady; steers, $6.00@8.50; cows and heifers, $3.25@7.00; calves steady, $3.00@8.00; feeders steady, $3.50@6.25. Hogs—Receipts, 700; light hogs, steady to 5c higher; range, $8.05@8.30; bulk, $8.10@8.15. Sheep—Receipts, 300; steady; lambs, $3.00@6.40; wethers, $3.50@3.85; ewes, $1.25@3.50.

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 17.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: After yesterday's busy day, the market is again quiet, clearance being limited to retail orders for farm horses and matched draft pairs. Sam Montgomery, E. M. Williams and John Montgomery arrived on the market with carload shipments. While small horses are selling somewhat lower, draft horses hold firm in tone. Values as follow:

Drafters, extra	$190@250
Drafters, choice	120@185
Drafters, common to good	90@120
Farm mares and horses, extra	140@175
Farm mares and horses, choice	115@140
Farm horses, common to good	70@115
Delivery	120@210
Drivers and saddlers	110@200
Mules, according to size	150@240

NET LOSSES ARE RESULT

Late Selling Movement of Formidable Proportions in Stocks.

Canadian Pacific Weakest of Railway Issues—Close Is Heavy.

New York, Aug. 17.—A two point decline in Canadian Pacific, followed by its weak close in London, was a feature of the opening stock market here. This was offset by one-point advances in Louisville & Nashville, General Electric and Consolidated Gas, with strength in more active issues, including copper and steel.

Selling pressure on increased offerings imparted general heaviness soon after the opening, with a further decline in Canadian Pacific and marked weakness in the coalers.

The market closed heavy. What is popularly known as a healthy reaction occurred in today's stock market. Opening prices were slightly irregular in the direction of betterment, but a selling movtment of formidable proportions in the final hour reduced all gains to material net losses.

Canadian Pacific was weakest of the railway issues, with pronounced heaviness in Leihigh Valley and Reading. Later other standard shares gave way. Industrials were well supported at the outset, but declined with the general movement.

To Iron Mountain Stockholders

I have 125 shares of Iron Mountain Mining company stock, which I must sacrifice for cash. Will take $1.25 a share for it if sold Monday or Tuesday. Here is a chance for stockholders who know how good the property is, to increase their holdings at a bargain. R. K. 57, Herald.

London Stocks.

London, Aug. 17.—American securities opened steady and a fraction higher here today. Canadian Pacific was weak and lost 2¼ points owing to the agitation for lower freight rates. The rest of the list advanced during the short session in sympathy with the strength in United States Steel, which was firm on the refusal of the senate to pass the steel tariff bill over President Taft's veto. The closing was steady, with prices ranging from unchanged to ⅝ higher than yesterday's New York closing. Canadian Pacific finished 2 points lower.

ST. PAUL MAN HURT BY CHICAGO AUTO

J. J. Gusfin Knocked Down and in Critical Condition.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—The condition of J. J. Gusfin, a retired farmer of St. Paul, who was struck by an automobile here yesterday afternoon and seriously injured, today was reported critical.

Gusfin, who is 88 years of age, was crossing Jackson boulevard at Mozart street, when he was struck by a car driven by L. R. Morrison, a druggist.

PRINTERS SCORE CHICAGO STRIKERS

Typographical Union Denounces Action Taken By the Pressmen.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 17.—The last session of the 1912 convention of the International Typographical union was held here today. The ladies' auxiliary also closed its sessions.

An effort to attend to all the business before each body at a single morning session was made.

The convention unanimously indorsed its officers and executive council, and officers and executive council of the Stereotypers' and Electrotypers' union, for their attitude toward the Chicago pressmen's strike.

The vote ended one of the hottest fights that has marked the convention. The striking pressmen were condemned by the investigating committee for having refused to accept proffered arbitration and for having sought to embroil the International Typographical union and allied trade unions. The stereotypers in Chicago were found guilty by the committee of having violated contracts and the strike order itself was denounced as a "blunder worse than a crime."

The convention adopted the proposition of Delegate Strief of Sioux City looking to an investigation of the school text book situation and the spread of propaganda for union printing of such books.

The ladies' auxiliary failed yesterday to adjust the difficulties caused by the walk-out of Mrs. Frank W. Long of Cincinnati, secretary and treasurer, who took with her a few supporters and the books and records. It was reported that Mrs. C. E. McKee of Indianapolis, president, had gone into court and sworn out a warrant against Mrs. Long, but it seems that no formal process was issued.

COPPER STOCKS

All markets during the last week have been active, and a higher range of quotations has been recorded generally throughout the entire list, affording an opportunity for a little quiet profit-taking, which however, has been well absorbed. The better outlook for business in general throughout the country, bumper crop prospects, etc., cannot but reflect in better stock markets, both in the East and locally.

The local stocks are active, and have scored advances in price in most all cases for the week just past, and we look to see stocks in Duluth get more and more active and develop into a very active market within a very short time. —LEWIS H. MERRITT & CO.

CALUMET & SONORA

This stock is attracting a lot of attention and many trades were made today at $5.00. There are many reasons why this stock should have very strong advance; first you will find the property very rich and promising; second, the men in this company are wealthy and they believe in the mine, and back it with their money. Calumet & Sonora should easily advance to $12.00 this coming fall and should be a good purchase at that figure. This stock will be listed in the East and should enjoy a big market, for the Butte & Superior has paved the way for another good zinc stock and Calumet & Sonora ranks amongst the best.

BUTTE-ALEX SCOTT

Butte still continues to purchase Scott and there is only one way for this stock to go and that is up. Butte was bidding $12.00 today and if it is good enough for Butte people it should be all right for Duluth people. The other fellow is on the ground and knows.

INTERSTATE CALLAHAN

Very rich, you make no mistake in purchasing these shares. In time I look for this stock to sell above $20.00. It is in a rich camp and the ore body on the Callahan is nine feet wide, and listen, it assays 80 per cent lead and 42 ounces of silver to the ton. Now do you see why the Coeur d'Alene mines have paid $146,000,000.00 in dividends?

I am not the only one who has seen the great deposits in the Callahan. I refer you to I. Freimuth and Gus Carlson. Since my return from Wallace I have not seen them. It is up to them to say whether or not this advertisement is correct.

PURITAN MINING CO.

Without question one of the greatest properties that I have ever seen. It is located directly below the Tamarack and Chesapeake and on the same rich vein system. The Hercules is just beyond the Tamarack and on the same ledge matter, while the Mammoth Consolidated lies to the side. Puritan stock may advance to several dollars per share from a very low price. Callahan is located only a short distance away.

I will pledge my reputation on the outcome of Puritan. Never in my history have I handled a more promising stock. It has the possibilities of becoming one of the greatest lead and silver mines in the world.

GROWING DEMAND FOR RESIDENCE PROPERTY

Duluth Rental Situation Also Shows Signs of Improvement.

Market for Small Acre Tracts in Suburb Continues Strong.

A growing demand for city residence property has become apparent in the local market. For weeks and even months past, dealers say, there has been scarcely any inquiry for this class of improved property. During the past few days, however, there have been indications which point to a healthy movement in the better class of residence sites.

The market for small acre tracts in the suburbs continues strong. Within the past few weeks there has been considerable demand for acreage suitable for homecrafting purposes. Several new additions which have been placed on the market recently are now nearly closed out.

The rental situation also shows signs of great improvement. A number of outside firms have made applications to the various real estate agencies for suitable residences. The demand for good houses to rent promises to grow in view of the fact that the wholesale houses, manufacturing concerns, coal docks and railroad companies are putting on larger working forces this fall. The Canadian Northern railroad, which will open up for business with its new line this fall, is expected to bring many new families to Duluth.

* * *

At Ingleside park, the new acre tract addition which was put on the market two weeks ago today, but six out of 146 lots remain to be sold and it is understood that these have been spoken for and will be sold before the end of next week. The tracts at Ingleside are of one acre each.

* * *

The Whitney Wall company this week sold five lots in the Hall & Linderberg addition, each bringing $175. The same firm also negotiated the sale of a five-acre tract at Woodland from Erick Dahlberg to Louis Knickrehn for $1,000. Mr. Wall reports strong inquiry for suburban acreage.

* * *

Four more lots were sold this week by the Alliance Real Estate corporation which is operating in Glenwood park near the end of the Woodland car line. By the end of next week it is expected that everything will be sold out in this addition. The same firm sold a house and lot on Exeter street, West end, for $3,800.

* * *

The Locker-Donahue agency reports that a $40,000 deal in a city property is now pending. It is expected that it will be consummated by the end of next week. This firm reports considerable demand for good residence property.

* * *

What is perhaps the largest sale of the week in residences is the transfer from L. N. Case to P. Doran through the agency of J. B. Greenfield of the Case home at Fifty-first avenue east and London road. The consideration was about $11,500.

The Case home is one of the most attractive residences at Lakeside. The property fronts 100 feet on London road and is 300 feet deep to the lake shore, where it has a commanding view.

* * *

A. W. Keuhnow this week sold seven lots at Gary townsite near the steel plant, most of the purchasers being local people. Mr. Kuehnow advises that a start has been made in the laying of water mains for the temporary water works plant at New Duluth and Gary.

* * *

Ebert, Walker & McKnight have subdivided a large tract of land near one of the range towns and expect to have several sales for small farms closed up during the next few days.

* * *

A large acreage deal was put through this week by the Sargent Land company, which sold to the Mahoning Ore & Steel company the major portion of the north half of the south half of section 35, 58-21. The consideration was $15,000.

* * *

W. M. Prindle & Co. are experiencing continued activity in Kenilworth park. The demand for this class of residence property is strong and quite a number of sales have recently been made.

* * *

P. George Hanson & Sons of the West end this week sold to Laura T. Butchard a house and lot at 2631 West Second street for $3,400. The lot has a 25-foot frontage on the corner and the home is modern in every particular, with hot water heat.

* * *

A house and lot on the upper side of London road between Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh avenues east was sold for $2,500 from Hattie A. Walker to Eva S. Jerome this week.

* * *

Emil Solz has purchased from Samuel Sander for $1,400 a frontage of fifty feet on Seventh street at its northeast corner with Third avenue east.

* * *

Another very active week is reported at Gary. H. H. Peyton sold for W. S. Moon twenty-thrree lots. Duluth people, including business concerns, taking most of the property.

* * *

William J. Hayes, for a number of years connected with the business department of The Herald, has become a member of the firm of Jameson, Yers & Hayes, which has just opened a real estate office at the booming little city of Prince Albert, Sask., Can.

HERALD'S POPULAR-PRICED HOMES

The sketch today is a fine solution for a lot on the upper side of the street. The roof has been kept low to reduce the cost to a minimum and the general appearance is homelike and in good proportion. The front entrance and porch are interestingly designed in trellis work and give a richness in light and shade that no other style can equal at the same cost. The first floor plan is practical and the second shows a bathroom and four bedrooms with closets and cross ventilation. Two bedrooms might be obtained beneath the roof. The building in frame construction would cost $4,600 in Duluth or vicinity.

A. HOLSTEAD, Architect.

—CHOICE—
FARM LANDS

Roads have been constructed across the township of Kelsey, St. Louis county, Minnesota, opening up a rich agricultural and dairy region. Kelsey has a good modern schoolhouse.

Kelsey is an extension of the famous Meadowlands district, in which lands which sold for $12 to $15 an acre four years ago are held today at $75 to $100 an acre. This Kelsey land is equally as good and as well located, being on the main line of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railroad,

CLOSE TO THE HIGH PRICED MARKETS OF THE MESABA IRON RANGE.

The price is $15 an acre to bona-fide settlers. Small payment down and long time. Everything being raised in Meadowlands can be raised in Kelsey, and in a few years Kelsey farms will equal in value the splendid farms of Meadowlands.

Buy now and get the choice of some of the best and cheapest farm land left in the Northwest.

BUILDING ACTIVITIES OF THE WEEK IN DULUTH

Addition to the Fidelity Building Means New Skyscraper.

Rumors of New Family Hotel in the East End.

The letting of a $50,000 contract for five additional stories to the Fidelity building on West Superior street, near Lake avenue, this week by Architect C. E. Nystrom to George Lounsberry was the most significant feature of Duluth's building program during the past week.

The plans as prepared by Architect Nystrom call for the carrying of reinforced concrete construction through the entire building, which, when the addition is made, will tower twelve stories high. It will be second in height to the Alworth building. Work will be started at once and rushed to an early completion.

A rumor is current among the hotel men of the city that a new family hotel of good proportions will be built by Minneapolis investors in the East end, near the high-class residence district. It is said that a location has been selected in the vicinity of Twelfth avenue east and that the plans call for a substantial structure.

• • •

Architect A. Holstead is preparing plans for brick and frame English style residence to be erected on Fifth street, between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth avenues east, this fall for H. C. Strom. Figures will be out next week. The new home will cost $12,000.

• • •

Architect W. J. Sullivan is advertising for bids on a $20,000 store and bank building at Ely. It will be a one-story brick affair, 40x120, to be occupied by the First State Bank of Ely and the Finnish Stock company. The interior furnishings of the bank will cost $7,000 in addition to the $20,000.

The same architect is asking for bids on a $9,000 Catholic church at Gilbert.

• • •

Kelley & Williams are advertising for bids on the city hall and jail job at Cloquet, which will, when completed, cost $17,000. Four separate contracts will be let, the general contract, heating and plumbing contract, the electric wiring contract and the contract for equipping the jail. Bids will be opened on Sept. 3.

• • •

A $7,500 home is being built by M. A. Drew on Woodland avenue between Lewis and Hardy streets. The permit for this improvement was taken out this week.

• • •

John Stack has taken out a building permit for the construction of a $4,000 home on Third street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth avenues east.

• • •

J. Roy has secured the contract for remodeling the Miller hotel on Superior street between Second and Third avenues west. The improvements will cost $3,000.

• • •

The building permits of the week numbered twenty-three and represented improvements costing $39,600.

MARINE

MYSTERY ON THE TIONESTA

But No Sign of "Gyp the Blood" or "Lefty" Lewis.

Passengers Eyed Each Other Suspiciously During the Trip.

Did "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty" Lewis, the now famous New York gunmen, leap from the top deck of the steamer Tionesta last night while stilly darkness settled around the boat and do the surging waters of Lake Superior today cover their breathless bodies?

No, they did not and the waters do not. Neither were the men aboard when the steamer docked. But the supposed presence of the desperadoes caused a lot of excitement among the passengers, officers and employes on the boat on her trip to Duluth. The Tionesta docked this morning.

"I'm glad that trip is over," said an officer of the boat this morning. "We had a lot of fun but behind it all there was a certain background of suspicion, each passenger for his fellow.

"One school teacher of uncertain years got us up one night to search through the freight. She had dreamed that the desperate men were in hiding in the hold of the boat and she had heard of such hunches coming true."

"Where are you from?" asked one passenger of another.

"I'm Watson; used to be with Sher Holmes. Did you recogaize me? Don't give me away I'm looking for some gents from Noo York."

Thereupon the two got together and hatched up a good one which worked.

The two lay in wait in 139 for a robust chambermaid. When she entered she was grabbed from behind and Sher Holmes, after a hideous hiss, screamed, "I have you, Gyp the Blood. You are not Genevieve, the beautiful laundry maid. You are my prisoner."

When the startled young women made a move to get her handkerchief she was halted, for it was believed that she was after a gun. One of the porters later identified her to the entire satisfaction of all the passengers by stating that she lived two doors from him at Sault Ste. Marie.

A Tough One.

Behind all the joking and hoaxes planned, there was a breathless interest in who might be on the boat on the part of the passengers. No one would give any one else any satisfaction. One man admitted that he was Luke McLuke, the terror of Fifth alley, and was "so tough me mudder wouldn't speak to me."

Even the bellboys forgot to read their Diamond Dicks and Old King Bradys for the lure of excitement on board. Shuffle boards were deserted and there was no time for deck games, the passengers were too busy discussing suspicious looking people.

The captain was asked a hundred times if he took any new chambermaids or other help aboard during the past few days and one woman made constant use of her stateroom, having her meals sent up to her.

"I'm Red Gulch Mike. I scare women and children and my specialty is robbing children's banks. Never found one yet that I couldn't open. Now, kindly allow me to read my paper." That's what one man told people who seemed to think him other than what he was, a calm sort of fellow who has one of the biggest nurseries in the East.

Wild west names were given to everybody. In fact, they were the only names known on the upbound trip.

"It was some trip and it surely is too bad that we couldn't have had the men on board," smiled an officer of the boat this morning in telling about the excitement.

CLEVELAND YACHT IN DULUTH HARBOR.

The Spreejack, a pleasure craft from Cleveland, Ohio, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon with R. F. Grant, W. B. Hickox, K. B. Wick and O. G. Gowan, all of Cleveland, aboard.

The Spreejack is owned by Mr. Gowan. The boat averaged more than twenty miles an hour on her trip to Duluth.

The party is staying at the Spalding. They will tour the ranges before returning to Cleveland. The boat is at anchor near the main house of the Duluth Boat club.

$50,000,000 MORE FOR THE FARMERS

Five Crops in Minnesota Promise Big Increase This Year.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Five crops in Minnesota this year will yield the farmers $50,000,000 more than in 1911, according to estimates made today by Immigration Commissioner Maxfield. The values of the crops, based on the frequent reports which have reached the state office, follow:

	1911.	1912.
Oats	$26,000,000	$40,000,000
Wheat	40,000,000	65,000,000
Barley	26,000,000	30,000,000
Rye	3,500,000	5,000,000
Flax	5,800,000	10,000,000
Totals	$101,300,000	$150,000,000

The corn crop is a little backward and its value cannot well be estimated until later in the season, as much depends upon the date when heavy frost comes. Last year the crop was worth $40,000,000.

CAR STARTED TOO QUICKLY

"Large and Heavy Woman" Wants $5,000 Damages.

Because the sudden starting of a street car deposited "a large and heavy woman over 60 years old," on the floor of the vestibule of a car, the Duluth Street Railway company must defend a suit for $5,000.

Eva Griffin is the woman, and she filed suit for $5,000 in district court this morning.

The accident is alleged to have occurred May 16, 1912. She says in her complaint that she boarded a car at Seventh avenue east and Fourth street. While she was stepping from the vestibule into the car, she says, the car started suddenly, throwing her back. She alleges that she was in bed ten days, was unable to do her housework for six weeks, and is still unable to do anything but light work around the house.

STAKE-HOLDER BEING SUED

Claimed That He Did Not Carry Out Agreement.

Peter J. Van Vick, "stake-holder" in a deal between George E. Rolph and H. B. Detweiler, is drawn into court by a suit filed by Rolph in district court.

Rolph alleges that on Oct. 3, 1911, he and Detweiler entered into an agreement whereby Rolph was to purchase from Detweiler 125 shares of the stock of the Ron Fernandez Cigar company, for which he was to pay $1,500, of which $500 was to be in cash and $1,000 in promissory notes of $100 each. He claims that certain conditions were to be complied with and pending Detweiler's compliance, a check for $500 and the promisory notes were put in escrow by being deposited with Van Vick. Rolph claims that Van Vick turned the money and notes over to Detweiler without the conditions being complied with. He sues for $1,500.

MAY REVIVE AUTOMOBILE CLUB

Meeting Is Called for Monday Evening at Commercial Club.

The annual meeting of the Duluth Automobile club will be held at the Commercial club Monday evening. Officers will be elected and committees appointed to plan work for the coming year.

It is hoped to revive interest in the club, and make it an active factor in the good roads movement and other matters of interest to automobile owners.

VETERAN OF NAVY HERE

Rear Admiral Stevens, Retired, Pays Visit to Duluth.

Says United States Should Not Curtail Building of Ships.

Rear Admiral Thomas H. Stevens, retired, of the United States navy, is a guest today at the Holland hotel. Admiral Stevens came to Duluth on matters of business. He is accompanied by Mrs. Stevens and they will make the trip to the Yellowstone national park, after which the Admiral and Mrs. Stevens will go abroad.

Admiral Stevens, a grizzled veteran of the naval service, entered the navy in 1863 and saw service during the war of the rebellion. He was retired at the end of forty years of active service in the employ of the United States government.

"The United States should not adopt the policy of curtailing the building of ships," said the admiral. "A country with an adequate navy can always keep out of trouble. A country with a navy that is not sufficient is always the butt of smaller countries. The United States at the present time should not attempt to restrict ship building."

The last active duty of the admiral was as commander of the navy yard at Pensacola, Fla. He was in command of the Manila, on the Philippines and during his long career has been in many strange parts of the world.

PETITIONS FOR TRUNK HIGHWAY

County Engineer Working on Duluth-St. Vincent Road Plans.

County Engineer Cee has received blank petitions for the Duluth portion of the Duluth and St. Vincent road. He is now engaged in checking them up, and as soon as possible they will be circulated.

The Duluth and St. Vincent road project, which was originated by the good roads committee of the Northern Minnesota development association, has been under way since last fall. Legal obstacles were encountered several times, and many delays have been occasioned by the necessity of getting around them.

At one time the petition for the entire road was signed and approved by the state highway commission. Then the attorney general held that only one set of viewers could be named and one assessment made for the entire road. The good roads committee was anxious to make the county sections units, so the first plan was abandoned and arrangements made for new petitions, one for each county. These have just been completed and have been sent out to the different counties.

The road runs from Duluth through Bemidji and Crookston to St. Vincent, which is on the Canadian border line. Ultimately it is expected the Canadian government will run a road from St. Vincent to Winnipeg. The Duluth and St. Vincent road is one of the most important trunk lines in the Development association's system of highways in Northern Minnesota, and the circulation of petitions will be completed as soon as possible in order that the contract may be let.

COPPERS HAVE BEARISH DAY

While most of the coppers showed hardly any change today from the closing figures of yesterday, those that did change went for the most part lower. Butte & Superior closed a little more than $1 lower. North Butte, Cliff and Amalgamated also showed losses. Calumet & Arizona, however, was an exception to the general trend, being somewhat higher at the close. There was a general decline in values on the general stock market of New York, and this had a bearish sympathetic influence over the copper stocks.

• • •

Bee of Boston wired as follows to Paine, Webber & Co.: "There is no reason at this end for the decline in Hancock. In fact, it ought to go the other way on conditions at the mine. The crosscut on the thirty-fourth level is showing up well in copper for sixty feet."

• • •

The following wire was received from Boston by Gay & Sturgis: "European consumers of copper are expected to come into the market in the next week or so, after a period of comparative dullness. When this occurs it is expected among copper dealers that the price of 17¾c will be advanced further on increased sales. American consumers, at least the larger ones, such as the brass, wire and electric companies, are buying in normal quantities at the market for their needs against orders taken. Quotations of 17¼c and 17½c heard by the trade are attributed to smaller dealers, while those who place several ton-lot orders up to a million pounds or more, are holding fast to the 17¾c more generally quoted."

• • •

Gay & Sturgis received the following copper closing letter from Boston: "There was very little activity in today's market, but what there was was at the expense of values. For two days the market seems to have been in a very undecided state. Conditions are sound and warrant higher prices. The metal market is strong and yet the copper stocks are not wanted. It is a peculiar state of affairs and a discouraging one from a trader's standpoint. But we feel that with our bountiful crops and a general revival in business, no matter who is elected president this fall, we will have a good market."

• • •

Paine, Webber & Co. received from Foster at Boston the following closing copper letter: "Local coppers were inclined to sag today and at one time broke easily on stop orders in Hancock and Lake. At the lower level good buying came in and at the close the offerings were small. Old Dominion made a new high price at 60 and is going further. Calumet & Arizona is being picked up by insiders all the time. I look for a revival of activity next week."

LEAVE FOR CAMP MILLER

Advance Party Will Prepare Tents for Y. M. C. A. Boys.

The advance party for Camp Miller, the boys' department summer camp, left over the Soo road yesterday afternoon with the tents, provisions, etc., the party was in charge of Mr. Batchelor. Everything will be ready for the campers when they arrive Monday. The main party will leave Monday afternoon, leaving the Soo station at 2:30 in charge of Secretary McLeod and the leaders.

The boys' building will be closed during the camp period but will re-open again Tuesday, Sept. 3. The swimming schedule for the balance of the month has been changed to the following dates: Monday, 2:30, Wednesday, 7:30; Friday at 2:30.

Governor Wilson said he anticipated that a larger crowd would come today than attended the nomination ceremonies last week.

The Women's Wilson and Marshall league headquarters near the governor's cottage was in charge of Mrs. Caroline B. Alexander of Hoboken, who probably will be president of the organization.

Talked of Work Done.

New Jersey's legislative reforms during the last two years and the application of their principles to a nation-wide political condition was the theme which Governor Woodrow Wilson developed in his address.

"It has surprised the people of the United States," said Governor Wilson, "to find New Jersey at the front in the enterprise of reform.

"I suppose you know the force that is behind the new party recently formed, the so-called Progressive party. It is the force of discontent with the regular parties of the United States. It is the feeling that men have gone into blind alleys and come out often enough, and that they propose to find an open road for themselves."

Those Who Fear Changes.

"Who are the arch-conservatives nowadays?" he asked. "Who are the men who utter fervid praise of the Constitution of the United States? They are the gentlemen who get behind these documents and play hide and seek there for themselves. If they are afraid that radicalism will sweep them off the stage, they have only themselves to thank. No man ever brought the law in contempt except those who took advantage of it for their own private purposes."

ORDER OF HEARING ON PETITION FOR ADMINISTRATION—

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis.—ss.

In Probate Court.

In the Matter of the Estate of Emma McDermid, Decedent.

THE PETITION OF Archibald L. McDermid, having been filed in this Court, representing, among other things, that Emma McDermid, then being a resident of the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, died intestate, in the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, on the 22nd day of February, 1912; leaving estate in the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, and that said petitioner is the surviving husband of said decedent, and praying that Letters of Administration of the estate of said decedent be granted to said Archibald L. McDermid.

IT IS ORDERED, That said petition be heard before this Court, at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House in Duluth, in said County, on Monday, the 3rd day of September, 1912, at ten o'clock, A. M., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted.

ORDERED FURTHER, That this Order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald, according to law, and that a copy of this Order be served on the County Treasurer of St. Louis County not less than ten days prior to said day of hearing.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., August, 9th, 1912.

By the Court.

S. W. GILPIN,
Judge of Probate.

(Seal, Probate Court, St. Louis Co., Minn.)

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.

NOTICE OF SALE BY ADVERTISEMENT.

Notice is hereby given that default has been made in the conditions of a mortgage executed by Robert C. Mitchell and Fannie L. Mitchell, his wife, mortgagors, to W. C. Twoomey, mortgagee, dated June 18, 1903, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of St. Louis County, Minnesota, on the 10th day of July, 1903, at 9:45 o'clock a. m., in Book 163 of Mortgages, on page 548 thereof; said default consists of the non-payment of the principal, three hundred and fifty dollars ($350.00) and interest amounting to two hundred twenty-three and 90-100 dollars, ($223.90).

That on June 14, 1904, said mortgage was assigned by the said W. C. Twoomey, mortgagee, to James Brodie, and the deed of assignment recorded on the 26th day of April, 1912, at 8 o'clock a. m., in said Register of Deeds office in Book 240 of Mortgages on page 108 thereof; that the amount claimed to be due on said mortgage at this date is five hundred seventy-three and 90-100 dollars ($573.90), together with the sum of twenty-four and 3.100 dollars ($24.03) the amount of the taxes for the year 1911 on said premises, which taxes have been paid by the assignee of the mortgagee herein.

That the premises described in and covered by said mortgage are lots nine (9), ten (10) and eleven (11) in block ten (10) of Woodland Park, First Division, in the city of Duluth, in St. Louis County, Minnesota, according to the plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the Register of Deeds for St. Louis County, Minnesota; that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of said premises at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash, by the Sheriff of St. Louis County, Minnesota, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Duluth, St. Louis County, and State of Minnesota, on Thursday, the 26th day of September at 10 o'clock a. m., to satisfy the amount then due on said mortgage together with the aforesaid sum paid as taxes, and the taxes if any, due on said premises, and the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) attorneys' fees stipulated in the said mortgage.

Dated Aug. 10, 1912.

SENATOR FALL SAYS MEXICAN CONDITIONS CANNOT LAST LONG

New Mexican Contradicts Reports Given Out By State Department.

Tells of Americans in Mexico Arming and Uniting for Self-Defense.

Declares Madero Government Is Unable to Give Protection.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Conditions in Mexico were related to the senate today by Senator Fall of New Mexico, who arose to a question of personal privilege to declare "absurd and ridiculous," a statement purporting to have come from President Madero to the effect that Mr. Fall had caused the failure of peace negotiations between the Mexican government and Gen. Orozco.

Senator Fall denied he ever had any connection with Orozco regarding the peace negotiations.

Conditions in Mexico could not last much longer, he said.

Senator Culberson of Texas had read a telegram from Secretary Knox dated July 30 saying conditions in Mexico were growing better.

"I have information before me at the present time," replied Mr. Fall, holding up to the view of the senators a mass of papers and telegrams, "that the statements are unfounded. My sources of information are superior to those of the state department, but I cannot divulge the names of the parties."

Americans Are Armed.

Senator Fall declared that in several mining camps in Mexico, owned by Americans and where there were hun-

DENY THAT POPE LEFT VATICAN

Report That He Went to Visit Sick Sister Is Declared False.

Rome, Aug. 19.—A statement circulated in the press here that the pope went out of the Vatican to visit his sister, Rosa, who was said to have been stricken with paralysis, is officially denied at the Vatican today.

The officials declare the stroke of paralysis suffered by the pope's sister occurred last June and was of such a slight nature it caused no serious anxiety. Rosa has almost entirely recovered.

DELEGATES OF LODGES MEET

Fraternal Organizations Hold Convention at St. Paul.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Associated Fraternities of America opened their annual session here today and will continue for three days. Delegates from fraternal orders in all parts of the United States and Canada are present. The meeting was called to order by President A. K. Talbot of Lincoln, Neb. Secretary E. W. Donnovan of Detroit, Mich., reported that the protection in force represented by the organization amounts to more than $5,000,000,000 and the death and disability benefits paid out annually total $5,600,000.

CELEBRATE NEW ULM ANNIVERSARY

Half Century Since the Massacre at That Place Occured.

New Ulm, Minn., Aug. 19.—The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Indian massacre which took place in August 1862, opened here today and will continue during the week. The town is filled with visitors for the occasion and more are arriving on every train.

Of the residents of New Ulm who participated in the defense half a century ago, only twenty-five are living. They have been made honorary members of the reception committee and some of them are meeting the trains to welcome the visitors as they arrive.

A feature of the celebration is two buildings marked with tablets. They were built before the war. One was used as a refuge for women and children, where hundreds were huddled in a small basement. The other is now occupied as a hotel, and was used as a hospital by the late Dr. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., who came here to assist in the care of the wounded after the fearful slaughter, by the Indians.

A party of Indians is expected late today from the lower Sioux agency at Morton, Minn., the site occupied by the Indians in 1862 and from which point the outbreak radiated. They will set up a village, which will be one of the places of interest during the week.

SENATE HITS TRADE COURT

Passes Bill Formerly Vetoed Because of Objections By Taft.

Clause Abolishing Commerce Court Remains in the Measure.

Washington, Aug. 19.—After a spirited debate the senate today passed the vetoed legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill still carrying a provision for the abolishment of the commerce court.

A majority of the appropriations committee reported the bill with provision for the retention of the court, and when this was eliminated Mr. Taft's friends predicted that the bill again would be vetoed.

The house already has passed the measure.

COOPER ATTACKS MANY DAM BILLS

Wisconsin Man Gets Several Stricken From the House Calendar.

Washington, Aug. 19.—In a general attack on all dam and water power site bills, Representative Cooper of Wisconsin, Republican, today had bill after bill stricken from the calendar through objections. These included the omnibus water power site bill on which a bitter fight had been expected.

WOMAN SHOOTS GOTHAM LAWYER

Insane Former Client Fires Three Shots at Albert C. Fach.

New York, Aug. 19.—District Attorney Albert C. Fach of Richmond Borough was shot and seriously wounded today in front of the Stapleton National bank at Stapleton, Staten Island, as he was on his way to his office. The shooting was done by a woman. Mr. Fach was taken to a hospital, where it was said he was seriously hurt.

The shooting was done by Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, who is believed to be mentally deranged because of family troubles that brought her into contact with Mr. Fach. She was taken into custody. Mrs. Evans fired three shots, all of which took effect.

IOWA BOY SCOUTS AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Washington, Aug. 19.—A delegation of Boy Scouts who came here on bicycles from Burlington, Iowa, was introduced to President Taft today by Representative Kennedy.

Newlands Plan Held Up.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Attempts to secure consideration of the Newlands resolution for a joint congressional committee to confer with President Taft on tariff legislation failed today in the senate. Senator Smoot objected.

EVERGLADES REPORT MADE

Moss Committee Lets Wilson Off But Scores Department.

Tells Conclusions Regarding Scandal Over Florida Lands.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The Moss committee today presented to the house two reports of its investigation of the Florida Everglades charges and the subsequent inquiry into the conduct of the drainage division of the department of agriculture. The reports take up the charge that a certain circular unfavorable to the sale of Everglades lands was suppressed in the department of agriculture through influence of real estate operators; the question of relations between Assistant Secretary Hays of the department and J. O. Wright, a former government employe, in a land project at Lake Mattamuskeet, N. C., and the dismissal of C. G. Elliott and A. D. Morehouse from the drainage division of the department on technical charges involving the transfer of government funds from one account to another.

Secretary Wilson escaped personal arraignment at the hands of the majority in the findings on the Everglades charges. The department's policy toward the Everglades was characterized as vacillating, "most unfortunate," and having subjected the department to much suspicion and criticism. The minority report, signed by Representative Sloan of Nebraska, who said his views were approved by Representatives Higgins and Madden, held that Secretary Wilson had acted within his discretion.

Disagree on Hays.

Hays was condemned by the majority for his relations with Wright in the North Carolina project, while the minority held that his interest was not

SPENT THE MONEY TO ELECT TEDDY

Sensational Reply to Roosevelt Men's Charges Framed By Penrose.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania is preparing a reply to the statements by Roosevelt's supporters in Pennsylvania that impeachment proceedings will be instituted against him on account of the payment of money made to him by John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company.

According to reports circulated in Washington, Senator Penrose's reply will be sensational. It is understood he will acknowledge having received $25,000 from John D. Archbold in October, 1904, but that he will charge that most of the money was used to bring about the election of Theodore Roosevelt as president. It is said in this connection that Senator Penrose will make public letters written to him by Roosevelt in the 1904 campaign.

Senator Penrose's friends contend that Col. Roosevelt knew of Senator Penrose's efforts in his behalf in Pennsylvania and that he was financing the campaign there.

REVOLT AGAINST HIS GOVERNMENT IS GROWING

DON ADOLFO DIAZ,
President of the Republic of Nicaragua.

1,000 LEFT LYING DEAD

Health Conditions Are Distressing—Corinto May Be Attacked.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Revolution is spreading in Nicaragua. Health conditions about Managua, the capital, are distressing, according to state department reports today from American Minister Weitzel.

No effort has been made to dispose of the bodies of those killed during the bombardment of the city. The minister reports 1,000 bodies in the fields.

Chinandega has been attacked by the rebels and an attack upon Corinto, the principal seaport on the Pacific, is feared. Telegraph communication between Managua and Corinto is interrupted.

Mena, the rebel leader, has received large quantities of supplies and shows indications of having financial backing. The presence of blue jackets from the gunboat Annapolis, reinforced by marines from Panama, has restored confidence among the foreigners in the city.

BEACH TAKES CHARGE AT WALKER TUESDAY.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Dr. George W. Beach, former superintendent of the Iowa state sanitarium, will take charge of the Minnesota sanitarium at Walker tomorrow, according to P. M. Ringdal, chairman of the state board of control. Dr. Beach went to Walker several days ago. He succeeds Dr. L. H. Ohlinger, resigned.

SCHEPPS CORROBORATES ROSE'S STORY THAT BECKER ARRANGED FOR THE MURDER OF ROSENTHAL

NILES, MICH., STORMSWEPT

Two Known to Be Dead and Immense Loss of Property.

Rain and Electrical Disturbance Continue Twenty-four Hours.

Niles, Mich., Aug. 19.—Two men are known to be dead, and property damaged to the extent of many thousands of dollars as the result of a terrific rain and electrical storm which struck Niles late Saturday and raged continuously for twenty-four hours. Train service on the Michigan Central road to and from Chicago was interrupted. Other roads also sustained damage. A number of freight cars were washed into the St. Joseph river.

Herman Villweck and Otto Feather were killed by lightning while standing in Feather's barn. C. W. Hushower of South Bend was struck by lightning and seriously injured. He was in an automobile. Three men who were with him were uninjured.

Hundreds of men, wrecking crews, section hands and railroad officials are here attempting to repair the Michigan Central yards. Tracks were put out of commission for 1,000 feet.

Pavements Washed Out.

Water rushed through the business streets, tearing out pavements, foundations of buildings and sweeping some small buildings away. Nine circus cars in the Big Four railroad yards were among those which were washed away.

A private dam belonging to the Cantwell Milling company and several highway and railway bridges were washed out. Interurban service between St. Joseph and South Bend is tied up. At South Bend the river rose three feet in twelve hours.

Benton Harbor Suffers.

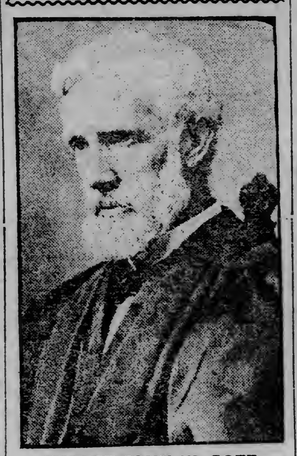

Benton Harbor, Mich., Aug. 19.—Thousands of dollars damage was caused by a storm which raged in this district Saturday night and Sunday. Traffic has been paralyzed. Many districts are flooded and the property loss in the city alone will probably be quite heavy.

WINNIPEG IS AFTER MEETING OF MOOSE.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 19.—Opening the twenty-fourth annual convention of the Loyal Order of Moose, delegates from all parts of the United States and from several foreign countries assembled here today at convention hall. The convention, which will be in session all week, promises to see several lively contests for supreme offices.

Winnipeg, Man., has sent a large delegation that has already commenced a strong campaign to land the next convention for that city. Winnipeg is opposed most vigorously by Mobile and Cincinnati.

TAFT TALKS OF BIG DITCH

Tells Congressmen His Wishes Regarding Panama Canal Bill.

Fears Legislation Might Annul Hay-Pauncefote Treaty.

Washington, Aug. 19.—President Taft today began the task of convincing members of the house and senate that the Panama canal bill should contain some feature to assure other nations that the United States did not intend to violate the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

Mr. Taft gave a resolution to Representative Sherley, drawn to insure the right of any foreign shipowner to have the free tolls provision passed upon by the United States court. Some members think the bill already provides for that, but the resolution the president submitted today specifically provides for it. Mr. Sherley said he would submit the resolution to the house and senate conferees on the bill and learn if they were willing to have it presented to congress.

Might Annul Treaty.

In addition to Mr. Sherley, the president today talked with Senator Jones of Washington and Senator Chamberlain of Oregon.

It was said that the president believes the Panama canal bill might have the effect of nullifying the Hay-Pauncefote treaty if not in harmony with it. In construing the Chinese exclusion law several years ago the supreme court held that the law superseded the treaty with China.

Those who talked with Mr. Taft today about the bill were convinced he would sign it. They said, however, that the president would prefer to have congress pass a resolution reaffirming the good faith of the United States in its treaty obligations.

MILLER FILES FOR RE-ELECTION

Says He Is "Republican" But Does Not Comment on Taft or Teddy.

(From The Herald Washington Bureau.)

Washington, Aug. 19.—Representative Clarence B. Miller is officially a Republican candidate for re-election to congress. He announced today that he had mailed his filing papers to the secretary of state at St. Paul.

Beyond this announcement Mr. Miller had nothing to say about his preference as between Taft and Roosevelt.

"I expect to make my position clear in the speeches I will make during the primary campaign," said Mr. Miller.

ASTOR STORK COSTS $1,000 EVERY DAY.

New York, Aug. 19.—John Jacob Astor VI is reported to be the most expensive baby ever brought into the world. Gossip in the medical world is that Dr. Edwin Bradford Cragin, who is responsible for the safe advent of this baby, is receiving $1,000 a day for each day he is in attendance on Mrs. Madaline Force Astor and her young son.

Dr. Cragin left his country place at Colchester Conn., and took up his residence at the Astor mansion Aug. 4. John Jacob Astor VI arrived Aug. 14.

It is said Dr. Cragin will remain a member of the Astor household until early in September. At the rate of $1,000 a day his fee would total between $40,000 and $45,000. No heir to a king's throne ever entered the world under such expensive conditions.

POLICE TRY TO GET HANDS ON WITNESS

District Attorney Whitman Refuses to Let Officers Have Him.

Says Man Brought From Arkansas Gave Him Complete Story.

Civilian Is Included in Big Story of Graft in New York.

New York, Aug. 19.—Sam Schepps came back to Broadway today with a statement corroborating the confession of "Bald Jack" Rose, charging Police Lieutenant Becker with instigating the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal.

For two hours Schepps and District Attorney Whitman were in conference in a stateroom on a New York Central train, speeding south from Albany, and when the train reached New York, Mr. Whitman said:

"Schepps has done all that we expected of him. He has corroborated the most important parts of Jack Rose's confession. You must not ask me for details."

Opposing interests of the district attorney's office and the police were again in evidence when Schepps arrived. Two detectives from headquarters, saying they were acting on orders, attempted to seize the little man before he left the train; but Mr. Whitman was quick to announce that his office was in command and the detectives did not get their man.

Under Whitman's Charge.

Instead he was taken to the West side police court by Detective Thomas of the district attorney's staff and there held a prisoner on a technical charge of vagrancy, as a material witness along with Rose, Vallon and Webber.

Schepps himself refused to say a word about his conference with Mr. Whitman. To all inquiries he gave grinning responses that they had "just had a sociable chat." As for fear of the "system's" vengeance, he grinned again and tilted back his straw hat as indicative of his unconcern.

Of the authorities, Mr. Whitman

MELROSE WATER COMPLAINTS UP

State Board of Health Will Hear Charges of Pollution.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—A special meeting of the state board of health will be held tomorrow to hear a complaint from Melrose, Minn., where the local board of health charges that the city water supply is being polluted. The local board has notified the state board that sewage is run into a mill pond there and water from the pond is pumped into a city water system.

The complaint of the city of Minneapolis that Anoka, Minn., residents are dumping sewage into Rum river, a tributary of the Mississippi, thereby polluting the water supply of the Mill City, will not be heard tomorrow, as planned. By mutual agreement, discussion of the controversy has been postponed till the October meeting, and an effort is being made by officials of the two towns to reach an amicable agreement.

OFFICER TRIES TO KILL FAMILY

British Captain Commits Suicide After Murdering Daughters.

East Bourne, Eng., Aug. 19.—Capt. Hicks Murray, an officer attached to the Gordon Highlanders and who had seen much Indian service, last night shot and killed his two young daughters, severely wounded his wife and then committed suicide with the same weapon. He is supposed to have been temporarily insane.

After the crime had been committed the house in which Capt. Murray resided was mysteriously burned to the ground.

His wife, who had succeeded in escaping, was found later, wandering about the streets in her night dress, screaming for her children.

Five bodies were found in the ruins of the Murray home, and of these two have not been identified.

Capt. Murray left a letter in which he said:

"I am hopelessly ruined and have for this reason killed all those dependent on me. I would like all of us to be buried in one grave. God forgive me."

MARINE NEWS

GRAIN BOATS IN DEMAND

Brokers Are Beginning to Actively Bid for Tonnage.

Owners Coy About Signing Up for the Fall Season.

Grain brokers are beginning to sit up and take notice. They were active this morning, offering from 1¾ to 2 cents flat in an effort to line up tonnage for the last half of September.

In some quarters efforts were made to obtain options on tonnage at 2¼ cents. The feeling is very general that 2½ cents will be paid for the last half of September on cargoes from Duluth to Buffalo. At least 3 cents will prevail during October and November, it is freely predicted among marine men, and many of them believe that the rate may be higher than that figure.

The rate has been at 1½ cents for some time past. It took a drop as soon as the Canadian grain received last spring in such large quantities had been shipped out. At the beginning of the season the rate was 1¾ cents, which later dropped to 1½ cents and finally to 1¼ cents, where it rested during the middle of the season.

The rush in grain is expected to break all records this fall, and it is thought that the rate will soar as soon as the elevators begin to receive the first consignments.

Boats which have fulfilled their ore contracts are not signing up for more very freely. Many of the owners believe that it will pay them to run wild for a time, getting a load from time to time and being on the job when the grain begins to come.

Coal is not moving as fast as it was. Fog held the boats back to some extent last week, but it was slow work at the docks that caused the greatest delay.

ATTEMPT WAS UNSUCCESSFUL

Striking Stevedores Refuse to Work Unless Pay Is Raised.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 19.—William B. Connors made an unsuccessful attempt to settle the strike of 1,500 [illegible] freight handlers, who went out Thursday for an increase in wages and betterment of working conditions. Mr. Connors was ready to concede every point demanded, except the advance in wages from 33 to 35 cents an hour, his contracts with the railroads and the lake lines making that impossible, he declared. The meeting ended in a noisy demonstration, during which Mr. Connors left the hall. Another meeting has been arranged for tomorrow.

Port of Duluth.

Arrivals: I. M. Scott, Edenborn, Congdon, J. J. H. Brown, G. A. Tomlinson, Superior, merchandise; Butler, Jr., Kopp, Heffelfinger, George Peavey, Sinaloa, Hugh Kennedy, light for ore.

FLY IN THE OINTMENT

Strikes Delaying Package Freighters During a Very Busy Season.

With Plenty of Freight, Owners Are Having Labor Troubles.

Managers of package freight lines are having their troubles this season in spite of the fact that there has been business in plenty for all thus far and a large volume now ready for movement.

Strikes at several points on the Great Lakes have been a draw back to an otherwise ideal shipping year. No sooner has one strike been settled than another would spring up and in some instances the uprising would get under way before a strike previously begun was settled.

The latest strike is at Buffalo and 1,500 men are out. They demand a raise in wages and from the way they are tying up action at the other end of the lakes they are likely to be successful, it was stated by a local marine man this morning.

"They have the docks completely sewed up at Buffalo," said a local marine men this morning, who was busy all the morning reading telegrams from Buffalo.

The telegrams showed that on Saturday no freight was moved at the docks of the Erie, Mutual, Anchor line, Lehigh Valley, New York Central or Western Transit company's piers.

A large number of boats are tied up at the other end of the lakes and it is as big an inconvenience to Duluth shippers and agents as it is to the Eastern people.

The men are asking for a raise of 2 cents an hour. They have been receiving 33 cents and they want 35.

Freight is piling up on the docks and to Duluth men it looks very much as though the freight handlers would win their point.

The strike at Port Arthur was settled Friday, the men compromising with the company and taking an increase of 2½ cents an hour.

A. E. STEWART GOES ASHORE

Is on Sturgeon Island—In No Danger Unless Storm Arises.

[illegible] N. Y., Aug. 19.—The steamer A. E. Stewart, carrying a cargo of 200,000 bushels of wheat for Buffalo mills, ran ashore on Sturgeon point, twenty miles west of here, early yesterday. She is resting easily on an even keel and can be floated after part of her cargo has been lightered. She carried no passengers. The crew remained on board.

The weather was heavy at the time, both rain and fog obscuring the south shore line. The Stewart was running at reduced speed when she struck, and although it is a rocky shore, the bottom is comparatively smooth and her hull probably was not badly damaged.

A wrecking tug was unable to move the Stewart, and went to Buffalo for a lighter. The captain of the Mason reported that unless a storm blows up, the Stewart will not be badly damaged.

Notice to Mariners.

An extract from a notice to mariners issued under the authority of the secretary of the navy gives the following information:

(a) Big Bay Point light station on the southern shore of Lake Superior will be changed from a black to a white color.

(b) The wreck of the steamer Flora M. Hill, sunk in five and a half fathoms of water about 800 feet eastward of the two-mile crib in Chicago harbor, will be removed.

(c) Seven lantern lights are maintained in the Kalamazoo river to mark the channel between the lake and the city of Saugatuck. Three fixed lights on the starboard hand and four fixed white lights on the port hand instead of seven red and six white lights as stated.

(d) About Aug. 20 Martin reef light vessel No. 89, moored in the north channel, Straits of Mackinac, will be temporarily withdrawn from her station, and the station will be marked with a gas buoy painted black and numbered 89, showing an intermittent white light every ten seconds, thus lighted five seconds and eclipsed five seconds.

(e) During August the Poe reef light vessel No. 59, moored in south channel, Straits of Mackinac, will be withdrawn from her station and the station will be marked by a gas buoy, painted red and numbered 59, showing an intermittent white light every ten seconds, thus lighted five seconds, eclipsed five seconds.

(f) The lake survey steamer J. L. Lusk, now conducting surveys along the western shore of Lake Huron, has discovered a number of shoals in the entrance to Saginaw bay. These shoals are of very small extent and of rocky formation.

(g) The dredging of an eighteen-foot channel from the mouth of the Saginaw river to the eighteen-foot contour in Saginaw bay, and the work on the sixteen-foot channel in the river from its mouth to Zilwaukee will be completed this season. The depth in the bay is referred to an elevation of 581.1 feet above mean tide at New York and that in the river to an elevation of 579 feet.

(h) The wreck of the steamer Bothnia, which lies in fifty feet of water above the Star Island dock, St. Clair flats, will be removed this season. Specifications for its removal are being prepared.

(i) A fixed white light has been established off East Twenty-third street, Cleveland harbor, to mark the location of a timber crib now in the course of construction at that point.

HELD UP BY MASKED MAN

Traction Company Cashier Forced to Hand Over $135.25.

Is Left Bound and Gagged By His Midnight Visitor.

A. J. Adrehan, night foreman at the Interstate Traction company offices at 1825 Lake avenue south, was forced at the point of a revolver in the hands of a masked robber to open the company's safe and turn over $135.25 in cash shortly before 2 o'clock this morning.

He said that the robber had evidently been waiting for him to go outside, as he was commanded with a gesture of the gun to hold up his hands as he stepped from the front door. He complied and followed the directions of the masked hold-up artist.

The robber did not speak a single word the entire time. With signs he directed Adrehan's operations. Keeping the gun trained on him he made him open the safe and hand him the cash.

After he had pocketed the money, the receipts of the conductors, he forced Adrehan to put his hands behind his back. He tied his hands together with a long piece of heavy rope and led him into an adjacent room. There he tied the other end or the rope to a steam pipe close to the ceiling. When that was completed he forced a filthy handkerchief into the mouth of the prisoner and then bound a long cloth over his eyes, knotting the ends at the back of his head.

Adrehan waited about two minutes and then freed himself. He says it was not difficult as the knots of the rope which fastened his arms were not very tight. Pushing the cloth from his face he ran five blocks to the residence of Manager Dun and told him of the hold-up.

The police made an investigation at the offices but found nothing to give any clew to the identity of the robber. Adrehan says that he wore a long, black mask which completely covered his face. He describes him as being a large man who wore a greenish coat, but he thinks he would have difficulty in recognizing him.

Adrehan has charge of the offices at night. He takes the receipts of the conductors when they finish their runs and also acts as watchman.

WOMEN HECKLE GREY AT CHURCH

Suffragettes Waylay British Secretary and Accuse Him of Betraying Cause.

Embleton, Northumberland, Aug. 19.—A party of enterprising suffragettes waylaid Sir Edward Grey, the British secretary of state for foreign affairs, while he was leaving church yesterday and engaged him in a warm argument on the question of woman suffrage.

Sir Edward at first said: "I refuse to discuss the question with you here," but the women declared that the opportunity had been denied elsewhere.

Sir Edward refused to receive a delegation of the women, whereupon one of them demanded:

"How dare you betray the women's cause by allowing the reform bill to be drafted to include men only?"

Sir Edward replied he had put down an amendment to the bill giving women also the suffrage.

"You know that amendment was of no use," a woman shouted.

Sir Edward replied: "You know nothing about parliamentary procedure or you would not say that."

After further argument Sir Edward succeeded in reaching his motor car, in which he dashed from the scene.

TWO FAIRS TO PATRONIZE

Duluth Interested in Both County and State Exhibitions.

Zenith City Must "Make Good" on Duluth Day.

The Commercial club committees, which are engaged in promoting the booster excursions to the county fair at Hibbing, Aug. 31, and to the state fair at Hamline Sept. 4 are working to get a crowd of at least 500 to make each trip.

Both trips are equally important. Duluth has never been shown the proper interest in the county fair at Hibbing, and this year it will have an opportunity to vindicate itself by sending a crowd that will impress on range people the fact that Duluth is interested in the fair and wants to help in making it a big success.

Duluth is signally honored by the state fair management this year by having Sept. 4 set aside as Duluth day. Minneapolis and St. Paul have each had a day set aside at former fairs, but Duluth has not been so recognized until this year. The agricultural and publicity committees of the Commercial club are anxious to have Duluth show appreciation. Special trains will carry the crowd, and the complete Third Regiment band will be taken along to assist in showing the people of the state generally that Duluth is on the map.

Aside from the necessity of boosting Duluth, both fairs will be worthy of a visit. Duluth is deeply interested in the agricultural development of St. Louis county. The development has been rapid in the last few years, but many Duluth people have not kept pace with it. The extent of St. Louis county's agricultural wealth will be reflected by the exhibits at the Hibbing fair, and Duluth people who want to catch up in knowledge of what is around the city will be able to do so at Hibbing.

The state fair is greater than ever this year, and it has always been known as the greatest state fair in the United States. C. P. Craig, who is manager of the agricultural, horticultural and floricultural sections of the fair, promises Duluth people who visit the fair an eye-opening exposition of Minnesota's agricultural wealth.

Day coaches that are comfortable, clean and brand new are to be enjoyed on the new afternoon train over the Soo Line to the Twin Cities. Leaves Duluth 2 p. m. Superior 2:30 p. m.; arrives St. Paul 6:15 p. m., Minneapolis 6:50 p. m. Ticket office, Superior street and Sixth avenue west and 430 Spalding hotel.

GREAT NORTHERN ROAD GETS READY

Assembling Its Equipment in North Dakota for Big Grain Rush.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Great Northern is doing everything possible to assemble its rolling stock for taking care of the big grain crop that will be hauled out of the Northwest this season. Every car available has been pressed into service, and everywhere there is in the air that stir which accompanies the completion of such preparations as have been necessary this season.

Already some grain shipments have been made off the Dakota division, several cars being loaded at Sprague siding, in Polk county, while some cars have been loaded in Harwood, Argusville and Gardner, in Cass county. By the end of this week it is expected that the grain shipping season will be well under way.

Thirty-One Freight Crews.

Last night the crew board at the dispatcher's office in Grand Forks showed a total of thirty-one freight crews in service, which is only ten less than the greatest number of crews employed during the height of the grain rush in 1911. The figure attained in 1911 was the greatest that had ever been reached since the Dakota division headquarters were located in Grand Forks.

When the shipping of grain commences in earnest, the total number of crews that will be employed on this division will be about fifty, and they will be capable of handling from 20 to 25 per cent more traffic than has ever before been cared for on the lines of the Great Northern in this section.

ASK CO-OPERATION OF THE SHIPPERS

Railroads Trying to Avert a Shortage of Cars This Fall.

That railroad facilities will be taxed to the utmost this fall, was the statement emanating officially from the Pennsylvania railroad today.

The Pennsylvania has instructed all of its freight solicitors to urge shippers to assist the railroads in their efforts to prevent any car shortage. The importance of prompt loading and unloading of cars is being impressed upon shippers, who are also being asked to co-operate with the railroads to prevent any congestion of traffic.

The Pennsylvania, in pursuance of its policy in such cases of taking early steps to preclude, if possible, any likelihood of a car shortage on its lines, is advising its patrons to have freight ready for loading when cars are placed on sidings, and is urging them to load all cars as near to capacity as practicable, in order to get the greatest possible service out of each car used.

The prediction by the Pennsylvania of a heavy fall traffic is especially interesting at this time, following, as it does, a statement just issued by W. A. Garrett, chairman of the Association of Western Railways, in which he makes an appeal to industrial traffic managers and commercial organiations. Mr. Garrett says:

"The time is here for the railways and shippers of the United States to begin active and energetic preparations to prevent a car shortage. The indications are that if they do not begin such preparations at once they will be confronted next October with the worst situation that has existed since October, 1907, just before the panic. No railway man or shipper needs to be told what that situation was. Railway facilities were inadequate to move the business. Yards and terminals were congested, and heavy loss to the railways, the shippers and the public resulted.

"Conditions that are likely to cause a heavy demand for and a rapid reduction in the supply of cars exist. The amount of traffic handled varies greatly during different parts of the year. During about four months, beginning around Oct. 1, there are apt to be shortages. This is owing chiefly to the fact that that is the season of heaviest crop movement. Now, the crop prospects in the West this year are usually good. That helps to make the prospect of a car shortage unusually bad.

"If the bad situation now threatening is to be averted, the managers of the railroads must have the hearty support and co-operation of the shippers and consignees of the country. The shippers and consignees can give such support and co-operation by moving all lumber, coal, cement and other freight that they can within the next few weeks, instead of delaying and throwing it all on the railways when they are staggering under the crop movement."

THOUSANDS TO CANADIAN WEST

Railroads Taking Many Harvest Hands Via Duluth Route.

Hundreds of men are being shipped to the Canadian Northwest's harvest fields every day now, and over 800 passed through Duluth yesterday on their way to Winnipeg. They came on two trains over the Omaha road, one train carrying 600 and the other 200. It is understood that the Grand Trunk, the Canadian Northern and the Northwestern are co-operating in this movement, which is primarily to furnish the farmers of the Canadian Northwest with harvest hands and ultimately to give that part of the continent an additional influx of settlers.

The men are recruited from various points of the Eastern provinces where there are more men than work, and the fare is made attractive for their coming to the Northwest. In fact, it is made attractive for them to stay, for if they decide to return to their Eastern homes, they will have to pay full faro. Upon reaching Winnipeg the men are taken care of by the Canadian government and by the railroads. Work is guaranteed.

Fully 10,000 men are expected to be thus transferred from the Eastern provinces to the Northwest within the next ten days.

LOW RATES TO STATE FAIR

Railroads Will Sell Return Trip Tickets for $6.

Beginning on Saturday, Aug. 31, railroads will sell round trip tickets to St. Paul and Minneapolis for $6. This is the rate for fair week, a fair and one third. The return limit will be until Sept. 9. Tickets may be purchased as late as the morning of Sept. 7.

The low rates have been put into effect to induce people to visit the great state fair at Hamline, midway between St. Paul and Minneapolis. The fair will open Sunday, Sept. 1.

DENIES DENMAN IS TO BE OUSTED

Carmi Thompson Answers Query Made By Ohio Editor.

Washington, Aug. 19.—At the White House today a telegram was received from a Toledo, Ohio, editor asking if U. G. Denman, United States attorney at Cleveland, had been asked to resign because of alleged political activity in behalf of the Progressive party in Ohio.

Carmi A. Thompson, secretary to Mr. Taft, wired in reply:

"No truth in statement U. G. Denman is to lose position. On the contrary his record in the department is entirely satisfactory."

"DINKY" STREET CAR NOT FIT FOR USE.

The Duluth Street Railway company is defendant in a suit begun in district court by the Ocean Accident & Guarantee company to recover $239.85 because, the complaint alleges, a "dinky" car is unfit to be used, and anyway, in this case was not controllable and the motorman was careless. All of these things are charged as the reason why one of these "ocean-wave" cars struck James E. Dacey's automobile at Lake avenue and Fourth street on Dec. 22, 1911, and wrecked the body of the auto.

The complaint recited that the car was insured in the complainant company and the amount asked from the street railway company was paid Mr. Dacey for his loss.

PICNIC BY VETERANS.

Spanish-American War Soldiers Will Hold Reunion at Chester Park.

There will be a large picnic given at Chester park on Sunday, Sept. 15, Camp McEwen, United Spanish War Veterans, being the host. A committee will be appointed at the meeting scheduled for this week to conclude the final arrangements.

The dinner will be in military camp style, there will be a camp fire, drum corps and other accessories of the regulation military camp.

Both of the G. A. R. posts will be invited and the various other auxiliary camps will also be extended a hearty invitation to help make the picnic a thorough success.

RAID FARGO RESORTS.

Three Out of Five People Arrested Are Negroes.

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—For alleged violations of the prohibition law five denizens of Lower Front street were caught in a raid last night, three were negroes.

The joke is on the burglars who entered the Carnegie library Sunday night. They broke open several desks and got nothing.

JOHN SCHAFFER, WEST END PIONEER, DIES OF OLD AGE

Mr. Schaffer was born in Cobleux, Germany, in 1832, coming to this country in 1852. He settled in Michigan, where he was engaged in the mining business for several years. He then moved to the Head of the Lakes and made his home in Duluth and Superior for a number of years, finally moving to the West end, where he lived up to his death last evening. Mr. Schaffer had been a resident of the West end for more than thirty years. He had a large farm in Dakota and spent much of his time there.

He is survived by a widow and six children. They are: John of Superior, Frank, Charles, Arthur and Emma of Duluth, and Mrs. Benjamin McLean of Osceola, Iowa. He also leaves eight grandchildren. The funeral will be held at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the residence. Interment will be at the Greenwood cemetery in Superior.

RUNAWAY HORSE SPREADS HAVOC

Two Wagons Smashed By Frightened Animal on Superior Street.

Frightened at a passing street car shortly before 11 o'clock this morning, a horse drawing a Western Express wagon made a mad dash down Superior street from Nineteenth to Twenty-second avenue west, where it was caught only after another wagon had been demolished, the express wagon smashed and the horse itself had torn loose from the harness.

The runaway started at Nineteenth avenue west, dashing into a garbage wagon near Twenty-first avenue, smashing the wagon and throwing the driver to the ground. The driver and horse were uninjured however. The runaway horse continued down the street, finally dashing into an electric pole off the corner of Twenty-first avenue, where the horse tore loose from the harness and kept on running. The horse was caught by a policeman at Twenty-second avenue.

William Campbell, driver of the express wagon, was uninjured and was able to go to his home after the incident. The entire front of the express wagon was broken when it smashed against the pole, while the garbage wagon was completely demolished.

TOO COLD FOR TENT MEETINGS

Work Will Be Discontinued in Spite of Its Success.

Although large crowds attended the tent meetings at the corner of Thirty-ninth avenue west and Third street yesterday afternoon and evening, it was decided by those in charge to discontinue the series on account of the cold weather. There will be no more meetings, according to Rev. Edward Erickson, pastor of the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, who was in charge of the series for the past two weeks.

Prof. J. Hall of Columbia university, New York, preached at both services yesterday. The union choir from the Norwegian M. E. churches of the West end and West Duluth rendered several numbers during both services.

The series of tent meetings opened two weeks ago, and has met with considerable success during this time. The meetings were held every evening at 7:30 o'clock, with two services on Sunday. During the series the following pastors were in attendance and assisted Rev. Mr. Erickson: Rev. James Sanaker of Minneapolis, head of the local district of Norwegian-Danish M. E. churches; Rev. C. Gunderson of Superior; Rev. C. Joranson, pastor of the Norwegian-Danish M. E. church of West Duluth; Rev. C. W. Schevenius, formerly of West Duluth and now professor of the theological seminary at Evanston, Ill.; Rev. H. Holm of Hayward, Wis.; Rev. M. S. Rice of Duluth, and Prof. J. Hall of Columbia university, New York.

PREACHES HIS SECOND ANNIVERSARY SERMON.

Rev. J. A. McGaughey of the Second Presbyterian church, 1515 West Superior street, yesterday morning preached his second anniversary sermon. His subject was "Yoke-Fellowship," in which the pastor spoke on the work for the year and the necessary assistance required of all the members of the church.

"Today begins a new year in the church," said Rev. Mr. McGaughey, "and it is the duty of every member of the congregation to take the yoke From now on we must work together with one aim and ambition, to serve Christ. To make this year a success, you must labor with Him and take the yoke.

"Jesus first called his disciples to salvation and then He called the disciples to follow. Thirdly, Christ called them to train, telling them to learn of Him. And lastly, Christ called them to yoke-fellowship, representing them to take His yoke. If we would do the right service and our duty in life, we must yoke up with Christ."

At 7 o'clock last evening Rev. Mr. McGaughey addressed a large gathering at the open air meeting held at the corner of Garfield and Piedmont avenues. The pastor commented on the nineteenth Psalm, which refers to the meetings with God, whether in the open or in a house of worship. The church choir rendered several numbers during the service. Rev. Mr. McGaughey preached on "Samson" at the regular evening service.

Chicago Man Will Preach.

Rev. Carl Benson of Chicago, who is making a tour of the West, will speak Wednesday evening at the Swedish Mission church, Twenty-first avenue west and Second street. Rev. Mr. Benson represents the Swedish Mission church and will also speak in Superior Thursday evening. During his stay in the city Rev. Mr. Benson will be the guest of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Daniels, 215 North Twenty-first avenue west.

Swanstrom-Smith.

Miss Ida Swanstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Swanstrom, Sr., 2523 West First street, and Edwin Max Smith of Superior will be married at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. George E. Silloway, pastor of the Grace M. E. church, will read the service, after which a wedding supper will be served. They will live in Superior after a short wedding trip.

CLEAN CONSCIENCE IS PASTOR'S THEME.

"Do you know whether you have held fast to a strong faith and a clean conscience? Do you know if you are the possessor of all these things? Do you yourself know it?"

These were the questions asked of the congregation by Rev. C. W. R. Wermine, pastor of the First Swedish M. E. church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, in his regular sermon last evening. The subject was "Do You Know It?" and the sermon was well received by the large audience in attendance last evening.

Rev. Mr. Wermine took his theme from the passage in I Timothy, in which Timothy is told to hold fast to a strong faith and a clean conscience. The impure business methods employed by business men, the corrupt methods used by politicians and the many smaller moral laws daily violated by everyone were enlarged upon by the pastor. He appealed to the men and women, he said, for it often meant the forsaking of wealth, friends and even the necessities of life to live a life of good faith and clean conscience.

In the morning Rev. Mr. Wermine preached on the last of the sermons on "Christ in Rome and Judea."

Move to Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Givler will leave today for Iola, Kan., where they will make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Givler are the parents of Mrs. J. A. McGaughey and have been making their home with Rev. and Mrs. McGaughey for the past two years.

Annual Picnic.

The Sunday school of the Second Presbyterian church, 1515 West Superior street, will hold its annual picnic Friday at Lincoln park. A program of sports and races is being prepared for the day by Rev. J. A. McGaughey, pastor of the church, and the Sunday school teachers.

Olson-Westman.

Miss Christina Olson and Ruben A. Westman were married Saturday evening at the parsonage of the Swedish Mission church, 215 North Twenty-first avenue west. Rev. J. J. Daniels, pastor of the church, read the service. Mr. and Mrs. Westman left late Saturday evening for a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home in the West end.

Attends Convention.

Joseph B. Gibson of 3801 West Fifth street, alderman of the Seventh ward, is in St. Louis, Mo., this week attending the annual convention of the Barbers' Supply Dealers' association. Alderman Gibson is expected to return the latter part of the week.

Hiking Party.

Edward Stevens entertained at a hiking party for several West end people last week. The members walked to Stevens' cabin on the Highland road, where a dinner was served to the following guests: Misses Helen Walker, Merna Newell, Florence Callan and the Messrs. William Snyder, Edward Stevens, St. Pierre and Sullivan.

Pastor Recovers.

Rev. B. B. Hanscome of the Clements Mission M. E. church, 830 Garfield avenue, who has been ill for the past month, preached at the regular service last evening. Rev. Mr. Hanscome also preached at the Lester Park church in the morning. He will occupy the pulpit of the Clements church for the remainder of the summer, when he will leave for Hamline to resume his studies at the university there.

Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Swedish M. E. church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, will hold its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the Lincoln park pavilion. Mesdames Charles Peterson and James Larson will act as hostesses for the afternoon. Luncheon will be served following the business meeting.

West End Briefs.

Miss Janet Haley of 1816 West Second street has returned from a two months' visit with relatives at Winnipeg and Port Arthur.

Miss Agnes Nunan of 324 North Twenty-fifth avenue west has returned from a month's visit with relatives at Chisholm.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Second Presbyterian will be entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Butchart, 2531 West Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Horton of 2105 West Fourth street are spending several weeks with relatives at Colby, Wis.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church will be entertained this evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Howard, 2620 West Second street.

The choir of the First Swedish M. E. church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, will meet in the church parlors Wednesday evening.

Mrs. R. J. Mahoney of Eau Claire, Wis., has returned to her home after visiting here for the past week at the home of Miss Elsie Shaw and George Shaw, 2126 West First street.

Miss Edna Bernard of 2624 West Helm street left yesterday for a week's visit at Rush City, Minn.

Mrs. John Ledingham of 1927 West Third street returned yesterday from Two Harbors, where she attended the Sunday school convention.

Mrs. E. Phillips and daughters, Evelyn and Muriel, 414 North Nineteenth and One-half avenue west, left yesterday for a short visit at Sioux Falls, S. D.

ESCAPE FROM SINKING LAUNCH

Picnic Party Has Narrow Escape in the Upper Harbor.

A party of ten had a narrow escape from drowning early yesterday morning when the gasoline launch "Ione" struck a deadhead in the river opposite the Missabe ore docks. The launch was run up to the docks and the occupants scrambled to safety just as the launch went down.

The dock is about eight feet high at the point to which the launch was steered and the people had trouble making the climb, but they all reached the dock in safety. The boat has been pulled up on the beach.

Among those in the party were Misses N. Dinsmore, G. Leonard and E. E. Harrington, G. H. Wiedman and E. Leonard. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Leonard of 2710 West Fourth street were the chaperones.

FATALLY INJURED BY FREIGHT TRAIN

Frank Garland, 37 years old, was struck and fatally injured by a freight train on the Northern Pacific tracks near Wrenshall eary yesterday morning.

Both legs were cut off, one above and the other below the knee. The unfortunate man was hurried to St. Luke's hospital, but he died last evening.

Very little is known of Garland. Efforts are being made to learn whether or not he has any relatives in this country. The body was taken to Crawford's undertaking rooms.

for personal profit, but only because of his well-known desire to develop rural community life.

Both majority and minority agreed that the dismissal of Elliott and Morehouse on technical charges was "oversevere discipline."

The conduct of Assistant Secretary Hays of the agriculture department, whose relations with Former Drainage Engineer J. O. Wright were the subject of especial attention by the committee, was declared in a majority report presented by Chairman Moss, Democrat, to have been not in harmony "with proper standards of official propriety if not official rectitude." The minority report, made by Representative Sloan of Nebraska, Republican, asserted on the other hand that the "unstable" majority conclusions were "more of a charge against the mental capacity and honesty of the committee members" than against Assistant Secretary Hays.

Signed the Reports.

The majority report was signed by Chairman Moss and Representatives Flood of Arkansas and Doughton of North Carolina, Democrats. The minority report was signed by Representative Sloan of Nebraska, who stated that Representatives Higgins of Connecticut and Madden of Illinois approved it. All are Republicans.

Many features of the agriculture department's work in connection with the Everglades were attacked by the Democratic report, which arraigned the department as vacillating and Engineer Wright as having been "on familiar terms with real estate promoters and speculators."

No real criticism of Secretary Wilson was contained in the majority report, the burden of criticism being laid on Assistant Secretary Hays. The minority report, on the other hand, acquitted the latter of the charges that he "despised all restraint and attempted to capitalize his official position and draw quick dividends from official opportunity."

Started With Scandal.

The Everglades investigation arose through the charges that certain reports prepared by government engineers had been withheld from publication, with the inference that such action was in the interests of land dealers. C. G. Elliott, chief of drainage, and Assistant Engineer Moorehouse, who were brought into the controversy, were found by the committee to have made an arrangement in connection with North Carolina swamp lands that was in violation of the law, but inasmuch as there was no profit intended in it, the committee declared that the men had been too severely disciplined by agricultural department officials.

Assistant Secretary Hays' connection with the matter arose through a private arrangement he made with J. O. Wright, former drainage engineer, for the handling of some drained land in North Carolina, which did not belong to the government.

The majority report cited Wright's admissions of his familiarity with real estate promoters and of accepting development company stock and fees while engaged officially in making surveys to reclaim land. It declared that while thus engaged as a paid salesman and an interested purchaser, he appeared before the North Carolina legislature as an official of the department of agriculture, ostensibly to advise in the framing of drainage legislation.

Boasted of His Work.

He later boasted, the report said, of securing the passage of a special statute there under which he was enabled to close a deal. His transactions were denounced by the majority as repugnant to a high sense of honor and integrity, which would justify dismissal if he were still in the government service. The report added that his transactions were not brought to the knowledge of his superiors of the drainage division.

The majority report cited testimony regarding frequent conferences of Assistant Secretary Hays and Engineer Wright, who has since become state drainage engineer of Florida, concerning the purchase and sale at a profit of the bed of Lake Mattamuskeet, N. C. Mr. Wright, the majority declared, did not seem to realize the impropriety of his own conduct. In view of his confidential relations with Mr. Hays, the majority "found it difficult to escape the conviction that Mr. Hays was in full possession of the facts relative to Wright's deals and transactions when they were being negotiated," and that Hays should have condemned them rather than have encouraged them.

There was no evidence, however, that Mr. Hayes actually received any money profits out of any of these transactions. Mr. Hays' office, said the majority, should be free from all connection with "speculative enterprises and get-rich-quick schemes."

Conclusions of Committee.

The committee conclusions are:

The Department—Majority report called the department vacillating and lacking conception of the vast investment of millions of dollars in undertaking the reclamation of the Everglades. Said it constantly subordinated the inquiry to other work in which members of congress were particularly interested, and finally abandoned it after an expenditure of $11,107 without definite results. Its accounting system deficient and its discipline lacking.

The minority upheld the department.

Secretary Wilson—Falsely credited with authorship of the circular letter to which real estate promoters first objected because of its cautionary nature. Promptly suppressed it and refused publication of revised bulletin excerpts as a report on the Everglades.

Minority reported that he did not abuse his legal discretion.

Assistant Secretary Hays—Arraigned by majority. Minority called the criticism of Hays unfair and unwarranted; that his interest in the possible sale of a North Carolina lake bed to Leigh Hunt and others was due to his well known public interest in the development of community country life.

Drainage Engineer Wright—Majority said he "accepted fees and commissions whenever offered."

Minority reported that no evidence was established that any financial statement indicating great gains from the Mattamuskeet, N. C., project were exhibited by Wright to Hays. Financial statement reaching committee was "faulty and ridiculous and would have discredited the scheme at once."

Dr. C. G. Elliott, chief of drainage, and Assistant Drainage Engineer Moorehouse—Majority report stated that they admitted making an arrangement which the majority regarded as in violation of the law and of sound public policy, but that there was no profit intended in it and the department had disciplined them too severely.

The minority agreed as to the over-disciplining, but added that the committee had no oversight of the department's discipline and that if such oversight were a fixed institution the secretaries of agriculture and their subordinates would become abject slaves to "red tape."

FIFTY Y. M. C. A. BOYS LEAVE FOR THEIR SUMMER CAMP

A party of about fifty members of the boys' department of the Duluth Y. M. C. A., left this afternoon at 2:30 on a special car over the Soo road on their way to the camp ground on the shore of Serpent lake. This is the fifteenth annual summer camp trip of the department. The boys are due to arrive at Crosby this evening at 7 o'clock. Here they will be met by the launches and will proceed on their way to Deerwood, where they will camp during the next two weeks.

The main body has been preceded by an advance party with ten tents. There are eight sleeping tents, each large enough for eight to sleep in, one being resrvd for visitors. Thre is one large tent for the dining room and another for storage of food. The boys have eight steel boats and two canoes.

During the outing the boys expect to do a great deal of swimming. They will be instructed in this art by A. N. Thompson, swimming instructor of the University of Minnesota.

Autumn Suits Tailored Suits $29.50

INSPIRED BY FRENCH ORIGINALS.

It is the most difficult thing in the world to combine simplicity and a certain dressiness in a tailored suit. But certainly the designers did hit the nail on the head. Just look at this suit—$29.50—for instance, of pebble cheviots, in black, brown and navy. They are winter weight and yet perfectly wearable now. The coat has a fullness gathered into its slightly high waist line, and it is simple enough and still there is a touch here and there which takes it entirely out of the mannish class. We have others also in the Scotch mixtures. These suits are all lined with satin, and just a moment, please—don't forget to notice the fine art of workmanship.

Silk Suits at Half Price

In black, navy and tan; plain and fancy; made of satin, pongee and Faille silks, regularly $35 to $47.50—now—HALF PRICE.

GLEANED ALONG THE POLICE RUN

A joke is a joke and sometimes they are awfully funny to everybody except the person who is joked.

A skunk played a practical joke on a policeman at Fourth avenue west and Superior street early yesterday morning.

My goodness gracious, yes, the cop "got it" all right. He got the point right away, and then some. Only he did not and does not appreciate the funny part of it. He doesn't think that it was a bit humorous.

The name of the copper is not for publication. He did his own advertising and did not need any press agent. Everybody who was downtown knew he was coming—or anyhow, they knew that something was coming or was in the vicinity. Suffice it to say that he was a new copper and judging by his course of procedure he never had had any previous acquaintance with skunks. He wishes he had never introduced himself. However, let come what may, you've got to hand it to that daring bluecoat, for he faced what thousands of others would run from. In short, he saw his duty and he done it.

Where his majesty, the skunk, came from, no one appears to know. Nor has anyone conducted an investigation to ascertain the facts of his coming. Undoubtedly he wandered into the big city from the nearby woods. When he got near Fourth avenue west and Superior street a dog barked at him. The way the dog skidooed was not slow.

The policeman saw the strange creature wandering about the corner and saw a number of people about who acted strangely. He "sensed" something wrong and made for the scene. Several of the men in the crowd shied a stick or a stone at the skunk, which was resented in the strongest manner possible to skunks.

But even that did not seem to deter the brave officer. Probably afraid to risk a shot because of the people who were gathered about he seized a large sandstone paving block which was laying nearby. Just how he covered his advance is not particular. But however it was, he did not cover it well enough to escape. He killed the skunk, but he knew afterwards that it was a real enough skunk which he had encountered.

They say that one's clothes have to be buried in ever so many feet of ground for ever so many weeks before they are fit to wear—that is, after one has killed a skunk in them.

Dan McKenzie, a cook on a steamer lying in the harbor, was arrested this morning on a charge of assaulting Alex Conley, 20 years of age. He pleaded guilty in police court and paid a fine of $7.50. He said that he slapped Conley for calling him nasty names. It seems that he went downstairs to call him for breakfast so that he could finish up his work and that Conley showed his resentment by applying some unpleasant epithets to him.

Harris A. Spearin tore the telephone from the wall when his parents tried to use it to call up the police yesterday afternoon to have him arrested. But that did not save him from being taken into custody on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. He pleaded not guilty when arraigned in police court this morning and his hearing was set for this afternoon.

Jennie Schwantz walked into the police station last night with a happy little jag on board. She said in police court this morning that she had been sick and wanted to take a sleep. She admitted that she may have taken too much of a strong cure, but begged to be allowed to go home. The court suspended sentence.

Jacob Longsio was arrested Saturday night on a charge of using abusive language and Vaino Tuakinmaa and August Kultala were locked up on charges of interfering with an officer. All of them denied their guilt when arraigned in police court this morning and their hearings were set for this afternoon.

The police reported that Longsio refused to move from the door of a resort which he was blocking to keep people from going inside. They know Jake too well to think that he was trying to save any one from sin and think that he must have been endeavoring to satisfy some grudge.

When Patrolman Brouillette told him to move along he is alleged to have become very abusive, tincturing his remarks with promiscuous profanity. The other two came to Jake's aid when the policeman arrested him and the trio are said to have been getting the best of the bluecoat when J. B. Bailey of 1009 East Eighth street interfered. Grabbing the night stick of the officer he whacked Kultala over the head and drove the others back. When Brouillette regained his feet he drew his revolver and sent the three of them to the central station.

Hilda Beck and Adaline Cooley are in Canada by this time, if they have lived up to the promises made to the judge last week. Both of them were brought in to answer charges of vagrancy. Hilda declared she has a sweetheart up in Canada who wants to marry her, and she averred that she would lose no time getting to him if the court would give her her liberty. Adaline said that she would go along and act as the bridesmaid. The court ordered their release and continued their cases until today. They did not appear and on the supposition that they lived up to their word the cases were dismissed this morning.

John Lamon and Marie Miller were arrested early this morning on disorderly charges. Each forfeiting $10 bail when their names were called in police court this morning.

MUNICIPAL COLLECTION

Duluth Women Will Not Permit Garbage Question to Be Overlooked.

Representatives of the Woman's council will appear before the conference committee at its meeting tomorrow to urge that that body make provision for the municipal collection of garbage.

The women have been conducting an effective campaign to that end and they will see that the matter is laid before the conference committee in its best form. After they interviewed the aldermen recently, the city council passed a resolution recommending to the conference committee that a levy of not to exceed one-half mill be made for that purpose.

RULES ALIENISTS OUT OF COURT

Judge Rejects Testimony in Behalf of Mrs. Bernstein.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Testimony of alienists called by the defense to show that Mrs. Florence Bernstein was a victim of "furore transitoria" and therefore not responsible for her acts when she is said to have shot her husband to death, was ruled out of court by Judge Honore when the trial was resumed today.

State's Attorney Wayman characterized the insanity defense as a "fake medical plea."

Counsel for Mrs. Bernstein could not agree upon any course of action to pursue after Judge Honore announced his decision. It was expected the case would be given to the jury without argument.

CHRISTIANS BEING MASSACRED BY TURKS.

Cettinje, Montenegro, Aug. 18.—The massacre of Christians in the Berana district of Albania continues. A number of Christian villages were set on fire Sunday by Turkish artillery and destroyed. The massacre began last Friday when a band of Mohammedan Arnauts, supported by Turkish troops, attacked a section of the Christian population close to the Montenegran frontier. Large numbers of women and children are reported to have been slain, and the Mohammedans are said to have carried off many young girls.

London, Aug. 19.—The Albanian insurgents, according to the correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Constantinople, are not only complete masters of Usjup, but they have decided to march on Saloniki and a detachment of 300 rebels already has occupied the city of Keuprulu.

WOMEN PROVE THEIR ABILITY AS WILD ANIMAL TRAINERS

Woman is at last coming into her own. Women cab drivers in Paris; policewomen in California and a woman mayor in a little town out in Kansas. The eternal feminine is more eternal than ever and now comes women animal trainers, who are fast crowding the masculine sex for honors which they once held exclusively.

Three of the most famous animal trainers in the world are the Gaumont sisters, who have a group of educated lions, tigers, pumas, jaguars and polar bears with the Al G. Barnes' circus. These little French women are the only persons who have ever successfully trained a mixed group of animals each of which holds a natural antipathy for the other.

One of the most essential features in the training of wild animals is patience. This is one characteristic in which the gentle sex excels. Allied with patience must be good judgment, and one who is patient generally has good judgment. Trainers whose patience is limited never last long. There comes a day when through hasty temper or a sudden loss of patience, the trainer says or does some foolish thing, which spells his defeat as a conqueror of animals.

There is a thrill and fascination in the training of wild animals which one is never able to successfully throw off when once it is experienced. All wild animal trainers deep down in their hearts know that they will eventually meet their death from the beasts which they seek to conquer. However, they apparently labor under the impression that they are one of the chosen immune and go on until suddenly the curtain of life is lowered on them without warning.

The Al G. Barnes big three-ring wild animal circus, the largest exhibition in the world which features animals of the jungles, is coming to Duluth Sunday, Aug. 25, for two performances on Monday. The big show is coming direct here from a tour of triumph on the Pacific coast. Two performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m. A monster street parade—one mile in length—will leave the show grounds at 10:30 o'clock on the day of the exhibition and will pass through the principal downtown streets.

FIRST GRAND CIRCUIT RACES IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Salem, N. H., Aug. 19.—For the first time in the history of the grand circuit, a meet will be held in New Hampshire, beginning tomorrow at Rockingham park and lasting five days. The races will be held in connection with Rockinham fair, and the purses will aggregate $42,700.

The feature race for tomorrow will be "The Hub" for 2:05 class pacers, for a purse of $3,000, in which are entered Branham Boughman, the largest money winning pacer of 1911; Peter, the Second, from Dundee, Mich.; Jim Logan, from California; Akar, from the stable of Ed Geers, and five other well known horses. The other classes on this day are the 2:18 trot, 2:11 pace and three-year-old trot, each for $1,000.

On Wednesday the "granite stake" for 2:10 trotters, with a purse of $5,000, will be decided with the $3,000 free-for-all trotting championship, the two-year-old trotting division of the $11,000 American Horse Breeders' stake and two classes for $1,000 purses. Baden, winner of two $10,000 stakes in the grand circuit this season, is entered in the 2:10 trot against a strong field.

The free-for-all trot will bring together Billy Burke, Colorado E, Anvil, Gay Audubon and others.

Thursday will have the three-year-old trotting division of the American Horse Breeders' $11,000 stake, the 2:12 pace for $2,500, and 2:12 trot, with famous horses for entries. On Friday and Saturday there are scheduled eight races for $1,000 purses and a trotting free-for-all for amateur drivers for $600.

FITGER'S STARS WIN FROM COLTS.

Contrary to the expectation of the majority of the people who attended the Sunday game at the Heights, the Fitger Stars were the victors of a close and hard fought battle with the Gonska Colts.

The batteries for the Gonskas were F. Schaeffer and Heideman, while Katlarek and J. Schaffer did very efficient work for Fitgers.

At the Sporting headquarters on Fourth street, it had been the current report since Thursday that the game was all over except the shouting, also predicting the famous silver standard score of 16 to 1.

The Fitgers manager has already received various challenges from other well known teams, but owing to a hard and fast rule, the Fitger's team plays only with well established, credited teams.

The game was umpired by C. Hansen.

Tennis at Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 19.—Play in the tenth annual mid-west tennis tournament was begun this morning on the clay courts of the Omaha Field club. In addition to forty local players were twenty-five prominent out-of-town players, who will compete for the singles and doubles supremacy of the Middle West. Experts from Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, Colorado, South Dakota and Minnesota are entered for the week's play.

EHLER MURDER CASE SUBMITTED TO JURY.

Houghton, Mich., Aug. 19.—Late this afternoon the jury in circuit court that has been hearing the evidence in the case against Jacob Ehler, the Hancock merchant indicted for killing Ernest Hendrickson, Feb. 18, retired to deliberate. The rebuttal evidence was concluded Saturday morning and Prosecutor McDonald summed up for the state. He was followed by Attorney Burrit for the defense who spoke Saturday. The arguments were closed today and Judge O'Brien instructed the twelve men who retired.

JOHN SAARI CALLS ON CLARENCE B. MILLER.

Washington, Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Among Representative Miller's callers today was John Saari of Duluth, manager of the Roosevelt campaign in the Eighth congressional district. Mr. Saari is on his way to Europe for a short stay.

BEST CITY ON THE MAP

Is Adding to His Superior Street Real Estate Holdings.

Z. T. Mullin of Washington, D. C., who is here on business and is a guest of his son, H. J. Mullin, is a personal representative of the lord high executioner of the blues.

Mr. Mullin feels the greatest faith in Duluth and says that it leads every city of its size in the United States so far as he had been able to find. He is a heavy holder of Superior street real estate and instead of unloading is adding to his holdings. Concerning this he said today:

"I believe that Duluth is one of the very best places in the country to invest in real estate for two reasons: That the price is lower than in almost any other city of its size, and that its actualities are better and its prospects far in advance of any other of the same class. I have been visiting a large part of the country recently and I have failed to see any place yet where I would sooner invest than right here. I look for Duulth to be a great city, and I expect that the forward movement will start very soon. I fully believe that the depression which has held the whole of the Northwest in its grip, will let go here sooner than most places.

"I wish I could make some of your croakers see other cities as I have seen them. They would not whine so much, I am thinking. Take Tacoma, Wash., for instance. It is about the same size as Duluth, has a harbor that it boasts about, and yet it does not begin to compare with Duluth. Your people do not apyreciate, I am afraid, the value of their immense wholesale houses, which are enough to insure a big city by themselves alone. Then your manufacturing prospects are great, your railroad service is of inestimable value, and your power plant is such as to focus all eyes of would-be manufacturing investors upon you. The steel plant will be a much greater thing than most of you expect, and—oh, there are scores of things which make Duluth a sure winner."

J. J. FRIEDMAN SELLS STORE

Well-Known Cloak and Suit House Changes Hands.

J. J. Friedman, proprietor of the cloak and suit house at 7 West Superior street, has sold out his business to the Royal Cloak company of Chicago, and the resident manager of the latter company, M. P. Kline, arrived this morning to take charge.

The transfer by Mr. Friedman will come as a surprise to many for he has established himself well in the good will of his many patrons in the three years which have elapsed since he came to Duluth and entered business. He has attained great popularity since coming here and it will be learned with pleasure that even though he has disposed of his cloak and suit business, he will remain a resident of the city and will engage in other lines.

The Royal Cloak company, the purchaser of the Friedman store, conducts a chain of stores of this kind throughout the country, and proposes to add many improvements to the Duluth establishment, making it the leader of its stores. Mr. Kline, the manager, is much impressed with the possibilities of Duluth and for a long time has had it in mind to settle in Duluth.

DAMAGES SET AT $17,060

Judge Cant Files Decision in Case Begun By Hibbing Citizens.

Judge W. A. Cant, in district court, has made an order awarding damages against the Lake Superior Mining company, limited, in the matter of injunction proceedings brought against that company by citizens of Hibbing to prevent it using streets and alleys of the city for mining purposes. The temporary order forbidding the work has caused the closing of the Sellers mine since February, and since the arguments in the case, some time ago, the matter has been under advisement with the court.

In Judge Cant's findings damages to the amount of $17,060 are found and awarded. This order is very acceptable to the mining company and no appeal will be taken. Word comes from Hibbing that work in the Sellers mine, as a result of the settlement of the injunction suit, would be resumed at once, but W. J. Olcott today denied that rumor to The Herald. He said he does not know at this time, when the work will be started.

MINNESOTA POLITICS

Duluth Voters Will Have One Registration Day After Primary Election—Candidates Anxious to Get Vote Out for Primary—Minority Parties Must Cast 10 Per Cent of Vote at Last Election —County Politics.

Four Registration Days.

Another registration day for Duluth has been discovered. The bulletin of the attorney general's office for July contains a letter written to R. D. O'Brien, county attorney of Ramsey county, in which Attorney General Lynden A. Smith states that four registration days are provided for cities of the first class. They are Sept. 3, Sept. 10, Sept. 17 and Oct. 26.

It was at first thought that the section providing a registration day on the second Saturday before the general election had been repealed by implication. However, there is a question of constitutionality. The Constitution provides that a man who has lived or will have lived thirty days in an election district is entitled to vote in that district. Had no registration day been provided after the primary election, it would have been possible for a man to have lived thirty days in a district, and yet to have been deprived of his vote by legislation giving him no opportunity to register.

The fact that there is a fourth registration day doesn't alter the provisions under which a man should register on one of the first two days in order to vote at the primary election. That is giving St. Louis county candidates the most concern. The different candidates will get together to spread information on the new law over the city. The county committees of the Republican and Democratic parties will assist, it is expected.

* * *

Minority Party Vote.

It will be necessary for the minority parties in the county, the Democrat, Prohibition and Public Ownership, to get out their vote in the primary election. The new law provides that if the vote cast for any candidate or candidates for any nomination at the primary does not aggregate 10 per cent of the average vote cast for the party's candidate for governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer and attorney general at the last general election, the names of the candidates of the party may not be placed on the ballot, except by petition.

It will be necessary for democratic candidates for county office in St. Louis county to poll 509 votes at the primary election. Prohibition party candidates must poll seventy-four votes and Public Ownership candidates must have 104 votes. There is danger in the new law for unopposed candidates of the minority parties and it will be up to those candidates to get out a vote large enough to get their names on the election ballot.

The voters are apathetic in St. Louis county as they are all over the state. The candidates have been able to do little effective work thus far, and they will need to be busy for the four weeks remaining in order to get out the vote. The first registration day is two weeks from tomorrow and the second registration day one week later. Candidates will need to divert some of their efforts from their candidacy to instructing city voters into the necessity of registering before the primary. Voters who fail to register before the primary will be able to vote, but only after complying with conditions that will cause many to stay away from the polls. The filing of an affidavit of residence, corroborated by two freeholders, will be made as easy as possible, but it will be none too easy.

Lee Will Visit Duluth.

William E. Lee is expected to come to Duluth next week, to remain for some time in the Eighth district. Mr. Lee has been campaigning over the state continuously since early last spring. He has been to Duluth once before, but has made no speeches here. He will make more of an effort on his coming visit, and speaking dates will be arranged in Duluth and the range towns. L. C. Spooner, the only speaking campaigner to visit the Eighth district thus far in the campaign, failed to arouse very much enthusiasm, and unless there is an awakening of interest as the primary approaches Mr. Lee will encounter difficulty in making an effective speaking campaign.

Mr. Lee is understood to have engaged rooms for Northern Minnesota headquarters in Duluth, and a manager will be placed in charge to look after the fences after Mr. Lee completes his campaign.

* * *

County Politics.

One week from Wednesday is the last day for filing, and the end of this week is expected to see the lists in county and state pretty well filled out with applicants for attachment to the public payroll. Nearly all mentioned candidates in St. Louis county have filed, but there may be some surprises before the books are closed.

No notable contests are in sight for the non-partisan ballot. N. A. Young, county superintendent of schools, is the only non-partisan candidate who has filed. H. K. Chance of Greaney, Minn., has announced his candidacy for the same office, but has not yet filed. Judge H. A. Dancer and Probate Judge S. W. Gilpin will very likely have no opposition.

County Auditor Odin Halden and Assistant County Attorney Warren E. Greene, who is a candidate for county attorney, are the only candidates for other county offices who have no expressed opposition. Mr. Greene filed some time ago, and Mr. Halden will file this week. There has been some talk of S. S. McCormick filing for auditor, but he has made no definite announcement and the general impression is that he will not get into the race. The time is short for a campaign, and Mr. Halden's popularity is such that there is little likelihood of its being overcome in a short campaign.

J. P. Johnson of Duluth and D. M. Mouser of Gilbert will probably have the field to themselves in the contest for the Republican nomination for clerk of court. Mr. Johnson has held the office for many years and his friends are making an appeal on the ground that the office is well conducted and there is no reason for a change.

George H. Vivian, deputy county treasurer, and Otto Gafvert are the candidates for the Republican nomination for county treasurer. Mr. Vivian's experience in the office is an asset, while Mr. Gafvert has a large personal following. He has been deputy collector of internal revenue in Duluth for a number of years and has been a prominent figure in Republican politics.

M. C. Palmer will file tomorrow for renomination for register of deeds. He is opposed by Charles Calligan, clerk of the town of Stuntz, who filed some time ago. The contest promises to be one of the warmest among those for county offices. Both candidates are range men. Mr. Palmer and his friends showed campaigning ability in former campaigns, while Mr. Calligan has started into the campaign with the spirit of youth and the asset of great personality on the range.

The filings thus far give no play to the second choice feature of the primary law, but if Sandy McDonald files for sheriff, as his friends say he will, he will be the third in the field for the Republican nomination for that office. Sheriff John R. Meining and Steve L. Pierce, who was chief deputy under Sheriff W. J. Bates, have already filed. Mr. Meining was nominated over Bates by a big majority two years ago. He has the advantage of being in office and the argument of his friends that "one good term deserves another." Pierce has started an aggressive campaign and expresses satisfaction. Just what effect McDonald's entrance into the race will have is a question.

Andrew Anderson of Duluth has filed against A. E. Dyer of Hibbing, the present incumbent, for county surveyor, and Dr. C. F. McComb is opposed for the nomination for coroner by Dr. James C. Anderson of Duluth. There is a rumor that Dr. Floyd F. Clark will also file for coroner. Dr. McComb was appointed by the county board after Dr. McCuen was elected mayor of Duluth in February. Dr. Anderson and Dr. Clark were applicants also.

Alex Fraser of the First district is opposed for commissioner by P. Mainella. In the Third district Joseph W. Cumming is opposed for the Republican nomination by Walter A. Swanstrom and Charles R. Hoar, president of the city council, has filed for the Republican nomination.

Five candidates for the Republican nomination and five for the Democratic promise an interesting contest in the Fifth district, while four candidates are in the field for the Republican nomination in the Seventh.

John W. Murphy of Virginia is in the field for the Democratic nomination for sheriff, but other Democratic candidates are slow in coming forward.

* * *

Contests for House Seats.

House candidates are not as numerous in St. Louis county as in some other sections of the state, the Forty-ninth district being excepted. Cleon T. Knapp will very likely have no opposition for the nomination in Class 1 in the Forty-ninth, and S. Leyke will walk off with the Democratic nomination in that class. In the second class in that district, the warmest legislative contest in the county will take place. Sigvert S. Dahl of Virginia, John A. Healy and D. T. Collins of Hibbing and Axel Carlson of Virginia are the candidates for the Republican nomination.

There have been no filings in the Fiftieth district. Anton Borgen, Republican, and E. R. Ribenack, Democrat, will file again, and Hans B. Haroldson, Republican, has also announced his candidacy. Borgen and Haroldson will probably file in separate classes, and all will probably be nominated. There will be no class distinctions in the general election, and Ribenack will thus be pitted against the two Republicans. He won out in a similar contest two years ago, and his friends believe he can do likewise this year.

W. J. North, Democrat, is the only candidate to file thus far in the Fifty-first district. Chester A. Congdon has not yet indicated his intentions, but the impression that he will not be a candidate again is general. There has been talk of other candidates, E. J. Kenny, former assistant city attorney, is mentioned, but he has made no announcement.

Class 2 in the Fifty-first district goes to Lake county. N. S. Hillman, the lone Socialist in the state legislature, is a candidate for re-election. He will have Republican opposition.

* * *

Opposition to Lindbergh.

There is talk of Democratic opposition to Congressman C. A. Lindbergh in the Sixth district. Among those mentioned are J. B. Himsl of St. Cloud, Con O'Brien of Brainerd, Senator E. P. Peterson of Litchfield, Dr. Dubois of Sauk Center and, George Cashman of Staples.

J. H. SCHIFF FOR WILSON

Noted Financier Says He Is Trusted By the People.

William E. Corey Also Comes Out in Favor of Wilson.

New York, Aug. 19.—Jacob H. Schiff declared himself yesterday in favor of the election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency, giving his reasons in the following statement:

"President Taft's attractive personality, his affability, genial demeanor and, above all, his innate desire to do right, should not make it difficult for one who, like me, has been affiliated with the Republican party for four decades, to again support its candidates in the coming presidential election.

"Unfortunately, however, a situation has been created, to a great extent during President Taft's administration, which is most unsatisfactory and which, as I conceive it, makes it desirable that a thorough change in administrative methods and policies be inaugurated.

"President Taft, four years ago entered the White House with the hearty good will of almost all classes of our people, but also with their firm expectation that he would succeed in eradicating, in part at least, some of the serious, constantly growing differences, which had gradually arisen between class and class, and which are tending to force the country into a latent social crisis.

Capital and Labor at Odds.

"Capital, it is claimed, receives too large and disproportionate a share of the profit of production; labor, always more or less restive, is, it is likewise claimed, in turn endeavoring to force capital to the wall, and, in consequence, relations between capital and labor have gradually become more and more strained, while the consumer has grown dissatisfied, because of the constant advance in the price of commodities and in the cost of living. A general unrest and discontent has developed, part of which, at least, it should have been possible to allay through wise administrative methods and policies in dealing with some of the causes at the bottom of this discontent, the most serious of which is, without doubt, the continued maintenance of a high protective tariff.

Taft's Efforts Ineffective.

"That President Taft has not only not succeeded in improving the situation, but that during his administration it has decidedly grown worse, can hardly be denied. In a number of important questions and measures destined to deal with economic and social conditions, his influence has either not been exerted in the right direction or has been impotent, nor can it be said that his administration has in general been of a constructive character. We are devoting ourselves more and more to a policy of destruction, when we need prudent, scientific social reconstruction somewhat on the line of Germany's social legislation, and which has made its manufactures contented and has helped it to conquer for its industries the markets of the world.

"Under these circumstances it is best that a change should come. The lines of demarkation which divide the two great parties are, as concerns many of the pending issues, no longer so deep that even lifelong adherents of one party should not be justified to support the nominee of the other, particularly if, in their opinion, the graver danger which now confronts the country can thereby be averted.

Governor Wilson's Qualifications.

"Governor Wilson, if elected, will enter upon his high duties relatively free from partisan pledges; will bring into the presidential office a mind ably trained in economics and sociology, fully conversant with the needs of the country at the present time, in many respects critical juncture, and he will, moreover, go into the White House, as near as this is possible, with the confidence of all classes and sections of the country in his ability to better existing conditions. More than at almost any time before, the personal make-up and qualifications of the candidate rather than the party is likely to determine the result of the coming presidential election.

"Because of my firm expectation that Woodrow Wilson will develop a better and more thorough understanding of the present needs of the country than, in my opinion, President Taft has shown during the past four years, I shall support his election.

Corey for Wilson.

New York, Aug. 19.—William Ellis Corey, former president of the United States Steel corporation, returning from a three months' motor trip abroad, said Woodrow Wilson was his choice of the three presidential candidates.

"I have been a Republican all my life," said Mr. Corey, "but I can't stand for Taft."

"How about Mr. Roosevelt?" was asked.

"Certainly not," laughed Mr. Corey.

"Nor can I see any necessity for a third party," he added. "Mr. Wilson represents all the advanced ideas of the day, and would make an admirable president. The majority of my friends and practically all the Americans I met abroad feel the same way about it.

"The country was never in a better condition during the months before a presidential election. I consider this largely due to the character of the man who has been selected by the Democrats. Mr. Taft has not made good, and the people want a man like Wilson."

FEAR DR. SUN YAT SEN MAY BE PUT TO DEATH.

Shanghai, Aug. 19. — Dr. Sun Yat Sen, former provisional president of China, disregarding the warning of friends who fear for his safety since the execution of several Hankow generals, left Shanghai Sunday for Pekin. Gen. Huang Sing, who commanded the southern republican army in the revolution which overthrew the imperial government, and was to have accompanied Dr. Sun, has abandoned the journey.

The southern generals recently put to death were members of Dr. Sun Yat Sen's party, the Tung Men Hi, and were seized at the capital by direction of President Yuan Shi Kai on the charge of being implicated in an alleged conspiracy against the Pekin government.

Two of the officers were tried by drumhead court-martial at the capital and shot. The others were returned in chains to Hankow and there executed.

MAY ADJOURN BY SATURDAY

Congress Has Some Important Work to Do First, However.

Confronts Possibility of More Vetoes By President.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Important legislation that must be acted upon before congress adjourns, stood as follows at the opening of today's session:

Panama canal bill, before the president.

Legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, approved by the house and now before the senate, with provision abolishing the commerce court.

Naval, sundry civil and army appropriation bill, in conference between the two houses.

General deficiency appropriation bill before the senate committee on appropriations.

May Adjourn This Week.

While adjournment is expected this week, the date is generally conceded to depend upon the president's attitude toward the Panama canal bill and the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. His veto of the latter measure last week was based upon its provisions for the abolishment of the commerce court and the establishment of a seven-year tenure in the civil service. The house has again risked the veto by passing the measure with the commerce court provision in it. The senate will determinate early in the week whether it will indorse the measure in this form.

Thus far congress has not succeeded in over-riding any of the president's vetoes; and if is not likely that either the legislative appropriation bill or the Panama bill could be repassed by a two-thirds vote if vetoed this week. Those tariff and appropriation measures which the house has re-passed over the vetoes failed in the senate, and the single bill which the senate re-passed, that affecting claims on the Corbett irrigation tunnel, failed by six votes of re-passing in the house.

Tariff Board in Issue.

The sundry civil appropriation bill, in which the appropriation of $225,000 for the tariff board is at issue, is approaching settlement in the conference committee. Out of 259 items in the $116,000,000 bill upon which the two houses disagreed, all but about fifty have been settled; and an agreement on them is expected early this week.

The house has asked the senate to compromise the naval fight on a one-battleship basis, and an agreement on the naval bill is expected. Other measures will not take much time. The senate will take up the six-year presidential term resolution, the uniform bill of lading measure and the bureau of labor bill this week. All legislation, aside from appropriation bills, is likely to be laid aside, however, in the desire to complete the session by Thursday, or at least by the end of the week.

TRUNK ROAD IN BAD SHAPE

Range Editors Say Harsh Things of Miller Highway.

That the Miller Trunk road, the main thoroughfare between the principal cities of St. Louis county, is in very bad condition all the way from Duluth to Hibbing, was a declaration made yesterday by D. E. Cuppernull, editor and publisher of the Daily Virginian, and A. E. Pfremmer, editor and publisher of the Eveleth News.

The two editors, accompanied by their wives, came to Duluth in Mr. Cuppernull's automobile. They declared the highway was in the worst condition it ever has been and said they did not see why a county as rich as St. Louis did not keep this very important thoroughfare in good condition.

Mr. Cuppernull remarked that it was not long ago that the highway committee of the county board reported that the road was in excellent condition, except that part of it lying within Duluth. Since that time, however, repairs had been put only on the Duluth part and the rest of it was let go. He said that on their way to Duluth they had met a man with an automobile about ten miles this side of Eveleth. This man, during the day, on account of the condition of the road, had been obliged to repair eleven punctures and three blowouts.

SHOCKED GRAIN SPROUTS.

Farmers Around Argusville, N. D., Face Unusal Conditions.

Argusville, N. D., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Farmers are complaining that the wet and hot weather has caused some of the earlier harvested grain to grow in the shock. Some winter wheat and some velvet chaff are reported to have been damaged in this manner.

Wheat cutting is practically completed in the Red river valley and thrashing will be general as soon as weather conditions are favorable. Recent heavy rains have thoroughly soaked the soil.

DOG UPSETS TABLE; THREE CHILDREN BURN.

New Brighton, Pa., Aug. 19.—Edward James and John Taylor, aged respectively 6 months, 2 and 4 years, were burned to death, when the Taylor home was set afire by a pet dog overturning a table on which was an oil lamp. The parents were seriously burned in attempting to rescue the children, and the dog, a huge St. Bernard, was burned to death in the kitchen while trying to save the sleeping family from the flames. The children were buried in one grave.

PLANS FOR LABOR DAY

Parade and Picnic Will Be Features of the Holiday.

Preparations are being made by the Federated Trades assembly and the Building Trades council to celebrate Labor day, Sept. 2, with a more elaborate program than was ever before attempted by the Duluth labor bodies. The affair is in the hands of a joint committee of the two organizations, consisting of W. J. Dutcher, chairman; J. Miller, P. Schaeffer, S. S. McDonald, W. R. Thompson, E. Rickert, P. Marandow and J. Downing.

The two main features will be the Labor day parade and a picnic, which will take place immediately after the parade at Fairmount park.

The parade will form at 10 a. m. in three different sections, the first at Third avenue west and First street, the second at Fourth avenue west and Second street and the third at Third avenue west and Second street. It is expected that forty-four of the labor and trades unions will take part in the parade.

The first section will consist of a band, a platoon of police, a carriage containing Mayor McCuen and the speakers of the day, among whom will be P. M. Ringdahl, candidate for the gubernatorial nomination on the Democratic ticket, and J. A. Peterson, Progressive candidate for United States senator; S. S. McDonald, chief marshal; the Federated Trades assembly, the Building Trades' council, photo engravers, electrical workers, barbers, machinists, steamfitters' helpers, telegraphers, plumbers, brewery workers, printers, steamfitters, longshoremen, retail clerks and bartenders.

The line of formation of the second division will be: A band, W. R. Thompson, marshal; carpenters, teamsters, bill posters, licensed tugmen, stage employes, butchers, cigarmakers, sheet metal workers, boot and shoe workers, musicians, horse shoers, painters and decorators and tailors.

The third section will consist of a band, E. Rickert, marshal; bricklayers, marine engineers, car repairers, locomotive firemen, locomotive engineers, lathers, iron moulders, plasterers steam shovel and dredge men, switchmen, structural iron workers, boilermakers, blacksmiths, stone masons, bakers and confectioners, freight handlers and pressmen.

It is expected that the picnic at Fairmont park will be attended by 10,000 people, if the weather is favorable. All are expected to bring their own lunches. Dinner will be held in the open air from noon to 1:30 p. m. During the afternoon there will be a series of dances, after which the program of speeches will be carried out.

ROTARIANS ARE GRATEFUL

Many Expressions of Thanks Being Received From Recent Visitors.

That the Rotarians who recently visited Duluth to attend the first "international convention of the association of Rotary clubs were delighted with the treatment received here by them is evidenced by the numerous letters to local Rotarians and the local press from individuals and clubs from other cities. The formal resolutions of thanks have been received by The Herald, sent by Charles R. Perry, international secretary.

The resolutions begin with the statement that:

"We realize that words are inadequate to express our appreciation of the unsurpassed cordiality of our welcome and the boundless hospitality, which has been extended to us, and

"Whereas, The delegates and visitors to this the third annual convention of the National Asesociation of Rotary clubs now passing into Rotarian history as the first international convention, have been entertained by the Duluth Rotary club in a manner which has left nothing to be desired, and

"Whereas, every facility has been provided to properly carry on and expedite the work of the convention, now, therefore," etc.

Then the Duluth Rotary club, its officers and committees are given heartfelt thanks, so is the Duluth Commercial club for its many courtesies, the Duluth press is generously remembered, and the work of the Duluth ladies for making the visiting Rotarians and their families "not only feel at home but be at home," is shown appreciation, and the Rotary club of Duluth is requested to express to Duluth citizens in general the thanks of the visitors for "the open-handed hospitality which they have extended to us."

Thanks are also expressed to the clubs of Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis for the entertainment furnished to the itinerant Rotarians.

LAKE SALLY LAUNCH BURNS—TWO DROWN.

Moorhead, Minn., Aug. 19.—A young woman, 21 years old, and her escort, aged 32 years, were drowned and four other members of a picnic party held to the combing of a burning launch until their fingers were scorched before they were rescued at Lake Sally, fifty miles east of here, Thursday night. The bodies of Cora Gysland and Charles Hurley, who were drowned, were found. They were locked in one another's embrace so tightly that those who found the bodies found it difficult to separate them.

POLISH SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

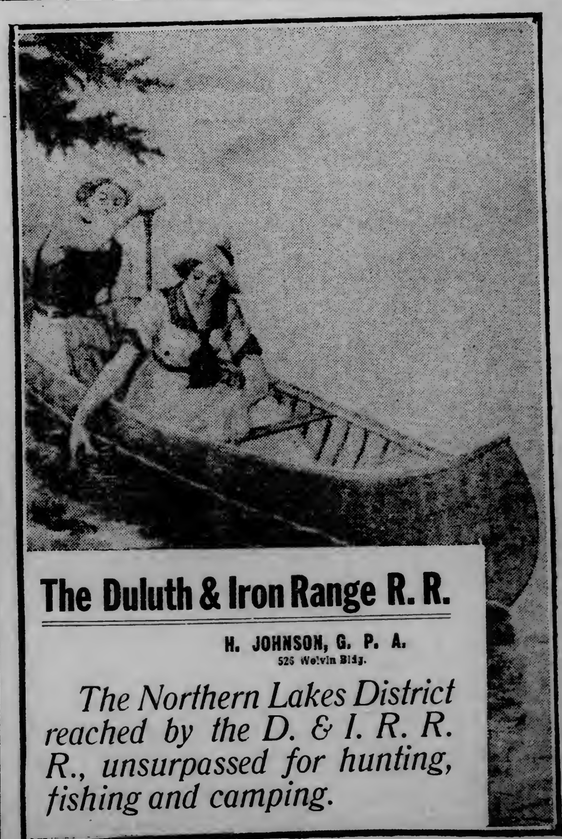

Members Plan Joint Meeting With West End Organization.

At a meeting held last evening, attended by more than 200 Polish-Americans, the newly organized Polish Citizens' club elected officers as follows: Ignatius G. Poterek, president; Paul Schubisky, vice president; J. S. Hoppa, recording secretary; John P. Zygmanski, financial secretary; John Cyrol, treasurer.

The Polish Citizens' club will hold a joint meeting next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock with the West end society. The meeting will be held at Polish hall, Fourth avenue east and Fourth street, and candidates for political offices at the coming election are invited to attend and address the members of the two clubs.

ALDERMAN NEARLY KILLED BY POLICE AUTOMOBILE

Driver Does Not Stop to Pick Up Unconscious Man.

Is Promptly Discharged; Victim Taken Home By Patrol Wagon.

Alderman Frank Jordan of the Third ward had a narrow escape from death shortly after 8 o'clock last evening when the buggy in which he was driving was struck from behind by the big Franklin touring car of the police department.

The Franklin was driven by Officer John Bohlin, who, with a civilian, were the only occupants of the car. Alderman Jordan was left lying on the pavement at Twelfth avenue west and Michigan street, while the police machine hurried westwards.

The unconscious man was picked up by bystanders and carried into the Glen hotel. The police were summoned and he was taken to his home at 128 East Seventh street, in the patrol wagon.

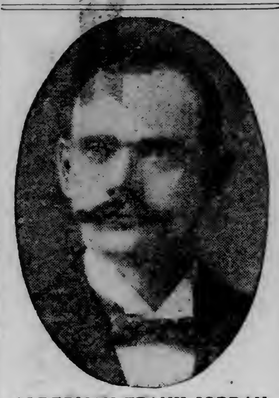

Chief Troyer discharged Bohlin from the force as soon as he had completed his investigation of the accident. He declared that the driver appears to have been entirely at fault. The only excuse he made to the chief for running away was that he got so "rattled" that he didn't know what to do, and that the man sitting beside him told him to go ahead as it was "all right." The chief did not get the citizen's name this morning.

The wind shield of the Franklin was smashed and one of the front lamps was torn from its fastenings. The buggy was badly wrecked.

Narrow Escape.

Alderman Jordan miraculously escaped with his life. Through rare good fortune no bones were broken. He sustained a bad scalp wound, a severe bruise on the head and his side was hurt. After he had been taken to his home by the police patrol, sent to the scene from headquarters, Dr. E. W. Fahey was summoned and dressed his injuries. Alderman Jordan is confined to his home, but it is expected that it will not take long before he is able to be about again.

Just how the accident happened is not entirely clear. Alderman Jordan hasn't the faintest idea how it occurred. All that he knows was that he was driving westwards a few minutes after 8 o'clock and was hit suddenly and without warning from behind. He tried to learn some of the details this morning but no one he could reach was able to enlighten him.

ALDERMAN FRANK JORDAN.

Chief Troyer says that Driver Bohlin does not seem to know just how it was that he ran into the back of the alderman's buggy. He had been out to the West end and was returning to the city. According to his statement the man who was with him, whose name he does not know, told him when he was on Michigan street about Twelfth avenue west that he wanted to go to Eighteenth avenue. He turned about to take him there. The chief thinks that it might have been in making the turn and swinging onto the other side of the street that the rear-end collision took place.

Chief Troyer expressed the deepest regret over the accident. While he was not, in the car at the time and knew nothing of the affair until the crippled Franklin was back in its customary place on the Michigan street floor of the station, he feels very badly that any member of the department should have been so careless.

Under the state law it is a gross misdemeanor for the driver of any motor vehicle to run away after having knowingly caused any accident or injured any person or damaged any vehicle. Whether Bohlin will be prosecuted or not will be left to Alderman Jordan.

JUDGE WAS GOING SOME

Wisconsin Probate Judge Overrules United States Supreme Court.

Releases Two Prisoners Held By Order of Secretary of Commerce.

Inspector Brown McDonald of the immigration bureau here, received the jolt of his life this morning, when he learned that Probate Judge W. H. Irish of Washburn had overruled the United States supreme court, nullified acts of congress, usurped the exclusive authority of the secretary of commerce and labor and had otherwise gone outside of his province by releasing two aliens on a writ of habeas corpus.

Mr. McDonald was dumbfounded. The two people were held in the county jail at Washburn on a warrant from the secretary of commerce and labor, who has jurisdiction in such cases. The higher United States courts and the supreme court have repeatedly held that the only grounds upon which a court may interfere or entertain a motion for a writ of habeas corpus are cases in which the aliens can prove that they had not been advised of their right to representation by counsel, and that a fair record of their testimony had not been sent to the secretary at Washington. Both conditions had been complied with in this case. How a probate judge could discover a right to jurisdiction is more than Mr. McDonald can understand.

Mr. McDonald will refer the matter to the United States district attorney at Madison for investigation.

Aug. 3, Inspector James H. Daly of the local branch of the immigration service arrested at Washburn two Polish aliens, Todase Jaunewicz, 32 years old, and his niece, Justa Jaunewicz, 19 years old, on complaint that the man had brought his niece from the old country for an immoral purpose and was living with her.

After an investigation, a transcript of the testimony was sent to Washington with a recommendation that the aliens be discharged. The recommendation was approved by the department, but when Mr. McDonald started to release the prisoners, he found they had been released by the probate judge on a writ of habeas corpus. They have disappeared and cannot be found. If the department had ruled otherwise, the prisoners would have made good their getaway just the same.

"That probate judge had as much authority to release these aliens when they were regularly and duly held under a department warrant, as he would have to sentence a man to state prison for life," said Mr. McDonald this morning. "He is like the justice of the peace in Texas who sentenced a negro to two years in the state penitentiary for the theft of a sewing machine, and had him started on his way in the custody of a constable when someone told him he had no authority in the matter."

BIG DEMAND FOR WORKERS

Railroad Agent Comes to Duluth in Search of Laborers.

Scoured Upper Peninsula Without Success—High Wages Being Paid.

D. McFarland, who has been employed by the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic for the purpose of securing laborers for the construction department of that railroad, is in the city today in search of men for the extra gangs of the road he represents.

"Laborers are so scarce in Michigan that I have come from Marquette to Duluth in the hope of getting some men," he stated. "Men seem to be just as scarce here as they are in Michigan, for one Duluth employment office told me that there were orders for 1,000 men on its books.

"Some people are disposed to make rather light of the labor shortage. We have had hundreds of men from various parts of Michigan go to Canada and to the harvest fields, and the agents of Canadian firms are making frequent trips to the states in the effort to get more men. Between the harvest fields of our own Northwest and the demand of Canada for men—well, there doesn't seem very much chance to get men."

Here Mr. McFarland was asked whether the scarcity of men was interfering with the work of the railroads.

"The railroads are short of men and they are obliged to put off some work that would be rushed through at this time if the men could be secured," he said. "I would say that the lack of men is interfering with the work of the railroads, and that there will be work that will have to be left undone.

"Practically all of the railroads of the Northwest are after men. I could use 200 men, and my case is probably one in a great many. I can use them—but I can't get them. That is just the way with the others."

The highest wages are being paid at the present time that have been offered labor for the past several years, according to the statement of various managers of the local employment offices. The wages are being offered, but the men are not to be found.

The National Employment company alone has orders on its books for 1,000 men. These men are wanted for the sawmills and lumber camps of this part of the country, and so great is the demand for men that lumber pilers can receive $2.75 per day and free fare, according to the statement of George S. Richards.

CLOQUET WOODMEN PLANNING DEBATE

Cloquet, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.) — Next Wednesday evening the Modern Woodmen will debate, the subject to be "Resolved, That the Usefulness and Responsibilities of an Old Maid, in Both Public and Private Life Are Greater Than Those of an Old Bachelor." Attorney Walter L. Case, F. J. Underhill and L. S. Patterson will take the affirmative and Judge J. E. Diesen, E. S. Schiebe and W. J. Peters will take the negative.

The Barnum and Moose Lake creameries paid out about $6,500 to the farmers of the vicinity of those towns during the month of July. Both creameries are under the same management. $2,424.35 was paid out to Barnum farmers for cream, $1,731.89 was paid out to Mahtowa and Atkinson farmers and $1,038.10 to Moose Lake farmers, besides $220.29 to shippers of cream. $1,006.01 was paid out for eggs. John Atkinson received the largest cream check for the month, $113.75.

Duluth Wedding Surprise.

The marriage of Miss Anna Carron to Marion A. Gleason of Duluth has just been announced here. The wedding took place last Wednesday in Duluth and is a surprise to the friends of the bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carron of this city.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nagorski Aug. 7; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Racinowicz Aug. 9; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Mons. Landro Aug. 9; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sandstrom Aug. 10.

J. P. Pfeiffer of Iverson, in this county, brought in a wagon load of new cabbage, grown on his farm.

Contrary to the usual custom of opening school in Cloquet on the first Tuesday in September, school will begin this year on Sept. 9, in order to give teachers and students an opportunity to attend the state fair, as many of the school children are interested in exhibits and there will be an unusually large exhibit from Carlton county.

Dr. James Fleming, health commissioner for the city, reports twenty-two births and four deaths for Cloquet during July.

Cows Pass Tuberculosis Test.

Dr. McKay, the state veterinarian, has given the tuberculosis test to 241 cows in this vicinity, finding them all without disease. Inspector Bernhart has also made another inspection of the meat shops of the city and found them in much better condition than on his first trips, shortly after the city council had passed the meat inspection ordinance.

The city council will advertise for bids on crossings and sidewalks to be built in the city this year. Portions of Avenue H, Walnut street, Main, Fourth, Seventh, Ninth, Twelfth, Carlton avenue, Fifth, Tenth, Cloquet avenue, Carlton and Fifteenth are to have new cement walks.

THREE FILE TO GO TO THE LEGISLATURE.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—D. P. O'Neill of Thief River Falls filed today for the Republican nomination for representative from the Sixty-first district, including Clearwater, Beltrami, Pennington and Red Lake counties.

C. L. Sulerud filed on the Prohibition ticket for representative from the same district, but for that part of it which lies in Norman and Mahnomen counties.

Henry Rines of Mora filed for the Republican nomination for representative from the Thirty-second district.

HEMS AND HAWS OVER BIG EXPO

England Answers Invitation to Take Part in World's Fair.

London, Aug. 19.—The United States embassy today received a reply from the British foreign office to President Taft's invitation to the British government to participate in the Panama-Pacific exposition. The foreign office is disposed to accept the invitation on principle, but its final decision will be influenced partly by the possibility of arriving at a satisfactory settlement with the exposition authorities in regard to the accommodation to be provided for British exhibitors.

No hint is given in the reply in respect to other possible influences which may affect British decision, but it is evident that a loop hole has been left for British refusal of the invitation on account of possible unfavorable canal legislation.

ONE BATTLESHIP IS AGREED UPON

Conferees Decide New Craft Shall Not Cost Over $15,000,000.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Conferees on the naval appropriation bill agreed today to provide for one battleship at a cost of not more than $15,000,000. An appropriation of $2,535,000 is to be available for the beginning of the work. No agreement was reached as to size, dimensions or armaments. The naval bill in other respects was adopted as approved by the previous conference, and now is acceptable to house and senate.

ACUTE STAGE ON CHICAGO CARS

Day May Decide Whether Employes of Traction Lines Will Strike.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Developments in the street car controversy in Chicago reached an acute stage today. Two important conferences are scheduled to be held which may determine whether the men will strike.

It was reported the sentiment of the elevated employes, who are voting on a proposition to strike, is greatly in favor of a strike, but the result of the balloting probably will not be made known until tonight. The men employed on the surface lines already have voted overwhelmingly to strike.

In a statement issued early today, President Mahon of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes declared he had been working for five weeks to procure an agreement between the employes of the surface lines and officials of companies.

"The companies simply have played with our committees," said he. "They have offered practically no concessions."

The surface lines committee today called on Mayor Harrison.

WAR GAME IN MISSOURI BEGINS

Mimic Attack on Fort Leavenworth Is Part of Program.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 19.—Active operations in the Kansas war game began today. The "Blue" army, composed of 2,500 men, which concentrated at Merriam, started to march to Fort Leavenworth. At the same time the "Red" army which had gathered at Lawrence, moved to intercept the "Blues" and prevent the execution of their plan of going to the relief of the "threatened" fort.

Crookston Bell Blessed.

Crookston, Minn., Aug. 19.—Bishop Corbett, assisted by Father Wurm as deacon and Father Dufault as subdeacon, consecrated the new cathedral bell Sunday afternoon in the new building. After the sermon by the bishop, each person present was invited to form in line, strike the bell and make a contribution.

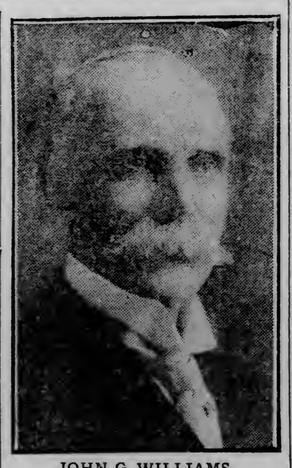

DULUTH MAN MAY HEAD STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

A number of lawyers of Duluth will have gone to Minneapolis to attend the annual meeting of the Minnesota Bar association and a number of them will take part in the proceedings. The meetings will all take place at the Leamington hotel, and it is expected that the result of the election of officers will place John G. Williams of Duluth, now vice president, in the president's chair for the ensuing year.

So far as the program is concerned, three Duluthians will be leaders. W. E. McEwen, former state labor commissioner, and a member of the commission sent to Europe to look into the matter of working men's compensation, will lead the discussion this evening on that subject. Tomorrow morning John Jenswold, Jr., will lead the discussion on the subject of "The Judicial Call." Tomorrow night Wilson G. Crosby of Duluth will be toastmaster at the annual banquet to be given at the Leamington.

One of the features of the program will be the address of Seth Low, former mayor of New York, and former president of Columbia university tomorrow afternoon.

Among others attending from Duluth will be Warren E. Greene, a member of the board of governors, and Albert Baldwin.

JOHN G. WILLIAMS.

IN DISTRICT COURT

Among the cases filed in district court today is one for divorce asked by Willard Francis Hawkins from Olive Mae Hawkins. He charges desertion at Scranton, N. D., in October, 1908, about a year and a half after marriage. No children resulted from the union.

The Marshall-Wells Hardware company has begun garnishment proceedings against Roscoe Reynolds of Shovel Lake, Minn., to recover $600 and interest on a sight note.

The Duluth Lumber company seeks, in a suit filed today, to recover $161.02 from the Johnson-Peterson company for lumber furnished to erect a residence on lot 132, block 39, Rice's Point division of Duluth.

Bridge Not Closed.

In The Herald Saturday a paid advertisement appeared, in which it was asserted that the bridge over the Cloquet river will be closed for repairs for two weeks. County Engineer E. K. Coe asserted this morning that such is not the case and that nobody is authorized to print any such statement.

He says that the repairs to the bridge will not interfere with traffic over it for more than one hour at any time, and that those who are accustomed to use the Rice Lake road, on which the bridge is, may do so without prospect of being held up.

STATE SUING SAGE ESTATE

Would Tax Bonds on Which Late Financier Got Judgment.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Following the filing of a petition with Judge W. A. Munger of the probate court, in Wabasha county, Assistant Attorney General W. J. Stevenson has been appointed aministrator of the estate of Russell Sage in Minnesota and will prosecute the action brought against the Sage estate last June to collect inheritance taxes. It is not known what sum will be involved.

Russell Sage obtained judgment in the United States circuit court of appeals against the village of Reed's Landing in Wabasha county, for bonds it issued and which he bought. Later the town as a town was abandoned and became merely a part of Wabasha county. Sage, through his attorneys, brought suit to collect the money due on the $16,000 bonds and obtained judgment. At the time of his death $14,000 worth of these bonds remained unpaid. Suit to collect inheritance tax on this and on properties he held in other parts of the state has been instituted.

Mr. Sage obtained his Minnesota holdings while building sections of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway.

Woman's Realm

The annual state convention of the Minnesota Woman Suffrage association will be held in Minneapolis in convention hall at the courthouse Thursday and Friday, Sept. 5 and 6.

The business sessions, including the reports of officers, standing committees and state clubs, will occupy the two forenoons, adjourning at 1 o'clock.

Thursday at 2 o'clock the delegates and friends will be taken in automobiles from the courthouse to the suffrage headquarters at the fair grounds, where addresses will be given by a number of brilliant speakers.

At suffrage headquarters, which will be maintained at the fair grounds during the week, literature will be distributed and opportunities for enrollment offered. There will be speaking there each day at frequent intervals.

The Minneapolis Political Equality club will be hostess for the convention and will furnish entertainment for all delegates. Those desiring entertainment must communicate with the chairman of local arrangements committee, Mrs. G. S. Hunter, 2429 Blaisdell avenue, Minneapolis.

There will be a general observance this year of Suffrage Sunday, Sept. 1, by the ministers of the state.

Family Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Jay Kennebrook, 705 Ninth avenue east, entertained at a family dinner Sunday. The guests were their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kennebrook of Superior and Mrs. J. A. Kennebrooks' five sisters, Mrs. J. Y. Mitchell of Alliston, Ont.; Mrs. L. McCrimmon of Toronto, Mrs. A. R. Farney of Amhurstburg, Ont.; Mrs. M. Ritchie of Medicine Hat, Alberta; and Mrs. D. McLean of Superior, Mr. Kennebrook's cousin, Miss McCrimmon of Toronto, and his sister, Mrs. C. A. Wing and little daughter of Williston, N. D., were also among the guests.

In Honor of Guest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sullivan of 323 West Third street will entertain Tuesday evening in honor of their niece, Miss Sadie Kathryn McNamara.

Randall-Busselman.

Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Harry R. Randall and Miss Florence Busselman of this city. The marriage will take place on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Bishop McGolrick, and they will leave for a lake trip to Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland and other points. After Sept. 1 they will be at home to their friends in Duluth.

Roy-Furlong.

The marriage of Miss Mary Laura Roy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy of Hunter's Park, to Cyril Furlong will occur at St. Jean Baptiste church, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

A wedding breakfast will be served at the bride's home to immediate relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Furlong will leave at once for their new home in Detroit, Mich.

Picnic for Visitors.

The "O. M. R." club held a picnic at Lester Park in honor of Miss Alma Conno of Chatham, Ont., formerly of Duluth, and Miss S. Peche of Sault Ste. Marie who are the guests of relatives. The day was spent in games and music at the Lester Park pavilion. In the evening the club entertained the young women at the home of Mrs. St. Dennis of Twenty-sixth avenue west and First street. Among those present were:

Misses:
Alma Conno, N. Rabetelle, R. Cloutier, E. Baileau, A. Boisjoli, D. Leman, S. Robideau.

Only Woman Officially Connected With the Democratic Committee

MISS ALBERTA HILL.

Miss Alberta Hill is the only woman officially connected with the organization committee of the Democratic combination of which Senator Gore is chairman. Miss Hill, though only 21 years old, is a suffrage leader, a street speaker and a campaign organizer and orator. She is an enthusiastic admirer of Woodrow Wilson and while making her weekly speech from the top of a soap box for the Woman Suffrage party she always managed at the end of her speech to say a few words for Governor Wilson.

MAY BE SEPARATED FROM ACTOR SPOUSE

FLORA ZABELLE.

It is again being rumored that the Raymond Hitchcocks are not on the best of terms. Mrs. Hitchcock was Flora Zabelle Mangasarian, daughter of Mangasarian of Chicago, well known in educational and religious circles. She married Hitchcock in May, 1905. Mrs. Hitchcock has been in Europe since July but is reported to be on her way back, owing to the publication in Paris papers of an advertisement that her brother, Armen Mangasarian, was very ill. Mrs. Hitchcock, however, suspects that this is but a ruse on the part of her husband to get her back to America. Until a year ago there was never any rumors to the effect that their married life was anything but happy. Mrs. Hitchcock up to her departure for abroad took an important part in "The Red Widow." She is known on the stage as Flora Zabelle.

MANY MOTOR CARS IN NEW YORK.

New York Sun: An analysis of the detailed report of the secretary of state on motor car registrations in the first four months of the fiscal year serves to show that the metropolitan district, that is the counties of New York, Queens, Kings, Richmond, Westchester and Nassau, is extremely important in contributing to the income of the state in this respect. In these six counties 38,654 of the 85,300 vehicles registered all told by the state are to be found. The fees for these cars amount to $356,695, out of a total of $749,410. The amount of fees for cars, chauffeurs and what not in these six counties is $425,705, as compared with $856,310.25, the state's total income from all sources for motor cars.

New York county leads the list in totals of all sorts. Here there are more than 20,000 cars and nearly 16,000 chauffeurs. The total taken in in this county was $250,000, more than a quarter of the state's whole takings. Kings with $83,000 and Erie county with $57,000 are next in line. Westchester with $45,000 is fourth.

It is worth while noticing that although 85,000 cars are registered in this state, chauffeurs' licenses attain only 36,000. This is a pretty clear indication that more and more owners drive and maintain their own cars. The disparity in numbers of professional drivers and of cars is growing each year, although there is no letup in the numbers that the motor car schools are turning out. It doesn't mean because a man is a licensed driver that he has a job, so that not even 40 per cent of the cars in this state are manned by hired drivers.

SCIENCE IN DISH WASHING.

The bacteriologist finds no kitchen clean enough and the ordinary methods of washing dishes he is likely to call a "smear," says the Kansas City Star.

Dishes have been tested to determine the number of organisms that remain on them after "ordinary" washing as compared with a method that requires an application of hot water with the help of soap or, better still, carbonate of soda, a thorough rinsing in hot water, and wiping with a sterilized cloth (that is, one which has been in boiling water since it was used before). By this latter method the dishes were practically sterile, while many organisms were left on the dishes that were washed by the "ordinary" method.

One might ask what harm will they do. Oftentimes none, but if the bacteria are those which convey disease, dirty dishes may be the means of giving it to well persons. But most of all, persons who are at all thoughtful of such things do not want any dirt which may be prevented by good methods, simply because dirt in itself is sufficiently unpleasant.

In washing milk utensils it is first necessary to remove with warm water all traces of the milk before scalding water is used. Because of the cream adhering to the sides soap is used also, but the greatest care must be taken to remove by repeated rinsing every trace of soap. A telltale flavor of soap in the morning cream has more than once revealed careless habits in the kitchen, and made it evident that all the soap was not removed in rinsing. The utensils must then be dipped in absolutely boiling water for a moment.

It is an important matter to wash the milk bottle in which milk is now commonly delivered to customers. By this we refer to the washing of the full bottle before it is opened. It is safe to say that this is seldom done. But notice the bottle as it is brought into the kitchen, the milkman grasping it with his hand over the top.

These hands perhaps more often than not have harnessed his horse, have been grasping the reins all the morning, have opened and shut doors, run along stair railings, have perhaps wiped mouth or nose, and yet the thoughtless housekeeper or cook, regarding the white cap as full security from the outer world, pours out the milk over a very dirty bottle brim.

Milk bottle should be put under the hot water spigot for a moment and wiped dry with a clean cloth before opening.

Most housewives agree that milk bottles should be carefully rinsed before they are returned, perhaps more from a feeling for cleanliness than for absolut necessity, as the milk bottles in all well managed dairies are thoroughly scrubbed and washed before refilling. If such violations of this practice as recently came under observation are noted, when the driver of a dairy wagon washed out some milk bottle in a public drinking fountain provided for horses, refilled them and disposed of them to other customers, complaint should be made to the dairy and, if this is not sufficient, to the board of health.

CHILDREN LIKE THEIR MOTHER BEST.

Denver Times: Denver orphans have reversed the decision of the New York supreme court.

The decision of the court of childish appeal in the Denver Orphans' home is that "mammas" are more necessary to baby hearts than "papas."

Justice Marceau of the New York court ruled otherwise. "A mother is not necessary to her child," said the learned justice. "All children are selfish. Once away from the mother they quickly forget her. They grow as well without her." This judicial decision was made in turning a 9-year-old boy over to his father.

But against the lofty decree of the court comes the verdict of the little child itself. "Muvver's best, just 'cause she's muvver, and she loves me jus' so," declared one mite of a girl, with a toss of her dark brown curls, as she put up her baby mouth for a kiss.

"I think mothers are best, too," said one serious little maid of 7 at the orphans' home, "'cause she can make me clothes and papa can't."

The childish chorus was unanimous in its verdict in favor of "mother," except for the timid, small voice of a soft eyed, pensive little "Minnie," who declared in favor of "papa" for no reason whatsoever.

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

The Self-Appointed Critic.

If there is a woman who deserves ostracism, it is the one who invariably has something either disagreeable or disconcerting to say to another under the guise of friendly interest. Fortunately she does not comprise a large class. Yet she exists, and is met with often enough to be recognizable and annoying to almost everyone.

She is the sort who, finding you in a cheerful, contented frame of mind, immediately proceeds to change it if she can into one exactly opposite. And she does it so innocently, so casually, half the time, that you never think to hold her responsible until experience has thoroughly acquainted you with her inclination.

Some women take small pains to veil their insults, though carefully guarding their intentions. Should you take umbrage they immediately assume the defensive and become very profuse in their claims of purest friendship and the desire to do you good. They are sometimes so deeply grieved that you cannot accept a friend's advice or criticism in the spirit in which it is delivered that you are disarmed and disposed to berate yourself for a thin-skinned human who cannot tolerate a word that does not commend or flatter.

Now while it is a very helpful, wholesome thing to meet with fair criticism of ourselves and our actions and to analyse and profit thereby, it is wholly humiliating and discouraging to have some one continually harping upon what we lack, with never a word for the virtues and graces each possesses in some degree or other.

One does well to distrust the motives of the woman or of anyone who is constantly belittling one for one's "own good." One cannot determine always whether such a person is intentionally disagreeable or constitutionally so. The latter deserves pity and consideration, possibly, but the former cannot expect much tolerance. In either event, it is better to sever all but the slightest tie of friendship with such person unless one is willing to be made miserable whenever one chances to meet her and be in danger all the time of forming the same offensive habit.

Criticism, unless tempered with genuine kindness and regard, sound judgment and knowledge, is very harmful to those upon whom it is heaped. It is the destroyer of confidence and self respect, and is of no benefit when, as often happens, it is inspired by jealousy and spleen. Women getting along in years frequently resort to this form of meanness in their conversation with younger ones.

"If you only had a better nose and your lashes were heavier you would be pretty," drawled a woman searching the face of a girl friend. The girl said nothing, only dropped her eyes. When she raised them some of their radiance was dimmed. "Why didn't you have your hat trimmed on the other side?" she next added deliberately, and, as if that was not enough, this—"Don't you ever wear green again! You can't do it with your complexion."

Such remarks aren't kind or necessary. They are intensely annoying. Better withdraw from such company at once and forget the ill-bred personalities expressed by some one soured on life.

Homecroft Society Plans

Free Courses for Duluth Women During Next Two Weeks—Exhibit at the State Fair.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Duluth Homecroft society held at the Spalding last week, plans were made for the collection of material for the society's exhibit at the state fair.

The principal exhibit will be the work of the two cooking schools, conducted at the Salter and Irving buildings by the society this summer in charge of Mrs. R. Pineo-Boyington assisted by Miss Irene Walker. Commencing today these institutions will be open to the public free for the remaining two weeks of the season.

Every woman of Duluth has been invited to join either of the classes free of cost.

If she has any fruit or vegetables she wishes to can she may bring them, either to the Salter or Irving school and the teachers will instruct her in the best canning process. When the work is done the product may be taken home.

Following is the class schedule:

Irving School.

Monday, Aug. 19—Morning and afternoon.
Wednesday, Aug. 21—Morning and afternoon.
Friday, Aug. 23—Morning and afternoon.
Tuesday, Aug. 27—Morning and afternoon.
Thursday, Aug. 29—Morning and afternoon.

Salter School.

Tuesday, Aug. 20, morning and afternoon.
Thursday, Aug. 22, morning and afternoon.
Monday, Aug. 26, morning and afternoon.
Wednesday, Aug. 28, morning and afternoon.
Friday, Aug. 30, morning and afternoon.

Each day lessons will be given in canning of fruits and vegetables, the preparation of preserves, jams, jellies and conserves.

Preparing Meat.

Every day one lesson will be given in the preparation of the cheaper cuts of meats. Particular attention is being paid to this lesson, the object being to convince the people they may live as well, if not better, on the cheaper cuts of meats as on the more expensive. The butchers of the city state they have great difficulty in disposing of the cheaper cuts of meat. Every day seven recipes will be worked out in the preparation of salads, puddings, souffles, side dishes, entrees, etc., No bread or pastry lessons will be given.

The lessons given at the schools will be different each day in every subject taken up.

Preparing Exhibit.

An exhibit is now being prepared of all canned fruits and vegetables, which will form one of the most attractive of the St. Louis county exhibits at the State fair.

Executive Director C. E. Roe, who has been in charge of the cooking schools, will also have an exhibit of about 170 specimens of fruit and vegetables, from the home gardens, and pictures of the local gardens, fruits and flowers.

There will also be an exhibit from the Boys' club of West Duluth.

George Nelson of 1722 London road, the young homecrofter, who has the distinction of being the only boy taking lessons in canning and preserving, is to have a special exhibit of his work in this line, and also from his garden on London road across from the Salter school.

George is only 14 years old, but he is engaged in the poultry business, and with the returns from his garden he is realizing substantial profits.

In addition to the exhibits of the products of the local gardens, the committee in charge of the state exhibit will prepare a booklet on the advantages of Duluth, from a garden standpoint. These books will be given out to all visitors to the exhibit.

"VOTES FOR WOMEN" NOTES

The Western Federation of Miners has by unanimous consent placed itself on record in favor of woman suffrage.

The Netherlands' Men's League for Woman Suffrage has published a leaflet expressing indignation at the inefficiency of the constitutional revision committee, "which seemed to consider the women of the Dutch nation inferior to those of the enfranchised states," and appealing to their countrymen to help take away the shame of this legal disability from their mothers and sisters by joining the league. The queen of Holland is said to have received a woman suffrage petition signed by 28,000 men.

The women of Guthrie, Okla., have organized what is said to be the first women's chamber of commerce in the United States. The first work of the new organization will be in the campaign to bring the capital back from Oklahoma City to Guthrie.

Gertrude Atherton is giving up the opera season in Munich this year in order to cast her first presidential vote. Mrs. Atherton's home is in California.

The Democratic party of Iowa, in convention at Cedar Rapids, adopted a platform containing the following clause: "Favoring the principle of the initiative and referendum, we recognize in the passage of such laws the best method by which the question of woman suffrage and other reforms may be submitted to the people." The meaning of this clause is not clear. It seems to show that the convention was not unfavorable to equal suffrage, yet did not wish to commit itself in any way.

Ohio is proving more attractive to women than any summer resort. Its own women are working all day and all evening, apparently unmindful of heat and fatigue, while recruits are constantly coming in from other states to campaign for Amendment 22. In New York suffrage circles, the question, "Where are you going for your vacation?" is more often than not answered by, "To Ohio; I have offered my services for August as my donation to the campaign." Women from Massachusetts, Connecticut, and New York always feel at home in a campaign state, for, oddly enough, the more picturesque ways of advertising the cause (some of which proved too flamboyant for California) have been tried first in the conservative Eastern states. Some of the well-known suffragists who will help wind up the Ohio work are: Anna Howard Shaw, Frances Squire Potter, Jean Nelson Penfield, Ella Reeve Bloor, Rose Schneiderman, Fola La Follette, Margaret Foley, Ida Porter Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Robins, Margaret Haley, Kate Gordon, and possibly Jane Addams. Miss Minnie Bronson, who is scheduled to speak all over the state, against the suffrage amendment is ill.

Michigan newspapers of last week contain the following item: "Grand Rapids, Mich., July 23.—Behind guarded doors here Monday afternoon, retail liquor dealers of Michigan assembled ostensibly to form a state association, but primarily to inaugurate a statewide movement to combat the woman suffrage campaign now being waged in Michigan. Every county was represented."

During August our store will close Saturdays at 1 P. M.

WHAT DOES HE MEAN?

Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, in a speech in the senate the other day, declared that he would have nothing to do with the Progressive party; that he proposed to remain in the Republican ranks and fight there for the adoption of the principles of progressiveness.

Few statements made in the political world are susceptible of less than two meanings, and this of La Follette's is no exception. Did he mean that he would support none of the candidates for president this year, but would call himself a Republican while repudiating the head of the party's ticket? Or did he mean that he is going to remain a Republican in the full sense of the phrase, and support and vote for President Taft?

La Follette, in the last few months, has put himself into rather a bad hole. By his actions at the Chicago Republican convention (or rather by the acts of his followers, whose course he was directing) he showed a spirit very similar to that of Roosevelt by declining to join in the advancement of any individual except himself. His followers there were called upon to stand for La Follette first, last and all the time, and to ignore every alliance, offensive or defensive, on no matter how minor a matter, if it did not serve to advance La Follette himself. The one man in the list who dared to act for progressiveness instead of for La Follette was promptly kicked out of his following.

More recently La Follette has behaved in much the same manner in the senate. He would stand for no revision of the wool tariff except that made by himself. Yet, while demanding that others support his own personal wool bill, he refused to give his support to the steel bill, which was framed by at least as earnest and sincere progressives as is the senator from Wisconsin. In spite of his tears and protestations against the Payne-Aldrich tariff, he has refused to see any good in any corrective measure not fathered by himself, and he was among those who opposed the passage of any of them (except his own) over the president's veto, though that was the only way the country could be given the benefit of their terms.

And now comes this remarkable speech in the senate, in which he proclaims himself a regular Republican. What does he mean? Does he propose to renounce his numerous and heated attacks on the regular Republican organization? Does he really intend to stick to the principles he has professed? Or does he mean to try to throw the strength of Wisconsin, notoriously a progressive state, to the support of the present reactionary administration?

There appears to be but one alternative theory, and that is that he proposes to stay in the Republican ranks in the hope that, after the thorough walloping that party will get in November, he can gather up the remnants and make himself the bull moose of the reorganized mass. That he might be able to do that seems possible, but if he abandons principles he has so long professed to espouse to gain that personal aggrandizement, he will be showing himself to be, not the La Follette who is the friend of representative government, the laborer for the people and the devotee of progressiveness, but a self-seeking demagogue, with one eye fixed unwaveringly on the main chance and the other on the best way to get it for himself.

True To His Nature.

Col. Roosevelt was the first of the candidates to really start the campaign guns to roaring. It was a cinch that he wouldn't be the last.

WALDO'S ADMISSION.

There is a deeply tragic side to the admission of Rhinelander Waldo, commissioner of police of New York City, that the charges made so emphatically by District Attorney Whitman of tremendous and systematic graft on the part of the police system of New York are well founded.

That there has been an element of corruption in that system has been accepted as an established fact for many years. That the element was confined to some of the petty officials has been the general supposition. But with the evidence gathered in connection with the assassination of Herman Rosenthal there has come a generally accepted and apparently well-founded belief that the grafters are not petty officials, but some men who occupy high and responsible positions in the department.

What are we to gather from such a state of affairs? The New York papers have replied to stinging comments by the outside press by asking the people of other cities to look into affairs at home and see if they are any better off than the metropolis, and in at least one instance—that of Columbus, Ohio—the head of a police department has been suspended on charges that read very much like those made against some of the men in the New York service.

Is it true that even big pay and high honor are not enough to insure that the men chosen to guard the honest public against the rogues will live up to the code of honesty they are sworn to enforce among others? Such a belief, applied to the country in general, would entail a pessimism that would strike at the very roots of government. It would be a disastrous indictment of the principles of public safety and public service.

It is preferable to believe that the fearful conditions found in New York City are the result of some individual weakness on the part of the men who chance, for the time being, to hold the positions that make such practices possible.

It is inconceivable that such conditions as exist in New York are at all general. But that there are other cases like that of New York, though probably on a smaller scale, seems a reasonable belief. It is to be hoped that the New York investigation will be so thorough and the punishment of the guilty persons so exemplary that imitators of their example will be scared into honest and decent behavior, even if the public sentiment aroused over the New York affair fails to open their eyes to the meretriciousness of their own actions.

Work Ahead Yet.

Senators Root, Crane and Smoot were the first ones to know that the steel bill would die in the senate. Evidently that chamber isn't as thoroughly cleaned out yet as it needs to be.

THE LITTLE PERKINSES.

Col. Roosevelt and his followers are going the limit in the present campaign. It first showed in the insistence with which the colonel pushed his candidacy. It appeared again in the absolute sway over the actions of the Chicago convention of Progressives demanded by the ex-president. They have shown it more recently by the rah-rah fashion in which they have taken up the espousal of doctrines which were strictly taboo at the White House during the Roosevelt administration—the tariff, for example. And it has cropped out now in Col. Roosevelt's latest defense of the support he is getting from George W. Perkins and William Flinn.

Never, within the history of American politics, has anything more nauseating been handed to the American public than the statement Roosevelt made at Boston last Saturday night. Somebody in the crowd, responding to an invitation from the speaker to ask questions, inquired as to the colonel's relations with George W. Perkins of the Harvester trust and recently of the firm of J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. Col. Roosevelt's answer was that Mr. Perkins was supporting Roosevelt for re-election as president on account of solicitude for the welfare of the little Perkinses. Evidently the crowd took the explanation in good humor, for the colonel rubbed it in by declaring that Bill Flinn of Pennsylvania is supporting him out of solicitude for the future of the little Flinns.

Anybody who can look that statement in the face and retain his calmness without gagging must have a most admirable mental digestive apparatus, or else have none at all. Does Col. Roosevelt expect the country to believe that unless he, above all other men, is elected president, the little Flinns and the little Perkinses are going to suffer fearful and intolerable evil? Is the colonel so essential to the welfare of the nation that the well-being of the members of individual families hangs on his being returned to the White House? This is going the limit in effrontery as well as in egotism.

But look at it in another way:

During the preliminary skirmishing over the Tennessee Coal & Iron absorption by the Steel corporation, this man Perkins was the go-between for Morgan and Roosevelt. He was the go-between in other matters also. He knows all about the trusts and what they want; and he is the man who had more to do than anybody else with the education of Theodore Roosevelt on trust matters. He knows—as nearly as that can be known—exactly what Roosevelt thinks about the Tennessee deal and about trusts and monopolies and capitalistic matters in general. He made his money in trusts; his business and private life has been absorbed by the interests of trusts; the increase of his family's wealth, if not its maintenance of its present standing depend upon the continuation of the money kings in power. Is this what is meant by his fear that unless Roosevelt is elected the little Perkinses will fare but poorly in the time to come?

Unless that is the basis of the colonel's claim that Perkins's support is due to solicitude for his own children's welfare, the statements of Roosevelt at Boston are the rankest and most disgusting folly. And if that is the basis of those statements, there is no earthly reason why the people should oust President Taft to make room for the man who is to look after the personal welfare of the offspring of Perkins and Flinn.

A La Sherlock Holmes.

A Philadelphia man had a barber arrested just because the barber charged him $1.25 for a shave and a haircut. But he told the barber he wanted Taft re-elected and the tonsorial artist decided his patron was one of the disgracefully rich.

THE LAND AND "THE STREET."

Little Falls Transcript: They do say that Minnesota farms have Wall Street down, gagged and almost choked to death when it comes to a comparison of the wealth of the two as represented in dollar values.

Yes, that may be. But there is another way in which those farms have Wall Street "down, gagged and almost choked to death," and it is a way that the people should remember.

When a man sets out to run a farm he knows just about what work he will have to do, and what returns that work should bring him. Cultivation of such an acreage and the sowing of such a line of seed will bring in so many bushels, and the price is likely to be pretty close to a given figure. Practically the only thing that can offset his estimates of effort and return is some destroying natural force that will affect the fields or orchards.

When a man sets out to pull off a deal in Wall Street, he never can have any idea of what other men may be planning, and his schemes are liable to an upset at any moment. He is dependent on certain agencies for necessary information, but these agencies may make a mistake, or even deliberately deceive him. He knows that if he sells short and the market goes the right way he will make money, or if he loads up with a given line and the price is forced up he can sell at a profit. But there is always the chance of a reversal of his expectations, and then there is a crash.

There is something spectacular, something theatrical about speculation that attracts mankind. Perhaps it is due to the natural taste for games of chance. But whatever the source of the attraction, the element of uncertainty, the risk of serious loss, is undeniably present.

Stick to the land. At its worst it is dependable and such chances as you take you take with nature. If you should lose, which is not in the least likely, provided you go about your work intelligently and earnestly, you will at least be in a position to recognize the trouble and guard against its recurrence, something that is impossible in the speculative world.

The Bull Moose denies that ulterior motives prompted George W. Perkins to support him. Well, let's see: T. R. finally has come out flatfooted for woman suffrage: Vassar is said to be amply supplied with suffragists, and George is a trustee of Vassar.

U. S. GOODS SOLD CHEAPER ABROAD

American Consumers Could Save $2,000,000,000 If They Could Get Protected Manufactures at Export Prices.

(By Byron W. Holt, Chairman Tariff Reform Committee of the Reform Club.)

Typical instances of "protection's" discrimination against American consumers in charging them excess prices on American goods over export prices:

	—Wholesale price.— Export.	Domestic.	Excess charged American consumer as cost of "protection."	Payne-Aldrich duty—per ct.
Typewriter	$55.00	$90.00	$35.00= 64%	30
Sewing machine	18.62	30.00	11.38= 61%	30
Lead pencils, gross	2.25	3.60	1.35= 60%	30
Aluminum frying pan	.51	.75	.24= 47%	45
Meat chopper	.93	1.87	.94=100%	45
Cook stove	15.00	20.00	5.00= 33%	45
"White Rose" toilet soap, gross	32.64	48.00	15.36= 48%	50
Gale steel beam, chilled plow	7.20	9.00	1.80= 25%	45
Remington rifle, "Peerless," .22-calibre	23.64	28.65	5.01= 22%	$6+35
Eight-horse power gasoline engine	332.50	403.75	71.25= 22%	45
Baby carriage	9.50	12.67	3.17= 33%	45

Tariff-favored American manufacturers and tariff-fostered trusts, selling their products abroad cheaper than they do at home, are discriminating against the American consumer to the extent of not less than $2,000,000,000 a year—$100 every year from every family in the United States.

This is an estimate, but it is a conservative one, and is based upon proof brought up to date by a new investigation of export prices just completed by the tariff reform committee.

The first exposure of this discrimination against American consumers was published by the tariff reform committee in 1890. Then the tariff-favored manufacturer did not hesitate to boast that he charged more for his goods at home than abroad. But in later years, frightened by the popular uprisings against the protective tariff policy that makes this extortion possible, he has employed every device to conceal from the public the truth about foreign prices for American-made goods.

Evidence at hand shows that a very large proportion, if not the bulk, of these exported goods are sold abroad for lower prices than are obtained in our own protected market. The average difference is probably 15 per cent. In some of the highly protected manufactures the export prices quoted to our "agent in Newfoundland" were only half domestic prices, an increase of 100 per cent in prices to the American consumer.

If our manufacturers can in one year sell $1,000,000,000 worth of their products for export for $120,000,000 less than they are getting for the same quantity of similar goods in our market we would, if there were no protective tariff between us and foreign prices, be able to save about $2,000,000,000 a year on our estimated home consumption of $13,000,000,000.

That this estimate of our tariff tax is not excessive can be shown in many ways. For instance, this rate of 15 per cent does not half cover the difference between the cost of living in England and in this country, as ascertained by the British board of trade in 1909.

Think what $2,000,000,000 a year means! It means a saving of over $100 a year per family on manufactured goods alone. The tariff tax on other goods will increase this amount by $20 or $25 a family. It means $100 a year a family of tariff tribute to our protection fetish. Here is a needless tax on our homes that far exceeds the cost of conducting our national and state governments, battleships and all, and that is ten times greater than the total of our yearly charitable contributions—a large proportion of which are made necessary by this same needless tariff tax and a very small proportion of which come from the beneficiaries of the tariff.

Why, if this export business is so unprofitable, do the protected manufacturers scramble madly for the export trade? Our "export agent" found himself deluged with "follow up" letters of export sales managers anxious to sell their goods at 10 to 50 per cent cheaper than they could be bought at wholesale in this country.

From no point of view, except that of our thousands of protected millionaires, can the sale of manufactured goods for export at lower than home prices be justified. There is no consuming benefit to labor when goods are sold at higher prices in the home market, for in order to maintain these higher prices production must be restricted. The lower prices for export are indulged in in order to keep our mills running for the sole benefit of labor, why do not our philanthropic manufacturers try reduced prices at home for the same reason? Why did our manufacturers stop selling their goods at low prices in Hawaii and Porto Rico after these islands became a part of the United States? Is it not always true, as Charles M. Schwab testified in 1908, that our manufacturers "usually charge abroad what we can get," and that they also do the same at home? Consequently, while it was considered good policy to sell goods cheap to Hawaiians and Porto Ricans in order to keep our mills running when they were outside our tariff walls, it became very bad policy not to charge Hawaiians and Porto Ricans all the tariff would bear when these islands were inside of our tariff walls.

The "keep-the-mills-running" argument always loses its force when applied to our own consumers, whose hands are tied by the tariff and who are therefore at the mercy of our ungrateful protected trusts. Is not a tariff system that permits of these export-price evils one of perfidy and dishonor? Does not this abuse of protection expose the fallacies of the protective system?

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters should not exceed 200 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

IF NURSES, WHY NOT DOCTERS ALSO?

To the Editor of The Herald:

Trusting you will permit me sufficient space in your Open Court columns to take exception to the recommendation of President Sneve re the pay of trained nurses. This high representative of the most rigidly protected of professions could have made better use of his time by advocating the reduction of physicians' fees which any one knows who has had to pay them are out of all proportion to wages of today than to begin a crusade against women who are devoting their lives to a noble cause. This M. D. also recommends one year courses for nurses. Why not reduce the number of years a medical student must serve before receiving a diploma, or import a number of cheap European doctors, the same breed as the laborers they are importing today to compete with American laborers? The price of medical attendance would then be reduced so that the poor as well as the rich could afford the luxury of a doctor. Of all the legalized extortions and the most heartless, the medical fee of today is the worst. I have known doctors to turn away men who were at the point of death because they had not the money to pay the doctors' fee, and I have known nurses to pay the fee of patients rather than see a human being suffer. A VICTIM.

REGULATING TRAFFIC.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I have noticed from time to time the delay in traffic on our busy Superior street, which is a very narrow thoroughfare for crowded vehicle travel, the street cars always coming to a standstill before passing the avenue. This causes, in nine cases out of ten, the vehicles following it to stop. I would suggest the policemen stationed at the two busy points, Third avenue west and Fifth avenue west and Superior street, signal all cars and vehicles, as they have a clear view of the avenue from where they stand and can keep things moving. Thanking you in advance for this courtesy, as I have noticed from time to time many suggestions offered in your open court columns have done a great deal of good. Yours truly, F. J. G.

Debs' View of Roosevelt.

From a letter by Eugene N. Debs to the New York World: The platform of the Roosevelt Progressive party has much in it with which the Socialists are in full agreement, but it does not contain any of the vital and fundamental provisions of Socialism and is in no sense a Socialist platform. It may perhaps be best described as a platform of progressive capitalism.

Its declarations aim at some of the flagrant evils and abuses of capitalism, while the platform as a whole supports and strengthens the existing system and doubtless has the full approval of the Steel trust and Harvester trust and like interests which financed Roosevelt's campaign and are now financing the campaign of his Progressive party.

There are doubtless many honest and progressive spirited people who will be attracted to the new party, but none who understand the principles of Socialism and desire the success of the Socialist party.

Mr. Roosevelt now stands upon a platform of his own making and advocates doctrines which but a few years ago he denounced as anarchy and treason, and if he succeeds in convincing the American people of his sincerity and good faith the trusts will have made no mistake in picking him for a life tenure in the White House.

TYPHOID AND VACATIONS.

New York Sun: That typhoid fever has become known as an autumnal malady is probably due to the fact that many cases may be traced to the vacation trip and sojourn at farmhouses, boarding houses and even hotels. We have often warned against the homicidal fly, which has been known to be the carrier of one million typhoid bacilli. In the Spanish-American war it was discovered that the fly was the principal source of this disease, transferring its bacilli to the food and milk with the greatest ease.

The plague of flies in country houses is too well known to need description. The boarder has a duty to perform toward himself and his neighbor in persistent effort to exterminate this disease carrier. He may not regard it as his function to take a personal interest in the sanitation of his abiding place, but if he reflects upon the illness or death of some friend or relative after a summer vacation he may be convinced that the pestiferous fly has borne a malign share in that calamity. Let him therefore inspect the premises, at the risk of being considered officious. He may find a stable or a garbage heap or an open cesspool where flies do congregate disease from these sources. The hotel waiter may be induced to screen the food, the farmer host may be advantageously instructed in methods of removing the hatching places of the fly and their destruction by burning brimstum or a few drops of carbolic acid on a hot shovel. It were "casting bread upon the waters" to do this sanitary missionary work.

The source of the milk supply should concern everyone. It may be ascertained by tactful inquiry and the dairy may be found far from hygienically perfect. It is a wise precaution, at any rate, never to drink milk that has not been heated to at least 170 degrees for fifteen minutes. This may be easily done. To be on the safe side it were better to have it brought to a boil. Raw milk should never be drunk unless its source is within personal knowledge. Wells supplying farm houses are always suspicious; such water should be boiled and cooled before consumption. Screening windows and doors may contribute more to comfort than the best furniture. When a case of typhoid fever occurs in a person who has been a constant sojourned the source is probably local, perhaps due to a cook or helper who is a typhoid carrier. Removal from the locality is the safest procedure. Typhoid fever, the post-vacation disease, may be abolished by minute attention to the above details.

The New York Camorra.

Galveston Daily News: We of this country have been virtuously shocked by the Camorrist disclosures of Italy, marveled at their depravity capable of committing such crimes, and wondered at the governmental inefficiency which rendered them possible. But the American who makes an honest comparison between those disclosures and these in New York is apt to feel that the American character is capable of a diabolism quite equal to that of the Italian character, and that if American fiends excel Italian fiends in any respect it is in their greater daring. Not enough information has been obtained to permit of any fixing of blame for this condition in the New York police department; that will be the object of the investigation which Mayor Gaynor has ordered; but it has long been a complaint that under the peculiar charter of New York city no municipal officer has absolute authority over the police department. The commissioner of police is under restraints and restrictions which subject him in some degree to state authority. It is another case of the state interfering in the management of affairs which do not concern it, another case of local self-government being denied to cities.

The Head of the House.

Everybody's Magazine: Smith and Jones were discussing the question of who should be head of the house—the man or the woman.

"I am the head of my establishment," said Jones. "I am the bread winner. Why shouldn't I be?"

"Well," replied Smith, "before my wife and I were married we made an agreement that I should make the rulings in all major things, my wife in all the minor."

"How has it worked?" queried Jones.

Smith smiled. "So far," he replied, "no major matters have come up."

West Superior has elected the following delegates to the Grand Forks reciprocity convention: E. M. Hills, Martin Pattison, James H. Agen, E. E. Barton, Frank Nathan, Edward Kennedy, Fernando Winsor, W. F. Street and Graham L. Rice. Fifteen more delegates will be selected later.

N. R. Stohr has been appointed assistant city ticket agent of the Great Western at St. Paul, succeeding W. E. Thorn, who comes to Duluth with Frank Ross to take charge of the St. Paul & Duluth ticket office during Achilles Nelson's leave of absence for a year.

Levi Forest and James Rahilly, two of the oldest employes in the county auditor's office, have within the week left the county's employ. Mr. Forest goes to Canada to visit and Mr. Rahilly is undecided what he will do.

The Spalding parlors were crowded yesterday afternoon and evening with people attending the L. F. U. fair held to provide funds for the temporary home for women and children. Miss Telza B. Hirsch, presided over the fancy article booth, the flower stand was in charge of Miss Florence Bailey and Miss Mate Maxwell, the Japanese booth was under the guidance of Miss Julia Chapin, the gypsy tent was occupied by Miss Virgie LaVaque, the candy booth was conducted by Miss Mabel White and Miss Jessie Stocking, the refreshments were served by Miss Bernice Crowley and Misses Bessie Strayer, Alice Peyton, Minnie McLean, Jennie Magoffin, Margaret Graff, Fannie Edwards and May Ford assisted at the booths. George Spencer carved the cake, and Don McLennan captured the ring.

Mrs. D. Duggan left yesterday for a visit to the East and will be absent several months.

Theodore E. Tenney returned last week from a visit to his former home at Oberlin, Ohio. His mother, Mrs. L. H. Tenney, accompanied him here for a short visit.

Mrs. H. C. Edmunds has returned to her home in Cambridge, Mass., after a pleasant eight-weeks' stay in Duluth.

Richard Schell is back from a two weeks' visit to Chicago and vicinity. He traveled to St. Joe on the new Graham & Morton liner, the City of Chicago. Capt. McIntosh is in command of the steamer, and Chief Engineer McClure and Second Engineer Phillips, all well known here, look after the machinery.

The boys in the manual training department of the Duluth high school, under the guidance of Instructor Hutchinson, have finished an elegant roll top desk which will be placed in Principal Critchett's office in the high school.

Miss Tina Burns of Minneapolis and J. J. Ryan of West Duluth were married at Minneapolis on Aug. 18.

DULUTH AND THE HERALD.

Missed Something.

Waverly Star and Tribune: The editorial excursion to Duluth was abandoned. The scribes missed an opportunity to enjoy the lavishness of Duluth hospitality which is the best brand of the "make-yourself-at-home" kind we ever ran across. They never substitute, but always give one the advertised variety.

Was a Good One.

Anoka Herald: Duluth held its third annual water carnival. If it was the success of the regatta held a year ago it certainly repaid visitors for the trip.

Let Them Come.

Fairmont Sentinel: If The Duluth Herald does not see what it wants all it has to do is to ask for it. Things seem to be going its way like a house on fire.

It's a Big City Game.

Mahnomen Pioneer: Duluth made a great spread entertaining the international convention of "rotary clubs." The delegates were well entertained no doubt, but will some one kindly tell us what a "rotary" club is. Maybe we will want one ourselves.

Doesn't Want It.

Hibbing Mesaba Ore: Duluth has no cinch on the cool weather, and it is not claiming it, either.

Progressive Duluth.

Albert Lea Standard: Duluth leads all cities of the state in practical reforms and progress. Besides owning and operating its chief public utilities it has elected a school board that stands for social center extension and the widest reasonable use of its school buildings for athletics, dances and other proper gatherings and entertainments.

The Punsters.

Cass Lake Times: Now we will take a good look at the ring and try to find out just what kind of a hat a bull moose wears.—Duluth Herald.

The only bull moose we know of should wear rose-felt.

Some More.

Grand Rapids Herald-Review: The Duluth Herald wants to know if the launching of the bull moose party will cost somebody deer. No, but it will probably get the colonel's goat, which will certainly be a lark.

Why Is a Gunman?

Cleveland Plain Dealer: "Lefty Louie" and "Gyp the Blood," two well known New York gunmen, are still at large, though they have been directly accused of complicity in the Rosenthal murder, and though they have been looked for by the police of every American city. "Whitey" Lewis and Frank Cirofici, who are under arrest in connection with the murder, are also described as well known gunmen." There is much talk in the papers about "Big Jack" Zelig, one of the very best known members of the metropolitan aristocracy of gunmen. Here and there may be found references to other gunmen of lesser prominence, not fit to be received in the highest circles.

From the provincial standpoint there is something vastly astounding in this constant matter-of-fact reference to gunmen as if they were a necessary and recognized factor in New York society. The occupation of gunmen is apparently as well established as that of banker, motorman or greengrocer. There are those, such as "Big Jack" Zelig, who are mentioned as the leaders of their profession, much as one might refer to an eminent lawyer as leader of the New York bar.

All cities have ordinances against carrying concealed weapons, and New York has an extraordinarily strict measure of this kind. Moreover, to become recognized as a professional gunman the aspirant must have shot a number of people.

Why, then, is a gunman? Why is he not put out of sight as a habitual criminal, or better still, exterminated as a dangerous species of city vermin? The talk of "well known gunmen" is really a very startling thing, when one pauses to consider it.

Uncle Sam's Ditty.

I have the greatest zoo on the globe;
But some of my animals won't feel a probe;
There's that "Bull Moose" with side so thick,
You can't lay his hair with the big stick.
His antler branches are a weight on his head,
Supported by cloven stand-patters until he is dead.
His political obelisk will be raised in November;
To the woods with his herd in the bleak December.

My sacred jumbo wields a grand trunk,
But most of his ring stunts are on the plunk.
He don't always test the bridge before crossing,
And is forced on his voyage by severe bossing.
Pointing his limbercater towards the trust doors,
Then blows out a spray from his spacious interior,
That tickles the money bugs he holds superior.

3.

There's my long-ear pet from balmy Sea Girt,
Who never takes a roll in the granular dirt,
But when he kicks he points to the bright stars,
Which is the cause of other animals jars.
You can lead him unhaltered to the water's brink,
But if it is impure he will refuse to drink.
With all other animals he likes to play fair,
And flops his ears scenting victory in the air.

PEOPLE BUY LESS MEAT.

New York Times: The steady advance in the price of all kinds of meats is having its effect on the business done by the packing houses. Thousands of households have found it necessary to curtail their purchases of the better cuts, and the cumulative effect of the higher prices is making itself felt.

Statistics collected by the government show that packing house products shipped from Chicago last month amounted to only 158,000,000 pounds, a decrease of 56,000,000 pounds from the shipments of June, 1911, and of 18,000,000 pounds from the unusually small total reported in 1910. The total shipments for the first six months, amounting to 937,638,000 pounds, were also less than in the first half of the preceding year. As a result of the smaller shipments the stocks of meat on hand at the five principal markets in June were greater than in the corresponding month of 1911 or 1910.

The exports of food livestock showed a material decline in June. The month's total was 16,345 head, as compared with 41,131 head shipped out of the country in the corresponding period of last year. The most marked decline was in the exports of cattle, which were only about one-tenth the number reported in June, 1911. As against the shipments of 25,172 head in June, 1911, there were exported this year but 2,580 head. The exports of hogs and sheep likewise fell off this year.

As the exports of meat products followed the tendency of livestock, showing considerable losses from previous years, it is apparent either that Europe is getting her meat supplies more largely from Argentina and other sources outside of this country, or, that her inhabitants, too, are eating less meat with the higher prices now prevailing. The total value of the meat products exported by this country in June was $9,909,000 as compared with $13,734,000 for the corresponding month of last year.

The aggregate livestock receipts in June at thirteen western markets show a decline when compared with the receipts of a year ago. The receipts for the first six months of this year, however, show a slight increase when compared with the receipts during the same period a year ago. The aggregate receipts at these markets were 4 per cent ahead of those for the first half of 1911, and about 22 per cent over the same period in 1910.

The thirteen markets reporting show the receipt in June of 792,292 head of calves and cattle, as compared with 949,777 head in the corresponding month a year ago, a decline of 17 per cent. The hog receipts at these points were 17 per cent less in June. The total for this year was 2,129,000 head, as compared with 2,567,000 head in 1911. Aggregate receipts of sheep were 1,030,000 in June, 1912, as against 1,222,000 in the corresponding period of last year.

Abstract Nature Worship.

O Lord! So much ado:
The stars—the rocks—the trees,
With never a word of You,
Whose various tongues are these.
Thy love is on each tongue;
Thy altars quick to find;
And vain the song though sweetly sung
That turns man from his kind.

Yet I fain believe the muse
Who preconceived the songs,
Which such worshippers enthuse,
To Thy pageantry belongs.
For to stand beside you lake
When the stars are shining low,—
What is there unrevealed to man?
What does he feel and know?

But poor incredulous man,
His senses dulled by sin,
But feebly strives the breach to span,
Which never should have been.
God Merciful deplored
Man's woeful sense of loss:
And Hope and Light again restored
By giving Him the cross.

Optical Illusions.

London Standard: Prof. Stirling explained a variety of optical illusions, including the after effects of seen movements and entasis, or convexity in curvature. He demonstrated how the Greek architects had realized the existence of entasis and had constructed their horizontal beams in convex form in order to remove the apparent concave appearance, and had given to the pillars on the Parthenon and other ancient buildings just such a bulge as was necessary to destroy the erratic effect of a series of parallel columns. In dealing with colored shadows, Prof. Stirling demonstrated the great difficulties that occasionally beset the designers of dress materials. Recently in Manchester, he stated, a dispute arose between a designer and the weavers upon the appearance of a pink shade in some finished material. The dispute would have ended in a lawsuit had not a scientist demonstrated the fact that the existence of pink was merely an illusion produced by a certain arrangement of other colors, and that no colors had been introduced except those supplied by the designer.

What Did He Mean?

Manchester Guardian: The Japanese ambassador had been lunching with Leopold Rothschild and was being conducted round the wonderful gardens at Gunnersbury. At last, after careful preparation, the Japanese garden was, so to speak, "burst open before him." He held up his hands in enthusiasm. "Ah!" he said, "wonderful! wonderful! We have nothing like this in Japan."

ESTIMATES ON 1913 LEVY

Comptroller Submits Report on City Expenses for Coming Year.

Cuts Estimates of Department Heads By More Than $200,000.

City Comptroller William S. McCormick has completed his estimate of the budget for 1913 and will submit it to the conference committee at its meeting Tuesday.

The conference committee will probably take no action, but will follow the custom of previous years. Each member will be supplied with a copy of the comptroller's estimate, and an adjournment will likely be taken until next month. At that time a series of meetings will be held to determine what shall be the levy for the coming year.

The comptroller figures that it will take $968,000 to run the city next year. Of this amount $796,000 would be raised by direct taxation, giving a tax rate of 15.9 mills on a valuation of $50,000,000. The current tax rate is 16.25 mills for city purposes, the valuation being $45,000,000.

The comptroller makes the following comments upon the situation:

"Pursuant to charter requirement, the estimate of the expenses of the city for the year 1913, and the revenue necessary to be raised for said year, is herewith submitted. The present tax levy for state, county, school and city purposes amounts to $1,582,746.83, which is equivalent to a tax rate of 26.30 mills on a personal and real estate property valuation of $45,601,841. The present tax levy for city purposes amounts to $708,529.92, which is equivalent to a tax rate of 16.25 mills.

Estimate for 1913.

"The comptroller's estimate for 1913 amounts to $795,000, the equivalent of a tax rate of 15.90 mills on the basis of personal and real property valuation of $50,000,000. The department estimates for 1913 amount to $1,005,540, which on the same basis necessitates a tax rate of 20.11 mills.

"If there is one feature of the public business in which the citizens should take an especially active and intelligent interest, it is the city's budget. They should carefully study the budget, analyze the summaries and compare tables, become familiar with what it is proposed to do, and give the committee the advantage of their advice and support.

"This year it will be more of a problem to provide funds for the city government and, at the same time maintain a reasonable rate of taxation than in previous years. I refer to the granting of appropriations asked for by the various departments.

"The valuation of personal and real property has been raised approximately $7,000,000, and ordinarily the same rate of taxation would provide sufficient increase in the revenue for all purposes.

"For the year 1913 the library board has asked for increased funds, among other things, to provide for the maintenance of the new building at West Duluth. Sentiment is apparently very much in favor of granting funds asked for by the board of public welfare. The park board has asked for a much larger levy for maintenance and necessary improvements of our park system. And these, with various improvemets under consideration by the common council, will necessitate a considerably larger levy for the permanent improvement fund.

Street Work.

"There has been, and justly so, much complaint as to the condition of our streets and avenues. It is claimed sufficient funds have not been provided for the proper maintenance and repair of the streets. This is a matter in which the public is vitally interested—our streets should be kept in excellent condition. Necessary funds and plans for such service will be given careful consideration by the committee.

"The proposed increase in the levy for the sinking fund provides for the retirement of $200,000 of the refunding issue of $500,000, due May 1, 1914, and redemption of $87,000, miscellaneous bonds maturing from July 1, 1913, to Jan. 1, 1915, and should meet with very general approval. During the present year $110,000 of bonds will be redeemed, leaving approximately $30,000 in the sinking fund on Jan. 1, 1913."

Department Estimates.

The estimates of the departments are considerably higher than those of the comptroller. They ask a total of $1,188,150, of which $1,005,540 would have to be raised by direct taxation, giving a tax roll of 20.11 mills for city purposes.

The summaries of the comptroller and of the departments are:

CABINET TALKS OF PANAMA BILL

Members Discuss Free Toll Proposition With President Taft.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Over the White House coffee cups, President Taft and his cabinet yesterday discussed the Panama canal bill and the question of a possible presidential veto of the measure. Every member of Mr. Taft's official family who was in town was present and the discussion lasted an hour after luncheon time, but no decision was reached. The president's inclination, it was said, is to approve the bill, but he is anxious to have provision made for a legal test of the matter of free tolls for American ships. The cabinet was understood to agree with him that there is basis for believing the bill with the free tolls clause in it is not in conformity with the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

The president was told that it is probably too late to amend the bill and that the action he may take must be in the form of a veto unless he can get Republican and Democratic leaders to agree on a joint resolution to be passed later that would show that the United States had no inention, in passing this measure, of abrogating the existing treaty with Great Britain. Such a resolution would permit foreign steamship companies to test in the United tSates courts the act's validity under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

REVISING COURT RULES.

Members of Supreme Court at Work on New Code.

Washington, Aug. 19.—With the aid of an elaborate card index system, three members of the supreme court of the United States are laboring over a new set of rules for equity practice in federal courts, which are expected almost to revolutionize the work of these tribunals.

The three are Chief Justice White and Associate Justices Lurton and Vandevanter. They expect to be able during the next term of court to lay before the full court the result of their labors. Once the court has given its approval the new rules will be promulgated for enforcement throughout the federal courts of the United States.

This work is the result of a determination of Chief Justice White, settled upon shortly after he became the head of the court. He regarded the present rules, unamended through the decades, as instruments of delay and invitations to tremendous cost bills. Thousands of suggestions for amendments to the present rules have been received by the court committee of three through its secretary, W. J. Hughes of the department of justice. They came from judges, bar associations and individual lawyers. The suggestions were copied in triplicate, indexed, and Chief Justice White and Associate Justices Lurton and Vandevanter were each furnished with a set.

TEDDY WILL BE GENTLE

Says He Wants to Speak Only Kindly of Governor Wilson.

New Jersey Man Has Busy Week Ahead of Him.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Delighted with his reception in Rhode Island and Massachusetts, Col. Roosevelt returned to Oyster Bay Sunday to remain at home until Wednesday, when he will leave for Wilkesbarre, Pa.

"It was a surprise to me," said Col. Roosevelt, in speaking of the size of the crowds and the manner in which they cheered him. "I was greatly impressed by my reception in Providence, and the meeting on the Boston Commons Saturday night was even more remarkable."

Governor Wilson's speech at Sea Girt Saturday, Col. Roosevelt said, interested him largely on account of what the governor had to say about the Progressive party. The colonel chuckled at the governor's statement that it was discontent with the old parties which led to the formation of the Progressive party, as well as the feeling "that men have gone into blind alleys and come out often enough."

Would be "Kind" to Wilson.

"Why, someone told me that I couldn't have defined the Progressive movement as well as that myself," exclaimed the colonel.

He though he saw in Governor Wilson's speech the result of the stand which the Progressives had taken. The colonel added that he wished to speak in only a kindly way of Governor Wilson. He made it plain, however, that he was prepared for a fight with no quarter, should the campaign shape itself into a hard-hitting contest.

Col. Roosevelt was asked to explain the statement which he made Saturday when asked to say something about President Taft, that he would not "discuss dead issues." He would not take up this subject further than to say that he believed the three-cornered fight was developing into a two-sided contest.

Busy Week for Wilson.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 19.—Governor Woodrow Wilson returned last night from his Sunday retreat, ready for a week of campaigning. Today he will address the Platt Deutcher Volkfestvereln of Union Hill, N. J., at that place, and on Tuesday he will speak at Trenton at the annual outing of the Democratic league. Wednesday the governor will attend the annual baby parade at Asbury Park, N. J. His engagements for the remainder of the week have not been announced, but it is likely that he will make at least two speeches.

Davies to Chicago.

Joseph E. Davies, national committeeman of Wisconsin, saw the governor last night for a short time. Mr. Davies left today for Chicago to open the western headquarters. Senator O'Gorman of New York was with Mr. Davies at Spring Lake Sunday.

"We want Governor Wilson to speak in the middle west just as soon as possible," said Mr. Davies after leaving the governor's cottage. "Dates, however, have not yet been fixed."

Mr. Davies said he would stop at Indianapolis for the ceremonies on Tuesday, notifying Governor Marshall of his nomination to the vice presidency, and would have the Western headquarers in full swing before the end of the week. Immediately afterward, he said, he would make a trip to the coast, visiting every state, conferring with national committeemen and state chairmen. The prolongation of the present session of congerss beyond the calculations of the Wilson leaders is interfering somewhat with campaign plans. It had been expected that Senators O'Gorman, Culberson and Gore, who are to take an active part in the campaign, would be free from congressional duties by this week at least.

The campaign committee is likewise waiting for Representatives Burleson, Palmer and others who are expected to assist in the management of the campaign.

HIGHER ODDS AGAINST T. R.

Wall Street Betting Shows Slump in the Colonel's Stock.

New York, Aug. 19. — Betting odds in Wall Street Saturday were 4 to 1 against Col. Roosevelt for the presidency. The highest previous odds against him were quoted that President Taft would get more electoral votes than Roosevelt.

Odds of 7 to 10 were asked that the colonel would receive the greater popular vote. The odds on this same proposition a few days ago were 4 to 5.

A Wall Street man said he had $1,000 at even money that Roosevelt would carry fifteen states.

One admirer of Governor Wilson laid $2,000 at 2 to 1 that the New Jersey governor would be elected. Another bet was $1,000 at 3 to 1 that President Taft would not be re-elected.

Two unusual bets were made in an uptown hotel. One enthusiastic Wilson man being joked about his over-confidence, and one Taft man and a supporter of the Bull Moose cause were showing how their respective candidates would w'n.

"Think you can beat Wilson, do you?" said the Democrat. "Well, I will bet you $100 that you can't name ten states that either candidate can carry."

Both men took the bet and then began to write down the states. The Taft man was so enthusiastic he named twelve, and the Wilson man said if Taft carried ten out of the twelve the bet would go. The states which the Taft man named are Vermont, Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, Indiana, Michigan, Tennessee, Kentucky, Iowa and Pennsylvania.

The Bull Moose man named as the ten states to be carried by the third term candidate Kansas, South Dakota, Minnesota, California, Nebraska, Colorado, New Hampshire, Wisconsin, Illinois and Missouri.

ONE OF ALLEN GANG PLEADS MURDER GUILT.

Wytheville, Va., Aug. 19.—Sidna Edwards, one of the Hillsville courthouse assassins, pleaded guilty to second degree murder and was sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary. Two of his kinsmen have been found guilty of murder in the first degree.

The trial of Victor Allen, another of the murderers, was set for Sept. 4 Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, the ringleaders in the raid on the courthouse, still are at large.

AID OF BANKS IS ASKED FOR Democratic National Committee Suggests Forwarding of Funds.

Would Develop Popular Subscription Plan of Financing Politics.

New York, Aug. 19.—Banks and trust companies throughout the country are asked by the Democratic national committee to receive and transmit subscriptions to the campaign funds, not only of the Democratic, but of the Republican and Progressive parties.

The plan is in pursuance of the popular subscription idea. Acting Chairman McAdoo made it known by giving out a statement embodying a letter which he announced he had sent to every bank and trust company in the United States, requesting them to agree to receive and forward subscriptions to each of the three parties named. He accompanied his letter to the banks with a letter from Governor Woodrow Wilson, who declared that "to bring about the election of a president through a campaign financed by popular subscriptions would be a distinct and gratifying triumph. It would strikingly evidence the renewed supremacy of the people and would mean the permanent emancipation of our government from those selfish influences which have too long been relied upon to furnish the campaign funds in return for favors to be bestowed. I am in hearty sympathy with every effort that may contribute to such a result. The idea back of the proposed contribution movement is thoroughly commendable and I hope that you and your associates will push it and make it an effective instrument for the attainment of so praiseworthy an object. Very sincerely yours,

"WOODROW WILSON."

Free From Suspicion.

In his letter Mr. McAdoo expressed the idea that the popular subscription movement was directly in the line of freeing political campaigns "from the suspicion of sinister influences" and declared that the Democratic party favored "the financing of presidential campaigns by the people themselves."

He urged the need of convenient and responsible agencies for the receipt of subscriptions and asked the banks and trust companies to perform "the same patriotic service" that the newspapers already had undertaken.

"Will you agree to receive and transmit subscriptions to the Democratic national committee, the Republican national committee and the Progressive national committee?" the letter continued. "Speaking for the Democratic committee, I could not ask you to act for one unless for all. This must be a patriotic service to the public and not to any one party. Each day a list of the banks agreeing to act will be given to the press.

Letter From Wilson.

"In order that you may know the attitude of Governor Wilson in regard to popular subscriptions, I enclose a copy of a letter from him on this subject, just received."

The letter from Governor Wilson, dated at Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 17, and addressed to Mr. McAdoo, reads:

"To bring about the election of a president through a campaign financed by popular subscriptions would be a distinct and gratifying triumph. It would strikingly evidence the renewed supremacy of the people and would mean the permanent emancipation of our government from those selfish influences which have too long been relied upon to furnish the campaign funds in return for favors to be bestowed. I am in hearty sympathy with every effort that may contribute to such a result. The idea back of the proposed contribution movement is thoroughly commendable and I hope that you and your associates will push it and make it an effective instrument for the attainment of so praiseworthy an object. Very sincerely yours,

"WOODROW WILSON."

CROWDS GREET LOBECK.

Prohibition Nominee for Governor Makes Four Speeches in One Day.

Preston, Minn., Aug. 19.—Four hundred people on the courthouse campus listened for an hour and a half to an address by E. E. Lobeck, Prohibition nominee for governor. Mr. Lobeck came with a party of fifteen Spring Valley men in automobiles, and this Preston speech was his fourth one for the day. He had spoken at Ostrander and Cherry Grove; and at Canton, where they were celebrating a "day off," he was met by a crowd of 1,000 who had listened earlier in the day to an address by E. T. Young, and were waiting for more. When Mr. Lobeck had finished speaking the crowd was still unsatisfied, and yelled: "Keep it up! Give us more, more, more more!" Mr. Lobeck left on the evening train for Jasper, where he is scheduled for an itinerary covering several meetings.

SENATE MAY ASK TAFT FOR TARIFF CONFERENCE.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Senator Newlands offered a resolution proposing a joint congressional committee to confer with President Taft for an agreement on tariff legislation. It finally went over, with Mr. Newlands saying he would ask for a vote later.

Senator Lodge objected on the ground that the resolution was unconstitutional. He read a message to the senate in 1813 by President Madison in which the executive declined to confer with a committee appointed by the senate to discuss the appointment of a minister to Sweden.

Senator Root declared the question of communication between the executive and congress was of great importance, and recommended that the entire subject be taken up and a general reform instituted to bring the legislative and executive branches closer.

FINE STEAMER OWNERS IF OPIUM IS FOUND.

San Francisco, Aug. 19.—In order to check, if possible, the activities of smugglers of opium from the Orient, United States District Attorney McNab is working upon the draft of a new law which he will seek to have the treasury department sanction.

The present statute provides fines for the captains of vessels on which opium is found. McNab proposes fining the steamship company an amount equal to the market value of the drug found on board.

The finding of opium aboard a ship, the statute will provide, shall be prima facie evidence of negligence on the part of the steamship company, and the fine shall be imposed at once.

WIDOW OF INSURANCE OFFICIAL IS KILLED.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Ida K. Reichart of San Francisco, widow of the late Vice President of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company, was killed and four other persons were injured Sunday, when a street car struck an automobile containing the party.

Francis Joseph 82 Years Old.

Vienna, Aug. 19.—The eighty-second birthday of Emperor Francis Joseph was celebrated Sunday with enthusiasm throughout the country. His majesty, who is in good health, is staying at Ischl, a fashionable watering place of Upper Austria, where he received numerous congratulations.

IRON AND STEEL REVIEW

New York, Aug. 19.—Activity and strength were again the main features of trade in the iron industry last week. Railroad car orders were disappointing but it is claimed that orders for 3,000 additional cars were placed in the Central West, making a total of 12,000 cars bought since Aug. 1. Late rail orders placed for this year's shipment aggregate more than 32,000 tons. The Canadian Northern railroad ordered four locomotives from Montreal shops and is negotiating for 80 additional engines. The Lake Shore company is in the market for 40 locomotives, while the Chicago & Great Western has ordered 10. There was a revival in steel building contracts last week and the railroads placed more orders for steel bridges. The principal local building contract was a 20-story office building requiring 5,000 tons of steel shapes. It is estimated that the Equitable building will require about 35,000 tons of steel.

Some large contracts for steel bars were placed by automobile manufacturers and shipyards aggregating 15,000 tons for this year's delivery.

Pig iron was active in all districts, contracts aggregating 200,000 tons, making the total ordered since Aug. 1, 400,000 tons. Higher prices were obtained in all districts but there was much irregularity.

MINER FALLS; BREAKS NECK

Charles Flandsmore Is Found Dead in Workings of Stevenson Mine.

Well Known Italian Resident of Hibbing Location Meets Tragic End.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charles Flandsmore, a well known and popular Italian resident of the Stevenson location, near here, met a tragic end in the Stevenson mine some time Saturday night or early Sunday, his neck being broken by a fall. His body was found lying on the bottom of an underground chamber of the mine Sunday. It was cold, indicating he had been dead some time. He was working alone so no one knows how he met death but the supposition is that he fell and struck on his head, breaking his neck.

Inquest Not Necessary.

Deputy Coroner Penguilly conducted a post mortem thereby ascertaining the cause of death but deemed an Inquest unnecessary.

The deceased was about 35 and has a family living at the Stevenson. The last rites were held at the Stevenson today, many of the Italian societies participating, including a band from Hibbing.

EDITORS OF RANGE PLAN ASSOCIATION

Pencil-pushers of Mesaba Considering Getting Together.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—E. J. Anderson, manager of the Gilbert Herald, was here Saturday, interesting the newspaper men of this city in perfecting plans for a range editorial association. Much talk and publicity has been given to this matter and it is expected that it will soon be made a permanent organization. D. E. Cuppernull, publisher of the Daily Virginian, has been suggested as chairman.

VIRGINIA CLUB HAS FIRST FEED

Boosters' Club Enjoys Clam Bake at Half Moon Lake —Many Present.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Boosters' club, a new organization, held the biggest clam bake ever held in the state Sunday, at Half Moon lake, near Eveleth. The feast was ready for serving at 1:30 in the afternoon.

In this club are numbered the best men in Virginia, and it is the intention to make this clam bake an annual affair.

To defray the expenses a charge of $3.50 was made from each member and in attendance were about 350. Automobiles and other conveyances were kept busy all day going back and forth with their loads of merry picnickers.

The chef in charge was Walter De Witte, who had much experience in this line. All the edibles, such as lobsters and clams and other shell fish were ordered from Baltimore and other eastern markets. No program or definite arrangements were carried out, everyone just ate and enjoyed themselves to the limit.

The bake was planned some time ago, but on account of the great amount of time necessary to get shell fish suited for this occasion and to make arrangements an earlier date was impossible.

This was the first meeting of the club at the banquet board, but it is proposed to have other little spreads at different times during the winter months and to in other ways live up to the name of the club.

INDIVIDUAL FARM EXHIBIT PRIZES

Will Be Offered By Management of the Itasca County Fair.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—One of the popular features of the Itasca county fair to be held here will be the prizes for individual farm exhibits. The individual farm exhibits will be subject to certain requirements such as the township exhibits are, and it is likely that prizes in the amounts of $20 for the first, $15 for the second and $10 for the third, will be offered. The individual farm exhibits will be housed in the township exhibit building, as it is not anticipated that there will be enough township exhibits to fill the building. The judging of the individual farm exhibits will be along the same lines as the judging for the township exhibits.

County School Exhibits.

Another of the features of the fair will be the county general and school exhibits which will be shown at the state fair, which, it is planned, will be removed to the county fair as nearly intact as possible. For the agricultural part of the state exhibit, Secretary Sisler states that the committee in charge have selected some excellent specimens of grains and grasses, and that other products will be available to make a splendid showing.

H. Hughes, who is chairman of the committee on sports and amusements, states that there will be a 2:17 pace race for Friday, Sept. 20, and on Saturday there will be a free for all race. Between the heats in these big races there will, if arrangements can be made, be a Shetland pony trotting race, which will make a hit.

Indications point to one of the most successful fairs of the history of the association, as everything is right for a good showing and a good attendance.

ITALIANS HAVE SUNDAY PICNIC

Mayor Weirick and Other Hibbing Officials Are Present.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Ideal weather, large crowds and no lack of enthusiasm added to the success of the picnic held at the St. Louis county fair grounds here yesterday by the various Italian societies. The Marconi Society of Hibbing, the Christopher Colombo Societies of Chisholm, Eveleth and Virginia were out in full force, the visiting delegations being met at the depot with bands and escorted to the park after a big parade. There were speeches in Italian by John Leman and Barco Letti of Hibbing, and Herman Nantonalli of Chisholm, plenty to eat and drink and a good program of sports. Mayor Weirick and other city officials joined Hibbing people of all nationalities in helping to make the picnic a success. It was a very orderly affair, the best order prevailing all the time.

SEE LAKE VERMILION.

Traffic Officials of Steel Corporation Spend Enjoyable Sunday.

Tower, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—A special train of seven cars arrived shortly before midnight Saturday night, bringing the officials of the Duluth & Iron Range railroad and a large number of the Steel corporation traffic officials from the East. The train was sidetracked here.

On Sunday morning the party took the steamer Erma D, and proceeded on a tour of Lake Vermilion. The party disembarked at a point where bouillon was served under the able direction of Doctors R. L. Burns and F. E. Thomas, both of whom are noted in this section for their ability to furnish this kind of a treat. The local arrangements for the comfort and entertainment of the visitors was under the personal supervision of E. J. Atkins, local agent of the Duluth & Iron Range railroad.

TO HAVE CITY MARKET.

Two Harbors Will Provide Farmers With Trading Place.

Two Harbors, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Commercial club's plans for a city market where the farmers can dispose of their produce are going ahead. A lot on Second avenue, between Poplar and Cedar, offered by W. B. Woodward, is being put into shape for the market. A waterig trough for horses has been installed and sheds for the display and sale of farm products are being erected. Other provisions for the accommodation of the farmers will be built and regular market days will be announced later.

The annual Lake county fair has been a big encouragement to the farmers and the prizes which are being planned for the coming fair will be well worth going after. The amount of money allowed the poultry department has been raised from $60 to $125 and the premiums for livestock have also been increased. Several special prizes have been announced already. A special prize of $35 for the best dairy herd and $15 for the second will be given and also $25 will be divided in special prizes for potatoes.

SIXTY CENTS A BUSHEL

For New Itasca County Potatoes Shipped to Virginia.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The first carload of 1912 potatoes to be shipped out of Grand Rapids was sent to Virginia Saturday by James Bickley. The car consisted of 317 bushels of Early Ohio, and was the product of a tract containing less than two acres. The price realized, net, was about 60 cents per bushel. This price is considered good by potato dealers and others having to do with the potato business, in view of the fact that the price of potatoes in the potato sections is from 40 to 45 cents per bushel.

ENJOY SUNDAY CONCERT.

Mohami Band Discourses Sweet Music in Virginia Park.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.) — The Mohami club band favored the people of Virginia with an open air concert at Olcott park Sunday.

It had been the plan of the park commission to hold band concerts in the park every Sunday afternoon but on account of the bad weather this program has not been carried out.

The weather yesterday was ideal for such a concert and judging by the large number of people in attendance it was much appreciated.

The band numbering thirty-six pieces is under the leadership of Eugene Laucier, who at one time had charge of such an organization at Iron Mountain, Mich.

ARE NEARLY FLANKED.

Mohami Ball Players of Virginia Badly Beaten By Biwabik.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.) — The Mohami baseball team suffered defeat at Biwabik Sunday in a game there by a score of 11 to 1.

The weather was perfect and a large crowd was in attendance. Until the fifth inning Olson, pitching for the Mohamis, held the Biwabik team without a run to their credit and it gave every indication of being a good game. Eight runs were scored in the fifth inning when Hole was put in the box after which things settled somewhat. Four runs were garnered off him.

Bert Smith, for the Mohami team, brought in the lone score.

The batteries were: Biwabik, Benson and Schroeder; Mohami club, Kreitzer, Olson and Hole.

NEW VIRGINIA CHURCH.

Finnish Unitarians' Edifice Is Nearly Ready for Worship.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The fine church being built on the corner of Wyoming avenue and Beach street by the Finnish Unitarians is nearing completion and will be dedicated in a few weeks.

The ceremony will take place when the pastor, Rev. Risto Lappala, returns from a lecture tour in the West. Mr. Lappala is the field secretary of the All-American Unitarian association and he has lately returned to Virginia from a lecture tour through several Eastern states.

Indian Admits Blame.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Joe Sheehy, the Indian employed as a helper in the Great Northern yards at Kelly lake, who was stabbed by George Rhinehart, the roundhouse foreman, came into municipal court and admitted he was to blame, as he was drunk at the time and attacked the other. His injury is slight and it is expected the matter will be dropped.

Woman Blindpiggers Convicted.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Mary Wenovich and Mrs. Frances Frankovich were convicted in Judge Brady's court of conducting a bling pig at the Maderia shaft and were fined $100 and costs each or ninety days in the county jail.

OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER

RAIN

The less said about this weather, the better. Even the agriculturists, who usually look on rain with complacency, if not actual pleasure, are grumbling. It's too cool for the crops. That being the case, it is certainly too cool for the people. More showers tonight, with a prospect of fair weather Tuesday.

Fair, cool weather prevailed a year ago today.

The sun rose this morning at 5:10 and it will set at 7:13 this evening, giving fourteen hours and three minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"During the last twenty-four to forty-eight hours light to heavy showers fell throughout the Central and Northern states. Very heavy rains fell over Eastern Iowa. Hot weather prevailed in Central and Southern states Saturday and Sunday. The easterly movement of the disturbance centered over Southern Minnesota will cause further showers in St. Louis and Douglas counties today and probably tonight and there is a prospect of clearing weather during Tuesday."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Forecasts for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Tuesday.

Upper Michigaan—Showers tonight or Tuesday.

Wisconsin—Rains this afternoon and tonight; cooler tonight in southwest portion; Tuesday probably fair.

Minnesota—Showers this afternoon or tonight; Tuesday probably fair.

Iowa—Generally fair tonight and Tuesday, except showers in extreme east portion tonight; cooler tonight.

South Dakota—Generally fair tonight and Tuesday.

Upper Lakes—Moderate variable winds and unsettled weather and showers tonight and Tuesday.

SECOND INSTITUTE FOR BEAR RIVER

N. E. Chapman and F. H. Gibb Are Among Specialists Booked.

Bear River, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The second farmers' institute in the Bear River country will be held here Tuesday, Aug. 27, at 10 a. m. Besides the usual institute workers there will be specialists to advocate raising certain things in this section.

N. E. Chapman of the extension division of the state experimental farm will talk on "Poultry" and "Small Fruit."

F. H. Gibb, a noted state institute worker, will discuss "Vegetable and Potato Growing."

Display Products.

In addition there will be an exhibit of agricultural products of this section, which will be taken to the St. Louis county fair at Hibbing the following day. An exhibit of woman's work, cooking, needlework, art, etc., is also planned. This exhibit will be in charge of a committee consisting of Mrs. W. F. Sutherland of Bearville; Mrs. Joseph Schwartz of Carpenter; Mrs. A. O. Anderson of Morcum, and Miss Ethel Rothschild of Linden Grove.

Immediately at the close of the institute there will be a game of baseball between Postmaster Godfry's Colts of Hibbing and the Bear River-Togo team. In the evening a dance will be held.

GILBERT CONCERT

Monday Evening for Benefit of the Firemen's Tournament.

Gilbert, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Troubadour Concert company will give an entertainment here tonight under the auspices of the Schley and Gilbert fire departments, the proceeds to be applied on the fund being raised for entertaining the firemen's tournament to be held here next summer. The program follows: Ungarische Lustpiel overture—Keler Bela, (2) Spoken songs. (a) "Just a Wearin' for You." (b) "Some Day When Dreams Come True." (c) "See Saw." Flute solo, "The Butterfly," by Theodore Bendix; "Alpine Violets," by Ludwig Andre; the amphitheater scene, from the "Last Days of Pompei," harp solo, "The Troubadours; violin solo, "Mazurka de Concert," Ovide Musin; impersonations, (a) "Old Man." ((b) "Types of Negroes. (c) "Small Children," (d) Boys; "Bridal Rose;" overture, "Lavele."

This is the first of a series of entertainments to be given for the entertainment fund.

Ely Man Is Fined.

Ely, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Joseph Foercia arrested in Virginia recently on the charge of having taken $190 belonging to his brother-in-law, had the case dismissed, but was fined $10 and costs for being drunk, the costs running the expense up to $23.60.

Lost Students Return Safely.

Avery, Idaho, Aug. 19.—Richard A. Hamilton, a student at the University of Michigan, and Harry Ade, a student at the University of Montana, have made their way here after being lost in the St. Joe forest reserve for ten days. The young men were spending the summer in the employment of the forest service. Searching parties had given them up for lost.

The Madero government cannot give American citizens in Mexico adequate protection, said Senator Fall.

Send Out Women and Children.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 19. — Word has been received at the headquarters here of the Mormon colonists of Mexico, that a strong force of rebels is nearing Colonia Morelos, sixty-five miles south of the border at Douglas, Ariz. The Americans of Morelos, and two subordinate colonies of Sonora remained at their homes at the time of the evacuation of the colonies in Chihuahua.

Arrangements are being made to send out the American women and children. It is stated that the settlers, who are heavily armed, may decide to remain, in view of the losses to fellow colonists who left their homes.

Woman Leads Rebel Raid.

Juarez, Mex., Aug. 19.—Clad in a man's khaki riding suit, the young and beautiful wife of the rebel colonel, Lazro Alanis, put herself at the head of a band of insurrectos today and after compeling contributions of arms, horses and supplies, rode off to join her husband. Col. Alanis is operating in the vicinity of Palomas, it is said.

Senora Alanis rode from store to store, and dismounting, strode in and demanded what she needed to outfit her followers. None of the shop keepers resisted.

Her first raid was on the police station, where she requisitioned the horses and rifles of the seven policemen. Many rebels in the town, who had laid down their arms and submitted to the government, were attracted to her standard, and she rode out at the head of a motley force variously armed and mounted on non-descript horses which could be found in Juarez.

Much discontent was caused by Senora Alanis' refusal to allow any women camp followers to accompany the troops. A number of these had congregated at the place of departure. Senora Alanis was the only woman in the calvacade. She wore her long black hair in a braid down her back, a khaki jacket over a lace effect shirtwaist. On her fingers she wore a number of conspicuous diamond rings. She is less than 25 years old.

SCHEPPS CORROBORATES ROSE'S STORY AS TO BECKER

alone knows what parts Schepps played in the Rosenthal affair. To all others, including Assistant District Attorney Rubin, who accompanied him from Hot Springs, Schepps turned a deaf ear.

"Say," he burst out when urged to tell of his underworld associations, "do you think I'm going to squeal on a pal?"

A curious crowd followed Schepps through the station, but Schepps only smiled and said that he was glad to get back to New York.

Information was forthcoming at the public prosecutor's office today that created unusual interest at police headquarters. It was learned that for several months prior to the shooting of Rosenthal, officers of the district attorney have been quietly investigating graft in the police department. The big grafters, it was said, have been constantly shadowed for four months, and the Rosenthal shooting simply hurried matters.

Civilian in Graft Net.

From members of the district attorney's staff it was learned that a well-known civilian and two and possibly four police inspectors are caught in the toils.

The district attorney has obtained information that a "collector" for one man high in political circles had accumulated no less than $75,000 as his commission on collections in the last seven months.

The investigation into police graft started when Lieut. Becker, through Rose, it is reported, attempted to get $150 from a private poker club. His demand was turned down and one of the members of the club informed District Attorney Whitman.

The grand jury will meet tomorrow, when it is expected Schepps will be asked to tell his story.

AMUSEMENTS

GOOD PROGRAM AT THE EMPRESS

Possessors of beautiful voices and musicians of unusual skill the four Van Staats render a program of vocal and instrumental numbers at the Empress this week that is well worthy of any headline position in vaudeville. The quartet of singers and musicians pleased a large audience yesterday afternoon with their German yodeling songs, lullabys and selections on the mandolin, guitar, violin, banjo and cello.

The four Van Staats have a special set of scenery, which is of great assistance to their act, "An Old Dutch Musicale." The quartet consists of two young men and two women, who are now making their first tour of this country. The smaller of the two women is the possessor of a delightful soprano voice, which she uses to advantage in the last number, "The Cross." Little Olga performs feats on the trapeze rarely attempted by a woman. Billed as the European gymnastic marvel, Little Olga goes through the most daring feats, just to prove her claim. She also performs a number of contortionist stunts, which sent shivers through the audience.

An imitation of a hen with its head cut off is a trick performed by Mr. Budd of Budd & Wayne, which scored an instant hit yesterday afternoon. Mr. Budd is an acrobat and dancer of no little note and his sudden change from the serious to an imitation of a dying hen helped him carry his act to success. Budd & Wayne introduce a number of new jokes and songs during their act, which are above the ordinary eccentric comedy and musical teams.

"The Old Wedding Dress," a pathetic moving picture, is one of the feature films of the week. The story is pathetic throughout and a relief from the usual comedy films. "Suing Susan" and "A Messenger of Kearney" are the two other films for the week.

PRIEST SAID THE LAST RITES

Mr. N. O. Ford, who owns and conducts a printing house at 1716 Everett St., Alameda, called Sept. 15th to give us the following: Two months before he was asked to witness the signing of a will by a dying person. A San Francisco attorney was reading the will as he entered. This formality over Ford asked the patient what the trouble was. She said she had Bright's Disease and expected to live but a few days. Ford saw the feet and ankles. They were swollen to huge proportions, nearly six inches through at the ankles, and the legs had turned black from the knees down. She had been sleeping sitting up; could not lie down due to the dropsy. The priest had been called and it was believed she would not survive till Sunday. Ford told about Fulton's Renal Compound and urged the patient's sister to get it. It was sent for.

Three days later Ford phoned to ask how the patient was. The sister replied she was growing worse. Ford urged her to continue the treatment, said that sometimes it was slow.

The day Ford called, Sept. 15th, the patient was in the yard making preparations to return to her country home. The swelling had gone down, limbs were normal, and other than the sores left by the bursting dropsy the patient was feeling well and happy.

Not all of these last minute cases recover, but many do.

SCIENTISTS ARE COMING

Party of Distinguished Men Will Visit Duluth Aug. 30.

Half of the Visitors Will Be From Foreign Countries.

A distinguished company will visit Duluth with the transcontinental excursion of the American Geographical society of New York Aug. 30 and 31.

Besides members of the American society, the party will include delegates from Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Great Britain, Hungary, Italy, Holland, Norway, Portugal, Russia, Servia, Spain, Sweden and Switzerland. There will be sixty or seventy people on the train, about half of them from foreign countries.

President W. J. Olcott of the Oliver Iron Mining company, Prof. Eugene Van Cleef of the state normal school and other interested Duluth people are acting with a committee of the Commercial club preparing entertainment for the visitors. The entertainment will take the form of visits to points in and around Duluth that will be of interest to the scientists.

The special train will arrive in Duluth at 8 a. m. Friday, Aug. 30, and will be switched to the tracks of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern, leaving for Hibbing at 9 o'clock. The day will be spent visiting range mines, and the return to Duluth will be made at 8 o'clock in the evening. Saturday, Aug. 31, has been set aside as a day of rest on the itinerary, but some entertainment will be provided. There will be a trip around the boulevard in the morning, and in the afternoon a boat trip around the harbor. The train will leave at 5 p. m. Aug. 31 for the West.

The transcontinental trip has been arranged in celebration of the Sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the American Geographical society of New York. Invitations were sent to the various scientific bodies of Europe to send delegates and nearly all have responded. The roster of the excursion party will contain the names of many men who are powers in the scientific world on both sides of the ocean.

The special train will leave New York Aug. 22 and will go to the coast along a northern route, returning through the South and arriving at New York Oct. 15.

VERMILION MINE NOW LIFTING ORE

Dr. C. J. Rignell Says Walsh Property Is Almost Ready to Ship.

Dr. C. J. Rignell, a leading surgeon of Minneapolis and vice president of the Irona Mining company, returned to Duluth today after an inspection of the company's operations on its property adjoining the Consolidated Vermilion mine, a few miles from Tower. He was accompanied by Fred. B. Rossom of Duluth, president of the Irona company; R. A. Jacobson, the railroad contractor, G. W. Allen, owner of the Allen hotel, and A. W. Skog, register of deeds of Hennepin county, all of Minneapolis. These men are also interested in the Irona and were pleased with the drilling operations they are now carrying on, which have disclosed a large body of ore.

The party also visited the Consolidated Vermilion mine and what they saw there increased the good opinion they have of their own property. "The Consolidated Vermilion mine," said Dr. Rignell, at the New St. Louis hotel, "is almost ready to ship. It is a great property and too much credit cannot be given to T. J. Walsh, who has labored so hard and intelligently to put his properties in the shipping class. Ore running as high as 68 per cent is being lifted and stockpiled at the Consolidated Vermilion. Mr. Walsh has developed a splendid mine, which is the cause of much gratification to us, as the Irona property extends to within 700 feet of the Consolidated Vermilion shaft."

Mr. Rossom took Dr. Rignell and Messrs. Skog, Allen and Jacobson and Mr. Anderson of the register of deeds office, on an automobile trip to the steel plant this afternoon. The party will be good advertisers for Duluth and the Vermilion range when they get back to Minneapolis tomorrow.

BARROWS MINE STRIKE.

Rich Ore Said to Have Been Uncovered on Cuyuna.

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—While drifting from Shaft No. 2 of the Barrows mine of the Virginia Mining company, a rich ore body was encountered thirty feet sooner than expected. Shaft No. 1 is down eighty feet. A pump is being cut out in Shaft No. 2. What little water is in the shaft i easily siphoned out. It is now confidently expected that the Barrows mine will ship in September, and thus be the first shipper on the south range of the Cuyuna iron range.

Finds Brainerd Changed.

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. W. W. Hartley of Mt. View, Cal., a former Brainerd resident, is visiting the city after a twenty-five years' absence. In 1877 her husband was the editor of the Brainerd Tribune, the postmaster of the city and the proprietor of the Villard hotel. She was much surprised to see the changes wrought in that period, snce which Brainerd has changed from a roaring lumber camp to the metropolis of the Cuyuna iron range.

"INVENTION OF THE EVIL ONE"

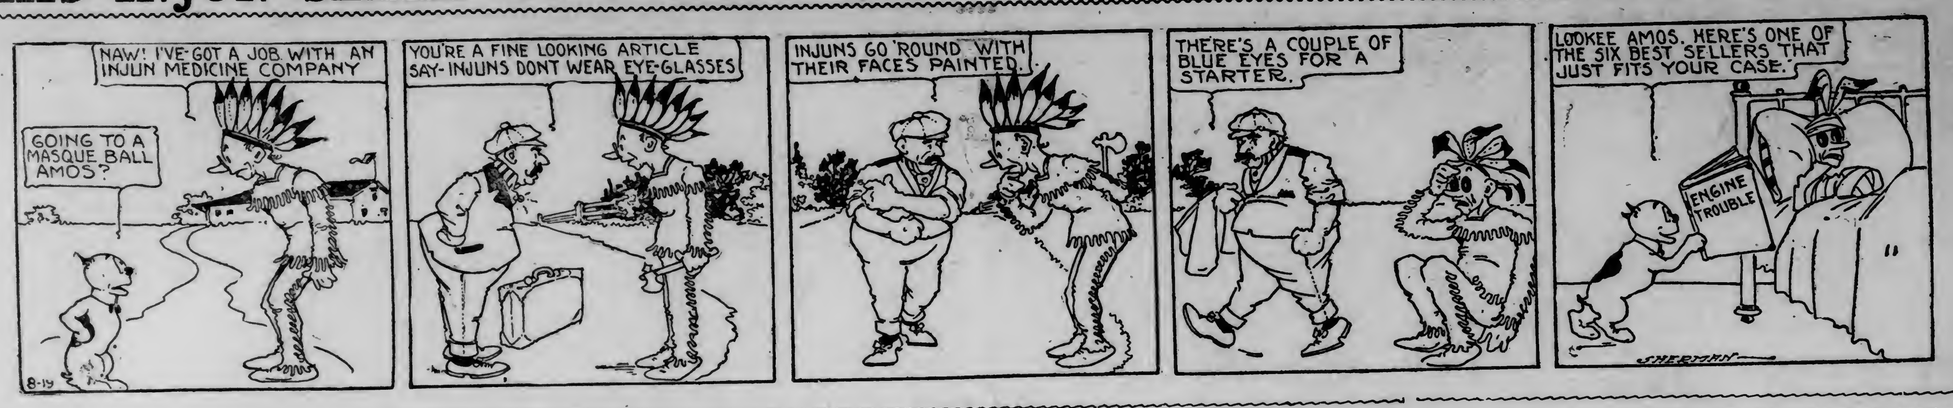

It has been said that backache is an invention of the evil one to try women's souls.

Not so. Backache is a symptom of some serious trouble which sooner or later declares itself, either kidney trouble or some female derangement.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relieved upon to go to the root of the trouble and quickly relieve this most distressing symptom.

Nearly forty years of unparalleled success proves its value in conquering female ills.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

DUMAS CASE UP SEPT. 10

Former Mayor to Be Arraigned for Sentence at Bemidji That Date.

Expected to Appeal to Supreme Court Which Will Stay Matters.

Bemidji, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Interest centers in the term of district court to open here Sept. 10 with Judge Stanton probably presiding as Dr. Dumas, ex-mayor of Cass Lake, is scheduled to appear then for sentence under a conviction of arson growing out of the Puposky episode. As his attorney, George H. Spear of Grand Rapids, is working for a new trial it is expected a motion to that end will be made and if denied an appeal taken to the supreme court, the appeal operating as a stay.

Some time ago the supreme court passed upon an appeal from a ruling of the trial judge in this famous case, deciding against Dumas. Now he has recourse to an appeal from the judgment of conviction which will probably not be decided by the higher court for several months. Meanwhile it is expected he will be at liberty on the present bond.

Charles Swanland of Kelliher probably will be indicted on a charge of murder for having shot Arvid Vickstrom, a homesteader near Shotley last May.

At this term of court action will be brought against the Canadian Northern railroad in an effort to collect damages for the forest fires which wiped out Baudette and Spooner two years ago. Papers have been served on the company in the claims of Mrs. S. E. Jessup, Mrs. Orr and William Hoshled. Tests will be made of these cases and in the meantime the papers in the other cases will be filed as quickly as possible. About 100 witnesses will be called.

Many Other Suits Impending.

The cases will be followed with intense interest as much will depend on the outcome. Suits aggregating a vast sum will be filed in case the claims above mentioned are successful. Every one who lost anything in the fire of Oct. 1, 1910, will be interested in the coming suits. The attorneys handling the cases are very confident of winning.

Sixty new cases were filed against the company recently by Messrs. Lorring and Chilgren. The total amount sued for is a little over $100,000. The homesteaders who bring the suits are located north of Pitt and Williams towards Zippel. The same attorneys have already brought fifty suits against the company, twenty-two of which were won in court and twenty-eight amicably settled without trial. The homesteaders who won their cases in court received their checks this week. They reside in the vicinity of Williams.

HIGHWAYMEN ROB VICTIMS ON TRAIN

Hold Up Patrons of Freight Train, Throwing One From Train.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The police have been scouring this city and East Grand Forks two days after three thugs who robbed five men on a Great Northern freight train between Fargo and Grand Forks, Saturday night.

From one of their victims, Albert Striegel of Jasper, Ind., they secured $49.60, and from Frank Raimann of Chicago, $8. Lee Workman, who was also among those held up, didn't have any money.

One of the victims was thrown from the train while it was moving, but he was not injured. The hold-up men turned on him when he showed resistance after his money had been taken.

COMMITTEE LOSES OUT.

Judge Decides Legislative Probers Cannot Force Evidence.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 19. — Judge E. F. Waite of the Hennepin county court late Saturday adversely ruled upon the power of the legislative committee seeking to investigate the brewery ownership of saloons by passing upon the demurrer to the indictment charging gross misdemeanor against P. J. Riordan, treasurer and attorney for the Hennepin Brewing company, for failure to appear before the committee when subpoenaed. Judge Waite holds that the committee cannot issue compulsory process.

The case against Charles Gluek, vice president of the Gluek Brewing company goes over until Aug. 23 to give M. C. Brady, special prosecutor, time to adduce authorities that may lead Judge Waite to certify to the supreme court questions of law issue. The decision does not question the right of the committee to examine voluntary witnesses and the investigation will continue along this line.

"A legislative committee is without authority for any purpose after adjournment of the legislature since die," ruled Judge Waite. "To myself it seems clear that such an investigation as is sought to be provided for, if fairly conducted, might be extremely useful in framing salutory legislation, and I think the reference to suspected criminal offenses takes the matter outside the pale of proper legislative inquiry."

All three members of the committee say the investigation will continue with such witnesses as will be willing to testify. Pending the decision of the supreme court, they say, they will sit in Duluth and other points. The committee will go ahead with the investigation and make its report to the legislature next January.

SIXTH MINNESOTA REUNION.

Old Soldiers to Gather at St. Paul Sept. 6.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 19.—The survivors of the Sixth Minnesota Infantry will meet at the old capitol here Sept. 6, in annual reunion. The same day has been designated as Grand Army day at the state fair and during the afternoon a reunion of all war veterans will be held in the woman's building near the old log cabin on the fair grounds. The G. A. R. veterans will be guests of the state fair all the week, all wearing G. A. R. badges being admitted at all gates day or night.

GOVERNMENT DOCTOR FIGHTING TRACHOMA.

Bemidji, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—In an effort to eradicate strachoma, the Indian disease that has so seriously affected the sight of the red men, the government has sent to the Red Lake reservation, Dr. W. H. Harrison, a United States supervisor.

Dr. Harrison has been at work for several days and has found numerous cases of trachoma, but believes the present activity of the government will do much toward wiping out the disease. He will be stationed here indefinitely.

CONCRETE SMOKESTACK

Will Be Built By Staples for Electric Light Plant.

Staples, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—A new smokestack has been built on the electric light plant. This will be a great improvement over the old one, which was made of steel. During the summer it burned out, breaking in two and clogging the fire draft, so was taken down. The new one is to be made of concrete, 132 feet high above ground, some six or seven feet higher than the water tank which is beside the plant. The total cost will be about $1,650, the contract having been given to the Weber Chimney company, Chicago, Ill.

On the lots adjoining the electric light plant two new grain warehouses have been erected. The one belonging to Petit of Verndale is of wood construction and of a good size, the bins being made of concrete. Already it is doing big business, being in a good location beside the tracks. The other warehouse is even better, being made of concrete, with wide and spacious bins of the same. This belongs to the farmers co-operative company and is nearly completed. The farmers are very enthusiastic over it and expect good profits from it. A man has already been sent out looking up places and commission firms for produce.

CONVENTION AT FARGO.

North Dakota Progressives to Meet There Sept. 6.

Minot, N. D., Aug. 19. — A call for a state convention of the Progressive party, to meet at Fargo, Sept. 6 to place in nomination a full state ticket, was issued here Sunday by Dorr H. Carroll, chairman of the state central committee. Col. Roosevelt is scheduled to be at Fargo on the date of the convention.

SOUGHT THIRD WIFE.

Todd County Man Said to Have Failed at Williston, N. D.

Williston, N. D., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Emil Henry Hirschy of Clarissa, Todd county, Minnesota, is said to have come here to seek a personal interview with a woman regarded as a possibility for a third wife. Mr. Hirschy is 65 years old and famous as a buttermaker. He holds medals for distinction won in Switzerlaand, his native land, for this work. Two wives he has buried and he admitted the paternity of twenty-two living children.

He met the woman whose acquaintance he had formed through the mail. She was 40 and somewhat rotund. Mr. Hirschy explained to her in rather fragmentary English how lonely he was and how he needed a third wife. She admitted having wept at the blers of two defunct spouses and lamented the fact that she was without children.

Either Mr. Hirschy's recitation of his woes or his explanation of his devotion failed to impress her. She decided she had no wild ambition to become the third Mrs. Hirschy, and he appeared not to be inconsolable over the failure of his mission, proceeding on to Plentywood, Mont., where one of his sons resides.

REGRETTED IN LAKOTA.

Passing of Former North Dakota Editor Cause for Sorrow.

Lakota, N. D., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The people of this city express great regret over the death of Ernie H. Kent, for years editor of the Observer, afterwards going into the realty business in Grand Forks and in Texas. He was the president of the old Northern Baseball league and an enthusiastic sportsman. Some years ago he married Miss Florece Marion Pace of St. Paul, who has been very devoted to him during a lingering illness with pernicious anemia. His death occurred at Colorado Springs.

TWINE BY EXPRESS.

Needed Harvest Material Rushed to North Dakota.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Express companies operating between the Twin Cities and this section should show a big gain in earnings as the result of the vast amount of binding twine that has been rushed to this state by express in the past few days. The fourth special twine express train arrived last night. Many cars have been shipped through Minot, while others have been dropped at Fargo.

Each car contains about 50,000 pounds of twine, and with a total of eighteen express cars full of twine, brought to the city since the harvesting season started, the grand total shipped is about 900,000.

The cost of shipping has been enormous, as it is understood that each car costs between $400 and $500. The total amount paid to the express companies for the service is in the neighborhood of $7,000 or $8,000.

ST. PAUL BANKER TO SPEAK AT GRAND FORKS.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. W. Wheeler, president of the Capital Trust company of St. Paul, will be one of the principal speakers at the meeting of the Grand Forks District Bankers' association here Thursday. This will be the first meeting of the association since it was organized here last winter. The group association comprises Grand Forks, Nelson, Walsh, Pembina and Cavalier counties.

TO BOOST BISMARCK FAIR.

Capital City Business Men Plan Automobile Trips.

Bismarck, N. D., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.) — Leaving Bismarck Monday, Aug. 26, over twenty automobiles with fifty representative business men of this city will start on a series of tours throughout the state to boost North Dakota's second annual, industrial exposition, to be held here Oct. 1 to 13. The first tour will be to Dickinson, with stops at New Salem, Glen Ullin, Hebron, Richardton, Taylor and Gladstone. The second day's journey will be from Dickinson to Mott, the tourists visiting New England, Haveblock and Regent, returning to Bismarck the third day by way of Burt, Birdsell, New Leipzig, Elgin, Carson, Lark and Flasher.

The second tour will be through Emmons, Logan and McIntosh counties, visiting Hazelton, Linton, Braddock, Wishley and other towns along the line.

The third tour will be statewide in extent. The party will proceed north to Minot, thence east to Grand Forks, south to Fargo and west to Bismarck, with stops at all intermediate points.

TO OPEN FORKS BRANCH.

Duluth Concern Will Soon Have Branch There.

Grand Forks, N. D.—Aug. 19.—It is announced that the Stone-Ordean-Wells Company of Duluth will open their Grand Forks branch about Sept. 1. During the past week the company has been busy placing stock in their building on South Fourth street, which was formerly occupied by the Leslie Stinson company. A number of improvements are also being made in the structure.

M. E. Stricker, who has been the Grand Forks representative of the company for the past eight years, will be the local manager, while W. A. Nanson of Duluth has been appointed manager of the office and credit department of this branch. Mr. Nanson has been connected with the firm for the past four years.

ROOSEVELT COMING WEST.

Will Speak at Minnesota State Fair Sept. 5.

Hamline, Minn., Aug. 19.—Theodore Rosevelt will be in the Twin Cities Thursday, Sept. 5, and will deliver an address in front of the grandstand at the state fair grounds on the afternoon of that day.

Col. Roosevelt's Western trip will extent to the Pacific coast. His itinery follows:

D.; Sept. 7, Billings, Livingston, Bozeman, Logan and Helena, Mont., (state convention); Sept. 8, Missoula, Mont., and Spokane, Wash.; Sept. 9, Spokane; Sept. 10, Seattle, state convention) and Tacoma, Wash.; Sept. 11, Portland, Or.; Sept. 12, La Grande and Huntington, Or., and Nampa and Boise, Idaho; Sept. 13, Boise, Pocatella, Idaho, and Ogden, Utah; Sept. 14, Reno, Nev., Sacramento, Oakland, Cal.; Sept. 15, San Francisco; Sept. 16, Santa Barbara and Los Angeles; Sept. 17, Maricopa and Phoenix, Ariz., Ash Fork, Ariz., Albuquerque, Lamy and Santa Fe, N. M.; Sept. 19, La Junta, Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver, Colo.

THREE BREAK JAIL IN NORTH DAKOTA.

Williston, N. D., Aug. 19.—Boring a hole through a brick wall large enough to admit their passage, three prisoners in the Williams county jail escaped. The hole was made directly under the eaves. The men dropped out on the outside of the wall by using a rope formed of blankets and made good their getaway. Ed Kerr, charged with purse snatching; John Mahar, charged with selling liquor, and J. Taylor, accused of larceny, are the men who escaped.

OLIVER COUNTY, N. D., BOASTS FIRST SILO.

Center, N. D., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The first silo ever constructed in Oliver county was recently completed on the Schofield ranch. Mr. Schofield, who has been making his home in Fargo for some years, will soon return to the ranch and engage in dairying on a large scale. His ranch is near Hensler, Oliver county, and is famous for its creameries, but heretofore the dairymen have neglected to construct silos.

SEIDEL AT BRAINERD.

Socialist Candidate Packs Theater at 25 and 10 Cents Per.

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.) — Before an audience which packed the opera house and paid 25 cents and 10 cents to hear him, Emil Seidel, ex-mayor of Milwaukee and vice presidential candidate on the Socialist ticket, told the results attained by the Socialists in power in Milwaukee. The speaker was introduced by Jay Henry Long of Brainerd, the candidate for county attorney on the Socialist ticket. Mr. Seidel inveighed against the concentration of wealth, the 60 per cent increase in the cost of living in the last fifteen years and the slow increase of wages, only 20 per cent for the same period.

Goes on Separate Ballot.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 19. — Attorney General Bancroft has ruled that the woman's suffrage referendum must go on a separate ballot at the November election and that the other constitutional amendment must be submitted on the regular ballot following the names of the candidates and separated therefrom by a line or rule.

SCROFULOUS TROUBLES

No truth is more forcibly manifested in physical life than the old saying "like begets like;" for just as the offspring of healthy ancestry are blessed with pure, rich blood insuring good health, so the children of blood-tainted parentage inherit a polluted circulation which fosters a chain of scrofulous troubles. The usual signs of a scrofulous inheritance are swollen glands about the neck, weak eyes, pale, waxy complexions, sores and ulcers and general poor health. Treatment should be commenced at the first indication of Scrofula for it may get beyond control if allowed to run unchecked. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for Scrofula. It renovates the circulation and drives out all scrofulous matter and deposits. S. S. S. goes to the bottom of the trouble and removes the cause and cures the disease. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, and is an absolutely safe remedy for young or old. Book on the blood and medical advice free to all who write.

SOX DIVIDE DOUBLE BILL

Duluth Takes First Game and Loses Second to Peggers.

Brackett Hurls Fine Ball While Hoffman Is Driven to Woods.

Duluth and Winnipeg split the double-header of yesterday, the domestics getting the first contest by the score of 6 to 4 and the invaders taking the second game by the score of 4 to 1.

Excitement marked the second game. But for the minions of the law it might have meant colored optics, shifted countenances and other unpleasant things for John Landry. It came near being an ugly riot.

In the fifth round of the second game Sours lifted one over the barrier with two on. The large audience rose en masse and let loose a mighty cheer. Imagine the deep chagrin, George, when Landry called the ball out.

He was surrounded after the game and called things that the postoffice department officials and even the managers of burlesque shows have frowned upon. When adjectives grew cold the populace started in to get a little exercise.

Policemen and plain clothes men averted the trouble, and the Landry clothes looked like the prodigal son's after his long hike for the family hearth and a square.

Hirsch had us hooked up nicely in the first contest until the sixth round, when the home hitters became effective for the first time during the affray.

The first Winnipeg score came in the second. Kirkham singled and moved up on Krueger's out. Glass singled and Kirkham moved on to third from whence he scored on a wild pitch by Brackett, the ball going over the head of Hargrove.

In the fourth the visitors gathered two more on errors by O'Brien and Bennett, the Orator dropping a little popup and Bennett letting a fly get away from him, and three singles. The way that Hirsch was going, the three runs looked quite sufficient to win the game.

Then came the assault on Hirsch in the sixth. Brackett was plugged in the shoulder and Bennett fanned as usual. Bluhm singled sharply past second and both runners came over on a long single by Sours. Meniece flew out and then Teddy Leber slammed one to deep center for three sacks. Hirsch was derricked and Peasley called to duty. McGraw walked and O'Brien doubled up against the left field fence, scoring Leber and McGraw. He was caught off first and the inning ended.

Bluhm singled in the eighth, moved up on a sacrifice and counted on Leber's Texas leaguer to left. An error and two singles gave the Peggers one in the ninth round after two had gone and gave the populace a slight scare.

Hoffman opposed Peasley in the second game, the Duluth twirler having nothing but a glove. He gave way to Eddie Stark, thought that gent had very little. Bone plays and some slow work allowed the visitors to gain an early lead and they were never headed, though if the Landry decision had been different—

DeMaggio walked in the first and got to third on a wild heave by Lucella Sours. He counted on a bad throw to the plate. Freer worked around after the bum heave gave him life and counted on Kirkham's single.

We got one in the second. With two gone McGraw doubled and counted when Krueger erred on O'Brien's fly to deep short.

Two more came in the third and put the game on frozen aqua pura. Clothier was safe when Stark fumbled and kicked around his little offering. Kirkham doubled and the runner was over. Glass doubled after Krueger whiffed and the second run of the inning was over.

Hirsch came back in the fifth after two errors had made the situation a dark blue one for the visitors and then Lucella Sours swatted one far and high over the fence. Then followed the angry mob incident and the entry of the chorus of policemen, plain clothes men, employes, peanut men, etc. Costumes furnished by the city and various ready made establishments. The act was a splendid one and was most realistic.

SUPERIOR AND DEACONS TIE UP

Both Teams Score But Once —Marsh Taken From Grounds By Police.

Grand Forks, Aug. 19.—Grand Forks and Superior played to a tie here yesterday, the game being called to allow the visitors to catch a train to Winnipeg. Hyzer's muff accounted for the only score of the visitors, and a wild pitch by Cummings after Jerry Edmunds had tripled to center, gave the locals their only count. Umpire Marsh was escorted from the field by the police for calling the game, the umpire having failed to announce the arrangement prior to the contest.

CUBS ARE GIVEN SET BACK BY PHILADELPHIA.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Philadelphia set Chicago back half a game behind New York by dividing a double header with the locals, while New York defeated St. Louis. The visitors won the first contest, 10 to 6, and lost the second, 1 to 5. The opening game was a wild affair, in which the visitors hit opportunely. Chaney had everything his own way in the second game, holding the Philadelphians to seven hits, no two of which came in the same inning when hits meant runs. An overflow crowd witnessed the double bill and ground rules were necessary, making a hit into the crowd good for two bases. Paskert and Dooin got into arguments with Umpire Owens in the first game and were sent to the club house. The scores:

First game— R. H. E.
Chicago .....1 0 2 0 3 0 0 0 0—6 7 2

GIANTS TIGHTEN HOLD ON THE 1912 PENNANT.

St. Louis, Aug. 19.—New York tightened its hold on first place in the National league here yesterday afternoon, when the locals lost to the leaders by a score of 11 to 1. Marquard, who was knocked off the rubber in his last game at Chicago, came back strong this afternoon and kept the home team's hits well scattered while his teammates hit Geyer and Griner to all parts of the lot.

The score: R. H. E.
St. Louis .....0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—1 7 4

BOSTON GRABS OPENER FROM CINCINNATI REDS.

Cincinnati, Aug. 19.—Boston won the opening game of the series with Cincinnati here, 5 to 4. Benton, Kroh and Dickson were each hit hard, but Humphries and Tyler were effective, the latter allowing only one hit during the final six innings.

The score: R. H. E.
Cincinnati .....0 2 0 2 0 0 0 0 0—4 9 2

STONES BEATEN BY JEFFERSONS

The Jeffersons defeated the Stones yesterday by the score of 9 to 7, both teams playing a ragged game in the field and the Jeffs being strong with the war club. Knox was fairly effective, but the East Enders took a liking to the benders of Sloan and gathered a quantity of blows during the afternoon.

The score by innings: R. H. E.

The Maroons Win.

The Maroon A. A. defeated the Madison Athletic club team yesterday by the score of 8 to 6 on the Fifty-second avenue west grounds. The Madisons claim that the Maroons left the field before the game was played out. Gilliland and Ness worked for the winners, C. Nelson and Lindberg being in the points for the Madisons.

Kenney & Ankers Win.

The Kenney & Ankers defeated the New Duluths yesterday by the score of 4 to 0. The game was one of the best amateur contests of the season, it being a hurling duel until the eighth round when the clothiers got to Benson. Deburn pitched a great game for the merchants, being credited with holding his opponents hitless.

The score by innings: R. H. E.

Proctors Defeated.

The Gustafsons defeated the Proctor Juniors yesterday by the score of 5 to 4. The game was played at the Thirty-second avenue west grounds and was witnessed by a large crowd. Several double plays were cleverly executed during the contest, which was well played all the way through. Renaud and Rossiter were in the points for the Proctors and Conning and Campbell for the visitors.

LEGG IS AGAIN THE CHAMPION

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 19.—Harry G. Legg, Minikahda club, Minneapolis, Saturday afternoon won for the fourth consecutive year the championship of the Trans-Mississippi Golf association, when he defeated W. D. Middleton, Davenport, Iowa, playing from the Rock Island Arsenal club, 6 up and 5 to go, over the Minikahda course here. For two years previous to his first winning the championship Legg was runner-up.

For the first time since the elimination matches of the present tournament began, Legg failed to eliminate, with the exception of the first, which he won by default, his opponent by his "pet" score, 8 up and 6 to go. He made a desperate attempt to do so on the twelfth hole of Saturday afternoon's play, but a sensational 14-foot putt, which brought applause from the large gallery, gave Middleton the hole in four, one under par and two under bogey. Middleton was dormie playing in the thirteenth, which was halved in five, giving Legg the match and the championship.

WALTER MILLER IS VERY WROTH

St. Paul Wrestler Declares He Has No Fear of Ed Adamson.

Apparently the more Walter Miller thinks of some of the cutting things Ed Adamson has said about him, the more his temper rises. Adamson has come out flat-footed and stated that Miller is afraid to wrestle and has been dodging him since that memorable and gruelling three-hour struggle in St. Paul, when the shoulders of the little Chicago Demon were held firmly on the mat.

There is no wrestler in the world who is so proud of his record as the little Pole of St. Paul, Walter Miller. The last remark of Adamson has brought a rise from Miller.

"Let that guy make 152 pounds and I will wrestle him any time or place that suits his fancy," says Miller in one of the St. Paul papers. "In most of my matches I have entered the ring weighing around the 150 pound mark. I gave weight away to Gehring and held him to a draw. I gave weight away to Mike Yokel and beat him in St. Paul. Then I went out at Salt Lake city and the weighing of Yokel was a joke. Walter Willoughby, who admits that he can't make the middleweight limit ringside, wants me to wrestle him. He would enter the ring weighing about 168 pounds.

"When I wrestled Sailor Jack up at Duluth the fellows up there kept asking how much I would outweigh the Sailor. The funny part of the whole thing is that the Tar actually weighed about two pounds more than I did.

"You can't blame me for wanting to wrestle just one match with some one who weighs somewhere near my own notch. Adamson has always complained about that weight making in St. Paul. Wasn't it fair that he should make weight? I don't ask him to make the welterweight limit—but if he is so crazy to wrestle me, and if he thinks that I am afraid to give him a chance, let him agree to make 152 at 3 o'clock and also let him make a side bet, just to show that he really thinks he is going to trim me, and Mr. Adamson will get the finest little trimming he ever received in his long career.

"Ed is a great wrestler, but I know that I have got it on him. Ever since I trimmed him in St. Paul he has been belittling me. He says I am trying to avoid him. If I ever get Adamson on the mat he will be sorry for some of the remarks he has been making."

POOR OLD SUPERIOR REFUSES TO ACCEPT ENLIGHTENED GAME.

Charley Chase of Superior made an attempt last Saturday to revive interest in the golf game on the other side of the pond. It was a noble effort upon the part of the former tennis star. He besought the services of R. S. Patrick and Willie Leith, two gallant Scots. The contest was booked to be pulled on the wet links of the Gitchimadji club.

Mr. Chase had assured the two stars that there would be a large crowd out. "Two stars of your undoubted brilliancy will bring out a great throng—a teeming throng, I might say," stated Chase. "Either one of you would draw big; but think of it, gentlemen, here I have two, a sort of two-star bill, an all-star combination."

When Pat and Willie started to play there was Mr. Chase, serene but quiet and silent. There were also a couple of caddies and onwerny looking gent who happened to be making a short cut through the grounds and who lingered. They started to play and at the second hole it is reported that Chase quit and went sadly home.

Pat and Willie played for a while and then beat it. Thus did the efforts of Chase go for naught. Superior is still classed with the uncouth and barbaric.

DIXIE WINNER OF SAILING CUP

The Kodahpa Trophy Captured By New Class B Boat.

Fred Levins won the Kodahpa cup yesterday by capturing the third of the series of sailing races for the trophy put up by the club. The win of yestetrday gives the Dixie, the Levins' boat, eight points and an easy win.

Each member of the crew will receive a sweater. Fred Levins, skip, and Ray Johns, F. Sampson, Roy MacCrea and J. McCoy make up the crew.

The Allegro met with an accident that caused a delay of some five minutes, this virtually putting the Brewer boat out of the race. The Spring Maid looked a winner until the last leg of the course, when the Dixie came from behind and won out.

The Dixie's time was 56:29; The 1:02:55.

END OF THE TROUT SEASON IN SIGHT.

That Sept. 1 will mark the end of the trout season is heralded with no great grief among anglers of this part of the state. This is due to the fact that fishing has been rather poor all year. Catches have been small and many experts have scored failures owing to unfavorable conditions. Cold rains started the season and high water continued the bad start, so that nothing favorable for good catches has characterized the year. Mosquitoes have also contributed largely to keep sportsmen away from the streams.

ROOSEVELT AT STATE FAIR ON SEPT. 5.

C. P. Craig of Duluth, a member of the state fair board, has received word from Senator Dixon of Montana, one of Col. Roosevelt's managers, that the colonel will speak at the state fair on Sept. 5, and will spend most of that day on the grounds. The speech will be made in front of the grand stand at 2:30 o'clock that afternoon. On this trip west he will go to the Pacific coast.

BAKER IS LEADING RUN-GETTER OF TWO LEAGUES

Certain persons think that the best way to consider the worth of a player to his team as a hitter is to take, in preference to his batting percentage, the number of runs he has driven over the plate. Some men can hit like fiends when men are on the bases and some cannot. Whatever the merits of the two modes of calculation may be, the fact remains that the men voted as being the most valuable players to their teams in the National and American league last year by a jury of scribes, each athlete being rewarded by the presentation of a Chalmers car, were those who set the pace in their respective organizations in batting in runs. Ty Cobb and Frank Schulte garnered these laurels last year and also won the Chalmers trophies, but neither man now is showing the way in driving home tallies, or at least he wasn't at the close of the fourth month of the big league championship runnings, last Sunday.

The timeliest hitter, up to that time, was J. Franklin Baker of the Athletics, he having been responsible for 91 of the runs scored by the Mackmen. The distinguished citizen of Trappe, Md., had batted in 74 runs on safeties, 8 markers on sacrifice flies and 9 counters through the medium of infield outs. He was being paced in the American by Stuffy McInnes his team-mate, with Sam Crawford of the Tigers and Boston's big three—Larry Gardner, Tris Speaker and Duffy Lewis—close behind the former Gloucester schoolboy.

In the National, Larry Doyle of the Giants had, on the date mentioned, the best record for delivering the goods and bringing home runners. He has helped the McGrawites to 79 of their runs and has a lead of 11 tallies over Heinie Zimmerman, the Cubs' wicked hitter. Red Murray, who was such a failure as a willow-wielder in the last year's world's series, ranks a good third among the National league's timely hitters, and Hans Wagner of the Pirates and "Cactus" Cravath of the Phillies are tied for fourth. Below will be found a list of the major leaguers who had batted in 50 or more runs to Aug. 10 inclusive:

WARM THIS WEEK

Washington, Aug. 19. — The coming week will be one of moderately high temperatures in the Southern states and generally over the Middle West, according to a bulletin from the weather bureau. In the Northern states and west of the Rocky mountains, temperatures will be near or below the seasonable average.

"The precipitation during the week," the bulletin says, "will be light and local over the southern half of the country, and generally above the normal in the Northern states. The next disturbance to cross the country will appear in the Northwest Tuesday, cross the Middle West about Thursday, and the Eastern states Friday or Saturday. There are no indications at the present time of a disturbance in the Western states."

WOMAN'S BODY FOUND; FACE GNAWED BY RATS.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 19.—With the face horribly gnawed by rats, the body of Miss Mamie Carter, a helper in a doctor's office, was found last night in her room.

The young woman had been missing since early Saturday, and Christ Kalmbach, the proprietor of the rooming house where the young woman had lived for six years, decided to force open the door of her room. The face of the dead girl was so badly mutilated that it was at first thought the wounds had resulted from a gunshot, but it was later established that rats had gnawed deeply into the flesh.

It has not been made clear whether death resulted from natural causes, or whether she took her own life. Kalmbach, however, makes the statement that the young woman had been taking medicine for heart trouble, and that he believes death to have been due to heart failure.

A letter found in the room addressed to a younger sister in Cuba, Ill., leads to the belief that Miss Carter was formerly a resident of that place.

WATCHES BURGLAR TAKE $6,000 JEWELS.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 19.—Not daring to awaken her husband for fear he might be shot and killed, Mrs. Walter F. Klemm, wife of a Philadelphia banker, with a summer home at Chelsea, lay awake and watched a burglar steal jewelry valued at more than $6,000 from a dressing table in her bedroom.

GRAND FORKS WILL BOOST FOR BALL CLUB.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Grand Forks has fixed Aug. 22 as Boosters day, when Grand Forks fans are expected to turn out en masse. Duluth will oppose the local club in the final game of the series which opens here today.

The Grand Forks club is short about $2,000 in the matter of finances, and is using the booster day plan as a means of doing away with at least a portion of the deficit.

Brothers Equal Record.

New York, Aug. 19.—The standing high jump mark with which Platt Adams won that event in the recent Olympic games, was equalled by both himself and his brother, Benjamin, at the annual track and field contests of the Eccentrice Firemen at Celtic park yesterday. The Adams brothers both cleared the bar at 5 feet, 4 inches, and tossed a coin for medals.

MEMBERS OF ROYAL LEAGUE WILL HONOR RETIRING SCRIBE

H. H. STONE.

L. A. BARNES.

Members of the Royal League in Duluth and Superior will hold a grand celebration at the West Duluth Commercial club tomorrow evening in honor of L. A. Barnes, who has taken an active part in the West Duluth council since its organization seven years ago. The affair has been named the "Barnes' Night."

Mr. Barnes has been scribe of the West Duluth council since its organization, resigning last spring, on account of his other business interests.

Besides the celebration in honor of Mr. Barnes, a council for women will be organized under the direction of H. H. Stone, state organizer, and C. E. Piper of Chicago, supreme scribe. This is the first auxiliary to be formed in Duluth, and the affair promises to be an interesting one. Fifteen candidates will also be initiated into the West Duluth council during the evening. Zenith Council, No. 161, and Superior Council, No. 235, have both been invited to the affair, which will include a program of addresses, songs, recitations, orchestra selections, dancing and refreshments.

West Duluth council now has an active membership of seventy-five, and is one of the strongest fraternal organizations in West Duluth. The officers are: E. G. Kreidler, archon; L. A. Barnes, past archon; R. L. Davidson, scribe, and Dr. E. W. Boerner, treasurer.

FARMER HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Andrew Hedin Thrown From Buggy and Hit By Street Car.

Andrew Hedin of Midway was thrown from a buggy at the corner of Central avenue and Ramsey street yesterday noon and then hit by a street car. He is now lying in a serious condition at the Duluth hospital, where he was taken immediately after the accident.

Hedin, who is a farmer near Midway, was driving with a companion, when the horse suddenly became frightened at an approaching car and dashed across the street car tracks. Hedin was thrown out of the buggy, falling in the center of the track, but the motorman, noticing the accident, brought the car to a sudden stop. Hedin received a slight jolt from the car, the wheels of which had just touched him when it was brought to a stop. Hedin's companion remained in the seat of the buggy and was unhurt.

Hedin was picked up unconscious and immediately taken to the Duluth hospital, where an examination was made by Drs. David Graham and W. E. Judson. Dr. Grham stated this morning that the injured man will recover, although he will be laid up for some weeks.

STRUCK ON HEAD BY CHUNK OF COAL

Workman at Zenith Furnace Company Is Unconscious Many Hours.

Tripo Vukosav, 30 years old, was accidently injured at the Zenith Furnace company coal dock yesterday morning and was unconscious until this morning.

Vukosav was working near one of the bridges and while passing underneath the steel frame work, was hit on the head by a large chunk of coal, which dropped out of one of the swinging buckets. The blow knocked Vukosav unconscious and he was picked up a few minutes later by his fellow employes. He was at first taken to a physician's office and later to the hospital.

After he had regained consciousness this morning an examination was made by Dr. C. H. Payette, the attending physician, and it was found that the injured man had sustained a slight fracture of the skull and numerous bruises about the head and face. He will recover.

Vukosav, who boarded at 5512 Redruth street, has two brothers living in West Duluth. One of the brothers, Louis Vukosav, is proprietor of a saloon and a grocery store at 5602 and 5606 Raleigh street.

OBITUARY

Simon Mandel, president of Mandel Brothers, merchants, died at his home in Chicago, Aug. 19, after an illness of more than a year. He was born at Kerzenheim, Germany, and was 76 years old. He is survived by four daughters and five sons. Funeral services will be held Wednesday.

William Gustavus Fischer, noted throughout the world as the composer of sacred music, is dead at his home in Philadelphia, Pa., after a short illness, aged 77 years. During the original Moody and Sankey revival services in in Philadelphia he acted as the leader of a chorus of more than 1,000 voices. From 1858 to 1868 he was professor of music at Girard college. Among his most famous compositions were, "I Love To Tell the Story," and "Whiter Than Snow."

Nora Decarli, a well-known German actress, died in Berlin, Germany, Aug. 17. Miss Decarli was for several seasons leading lady in a German stock company which played in Milwaukee and Chicago.

FROST AND SNOW

Frost and snow flurries will soon be the weather forecast for Duluth. Be prepared and have your blankets and woolens cleaned before it comes. Our process of cleaning purifies and sweetens them without shrinking, and they are returned to you as soft and fluffy as new. A special department for this particular work and a special man to do particular work. Yale, Paney Launderers and French Dry Cleaners. 479 either phone will find one of our white wagons at your door.

CITY BRIEFS

Objection Looked for.

When the petition for a highway from Barnum to Duluth comes up next Saturday in district court before Judge Dibell, it is expected that Carlton county will have objections to submit. The ground for such objection, it is believed, will be that Carlton county figures that the proposed highway will be a duplication of one already planned and laid out by Carlton county.

Dampness Affects Crowds.

The public parks and other outdoor points of interest failed to draw yesterday owing, chiefly, to the prevailing dampness which affected the ardor as well as the atmosphere and skin. Indoor attractions, such as the "movies" and the hearth had the stronger pull yesterday, but the promenade on Superior street was large despite moist conditions.

Dr. H. Brown.

Diseases of stomach and intestines, 424-425 New Jersey building.

Council Meeting.

The meeting of the council this evening promises to be short, as little business of importance is scheduled. The petition of the chauffeurs asking that they be allowed to stand on Superior street will be received, but it will likely be referred to a committee for consideration.

State Land Sales Grow.

Theodore Nelson, manager of the state land sales office, who was in Duluth yesterday, says that more state land is being sold now than ever before and that purchasers are buying smaller tracts, which shows that greater number of settlers are coming into the state. Itasca, Beltrami, Aitkin, Cass and Koochiching counties have enjoyed the greater number of sales of late.

Dies in the West.

F. E. Smith, deputy clerk of court, has received a telegram from his mother announcing the death of his father at Los Angeles. The deceased was James E. Smith, and up to about fourteen or fifteen years ago was well known in Duluth and Superior. He ran curio stores in both cities and was engaged in other enterprises as well. Heart trouble coupled with kidney disease, was the cause of death. He was 62 years of age. No particulars as to the interment have been received as yet.

Gilpin Files.

Probate Judge S. W. Gilpin filed today for re-election on the non-partisan ticket. Judge Gilpin was elected as a Republican two years ago, but the new primary law has placed his office under the non-partisan law. No opposition has appeared to him thus far.

Rochester Judge Here.

Judge S. S. Brown of Rochester, N. Y., was the guest of Judge S. W. Gilpin of the probate court today. Judge Brown is judge of the surrogate court of Monroe county, New York, and called on Judge Gilpin to observe the workings of the probate court in this state.

Noyes Gives Out Statement of Expense of Convention.

Democrats Will Open Headquarters in Chicago Wednesday.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Laverene W. Noyes, treasurer of the Progressive arrangement committee, today made public a statement of receipts and disbursements for the recent Progressive national convention held in Chicago in August, showing that the total expense of the convention was $19,403.31.

In submitting his report of convention finances Mr. Noyes said:

"The first national convention of the Progressive party was conducted at less cost to the people than probably any convention of the Republican or Democratic parties for years.

"National conventions steadily have been growing more expensive. The members of the arrangements committee felt that it was in keeping with the policies of this movement to avoid all unnecessary expense, and to finance the convention by popular subscription.

"We think the balance sheet submitted shows that it is possible to establish a new precedent in the matter of national conventions, and avoid the waste every four years of many thousands of dollars."

Has $474.63 Left.

As the total expenses amouted to $19,403.31, the committee has a balance of $474.63 on hand.

Political activity increased today with preparations for the opening of Democratic headquarters in Chicago on Wednesday. It was said a large number of Democratic leaders would come to Chicago from Indianapolis immediately after the notification of Governor Marshall tomorrow.

Among these will be Joseph G. Dales of Wisconsin, secretary of the Democratic national committee; Charles E. Boeschenstein, national committeeman from Illinois, and acting Chairman McAdoo of the national committee.

Edward Dunn of Chicago, candidate for governor of Illinois, and Roger Sullivan, former national committeeman from Illinois, also are expected to return to Chicago Wednesday. Mr. Dunn has been in the East and Mr. Sullivan has been cruising on the lakes.

Diekeman Directs Orators.

David Mulvane, director of the Republican headquarters here, announced today that Garrett J. Diekeman of Holland, Mich., had been selected as chairman of the Republican speakers' bureau. Mr. Diekeman, a former congressman, will take charge of this work within the next few days with officers at the Chicago headquarters.

Illinois Republican headquarters were opened today and it was announced that Governor Deneen and other candidates on the state ticket would address county chairmen from all counties in the state at a luncheon here next Saturday. It was said that each of the 102 counties in the state would be represented at this luncheon.

Members of the Illinois Progressive state committee met today to complete plans for the state campaign. State Senator Frank Funk of Bloomington, Progressive candidate for governor, and Medill McCormick, state chairman, addressed the meeting. Senator Funk said he was all ready to begin his speaking tour of the state. He will start at Galesburg Wednesday.

SUPERIOR

Making Survey.

Surveys are being made for the most feasible route for the proposed street railway line from South Superior to the steel plant. The officials of the new Steel Plant Railway company are now planning to apply for a permit from the state railroad commission.

Deckhand Drowns.

Steve Markhis, a deckhand on the steamer J. A. McGean, was drowned late Saturday night near the Allouez ore docks. Markhis attempted to slide down the rope to the dock, when he slipped and fell into the water. He swam around for a minute, but was unable to grab any of the life lines thrown to him. Markhis was 26 years old and came here from Buffalo.

Scouts Return.

Twenty Boy Scouts returned yesterday from their annual camp at Lake Nebagamon. The party was under the direction of Rev. D. B. Cheney, who has had charge of the camp for the past two weeks.

Federal Court.

The adjourned term of the federal court will open tomorrow morning in the United States courtrooms. Judge Sanborn of Madison will preside during the term. United States Attorney Gordon will represent the government in the various cases. The street ends case will not come up during this term.

Trade School Plans.

J. P. O'Conner, principal of the evening industrial school, is now arranging for the opening of the fall term. Classes in sewing, millinery work, sheet metal work, engineering, cooking, sign painting and mathematics will be included in the curriculum this year. The school will open Sept. 20.

KNOW WHAT QUICKSAND IS?

Answers, London:—Fortunately those who are staying at seaside resorts in various parts of the United Kingdom need have little fear of the treacherous quicksands. With the exception of the "Goodwins," the South coast of England is practically free from them. There are, however, parts of the English coast where they flourish, and the ordinary observer cannot distinguish quicksand from ordinary sand.

Comparatively, it is light weighing about ninety-four pounds to the cubic foot; other sand weighs 171 pounds. Examined under a miscroscope, it will be found to have rounded corners, like river sand, as distinguished from the sharp corners of the usual seashore variety.

It is invariably used in hour and egg glasses, as it does not scratch the glass.

Quicksands are not caused by water constantly flowing over sand, it is only where there is an upward current that they are found.

Imagine, for instance, a bucket filled with sand; water poured on that sand does not make it "quick." If, however, the bucket had a hole in its bottom, and water was forced through the hole, quicksand would be formed.

Storekeeping consists of buying and selling. And you cannot buy goods you do not know about, nor can you sell unless others know what you have to sell.

LAWYERS FRAME INDUSTRIAL LAW

Committee of Bar Association Makes Report at St. Paul.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The special committee of five members on workmen's compensation, appointed in 1911 by President C. A. Severance of the Minnesota State Bar association to study the subject, made its report today to the state association, meeting in St. Paul. It reported a code for workmen's compensation substantially as reported by the Minnesota employes' compensation commission to the legislature of 1911.

The members of the committee of the bar association are H. V. Mercer, Minneapolis; W. D. Mitchell, St. Paul; J. L. Washburn, Duluth; Charles Loring, Crookston, and Henry Morgan, Albert Lea.

The general theory on which the law is based is that of positive compensation on the basis of a wage scale, with a speedy, certain and inexpensive recompense to the workman or his dependents for personal injury received in his employment.

Would Prevent Accidents.

The real end is the prevention of accidents wherever possible, and to compensate those injured on such a scheme as to induce prevention and to allow compensation on a fair and economic basis where there cannot be prevention.

According to new code, the compensation for injuries causing death in cases where there are persons wholly dependent on the injured workman is based on 50 per cent of the first $2,000 of the wages for a period of five years. In cases where there are no dependents, the medical, hospital and funeral expenses only are to be paid by the employer. The limit paid for death is $3,000.

Compensations, where there are dependents, will be paid to husband or wife, as the case may be, guardian of children, father, mother, sister or brother, the preference following the persons as named above.

LEPER COLONY AT UNIVERSITY

Proposal for Its Establishment on the Campus Is Made.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Establishment of a colony of lepers on the campus at the University of Minnesota, is proposed for educational purposes. According to Dr. H. M. Bracken, secretary of the state board of health, there would be less danger with such a colony than with a colony of consumptives. The board of regents of the university is to be told all the conditions which prompted the proposal.

THE FIVE NOSES OF AN ANT.

Nature Studies: In their antennae, or feelers, ants have five noses, each of which has its own duties to perform.

One nose tells the ant whether it is in its own nest or that of an enemy; another nose discriminates between odors of ants of the same species, but of different colonies; a third nasal organ serve the purpose of discerning the scent laid down by the ant's own feet so that it may be able to retrace the way quite easily; a fourth nose smells the larvae and pupae and the fifth nose detects the presence of an enemy.

If an ant be deprived of a certain nose it will live peaceably with enemies, but if it retain its fifth nose it will fight the alien to the death. There is a difference in the functions of nose one and nose five, although they appear to be somewhat alike.

This sense of smell does not come till the ants are 3 days old. If, therefore, ants only 12 hours old are placed among others belonging to different colonies they will grow up quite amicably and not understand that they are a mixed lot, because they will have grown up with ideas of scent in accordance with their surroundings. The sense of smell to them is as important as the sense of sight to human beings.

Yes, you can buy it cheaper at one place than at another—if you couldn't there would be no need of more than one store.

BARROWS

The mining town on the Cuyuna range, is now going ahead with leaps and bounds. You can still secure a choice business lot on Main street, if you act quickly. These lots are now selling at from $400 to $600, and owing to the great demand will double in price in a few months.

Sale of School and Other State Lands

STATE OF MINNESOTA, STATE AUDItor's office, St. Paul, August, 5, 1912.

Notice is hereby given, That on September 18, 1912, at 10 o'clock A. M., in the office of the County Auditor, at Duluth, St. Louis County, in the State of Minnesota, I will offer for sale certain unsold state lands, and also those state lands which have reverted to the state by reason of the non-payment of interest.

Terms: Fifteen per cent of the purchase price and interest on the unpaid balance from date of sale to June 1, 1913, must be paid at the time of sale. The balance of purchase money is payable in whole or in part on or before forty years from date of sale. The rate of interest on the unpaid balance is four per cent per annum, payable in advance on June 1st of each year, provided the principal remains unpaid for ten years; but if the principal is paid within ten years from the date of sale, the rate of interest will be computed at five per cent per annum.

Appraised value of timber, if any, must also be paid at time of sale.

Lands on which the interest is delinquent may be redeemed at any time up to the hour of sale, or before resale to an actual purchaser.

All mineral rights are reserved by the laws of the state.

Not more than 320 acres can be sold or contracted to be sold to any one purchaser. Agents acting for purchasers must furnish affidavits of authority. Appraisers' reports, showing quality and kind of soil are on file in this office.

Lists of lands to be offered may be obtained of the State Auditor or the the State Commissioner of Immigration at St. Paul, and of the County Auditor at above address.

SAMUEL G. IVERSON,
State Auditor.

PROMISE OF CLEAR SKIES

Wheat Goes Down on the Expectation of More Sunny Weather.

Flaxseed Market Dull—Buyers and Sellers Are Waiting.

Duluth Board of Trade, Aug. 19.—Wheat, although inclined to be bullish on the markets of North America during the early part of the session, by reason of wet weather through the Northwest, went lower today long before the session closed, on the promise of clearer weather and more sunshine. Duluth Sptember wheat closed ¾c lower. Duluth cash wheat closed 10c over September. Durum, oats, rye and barley closed unchanged. Duluth September and November flaxseed closed unchanged. Duluth September flaxseed closed unchanged and October 1c higher.

During the early part of the session on the wheat markets of North America today there was a general upward movement by reason of the reports of rainy weather through the Northwest. There was a forecast, however, of generally clearing weather, with a large area of high barometer readings west of the rainy belt. This had the effect of bearing the markets later in the session. Chicago was inclined, however, to be bearish from the first. Any promise of bright weather, with the grain crops about made, and the wheat crop assured, always works a quick bearish turn on all the markets of the continent. The report of an increase of 162,000 bu in the American visible supply of wheat since a week ago helped to pull down the prices.

Duluth September wheat, which closed Saturday at 94⅛c bid, opened today at the same figure bid, and at noon was selling at 93¾c. Chicago quotations at noon today showed a very noticeable decline and Minneapolis and Winnipeg were slightly off.

Liverpool wheat today closed unchanged. Earlier in the session there was rather a bullish tone with somewhat higher prices by reason of the strong American cables of Saturday and continued rainy weather in the United Kingdom. Before the close, however, there was quite a spell of profit-taking, induced by reports of larger world shipments than had been expected.

Flaxseed Market Dull.

The flaxseed market today continued to be comparatively lifeless. There were no arrivals of flaxseed from the country for inspection and offers amounted to very little. There were some offers, however, of early-cut Montana flaxseed for September delivery. Minneapolis crushers made a fairly good demand for all the old seed that was arriving on that market. Conditions, however, were not such as to change the prices of the futures and at noon today Duluth September and October were both unchanged. Buenos Ayres October last Saturday closed ½c lower at $1.71. London Calcutta August and September today closed ⅞c up at $2.13½.

Flaxseed.

Flaxseed on the Duluth market during the week ending last Saturday crept slowly upward. The main reason for this upward movement, which was very slight, was the cloudy, cool weather in the Northwest. The success of this year's crop of flaxseed in this part of the country this year has become almost altogether a weather proposition. Flaxseed needs several days more of warm, sunshiny weather to mature properly. The weather reports that have been coming from most Northwestern points during the last few days have not been such as to induce those who hold flaxseed to hurry it to the market. On the contrary holders of last year's flaxseed have been very conservative. Nor have the offers of futures been at all numerous of late. There has been some buying demand. It has not been large, but it has been sufficient, with the very few offers that have appeared, to force the market a little higher.

Under existing conditions the receipts have naturally fallen off heavily as the tables below show. Still they keep ahead of the receipts of last year at this time.

Duluth September flaxseed closed last Saturday just a cent higher than it closed a week before. Winnipeg October has hardly changed at all. Buenos Ayres October has declined 1¾c. The London market is the only important one that has made any notable change. There flaxseed has gone up 8¾c. Altogether there seems to be nothing in these changes to give promise that conditions will so adjust themselves as to make it profitable very soon to import flax into the United States from Argentina, India or even Canada. A few days of bright, warm weather over the American Northwest might go very far towards realizing the expectations of those who look forward to see the United States an exporter instead of an importer of flaxseed during the coming crop year.

W. S. Gosling, agent of H. B. Lawrence & Co., grain dealers of Buenos Ayres, who was a visitor on the Duluth Board of Trade today, said he did not look to see the United States buy any part at all of the next Argentine crop of flaxseed. "We begin to cut our flaxseed about the end of November," said he. "The prospects are fine for a good crop, but I do not think the flaxseed users of the United States will take much interest in it. You seem to have all the flaxseed you want. It appears that Canada will be quite a competitor against Argentina for the European flaxseed markets during the coming crop year. Some flaxseed has been coming to the United States from time to time all through this year, and some is still on its way, but it is merely in the way of fulfilling old contracts that were made about two months ago, when the general situation and outlook were altogether different. I think practically all of the next Argentine flaxseed crop will go to Europe. I believe the fact that the United States has raised so much this year will soon have a very bearish effect on the flaxseed markets in all parts of the world. The United States will have enough flaxseed of their own, and most of the Canadian crop will go to Europe."

L. L. Winters, manager of the Minneapolis branch of the stock and grain brokerage firm of Hulburd, Warren & Chandler of Chicago, who was visiting on the Duluth board of trade today, remarked that a period of settled, clear bright weather over the Northwest would probably send the wheat prices at Minneapolis and Duluth low enough to make shipments to Chicago from the American Head of the Lakes pay. "To make such shipments a profitable move," said Mr. Winters, "we must see the Chicago price at least 3½c below Minneapolis and Duluth. At present Minneapolis is keeping all the wheat that comes into the city. The millers are taking it all. We are getting about 200 cars of new wheat a day, about half of it being winter wheat, mostly from Iowa and Nebraska, and the other half spring wheat, largely from Southern Minnesota and South Dakota. Hedging on the wheat of the Northwest is now being done on the markets of Minneapolis and Chicago, but a few days of bright weather would quickly send these markets so low that the hedging would be transferred to Chicago, on account of the higher prices there and grain would quickly move there for the same reason."

New York Grain.

New York, Aug. 19.—Close: Wheat—September, $1.01¼@1.01⅜; December, $1.00⅜@1.00½.

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Wheat Futures Oper Strong, But Decline With Cash Grain.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 19.—Weakness in cash wheat was reflected in the pit, and wheat futures declined sharply after opening strength. Rains in Northwest unfavorable and forecast is for unsettled weather. September closed 1c lower than Saturday, December ⅝@¾c lower and May ⅞c lower. Local elevator stocks decreased 90,000 bu for five days.

Carlot wheat receipts follow: Minneapolis today, 481; week ago, 273; year ago, 333. Duluth today, 4; week ago, 1; year ago, 13. Winnipeg today, 56; week ago, 84; year ago, 75.

Cash wheat much easier. No. 1 northern blue stem sold for 8@12c above September and No. 1 northern velvet chaff for 1@2c above. Higher premium prevailed early, but later, when mills had bought enough, it was hard to get the lower figures.

Millstuff shipments, 2,106 tons. Demand fair to good and mills well sold ahead.

Flax — Receipts, 7 cars; year ago, 9; shipments, 1. Demand good for light flax offerings. Spot No. 1 seed sold at 6c above Duluth September close $1.88.

Barley — Receipts, 123 cars; year ago, 61; shipments, 30. Market for barley a trifle firmer. Prices closed on range 1c to 2c higher than yesterday. Demand fairly good for heavy receipts. Close, 38@67c.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Sunday Rain Is Factor in Giving Strength to Wheat.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Much moisture over Sunday and continued unsettled weather in the Northwest was a factor in strengthening wheat today. Opening figures were ⅛c lower to ¼c higher, and the firmness held through the early trading. Cables were firm. Country offerings were not large. December started at 93⅛@98¼c, unchanged to ⅛c lower touched 93⅜c and rested at 93¼c.

The market fell off later on increased offerings and weakness of corn being factors. The close was steady at nearly the low level. September finished ⅝@⅞c lower at 92¾@½c, the low point after the change, 93½c.

High temperatures in the northern and western sections of the corn belt with liberal crop offerings induced selling and corn started unchanged to ⅜c lower.

The volume of trade was not large and fluctuations were within narrow limits. December opened unchanged to ¼c off at 54@53¾c and for a time kept within the opening figures.

Buying demand continued slow and speculative selling helped bear down prices. The close was steady and near to the bottom. December closed ⅝c lower at 53⅜c, the bottom price.

Good comission buying gave oats an upturn in the initial trading, the start being from unchanged to ¼c higher. The list weakened later with corn and some selling pressure. December started unchanged to ¼c higher at 32⅞@33⅛c and quieted at 32⅝c.

Little demand was observed for provisions and trading was moderate in volume. The list started from 10c off to 2½c higher. October products were: Pork, $18.15@18.17½, 7½@10c down; lard, $11.07½, 7½c off, and ribs, $10.95, 5c lower.

Cash grain: Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.04@1.06; No. 3 red, 94c@$1.02. No. 2 hard, 95@96c; No. 3 hard, 92@94½c; No. 1 northern, 98c@$1.05; No. 2 northern, 97c@$1.03; No. 3 northern, 94c@$1.00; No. 2 spring, 95@98c; No. 3 spring, 93@97c; No. 4 spring, 88@95c; velvet chaff, 88@96c; durum, 90@95c.

TAKE ONE GUESS.

Youngstown Telegram: After addressing a woman's cooking club, a famous lecturer was besieged by the members, who questioned him about his own household and about his kitchen in particular.

"Are you satisfied with your cook?" someone asked him.

"Yes, indeed," was the reply.

"Is she economical?"

"Very."

"Can she bake pies and bread?"

"The best in the land."

"Is she neat about her work?"

"As tidy as a pin and as attractive in appearance as one would care to see."

"How about her disposition?"

"I think it is about perfect."

"Huh!" exclaimed one of the matrons, who had been having trouble with her cook. "It's a wonder you don't marry the girl."

"That's exactly what I did. My wife does her own cooking."

LEFT HANDED.

STOCKS ARE IRREGULAR

Selling of Reading and Lehigh Valley Causes Early Weakness.

Last Hour's Trading Enlivened By Heavy Buying of Steel.

New York, Aug. 19.—Further unexplained selling of Reading and Lehigh Valley, which later spread moderately to other stocks, turned the course of today's market from more irregularity to heaviness. Few of the leaders yielded more than fractionally but the dullness that caused declines in the coalers indicated a degree of uncertainty. Canadian Pacific, which was heavy in the final days of last week, rose 3 points, with 2 points advance in Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie. Specialties and some obscure issues, including Canadian, Bethlehem Steel, Texas Company and Distillers were up a point and American Tobacco was off almost 3. Bonds were irregular.

The only feature of interest at the opening of today's stock market was the strength of the Canadian group. Canadian Pacific was up one and Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie one and one-half. Otherwise changes were mainly downward, with indications of further liquidation in the better known issues.

Prices shaded after the opening but soon became firmer under lead of Canadian Pacific, which rose three points, with smaller gains in a few specialties, while American Tobacco fell over two points.

Trading was duller in the latter part of the session, with prices showing little change from the midday recovery, except Reading, which again eased off.

The market closed irregular. Extensive buying of Steel enlivened the last hour, with improvement in other stocks. Large offerings soon checked the rise, however, with general recessions from the top.

London Stocks.

London, Aug. 19.—American securities opened steady and about unchanged here today. Trading was light but the undertone was firm and prices advanced under the lead of Canadian Pacific. The closing was quiet.

Cotton Market.

New York, Aug. 19.—The cotton market opened barely steady at a decline of 1@5 points and sold 13@14 points net lower during the first few minutes under over-Sunday selling orders, reports of favorable crop progress during the past week and continued apprehensions of increased Southern hedge selling.

October cotton broke into new low ground for the movement, selling at 11.05 but at this level there was active covering, while there were also reports of buying by domestic spinners and the market rallied several points from the lowest.

Spot closed quiet; middling uplands, 11.80; middling gulf, 12.05. Sales 602 bales. Futures closed steady. Closing bids: August, 11.04; September, 11.06; October, 11.25; November, 11.29; December, 11.34; January, 11.35; February, 11.34; March, 11.39; May, 11.47.

TO STEM STRAWBERRIES.

New York Times: Save all the little tongs that come in boxes of bon-bons for hulling strawberries. They perform this task rapidly and neatly without staining the finger tips. If a berry has a defect it can be sliced away with one of the arms.

COPPERS MAKE MIXED CLOSES

Movements on the copper stock market today were slow and indecisive, some being for higher and some for lower quotations, but none changing a great deal from the closing figures of Saturday. North Butte, Chief Consolidated and Amalgamated all closed slightly higher and Butte & Superior and Hancock a little lower. The general stock market of New York closed fairly strong but the copper metal news from London was rather bearish, spot closing 6s 3d lower and futures 5s lower.

* * *

Paine, Webber & Co. received the following closing copper letter from Boston: "Prices fluctuated within narrow limits today, and the volume of business was small. Politics seems to be the cause of the dullness, and no one knows when it will end. Speculation in the coppers amounts to nothing at present, and holders are patiently waiting."

* * *

Gay & Sturgis received from Hall at Boston the following closing copper letter: "There is little that can be said on today's market. At no time was it active, and the final quotations were only fractional changes from Saturday's close. The market is a waiting one and the large financiers are perfectly contented that it should remain so."

* * *

The report of the shipments from the mine of Chief Consolidated during the week ending Aug. 9 gave quite a surprise to those who had been carefully observing that concern's shipments, the total for the week amounting to 30 cars. This is an extraordinarily large output.

NAMES HOWARD FOR HANFORD JOB

Taft Nominates Bellingham Man for Place on Federal Bench.

Washington, Aug. 19.—President Taft today sent to the senate the nomination of Clinton W. Howard of Bellingham to be United States judge for the Eastern district of Washington, succeeding Cornelius H. Hanford, who resigned while his conduct on the bench was under investigation by a congressional committee.

THE PASSING OF THE BOSS.

Samuel McCord Crothers, in the Atlantic Monthly: When we talk about what is more or less vaguely called the "progressive" movement, which at the present time appears in American politics, this is what is really meant.

It is the appearance in force of a generation that has turned its attention to a new set of problems, and is attempting to solve them by scientific methods. It is believed that there is a science of government as well as an art of politics. The new generation has a respect, born of experience, for the expert. It seeks the man who knows rather than the clever manager. It demands of public servants not simply that they be honest, but that they be efficient.

Its attitude to the political boss is decidedly less respectful than that to which you were accustomed. You looked upon him as a remarkably astute character, and you attributed to him an uncanny ability to forecast the future. These young men have discovered that his ability is only a vulgar error. Remove the conditions created by public indifference and ignorance, and he vanishes. In restoring power to the people, they find that a hundred useful things can be done which the political wiseacres declared to be impossible.

The best way not to succeed is not to advertise.

Notice of Dividend.

Calumet & Arizona Mining company has declared a dividend of one dollar ($1.00) a share, payable September 23rd, 1912, to stockholders of record at the close of the books of the corporation September 6th, 1912.

Transfer books close at the close of business September 6th, 1912, and reopen at the opening of business September 16th, 1912.

CONGRESSMAN AUSTIN ACCUSED ON FLOOR OF BEING TRUST'S TOOL

Rainey of Illinois Addresses Him as Interested in Water Power.

Stirring Sequel to Former Interchange of Personalities.

Austin in Turn Denounces Rainey as "Defamer From Illinois."

Washington, Aug. 20.—Representative Rainey of Illinois, a Democrat, and Representative Austin of Tennessee, a Republican, fought a wordy battle in the house today and exchanged bitter personalities. Each had fifty-four minutes allotted under a special rule.

So bitter was the feeling between the two men that the sergeant-at-arms occupied a seat in a strategic position.

Mr. Rainey charged that Mr. Austin was personally interested in water power legislation; that he was one of the incorporators of a big company in the vicinity of Knoxville, Tenn., to be benefited by pending legislation, and that a "well trodden trail" led from the congressional office of Mr. Austin to the offices of the so-called water power trust.

The incident was a sequel of a recent exchange of personalities between the two members when Mr. Rainey objected to certain bills introduced by Mr. Austin and Mr. Austin retaliated by calling Mr. Rainey a dreamer and a demagogue.

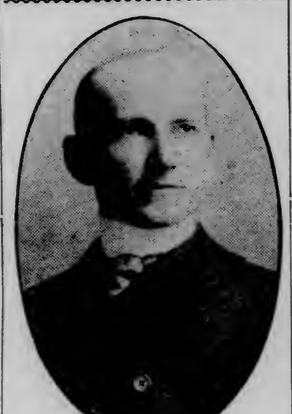

If Austin Resigned.

In the recent colloquy, Mr. Rainey asserted Mr. Austin had declared that if he, as a representative, had favored the water power trust he would consider he had disgraced himself, and if Mr. Rainey could produce proof of his guilt he would resign.

"I do not ask the gentleman to re-

ACCUSED OF AIDING TRUST IN CONGRESS

R. W. AUSTIN,
Representative at Washington From the Second District of Tennessee.

GEN. BOOTH IS MUCH WEAKER

London, Aug. 20.—Gen. William Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, whose health has been failing ever since he was operated on, May last for the removal of a cataract in his left eye, is rapidly becoming weaker.

According to the bulletin issued this morning by the physicians in attendance, "Gen. Booth's condition gives rise to increased anxiety."

Many of the general's relatives and high officials of the Salvation Army are in attendance or in close touch with the sick chamber.

6,000 MEN WAGE "WAR" IN KANSAS

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—"War" exists in Kansas today. Two armies of 3,000 men each, the Blue at Merriam and the Red at Lawrence, thirty miles away, were dealt 1,000,000 rounds of ammunition and two days rations yesterday, and at sundown last night every approach to the camps was placed under guard.

The Blue army broke camp early today and moved northwest toward Fort Leavenworth, which is "threatened" by an attack from the Red army now at Lawrence. An army now in Fort Lavenworth, which the Blues are to reinforce, is erecting fortifications against the coming attack of the Reds. It is near the fort that the main battle of the "war" will take place.

Cash to pay farmers along the line of march for damage done to their crops was received by both armies today. All fences which are torn down will be replaced.

CURRY QUITS THE REGULAR RANKS

Washington, Aug. 20.—One of the first callers on Chairman Hilles of the Republican national committee today was Representative George Curry of New Mexico. He came to hand in his resignation as a member of the Republican congressional committee to Representative Moore of Pennsylvania, who was calling on Mr. Hilles. Mr. Curry recently declared for Col. Roosevelt. As the conference proceeded many of the well-known regular Republicans and some of the Progressives came in.

Representatives Wood and Haugen of Iowa, both classed as Progressives, were early callers. Representatives Bartholdt, Kahn, Rodenberg, Hill, Olmsted, Butler and others chatted with the national chairman, talking over conditions in their districts.

Mr. Hilles said he had come to Washington on account of many requests from congressmen for conferences.

WISCONSIN TO HAVE ISLANDS

Madison, Wis., Aug. 20. — State Forester E. M. Griffith has received with a large measure of satisfaction the news from Washington that the senate has finally passed the Morse bill ceding to the state of Wisconsin for forestry purposes all the unallotted islands in the lakes at the headwaters of the Wisconsin river, principally in Vilas and Oneida counties. By a count made by the forestry board these islands number 216. It is provided that in the event they are used for other purposes than those specified in the bill, they shall revert to the United States.

DENIES HE CONFESSED

Alderman Glinnan of Detroit Appears for Examination.

First of Boodling Cases Starts With Hot Technical Battle.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 20.—Thomas E. Glinnan, councilmanic leader, who with seventeen other aldermen is charged with having accepted or having agreed to accept bribe money in return for closing a city street for the benefit of the Wabash railway, appeared today before Justice Christopher Stein for examination in police court. The cases of several of the other accused aldermen are expected to be heard immediately after that of Glinnan, while others of the eighteen cases were today put over until Aug. 30.

Will Fight Every Step.

It was plainly evident that Alderman Glinnan will fight every step of the proceedings against him, despite the repeated allegations of the prosecutor and others to the effect that Glinnan had made a confession soon after his arrest. The accused alderman and his attorney denied, in interviews today, that any confession had been made.

The first witness to take the stand was Council Reading Clerk Joseph W. Edda, who was called to produce evidence that Glinnan was an alderman at the time of the alleged "grafting."

Work Goes Slowly.

As soon as the testimony began the attorneys for each side started heated arguments on technical features of the questioning and the examination proceeded slowly.

The prosecution claims the aldermen accepted various sums in marked bills from an operative of a detective agency posing, it is asserted, as an official of the Wabash road.

PENROSE SAYS HE WILL EXPLAIN IT

Washington, Aug. 20.—Senator Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania announced today that he would make a privileged statement in the senate tomorrow regarding certain correspondence with John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company.

The alleged correspondence has been made the basis of general charges that Senator Penrose accepted financial aid from Archbold about the time of the presidential campaign of 1904, and the further statement has been made that the money received was used in connection with that campaign, when Theodore Roosevelt was elected.

While Senator Penrose declined to say what his statement tomorrow would contain, it was intimated that financial operations in the national Republican campaign of that year would be thoroughly discussed.

The senate sub-committee investigating campaign contributions, of which Senator Clapp is chairman, has invited John D. Archbold to testify before it. Mr. Archbold is in Europe, but his secretary has informed the committee that upon his return, some time in September, he probably will be willing to testify.

KILLS HIMSELF FOR GIRL WHO DIED FOR ANOTHER.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 20. — The body of William Toenyes, a drill master in the United States army, stationed at Jefferson barracks, was found this morning in St. Peter's cemetery, lying on the grave of Pearl Leroy, who killed herself July 2 because of unrequited love for Frank B. Kehoe, a chauffeur. The body was discovered through a letter written by Toenyes to a St. Louis detective, in which he announced that he was going to end his life. Grief over the suicide of Miss Leroy, whom he said he had loved, was given as the reason for his determination to commit suicide.

GOOD CROPS IN PROSPECT

Sixteen Minnesota Counties Have Reported to Maxfield.

Thrashing Is Well Under Way in Some Sections.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Reports coming to H. J. Maxfield, commissioner of immigration, following to his call for a statement as to the yield of crops, indicate that Minnesota's harvest is splendid.

Sixteen counties thus far have reported, as follows:

Wilkin county—Harvesting 90 per cent done; thrashing just begun. Thrashings show following yields: Barley 25 to 65, wheat 15 to 30, rye 10 to 30. Reporter, Geo. W. Burrows.

Swift county—Harvesting 80 per cent done; thrashing 5 per cent finished. Yields: Wheat, 30, barley 45, oats 45. Reporter, F. C. Thornton.

Norman county—Estimated yields: Wheat 16, oats 30, barley 30, flax 8 bushels. Reporter, Sam Olson.

Cook county—Haying about completed. No thrashing has been done yet. Reporter, Charles J. Johnson.

Benton county—Small grain about all cut and half stacked. Rye thrashed as high as 40 bushels. One farmer claims to have thrashed 60 bushels of rye per acre. Reporter, D. E. Hanscom.

Cass county—Harvesting three-quarters done; no thrashing begun yet. Reporter, B. L. Perry.

Freeborn county—Barley is running 35 bushels per acre, oats 40, all of good quality. Reporter, H. P. Hanson.

Roseau county—I estimate the average yield of small grain as follows: Wheat 20, oats 45, flax 14, barley 32,

ORDER OF MOOSE HOLDS ELECTION

Four Cities Are Rivals for the Next Convention.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—Election of officers occurred today in the convention of the Loyal Order of Moose. These officers, having no opposition, were elected by acclamation:

Past supreme dictator, J. G. Armstrong, Pittsburg Pa.; supreme dictator, Ralph W. E. Dongas, Camden, N. J.; supreme vice dictator, Walter E. Dorn, San Francisco; supreme prelate, David B. Shaw, Boston; secretary, Rodney H. Brandon; supreme sergeant-at-arms, James J. Keogh, Baltimore; supreme trustee, Steve Sedweck, Kansas City.

Two candidates appeared for treasurer. They are David C. Stout of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Daniel W. Crawford of Pittsburg, Pa. Herbert Parker of Los Angeles and James G. Jones of Wilkesbarre, Pa., were nominated for inner guard. The convention will vote upon their names today.

The fight for the location of the next convention seems to have honors evenly divided between Winnipeg and Toronto, Canada, and New Orleans and Cincinnati.

SAM SCHEPPS TELLS ROSENTHAL MURDER TALE TO GRAND JURY

ONCE MORE TO HANDLE REPUBLICAN FINANCES

GEORGE R. SHELDON.

Washington, Aug. 20.—George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican national committee in 1908, has been selected as treasurer of the committee for the present campaign. Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican national committee, today made the announcement.

HILLES TALKS TO CONGRESSMEN

Washington, Aug. 20.—After a short conference with President Taft early today, Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican national committee, went to the capitol to begin an all day series of conferences with Republican members of congress.

Mr. Hilles received the members in the minority conference room of the house office building. There was no set meeting, but members came and went, having short talks with the national chairman. All Republicans in congress were invited, although it was said some of the Progressive Republicans of the house had announced their intention of not going.

Mr. Hilles had breakfast with Mr. Taft at the White House before going to the capitol.

CHILE WILL FORTIFY TWO OF HER PORTS.

Valparaiso, Chile, Aug. 20.—The Chilean government has decided to convert the seaports of Valparaiso and Talcahuano into impregnable fortresses, and has accepted the tender of an American gun factory to supply the necessary cannon.

Seven Indictments Are Expected as Result of the Evidence.

Lawyer Says Witness Make Clean Breast Everything.

New York, Aug. 20.—A blanket indictment charging murder in the first degree, was returned by the grand jury late this afternoon against Police Lieut. Charles Becker and four gangsters in connection with the murder of Herman Rosenthal. The gangsters indicted are: "Lefty Louie," "Whitey" Lewis, "Dago Frank" Cirofici and "Gyp, the Blood."

New York, Aug. 20.—Sam Schepps was again the central figure in the Rosenthal murder case today, when he appeared before the grand jury prepared to repeat the story he told District Attorney Whitman in which he corroborated in many essential details the confession of "Bald Jack" Rose implicating Police Lieut. Becker in the killing of the East side gambler.

It was this story of Schepps which Mr. Whitman desired the grand jury to hear before returning further indictments in the Rosenthal case.

The district attorney was clearly confident that before nightfall indictments would be returned against seven persons. Those to be indicted are said to be:

Rosenzweig (Lefty Louis); Horowitz (Gyp, the Blood); Cirofici (Dago Frank); and Muller (Whitey Lewis), the four alleged murderers; Jack Sullivan and William Shapiro, and Lieut. Becker on a superseding indictment.

Talked With Becker.

Schepps has told the district attorney that he talked with Lieut. Becker a few hours before Rosenthal was shot, and with others went out to get an affidavit from Dora Gilbert, the divorced wife of Rosenthal. Schepps then told of the ride up town the night

VOTE TO STRIKE; MAY ARBITRATE

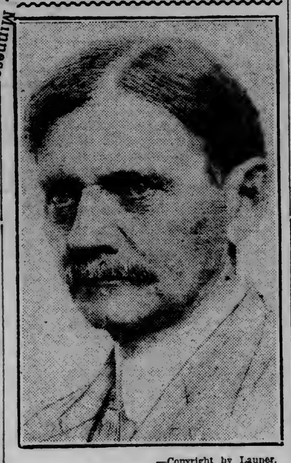

Chicago, Aug. 20. — Union leaders and officials of the surface railway lines of Chicago held another conference with Mayor Harrison today in an effort to avert a street car strike. Prospects of an amicable settlement seemed bright.

Employes of the elevated lines voted overwhelmingly in favor of striking, according to reports of the balloting early today. The men are prepared to walk out without calling another meeting of the union to determine action, provided the officials of the elevated roads deny the demands of the men.

Men employed by the two systems of surface lines overwhelmingly voted in favor of a strike some weeks ago.

REPUBLICAN PARTY ACCUSED OF MAKING PEOPLE SOCIALISTIC

ACCEPTS NOMINATION FOR VICE PRESIDENT

—Copyright by Launer.

THOMAS R. MARSHALL,
Governor of Indiana.

Governor Marshall Denounces the Policy of Fostering Special Privilege.

Americans Will Not Long Endure Industrial Slavery Being Produced.

No Part of Government to Boost One Man and Boot Another.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 20.—Governor Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana, in his formal speech of acceptance of the Democratic vice presidential nomination, delivered to the notification committee here today, attacked the Republican party on the grounds that it had fostered special privilege to the point of making men everywhere socialistic in theory if not in conduct.

In this connection, he said:

"It is idle for a thoughtful man in America, whether millionaire or pauper, to longer play the ostrich. Safety does not consist in hiding one's head in the sands of either sentiment or hope.

> "It is foolish for the vastly rich to keep on insisting that more and more shall be added to their riches through a specious system of special legislation ostensibly enacted to run the government, in reality enacted to loot the people.

"It is worse than ignorance for them to smile at the large body of intelligent Americans who regard themselves as fortunate if the debit and credit accounts of life balance at the end of the year; and to assume that the mighty many, who are becoming con-

WILSON BACK AT TRENTON

Meets Party Leaders and State Officials of New Jersey.

Telegraphs Message of Congratulation to Governor Marshall.

New York, Aug. 20.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, after an overnight visit to this city to confer with the Democratic leaders at headquarters here, journeyed today to Trenton for his weekly visit to the capital. This afternoon Governor Wilson will address a rally of the Democratic League of New Jersey at the state fair grounds.

Joseph R. Wilson, a young brother of the Democratic nominee, has become a member of the publicity bureau of the Democratic national committee. Mr. Wilson is editor of the Nashville, Tenn., Banner.

Telegraphed to Marshall.

Trenton, N. J., Aug. 20.—Governor Woodrow Wilson arrived here today from New York and planned to spend the day in meeting state officials at the capitol. Governor Wilson sent the following telegram to Governor Marshall, who was officially notified today of his choice as the Democratic nominee for vice president:

"My heartiest and sincerest congratulations. It is a matter of the deepest regret with me that I could not be present to extend my congratulations in person and to express again the warm satisfaction it gives me to be associated with you on the Democratic ticket. I should have liked to have a chance to join you in showing how confident I feel in the presence of the party's great opportunity to serve the people without fear, favor or timidity. Pray accept my warm personal regards.

WOODROW WILSON."

NEW FEED RATES ARE SUSPENDED

Washington, Aug. 20.—A uniform advance by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway of 1 cent per 100 pounds in the freight rates on corn, oats, feed and other commodities from points of origin in Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota to destinations in North Dakota and other states, was suspended today by the interstate commerce commission until Dec. 21.

KIDNAPER KILLS GIRL'S DEFENDER

Belle Plaine, Kan., Aug. 20.—In a fight which followed an attempt by Sam Wood, 55 years old, a farmer, to kidnap Ethel Manahan, daughter of Matt Manahan, at the latter's farm near here early today, James Thompson, 16 years old, was killed; Manahan was fatally wounded and Gaylord Manahan, 16 years old, a son of Matt, was hurt.

Wood was overtaken by the posse this afternoon near his own farm two miles north of Belle Plain. He ran from a cornfield into the road and fired three bullets into his breast. He was brought to Belle Plain fatally wounded.

KITCHI GAMMI CLUB AMENDS ITS ARTICLES.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 30.—(Special to The Herald.)—An amendment to the articles of incorporation of the Kitchi Gammi Club of Duluth was filed with the secretary of state today, increasing the admittance fee of resident members to $75 and of non-resident members to $50, and providing that annual dues shall be of the same amounts.

E. C. Congdon is president of the club and Frederick W. Paine, secretary.

SUSPICIOUS AT BANKER'S DEATH

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 20.— The funeral of E. C. Trumbo, a wealthy banker of Savannah, Mo., has been indefinitely postponed while Coroner Ralph R. Kelley of Andrew county begins an investigation of his death. The viscera of Trumbo was brought to St. Joseph for analysis.

Trumbo, who was 75 years old, died following a long illness of stomach trouble. About six months ago he married Miss Agnes Maguire, a young St. Joseph florist.

MAY HOLD UP NEW LONG HAUL RATES

Washington, Aug. 20.—Transcontinental railways are facing suspension by the interstate commerce commission of advances in freight rates proposed recently. The new rates, to become effective Sept. 2, would increase the transportation charges of many commodities from the Atlantic seaboard to Pacific coast terminals. They would make, also, some reductions to inter-Rocky mountain destinations.

Vigorous protests are being received from Eastern manufacturers and shippers and from Pacific coast jobbers and merchants.

It appears likely that many of the proposed increases will be suspended pending a thorough inquiry.

Generally, the increases would be made by the cancellation of existing commodity rates, thereby forcing the commodities to take the high class rates.

GIVES STEVENS CLEAR FIELD FOR CONGRESS.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Anticipating a vigorous primary campaign, Congressman F. C. Stevens returned today from Washington to find a clear field for the Republican nomination, as Ambrose Tighe formally withdrew from the Fourth district race this morning.

It has been known for several days that Mr. Tighe has considered withdrawing. Lack of time to carry on a campaign because of press of other duties is the chief reason assigned by Mr. Tighe in his formal statement.

MAY NOT USE VOTING MACHINE IN PRIMARY.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 20. — It will be optional with cities to use voting machines in the coming primary election. If they are used, the municipalities must make the return to the secretary of state an blanks of their own compilation, the secretary of state's office having decided not to furnish such blanks. Blanks for returns of ballot voting will be sent as usual. By using the voting machines the full benefit of the second choice system of voting is not secured.

MORE PAY FOR EMPLOYES AT CUSTOMS PORTS.

Washington, Aug. 20. — Secretary MacVeagh today reorganized the customs service at Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee and eleven other ports. Employes at Chicago will receive a net aggregate increase in pay of $26,000. The net increases at Detroit and Milwaukee amount to $2,000 for each port. This makes a total of 180 ports reorganized by Secretary MacVeagh. About twenty ports remain to be reorganized.

Cornican is Safe.

Liverpool, Aug. 20.—The Allan line steamer Corsican, which struck an iceberg east of Belle Isle, near Newfoundland, Aug. 12, was spoken yesterday in latitude 54.17 north; longitude 15.33 west. All on board were reported well.

It is what is put into the Chickering piano

that makes it different from the many pianos before the public today.

In the building of the Chickering Piano is put the best that money can buy, the best materials, the best workmanship; and that which money cannot buy, the experience gained by eighty-five years of piano building.

This is why the Chickering Piano possesses a personality that immediately charms those who hear it. Its tone is the living, throbbing, enduring tone of genius.

And you pay no more for the Chickering Piano than for many of the makes which claim to possess the same rare qualities, but which, when weighed in the balance of comparison are found wanting.

ROOMS ARE VERY SCARCE

Hay Fever Patients and Summer Tourists Looking for Accommodations.

School Teachers May Have Trouble Finding Living Quarters.

The information bureau of the Commercial club reports a scarcity of furnished rooms.

The hay fever patients are descending on Duluth in swarms and droves and regiments and they are clamoring for rooms. For some reason unknown to the layman, the hay fever patient is partial to a room in a private family. The hotel doesn't appeal to him very strongly. It may be that hotel rates are too high, or that there is something in the peace and quiet of a private home that soothes the suffering hay-feverite, but whatever it is the preference for rooms in private homes exists.

The Commercial club's list of rooms is sadly depleted. Duluth is entertaining hay fever patients and other summer transients by the hundred, and any thrifty householder with a room to spare shouldn't have much trouble renting it. The hay fever patients will stay on until well into September, and the demand for rooms increases as the season advances.

The scarcity of rooms has another side. The school teachers will be returning within two weeks. School teachers need rooms. They must have them in order to remain in Duluth and foster the growth of the young idea. The exigencies of the high cost of living prevent many school teachers from retaining their rooms during the summer, and a new hunt usually begins when they arrive for the next school year.

If conditions do not change before Sept. 1, some fair members of Duluth's teaching corps will have trouble getting located on their return to Duluth.

TWO-DOLLAR HAT STORE

Bee Hat Company Will Open a Branch in Duluth.

The Bee Hat company, an Eastern firm, will open an exclusive two-dollar hat store in this city at 210 West Superior street.

They are known as the largest retail hatters in this country. They make their own hats in Danbury, Connecticut, and operate retail stores in nearly every principal city. No doubt they will be successful in this city, their store being located in the busiest business block in the city and remodelled with a new and up-to-date front. Very fine fixtures will make this an attractive men's hat shop. They will be open for business, Saturday, Aug. 24.

Mr. Slatnik, general manager of the firm, is now in Duluth and has announced that valuable souvenirs will be given away opening day.

$35 to $65 Suits at $12.50.

J. M. Gidding & Co. have put on a special event for tomorrow, when fifty women's suits worth $35 to $65 will be sold for $12.50; also twenty-five junior suits worth $22.50 and $23.50 will be sold at $8.75. We believe this is the most liberal suit offer that has been made by any local house this season.

Will Examine Chauffeurs.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The state committee board will conduct an examination for chauffeurs in the senate chamber at the state capitol tomorrow. About seventy-five are expected to be present. The examination will start at 10 o'clock.

WILL WEAR WHITE CAPS

Uniforms for Duluth Boosters at State and County Fairs.

Band Will Be Taken With the Party on Each Trip.

The Commercial club is laying in a big supply of white caps, badges, pennants and canes for the use of the Duluth people who will visit the St. Louis county fair Aug. 31 and the state fair Sept. 4.

Duluth boosters on parade make an impressive showing. The trade excursion parties, with only about 100 people to each, have made favorable impressions where they have visited. When about 500 people get into line behind the Third Rgiment band, the effect will be even more satisfactory.

The committee in charge of the trip to the Hibbing fair believes no trouble will be experienced in getting 500 people to make the trip. Duluth has found that it pays to advertise within its own immediate territory. Hibbing people have put forth valiant efforts to keep the county fair going, and this year they have put the fair on a firm footing. Duluth is interested in the county fair as a county institution and the visit to Hibbing on Duluth day is intended to give visible expression to Duluth's interest.

The crowd to visit the state fair is expected to be fully as large as that which will go to Hibbing. Duluth has been signally honored this year by having a day set aside at the state fair. Duluth is thus placed in line with St. Paul and Minneapolis. The members of the publicity and agricultural committees of the Commercial club are anxious that Duluth show appreciation of the honor, and at the same time do some effective boosting for Duluth by sending a big crowd to the fair.

The Third Regiment band will accompany the party and Duluth will thus show visitors from other parts of the state that Duluth has one of the best musical organizations in the Northwest. The Duluth boosters with their white caps and Duluth pennants should be conspicuous on the fair grounds, regardless of the size of the crowd, and members of the Commercial club committee say it is distinctly up to Duluth people to support the advertising plan by taking part in the excursion.

Court Orders Condemnation of Property for City Reservoir.

Judge Homer B. Dibell's order appointing commissioners to appraise land to be condemned for a reservoir for the city was filed this morning with the clerk of court. The commissioners named by the court, which also sanctions the condemnation of the lands specified as necessary, are W. M. Prindle, Thomas Olafson and C. P. Craig.

The land to be condemned belongs to Mary C. Ewing and comprises 7.35 acres. It is located in the neighborhood of Second avenue east and Fourteenth street. On it a large reservoir will be constructed by the city for additional force in the water supply and for emergency use.

* * *

In another order, Judge Dibell denied the motion of the Duluth Street Railway company, defendant in a recent suit brought by John W. Day for personal damages, to have judgment given it despite the verdict of the jury. The suit was the result of an accident some time ago in which Mr. Day's auto was struck by a car at Second street and Second avenue west. The auto was ruined and Mr. Day was badly injured, his skull being fractured at the forehead, part of it having to be removed, his eyesight being permanently impaired and other permanent injuries caused. The jury awarded him a verdict of damages in the amount of $5,835. A new trial was also denied in the order.

* * *

An order in the suit of Gustav Beckman vs. the Northern Mortgage & Investment company, involving title to lots 24 and 36 on Fourth street, Fond du Lac, gives title to the plaintiff.

* * *

The demurrer of the city to the complaint in the suit brought against it by Sarah Altman is overruled in an order by Judge Dibell.

* * *

An order by Judge Dancer denies the demurrer to the complaint in the damage suit brought by Anthony J. Donahue against the Lee Hotel company and the Spalding Hotel company, the former company demurring.

VISITING HIS FORMER PUPILS

Prof. A. W. Burr, in charge of the department of pedagogy of Beloit college, Beloit, Wis., was in the city today calling on some of his former pupils, among whom are several active members of the Duluth board of trade. Prof. Burr has been connected with the college for twenty-six years.

Prof. Burr spent a portion of the summer on Madeline Island, where he testified in the investigation that was carried on by the United States department of the interior to ascertain whether those Chippewa Indians who migrated from Wisconsin to Minnesota about 1854, really moved before or after the signing of the treaty of that year between tht federal government and some Indian tribes of Wisconsin, ceding certain Indian lands in Wisconsin to the general government under certain conditions. The rights of these Chippewa Indians to some valuable government grants in Minnesota depended on their having moved to Minnesota prior to the signing of that treaty. It was decided that they had done so.

BUSINESS MEN BID FAREWELL TO Y. M. C. A. PHYSICAL DIRECTOR

A farewell banquet in honor of A. F. Olson, who during the last five years has been assistant physical director of the Duluth Y. M. C. A., was given last evening in the association banquet room by the Noon Hour Business Men's Volley Ball class. Mr. Olson was recently chosen physical director by the Y. M. C. A. of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and he will leave Duluth on Sept. 1 to assume the duties of his new position.

W. A. McGonagle, who acted as toastmaster, told of Mr. Olson's pioneer work in the institution in the interest of noon-hour gymnastics. Compliments were showered on Mr. Olson by the toastmaster and many other speakers, including W. J. Olcott, H. W. Coffin, J. H. Hearding, F. E. House, Alfred Jaques, H. W. Cheadle, Frank Crassweller, E. E. Hunter, A. J. Frey, former physical director of the Duluth Y. M. C. A.; and B. C. Wade, who recently assumed the office of general secretary. Mr. Olson replied briefly, thanking the class for the honor done him and requesting that equally loyal support be given his successor.

RAILROADS

PEOPLE ARE TRAVELING

General Passenger Agent of B. & O. Says Business Is Good.

N. B. Austin, general passenger agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, arrived in Duluth today on his vacation. He has a Panama hat and a cold. He came in search of sunshine and cooling lake breezes. He has found the breezes cooling or freezing, but looked in vain at an early hour this morning for the sunshine.

At the Spalding the railroad man expressed optimistic views despite the fog and the general lack of cheerfulness upon the part of the weather.

"We are looking for one fine year," he said. "The railroad business all along the line is receiving a boost. The travel from the West to the East has been very heavy this season, and judging from the general condition of business the travel next winter is going to be very good. When people have money they generally spend part of it. That is not a strikingly original remark, but an economic axiom. We railroad men find that when people are spending money we stand a fair chance to get some of it.

"In Chicago the business men and the railroad men, too, believe that business conditions are very sound and are getting better right along. The big wheat crop and the general expansion of trade in all lines are factors that should create industrial prosperity. The trend of business is upward at the present time, and after the big crop is thrashed there should be even a greater stir in the industrial world.

"The tonnage of the railroads is very good at the present time and should increase. Business men are confident and conditions in general look better than they have for some time."

WILL START GRADING.

Great Northern Contractors Preparing for Work.

Alexander, N. D., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Grading contractors for the work on the new Great Northern line through this section will put crews to work next week. Guthrie & Co. and Winston Bros. have been here looking the ground over.

It is likely that the outfits will be transported here on barges on the Missouri river.

The surveying crews have practically completed the work. The line goes past this point to Arnegard and thence to Schafer. Final settlements are being made as rapidly as possible for the right-of-way necessary.

The bridge over the Yellowstone river will be constructed during the winter months.

NORTHWESTERN CASHIER HELD FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

Deadwood, S. D., Aug. 20.—Charged with embezzlement of company funds, Thomas Phelan, the young cashier of the North-Western railroad, is under arrest. He waived hearing and was bound over. Officials of the road say he has admitted a $750 shortage.

Building N. P. Extension.

Stanton, N. D., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Construction work on the extension of the Northern Pacific from Stanton into McKenzie county and which line will join the Lewistown, Mont., Great Northern line., has been commenced. Several contractors who have portions of the grade under sub-contracts have reached this point and have sent their crews west.

GEN. BOOTH WILL BE MOURNED HERE

The imminence of the death of Gen. William Booth, founder and supreme commander of the Salvation Army, is attracting general attention, but nowhere is deeper regret felt than among the members of the army in Duluth.

That the death of their beloved commander could not be otherwise than expected soon because of his advanced years does not lighten the sorrow they feel, for, as Ensign W. E. Graham, who has charge here, said today, it seems as though it were but yesterday that he was in this country visiting his officers, consulting with them and giving advice. Said the ensign:

"We have just been celebrating the forty-seventh anniversary of the establishment of the Salvation Army by Gen. Booth, and the love and esteem of everyone in the service all over the world were shown for the founder of our organization by the special services we held, the prayers we offered everywhere for God to spare him to us for yet a while, and the messages that were sent him from all parts of the globe. Of course, we have realized that the general could not live much longer, for he is a very old man, but we felt encouraged a while ago when it was announced that he expected to take another trip to America. However, I suppose that we must face the loss when it comes with faith in the wisdom of the Father, and that the great work which the general started will not perish from the earth. His death will be the subject of mourning the world over, and nowhere more sincerely than in Duluth."

Balloon Is Sighted.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 20.—The balloon California, which went up last night from Venice carrying five passengers, was sighted this morning at Santa Paula, between Ventura and Santa Barbara.

Governor Goes to New Ulm.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Governor Eberhart, accompanied by practically his entire military staff, will leave St. Paul at 8:20 o'clock tonight by way of the Minneapolis & St. Louis railway for New Ulm, where the governor will deliver an address tomorrow. On Thursday he wil speak at Fort Ridgley. Members of the governor's staff will take their wives with them and there will be twenty-three in the party. The trip will be made in a private car.

WANT TO BE CURED?

If you are sick and would like to get out of sickness, disease and weakness, it will pay you to get something better than treatments. You want the best, the best is none too good for you, if it concerns health. We will not merely treat you, but WE WILL CURE YOU, that is more than treating, that is to make you STRONG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS. We can cure you so that you will receive new vitality. We get at the root of your troubles, we don't treat symptoms, but we clean out the whole system. We have the means to do it. We paid $10,000 for our machinery—there is not one doctor's office in Duluth where patients can be cured as quickly as they can in our office. Our X-Ray machines penetrate every fiber and nerve of the whole body, and fill a man with new life and vigor.

SKIN DISEASES, ECZEMA.
We will give you treatment that will in a few days cure all rash, sores and every sign and symptom. Our treatment gets the poison out of the system instead of driving it in like other treatments. We cure blood poison and skin diseases so they cannot come back.

VARICOSE ENLARGEMENT, KNOTTED OR WORMY-LIKE VEINS.
Our one treatment cure is what you should have and what you will have to have to be cured right. Only a few visits are required. We do no cutting and you suffer no pain or trouble. All signs disappear in a few days.
We have spent over $10,000 for our office equipment, library, X-Ray machines. We have acquired the most high-powered microscope which every disease can be diagnosed with.

NERVOUS TROUBLE, LOST VIGOR.
Our combined treatment for these troubles so common among men—men who have become weak and worn out, who have caused it by negligence, dissipation and excesses, is remarkably good. No one believes how quickly it benefits until they have taken it. It overcomes weakness, nervousness, pain in the back, lack of energy, ambition and strength—so effective treatment we have found no effective in treating such weaknesses of men.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES
Are scientifically cured by us. Our methods immediately benefit you, and the majority of cases we cure come from other specialists who failed.

BLOOD POISON.
We have cured hundreds of men who failed to get a cure at Hot Spings.
Our treatment for blood poison is a Specific composition that completely reorganizes the blood corpuscles, by which means every particle of poisonous matter is eliminated. Under our system of treatment it is unlikely for poison to remain in the blood, and purity and health are the results in every case. Our Specific treatment removes manifestations of disease soon after beginning treatment, and by increasing the albuminous portion of the blood after removing the poison, a normal state of health is resumed.

POTTED PLANTS IN OFFICE BUILDING

Plant decorations are beginning to be quite the thing in Duluth.

Since the potted plants were placed on top of the electric light standards on First street, others are getting the fever to decorate.

This morning men were engaged in decorating the halls of the Torrey building with potted plants. They improve the halls, too, making them much more cheerful in appearance.

It is said that plans are under way to decorate with flowers and plants in other downtown office buildings.

The plants on the electric light standards are a new idea. Strangers in the city have frequently remarked upon them with much favor.

OBITUARY

William J. Fort, aged 68, prominent as a third party worker in Marshalltown, Ia., twice candidate for mayor on the Prohibition ticket, and a veteran of the Civil war, is dead at his home following a two years' illness of paresis. A post mortem showed that the probabilities were an injury received in a runaway accident in 1869 were responsible for the brain condition. Maj. G. L. Fort, city assessor of Minneapolis; John F. Fort, a lawyer of Bismarck, N. D.; James M. Fort, an attorney of Minonk, Ill., and Charles T. Fort of Springfield, Mo., are brothers of the deceased.

Rev. Dr. Thomas Hart, founder of Manitoba college, is dead at Winnipeg, aged 77. A year ago he resigned as professor of classics, French and Hebrew at the university on account of a paralytic stroke. He was born in Paisley, Scotland, and brought up at Perth, Ont. He went to Winnipeg in 1872.

More Pay for Postmasters.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 20.—Better salaries were advocated today by delegates to the annual convention of the Wisconsin State League of Postmasters of third and fourth-class offices. Thomas Hill of Spring Green and other postmasters united in this recommendation during a discussion on proposed legislation. Other speakers deplored the fact that under civil service rules the best employes were not always selected.

GLEANED ALONG THE POLICE RUN

"I wonder how many young girls—'chickens,' they call 'em now—joy-ride to their downfall," remarked the old policeman as he pulled away at his blackened corn cob at headquarters.

"The thought has often occurred to me and from my own observation I would venture the guess that the automobile is responsible for the straying of more girls from the straight and narrow path than any other single factor.

"The machines seem to have a fascination for some of them which they cannot overcome. The exhilliration of spinning silently and swiftly along the highway in soft cushions with easy springs underneath, acts upon them as a sort of intoxication. In them they can glide far away from the city and over the country roads to roadhouses or other isolated places. Probably many of their parents don't retlize the conditions and the possibilities of autos. At any rate it strikes me that it is altogether too easy for their children to get away nights for automobile rides. Where they would absolutely refuse to let them out the door under any other circumstances, they do not raise the slightest objection when they say they are going for an automobile ride. Quite a few of them appear to be glad to have their daughters spend their evenings in a machine. So long as she is going for an automobile ride it's all right.

"Yesterday afternoon some of the aldermen met with a number of chauffeurs and business men relative to allowing automobiles to stand on Superior street. One hotel man who was present said that his only objection to them was due to complaints which had been made by the guests of the hotel. He stated that on many occasions men and women have objected to young girls standing on the sidewalks talking with drivers of cars. He asserted that their actions were not such as could meet with approval. I've noticed the same thing myself and it is not common. All chauffeurs and maybe the big majority are not that way, but there's enough of them in that class to make it uncomfortable for the others. It is about the same as the speeders. Most drivers are careful, but enough of them are reckless and careless to prejudice a considerable part of the public against all automobiles and all drivers.

"Talking about that word 'chicken' it might surprise you if you went to the dictionary to get the definition of the word. Come on over here and I'll show you."

Suiting action to the work the old policeman brought over Webster's big book and turned to "chicken." There it was in black and white. Of course the barnyard fowl was mentioned, but in addition to that the word means "A young person, a child; especially a young woman, a maiden." To illustrate it, is a quotation from Swift: "Stella is no chicken."

As he banged the dictionary shut Humane Officer Bob McKercher happened along.

"Well Bob, anything doing tonight?" was the greeting—quite common around the station.

"Oh, I just had to send a couple of young girls home," he said. "They were hanging up around First street waiting for some of them chauffeurs. Some of them are pretty bad actors."

Dick Jackson couldn't make Judge Cutting believe yesterday that the odor of his breath was due to tobacco.

Dick had been out on bail and after he had pleaded guilty to having been drunk he went up to the bench to ask for a suspended sentence.

"You aren't sober yet; your breath is bad," said the court.

"Judge, 'pon my honor, all you smell is tobacco," declared Dick.

"If that's tobacco some smokeries are paying pretty high license hereabouts," commented the court.

Dick was taken back to the station and kept there for a while, and after he was in shape the police turned him out on a suspended sentence.

William Reeves, the colored porter of the union station barber shop, appears to be a victim of circumstances.

Yesterday afternoon Gust Johnson and Andrew Anderson, settlers from the vicinity of Adolph, left a three-gallon keg of whisky on the floor of the waiting room. Of course it was very careless of them to leave so many headaches lying about loose, but they did just the same.

The barbers saw it there and according to Reeves they told him to go get it, saying that it belonged to some one they knew and that they wanted to keep it for him.

Reeves says that he did as he was told and brought the undiluted pain cure into the shop. When Johnson and Anderson missed the elixir of life they called a policeman. The bluecoat located the cask in the tonsorial parlor and arrested Reeves on a charge of having stolen it.

When arrigned in police court this morning Reeves entered a plea of not guilty and his hearing was set for this afternoon.

A New York dispatch gives quite an elaborate obituary of the dog of the late John W. Gates.

According to the story the dog is some canine. Not only did he have his portrait painted while alive, but he was embalmed after he was dead. Then he laid in state in a coffin lined with white silk and was viewed by hundreds. About the dog's neck was a gold collar and to the gold collar were attached little gold bells, made especially for him in Paris.

From New York the much-mourned doggie, in his coffin lined with white silk and with the gold collar with the gold bells, will be taken to Port Arthur, Texas. There the dog will be laid away in his coffin and with his gold collar and gold bells, made especially for him in Paris, with fitting honors.

The pathos comes in the thought of the scores who are laid away in paupers' fields in Duluth every year in plain pine boxes with scrawled chalk marks across them to establish their identity so that their graves may be marked should any one ever chance to wish to give them a proper burial.

"While you are down in church praying I'll be in the bull pen at the police station."

That was one of the statements which his parents said Harris A. Spearin made to them Saturday night when they sent for the police to arrest him on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

The trouble started when his mother objected to his taking a team from the barn. She said that he was not in fit condition to handle them and when she said she would summon the police Spearin tore the telephone from the wall and smashed it on the floor. His father called headquarters at a neighbor's residence.

Spearin denied in police court yesterday afternoon that he was drunk or disorderly. The court found him guilty. The judge made no disposition of the case but took it under advisement. He intimated that he would be willing to suspend sentence if the young man would take the pledge.

Jacob Longsio was convicted of disorderly conduct after a trial in police court yesterday afternoon. Jake was reported to have been standing before the door of a St. Croix alley resort keeping people from entering the place. When Patrolman Brouillette placed him under arrest after starting him home twice Vaino Tuokenmaa and August Kultala interfered. A citizen came to the aid of the policeman and the trio were arrested. The court continued the cases until Sept. 3 for disposition. Jake said that he had a wife and three children and had just finished serving three months in the county jail. He thought that he could be good if given the opportunity.

John Charles said that he knows more about the booze, sold here than he did yesterday. He explained in police court this morning that he has been used to imbibing the brand sold in Canada and that it agreed with him all right. Over here he said he indulged as usual but did not appreciate the difference in strength. The consequence was that he woke up finding himself behind the bars. The court suspended sentence.

The small grocery store and meat shop of Charles Erickson at 2107½ East South street was gutted by fire about 2 o'clock this morning. The loss is estimated at $1,000, covered by about $800 insurance. The cause of the blaze is unknown. It was not discovered until the interior was a solid mass of flames.

John Palm proved to be a walking bank when he was searched at headquarters this morning. He was upholstered with greenbacks. When the jailer took stock of Palm's possessions he found that he had over $319 in cash, a check for $64 and two bank books, one showing a balance of $606 and the other a credit of $31. Palm was picked up on the Bowery by Patrolman Callihan. He was acting strangely and it was feared that he might harm himself, as he did not seem to be in a rational state of mind.

JENSWOLD WOULD RECALL JUDGES

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—In a severe arraignment of the federal judiciary in particular and the appointive judiciary in general, John Jenswold, Jr., of Duluth recommended the judicial recall before 200 members of the Minnesota bar and several jurists at the second day's session of the annual meeting of the State Bar association here today.

In equally emphatic terms, Lorin Cray of Mankato spoke against the recall of either judges or decisions. Mr. Cray declared that to put the power of recall in the hands of the people would be practically the introduction of anarchy. He maintained that the masses would act hastily and unwisely.

Mr. Jenswold discussed the position of the appointive judiciary first. He said in part:

"The recall of judges is one of the last steps to be taken to secure an honest, intelligent and impartial judiciary—a judiciary that shall be purely alive, and shall keep step with the progress of civilization. It is the last and best improvement on the best judiciary in the world. It is the means whereby the partnership between the judges and the big interests may be dissolved."

MONTANA CLOUDBURST.

Glendive, Mont., Aug. 20.—Following Sunday's severe storm, Glendive late Monday was visited by a cloudburst that did many thousands of dollars of damage in this city. The water came in floods down the hillsides, converting the streets into rivers, adding to the damage done earlier. Three hundred feet of track of the Northern Pacific railway washed out two miles west of here, causing added delay to traffic over that line.

The tieup of trains on the Northern Pacific by Sunday's storm has been complete on this part of the Yellowstone division of that line. The two miles of track washed out was repaired, but there are several washouts between here and Wibaux, Mont. It is expected that traffic will not resume normal conditions before Wednesday.

You'll know this man soon, you'll see him any time, everywhere, when he arrives in town. He'll drop in most any day now and if you want to be the very first to see him, just watch for the opening of the Bee Two Dollar Hat Store and arrange to be on hand. The Bee is the world's most fashionable hatter and its shop will be at No. 210 West Superior street. It's there that the best dressers will gather for the unusually smart hats at $2.00. Valuable souvenirs will be given away opening day.

BIG PAVING JOB PLANNED

Petition Being Circulated for Improvement of West Superior Street.

The paving of the final connecting link between West Duluth and the center of the city is being projected in a petition now being circulated among the residents and property owners in this end of the city.

The petition calls for the paving of Superior street from the end of the present pavement at Twenty-fourth avenue west to Thirty-fourth avenue west, Jenswold street between Oneota and Superior streets, and Oneota street to West Duluth. The signatures of a large number of property owners are needed and it is not believed that the petition will be ready for at least two months.

The new plan will mean that traffic bound for West Duluth will be provided for and that drivers will not be compelled to make circuitous routes in getting to the western end of the city. At present there is not a single good roadway for wagon traffic, and the drivers are compelled to use the car tracks on Superior street or go around by Third street. The cost of the entire paving is estimated at $180,000.

One-third of the property abutting the street is owned by the Soo road and a large portion is owned by the D., M. & N. and the Northern Pacific. Two blocks of the property is owned by the Duluth Street Railway company. If these large holders do not object to the paving, those behind the movement believe that the smaller owners will readily sign the petition.

ABANDON PLANS FOR CLUB HOME

Adams Athletic Association Unable to Raise Building Fund.

Plans for the proposed Adams Athletic association club building and gymnasium have been abandoned by the members of the organization.

Failure on the part of business men and residents of the West end to subscribe to the building fund and lack of time on the part of the members to push the campaign are the reasons for the action. Nothing has been done all summer and it was decided to drop the project altogether at a recent conference of the executive committee.

Last spring plans for the proposed club building and gymnasium were drawn by Abraham Holstead, architect, and a campaign started for an additional membership of 100 and for subscriptions to the building fund. Very little support was given at the time and with no work done during the past four months, the members of the association have deemed it best to drop the building plans. The campaign for membership is still on and the officers expect to have 250 members by Christmas. There are nearly 200 active members in the organization at the present time.

The proposed building was to have been two stories, with a large swimming tank in the basement. The estimated cost was $20,000. The site for the structure was at Twenty-first avenue west and First street. The following board of trustees was appointed last spring to handle the campaign: Chauncey Colton, Carl Lonegren, A. E. Swanstrom, Axel Erickson, John Geistman, Capt. D. E. Stevens and S. M. Kielley.

PAVING CONTRACTS.

One Petition Favorably Passed on; Second Ready for Council.

Of the two paving petitions started July 1, one, requesting the paving of Twenty-seventh avenue west, has been passed upon favorably by the council and the other, providing for the grading and paving of Fifth street, from Thirty-eighth to Forty-third avenues west, will probably be introduced next Monday evening.

The council passed favorably on the former petition after receiving a report from the board of public works. The board has been directed to proceed with the paving at once. The cost of the paving is estimated at $16,210.21 and the specifications provide for a 24-foot roadway with a crushed rock macadam surface and concrete curbing and gutters.

The necessary number of signatures has already been secured to the petition for the paving of Fifth street and the council is expected to pass on the matter at the meeting Monday. The engineer's office has estimated the cost of the paving at $15,550.80 which provides for a gravel surface and concrete gutter and curbing. The Oneota and Hazelwood Improvement clubs conducted and assisted in circulating the petition. Alderman Gibson will introduce the petition to the council.

MARKET DAY IN THE WEST END.

Tomorrow is market day and farmers living in the vicinity of Duluth will gather at the new public market, Twenty-first avenue west and Superior street, where the sale of produce and fruits will continue from 7 o'clock until noon.

In all probability every stand will be taken tomorrow, as the farmers now know of the new stalls and are planning to take advantage of them. Six farmers sold their produce at the stands last week. The market days are Wednesday and Saturday.

REHEARSING FOR A MINSTREL SHOW.

Preparations for the minstrel show to be given by the Adams Glee club the last week in September are now being made by those in charge of the affair. The regular weekly rehearsal was held in the clubrooms last evening.

The minstrel show promises to be one of the best of its kind ever presented in this city. The twenty-seven members of the glee club are all in the show and have been rehearsing the various songs, ensemble numbers, jokes and vaudeville stunts for several weeks. An experienced instructor is in charge of the rehearsals.

Among the West end men who will appear as the end men in the show are: James Wade, Charles Kramer, William Cahill and Al Bauermann. The young men have all appeared in previous amateur productions and are now arranging a number of novelties to be introduced.

Mission Society.

The Mission Society of St. John's Lutheran church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, will meet tomorrow afternoon at the Lincoln park pavilion. A short business session will be held, after which a basket lunch will be served.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church was entertained last evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Howard, 2620 West Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Moen and family of Washburn, Wis., are the guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Simonson, 2102 West Superior street.

Rev. C. G. Olson of the Bethany Swedish Lutheran church, Twenty-third avenue west and Third street, is spending several days at Hibbing. He will return Thursday.

vinced that that social system that we call democracy is but a glittering generality, will long endure the industrial slavery being produced.

"Whether voting the ticket or not, men everywhere looking upon the awful injustice of this economic system are becoming socialistic in theory if not in conduct.

"And shall any fair-minded man say that if it redounds to the interests of the people of this country that a hundred men should control its business to the good of everyone, that there is anything fallacious in the theory that government, instead of transferring business to a favored few for the benefit of all, should itself discharge that business for the benefit of all?

"I do not hesitate to say that if it be impossible to restore this republic to its ancient ideals, which I do not believe, and I must make the ultimate choice between the paternalism of the few and the socialism of the many, count me and my house with the throbbing heart of humanity.

"The discontent in Republican ranks is Democratic discontent. How much of it has reached the point where, wearied with the bad workings of a good system, it is willing to topple that system over and try something new, I cannot prophesy.

"But I am quite sure that whatever badges men may wear in America this year, whatever ballots they may vote and whatever battle cries they may utter there are but three grades of citizens.

"The first grade is made up of the favored few, their hangers-on and their beneficiaries, who think the eagle is upon the dollar, not as an emblem of liberty but as an emblem of power, and who look upon government as an annex to their business affairs; these are they who in the past years of Republican misrule have turned the temple of constitutional freedom into a money-changers' mart and have made of the co-ordinate branches of the government obdenlant lackays of the jingling ulnea.

"The second grade consists of those whose outlook upon life has been enlarged by the civilization under which we live, who have been taught by the school and the college, by the press and the magazine; who appreciate the good things of life, whose horizon has been enlarged and whose capacity for joy and sorrow has been increased.

"Conditions have become unbearable to them. They have reached the point where, in the struggle for that which they believe to be right, they are willing to destroy the ideals of the republic. How many of these there are I do not know, but I do know that special privilege in the republic is breeding them day by day like rabbits in a warren.

"The third grade of citizens it pleases me to call old-fashioned Democrats. These are they who believe that the equality of mankind does not consist in an equality of brain and brawn, but in an equality whereby every man, native and foreign born, has an inalienable right to exercise all of his ability in getting on in the world, just so he realizes that in getting on he owes it to himself, to his family and to the republic to see to it that he gets on honestly, and that he does not prevent any other man from obtaining the reward of his honesty and enterprise.

"These old-fashioned Democrats believe in making money, but they believe every dollar made should be so clean that an infant may cut its teeth upon it. And they hold that it is no part of government to boost one man and boot another.

"The contending forces of political life are commonly denominated reactionary and revolutionary. They are the paternal forces of the Republican party which would draw our government out of its orbit and consume it in the fiery heat of the lust and greed of the favored few, and the socialistic forces which would draw it away from its constitutional conception of three co-ordinate branches and from its guaranty to each individual of an opportunity to assert his natural and acquired talents in an honest endeavor to succeed. The historic Democratic party, of which I am an humble member, stands between these contending forces and believes that some harvests for humanity may be garnered by proceeding in the old orbit which the fathers founded, by meeting in the old way each generation of men as they shall rise, by never forgetting that this government was founded, not for business nor success nor for incompetency and for failure, but to guarantee in lawful ways the opportunity of every man for liberty and for the pursuit of happiness. Old principles applied in new ways will convince these two extremes of thought that our historic party can make exist what now is but a name—democracy under a representative form of government.

"If I doubted that the return of the historic Democratic party to power would fail to right the wrongs of industrial life, to wipe out the injustices of legislation and to preserve the opportunity of every man for happiness, then my voice, now weak, would be silent.

"If I did not believe that in-so-far as human agency can, this party of ours will promote the brotherhood of mankind, I would here and now repudiate it. But believing as I do that the republic had its origin in an inspiration which did not come from the mere brain of a mere man but sprang from the heart of humanity, believing that this age more than any which has preceded it calls for conscience and brotherhood in governmental affairs; hoping that every sacrifice of mind and body and personal good which has been made, is a guaranty of the perpetuity of this, the latest and greatest experiment upon the part of a Democracy to work out its ideals in government; and trusting that the God of Washington, the founder, and of Lincoln, the preserver, will still be the God of the republic, and will not permit his chosen people to forever wander in the wilderness of legislative sin, I accept upon its platform, the nomination of the Democratic party for vice president of the United States. And may my right hand forget her cunning and my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth if in all my gettings I fail to get that greatest gift—wisdom and understanding to know the heart-break and the need of our common humanity."

Notified by Parker.

Judge Alton B. Parker of New York delivered the address notifying Governor Thomas R. Marshall of his nomination for vice president. The judge said in part:

"The faithful sons of Democracy, proud of the history of their party covering a half century of federal administration, welcomed both the opportunity to substitute practice for preaching and performance for promise.

"Indeed, they seized it by the nomination of Wilson and Marshall—seized it with so firm a grip that it cannot be loosened. Aye, either by the hosts of Republicanism or by the deluded people who have not as yet discovered that their leader's battles are waged for himself, not for the Lord; that his contrary pretense is with the hope that he will thus secure the aid of the Lord's hosts for a third term, contrary to the unwritten law of the country and in disregard of his pledge to the people to obey that law.

"The method by which the Democratic convention seized the opportunity is so simple and straight forward that it at once captures confidence and arouses enthusiasm. It was accomplished by simply nominating for president and vice president men whose records as governors respectively of New Jersey and Indiana show that they know how to create and apply needed governmental remedies, and whose lives give abundant surety that the pledges of their party and their own promises to the people will be faithfully kept."

Partnership With Privilege.

Mr. Parker took his text from Governor Wilson's notification speech wherein is considered the partnership between government and privilege. His method of treatment was to declare:

1. The fact of the parnership and the resulting public injury.
2. That the Republican party was solely responsible for the inauguration of the partnership relations, instancing the tariff and combinations to restrain trade and prevent competition as the illustrations.
3. That neither the Republican nor the Progressive party could be trusted to break up the partnership.
4. That the Democratic party could be relied upon to accomplish that result.

The consideration which the Republican party received for the public betrayal was not, he said, confined to large campaign contributions. In addition, he said, they obtained the political support of the captains of industry which covered a large sphere of influence embracing, in part, their ability to persuade vast armies of employes that their interests were involved in the success of the party which favored their industries.

Judge Parker's contention that relief could come only from the election of Marshall and Wilson and a Democratic congress followed an offering of reasons which, he said, negatived all possibility of relief from either the Republican or the Progressive party.

Of the latter he said in part:

Roosevelt and the Trusts.

"Its creator and nominee for president occupied that office for about seven and a half years, but during that time he could not be persuaded to say a single word in favor of lifting from the people the burden imposed upon them by extortion of tariff rates. True, he admits in his confession of faith that certain interests have been improperly favored by over-protection; declares himself in favor of 'disrupting the old crooked log-rolling method of tariff making' and advocates a 'tariff commission' wholly different from the present unsatisfactory tariff board. It is impossible to rise from a careful reading of his tariff discussion without being convinced that he is a stand-patter now as he was when president.

"Certainly only a very stupid man would expect him to curb the trusts. Seven-eighths of all the combinations in existence when he went out of office were created while he was president. Their creators had confidence in him surely and it is but just to say that it was not misplaced. Did he not stay the hand of his pliant attorney when he was about to bring suit to dissolve the Harvester trust? Was not a 20-minute conversation long enough to persuade him that the Steel corporation should be allowed to absorb its leading competitor?"

FIRST PRAIRIE FIRE OF 1912 REPORTED.

Mott, N. D., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—A large tract of hay land twelve miles south of here was laid waste by the first prairie fire of the season Sunday. Only the quick and persistent work of the fire fighters saved the thousands of acres of ripened grain surrounding the hay tract and it was a six-hour task to check the flames. The band of fire fighters were the people who had gathered at the Wayt school house for Sunday services, the threatening flames making their appearance just as the services were begun.

PICNICKERS HEAR WILSON

German-Americans Are Addressed By the New Jersey Governor.

Hope of Immigrants and Duty of Nation His Theme.

Hoboken, N. J., Aug. 20.—Governor Woodrow Wilson faced the difficulties of outdoor campaigning here when he addressed the annual picnic of the Platt Deutscher Volkefestverein, a German-American organization from the Metropolitan district. From an improvised balcony the governor spoke, while bands paraded in other parts of the park, with thousands of people massed about the speaker. Frequently there were interruptions of applause and remarks.

"We are asking ourselves this question," said the governor, "as we face the coming elections in November, 'which is the open road to get what we want?'"

A man in the heart of the crowd took advantage of his rhetorical pause and said "Taft."

There was a moment's silence, then another voice nearer the front shouted "Wilson." The crowd took it up and cheered. When the demonstration had subsided, the governor pointed in the direction of the man who had answered "Taft" and continued with a smile:

"Our friend over there is perfectly welcome to use his road, but if he goes that way he will find that he is in a blind alley."

Free Men on Ticket.

The governor dwelt upon the responsibility of the government in making this country attractive to the foreigner so that when he did come he would find it a place of economic opportunity, where a man may choose his own career.

"Now, one of the things that makes me confident of the future," continued the governor, "is the fact that the men who are offering themselves to you on the ticket that I happen to be on are free men. Nobody owns them. So far as I am concerned, I not only have not made a promise to any man, but no man has dared to to ask me to make a promise.

"My cars are free, therefore, to hear the counsels of my fellow citizens.

"If you people standing here want your government, you can have it, and the people of the United States have made up their mind that they want their own government and they are going to have it. All I ask is the privilege of taking part in the possession in the name of the people, for when I see a great company of people like this around me who will stand up merely to hear a speech, I know that something is going to happen in the United States."

Hopes of Immigrants.

The governor spoke of the hopes of immigrants in looking toward America as a place where they could escape "all of the things that seemed to limit them at home."

"I, for example," continued the governor, "am one of those who have a great admiration for your distinguished emperor, and yet at the same time I know why most of you came. The world is throwing off most of the older forms of government and the men of the greatest initiative, the men of the finest spirit of enterprise, in this day, seek fields in which their energies may be realized as they could be realized nowhere else."

Seidel Leaves Minnesota.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 20.—Attacking alike the Republican, Democratic, Progressive and Prohibition parties and praising the Socialist doctrines, Emil Seidel, ex-mayor of Milwaukee, and candidate for vice president of the United States on the Socialist ticket, delivered a number of addresses here Monday. He left last night for Chicago.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

WILL GIVE LIVESTOCK

T. B. Walker to Aid Each Settler on Big Tract of Land.

Mill City Millionaire Will Assist Those Taking Over Land.

Bemidji, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—T. B. Walker, the Minneapolis millionaire lumberman who is to spare enough time from his art collections to assist in colonizing 21,000 acres of land in Hubbard and Clearwater counties, where the timber has been cut for his mills, has conceived the unique idea of equipping each new homeseeker with livestock.

J. J. Opsahl, former member of the Minnesota legislature and who has been prominent in the work of the Northern Minnesota Development association, and who is to have charge of the Walker colonization scheme, says:

Cows or Sheep Furnished.

"As a special inducement to obtain rapid settlement on these lands, it has been decided that on each tract of eighty acres four cows will be furnished or a flock of sheep will be supplied. Mr. Walker is enthusiastic over the possibilities of Northern Minnesota as a dairy region, and is opening the lands for settlement in this way.

"The 21,000 acre tract is being divided into 40 and 80-acre farms and is attracting so much attention that six schools are in operation and a thriving new village is in sight."

MONDAY'S RAIN DID SOME HARM

Red River Valley Farmers Cannot Thrash Before End of Week.

Crookston, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The North Red River valley suffered another bad rain yesterday. From Argyle north to the Canadian boundary it rained steadily all day and put a damper on any hopes of thrashing before Friday or Saturday. Polk county had a light shower in the morning, but if no more rain falls, thrashing may be resumed this afternoon. Harvesting was resumed yesterday afternoon.

Frank Hedley reports a 26-bushel-an-acre rye yield and a 33-bushel barley yield. The yield of oats has averaged about 30 bushels per acre, but few farmers have finished thrashing a full field of oats between showers.

County Commissioner Thorson of Eldred reports the shocks of the early harvest grain sprouting badly, and says serious damage is certain if the weather does not clear up and remain clear.

GAS NEAR AMBROSE, N. D.

Ambrose, N. D., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Gas was struck at the depth of 218 feet on the Frederick H. Dahl farm north of here. Men were digging a well when the vein was tapped. An attempt was made to stop the flow, but the pressure was too great, throwing dirt and stones thirty-five feet above the surface.

Broncho Injures Child.

Berthold, N. D., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—After being knocked down and trampled on by a fractious broncho, the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Van Buskirk, residing southwest of here, escaped with but a badly fractured leg and a few bruises.

EXPECTING LARGE ENDEAVORER MEET

Marquette, Mich., Looking for Big Gathering There This Week.

Marquette, Mich., Aug. 20.—W. D. Howell of Boston, national field secretary of the Christian Endeavor society, who is here making preparations for the state convention to be held here the latter part of this week, predicts a successful gathering for Marquette. He expresses himself as pleased with the spirit manifested here. He left yesterday for the Copper country and will visit Calumet, Houghton, Hancock, Lake Linden and other towns for the purpose of interesting the societies there and getting good-sized delegations to attend the convention.

Mr. Howell addressed the Christian Endeavor societies of the various churches at a meeting in the Presbyterian church at 6:30 o'clock Sunday. He told the young people what was expected of them and what they would have to do in order to meet all the expectations.

FARMERS PROSPER; WOULD BUY BANK

Tillers of Soil Around Fertile Make Owners an Offer.

Crookston, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—As an indication of the prosperity rampant in Polk county, about fifty of the farmers about Fertile decided they wanted to start a bank of their own, and after holding a meeting decided to make an offer for the purchase of the First State Bank of Fertile. If this offer is not accepted they will start a bank of their own, which would make the third bank at Fertile. The farmers have the money for the venture and are determined to get into the interest-collecting game for themselves rather than hold time certificates of deposit.

MEETS OLD FRIEND.

Fargo Police Chief Greets Head of Lakes Man.

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 20.—Chief of Police Con Keefe was pleased Saturday to meet an old friend who railroaded with him twenty-five years ago. Pat Hardy was located at Duluth and was a member of the switchman's grievance committee, while Mr. Keefe held a similar position here, and they often got together. Con had not seen Mr. Hardy for nearly twenty-five years, and he did not recognize him when he called at his house Saturday afternoon while in Fargo for a short time. Mr. Hardy is now owner of a fine strawberry farm near Superior, Wis.

FINDS ELECTRICITY AID TO FARMING.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Electricity, now used on Lilac Hedge farm, near here, for thrashing, is the real solution of the farm power question, according to J. D. Bacon, owner of the farm. Some time ago he installed a big motor at his farm, and the outfit has been used this fall for thrashing. It pulls a thirty-inch cylinder thrashing machine and the work is remarkably satisfactory.

FEW ARE FILING ON FORT BERTHOLD LAND.

Minot, N. D., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—A small percentage of those qualified for filing on lands on the Fort Berthold reservation are taking advantage. Judge Whitten is continuing the calling of the names in numerical order here, and so far a total of 659 out of 3,400 called had stepped up to present their papers for filing on reservation lands.

During the last few days the filings have been more brisk than they were the fore part of last week, when the work of calling the numbers, from 2,500 up, was commenced.

ADAM'S HEALTH NOT GOOD,

Declares Michigan Doctor, Addressing Associated Fraternities.

St. Paul, Aug. 20.—The principal address on Monday, the opening day of the twelfth annual convention of the Associated Fraternities of America, was made by Governor A. O. Eberhart, who discussed adequate rates to be charged for fraternal insurance.

Dr. P. A. Quick of Muskegon, Mich., chief of the medical branch of the association, traced disease back to the time of Adam and Eve, declaring that even the first man's health was none too good, owing, he said, probably to the removal of the rib from which Eve was created.

The legal branch had a business meeting last night, only routine business being conducted.

There are 280 delegates present, representing fifty fraternal organizations from all parts of the United States and Canada.

WALKER SUMMER HOTEL.

Property Purchased as Site for Proposed Hostelry.

Walker, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—An entire block of lake shore frontage on one of the residence streets of the city was purchased Monday by L. H. Chase for the site of a new, modern summer hotel. It is proposed to have the building ready for occupancy by next summer.

Other arrangements for summer tourists are being made by the owners of Kabekona Springs, a popular resort on Leech lake, located three miles from Walker. Summer cottages are being built and a hundred lots platted for the tourists, which will be put on the market at reasonable figures.

DROWNS SELF IN LAKE.

Eau Claire Man Takes Life in Half Moon Lake.

Eau Claire, Wis., Aug. 20.—The body of Richard Dillon of this city was found floating in Half Moon lake Sunday by some fishermen. His hands were folded on his breast. There were no indications of foul play and there seems but little doubt that he had committed suicide. He had been in poor health lately, it is stated.

The deceased was about 58 years old and was well known here. He was a millwright by trade and had worked in a number of mills here. He was a widower and leaves no relatives here. He had been living at a North side hotel.

He was born in Montpelier, Vt., and came West in early life, settling in this section.

STATE PRISON EXHIBIT.

Minnesota Penitentiary to Have State Fair Display.

Stillwater, Minn., Aug. 20.—The state prison will as usual have an exhibit of industries at the state fair. This year it will be better than before. Robert J. Henderson, a superintendent in the twine department, will be in charge again this year.

The big prison power truck left yesterday with a preliminary load for the exhibit. Mr. Henderson will be busy arranging for the display and more materials will be sent over soon.

There will be a spinner to make twine, a display of reapers, mowers and rakes. It is the intention to make the exhibit one interesting to farmers and other people.

MUST FILE DECLINATION

Rather Than Resignation, Says Wisconsin Secretary of State.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 20.—Answering an inquiry of Col. John Hicks of Oshkosh, leader of the Progressive party in Wisconsin as to whom a presidential elector may resign, the attorney general has modified a previous opinion to the effect that such resignation must be filed with the secretary of state.

"Such language was not strictly accurate," says the attorney general's opinion. "What I should have said was that a declination of the nomination should be filed with the secretary of state."

The form of the resignation, he added, should be that given in the official compilation of the election laws.

HUGE IOWA DITCH CONTRACT AWARDED.

Albert Lea, Minn., Aug. 20.—The contract for the big tri-county ditch which will run through Emmet, Dickinson and Clay counties in Iowa, and drain over 20,000 acres of land at a cost of $153,463.85 was let at a joint meeting of the boards of supervisors of the three counties.

The main ditch proper, which will be fifteen miles long, will start in section 25, Richland township, running in a southeasterly direction through Lloyd township, going about one mile east of Terril and following the main inlet to Trumble lake about three miles in Clay county. The main ditch will average over eight feet, running from fourteen feet in places to around six feet at the inlet of Trumble lake. The width will be from eight to twenty-five feet at the lake. A complete network of laterals, comprising over seventy-five miles of tile, will extend from the main ditch both ways to embrace the territory extending into and giving ample drainage for a good share of two townships in Western Emmet county.

COUDERAY, WIS., MAN HURT WHILE MOVING.

Couderay, Wis., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—James Palado of this place had his arm broken and shoulder dislocated here Monday in falling under a load of furniture he was moving from the depot to his house. He was riding on the rear end of the wagon when the load slid to one side throwing him off onto the ground, the furniture following, and piling on top of him.

OWEN, WIS., OFFICER DEAD FROM WOUND.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Aug. 20.—Fred C. Griffin, the Owen night marshal, died here Sunday in a hospital. He was shot by a desperado at Owen, while attempting to arrest a pair early in the morning of July 30.

BEMIDJI VOTING ON ISSUING BONDS.

Bemidji, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Bemidji today is voting at a special election on the question of a bond issue for the purpose of paving the road between Bemidji and Nymore, a mill suburb. Not long ago Nymore, a village of 1,000 inhabitants but without depots, petitioned the state railroad and warehouse commission for a station. The commission denied the request with the understanding that the Nymore road is to be paved.

Dakota Briefs

Belfield, N. D.—On a charge of grand larceny preferred by S. Andor of this place, J. Sivak was arrested for the alleged stealing of seven horses. Sivak furnished bond and the date for the hearing has not been set. The alleged crime was committed about June 25.

Jamestown, N. D.—A $30,000 hospital will be erected here in the near future. The plan was originated by the eight physicians of the city and they have subscribed $9,500 and secured a pledge of $5,000 more as a starter. The plan is to raise the necessary money by subscription.

Fairdale, N. D.—Alexander Campbell is completely paralyzed as a result of an accident which happened when his horses slipped on the side of the grade, throwing the wagon and pinning Mr. Campbell beneath the weight. He managed to extricate himself and then crawled on his hands and knees to the Tom Ryan farm, half a mile away.

Minot, N. D.—That North Dakota corn compares favorably with any corn between the Twin Cities and Indianapolis, the famous corn belt, is the statement of A. W. Peck, superintendent of the North Dakota Better Farming association, who has returned from a trip to his old home in Indiana.

Dickinson, N. D.—To avoid a damage suit the city of Dickinson has rented a farm near the city. The owner claimed the sewage was damaging the property.

Mandan, N. D.—Fred Cardigan, 18-year-old son of Charles T. Cardigan, is $75 richer because he opened a clam while he was camping on the Snake river, near Pine City. The boy found a pearl, perfectly round and of good color, and when offered $75 for it by a pearl buyer, he took it.

Mandan, N. D.—Engineer Frank White was injured in a wreck which occurred last week on the north line caused by the spreading of a rail. His injuries were such as to necessitate a visit to the N. P. hospital at Brainerd, Minn.

Grand Fords, N. D.—Carl Sorenson, who has been manager of the St. Hilaire Lumber company in this city nine years, has been appointed manager of the three yards maintained by the Shevlin interests at Fort William, Port Arthur and at a point midway between those two cities. He will take up the work there within the next month.

Bismarck, N. D.—At a meeting of the city commission modified plans of the proposed auditorium were presented to the commission and adopted. The modified plans will reduce the cost of the new auditorium to considerably less than $85,000. The plans call for the completion of the building, furnished and ready for occupancy.

Fargo, N. D.—The membership committee of the Woodrow Wilson club of Cass county announced at Saturday night's meeting that 100 new names had been added to the list since the last meeting and the membership is now 200.

Devils Lake, N. D.—Coroner Gilbertson was called to the farm home of James Stewart Friday to care for the remains of Charles Stewart, who met death in a very tragic manner, being dragged for almost a mile and a quarter by a horse which became frisky while at work in the field.

Peninsula Briefs

Houghton.—The meeting for the organization of an upper peninsula league of golf clubs, in connection with which is to be held a championship upper peninsula golf tournament, is to be held this week in Houghton under the auspices of the Portage Lake Golf club.

Hancock.—The Hancock Township Progressive Farmers' association has been organized, to employ a co-operative style of farming which it is believed will bring better results: The officers are: President, John Salmu; vice president, Daniel Pukema; secretary, Matt Matson; treasurer, Matt Salmu; directors, William Jaaskela, Jacob Ojala and Patrick Fallman.

Calumet.—The Calumet council, No. 1245, Knights of Columbus, will hold their annual children's day picnic at Electric park on Wednesday, Aug. 28.

Painesdale.—A fine new captain's office is in the process of erection on a site just opposite "E" shafthouse. The building is to be up-to-date and will consist of three rooms, a store room, besides a shower bath and toilet.

Ontonagon.—The new potato warehouse is being built. The building will be a frame structure, substantially built and will be one of the finest potato warehouses in the upper peninsula when completed. It is to be 50x80 feet with a 10-inch concrete wall, 18 inches high on the west side and 24 on the east, on this wall will rest the building proper which is to be 12 feet high from the top of the walls to the eaves.

Ishpeming—Edward Lahti, aged 25, who cut his throat while suffering from delirium tremens last Wednesday afternoon, died Friday night at the Ishpeming hospital. The surgeons had from the first little hope for Lahti's recovery, as the gash in his throat was a deep one and his windpipe was severed.

Marquette—Miss A. S. Duncan, former librarian of the Peter White public library, who is now on a European trip, accompanied P. H. Begole, F. H. Begole, Jr. and James Maynard on an automobile tour of the British Isles shortly before they left for the United States.

Ishpeming—Arthur Fenn of Chisholm, Minn., spent a few hours in the city Saturday, calling on old friends. He visited the greater part of the week with his sister, Mrs. Robinson in Gwinn. Mr. Fenn was formerly employed in the barber business in this city.

Sault Ste. Marie—Tried here, Thomas Strobridge was found guilty of violating the game laws and was sentenced to pay a fine of $25. A warrant was issued for him upon complaint of William H. Harrington, deputy state game warden. He was arraigned before Justice Runnells. Strobridge lives near Whitefish Point and makes part of his living by catching fish and hunting and trapping in the winter.

Wisconsin Briefs

Eau Claire—Benjamin Carr, who was born and raised in Eau Claire, and learned the art of log rolling on the rivers hereabouts, some years ago and who claims the championship of the world as a log roller, is going to leave shortly for Australia where he will exhibit with the Kline-Sibley water shows.

Milwaukee—After an illness of two days, A. L. Worden, aged 75, pioneer newspaper man, lawyer and real estate dealer and one of the oldest residents of Milwaukee, died suddenly of heart failure at the residence of his son, Lucien R. Worden, Sunday. Mr. Worden was born in Wappinger's Falls, N. Y., and came to Milwaukee with his father in 1848. Three sons and one daughter survive.

Madison—Governor McGovern has appointed John Gaukel of Eau Claire as agent of the Wisconsin Humane society for Eau Claire county and also announced the appointment of Dr. W. J. Wehle of West Bend for agent for Washington county.

Beaver Dam—S. W. Rowell, son of the late J. S. Rowell and a member of the firm of the J. S. Rowell Manufacturing company of this city, died on Saturday, aged 60 years. Funeral services were held Monday under the auspices of the Masons.

Milwaukee—August Johann, 53 years old, an inmate of the county almshouse, committed suicide by drinking hydrocyanic acid shortly after he arose on Sunday. He was found in his room by an attendant suffering from intense pains, but died before medical attention could reach him. The man was ill and discouraged, and is said to have told one of his fellow inmates that he was not going to live much longer.

Fond du Lac—A voluntary petition in bankruptcy has been filed by George Staerzl, upholsterer and furniture dealer. Liabilities are $2,500 and available assets only $175.

Black River Falls—Until a thorough investigation is made, none of the twenty Italian railroad laborers arrested Sunday, after the stabbing of a brakeman at Merrill, will be released from custody. The brakeman's condition was critical today. Authorities believe one of the men committed the crime.

La Crosse—A man, whose name is believed to be Alfred Evenson and who in turn said he lived in Minneapolis, Lansing, Iowa, and St. Paul, was found wandering the streets here in a demented condition, and after an examination was committed to the state asylum at Mendota.

Minnesota Briefs

Aitkin—While hitching his team to a binder, Carl J. Anderson was knocked down when the animals suddenly started to run. The guard of the machine struck him on the hip causing a painful injury, but not a serious one.

Bagley—William Wiltse, mail carrier on the R. F. D. Route No. 1, met with a bad accident recently. In passing by an automobile his horse became frightened and ran away, overturning the buggy. Mr. Wiltse was left behind with a badly bruised limb. The buggy was broken into kindling wood.

Crookston—A. R. Jones has arrived from St. Hilaire and is now manager of the branch house in Crookston of the Hanson & Barzen Milling company of Thief River Falls, succeeding O. W. Peterson. Mr. Jones came to this city in 1878 and remained here till 1895.

Baudette—While crossing the new bridge between International Falls and Fort Frances Thursday, Deputy Sheriff Cahil was thrown from an automobile and sustained a severe wrench to his right leg. County Commissioner Helic Clementson was also in the auto but was not injured.

Foley—Rev. Martin Hauser has been installed as pastor of the German Evangelican Lutheran church here. Rev. Hauser was ordained at Minneapolis Aug. 16. In addition to his duties as pastor of the Foley church he will be in charge of the parishes at Clearwater, Greenbush and Milaca.

Sauk Center—The six new buildings being erected at the State Home School for Girls near here are nearing completion, according to members of the board of control who returned Friday night from their monthly inspection of the institution. Unless there is unfavorable weather, most of the buildings should be completed before winter.

Faribault—Joseph Tousignant of the town of Walcott has just finished thrashing fifty-three acres of oats, which turned out 3,200 bushels, or an average of about sixty bushels to the acre. He says this is a fair average for this crop over the county, although a number of yields far above this have been reported.

St. Paul—Jewelry valued at more than $1,000 was stolen from the residence of Mrs. John Mull, Birchwood, White Bear, sometime Saturday, during the absence of Mrs. Mull. The burglars entered by a window, which they "jimmied" open. They made a systematic search of the premises, upsetting the furniture, emptying drawers and examining papers which were thrown about the floor.

Wood Lake—The saloon of J. W. Manecke was entered Sunday morning and the cash register rifled. The robbers effected their entrance through the back door by breaking the glass. They obtained $9.60 in money and stamps and made good their escape.

Owatonna—Fire Saturday damaged the handsome new firemen's and city hall to the extent of $3,000 and only the most untiring efforts on the part of the firemen prevented the fire spreading, as a heavy wind was blowing at the time. The fire was caused by a defective electric light wire.

St. Cloud—There will be no Labor Day celebration in St. Cloud this year. The local Trades and Labor council has decided to pass up the year 1912. The costs of such a celebration are rather high and it is felt that with the possibility of a meeting of the state federation in the city in the spring, the observance this fall should be omitted.

Bemidji—S. V. Topping has been awarded the contract for Ditch No. 13 running out of Spooner. His bid was $1.50 per yard for excavating and $250 per mile for clearing road and $40 per mile for leveling road.

Moorhead—The rain which fell on Friday afternoon and night was the fourth heaviest that has ever been recorded at the Moorhead weather bureau, and the heaviest in more than fifteen years. On July 20, 1897, the government rain gauge registered 3.78 inches, while the rain of Friday night was 2.34 inches.

In Use For Over 30 Years

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Compare the taste of Schlitz in BROWN BOTTLES with beer in light bottles

Schlitz is as pure when poured into your glass as when it left the brewery. It's the Brown Bottle. It keeps out the light. Light develops in beer a peculiar taste and a disagreeable odor.

This is not a theory. It is a fact proven by scientists.

Schlitz is properly aged before leaving the brewery.

It will not cause biliousness, nor ferment in your stomach.

Schlitz in Brown Bottles costs you no more than common beer in light bottles.

FROM A MINISTER OF GOSPEL TO A TRAINER OF ELEPHANTS

From the duties of a minister in the pulpit to the training of elephants, is quite a stretch, but nevertheless it was made by Prof. William Hamilton, the superintendent and trainer of elephants with the Al G. Barnes circus.

Prof. Hamilton was born in the little village of Hanover, N. H. His father was for more than forty years the professor of Greek in Dartmouth college and it was the wish of the parent that little Willie, as he was called, should become a minister of the gospel. Accordingly, young Hamilton was given a classical education, and later he donned the frock of a minister and was admitted to the Methodist church. He filled various pastorates about the country. While pastor of the Hyde Park Methodist church in Chicago the Rev. Mr. Hamilton was forced to give up his clerical duties because of ill health.

Physicians told him that his health could only be regained by leading an active outdoor life. Hamilton finally joined a circus in an executive capacity, and a strong attachment grew up between him and the elephants with the show. He grew to love them and when there was a vacancy in the ranks of an animal attendant he was given the job. For fourteen years he has been training elephants and today he is looked upon as one of the foremost trainers in his line.

While the Al G. Barnes circus was exhibiting in Winnipeg recently Hamilton was caught in a talkative mood one afternoon following the big show. He was asked to tell the best elephant tale he knew and this was what he related:

"Ten years ago I was in Memphis, Tenn., with a big circus. We were on the way from the show cars to the circus grounds one beautiful Sunday morning and stopped at an apparently hospitable house to water the big beasts, who were very thirsty. The owner of the home was a prosperous groceryman. After the elephants had been watered he began to feed old Mose with peanuts. The big elephant appeared to relish his breakfast very much. All at once the groceryman pitched a piece of tobacco into Mose's mouth while he had it open. Then the elephant went into a frenzy, for tobacco is very poisonous to them. He trumpeted madly and finally broke away. The groceryman got away just in time to save his life.

"The circus left Memphis the next day and we continued our travels about the country, and in the fall we embarked for Europe where we exhibited for four years. Upon our return we were again billed for Memphis in the fall. I had forgotten the incident. The afternoon performance passed off as usual, but shortly before 8 o'clock in the evening one of the elephant attendants came running to me in the dressing room with the message that old Mose was killing a man. I ran out into the menagerie tent. Over in a far corner was lying an apparently lifeless form. It was the groceryman and after five years the big beast had gotten revenge. The animal almost killed the man. It is one of the most remarkable occurrences I ever heard of but it goes to show that the elephant possesses a remarkable memory."

Next Sunday the Al G. Barnes big three ring wild animal circus will arrive in Duluth and take up a temporary encampment at Twenty-ninth avenue and Superior street in anticipation of two performances on Monday, at 2 and 8 p. m. A street parade—one mile long—will leave the show grounds at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning and will pass through all the principal downtown streets.

Luther League Program.

The Luther League of the First Swedish Lutheran church, Sixth avenue east and Third street, will give a musical program tonight, in the church parlor. The league is working to support Miss Lizzie Thompson, who has been ill at the Bethesda hospital in St. Paul. At this meeting an offering will be taken for this cause. The program will be as follows:

Song ..... Luther League.
Scripture reading and prayer ..... Rev. Carl O. Swan.
Piano solo ..... Miss Emelie Strand.
Recitation ..... Uhl Anderson.
Reading ..... Oscar Melander.
Solo song ..... Miss Edla Magney.
Speech ..... Frank Gustafson.

Governor Eberhart and the Gross Earnings Tax Increase—Scramble for Congressional Seat for Fifth District—Miller Sends Filing Papers From Washington—Candidates for Governor Busy.

The Gross Earnings Tax.

The audacity of the governor's campaign committee in claiming for him credit for the increase in the gross earnings tax, will make him no votes. Press and people will call upon the governor and his committee to show his right for the credit, and they will be unable to make good.

No mention was made of the gross earnings tax in the governor's call for the extra session. He implied, if he did not openly express, a hope that the legislature would confine itself to the program outlined, which was a direct primary, a corrupt practices act and reapportionment. There was no hope for reapportionment at the extra session, and the governor's program really consisted of the direct primary and the corrupt practices act.

When The Herald called upon the governor last year to call an extra session to increase the gross earnings tax, he turned a deaf ear. He refused to make good his promise to call an extra session to consider repapportionment. Only when a state convention of his party demanded a direct vote on gubernatorial candidates did the governor see the great white light and make a play for popularity. The legislature included the gross earnings tax in its program without any aid or encouragement from the governor. For him to have refused to approve the act would have been suicidal. He approved it, and now his campaign committee claims full credit for its adoption.

The governor will have to explain that. He will have to explain the charges of extravagance hurled at him by the opposition candidates. He will have to explain why Minnesota's direct tax is the highest in history this year. If the governor goes on the stump, he must make a defensive campaign. His campaign committee thought to put opposition candidates on the defensive by claiming everything, but misrepresentation will need explanation also.

It is also notable that employes of the administration have taken their cue from the campaign committee and the Smith-Eberhart organs and are claiming everything for the governor in interviews worked into the same organs. They hope to start a bandwagon movement for Eberhart by claiming that sentiment has changed and the governor is gaining in strength. Only four weeks remain before the primary and if the governor is to gain enough strength to give him the nomination, he must gain more rapidly than any man in Minnesota has ever gained before.

Nye's Retirement.

Congressman Frank M. Nye has accomplished his retirement with grace and dignity. He declares he will support Roosevelt, that he cannot see his way clear to become a candidate for a Republican nomination under those circumstances, and will retire on his honors and take up the ends of private life.

There will be a scramble for the congressional seat for the Fifth district. Judge George R. Smith, who has the indorsement of the La Follette organization, has already filed. He is not acceptable to Nye's friends, as he filed before Nye had announced his retirement. Roosevelt men are endeavoring to get Lowell P. Jepson into the race, and there is still talk of Judge Milton D. Purdy. Senator W. S. Dwinnell and Senator Manley L. Fosseen are still possibilities.

Elmar Holdale is expected to win the Democratic nomination without very much trouble, and he is conceded a good chance of election, regardless of who the Republican nominee may be.

* * *

Miller Sends Papers.

Congressman Clarence B. Miller mailed his filing papers from Washington. He names R. M. Hughes as his campaign manager, but has named no committee for the present. He made no statement in announcing his candidacy.

No opposition has developed in the Republican party and Mr. Miller will undoubtedly have a clear field at the primary. No Democratic candidate has filed, but there has been much talk of Andrew Nelson and he will probably get into the race.

* * *

Public Utilities Commission.

Representative F. E. Minette, Democrat, of Sauk Centre has announced that if he is re-elected to the legislature he will introduce a bill providing for a public utilities commission in Minnesota similar to the New York commission. The New York commission, which is prompt and informal in its actions, has revolutionized the method of dealing with public service corporations in that state. P. M. Ringdal has taken a stand in favor of such a commission in the platform on which he seeks the Democratic nomination for governor.

* * *

Candidates at Work.

All candidates for governor, except Martin Falk, are working in the southern part of the state this week. Falk has dropped out of sight and isn't making good on his declaration that he would go out and attempt to capture the nomination. Spooner is the only candidate who has visited the Eighth district on a campaign thus far, and the next four weeks will probably see Young, Gordon and Lee up in this section of the state. Lee has engaged rooms for Northern Minnesota headquarters in Duluth and will go after votes here. Whether Governor Eberhart will come here as a campaigner is not known. The governor has been a frequent visitor to Northern Minnesota in the last few months, and there has always been a slight suspicion that he had an eye to political results in the visits.

* * *

In the Second District.

Andrew J. Daley of Luverne, candidate for the Republican nomination for congress in the Second district, is making a tour of the district in an automobile and is conducting an aggressive personal campaign. F. F. Ellsworth of Mankato is working under the surface and is said to have an efficient organization in motion. The bitterness which characterized the Ellsworth-Ward contest two years ago is lacking, but press reports from the Second indicate there is little hope of the Republican nominee displacing Congressman W. S. Hammond, who will have no opposition for the Democratic nomination.

* * *

The Nationality Question.

Discussion of nationality has been aroused again, the impetus coming from the Svenska Folkets Tidning, a Swedish paper published at Minneapolis. The Fertile Journal, a Republican paper published in Polk county, takes issue with the Minneapolis paper, which fears that the multiplicity of candidates of Swedish birth or extraction will lessen Governor Eberhart's chances. The Fertile paper says:

The article in question laments the fact that there are two Swedes as candidates for governor, one for lieutenant governor and one for secretary of state. The base for their lamentation is that the present governor is a Swede and that they cannot expect to hold what they got, if there are going to be so many of the same nationality in the race for various offices. They also warn the people not to use their second choice privilege when voting for governor, as this will work to the detriment of their choice. The article in question is almost too rank to need a reply, as we do not believe that many will be misled thereby. We do not think there are many Swedes in Minnesota who feel exceptionally proud of the fact that the governor is one of their nationality. And we do not believe there are many who are going to vote for him for that reason. Furthermore, we do not believe there are many Swedes in the state who are narrow enough to put nationality above worth when casting their vote. We are in favor of J. A. A. Burnquist for lieutenant governor and G. H. Mattson for secretary of state, not because they are Swedes, but because they are worthy candidates, and deserve the support of both Swedes and other nationalities. The advice given by the paper in question not to use the second choice privilege is issued from brewery headquarters right along and should not be paid any attention to. The second choice is what is going to keep the breweries and other interests out of politics this fall, and it should be made use of by every voter.

Comments on Kelley.

Charles T. Kelley of Menahga, the original standpatter of the Sixth district, who announced in his paper, the Menahga Journal, that if Lindbergh is the only candidate for the Republican nomination for congress in the Sixth, he will get into the race, is getting some encouragement and many comments that cannot be regarded as encouraging. Most of the comments are on the line of "Kelley's a good old fellow; he's strong for principle, but he can't touch Lindbergh."

Five in the Seventh.

Candidate No. 5 for the Republican nomination for county commissioner in the Seventh district filed with the county auditor yesterday. He is Charles Walker of Mountain Iron. The other candidates are Commissionar P. J. Ryan and James Butchart of Hibbing and Peter Wall and R. S. O'Neill of Chisholm.

* * *

Prohibition Candidate.

The first Prohibition candidate to file in St. Louis county is Carl T. Larson of Brookston, who filed yesterday for the Prohibition nomination for county commissioner in the Fifth district. There are five candidates for the Republican nomination and two for the Democratic nomination in the district. The Public Ownership party will probably have a candidate.

* * *

Sandy McDonald Files.

Sandy McDonald, a Duluth newspaper man, filed yesterday for the Republican nomination for sheriff. He is the third in the field. Sheriff John R. Meining and Steve L. Pierce being the other candidates. McDonald has been in the newspaper business in the county for a number of years, and has worked on papers in Virginia and Hibbing as well as in Duluth.

GEORGE D. McCARTHY.

FIGHT ON FOR VERMONT VOTES

Advantage With Regular Republicans for State Election Sept. 3.

Burlington, Vt., Aug. 20.—With five political parties engaged in the struggle for votes in Vermont's rolling and wooded arena in the campaign before the election of Sept. 3, it is plain there is to be a good deal of excitement for the on lookers before the final "thumbs down!" settles the fate of four of the contestants. The candidates for governor of the three leading parties are Allan M. Fletcher, a business man of long legislature experience, Republican; Harland B. Howe, Democrat; and the Rev. Frazer Metzger of Randolph, and Clement F. Smith, master of the State Graneg, Progressives.

It may be conceded that the Socialists and the Prohibitionists are marked for death from the start, although the "dry" party always makes a good deal of noise in this state, and the present year is no exception to the rule. The Democrats are also full of fight and promise to make things lively for the G. O. P. in its divided condition; but, after all, the chief interest centers in just how far the Republican split extends and how much of a showing the bull moose is going to make.

There are undoubted signs of a drift away from the party of "righteousness." Of these the most important locally is considered to be the renunciation by Wallace Batchelder of the third-term candidate, his ways, and work. Other adherents of the colonel in the preconvention days, among them Charles H. Thompson, have also fallen away from his cause.

Already two of the three newspapers which supported Roosevelt before the convention have returned to the regular fold. These are the Morrisville Messenger and the Groton Times. The latter has announced, after recent revelations, that it could not support the colonel, even if he were the nominee of the Republican party. The Deerfield Valley Times, the third of the erstwhile Progressives, is yet to be heard from.

Another factor in the growing feeling that, as far as Vermont is concerned, the bull moose is going to cause little trouble, was that at the recent meeting of the third party state convention in this city only fifty-seven persons participated, and these were not chosen as delegates, but acted in their individual capacity.

Meantime, while these defections and portents are foreshadowing discouragement for the Progressives, the regular Republicans are planning a campaign which will not be lacking in vigor.

SOO FARM LANDS IN BIG DEMAND

One Dealer Has Sold Nearly 10,000 Acres So Far This Year.

Edwin L. Buck, mayor of Cohasset, Minn., who is doing much to settle his section of Northern Minnesota, is at the new St. Louis hotel today. He has just sold 5000 acres of Northern Minnesota farm land to John J. McAuliffe of the Providence building, for about $25,000.

The land is at Shovel lake, in the northwestern part of Aitkin county, along the Thief River Falls division of the Soo Line. Mr McAuliffe said today there is a big demand for farm lands along the Soo lines in Northern Minnesota and that so far this year he has sold nearly 10,000 acres to settlers.

DULUTH MAN HAS PART OF SKELETON OF PREHISTORIC MAMMOTH

Thomas J. Walsh, well known among the mining men of this part of the country, is the possessor of some relics of a specimen of the huge prehistoric elephant, known as the mammoth. The skeleton of the enormous beast was found about a year ago in Gold Run creek, Yukon territory, Alaska, by David Burr and seven other miners, who were sinking the shaft of a gold mine. Mr. Burr and seven other miners, who were sinking the shaft of a gold mine. Mr. Burr is at present employed on the Vermilion range as master mechanic of the North American Iron Mining company, of which Mr. Walsh is president.

The remains lay about thirty feet below the surface of the ground. There were eight men in all who shared in the discovery and they agreed to divide the bones among themselves. Unfortunately, no attempt was made to keep the skeleton together and dispose of it to some museum, where it would be kept intact, an object of interest to all and of great scientific value. Among the bones that fell to Mr. Burr's share was one of the great tusks, which were 12 feet long. It was reported that the entire skeleton, including the tusks, was 33 feet long. Mr. Burr sawed the tusk into small sections, which he presented to his friends. On one section, presented to Mr. Walsh, he engraved a picture of the cabin he occupied, while working in the gold region. Mr. Burr also gave Mr. Walsh one of the animal's sixteen immense teeth, each of which weighed thirteen pounds.

The tooth that Mr. Walsh received is larger than an ordinary-sized loaf of bread. This tooth, instead of standing upright, lay lengthwise in the jaw, and the wear upon it shows that part of it was used for biting and part for grinding. The heavy wear on the tooth indicates that the beast must have been old at the time of its death.

EIGHT NEW SUBMARINES.

Other Small Vessels Also on the Navy Program.

Washington, Aug. 20.—One battleship to cost $7,425,000 without armor or armament and not to exceed $15,000,000 when completed; eight submarines costing $4,480,000, and a fleet of torpedo boats, colliers and machine ships, constitute the building program for the navy, approved by the senate, and which probably will be adopted without change by the house.

The house and senate conferees on the naval bill met and adjusted in a few minutes the fight between the two houses over battleships and submarines. The senate yielded to the demand of the house for one battleship instead of two, but secured in exchange the full fleet of eight submarines, instead of four as proposed by the house.

The conference report was brought into the senate and adopted without opposition. Senator Thornton, Democrat, declared that the senate conferees should have adhered to their demand for two battleships.

The house deferred action on the report, ordering it printed.

Copyright Moving Pictures.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The senate passed the house bill putting moving pictures under the distinct protection of the copyright laws of the United States. Instead of providing for a fine for each moving picture which infringes another, the bill provides that in case of an innocent infringement, the total amount of damages shall not exceed $100.

Gives Away 105 Cannon.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Senator O'Gorman called up a bill granting condemned cannon to half a hundred towns throughout the country, to be placed on the public grounds and about the state armories. No sooner had the bill been read than there arose a chorus of requests for the cannon from the floor. The bill finally disposed of some 105 cannon.

INTERNATIONAL FALLS TEAMSTER KILLED.

International Falls, Minn., Aug. 20.—B. M. Curry, a teamster with the International Lumber company, was run over Friday night and killed, his body being so badly crushed that he died shortly after the accident. The unfortunate man is said to have been intoxicated and fell off of his load, the wheels passing over his body. He was a stranger, having been here but two weeks, and the remains were buried at the county's expense.

HOT WEATHER IS QUICK TO AFFECT THE BOWELS

Well-Known Fact That Extreme Heat Conduces to Chronic Constipation.

The disposition to eat cold food and indulge in iced drinks is one reason why constipation and diarrheoa is so prevalent in summer, and there is no time when people should more carefully avoid bowel disturbances, as much serious disease is directly traceable to these conditions. We need all of our strength to withstand the enervating effect of heat.

To regulate the bowels and quickly relieve even the most aggravated case of constipation, the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is highly recommended by all who have ever used it. Unlike cathartics and violent purgatives, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin acts gently on the stomach, liver and bowels, without griping, or other discomfort, bringing relief in an easy, natural manner. It can be used with perfect safety by the most delicate woman or child, and yet is equally effective for the strongest constitution. Mild, pleasant to take, and inexpensive, it is the ideal family laxative. By cleansing the bowel tract thoroughly and eliminating the foreign matter and poisons that irritate asd inflame, it will quickly check summer diarrhoea and restore normal conditions.

Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for fifty cents a bottle — a larger, family size costs one dollar. Get a bottle and keep it in the house; it will save many times its cost in doctor bills. A free trial bottle, postpaid, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

Woman's Realm

The greatest problem that is troubling Duluth housewives and homemakers at the present time is the vexed question of domestic help.

The mistresses of many of the finest homes in Duluth are willing to pay almost any reasonable wage for a good reliable maid. A good cook can command $30 per month and a good second girl $20 per month, in addition to a good home, regular afternoons out and other inducements.

The greatest annoyance the intelligence offices and housewives seeking help have is the ignorant girl answering advert'sements for experienced help and not being able to fulfill the contract. She demands, however, the wages of an experienced cook or second girl.

Employment agents claim that the best solution of these conditions would be the establishment of the industrial home now being agitated, where girls may be properly trained to meet the requirements of an average household.

IS DUCHESS IN HER OWN RIGHT

H. R. H. PRINCESS ALEXANDRA OF FIFE.

This is a recent photograph of the young duchess of Fife, who is the only woman in England to be made a duchess in her own right. She was made a duchess on the death of her father, the duke of Fife. It is said that Queen Alexandra is trying to arrange a marriage between the duchess of Fife and Prince George of Greece. The queen's principal opponent to this match is the young prince's mother, who hates everything English and wants to see the prince marry a German princess.

Mrs. Belmont Goes to Market

Wealthy Woman Takes the Lead in Stamping Out Grafting By Servants.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 20.—Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is her own market woman these days, in order to do her part toward preventing the graft system which for many years has existed among servants of rich families here. Mrs. Belmont visits the stores, where she orders the necessary goods and has them sent.

She says if more people would adopt the same course, the graft problem would soon be solved.

For many years the question of graft has been a serious problem in Newport, where servants are said to have enriched themselves at the expense of their employers.

"The system of graft by which the servants profit at the expense of their employers is all wrong," Mrs. Belmont said. "It is simply another indication of the utter indifference too many women show in regard to really important problems.

"If rich people of the city are willing to pay twice what food is really worth, because of their indifference to the way their households are conducted, it seems to me it is another indication of the demoralization of a certain class.

"We have been obliged to discharge four chefs this summer because I was convinced they were guilty of grafting. If necessary, I shall discharge four more, for I am determined to do what I can to stamp out this evil."

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Sympathy and the Married State.

There is often a surprising lack of common interest between men and women who have bound themselves together for life. You would think that life would be intolerable without it, yet many such couples live day in and day out without an inkling of the thoughts and ambitions that dwell behind the eyes that look into theirs across the breakfast table.

Their only subjects of conversation are domestic ones, differences of opinion on kindred matters, and such topics as mere acquaintances babble about in light and pleasant vein. There is no complete understanding, no deep sympathy, one with the other, and therefore a void exists which nothing else can fill.

My observations would tend to teach me that men are rather more lacking in this respect than women. They take the domestic accomplishments of their wives as a matter of course, never commenting upon them except to find fault with some arrangement that is not running smoothly for the moment. No stir is made over a woman's work unless she competes with man, but the things she accomplishes in the quiet of her home take just as much heroism and ability as the things that are done and noised abroad. The wife does not ask for recognition but she does care for appreciation in her home.

On the other hand, while men are the most frequent offenders, there are women who are only interested in their husbands for the material comforts they are able to provide. They take no interest in the efforts that make their ease possible, and if it is shut off they rail against the one who has hitherto poured the golden shower into their laps. Any interest as to why affairs are not running in the same happy rut, however, is not vouchsafed.

A man who earned his living as a writer of magazine fiction once told me that his wife never took enough interest in the creations of his brain to read one of his stories. "What do I know about it?" she would ask. "It is his business, not mine; besides, it's too much bother. It does not interest me."

True to her idea of what constituted the personal affairs of a husband and wife, she kept many matters from him. So now, while they live together, they both attend to their own affairs. Their only subject in common is the children, and they are not always agreed upon matters pertaining to them.

I suppose the explanation of a condition that is more common than we may realize, lies in the fact that there is no real interest or understanding between husband and wife. Married life does not develop it save in rare instances, because the one misunderstood, hurt and humiliated, shrinks from an attempt to establish confidence. Sometimes both misunderstand and are misunderstood and things go from bad to worse. The one solution is the establishment of sympathy and understanding from the first and its constant cultivation.

HEAR FROM THE COMMITTEES

Catholic Societies' Delegates Holding Sessions at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 20.—With committee reports in prospect for the afternoon session, the eleventh convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies began its second day of business this morning. Immediately after its appointment yesterday, the resolutions committee, which is regarded as the most important, began preparation of its report. It was expected this would contain a strong anti-Socialistic expression.

Tomorrow officers will be elected and the next convention city will be chosen. It is intimated that Milwaukee will be named.

Edward Feeney of Brooklyn has signified his willingness to retire as president if the members of the federation felt that any other man could be of greater service. Mr. Feeney has served six years.

Talk of Social Forces.

Delegates early began the mapping out of the year's campaign against the forces of evil which, in the words of several speakers, "menace the republic." Emphasis was placed in the annual address of President Edward Feeney of Brooklyn and the report of Secretary Anthony Matre of St. Louis upon the social service program of the federated societies, "which are confronting Socialistic teachings with aggressive promulgations of the teaching of the church on the great social questions of the day."

Last night's session was given over to consideration of capital and labor. Socialistic principles of the Industrial Workers of the World were denounced, and the position of the American Federation of Labor upheld.

"The American Federation of Labor" President Feeney quoted from President Hamilton of Tufts college "stands for America, and not for Socialism." In this connection President Feeney referred to the 200,000 graduates annually sent out from the parochial schools, "imbued with the spirit of patriotism and loyalty." He looked forward to the time when the state would recognize this service of the Catholics who expend $40,000,000 annually in education of their children, and at the same time are taxed $60,000,000 additional for maintenance of the public schools.

Labor Discussed.

Organized and unorganized labor were treated respectively in addresses by Peter W. Collins of the Electrical Workers of America, and Prof. James Hagerty, head of the economic department, Ohio State university.

"The employer," was the title of an address by Michael Fanning, a mine-owner of Cleveland, Ohio, while Peter J. McCardle of Pittsburg, former president of the Amalgamated Steel, Tin and Iron Workers of America, spoke on "public opinion and social legislation." Bishop Peter J. Muldoon of Rockford, Ill., head of the special committee on social service, presided.

CAVALRY ON WAY BACK FROM CAMP

Grand Meadow, Minn., Aug. 30.—The second and third squadrons of the Sixth cavalry, U. S. A., arrived here at noon today, completing 128.2 miles of the 211.5 miles from Camp McCoy to the post at Fort Des Moines. The distance was covered in six marching days. Col. Charles M. O'Connor is in command.

Cavalry at Portage.

Portage, Wis., Aug. 20.—The third squadron of the Fifteenth cavalry, U. S. A., arrived here today en route to Fort Sheridan, from Camp McCoy, where the headquarters were established for the recent military manœuvers. Today's march completes eighty miles of the 247-mile trip. The troopers all are in good physical condition. They rested Monday at Kilbourne, making a march of twenty-one miles today.

ELEPHANT TREES CHICAGO POLICE

Chicago, Aug. 20.—An elephant which escaped from a wild west show on the South side today caused considerable excitement and some damage before its keepers finally captured it.

Police detailed from the Englewood station to corral the animal, were forced to climb trees to avoid being roughly handled. The elephant wrecked a number of fences, uprooted trees and demolished a shed.

MONTENEGRINS EAGER TO FIGHT

Cettinje, Montenegro, Aug. 20.—A mass meeting of Montenegrins was held here today to protest against the atrocities committed by the Turks in the Albanian district of Berana, on the Montenegrin frontier, where a large number of Christians have been massacred by Mohammedan Arnauts. A resolution was passed calling on the Montenegrin government to declare war against them.

The war fever is rapidly growing in intensity throughout the whole country.

Agreement Is Reached.

Constantinople, Aug. 30.—A telegram received here this morning from Uskup says an agreement has been reached between the representative of the Turkish government and the Albanian insurgents, who were marching toward Saloniki in considerable force. The Albanian are said to have begun to return to their homes.

Rumors of further changes in the Turkish cabinet are declared in official circles to be entirely unfounded.

FEAR SLEUTH WAS MURDERED

Chicago, Aug. 20.—Police began search today for E. C. Bennett of Toledo, Ohio, a private detective who has been missing since Aug. 7. It is believed he has been murdered.

Bennett had been employed to arrest a band of furniture thieves who had victimized Toledo concerns. They purchased furniture on the installment plan and then shipped it from the city. The goods were traced to Chicago.

Two weeks ago Bennett wrote to Toledo firms that he expected to arrest the alleged leader of the thieves on that day. Since then nothing has been heard of him.

TAFT ASKS MORE ACTION ON CANAL

Washington, Aug. 20.—President Taft late yesterday sent to congress a special message urging the amendment of the Panama canal bill, which has passed both houses, for the adoption of a joint resolution designed to allow foreign nations to test the validity of the free tolls provision of the bill under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

The president indicated a desire to sign the present bill, but declared it was of utmost importance that further legislation be passed so that the good faith of the United States would be understood by foreign governments.

CROW WING WILL SAVE INTEREST

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The state board of investment has accepted the application of Crow Wing county for a loan of $100,000 at 4 per cent, the money to be used to take up the $100,000 bonds of the Brainerd & Northern Minnesota Railway company bonds, drawing interest at 6 per cent and maturing Sept. 1 next.

Saves $2,000 Interest.

The annual interest on the new loan will be $4,000, thus making a saving of $2,000 annually in Crow Wing county's favor. Provision is made for the payment of the principal in installments of $5,000 each, the first payment falling due in 1923.

SEED LIEN INTERFERES.

Court Proceedings Involving Some North Dakota Land.

Bowbells, N. D., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mandamus proceedings have been brought by George Cunningham against Register of Deeds George Hanson and County Treasurer C. P. Olson, asking that the district court order the register to record a certain deed. There is a seed lien of $300 against the property in question which must be paid before the deed can go on record is the contention of the defense. The arguments will be heard before Judge Leighton in Minot Aug. 25.

Mr. Cunningham held a second mortgage on the land and in 1911 he secured seed from the county, giving a seed lien as security. Under the law the lien holds against the land in which the seed is put. There was a foreclosure on the first mortgage and Cunningham bought the sheriff's deed. He believes that as the mortgage was given prior to the lien, it is also prior in right.

Has Son in North Dakota.

Mankato, Minn., Aug. 20.—R. E. Howard, aged 81, a native of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., for thirty-five years a resident of Minnesota, formerly of Mankato, died Sunday at Vernon Center. He is survived by his wife and five children, Mrs. Duncan Slater, Vernon Center; Mrs. F. G. Sasse, Austin; Mrs. L. L. Lamberg, Vernon Center; E. R. Howard, Bricelyn; B. L. Howard, Willow City, N. D.

John S. Steiger died Sunday at the St. Joseph's hospital after being ill for several months, of old age. The deceased was a lay brother of the Society of Jesus, and had been connected with that organization in Mankato for about twenty-five years.

John T. Steiger was born in March, 1831, in Austria.

TO HEAD CROSBY SCHOOLS.

Iron Belt, Wis., Man Is Chosen School Superintendent.

Crosby, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Conrad Raps, superintendent of the Iron Belt, Wis., schools, has accepted the position of superintendent of schools at Crosby for the coming year. Mr. Raps is a graduate of the Parker high school, Clarence, N. Y., and received his B. A. degree from the University of Michigan in 1909. He has had charge of the Iron Belt schools for the past three years, having been very successful there in raising the school from a state graded school to a four-year high school.

BRAINERD COUNCIL TO BOOST SALOON LICENSES.

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The city council last night gave an ordinance its first reading which raised the saloon license from $500 to $1,000 annually, to take effect on and after Aug. 1, 1913. All months previous to that date to be paid at the rate of $500 annually, and after August, 1913, at the rate of $1,000 annually. Brainerd has twenty-seven saloons and the raising of the license will weed out some of them.

WILLISTON BANKS MERGE.

Williston, N. D., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Farmers & Merchants' bank and the Williams County bank of this city have been merged and the consolidated institution will be known as the Williams County State bank with a capital stock and surplus of $55,000.

Cashier Hayes of the Williams County bank will be vice president and managing director of the new concern and A. Wingate, former cashier of the Farmers & Merchants' bank, will be cashier. The board of directors will include members from the boards of both former institutions.

SANBORN MAKES ORDER

For Foreclosure Sale of La Crosse Power Company.

Winona, Minn., Aug. 20.—Judge A. L. Sanborn in United States court at Madison has entered a decree marking the preliminary step in foreclosure proceedings requiring the sale of all the property of the La Crosse Water Power company, now in the hands of a receiver, C. C. Smith of Milwaukee. The sale will be made at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of Oct. 11 at Black River Falls, according to the ruling of the court.

The foreclosure proceedings were instituted by the State Bank of Chicago, trustees for the bondholders, which institution also started the case which resulted in the appointment of a receiver over a year ago.

The foreclosure proceedings is aimed to effect a reorganization of the controlling interest behind the affairs of the La Crosse Water Power company and placing of the company on a sound financial basis, or the sale of the property to other parties. Whether the bondholders will bid in the property at the foreclosure sale, or it will pass into new hands remains to be seen.

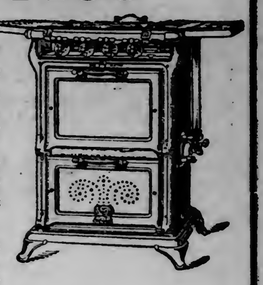

Interest on the bonds of the Winona Railway & Light company, the common stock of which is owned by the La Crosse Water Power company, has been paid for July.

THREE MORE FILE FOR LEGISLATIVE SEATS.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Three candidates for legislative seats filed with the secretary of state today. The list follows: J. W. Crossfield, Little Falls, representative from the Forty-eighth district, public ownership party.

Martin G. Nielsen, Pine county, representative from the Thirty-second district, Public Ownership party.

MARSHALL'S ACCEPTANCE.

Today Thomas R. Marshall, governor of Indiana, accepted the Democratic nomination for vice president of the United States. He voiced his acceptance in a speech that was both a straight-from-the-shoulder reply to the claims of self-sufficiency of the candidate of the Progressive party and a stinging, though gentle-appearing, rebuke to the powers of patronage that have placed William H. Taft once more in the field. His address of acceptance is no whit behind that of Governor Wilson in showing the present condition of the people of the country and the reasons for that condition.

One point in particular Governor Marshall emphasized, and in that emphasis laid his hand on the one great issue that dominates the present campaign. He said:

"It is idle for a thoughtful man in America, whether millionaire or pauper, to longer play the ostrich. Safety does not consist in hiding one's head in the sands of either sentiment or hope. It is foolish for the vastly rich to keep on insisting that more and more shall be added to their riches through a specious system of special legislation ostensibly enacted to run the government, in reality enacted to loot the people."

There has been no clearer statement of the attitude of the defenders of the present system of special privilege, whether they are in the open as reactionaries or whether they are trying to hide their actual reactionary beliefs and methods under a glittering pile of pseudo-progressive tinsel.

Neither has there been a clearer statement of the sentiment of the nation and the effect of many years of misrule than that made by Governor Marshall, thus:

"Whether voting the ticket or not, men everywhere, looking upon the awful injustice of this economic system, are becoming socialistic in theory if not in conduct."

Again, the governor points out how, regardless of party affiliations, the people of the country have come to be divided into three classes, which he designates thus:

First, the "favored few, their hangers-on and their beneficiaries, who think the eagle is upon the dollar, not as an emblem of liberty, but as an emblem of power, and who look upon government as an annex to their business affairs."

Second he places "those whose outlook upon life has been enlarged by the civilization under which we live, * * * whose horizon has been enlarged and whose capacity for joy or sorrow has been increased. Conditions have become unbearable to them. They have reached the point where, in the struggle for that which they believe to be right, they are willing to destroy the ideals of the republic. How many of these there are I do not know, but I do know that special privilege in the republic is breeding them day by day like rabbits in a warren."

In the third class he places those "who believe that the equality of mankind does not consist in an equality of brain and brawn, but in an equality whereby every man has an inalienable right to exercise all of his ability in getting on in the world, just so he realizes that in getting on he owes it to himself, to his family and to the republic to see to it that he gets on honestly, and that he does not prevent any other man from obtaining the reward of his honesty and enterprise."

Governor Marshall's speech, like that of Governor Wilson, is a plea for a return of our national government to the position of a government of the people FOR the people, instead of remaining as it has become, a government of the people for a part of the people. It is a straightforward and clear exposition of the principles of the party at whose hands the speaker accepted nomination. It adds to the well-founded belief already so widespread that the only way to restore the conduct of national affairs to the ideals of the founders of the republic is to root out, from top to bottom, the powers that for years have made the people's rights a thing to mock and defy.

Gentle Reminder.

Maybe the murder of that consular official in Colombia was just to keep us from forgetting all about South America during the heat of the compaign.

PHILADELPHIA CONTRIBUTES.

While the country has been giving its attention to the New York police scandals, the Detroit boodle charges and the Chicago conventions, Philadelphia—sleepy old Philadelphia—has been pulling off a stunt of its own that is nothing to be sneezed at, when you come right down to earnest consideration.

Philadelphia, in fact, has sprung something brand new; something that there isn't even a law to cover. And when you find such a thing as that you may know you have struck bed rock.

The Quaker City's contribution to the general mixup is in the shape of an organization of "lease-lifters." The practice came to light as the result of an investigation by the bankers, who were puzzled by successive failures of supposedly sound concerns, in which unprotected liabilities aggregating some two and a half million dollars were uncovered.

Here is the way the lease-lifters worked: They would select some building occupied by a concern of long standing, and make a cash offer for immediate title provided the title came free from all encumbrances such as leases. The seller would buy off the tenants and transfer the building to the supposedly bona fide purchaser. Trust companies would take mortgages on the property for 100 per cent of the purchase price, and the lease-lifters would notify the tenants to move out or take a new lease at increased rental. The advanced rental was what did the mischief, for the tenants were obliged to raise prices on their goods and in some cases the people refused to pay the new high prices. Something had to break, and it usually was the tenant's finances that yielded.

Meanwhile the lease-lifters were reaping a harvest of exorbitant rents, the funds of some of the banking institutions were being let go at serious risks, and the people who patronized the victims of the lease-lifters were being forced to pay more than ever for what they bought.

Philadelphia certainly has some things about her that entitle her to rank among the cities worthy of investigation. She has done nobly in her contribution to the year's developments in municipal affairs as they are administered. Now who'll be the next to enter the lists for the poison ivy wreath? Whoever it is will have to move right along to get even into Philadelphia's class.

Classical Pair.

Flora Zabelle says that she and her husband, Raymond Hitchcock, "do not agree financially, theatrically, temperamentally or otherwise." Which would seem to class them as a regular, original Jack Spratt couple.

APPLIED COMMON SENSE.

Occasionally, even yet, one hears criticism of the principle of the initiative, referendum and recall to the effect that it is "unnecessary;" that we already have every necessary remedy for conditions such as would call for the application of those practices, through the operation of our governmental provisions for election of representatives and for impeachment of office-holders or the investigation of the way in which they were elected to office. But such criticisms are becoming more and more rare, and no wonder in view of some of the recent happenings in this country.

In our own state, if we had had the right of the initiative, it is not at all likely that our legislature would at the present time consist of a distribution of seats all out of proportion to the distribution of population. Had we had as a national principle the right of referring legislative matters to the direct vote of the people, we would long ago have had both a parcels post and direct election of senators.

But the attention of the country has been most strongly centered on two instances in which the operation of the recall would have saved both time and money, to say nothing of tempers and hard words. One of these cases arose in the national house of representatives, where a newly elected member occupied a seat and exercised the privilege of voting on all questions that arose for two years of almost continual session, only to be told at the end of that time, with his term of office practically finished, that he was not entitled to the place.

In the other case a man occupied a seat in the United States senate for a full third of a term, meanwhile causing limitless trouble by his presence and the manner in which he secured the seat, and then was ousted at an expense to the people of many, many thousands of dollars, after he had voted against the people's interests on vital questions one after another.

How simple either of these instances would have been to handle under the recall. What a great amount of time could have been saved, and what a mess of undying bitterness avoided! As the Washington Times puts it:

"How much better it would be to have the recall in operation, so that as soon as it is generally known a member of congress has been elected by corrupt methods the people may immediately summon him before the bar of his constituency and pass upon his case?

"Why let a man elected corruptly hold his seat until his term has expired and then go through the empty form of expelling him? It is lost motion."

The principles of the initiative, referendum and recall are not anarchistic. They are nothing at all in the wide world but applied common sense.

Odious Comparison.

It cost only $19,000 to nominate the Bull Moose. Easy! Why, it cost a whole lot more than that not to.

ENCOURAGE THE WOMEN.

If you are acquainted personally with any of the women on the committee that is urging before the city government the necessity of some provision for the collection and disposal of garbage, pat her on the back and praise her for the work she and her colleagues have been doing.

Duluth ought to have had a municipal garbage collection system at work long ago. Its need was recognized, but nobody seemed to care to take the initiative in getting it. Finally the Woman's Council took hold of the matter, just as it took hold of the matter of cleanliness in the street cars, and apparently the result is to be similar to that they obtained in the other work—success for their cause.

Nothing but the exceptionally cool weather of the present summer has kept the garbage collection matter as much out of the public mind as it has been. But even without the usual summer heat, the cans and piles of refuse are a menace to health as well as a disgusting spectacle. Flies and other pests breed in them, and not only that, but carry from these uncared for places the germs of disease and death.

But there is reason, apparently, to hope for a change from the haphazard, go-as-you-please custom that has prevailed in the city, to a rigid and sanitary disposition of the refuse from table and kitchen. As yet there is nothing but the prospect, but even that we owe in large measure to the work of the women. Back them up in their efforts. Give them encouragement to go ahead, and when they finally get their point won, help in the enforcement of the restrictions that shall be provided for the good health and comfort of the city.

And there's another bumper crop to be harvested this year that must be taken into consideration, and that's the political crop.

A Pennsylvania girl has been killed by her pet cow. Probably she got careless and let the dear little thing sit on her lap too long.

Atlantic City has issued an edict that women bathers hereafter must wear stockings. Which opens the way to make the blamed things stay up.

Official figures show that lobsters worth $1,085,000 were imported by the United Kingdom last year. Queer how some of these mammoth fortunes shrink when you get them into reliable statistics.

Government reports show that more American coal was sold in Mediterranean ports last year than ever before. Wouldn't it be funny if they got such a good price for it over there that we didn't have to pay so much for what they sell us here at home?

WILSON, THE REFORMER

By SAVOYARD.

There is an eminently respectable school of speculative philosophy which holds that God appoints every man to his particular mission, and that man is immortal till his allotted task is finished. We call certain grand figures in the affairs of this life "men of destiny," because of the herculean labors set before them and the successes they harvest in such fields. A single illustration: By the narrowest chance William H. Seward missed the Republican nomination for president in 1860. Had he been named he would have been elected. Secession would have followed as it followed the election of Lincoln. If you read the diary of Gideon Welles, secretary of navy in Lincoln's cabinet, the best and most vivid picture of the things behind the scenes of that tremendous epoch, you are bound to conclude that with Seward in the White House it is doubtful if secession had resulted in war, and it is certain that had war followed secession the South would have been the victor. Hence we call Abraham Lincoln "the man of destiny," the only man then living who could have saved the Union, and he died as soon as that stupendous work was finished.

I believe with all the faith nature has put at my command that Woodrow Wilson is "a man of destiny," appointed by Almighty God to reform the state, banish error, exorcise corruption and compose the tempest that rages in every community from ocean to ocean. As was the case when Lincoln was chosen in 1860, Wilson's nomination at Baltimore was long in the wavering balance, but destiny came and named her appointed son for his work.

* * *

If there had been doubt that he was the fittest man to restore the government to the people that distrust was dispelled when Woodrow Wilson delivered his famous address accepting the nomination. It is a masterly production. It is the greatest state paper since Lincoln's Gettysburg oration. No other statesman ever expressed great ideas in simpler speech. It is entreaty to the heart as well as appeal to the reason of the people and here is what it all means: "The oligarchy must give place to the democracy."

I was only a few feet away and heard every word as our candidate read from the printed slips. It was a representative assembly of some thousands. There could be seen a governor of a commonwealth, a representative in congress, a day laborer and a factory girl side by side. There was no caste, no rigorous conventionality. No clergyman in his pulpit ever had profounder attention and no political orator ever had audience who better understood him. Everyone then and there gathered felt that he was listening to an enunciation of principles and policies that are to be put to practical use next March.

* * *

There was nothing new in what Governor Wilson said. Every idea was hoary with age centuries before Christopher Columbus set sail on his momentous voyage that was to give civilization a new world. Here is the central thought; government belongs to the people, and all that is necessary to be done is to take the government out of the hands of the special interests who have had it in ward for their own gain and put it in the keeping of all the people, no one of whom is to have a privilege that every other one does not enjoy.

Now where is the man with intelligence enough to make it safe for the community for him to be at large who will deny that for half a century our government has been anything else in practice but an oligarchy? Corrupt business has bought place and power for the corrupt boss, and the corrupt boss has so fashioned the laws that corrupt business may gather where it hath not strewed. What is the Steel trust but a tariff-made monopoly that forces the people, the whole people, to pay prices that yield it dividends on hundreds of millions of watered stocks? Mr. Taft by his tariff vetoes says that must continue, that the Steel trust is entitled the protective tariff. It is notorious that Roosevelt is the Steel trust's beau ideal of a statesman. He refused to prosecute the Harvester trust, one of its adjuncts. He gave it leave to purchase the Tennessee Coal & Iron company, its chief rival.

* * *

Here is what Andrew Carnegie swore on the subject: "If the steel manufacturers of America, after forty years of nursing, can't do without protection, then the policy is a failure."

But Taft and Roosevelt tell us that our ironmasters cannot get along without protection, and they call on the people to continue that policy for the benefit of Mr. Perkins, Mr. Munsey, Mr. McCormick, Mr. Schwab and some fifty-odd other millionaires who are made tax-gatherers by the protective tariff. Mr. Carnegie made $500,000,000 in iron and steel. He ought to know all about it. Certainly he knows more about it than both Taft and Roosevelt together. But they hold that he knows nothing about it and that the Steel trust must continue to enjoy the uncarned advantages of a protective tariff.

* * *

Governor Wilson is a calm, serene, sedate man. He is a student and a thinker. Wisdom is the rarest quality in an American statesman. In his book Mr. Blaine borrowed this idea from somebody or other—that everything that is good in government is the result of intelligent selfishness, or words of that import. We have had nothing but selfishness in the government every hour of Republican rule, and the worst of it is that the selfishness we have had is far from intelligent. Hence the discontent in every community of every state of the Union.

Col. Roosevelt has appointed himself to reform things, though he was more than seven years president and made no progress in that behalf. Have we warrant to believe that he would do what he failed to do all the years from September, 1901, to March, 1909? He is frank to say that protection shall not be eliminated from the tariff. In a vague way he talks of a revision. We all know what that means. Look at his henchmen: Munsey, the biggest individual stockholder in the Steel trust. Look at Perkins and McCormick, who run the Harvester trust, that even Taft is prosecuting as a malefactor. Look at Woodruff, the little boss of Brooklyn. Mr. Roosevelt will not dare to print the names of the men and the amounts they gave to his campaign fund.

* * *

The trusts grew and waxed stronger under Roosevelt and Taft than under all the other administrations combined. Are the people fools enough to appoint either of them to reform evils that they not only suffered but encouraged while in the White House?

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters should not exceed 200 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

GARBAGE COLLECTION.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I notice that the members of the Woman's Council of Duluth are working to establish municipal garbage collection. I have recently come to this city from the East, and was amazed to find a city the size of Duluth without such a system. Even small towns in the East have municipal garbage collection, and the hap-hazard system here is most unsatisfactory and most expensive. Nothing but the cool climate here, in my belief, has saved Duluth from an epidemic. There is every argument in favor of it, and none against it, and I sincerely hope that the city authorities will take whatever steps are necessary to establish it.

A NEWCOMER.

Duluth, Aug. 19.

Miss Addams Disillusioned.

Springfield Union, Rep.: Sooner or later the most ardent Roosevelter is disillusioned. It was Jane Addams' turn to be when the steam roller was applied to the colored delegates from the South. "Some of us," said Miss Addams, "are much disturbed that this Progressive party, which stands for human rights, should even appear not to stand for the rights of the negroes. It seems to us to be inconsistent when on one page of our newspaper we find that this party is to stand for the working man and the working woman, and to protect the rights of the children, and to prevent usurpation of voters' rights by special interests, and on the next we find that it denies the right of the negro to take part in this movement."

This, however, is only one of the many inconsistencies Miss Addams and other admirers of Roosevelt will discover as the Bull Moose movement proceeds. A party which tries to be all things to all men cannot be consistent in anything.

His Lamb Was There.

Buffalo News: Last month a Cleveland traveling man was married, and was given a month's vacation. He and his bride have been spending their honeymoon in a quiet summer resort. The other evening, as they entered the dining room and sat down, as usual, in a secluded corner, the young husband noticed a very good customer at the table nearby.

"Say, dearest," he whispered, "there's Mr. Jones over there. You won't mind if I go over and dine with him, will you? Think how fine it will be if I get back from my wedding trip with a smashing big order."

The little bride agreed, rather ruefully. Her traveling man hurried over to Jones, shook hands with him, and ordered his dinner, which included roast lamb. Then he began to talk business.

He was so earnest about it that he didn't notice when the waiter removed his meat dishes and placed a desert before him. Then suddenly he looked down at his plate and exclaimed:

"Why, where's my lamb?"

A little voice in the corner piped out, "Here I am, dear!"

Republicans for Wilson.

New York Press: Last week the editor of the New York Press sent private letters to Republican voters, selected at large from readers on its mail subscription lists and not living in New York city or other large cities. The main part of the letter was:

"For which of the following do you intend to vote: Taft, Wilson, Roosevelt? Are you in favor of the plan proposed by the former president of breaking up the present Republican party and forming a new one? For whom did you vote in 1908?"

Of the 1,000 first replying, virtually all voted for Taft four years ago. Of the 1,000 replying, 442 said they would vote for Taft this year, 335 for Mr. Roosevelt, 132 for Mr. Wilson, and 91 said they would not vote at all or were undecided.

Most of those declaring they would vote for Mr. Wilson gave as their reason their disgust with Republican factionalism. Some were voting for him as the surest way, in their judgment, to defeat the colonel and prevent him from breaking up the Republican party. Some of those in the not-voting class said they miht vote for Mr. Taft or Mr. Wilson if it became necessary, in their judgment, to do this to prevent the colonel from breaking up their party. Some of those recording themselves for Mr. Taft lamented his nomination, but would vote for him to prevent the colonel from breaking up their party.

Love Is of the Valley.

Come down, O maid, from yonder mountain height;
What pleasures lives in height ,(the shepherd sang)
In height and cold, the splendor of the hills?
But cease to move so near the Heavens, and cease
To glide a sunbeam by the blasted Pine,
To sit a star upon the sparkling spire;
And come, for Love is of the valley, come thou down
For Love is of the valley, come thou me,
And find him; by the happy threshold, he,
Or hand in hand with Plenty in the maize,
Or red with spited purple of the vats,
Or foxlike in the vine; nor cares to walk
With Death and Morning on the Silver Horns,
Nor wilt thou snare him in the white ravine,
Nor find him dropt upon the firths of ice,
That huddling slant in furrow-cloven falls
To roll the torrent out of dusky doors;
But follow; let the torrent dance thee down
To find him in the valley; let the wild
Lean-headed Eagles yelp alone, and leave
The monstrous ledges there to slope, and spill
Their thousand wreaths of dangling water smoke,
That like a broken purpose waste in air!
So waste not thou; but come; for all the vales
Await thee; azure pillars of the hearth
Arise to thee; the children call, and I
Thy shepherd pipe, and sweet is every sound,
Sweeter thy voice, but every sound is sweet;
Myriads of rivulets hurrying thro' the lawn,
The moan of doves in immemorial elms,
And murmuring of innumerable bees.

—Tennyson, "The Princess."

How to Live to 185.

Toledo Blade: Down in Tuxpan, which is in one of the quieter corners of Mexico, there has just died a man whose years were so many that he could look upon the centenarian as a mere youth, upon the man of 70 as a child, upon children as beings infinitely remote. By the records of state and church, this ancient was 185 years old at the time of his death.

Naturally, we all want to know how he managed it. We learn that he ate whatever he could get his hands upon and whenever he could, being Indian and practicing the Indian's dietary system. He guzzled the strong waters that are brewed and distilled out of such unlovely plants as the cactus and the bayonet palm. His taste in tobacco lacked prejudice or preference. He took what his relatives, or neighbors, or curious visitors brought him and treated the stuff impartially. He was unversed in the modern laws of sanitation, ignorant of the Cult of the Unwrinkled Brow, wholly unacquainted with the works of the prophets and practicioners of the Simple Life. No "Don't Worry" motto was pinned to the wall of his hut.

It seems plain that the rule for longevity is—eat promiscuously, drink the juice of the cactus, smoke or chew, never wash, never think, never read. Before filling the prescription, it might be well to consider whether long life is worth the price.

The Angler.

Yea, little Sadie seemed to know;
When she was asked where sinners go,
Was not a minute stranded;
For quick the youngster made reply
That naughty sinners when they die
With fishermen all landed.

THE GOVERNORSHIP.

People May Will Otherwise.

Fairmont Sentinel: The politicians have it doped out that the breweries, the corporations, the state machine and certain other influences will be able to give Governor Eberhart about 40,000 votes in the primary election. If they are right he will be the Republican nominee for governor with ten or fifteen thousand votes to spare.

Machine at Work.

Albert Lea Tribune: The way a few papers around the state are beginning to see a light regarding Governor Eberhart looks as though the Ed Smith machine was getting in some effective work.

Eberhart Has No Claim.

Le Sueur News: No Republican is bound to support Governor Eberhart for another term of office, by example of Eberhart himself, who was responsible for the candidacy of the late Governor Johnson and a supporter of the latter. We do not question his right to exercise his choice, but we do not question his party fealty. He is a politician, pure and simple, but at that no different to politicians.

Second Choice Is Weapon.

Cokato Enterprise: With so many candidates in the field, the machine politicians have it doped out that the breweries, corporations and state machine will give Eberhart many thousand votes and that he will be the Republican nominee for governor. That looks like good logic; however, if every man who votes will designate a second choice the outcome might be different. Many politicians are telling the voters that it is not necessary to vote a second choice, but if the voter will only read until he understands this part of the law he will see where in it is essential and the only way to avoid a minority nomination.

Sam Stays In.

Coleraine Optic: Although a few of his friends and all of his enemies are trying to induce Gordon to withdraw from the gubernatorial race, Sam flatly refuses to pull out and says he will fight to the last ditch. More power to ye, Sammy!

Peculiar Situation.

Monticello Times: There seems to be a very peculiar situation in Minnesota this year as regards candidates for governor. Eberhart's record should be all the argument necessary to eliminate him. The fact remains, however, that though several good men are in the field, no candidate is as strong today as he should be, and if the various dailies are to be believed, none are of the right caliber to defeat Eberhart.

We believe either Gordon or Lee is a far better man for the place, but both seem to lack the shrewd political management that the present incumbent has at his command, and that is what has made him what he is today.

We should not want to see any man who aspires to the high office of governor have the same kind of management, but he should have just as shrewd and capable aid. Some do not favor third parties, but think some radical change in the present management of one or both of the ones we have in the state would be the proper thing, especially if it will result in giving us a governor who will consider that he is elected by the people, and is to them responsible.

About Ditches.

Perham Enterprise: The governor has returned from a trip inspecting state ditches. It won't take a very big ditch to hold him after the voters get through. It might be possible to bury him in the hole he has made in his contingent fund.

Wobbly Platform.

Albert Lea Standard: Governor Eberhart announces that he will stand on his record. It is a hard prediction, but it is not easy to see how he can avoid it.

Moose Heads Soaring.

Bangor dispatch to New York Sun: Bull moose heads have gone up in price. The word has been passed among the taxidermists that there will be an unprecedented demand for mounted heads in fact, there are but few heads in the market at any price.

People who shoot bull moose generally have the trophy mounted for themselves or sell the head to some one, who has it mounted. The taxidermists pick up a few, but not many. The Bangor fire of last year burned the finest collection of game heads in Maine held for sale, and it is doubtful if a dozen moose heads could be picked up at any price.

Of course the expected demand is for campaign purposes or advertising. One dealer, who has an exceptionally fine head, says that it will take $200 and not a cent less to buy it, and he isn't so sure that he wants to sell it at any price.

The Smoking Habit.

Tobacco Leaf: According to statistics there are consumed in the United States every day 21,718,448 cigars and 23,736,190 cigarettes, without including those rolled by the smokers themselves. These figures are large. Taken alone, they seem to confirm the fears of those who go about dreading the ravages of the cigarette scourge. But measured against the population of the country they are seen to be small. They show a per capita consumption of less than a cigarette a day for the male voting population alone, and considerably less than a cigar a day.

Next!

Tit-Bits: The barber's shop was well patronized, when in walked a shabby stranger.

"Good morning, sir!" called the barber doubtfully.

"Good morning!" replied the stranger. "My good man, will you shave one side of my face for a penny?"

The barber winked at his waiting customers. "Certainly," he replied, "Take a seat, please."

Presently it was the shabby stranger's turn to occupy the seat of honor. "Now, which side shall I shave?" asked the barber, as he waved the lathering brush in the air.

"The outside!" replied the shabby stranger meekly.

CAVE WOMEN AND OTHERS.

Detroit Journal: "When you find your mate, take her. When you have her, live for her. When she arouses your jealousy, beat her. She expects such treatment.

"Every woman sits and waits the coming of her lord. He is masterful. He woos not, beseeches not, implores not, serves not.

"His ancestor simply caught his woman, knocked her down if she resisted, and dragged her to his lair. The nearer the modern approximates this type and method the better it suits the woman."

Dr. William F. Waugh of Chicago says these things. He is not attacking women and he is not defending them. He merely trying to analyze the dulcet creatures in their ways of loving. The heart of his conclusion is:

"There is a constantly thickening varnish of civilization over the man and the woman, but underneath they are identical with the cave man and woman, unchanged at heart. The simple maxims that governed the cave dweller govern humanity today."

When Dr. Waugh wrote that he may have thought it was all right. When a fine-spirited modern woman reads it she may declare it is all wrong. In fact, it is all right so far as some women are concerned.

There are cave women among us, in our churches and societies and in our families. They wait for love not as a soul for its mate, but as a slave for a master. Dr. Waugh has apparently found several specimens of this atavistic cave woman, and immediately announces that the problem of womankind has been solved.

Nevertheless, there are other women among us, in our churches and societies and in our families, who would no more mate with mere physical man than with Caliban in his slime. To them the outward ruddy vigor of the athlete, the fierce selfishness of the physical man, may be interesting like the speed of a pacer or the flight of an eagle. Yet nothing ever appeals to a soul like another soul, and only a man inwardly strong can reach the innermost depths of another's strength.

The whole "problem" of woman's attitude toward men is absurdly simple. Women have the same estimates of men that men have of men. Some men admire athletes, and so do some women. Some men admire poets, musicians, and jockeys, and so do some women. Men and women both died for Napoleon, and men and women have suffered death for Christ.

Some men have utterly false ideas of strength. To give way to anger is esteemed a mark of strength. To indulge and gratify every weak and debilitating appetite is called vigor. And some women have exactly the same false notions of what manhood is, and they admire and choose men accordingly.

For this reason a woman whose life is personally correct will sometimes be swept away by the false appearance of strength and manhood in an uncontrolled youth. And men who are daintily good will make idols of the Byrons and Marlboroughs of old time—their weakness looks so strong.

Titian painted all life for us in his picture of "Sacred and Profane Love." There is a cave-dwelling love which low-browed generations inherit from the days of old, where they see each other "as through a glass darkly." There is a heavenly intimacy which is like the vision of souls in Paradise, seeing face to face.

Wherever the physical life is consciously or unconsciously in possession, the cave woman appears, awaiting for the slave of love and the drudgery of her master's house. These Dr. Waugh sees and records.

But whenever a man and a woman know true strength from false, and the soul from the body, then real Love wings down to them from the clear celestial, and the sign of his coming is not mastery but sacrifice on the part of the man—and not submission but sacrifice on the part of the woman.

Same Old Game.

Big yellow moon and shadowy beach,
(Hands within such easy reach!)
Ribbon flutters from her throat
Whips the wind without regret.
Both catch at it, and forget
To let go hands that met
On the shining bit of silk.

Then he whispered soft and low:
"Hand in hand, dear, let us go Down the years together."
Acquiescently she sighed
She's be true, whate'er betide.
And in swath of moonlight wide
They planned a golden future.

Two weeks later. Same old moon,
But different man beside the dune.
Same loose ribbon in the wind,
Same swift way of catching hands,
(How well a novice understands!)
Same old seaside game.

Was Nice About It.

Kansas City Star: At a meeting of business men a discussion was started regarding a banker who has the reputation for hard bargaining, close fistedness and invariably getting his pound of flesh.

"Oh, well," said one man, "he isn't so bad. I went to see him to get a loan of $5,000 and he treated me very courteously."

"Did he lend you the money?" was asked.

"No," was the reply, "he didn't. But he hesitated a minute before he refused."

COMMERCIAL CLUB PLANS

New Duluth Organization to Lay Out Work for Winter.

Plans for the fall and winter will be made at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the New Duluth Commercial club to be held this evening at the Becklinger hall. Dr. C. J. Wallace, president of the club, will confer with the committees on the work planned for the remainder of the year.

One of the most important matters to be taken up will be the proposed bridge across the St. Louis river at Chambers' Grove, Fond du Lac. A committee will be appointed to take the matter up with the government and a campaign started to interest the county authorities. The plan is to open Wrenshall and Carlton county to Duluth.

The river at Chambers' Grove is 800 feet wide and the necessity of a bridge has been brought up on several previous occasions. Nothing definite has ever been done by the club, although the subject has been discussed at a number of meetings during the past few years. The roads on either side of the bridge and a stretch of two miles near Wrenshall will be improved. Beyond this the road is perfect, running through Wrenshall and down to St. Paul.

Would Divide Eighth Ward.

The plan of dividing the Eighth ward and creating a new ward, with its eastern limit at Seventy-first avenue west, will again be taken up. The reason for this change is that there are 1,000 voters west of the proposed boundary. Reports will also be made by the street railway committees and the water and light committee. The school committee, which consists of Otto Krueger, C. H. Giddings and Dr. C. J. Wallace, will report on its conference with the school board regarding the proposed addition to the present structure.

Following are the committees which were appointed last year: Public affairs—C. H. Giddings, chairman; L. C. Tower, H. C. Damkroeger, W. L. Nash, C. T. Hudson, J. H. Brigham and Otto Krueger. Streets and sidewalks—T. W. Damkroeger, chairman; E. E. Martell, Matt Pretner, John Berger and Frank Brand. Wholesale and retail interests—L. R. Taylor, chairman; M. A. Becklinger, J. T. Youngberg, M. L. Cascaden and E. J. Kulasevwicz. Membership—C. W. Peters, chairman; A. C. Anderson and Charles Strand. Water—U. C. Tower, chairman; C. H. Giddings, M. A. Becklinger, Frank Brand, E. E. Martell and C. G. Strand.

FORMER PASTOR HERE ON HIS HONEYMOON.

Rev. Arthur J. Hoag of Joliet, Ill., former pastor of the West Duluth Baptist church, Fifty-ninth avenue west and Grand avenue, and Mrs. Hoag are spending their honeymoon with friends in this end of the city. They are the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ashley, 135 North Sixtieth avenue west.

Rev. Mr. Hoag was married on Aug. 15 to Miss Alice Mize of St. Paul. They are now spending their honeymoon in West Duluth and plan to leave for Joliet on Sept. 1. Rev. Mr. Hoag is well known in this end of the city, having had charge of the local pastorate for ten years. During his residence here he reorganized the congregation and was instrumental in erecting the present church building at a cost of $5,500.

Rev. Mr. Hoag will occupy the pulpit at the West Duluth Baptist church next Sunday evening. Rev. H. A. Stoughton, pastor of the church, will preach in the morning.

Birthday Social.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Bethany Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, Sixtieth avenue west and Polk street, will entertain at a birthday social Thursday evening in the church parlors. A program of musical numbers and recitations will be given, after which refreshments will be served.

FACTORY GIRL GIVES UP

Too Sick to Work—Doctor Advised Operation. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—"I run a sewing machine in a large factory and got all run down. I had to give up work for I could not stand the pains in my back. The doctor said I needed an operation for female trouble but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me more than the doctors did. I hope that every one who is suffering will get the Compound. My pains, nervousness and backache are gone and I have gained five pounds. I owe my thanks to your medicine for it is the working girls friend, and all women who suffer should write to you for special advice."—Miss TILLIE PLENZIG, 3 Jay St., Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

When a remedy has lived for over thirty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their very lives to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

We challenge anyone to show any other one remedy for a special class of disease which has attained such an enormous demand and maintained it for so many years as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

NEW DEPOT SUGGESTED

West Duluth wants its Soo passenger and freight station erected within the next year, and an aggressive campaign for the depot will be started by the members of the West Duluth Commercial club next week.

The franchise allowed the Soo road required the company to build a passenger and freight station west of Garfield avenue. So far the road has neglected to build any tracks to West Duluth or to construct the station in this end of the city. The business men here say that they will keep after the road until some action is taken.

One of the West Duluth business men has a novel suggestion for the Soo road. His plan is for the Soo road, the Duluth, Missabe & Northern and the Canadian Northern roads to combine and build one union station at the foot of Forty-eighth avenue west. The Duluth, Missabe & Northern passenger trains could be run over the old line from Munger. The Canadian Northern trains will run over their new spur to the bay front. The Soo road could connect with the other roads at this point.

Now that the Northern Pacific road is to build a new passenger and freight station fifty feet east of the present structure, the Soo road and the Canadian Northern might build a union station near the new Oneota bridge at Forty-ninth avenue west. Another good location for the station would be at Fifty-fourth avenue west, with the Canadian trains running into a second floor and the Soo trains underneath.

CHURCH WEDDING.

Miss Julia Oseth and Harold Hadselford United in Marriage.

Miss Julia Oseth and Harold Hadselford were married last evening at the Bethany Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, Sixtieth avenue west and Polk street. The attendants were the Misses Amelia Corneliuson, Clara Thorsen, Christine Hadselford and Messrs. C. O. Grytting, O. Pederson and Thorvald Thorsen.

C. W. Schevenelus, former pastor of the church and at present professor at the Evanston Theological seminary, read the service, assisted by Prof. J. O. Hall of New York and Rev. C. A. Joransen, pastor of the church. The church was decorated for the occasion and the wedding march was played by Miss Sarah Paulson.

After the ceremony a reception and banquet was held in the church parlors. Prof. Schevenlus presided at the banquet table, at which eighty guests were served. Addresses were made by Prof. Hall, A. P. Lund, Magnus Hadselford and R. Jensen. Mr. and Mrs. Hadselford are at home at 127 North Sixty-third avenue west.

Entertain for Guest.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ramsey of 115 North Fifty-eighth avenue west entertained last evening in honor of Lawrence Ramsey of Milwaukee, a brother of Mr. Ramsey, who is visiting here for several days. The evening was spent in games and music after which refreshments were served to the following guests: Misses Nita Murphy, Bessie McCormick, Sara Clark, Agnes Innes, Nell Dunleavey, Grace Dunleavey, Katherine Dunleavey, Anna Larson, Mrs. R. Spencer and the Messrs. Lawrence Ramsey, Lawrence Carey, Clifford Stowell, Heine Heibler, Earl Kilton, George Stone, Arthur Still, Connie McManus, Walter Cross and Manus Linley.

Successful Season.

The New Duluth baseball team has had a most successful season this year. The residents here are all pleased with the members of the team, who have won a majority of their games during the season. The officers of the team are: Frank Wacha, manager; C. W. Peters, secretary; and U. C. Tower, treasurer. The board of directors consists of W. L. Dash, H. W. Connors, L. A. Root, J. O. Johnson and H. A. Fair.

Jail Nearly Finished.

Work on the new jail for New Duluth is rapidly nearing completion and it is expected that the structure will be ready for occupation by the middle of September. Workmen are now finishing the interior decorations and installing the fixtures. The structure is provided with four cells and offices for the policemen and sergeant. The city council recently appropriated $5,000 for the construction of the building.

Confirmation.

Rev. C. A. Joransen, pastor of the Bethany Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, Sixtieth avenue west and Polk street, will confirm a class of twenty boys and girls Sunday morning.

Republican Meeting.

The Republicans of the Seventh and Eighth wards will meet Saturday evening at the West Duluth Commercial club to discuss the present political situation. The meeting is to be held under the auspices of the West Duluth Republican club and is open to the public. Candidates for the state legislature are to be discussed at the meeting.

Bloom Funeral.

The funeral of Myrtle Bloom, the 18-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmer Bloom, 823 North Fifty-sixth avenue west, who died Saturday afternoon after a short illness, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the residence. Rev. W. E. Harmann of St. Peter's Episcopal church officiated and interment was at the Union cemetery.

Mrs. A. B. Kenyon of Alberta, Can., is a guest this week at the home of Mrs. I. P. Swangie, 10 South Fifty-eighth avenue west.

H. Duernberger of Virginia is a guest this week at the home of his sister, Mrs. Otto Krueger of New Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Salter of 632 Central avenue are spending the week with relatives at Barnum, Minn.

The Misses Ida and Martha Schultz of Milwaukee are the guests for the summer at the home of their brother, Otto Schultz, of New Duluth.

Mrs. J. A. Lamborn of Remington, Ind., is a guest this week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry B. Randall, 4601 Magellan street.

Miss Celinetle Beaulieu of Bay City, Mich., is a guest for several days at the home of Mrs. E. E. Martell of New Duluth.

The Ladies' Aid society of Immanuel's Norwegian Lutheran church will be entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thomas Olafson, 6724 Huntington street.

D. M. Mouser of Virginia, a former resident of Fond du Lac, is spending several days here with relatives.

Mrs. C. L. Rakowsky of Solon Springs, Wis., is a guest for several days at the home of her aunt, Mrs. T. Hollenbeck of Fond du Lac.

W. L. Windom of Fond du Lac was called suddenly to Sterling, Ill., on account of the death of a brother. He will return the latter part of the week.

Mrs. C. Y. S. Engstrom of 5215 Wadena street will return tomorrow from Cokato, Minn., where she has visited with relatives for the past two weeks.

Watch repairing, Hurst, West Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rockwell of 403 Central avenue will leave tomorrow for a two weeks' trip in the East.

Mrs. Smith Lester and daughter, Edith, of Des Moines, Iowa, are the guests this week at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. T. F. Hurst, 634 North Fifty-sixth avenue west.

GOPHER WILL RETURN FRIDAY

The United States training ship Gopher with the officers and members of the Minnesota naval militia on board, is expected in port after her attendance at the annual maneuvers, Friday morning.

The trip was unusually successful this year, the Gopher crews taking nearly all the athletic events in competition with the crews of the other boats.

Paymaster Engels has returned, having been unable to make the entire cruise on account of business duties. He left the boat at Chicago and when he left the officers and men were in fine spirits, enjoying the finest cruise in the history of the local naval militia.

The ship's crew made an excellent record this year, but this is taken as a matter of course, for the boys have been consistent winners at the annual maneuvers since first inaugurated several years ago.

WANT BURGESS ON THE BOARD

A delegation of leading business men called upon Mayor McCuen at his office this morning to urge him to appoint William Burgess to the board of public works when the first vacancy occurs.

They represented that Mr. Burgess is not looking for the place, but that he would make an excellent man for such a position. They stated that he has always taken a strong interest in public matters and that they believed he would be able to do much for the city in that capacity.

The mayor explained that he had not heard of any one intending to resign from the board and that the terms of none of them would expire until next spring, when one vacancy will occur. He said that he would take the matter under consideration.

LAND SHOW COMMITTEE WILL MEET SATURDAY.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The land show committee appointed by Governor Eberhart will meet in the office of H. J. Maxfield, commissioner of immigration, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, to discuss details of the exhibit to be given in Minneapolis next November. Agents from the commissioner of immigration's office have been gathering the Minnesota exhibit and report splendid success.

ON THE IRON RANGES

WILL BRING 100 SUITS

Lake Superior Mines Company to Be Sued By Hibbing People.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—About 100 damage suits will be filed against the Lake Superior Consolidated Mines company in the next few days. Seventy-three property owners will sue for damages for depreciation of the value of their property on account of the closing up of avenues of approach to Pine street. Fifteen others will sue for damages for damage to buildings on account of blasting.

The Lake Superior Consolidated Mines company is the operating company of the Sellers mine. Early this month Judge Cant in district court granted the plea of the company for the vacation of that part of the original plat of Hibbing lying east of the west forty lines of the Sellers pit.

Pine Street Men Object.

The vacation closes up certain approaches to Pine street, and the property owners on that street claim damages.

The plaintiffs in the suits contemplated were not named in the court's decision which assessed damages due to certain property owners directly affected by the vacation of the plat.

VIRGINIA MAN IS DEFENDANT

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.—The Pillsbury Realty company today commenced suit in the district court here against John Costin, Jr., a well known local man, to recover $1,459.12 alleged to have been collected for the plaintiff while acting as its agent and not turned over. It is claimed the money was collected during 1910.

Virginia Is Sued.

Mary Devine today brought suit against the city of Virginia to recover $5,000 damages alleged to have been sustained Jan. 13, last, when she fell on an icy sidewalk in front of the Matheson building. She claims the ice on the walk where she fell was about a foot thick rendering the walk very dangerous and that since being injured she has suffered much pain.

Gust Heikkila, a miner employed on the Vermilion range, today sued the Chandler Mining company for $5,000 for injuries sustained Nov. 5 last when a rock fell on him in a drift of the Chandler mine at Ely. He claims he was sent into a part of the mine that was not properly timbered when he was hurt.

CROPS ON RANGE WILL BE LARGE

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Wet weather is delaying the harvest in this section. With the exception of some isolated tracts on high ground but little grain will be cut in this section of the range until the latter part of the week. Oats are ripening slowly, and the crop is of the bumper variety. It is claimed that in the Little Swan country to the south of Hibbing eighty bushels to the acre will not be an unusual yield. The country in the vicinity of Hibbing has experienced a remarkable growth agriculturally this year. The acreage of grains and grasses is double that of last year, and thrashing machines will operate in the country north of Hibbing and in the Little Swan district for the first time in the history of the range, while there are now upwards of a dozen harvesting machines owned in the country immediately adjacent to Hibbing. There has also been done this season a good deal of development work on farm lands. In the Little Swan district several new farms are being opened up, while to the north of Hibbing, particularly in the Sturgeon lake district, there have been a good many acres brought under the plow.

Raising Field Corn.

One of the agricultural surprises of this year has been the successful growth of several varieties of field corn. Not all will ripen, but that planted on high ground, with due advantage taken of the sunlight, will mature and the other will be a great crop for fodder. While this will perhaps not for many years be a corn crop, next to clover and alfalfa corn will be one of the best of the fodder crops it is possible to raise.

Kitzville Incorporated.

St. Paul, Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Papers incorporating the village of Kitzville, St. Louis county, were filed with the secretary of state today. At an election Aug. 1, the thirty-one voters of the town gave their approval to incorporating the town.

SELL ITASCA LANDS.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Aug. 20.—State Land Sales Agent Nelson sold 1,230 acres of state lands in Itasca county here yesterday to buyers from North Dakota, Iowa and other outside points, the sales being one of the best attended in months. The prices ranged from $5 to $25 an acre. The most expensive tract was purchased by Nels Lind of Kiron, Iowa, who paid $25 an acre for lot 2, section 29, 57-26. The bulk of the purchases were forties, although there were a few eighties and a few quarter sections sold.

FOR KILLING SONGBIRDS.

Chisholm, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Heine Popkin, a dealer in second-hand goods, and Frank Rihter were arrested by Deputy Game Warden George E. Wood, on complaint of a number of Chisholm business men, on the charge of trapping and decoying birds. They were arraigned before Municipal Judge W. A. Masters and with them was brought the evidences of their guilt, blue jays, robins and wild canaries—bird cages, bird snares, bird glue and devices made of horse hair for trapping birds.

It appeared from the evidence that Rihter captured the birds and turned them over to Popkin, whose business it was to dispose of them, which he did through peddlers, who gave $1 each for the feathered beauties.

The men enterd a plea of guilty and were fined including costs amounting to $50.75 which they paid.

HIBBING COUPLE ARE MARRIED IN SUPERIOR.

Chisholm, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Yesterday at the home of relatives of the bride in Superior occurred the marriage of Oscar G. La France, editor of the Mesaba Miner of this city and Miss Tillie Ostrom, formerly an employe of the Mesaba Telephone company here. After a short wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. LaFrance will be at home to their friends here. The bride was formerly for some time employed at Chisholm. Mr. LaFrance is known as one of the best printers in the state and is highly successful as the publisher of the Miner.

CHISHOLM MAN'S BROTHER KILLED.

Chisholm, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Chief of Police George Donohue was called to Bay City, Mich., Sunday by the death of his brother. No information was received here of his illness prior to the telegram informing Mr. Donohue of his death and it is thought that he met with some accident.

A service of more than ordinary note took place Sunday at the Catholic church when seventy children took their first communion.

CHISHOLM WOMAN DIES IN DULUTH.

Chisholm, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. O. J. Backman, wife of the assistant postmaster of Chisholm, died Sunday evening at the St. Luke's hospital at Duluth following a lingering illness of more than six months' duration. She was about 35 years of age and is survived by her husband and four small children.

Mr. and Mrs. Backman moved to Chisholm about two years ago and have taken a prominent part in Methodist Episcopal church affairs and have a large circle of friends. The funeral will be held in Duluth Wednesday morning.

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

DUCK SEASON WILL SOON OPEN

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—The trusty gun may be taken from its place in the closet or from the forks over the door within the next few days and cleaned and oiled ready for the fall hunting season. Not many days will elapse before shooting time will be at hand.

On Sept. 7 the season will open for wild duck, wild geese and all other aquatic fowl. At the same time the season for turtle dove, snipe, prairie chicken, pinnated and white-breasted or sharp-tailed grouse, woodcock, upland golden plover opens.

Not till Oct. 1 does the season for shooting quail, partridge, ruffled grouse and pheasant start. The duck season closes Dec. 1. The moose and deer season will open Nov. 10 for twenty days.

"There is plenty of game," said H. A. Rider, executive agent of the state game and fish commission. "The hunters must not get impatient. Time will soon be here when 'the frost is on the punkin, an' the fodder in the shock.'"

VIRGINIA RUNNER IS TRAINING FOR RACE.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Jesse Steitz, the local runner is daily training for his coming race with John Sword, Duluth's famous long distance runner. The race will probably come off some time during the early part of September, or latter part of this month.

There is considerable rivalry between the boys and the matter of having a long distance run has been given much publicity and talk. Terms have been the hitch heretofore, but now that definite arrangements have been completed these boys will without question, race.

The race will be held at Duluth and many of the supporters of Steitz will be in attendance.

SENATOR KENYON'S BROTHER ARRESTED.

Sioux City, Iowa, Aug. 20.—Accused of forgery in connection with operations of a land and gravel company, F. A. Kenyon, brother of United States Senator Kenyon, surrendered to the authorities here today. He was released on bond.

BALTIMORE EXCITEMENT FATAL TO J. M. DEULL.

Rochester, Minn., Aug. 20.—J. M. Deull of Rochester, who had not missed a Democratic national convention in the last thirty-six years, is dead at his home here. It is believed the excitement of the Baltimore convention, which he attended as an alternate, hastened his death. When he returned from Baltimore he lost his voice and was confined to his bed until ten days ago.

TAXES ARE UNBEARABLE

America Is Promised Land to Englishmen, Says Miss Louise Meining.

Duluth Woman Is Playing Role of Moses to Thousands Yearly.

Miss Louise Meining has arrived from Calgary and other points of the Canadian Northwest and will remain in Duluth for two weeks visiting her mother and other relatives. She will then return to London, England, where she is in charge of the immigration and Canadian colonization work of the Canadian Northern railroad. She has been absent two years. Within the past few weeks she brought over to Canada a large number of land-seekers, and after a short vacation will return to England to resume her labors. She says England is beautiful to live in if one has money, but America is better in the "all-'round."

America in general and Canada in chief, Miss Meining says, is the promised land to an overwhelming number of residents of the British isles. Tax oppression is the cause, she says. Concerning this, Miss Meining told The Herald today:

"Lloyd-George, the chancellor of the exchequer, is making life a burden for the average Englishman. He is not content with piling taxes to the unbearable point on land and property in general but is taxing incomes so that not only the small farmers but the professional men of the cities and the smaller towns are getting to the point where they cannot stand it. The result is that we are having more clientage from the professional people, small merchants and small farmers than we are having from the immigrant class. They are really coming over to Canada in hordes and taking up land, even doctors, lawyers and the like dropping their professions and taking to farming. With these and with the small farmers—the preferable class so to speak—we make restrictions. They must be married and have a certain amount of capital, enough to carry them through a season or so, and in this case we sell them 'ready-made' farms, consisting of a house, the necessary out-buildings, forty or fifty acres under cultivation, a well and other necessities. It is then up to them to develop the farm.

"Thousands of them are coming and this year will break all records. I venture to say that Northwestern Canada will see an influx of settlers from the old country this year that will surprise the most sanguine. Unless one is in England the conditions there and the consequent desire to get out cannot be appreciated. The poorer class are in a pitiable condition, and some of them have not the necessary funds to come over and take up homesteads. However, I understand that for the benefit of these a movement is now on foot to finance them. We do not want the scum of the cities and the immigration authorities of Canada have taken steps to prevent the dominion from being made a dumping ground of the riff-raff of London and other places.

Miss Meining went to England first for the Canadian Pacific, but conditions being unsatisfactory and tiring of life in England, she resigned and was about to return to America when she received a very flattering offer from the Canadian Northern, accepted, and has since been in charge of that road's business on the tight little island. She has headquarters in London but has agents in all parts of the British Isles.

Motherhood

The highest point of woman's happiness is reached only through motherhood, in the clasping of her child within her arms. Yet the mother-to-be is often fearful of nature's ordeal and shrinks from the suffering incident to its consummation. But for nature's ills and discomforts nature provides remedies, and in Mother's Friend is to be found a medicine of great value to every expectant mother. It is an emulsion for external application, composed of ingredients which act with beneficial and soothing effect on those portions of the system involved. It is intended to prepare the system for the crisis, and thus relieve, in great part, the suffering through which the mother usually passes. The regular use of Mother's Friend will repay any mother in the comfort it affords before, and the helpful restoration to health and strength it brings about after baby comes. Mother's Friend is for sale at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

"0.00" for more for past 24 hours; third, maximum wind velocity.

FAIR

Listen, girls, the weather man is scared. "Generally fair weather tonight and Wednesday," he says. Doesn't that indicate that he heals the dull rumblings of discontent increasing to a roar that will break into a storm over his head if he doesn't change his ways? Last night was dark and misty. Today is gray, minus the mist.

Warm weather prevailed a year ago today.

The sun rose this morning at 5:12 and it will set at 7:11 this evening, giving thirteen hours and fifty-nine minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"The disturbances centered over the lake region and off the New York-New Jersey coast caused light to heavy showers over most of the Northern and Eastern states during Monday or last night. The weather is clearing throughout the greater portion of the Northwest and his condition will doubtless reach the Head of the Lakes this afternoon or tonight. Temperatures of 90 deg. or higher occurred Monday in Central and Southern states."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—Forecasts for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Wednesday:

Upper Michigan—Unsettled weather tonight and Wednesday; not much change in temperature.

Wisconsin—Generally fair tonight and Wednesday; slightly cooler tonight in south portion.

Minnesota—Generally fair tonight and Wednesday.

Iowa—Generally fair tonight and Wednesday; slightly cooler tonight in east and south portions.

North Dakota and South Dakota—Generally fair tonight and Wednesday.

Montana—Fair tonight and Wednesday.

Upper Lakes—Light variable winds and unsettled weather tonight and Wednesday.

Warrants for Violators.

Warrants for twenty-three alleged violators of the liquor laws of the city, more than two-thirds of the number including charges of selling without a license, will be served today and tomorrow by members of Chief of Police McKinnon's staff. The cases were worked up by a new member of the force, who has been gathering evidence for the past three weeks. The accused will be arraigned as rapidly as possible.

Evidence Against Negro.

Chief of Police McKinnon yesterday received a letter from Warden Hellerstrom of the North Dakota penitentiary containing photographs and a complete description of Delancey Sharlott, the negro now being held as a suspect in connection with the murder of Lazo Knezevick. The letter also states that the negro was in several shooting scrapes in North Dakota and that he had served time in the penitentiary. Sharlott denies the shooting, however.

Officers for Fair.

W. A. Whitney was last evening elected president of the Douglas County Fair association at a meeting held at the Superior Commercial club. Besides the annual election of officers, a constitution was drawn up and plans were made for the county fair this fall. Mayor Konkel was chosen a member of the board of directors.

Body in Slip.

The body of an unknown was found floating in Tower bay slip yesterday afternoon by a small boy, who notified the police. There were no letters or papers on the man's person, but $18.25, a key ring and a hotel key were found in his pockets. The body has been taken to the Le Sage undertaking rooms.

MONSTER BANQUET FOR JAMES J. HILL.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—St. Paul will honor James J. Hill on his seventy-fourth birthday, Sept. 16, with one of the largest banquets ever given a citizen in the Northwest. The banquet will be held at the Auditorium and 1,200 will be served. Mr. Hill has accepted the honor. No definite program of speakers has been decided on, but Archbishop Ireland is certain to be one of them.

PREUS TELLS LODGES THEY SHOULD ADVERTISE.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Education of the public through advertising was advocated by Insurance Commissioner J. A. O. Preus of Minnesota at the session of the Associated Fraternities of America here today.

"Your method of educating the public in the value of your insurance," said Mr. Preus, "has in the past been through personal contact. But need you confine yourselves to this method? I have never been able to see why lawyers, doctors and other professional men should refuse to advertise and make their practices more remunerative, instead of allowing the profits to go to the quack, the patent medicine man and the ambulance-chaser.

"The greatest educator of the age is the newspapers."

The Associated Fraternities are to pass on the proposed repeal of certain sections of the so-called Mobile law before they adjourn.

and rye 17 bushels. Reporter, George H. Mattson.

Goodhue county—Thrashing only 10 per cent done. Oats will average 30 bushels, good quality; barley runs 14 to 30, average 20; except somewhat colored. Rye averages 25 bushels good quality. Reporter, S. D. Warren.

Crow Wing county—Estimated yields of small grain: Barley 40, rye 30, oats 40 to 75, wheat 25 to 35. If frost holds off until Sept. 10, corn will be as good as last year. Potatoes are good, will yield 100 to 250 bushels per acre. Reporter, A. R. Holman.

Red Lake county—Ludolph Johnke thrashed 22 bushels of fall rye per acre; Tom Whaten thrashed 24 bushels of rye per acre; J. D. Houston thrashed 41 bushels per acre; V. Cote's oats thrashed 29 bushels per acre. Reporter, V. M. Higinbotham.

Morrison county—Wheat will go from 15 to 25 bushels; oats up to 80, rye to 35. One field thrashed 32 bushels of rye, one of oats 65. Corn is looking good, and will mature a fine crop if frost holds off until Sept. 10. Reporter, F. B. Logan.

Lincoln county—All small grains will yield better than in years. Corn a fine crop here, and the yield is expected to be larger than in years. Have had some heavy showers, but harvest is so well along that no harm is anticipated. Reporter, J. H. Brown.

Nicollet county—Shock thrashing about half done, forty acres thrashed 1,489 bushels barley, machine measure; thirty-five acres of rye thrashed 843 bushels; corn is backward. It will require favorable weather to properly mature.

Cottonwood county—Sixty-five acres of oats yielded 4,585, weighing 35 pounds per bushel; fifty acres of barley yielded 1,730 bushels, thirty-five acres of rye thrashed 1,400 bushels. W. Belton thrashed 51 bushels of barley per acre. Albert Thompson's barley went 48 bushels per acre. Harry. York thrashed 26 bushels of wheat per acre; 45 bushels of rye per acre, and 60 bushels of oats per acre. Oats will average 60 bushels here, rye 45 or better. Some reports of oats going 90 to 100 bushels. Reporter, Benjamin A. Cone.

Hubbard county—J. W. Jackson, Dorset, thrashed 32 bushels of winter wheat per acre. Several pieces of winter rye went from 25 to 35 per acre. The straw is not very long this year, but the grain is well filled. Cutting is about half done. Reporter, J. H. Dixon.

of the killing, of the gathering of the gunmen and how he and Rose waited for the news of Rosenthal's death.

It was after the murder was committed that Schepps played his most important part in the Rosenthal affair. That was as a go-between for Lieut. Becker and the panic-stricken Rose, who was hiding in an uptown apartment house.

Schepps said he made several visits to Becker to consult with him as to what course Rose should pursue. Becker, he said, advised Rose to remain in hiding, but Rose was thoroughly frightened and wanted to give himself up.

Bankers to Testify.

Several bank officials who have information regarding Lieut. Becker's bank accounts have been subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury.

Schepps' counsel, Bernard Sandler, declared his client would make a clean breast of everything.

Other witnesses examined today were the clerk of a hotel at Far Rockaway where the gunmen celebrated after the shooting, and a photographer who made a group picture of them there. Detective Casassa testified in regard to the police hunt for the murder suspects. Charles B. Plitt, described as Beckers' press agent, also testified.

These witnesses, it was said, completed the testimony desired by the district attorney before he asked the grand jury to present a blanket indictment.

Wants Some Silk Socks.

Sam Schepps' first act today was to give the keeper of the west side prison a list of articles he desired. These included an eiderdown quilt, six pairs of white silk socks, to be purchased at an exclusive Fifth avenue haberdashery, which Schepps designated, a pair of slippers and many toilet articles.

sign from this body," said Mr. Rainey today, delivering a carefully prepared speech. "I do not think, however, that the cause of water power conservation in Tennessee would suffer if the gentleman's connection with the house would cease. The gentleman will be missed if he resigns, however, by water power lobbyists. But those interested in water power conservation will not regret his absence from this body."

Surprised His Colleague.

Recently Mr. Rainey objected to bills by Mr. Austin to provide for seventeen dams in Tennessee, two of which were to be in the congressional district of a colleague, Representative Sells, who knew nothing of the bills until after the subject had been discussed in the house, according to Mr. Rainey. Mr. Rainey charged that under the Austin bills and the omnibus dam bill, the Tennessee Hydro-Electric company was to have a franchise to erect four dams in the Clinch river and one dam in the Powell river; the Clinch River Power company was to erect another dam in the Clinch river, and five Morristown, Tenn., citizens were to erect two dams in the Clinch river, "a harmony remarkable enough to excite suspicion," said Mr. Rainey.

He referred to what he called the "absolute bad faith of all these Tennessee enterprises," and said he knew "of no better illustration as to what unscrupulous water power manipulators can do with a water power than the illustration furnished by the Knoxville Power company.

Deal to "Deliver City."

"This company," he said, "made the first attempt to deliver the city of Knoxville and all of that territory to the water power trust. It had five incorporators. The records of the secretary of state of Tennessee show that Richard W. Austin was one of them, the same Richard W. Austin who now represents the Second district of Tennessee."

Mr. Rainey said that prior to Mr. Austin's congressional career the Knoxville Power company had been "turned over to manipulators and managers of international reputation;" that "it is possible to produce at any time the admissions of the gentleman from Tennessee that he had been authorized to assist Former United States Treasurer Charles H. Treat in disposing of franchises."

Mr. Rainey said Charles H. Treat, George B. Sullivan and Richard W. Austin, on May 4, 1910, gave to F. R. Weller of Washington an option to dispose of the holdings of the Knoxville Power company for $160,000, which, on Aug. 29, 1910, "was accepted by the Aluminum Company of America, closely allied with the General Electric company, the very largest of the six water power groups in the United States."

Close Relationship.

"No member of this house is on closer terms of business relationship with the representatives of the great power trust than the gentleman from Tennessee," said Mr. Rainey.

"The trail from his congressional office here leads to the office of F. R. Weller of Washington, to the office of Charles H. Treat, former treasurer of the United States; to the firm of Cromwell & Sullivan, dealers in interoceanic canals and water power properties; to the banking firm of the Kuhns in Pittsburg and to J. P. Morgan & Co., the bank of the General Electric company."

Mr. Austin sprang to his feet immediately at the conclusion of Mr. Rainey's speech, and with intense bitterness began his reply. He referred to Mr. Rainey's indictment of Charles P. Taft in connection with Panama canal acquisition, and declared that those charges had not been proved.

"The Defamer From Illinois."

"And the gentleman from Illinois," he added, "was unmanly enough not to retract his slanders."

He referred to Rainey, who sat only a few seats away, as "the defamer from Illinois," and declared that his water power bills had been passed upon by the house interstate commerce committee, "every member of which is the peer of the gentleman from Illinois."

Aunt Sally's Advice to Beauty-Seekers

W. C. D. says: "My elbows are so thick-skinned, gooseplmply and muddy, I can't wear short sleeves. How can this condition be overcome?" Don't use elbows as props. The treatment recommended to Minnie L. will make your elbows quite presentable.

Ellen B. asks: "What should I do for deep lines under my eyes and across my forehead?" Such lines, and all wrinkles, are best obliterated by bathing affected portions in a good astringent and tonic lotion, which strengthens and draws in the relaxed tissue. Here's a reliable formula: 1 ounce powdered saxolite, ½ pint witch hazel; mix and use daily until entirely relieved.

Minnie L.: The undue redness, as well as the pimples, may easily be removed by using ordinary mercolized wax. Apply nightly like cold cream and erase mornings with warm water. Soon you'll have a beautifully white, clear, soft and velvety complexion. Mercolized wax, sold by all druggists, is better than cosmetics for any complexion trouble. One ounce suffices for most conditions.—Woman's Realm.

SMOKER FOR TRAFFIC MEN

An informal smoker given at the Kitchi Gammi club by local railroad officials to the visiting steel and iron company officials last night ended their pilgrimage to Duluth and the iron ranges.

F. T. Bentley of the Illinois Steel company of Chicago said that for the first time in the history of the country industrial business is going on without being affected by politics. He said also that if the various steel mills of the country did not receive another order they have enough ahead to keep them running full force until the first of the year. He asserted also that if the Duluth steel plant was in operation now it would be provided with orders enough to keep it running to capacity.

The visitors left for their homes last evening. The local men present at the smoker last evening were: J. B. Hanson and C. W. Kleswetter of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern, H. Johnson of the Duluth & Iron Range and E. E. Simmons of the Oliver Mining company.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Show Girl."

Rube Welch and Kittie Francis and their big company, who will appear at the Lyceum for one week, commencing today, will present what is called "The Show Girl." The company contains an ensemble of well known people. There is Rube Welch, the author-producer, who appeared last season in the South as co-star with Kittie Francis in "The Midnight Sons" company. Miss Francis is the chief mirth producer in the revue. She does no part of a daughter of Erin as only a really and truly daughter of the old sod can, and supported by a singing chorus of twenty Broadway beauties.

HOUSE ADOPTS THE NEW NAVAL PROGRAM.

Washington, Aug. 20.—By a vote of 151 to 50, the house today adopted the conference report on the naval appropriation bill. The measure, which will not go to the president, provides for one battleship and a number of submarines, colliers and auxiliary vessels. Thirteen members opposed to the battleship program voted "present."

DOOKS LOSE TO DEACONS

Johnson's Wildness and Altman's Great Fielding Beat Sox.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 20.—The Deacons won from the Sox yesterday by the score of 5 to 2. Wilson was steady and stingy in the matter of hits throughout the game, while both Johnson and Worman were wild and erratic. The wildness of Johnson was responsible for part of the runs of the locals, two passes being issued with the bases crowded. A walk, a sacrifice, a double and single gave the Sox their two runs in the first round. Sensational fielding on the part of Altman cut off runs for the Sox.

PEGGERS TAKE OPENING GAME

Canucks Pile Up Early Lead and Beat Red Sox 7 to 5.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 20.—Winnipeg started strong in the first game with Superior, piling up seven runs in the first two innings of yesterday and winning out by a score of 7 to 5. The visitors did not get started until the Peggers piled up a commanding lead. After this the visitors played a dogged, up-hill game, but the lead was too large.

GIANTS INCREASE THEIR LEAD OVER THE CUBS.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 20.—The New Yorks added another game to their lead over Chicago in the race for the National league pennant by defeating St. Louis, 5 to 2. The leaders started the scoring in the second inning. Murray singled, but was forced by Herzog. Sallee hit Myers and Fletcher, filling the bases. Crandall then singled to left, scoring Herzog and Myers, Fletcher stopping at second. Snodgrass singled over Smith's head, scoring Fletcher, but Crandall overran second and was out. In the next inning Becker's single, followed by Murray's three-bagger gave the visitors another run. The home team scored in the fourth, when Konetchy singled, went to third on a single by Evans and scored when Hauser sent a sacrifice to Murray. Evans scored when Oakes doubled to left field. In the eighth inning Becker singled to center, stole second, went to third on Wingo's throw to center, and scored the Easterners' last run when Oakes' throw got past Smith. Score:

RED SOX WERE LUCKY IN GAME WITH TIGERS.

Boston, Aug. 20.—The Red Sox were lucky in winning from Detroit, 4 to 3. It was the only game played in the American league. Two of Boston's runs were made possible by Detroit's errors. A third run was forced in when Willett passed Wagner with the bases filled. Detroit bunched four hits, including Crawford's triple, for its three runs in the third.

The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Boston	4	8	3
Detroit	3	9	3

Batteries—Bedient and Carrigan; Willett and Stanage. Umpires—Dineen and O'Brien.

SAINTS TAKE FIRST OF SERIES FROM COLUMBUS.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20. — St. Paul defeated Columbus in the first game of the series. Dauss and McQuillan were engaged in a pitchers' battle, the former getting the best of the argument. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
St. Paul	2	10	1
Columbus	1	8	3

Batteries—Dauss and Marshall; McQuillan and Smith. Umpires — Hayes and Anderson.

INDIANS TAKE LEAD AND BEAT KANSAS CITY.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—Two errors, a walk, two singles and a three-base hit gave Indianapolis four runs in the first inning and Kansas City was unable to catch up. In the seventh Baxter's error, McKee's single and E. Williams' sacrifice fly scored O. Williams, while McKee's home run over the right field fence ended the scoring in the ninth. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Indianapolis	6	10	1
Kansas City	2	10	3

Batteries—Taylor, Hixon and McKee; Powell and James, O'Connor. Umpires—Ferguson and Handiboe.

HOMER RESPONSIBLE FOR COLONELS' VICTORY.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 20. — Schlei's home run over the fence with two men on bases in the second inning was enough to beat the home club, 6 to 2. Moskiman was steady in the pinches. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Milwaukee	2	8	0
Louisville	6	10	2

BOSTON FIGHTER IS OUTCLASSED

Bout Between Jeannette and Jeff Madden Stopped in Second Round.

New York, Aug. 20.—Joe Jeannette, who expects to meet Jack Johnson next month, met Jeff Madden of Boston in a 10-round bout in Madison Square Garden and so out-classed his man that the fight was stopped in the second round. Jeannette weighed 196, five pounds more than his opponent. The Boston pugilist appeared to poor advantage at the start, and in the second round went to the floor three times. A short right uppercut put him down the first time and he was so weak from this and previous punishment, that he practically fell down twice.

There were two other 10-round bouts on the program, the best of which was a draw between Jesse Willard of Kansas City and Luther McCarty of Springfield, Mo. McCarty was awkward, but did most of the forcing. Willard had the advantage of reach and twenty pounds in weight, however.

Jim Savage, a fighter of Rockaway Beach met Tom Kennedy, the local heavyweight. Savage was trained to the minute, while Kennedy was in poor physical condition. The referee stopped the bout in the seventh after Kennedy had taken a beating in almost every round, and seemed on the verge of being knocked out.

Tom Sharkey was introduced to the large crowd present and said he intended to re-enter the ring and wanted to meet Bob Fitzsimmons or Tommy Burns.

Bout Is Assured.

Assurance that the proposed bout between Jack Johnson and Joe Jeannette would be staged in this city, advanced a step when the McMahon brothers, proprietors of the St. Nicholas Athletic club posted with the sporting editor of a New York newspaper a certified check for $5,000 as a forfeit binding them to stage the bout at the St. Nicholas A. C., on Sept. 25. It was said here that Johnson was expected to post a $5,000 forfeit in Chicago tonight. There is still great doubt that the state athletic commission, which regulates boxing in New York state, will allow the two negroes to meet here. Some months ago, when promoters here were trying to get Johnson to appear, the members of the commission let it be known, that they would oppose the idea. It had been expected that the athletic commission would meet to decide upon its attitude in the present instance, but the meeting was not held.

READY FOR THE TENNIS TOURNEY

Arthur Barnes has been appointed tournament manager of the Head of the Lakes tennis tournament, play in the preliminary round of which will begin tomorrow. The play of tomorrow will be for the local entrants. None of the out-of-town players will begin play until Thursday.

Richard Close, J. B. Beacher, Carroll Graff and C. E. De Witt have been appointed members of the committee of general arrangements and will have general charge of the tournament.

Frank Warner, court caretaker of the Minikahda club of Minneapolis and who has been making and taking care of tennis courts for the past twenty-nine years, arrived yesterday and has started work on the courts at Oatka. He is expected to have the courts in the best shape they have ever been for a tournament.

It is expected that the out-of-town players will begin to arrive tomorrow morning.

New Swimming Record.

St. Helliniers, N. J., Aug. 20.—Miss Vera Neuve established a new woman's record for a mile open swim when she swam the distance in 31 minutes, 41 4-5 seconds. The previous record was held by Miss Annette Kellerman, the Australian swimmer, whose time was 32 minutes 44 seconds. Miss Neuve is the holder of the 300-meter swimming record for women. She is well known in England as the winner of many local championships, and she was the victor last year in a 15¼-mile race for women in the Thames.

BASEBALL MAKES OUR ATHLETES INVINCIBLE

A. G. Spalding Says Youthful Training on Diamond Is Responsible for Olympic Victories.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—A. G. Spalding, who was appointed by the late President McKinley American commissioner to the Olympic games at Paris in 1900, and who follows all athletic events of whatever character with the keenest interest, has a theory about the invariable success of American athletes in international contests that is original and worthy of consideration.

"Of course," said Mr. Spalding, "I am not surprised at the result at Stockholm. History has been repeating itself in this way ever since the celebration of the Olympic games was inaugurated at Athens. America won the victory there in 1896; she triumphed again at Paris in 1900; our athletes defeated the contestants at St. Louis in 1904; the victory was ours at London in 1908, and it was a foregone conclusion that we would win at Stockholm.

Why Do We Always Win?

"But there is food for thought in this uninterrupted succession of triumphs. Why do our athletes always win? All other things being equal, the contestants in the country holding the event should naturally come to the front. Their numbers are always greater than those from any other country and the home grounds influence is strong. However, that advantage has not in any case prevented American success.

"Therefore there must be a cause. What is it? Measured by scale and tape, our athletes are not so much superior as a class. The theory of 'more beef' must be discarded. We may not lay claim to having all the best trainers of the world. We must look to some other source for American prowess.

"I may be a prejudiced judge, but I believe the whole secret of these continued successes is to be found in the kind of training that comes with the playing of America's national game, and our competitors in other lands may never hope to reach the standard of American athletes until they learn this lesson and adopt our pastime.

"The question, 'When should the training of a child begin?' has been wisely answered by the statement that it should antedate his birth. The training of baseball may not go back quite that far, but it approaches the time as nearly as practicable, for America starts training of future Olympian winners very early in life. Youngsters not yet big enough to attend school begin sharpening their wits and strengthening their hands and arms and legs by playing on baseball fields ready at hand in the meadows of farms, the commons of villages and the parks of cities all over the land. Baseball combines running, jumping, throwing and everything that constitutes the athletic events of the Olympian games. But above all, it imparts to the player that degree of confidence in competition, that indefinable something that enables one athlete to win over another who may be his physical equal but who is lacking the American spirit begotten of baseball.

Stand Competition.

"An analysis of the 1912 Olympian games shows that the Americans showed to best advantage in contests where the stress of competition was hardest. In the dashes they were supreme; in the hurdles they were in a class by themselves, and in the high jump and pole vault there was no one worthy of their steel. Whenever quick thinking and acting was required an American was in front. Does not this fact prove that the American game of baseball enables the player to determine in the fraction of a second what to do to defeat a contestant?"

JOHNNY KILBANE TO VISIT DULUTH

Little Champion Will Come Here on Pleasure Trip.

Johnny Kilbane, champion featherweight of the world, is going to pay Duluth a visit within the next ten days. This information was given out yesterday by a Cleveland friend of the little champion, a steamboat man, who is here on one of his regular trips.

Johnny will come up the lakes on one of the freighters and will remain over for several days. His friend said that the speed marvel of Cleveland was also anxious to see the great iron mines of the Mesaba range and that he would probably go to the iron country during his visit.

Local followers of boxing, if given the opportunity to meet the little champion, will behold one of the cleanest boys that has ever entered the boxing game. Kilbane is married and is the proud father of a baby girl. He neither drinks, uses profanity, or tobacco. He is, like Packey McFarland, one of the new school of fighters—one of the kind of boys that is removing the stain from boxing and making the game reputable when handled in the right kind of way.

It is expected that Kilbane will be in Duluth somewhere around the first of the month.

Teddy Bears Win.

The Teddy Bears defeated the Blue Ribbons by a score of 6 to 4. The game was well played throughout and was seen by a large crowd. The batteries for the winners were Garrish and Galop; Learned and Selgel for the losers. Garrish made a home run.

CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES.

Plans Being Made to Settle the City Baseball Title.

Plans are being considered at the present time for a series of baseball games between the Adams, Fitwells, Jeffersons and probably one other team for the championship of the city. The Adams will bring a strong team into the field for the finish of the present season and are anxious to meet the teams that have the best claim on the city title. It is likely, according to the present plans, that the four best teams of the city will be selected and a series of games arranged for the city championship.

Johnson Starts Grind.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—Jack Johnson will go into active training today for his 10-round encounter with Joe Jeannette in New York on Sept. 25. Last night Jack said there would be no more late hours for him until after this fight. He said he would pass a little time around his cafe every evening, but that it will be to the feathers early.

As the boxing commission of the Eastern metropolis handed down the edict that Jack could not box a white man in New York, Johnson is anxious to get in the best of shape and give Jeannette a trimming. Johnson will do all his road work over the South side boulevards. Marty Cutler and John Respess will act as Johnson's sparring partners. He will not leave for New York until a few days before the fight.

BASEBALL NOTES

Birdie Cree is the only regular among the New York Highlanders hitting for .300 or better.

Jean Dubuc is the leading pitcher of the Detroit Tigers, having won fifteen of his first twenty games.

Twenty-eight players in the National league and twenty-two in the American league are batting in the .300 class.

A brother of Johnny Evers of the Cubs is to receive a tryout from Manager McGraw of the Giants next spring.

A Boston fan rolled over and yelled, "If Boston is the hub of the universe, Speaker is the greatest 'spoke' in the wheel."

Derrill Pratt, the Southern league recruit, is playing a sensational game both in the field and at bat for the St. Louis Browns.

Manager Jimmy Callahan has added two promising youngsters, Catcher Ray Schalk and Pitcher Ralph Crabb, to his White Hose outfit.

The Cleveland Naps have been coming along strong of late, and it's a pretty safe bet that the Davis outfit will finish in the first division.

The Boston Braves had a chance to sign Eppa Rixey, but couldn't see him and the Quakers jumped in and signed the University of Virginia star.

Boston and Washington ran neck and neck during their Western trip. The Red Sox won ten games, lost five and tied one, while the Senators copped ten contests and lost six.

Bob Bescher of the Cincinnati Reds is the "speed king" of the National league. Bob leads the organization both in run-getting and base stealing.

Joe Kelley's Toronto team has come to the front on the run and is giving Rochester and Baltimore a real battle for the International league pennant.

The Pirates and the Cubs did great work during their Eastern trip, and if they can keep up the pace at home, the Giants will have to go some to hold their own.

One noticeable feature of the American league race is the fact that very few fans throughout the country would begrudge the Senators a pennant. Washington never has had anything that resembled a championship, and the majority of the fans are pulling for "Old Fox" Griffith's boys to win.

SEVEN NEW CARS ARRIVE

Street Railway Company Receives Last Installment of New Equipment.

The last seven of ten new cars, which were ordered by the Duluth Street Railway company some time ago, arrived in the city on flat cars yesterday and are being unloaded. It was necessary to purchase additional cars for the opening of the new Ninth street extension. This will be in service, it is expected, about Sept. 15. Its opening has been delayed by the non-arrival of the new switches which will be used at Fifth avenue east and Fourth street.

The route of the new extension is up Fifth avenue east to Fifth street, Fifth street to Sixth avenue, up Sixth avenue to Seventh street, east on Seventh street to Seventh avenue, up Seventh avenue to Ninth street and over to Fourteenth avenue east, where the line terminats at the entrance of Chester park.

It is planned by this new line to give a twenty-minute service to the people of the East End hillside district. The new line will probably have its western terminus at the loop at Eighth avenue west.

The ten new cars have cost the company $60,000. They are of the most up-to-date type. The rear platforms have floors of asphalt. Each has a seating capacity of fifty and when crowded will carry more than 100 inside.

GENERAL PROBE OF BOAT LINES

House Committee Sends Out Inquiries to Water Carriers.

Washington, Aug. 20.—A comprehensive inquiry into the inter-relationship of steamship lines has been instituted by the house committee on merchant marine and fisheries. To nearly 500 water carriers, embracing practically every company and firm of any importance in this country, the committee has mailed a schedule of forty-two inquiries, designed to secure data regarding ownership, agreements, conferences, or the many other methods of control or alliance, the relation of the steamship lines to railroads and other transportation agencies, and the prevailing practices with reference to fixing rates and treatment of shippers. The inquiries are based upon a resolution recently passed by the house directing the investigation.

Representative Alexander of Missouri is chairman of the committee. "The committee," he said, "begins this investigation without any preconceived idea."

MILWAUKEE "400" SCANDAL.

Divorced Woman Sues Former Husband and Family

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 20.—Charging a conspiracy on the part of her husband's family to alienate his affections and that the conspiracy was successful to such an extent that on May 20, 1910, he fraudulently procured a divorce while she was visiting friends in New York City, Mrs. Katherine N. White has started suit for $100,000 against her former husband, Arthur G. White, her husband's mother, Mrs. Catherine Scamon, his aunt, Mrs. Helen Tuttle, and Charles H. Gilman, son-in-law of Mrs. Scammon.

The matter, which has heretofore been hushed up, crept out Monday when Judge Lawrence W. Halsey signed an order citing the plaintiff to show cause on Aug. 24 why certain parts of Mrs. White's complaint should not be stricken out as being irrelevant and scandalous.

The suit has much interest among Milwaukee and the eastern "Four hundred," because of the high social position of the Scammons and Tuttles and the immense amount of money said to be represented by the defendants in the action.

It is claimed that the combined wealth of Mrs. Scammon and her sister, Mrs. Tuttle, is conservatively estimated at between $30,000,000 and $50,000,000. In Milwaukee the family has immense property holdings and it is said, owns the controlling amount of stock in one of the largest tea and coffee houses in the United States, in addition to other property in New York City and Asbury Park, N. J.

WOULD PERMIT WIFE TO SEE DYING HUSBAND.

Congressman Clarence B. Miller is endeavoring to obtain the sanction of the department of commerce and labor in Washington to permit Mrs. Nestor Norlund to enter the country from Finland and proceed from New York to Duluth to see her husband, who is dying from consumption at the St. Louis county poor farm. Mrs. Norlund will otherwise be barred from the country, for she has only sufficient money to pay her way, and it has been intimated that unless friends come to her relief the law will be invoked. A telegram from Congressman Miller urges that Finnish friends communicate with him at once regarding the matter.

GATES' DEAD DOG IS IN SILK-LINED COFFIN.

New York, Aug. 20.—A funeral of state will be accorded next Monday to the pet dog of the late John W. Gates, financier, which is dead here. The dog, of which Mr. Gates thought so much that he had its portrait painted, has been embalmed and lies in state in an uptown garage, in a coffin lined with white silk. About the dog's neck is a gold collar with gold bells, especially made for him in Paris. There is a pillow of flowers contributed by employes and relatives of the Gates family. The body is to be taken to Port Arthur, Tex., to be interred on the Gates estate with fitting honors.

BOOSTER BASEBALL DAY SHOULD CAUSE INTEREST

Fans Can Help Make Day a Success By Assisting in the Sale of Tickets.

(BY BRUCE.)

Come, little baseball brother, and help boost the Booster day.

The date, remember, is on the first day of September, which comes on Sunday.

The proposition is simple and eminently fair; one that should appeal to all lovers of sport and all those who believe that good sportmanship should be rewarded by appreciation.

During the present season the few men who have stood as sponsors for the Duluth Baseball team have dug in their pockets for the support of the team. They have placed a pennant-winning aggregation in the field, digging deeper for the coin in the yawning face of a deficit, simply that the gonfalon should be brought to this town. The result of this zealous desire to put the best team possible in the field, has proved costly.

There is only one way to get out of the season anywhere near even—and that is by having one of the largest crowds that has ever attended a baseball game in this city.

Between the two arch conspirators, rotten weather and indifference upon the part of the baseball public, a few men have been allowed to bear the brunt of the financial burden.

The directors of the club are not going out and asking for money; but it is the fairest proposition, in the world to ask that every lover of sport help in the sale of tickets, and that he do his individual part in making Booster day by far the biggest baseball occasion that we have ever had in Duluth.

There has been rain on Saturday and about every Sunday of the home schedule. It was on Saturdays and Sundays that the directors hoped to get some of the money back. They are still hoping.

Every man in the city who refuses to buy a ticket for Booster Day should be rather ashamed. A town without baseball is a hopeless and lonesome place—especially is this true of a city of the size of Duluth. But Duluth can't expect baseball if the few men financially responsible for the paying of the players must face a deficit at the end of every season.

Some people have stated that they don't care whether we have baseball or not. Perhaps that's true; and yet, on the other side of the conversational fence, there are lots of people who want baseball, even if they don't go to the games, and it is only natural that these people will help make Booster Day the event of not only this season, but of all of the seasons that we have had baseball here.

Every man asked by the directors so far has stated that he is willing to help sell tickets. Every ticket anyone sells will help sell another ticket. Any man in Duluth who cares enough about the team and appreciates the position of those behind the team, can do his little part in making this day a huge success. He can get tickets to sell for the asking—and every one he disposes of puts a little stitch in the banner of Booster Day success.

Booster Day, coming on the first of September, will be next to the last day of the season. It is believed that Duluth will have the pennant cinched at that time. Booster Day will serve a double purpose. It will serve to show that the fans appreciate the sportsmanship of those who have paid out their money without complaint for the support of the team, and it will also serve the opportunity of showing the members of the team that their playing of the present season has been appreciated.

It is up to you, Mr. Fan, to get out and shout the cause of Booster Day. Let the present season be marked by one day when the bugs of the city poured forth to the ball park and overflowed stand and bleachers and circled the field. This would be a fitting windup of the season and will show the directors of the team that their efforts are not entirely unappreciated.

Those who wish to help in the cause can secure tickets by calling on Harry A. Blume, room 6, Winthrop building. Mr. Blume has the tickets in his possession at the present time. The booster buttons will be here not later than Thursday. They have 5,000 ordered and you are wanted to help in the sale of these before the first day of September.

Get out and be a booster.

ANOTHER SKIN GAME UNCOVERED —By C. L. SHERMAN

EXTENSION IS GRANTED

The council last night granted Contractor A. E. Dahl an extension of time until Sept. 15 to complete the paving of Glenwood street between Fifty-fourth and Sixtieth avenues east.

The aldermen agreed that it is high time that the practice of allowing the contractors extensions whenever asked for by them should be stopped. Last spring the council passed a strong resolution to the same effect, but it was felt last evening that it would hardly be fair to make Mr. Dahl the "goat," singling him from many other equally laggard contractors.

In accordance with a resolution passed last week, Dahl appeared before the council last evening to show cause why the extension should not be denied. He cited extenuating circumstances, based chiefly upon rainy weather and the difficulty of getting labor.

Aldermen Bernard and Hicken were opposed to the granting of an extension. They stated that while they have no personal animosity for Mr. Dahl, and that he might have been unfortunate in being before the council to defend himself, they believed the collection of penalties for delayed jobs should be started at once.

Aldermen Curren, Hogan and MacDonell were of the opinion that the circumstances warranted granting Mr. Dahl the extension. They said that the position of the council should be a warning to other contractors. The resolution granting the extension carried by a vote of 10 to 3.

* * *

The council did not hear the first reading of an ordinance to make it lawful for chauffeurs to stand on Superior street between Fourth and Fifth avenues west. Instead the city fathers passed a resolution giving it as the sense of the council that the machines be allowed to stand in that block until Jan. 1, 1913. This leaves the present traffic ordinance as it was, as an ordinance is necessary to amend an ordinance, an amendment having to follow the same procedure as the original ordinance.

The ordinance requested by the chauffeurs regulating the solicitation of trade was passed without opposition. Under its provisions it is unlawful to solicit passengers for any vehicle for hire on the sidewalks.

An appropriation of $325 for filling and leveling the site of the West Duluth library was allowed.

The board of public works reported on a number of small sewer jobs in the city and was ordered to proceed with them.

The council passed a resolution recommending to the conference committee that a levy be made for the construction of a culvert and fill at Sixty-first avenue west and Grand avenue.

AUTO VICTIM BEGS HUSBAND TO KILL HER.

Petaluma, Cal., Aug. 20.—Mrs. E. W. Mason, wife of the secretary of an oil company, lay in the road beside their overturned automobile fatally injured, and begged her husband to end her agony by shooting her. Ten minutes later death relieved her.

The Masons were en route to Petaluma when Mason lost control of his car, which veered into the ditch and overturned. Mr. and Mrs. Mason both were pinned under it. Mason could reach his horn, and honked for help. They finally were released by farmers who heard the call. Mason will live.

GOOD FOR TRUSTS, SAYS ROOSEVELT

Colonel So Characterizes Results of Wickersham's Attacks.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 20.—"The more suits against the trusts that are brought to a conclusion the way Mr. Wickersham brought the Standard Oil and American Tobacco cases to a conclusion, the better it will be for the trusts," said Col. Roosevelt last night. "If Mr. Wickersham will conduct to a similar conclusion a few more suits of the same kind, he will confer benefits upon the trusts such as all of them put together cannot confer upon themselves."

Col. Roosevelt made this statement when he was told that Attorney General Wickersham had been quoted as saying that the Taft administration had done more to break up the trusts and enforce the Sherman anti-trust law than had been done by the Roosevelt administration.

The only method of dealing with the trusts which was more absurd than the present administration's, he said, was that recommended by the Stanley congressional committee. The proper way to meet the question, he continued, was outlined in the Progressive platform, which advocates an interstate industrial commission to regulate corporations. Col. Roosevelt dropped the work of the campaign for the day and saw no visitors. He said he expected to see no one until he went to New York Wednesday before leaving for Wilkesbarre, Pa.

MAINE TO GO DEMOCRATIC

That's the Promise for the State and National Elections.

Republicans Torn By Dissensions and Wilson's Chances Are Best.

Portland, Me., Aug. 20. — Maine holds its state election Sept. 9, two months before other states, with the exception of Vermont, and votes for state officers and representatives in congress. Heretofore, with presidential campaigns pending, returns from the September elections of Vermont and Maine have been scanned with interest by politicians the country over. This year the outcome of these elections will be of no less interest. For the first time in fifty years Maine went Democratic in 1910, a Democratic governor and legislature being chosen, two of the four Republican congressmen failing of re-election, while the two re-elected received the smallest pluralities ever before known.

Fate played into the hands of the Democrats of Maine as though it had decreed that the Republicans of Maine should be wholly deprived of power and altogether humbled. To succeed Hale, a Democratic senator was chosen. Then death removed the surviving Republican senator, William P. Frye, and a Democratic governor named one of his party to fill the vacancy. By legislation every Republican office holder of the state, with one exception, was removed from office. Death created vacancies on the state's supreme bench, which had never known more than one Democratic member out of the seven, so that the court within a few weeks will have a majority of Democratic members. Two supreme court judges, for years Republicans, were supplanted by Democrats. Even police and municipal courts are now presided over by members of that party. With two exceptions, every county in the state has a majority of its officers from the Democratic party.

Two Years' Political Overturn.

All of these changes have been brought about in one way or another in two years. The political overturn has completely demoralized the strong Republican organization. That organization is now in the throes of a political campaign, fighting for its existence, threatened from without by a confident and well-led foe, and threatened from within by an element held within party lines only with utmost difficulty, and which is only waiting word from Oyster Bay to throw open the gates to the enemy, and by division on the eve of battle, make all prospects for Republican victory utterly hopeless.

Democrats will force fighting in Maine along national issues. Republicans will endeavor to side-step these issues and confine argument to state and local matters. The Democrats will bring Woodrow Wilson, Champ Clark, and other Democratic leaders into Maine to help carry the state. The Republicansc do not dare to bring any of their national leaders into the state for fear of creating a split and division on national issues between Taft and Roosevelt Republicans. If Maine goes Democratic in September, it is certain to go for Woodrow Wilson in November by an enormous plurality. On the other hand, if Maine goes Republican in September, if by no means follows that it will go for Taft in November. Roosevelt's chances of carrying Maine are believed by his supporters to be excellent, but those who claim to know say that nothing can prevent the electoral votes of Maine being counted for the Democratic presidential candidate.

With all state offices in their control, and the prospects of many plums to bestow from a Democratic national administration; with experienced leaders who are confident of victory and who have money, energy, and hope to help them complete their organization, with Republicans torn by dissensions, suspicious of their leaders and their candidates, distrustful of one another, and absolutely disorganized, it would not be a risky wager that Maine not only goes Democratic by an overwhelming vote in September, but also at the November election following.

SIX-YEAR-TERM BILL GOES OVER

House Will Not Act on It Until the Winter Session.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The Clayton bill to amend the Federal Constitution so as to provide a single presidential term of six years was reached by the house, but after an objection by Representative Cooper of Wisconsin, the resolution was sent over to the winter session of congress.

Mr. Cooper was waiting for it to be reached on the calendar of bills on which unanimous consent was necessary, and he fired his objection instantly across the chamber. Mr. Clayton sought ineffectually to get in a word of explanation, and the speaker had to remind him that his bill had been objected to.

IS RUN DOWN BY HIS FOES

American Who Defied British Government in Africa Is Killed.

James Ward Rogers' Last Defiance Is Thrilling Story of Jungle.

London, Aug. 20.—Hunted down by British soldiers in the depths of the jungles of Central Africa, where for years, in defiance of all authority, he had pursued the career of an elephant poacher and illicit ivory trader, James Ward Rogers, an American, is dead. He was shot down by a little force of troops which had been sent into the wilderness in pursuit, with orders not to return without the outlaw dead or alive.

News of Rogers' death comes formally to the British colonial office from Capt. C. V. Fox, inspector of Mongalla province, who commanded the expedition. Although told in an official report, the story revealed is one of the most dramatic in the colonial annals.

For years Rogers had carried on his lawless trade, which popular opinion credited with netting him a fortune. The remote regions along the Lado Enclave and Congo boundaries were the scenes of his operations. Time after time British officials of the Sudan had tried in vain to trap him. It was this defiance of years which determined the government to crush the old man.

Uncrowned King of Jungle.

Capt. Fox's report shows that in his long operations, Rogers had done more than had been dreamed of by the colonial office. He had established an organized administration over the wild, trackless country, and among the natives was a virtual, if uncrowned, king.

The success of the outlaw in handling his "subjects," and in pursuit of his trade drew from Capt. Fox, in his report, the tribute that Rogers' work was worthy of a better cause.

Not since the explorer, Henry M. Stanley, pierced the jungle in 1871 and found Dr. Livingston has such a tale of hardships, trials and dangers come out of Africa. Capt. Fox's report, in this respect, resembles most nearly, perhaps, the tale of Gen. Funston's dogged pursuit of Aguinaldo in the Philippines.

For the purpose of tracking the outlaw, the English commander was given a non-commissioned subordinate and six Sudanese soldiers. Body carriers and mules for the transportation of supplies were part of his equipment. His instructions were plain—not to return until the outlaw was captured.

With a soldier's disregard for red tape, Capt. Fox, in his report, fails to mention dates in describing the manhunt. Apparently the denouement of the jungle drama came three months ago.

Led on Hard Chase.

The pursuers then had spent weeks plunging through the jungle that almost defied passage, Rogers cunningly leading them through the densest of swamps and forests and across deep streams. Before the outlaw was overtaken, he had crossed the Nile into the Belgian Congo.

Creeping up the Uganda bank of the Nile, the expedition pushed forward for six weeks before the quarry was located. Fox and his men then had worn their clothes to tatters and their supplies were exhausted, leaving them facing starvation in the wilderness.

The last twelve hours of the pursuit were particularly trying. The chase led over a mountain, with Rogers' men only a short distance in advance. As they fled, ape-like natives of the outlaw sent back taunts and jeers at their pursuers.

Dramatic in the extreme is Capt. Fox's description of the death of Rogers. In the jungle into which they had descended from the mountain, his party came suddenly upon a camp. A native approached the English officer and said:

"The commander wants you to come in. He is sick and cannot come out."

Found Him in Hut.

Entering the hut, Capt. Fox found himself in a room dimly lighted by a candle. A white man was lying on a couch, and beside him sat a companion, also white. For a time there was a dead silence, Capt. Fox believing he had been led into a trap. Then he asked:

"Which is Mr. Rogers?"

"Mr. Rogers has been shot," replied the outlaw's companion.

"Yes," interrupted Rogers, "and by your men."

"Come, stand right here so that I can look at you," Rogers continued. His eyes were blazing and from beneath a blanket he drew a revolver and pointed it at the officer.

"I am a dying man, I guess," he said. "I did not think they could kill old Rogers, but they got him this time. Still you are in Belgian territory and you stand more chance for arrest than I do."

Fearing that the revolver which menaced him might be discharged at any moment, Capt. Fox argued with the outlaw to gain time. Finally Rogers turned to his companion, whom he addressed as doctor, and said:

"I want you to witness what I say, doctor. Capt. Fox, I am a dying man, so I would not lie about anything. This was my show and all my work. I am afraid I have brought you into trouble, doctor. Well, I had my good times, as well as bad. I can't stand religious people. If you have religions just live up to them."

His Last Words.

A noise in his throat interrupted the old man's words.

"Say, did you hear that?" he exclaimed. "That's the death rattle. I've heard that too many times to make any mistake."

The prediction proved correct, for those were his last words.

Throughout his talk with Capt. Fox Rogers shielded his white companion and did not reveal his identity. Capt. Fox's report also is singularly silent on this point, as he says he did not know the doctor. It is thought likely, however, that this was done to protect the man.

BULLS AND BEARS EVEN

Changes in Prices of Wheat Irregular and in Narrow Range.

Flaxseed Market Is Lifeless Here—Distant Futures Lower.

Duluth Board of Trade, Aug. 20.—Bulls and bears broke even today on the wheat warkets of North America. Brokers seemed to be generally in a waiting attitude and trading was slack. Duluth September wheat closed ⅛c higher and December unchanged to ⅛c lower. Duluth cash wheat today again closed 10c over September. Durum closed ½c off, rye ½c up and oats and barley unchanged. Duluth September flaxseed closed unchanged, October 2c off and November ½c off.

Wheat fluctuations on the markets of North America today were within a very narrow range, and the changes that appeared at noon from yesterday's close were slight. There were still many reports of rains through the great grain region of the Northwest, but west of this was a vast area of dry weather, which gave promise of a dry spell over the harvest fields in the very near future. This kept the markets from being bulled. There was a report from Grand Forks about the heads of wheat in that neighborhood being smaller than was generally thought, but not much heed seemed to be given to this. The American primary wheat receipts were much larger than those of a year ago.

Duluth September wheat, which closed yesterday at 93⅜c bid, opened today at 93½c, and at noon was quoted at the same figure bid. Minneapolis September and Winnipeg October were slightly lower, but Chicago September was up a little.

Liverpool wheat today closed ¼@½d lower. Earlier in the day it was bulled by reports of rain in the United Kingdom and more damage, less favorable European crop reports and a decrease in the European visible supply. Later in the day, however, there was a spell of profit-taking, which brought the market down.

Flax Market Lifeless.

There was scarcely any trading on the Duluth flaxseed market this morning. Five cars arrived for inspection. This was an unusually large receipt of flaxseed at this time of the year. Offers amounted to little, however, and the distant demand was slack. The promise of drier weather seemed to bear the distant futures. September at noon today was unchanged, but October last night closed 6c off at $1.65. London Calcutta August and September today closed 2⅝c off at $2.10⅞.

The Grand Forks Herald of this morning says: "Stephen Collins of this city, who has made a thorough inspection of grain fields in the district north of Grand Forks, particulary in the northern part of this county, believes there will be disappointments in the matter of wheat yields. He says the heads have not filled as well as they should have and that the grain is light. Farmers expecting big yields in many cases will have to be satisfied with an average of 15 bushels or less to the acre, according to his idea of the situation."

Minneapolis indemnities: September puts, 91¼ cents asked; calls, 92¾ cents bid; December puts, 92 cents asked; calls, 92¾ cents bid.

* * *

It is expected that within the next ten days flaxseed of this year's crop will be arriving from Montana on the Duluth market. The Minnesota flaxseed will probably come about the same time. Minneapolis, being farther south than Duluth, will probably receive some of this year's flaxseed first.

The Minneapolis Commercial West says:

"The flax harvest is now on in earnest and flax is being cut in different parts of Minnesota and the Dakotas and in Eastern Montana. It is calculated by some of the local crushers that with two weeks more of good weather 75 per cent of the flaxseed crop will be out of danger of frost and that nothing but a long period of wet weather could then seriously damage it. Although considerable flax has already been cut, it is not likely that there will be a movement of flaxseed to the Minneapolis market sufficient to permit the mills to operate at full capacity before the middle of September. In another week or two the railroads will be pretty well congested with grain traffic, and wheat and barley will have the start of flaxseed.

"Opinions, very naturally, differ widely on the probable size of the flaxseed crop. Montana is the greatest puzzle this season, owing to the rapid increase in acreage in that state, and to the fact that the acreage in flax is widely scattered, making a careful estimate practically impossible. Prof. Shaw, formerly of the Agricultural College of Minnesota, and now with the Great Northern road, estimates the acreage in Montana at 1,000,000 acres. Other close observers think that 500,000 to 600,000 acres covers the probable area. The crop will doubtless average 10 bu to the acre, which will give Montana from 5,000,000 to 10,000,000 bu. Until harvest is completed it seems that an estimate of say 28,000,000 bu for the total flaxseed crop may be high enough."

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Wheat Moves in a Rut With But Narrow Price Range.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 20.—Wheat prices were in extremely narrow range and the market was in a rut. September closed unchanged from yesterday. December ⅛c higher and May ⅛@⅜c higher. Local elevator stocks decreased 140,000 bu for three days.

Carlot wheat receipts follow: Minneapolis today, 283; week ago, 185; year ago, 207. Duluth today, 14; week ago, none; year ago, 38. Winnipeg today, 148; week ago, 139; year ago 75.

Cash wheat was much easier today and premiums were lowered again. No. 1 northern blue stem, sold for 5c to 7c above September and the velvet chaff variety for 1c above. Elevators bought velvet chaff. The milling demand was limited.

Millstuffs: Shipment 1,469 tons. Demand fairly active and mills well booked ahead. Price unchanged.

Wheat: September opened 92c; high, 92c; low, 91⅞c; close, 91¾c. December opened, 92⅜@92½c; high, 92⅝c; low, 92¼c; close, 92⅜c. May opened, 96⅝c; high, 96⅝@96¾c; low, 96½c; close, 96⅝@96¾c. Closing cash prices:

No. 1 hard, 97¼c; No. 1 northern 92¾@96¾c; to arrive in August, 95¾c; No. 2 northern, 88¾@94¾c; to arrive by Sept. 5, 93¾c; No. 3 wheat, 86¾@91¾c; No. 3 yellow corn, 75@75½c; No. 3 white oats, 30@30¼c; No. 2 rye, 65@66c.

Bran in hundred pound sacks, $18.50@19.50. The Minneapolis flour market continued active. Big orders were booked although not evenly distributed. Some mills were said to be making price concessions which others were not willing to meet. Shipping directions on old orders prompt and prices unchanged. Shipments 47,551 bbl. Leading local patents in wood f. o. b. Minneapolis, $4.80@5.15; other patents, $4.55@4.80; first clears, $3.30@3.55; second clears, $2.25@2.50.

Flax—Receipts 3 cars; year ago 5; shipments 1. Demand strong for light flax offerings. Spot No. 1 seed sold for 8c above Duluth September. Closed $1.90.

Barley—Receipts 63 cars; year ago 28; shipments 41. There was a fair demand for liberal barley receipts today and market was quoted steady with yesterday. Close 38@67c.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Wheat Is Somewhat Firmer on Early Light Offerings.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—Offerings were light in the early trading today and the wheat tone was somewhat firmer, continued reports of rain tending to strengthen prices, which started from unchanged to ¼@⅜c higher. December opened a shade to ¼c up at 92½c to 92⅝@92¾c and rested at 92¼c.

The market was listless, later moving in narrow limits; moderate offerings meeting a restricted demand. The close was steady, with December ⅛@¼c higher at 92⅝c.

Corn displayed a moderate demand and no great offerings were presented. Weather conditions helped to give a firm tone and the opening was unchanged to ⅜c up. December started at 53¼c to 53½c unchanged to ¼c higher, touched 53⅝c and rested at 53⅜c.

A fair cash demand developed later and toned up the market, September making relatively larger gains. The close was strong at practically the top, September finished 1c higher at 70⅝c, after touching 70¾c. December closed ⅜@½c up at 53⅝@¾c.

Oats responded to the other markets and ruled slightly firmer, fluctuations being within narrow limits. At the start September showed an advance of ⅛c at 32c and December opened a shade to ⅛c higher at 32⅝@32¾c.

January provisions showed some firmness, pork starting with a gain of 5c at $19.05 on investment demand. The nearby options were easy, ranging between 2½c and 7½c decline.

October products started with pork $18.15, 5c down; lard, $11.05 to $11.02½, 2½c to 5c off, and ribs, $11.90, 7½c lower.

Cash grain: Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.04@1.06; No. 3 red, 98c@$1.04; No. 2 hard, 94¾@95¼c; No. 3 hard, 93¾@94½c; No. 1 northern, 98c@$1.05; No. 2 northern, 97c@$1.03; No. 3 northern, 94c@$1; No. 2 spring, 95@98c; No. 3 spring, 93@97c; No. 4 spring, 88@95c; velvet chaff, 88@96c; durum, 90@95c. COPPERS ARE THE FEATURE

Amalgamated Rises to Its Best Price in the Last Hour.

Some Improvement in the General List and the Close Strong.

New York, Aug. 20.—Activity in coppers and shares of the smaller steel companies was the dominating feature of today's heavy operations on the stock exchange. Transactions in Amalgamated and Anaconda at rising prices were vastly greater than combined dealings in such leaders as Steel, Union Pacific, and Reading. A few of the equipment stocks notably Westinghouse, also were in demand but the speculative favorites moved within narrow limits.

Their sluggishness pointed to an increase of bearish sentiment among professional traders, who seemed disinclined to take up the minor securities.

Bonds were steady.

There were no features of interest at the opening of today's stock market. Most of the leading issues were practically unchanged, the only gains of more than fractions being in such stocks as Ontario & Western and Western Maryland. Canadian Pacific sold slightly under, with moderate pressure against Great Northern.

There was a demand for specialties in the first hour, especially those embracing the copper and independent steel companies. Leading issues failed to hold their early improvement.

Canadian Pacific declined 1½ points. Coppers were sustained at their best prices, but other shares were neglected.

Coppers continued to advance in the late afternoon with a slight hardening of prices elsewhere, including Pennsylvania and some specialties.

The market closed strong. On very large dealings, Amalgamated Copper rose to its best of the day in the last hour, with some improvement in the general list.

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: The feature of today's trading was the sale of twenty-two head of extra heavy draft horses to Morris Irwin of Cloquet, Minn. Mr. Irwin is a good judge of horses, and selected one of the best carloads of horses that ever left this market. A number of small shipments were made to Michigan and Wisconsin points. W. H. De Lancey, John Montgomery, and G. M. Hughes are on the market with carload shipments of big horses. There was a light demand for family drivers and delivery horses. Values as follow:

Cotton Market.

New York, Aug. 20.—Cotton market opened steady at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 2 points and during the first few minutes sold 7 to 9 points above the closing prices of yesterday on firmer late cables from Liverpool and a continuation of yesterday's buying movement. Private predictions for showers in South Texas checked the advance, however, particularly as reports from a traveling crop expert indicated favorable conditions in Georgia and Alabama and the market during the middle of the morning was nervous and unsettled, with prices back to about the closing figures of yesterday under liquidation and bear pressure.

Spot closed quiet; middling uplands, 11.80; middling gulf, 12.05; sales 30 bales.

Futures clased easy. Closing bids: August, 10.93; September, 10.97; October, 11.15; November, 11.18; December, 11.23; January, 11.16; February, 11.22; March, 11.28; May, 11.35.

London Stocks.

London, Aug. 20.—American securities were quiet and featureless during the early trading today. At noon prices were from ¾ above to ⅛ below yesterday's New York closing.

Amalgamated Copper improved on Wall Street support, but the rest of the list moved uncertainly. The closing was irregular.

New York Grain.

New York, Aug. 20.—Close: Wheat—September, $1.01⅝; December, $1.00⅝.

COPPER STOCKS CLOSE HIGHER

Copper stocks rose to a higher general level today. Amalgamated made a very noticeable advance, closing almost $2.50 higher. Hancock gained $1.50. There were also advances in Chief Consolidated, North Butte, Giroux and Calumet & Arizona. Butte & Superior was an exception to the general movement, closing at a loss of more than $1.75. That stock was sold heavily at Boston by Hayden. It was generally thought that his customers were taking profits in Butte & Superior in order to subscribe to their new Alaska gold proposition. The general stock market of New York today closed with the general level varying little from that of yesterday's close. There was quite a bullish tone, however, to the copper metal market of London, where both spot and futures today closed 12s 6d higher than yesterday.

* * *

Paine, Webber & Co. received from Foster at Boston, the following closing copper letter:

"All interest in the stock market centered in the metal stocks today. Amalgamated, Anaconda and American Smelters were steadily accumulated. The advance was consistent and there was hardly any reaction. Selling in all sized lots was readily absorbed and the close showed a net advance for the day of 2¼ points in Amalgamated. The volume of buying shows clearly that it could have been only for insiders, and it certainly looks as if the stock was on its way to 100. The present earning power amply justified such appearance, and there is every indication of a further advance in the metal. The local coppers were slow to sympathize with the movement, but confidence gradually increased all day and just at the close the buying of the local stocks was the best seen for a long time. The general average of the local coppers is four or five points lower than it was earlier in the year when copper was selling at 15 cents, and is 15 points lower than the high of 1911 when copper was selling at only about 13½c. We have no hesitation in advising the purchase of producing coppers for a substantial advance."

* * *

Gay & Sturgis received the following copper closing letter from Boston: "Certain metal stocks were conspicuously strong, namely, Amalgamated, Anaconda and Utah Copper, and showed very substantial advances for the day.

"Boston tagged on in a pathetic manner. One or two issues showed slight gains but no real buying that amounted to anything. Ordinarily the strength in Amalgamated today would have caused a good broad market. The amount of it is, the public are still very timid. Sentiment may change any minute, but there was little sign of it manifested in today's market."

WILL ISSUE MORE STOCK

A special to Paine, Webber & Co. from Boston says: "The Butte & Superior company will increase its capital stock from 250,000 shares to 350,000 shares through the issue of 100,000 shares of new stock at $37.50 per share. Special stockholders' meeting will be held Sept. 24 to take action on proposed increase. Stockholders of record Sept. 26 may subscribe for one new share for every eight shares held. First installment of $15 will be payable Oct. 15, the second installment of $22.50 Dec. 14. The new funds will be used for exploratory purposes and the possible acquisition of properties now under option and adjoining those now owned by the company. This would seem to dispose of the rumored formation of a new company to take over these optioned properties, the stock of which was to be offered pro rata to Butte & Superior shareholders. Transfer books close Aug. 23."

WANT SECURITIES RETURNED TO THEM.

C. J. Petruschke and wife, in a suit started in district court today against the Waters-Clark Lumber company and Harry G. Gearhart, claim that they gave the defendant company and Mr. Gearhart, its attorney, securities amounting to close to $20,000 to cover supposed indebtedness to the defendant company, but which they found afterwards did not rightfully exist. They claim that, on the other hand, the Waters-Clark company is indebted to them. They ask that the transaction be declared null and void, that the court order the securities to be returned to them and that the defendants be enjoined from beginning suit to foreclose on certain property involved in California. Judge Dancer issued an order to have the defendants show cause why they should not be so enjoined, the order being returnable on Aug. 24.

John D. McDonald has begun suit in district court against the unknown heirs of Louis Rock and others to clear title to the east half of the southwest quarter of 11, 65-14.

Pacific Light & Power Corporation

FIRST AND REFUNDING 5 PER CENT GOLD BONDS

DUE SEPT. 1, 1951

Outstanding - $10,000,000

The Pacific Light & Power Corporation is controlled by H. E. Huntington, of Los Angeles, and sells electricity for power, lighting, and street railways in Los Angeles and vicinity, developing at the present time approximately 75,000 horse-power, of which 55,000 is steam radiated.

Radiating from Los Angeles in all directions there are at present about 1,100 miles of interurban electric lines, which will be increased fully 1,000 miles during the next three years. Of the present mileage, this Company supplies current to 869 miles, and with the completion of the intended extensions, an enormous increase in the demand for current will result.

To provide for its increasing business, this Company is now constructing at Big Creek, about 275 miles from Los Angeles, a hydro-electric development with an initial capacity of 53,000 horse-power and an ultimate capacity of 160,000 horse-power, upon which initial development, and transmission lines therefrom, this issue of bonds is a first mortgage.

Earnings of the present properties are sufficient to meet all fixed charges, including this issue. The substitution of this hydro-electric power, when completed, for the present steam-generated power will result in an operating economy sufficient to cover the interest on these bonds.

STRIKES AND HEAVY FOGS

Are Delaying Package Freighters at Height of Season.

New Strike Declared at Port Arthur—Coal Moving Freely.

The fog and thick weather on Lake Superior of the past few days are delaying the boats to some extent, some of them going to anchor at different points and thereby losing time. This with the strike at Buffalo of stevedores which is inconveniencing package freight boats, slackens the pace of lake shipping at a time when the season should be at its height.

News was received in the city this morning of a new strike at Port Arthur. Railroad truckers on the docks and in the sheds have gone out for higher wages and but little freight is being moved. The men ask 27½ cents. They have been receiving 25 cents. This with trouble at Buffalo, will seriously cripple package trade for an indefinite period.

A strike was just settled at Port Arthur recently. It is understood that the present strike is by the men known as "steadies," those steadily employed. The other strike was by the men known as "extras" or those who worked when there was a boat in port.

Coal came up the lakes more freely yesterday and today, about ten cargoes being received at the several docks. The delay of the vessels has given the docks at the lower end of the lakes time to get caught up with the commodity. It will come faster from this time on, it is expected.

Ore is moving at a great rate. Wild vessels as well as contract and Steel corporation boats have all they can do at the present time. Many of them are still coming up light although this is not as frequent as earlier in the season.

The work of tearing out the old wooden dock at elevator B is finished and this morning a crew started the work of putting in a concrete dock. It is thought that it will be ready for use by the first of the month, the foundation having been completed some time ago.

CHINESE ARE PERTURBED

Duluth Celestials Anxiously Inquire for News of Dr. Sun.

Chinese residents of Duluth are very much interested, and, in fact, excited, over the rumor that has come over the wires to the effect that Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the moving spirit of the revolution which resulted in China becoming a republic, has been assassinated by order of the president of China. Several of them have been anxiously telephoning The Herald today to find out whether or not confirmation of such a tragedy has been received. The lack of such confirmation seems to be pleasing to all of them.

Chin Ong, a leading Chinese resident of the city, and who runs a chop suey house here, was particularly anxious. He told The Herald that he does not believe that the doctor has been sacrificed, for he said, he does not think that the president of the United States of China would be so foolish even were he desirous of getting rid of Dr. Sun.

"Dr. Sun Yat Sen," said Chin Ong, "is our greatest man, and we would be very sorry indeed to hear that he had fallen at the hands of an assassin. I do not believe that the president would order or support such a move for Dr. Sun resigned the presidency, and is not seeking power, so therefore is not to be feared in that way. He is working for the enlightenment of China and that is why we all are anxious for his preservation. If the doctor is assassinated I believe that it is not at the hands of the republicans of China but that he is the victim of some of the supporters of the old order of things.

"All Chinese in Duluth feel the way I do, I know, and in fact, practically all of the Chinese in America do."

SHERIFF'S EXECUTION SALE—

Under and by virtue of an Execution issued out of and under the seal of the District Court of the State of Minnesota, in and for the Eleventh Judicial District and County of St. Louis, upon a judgment duly rendered in the Municipal Court, of the City of Cloquet, St. Louis County, Minnesota, on the 12th day of March, 1912, in an action therein, wherein John F. Ryan was Plaintiff and W. H. Peterson and Bessie A. Peterson, Defendants, in favor of said Plaintiff and against said Defendants for the sum of one hundred ninety-four and sixty-eight-hundreths ($194.68) dollars, a transcript of which said judgment was thereafter and upon the 8th day of August, 1912, duly filed and docketed in the office of the Clerk of said District Court in and for St. Louis County, Minnesota, which said execution has to me, as Sheriff of said St. Louis County, been duly directed and delivered, I have levied upon and will sell at Public Auction to the highest cash bidder, at the Sheriff's Office in the Court House, in the City of Duluth, in said County of St. Louis, on Tuesday, the 1st day of October, 1912, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, all right, title and interest that above named judgment debtors had in and to the real estate hereinafter described, on the 8th day of August, 1912, that being the date of the filing and docketing of said Judgment at the Office of the Clerk of the District Court in and for said St. Louis County, Minnesota, or any interest therein, which said judgment debtors may have since that day acquired. The description of the property being as follows, to-wit:

Lot one (1), Section twenty-nine (29), Township fifty-one (51), Range eighteen (18), West of the Fourth Principal Meridian, situated in St. Louis County, Minnesota.

Dated, Duluth, Minn., August 9th, 1912.

BACON ATTACKS THE WORK OF AMERICANS IN NICARAGUAN WAR

Wants to Know By What Right Marines Were Landed.

Grave Apprehension Felt of Clash Between Yankees and Rebels.

Nearly Whole Garrison of 500 Massacred at Leon.

WILL LAND 2,000 MEN WITHIN TEN DAYS

Washington, Aug. 21.—Complete arrangements to throw a force of 2,000 bluejackets and marines into Nicaragua within ten days to protect foreign lives and property and keep railroad communication open from the American legation at Managua to the Pacific coast, were made today by the navy department.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Senator Bacon today asked the senate to authorize its committee now investigating the charge that recent revolutions in Cuba and Mexico has been promoted by Americans, to report upon what authority United States forces had been landed in Nicaragua. A resolution to that effect was referred to a committee to report upon the probable expense.

In addition to the marines and blue jackets ashore in Nicaragua from the three American war vessels, the Annapolis, the Tacoma, and the Justin, American Minister Weitzel has asked for details at Corinto and at St. Juan del Sur, both on the west coast. It is necessary to hold these ports in order that communication may be maintained between the cable station and the American legation at Managua.

More Men Coming.

The gunboat Denver, under rush orders, should arrive at Corinto Sunday. She will land about 150 blue-jackets, bringing the total of the American force ashore up to 700 men. This force could be increased, if the conflict between the factions in Nicaragua continued, by a draft of marines from Mare Island navy yard.

There is grave apprehension of a clash between the American forces and the rebels, who appear to have assumed an overbearing attitude. In this connection it is reported that when Minister Weitzel undertook to com-

GOOD CHANCE OF AVERTING STRIKE

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Officials of the two street railway systems of Chicago were prepared to submit a definite proposition to their employes today as they resumed negotiations with union leaders and Mayor Harrison.

While the offer of the traction officials dealt with working conditions only, it was expected the proposition would bring about a break in the deadlock which has existed for two days. In the event of working conditions being satisfactorily adjusted, the vital question of wages, heretofore untouched by either side in the controversy, then will be taken up. There was a possibility of both questions being settled before nightfall.

CHURCH THIEVES ARE DESTRUCTIVE

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Burglars entered the Episcopal church here last night and left a mass of wreckage behind them, but as far as has been ascertained they secured no booty.

Indications are that the men were after the silver service used in the church. Every place where it seemed likely it might have been kept was broken open, and the contents of several closets was strewn about. In apparent disgust at not securing the silver, the burglars returned to the auditorium and raized havoc with the fixtures and furniture. Cushions were torn and chairs and benches mutilated, and the altar shows signs of rough usage.

There is nothing to indicate who the marauders were.

LINDBERGH BACK; HAS SEEN TEDDY

(From The Herald Washington Bureau.)

Washington, Aug. 21.—Representative Lindbergh returned today from New York, where he went for a conference with Col. Roosevelt about conditions in the house of representatives, which will be discussed in Progressive literature this fall.

It is reported that Roosevelt also wanted Lindbergh to run for the senate, but he got no encouragement from the Sixth district congressman.

CASE OF SEATTLE QUITS REPUBLICANS.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 21. — Otto A. Case of Seattle, who had filed as a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, announces that he will withdraw from the Republican party and seek the nomination in the Progressive primary, Sept. 7. Case's withdrawal leaves only two men seeking the Republican nomination. Three besides Case are in the field for the Progressive nomination.

ACCUSED OF TAKING BRIBE FOR HIS VOTE

THOMAS GLINNAN,
President of the Detroit, Mich., Common Council.

CORSICAN IS SAFE IN PORT

Stories of Striking of Iceberg By Steamer at Variance.

Liverpool, Aug. 21. — The Allan line steamer Corsican, which struck an iceberg east of Belle Isle, near Newfoundland, on the afternoon of Aug. 12 while on her voyage from Montreal for this port, arrived here today. The forepart of the vessel was protected by collision bulkheads, otherwise she showed no signs of damage.

Capt. Cook, the commander of the Corsican, said:

"The weather was hazy when the Corsican collided with the iceberg on Aug. 12. She was traveling at dead slow speed when the iceberg was sighted right ahead. The engines were immediately put astern, but the Corsican touched before she could be stopped. She suffered no damage below ten feet above the water line.

"The crew was at once called to stations and the boats were swung out, but were soon taken back again. All the watertight doors were at once closed. The weather continued foggy for four days after the collision, but the ship was able to proceed at moderate speed."

Tell Different Stories.

Most of the passengers of the Corsican say there was no panic on board at the time of the collision. Two Cambridge students named Bethell and Stevens, however, say they were almost thrown out of their bunks by the

WANTS BAN ON NOISY LAUNCHES

La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 21.—In an effort to eliminate noisy launches from the Mississippi river, Capt. W. A. Thompson, United States engineer in charge of government work on the upper river, will make a formal request to the war department asking the officials at Washington to issue a rule putting a ban on muffler cut-outs on motor boats, and compelling all owners to run the exhausts of their motors through muffling devices or under water.

BERNSTEIN JURY HAS NOT AGREED

Chicago, Aug. 21.—After being out since 4:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the jurors in the case of Mrs. Florence Bernstein reported to Judge Honore today that they were unable to arrive at a verdict. The court directed them to return to the jury room and continue their deliberations.

Mrs. Bernstein was charged with shooting her husband to death last March.

THRASHING AGAIN IN NORTH DAKOTA

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—After several days of wet weather, thrashing was again resumed today. Great yields are reported. On the farm of Judge Amidon of the United States court wheat is yielding 38 bushels to the acre. It was on corn land.

NINETY-CENT GAS RATE FOR DES MOINES PEOPLE.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 21.—A decision whereby gas consumers of the city of Des Moines will be allowed a rate of 90 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, was handed down by Judge Smith McPherson in the federal court early today. The case decided was that of the city of Des Moines against the Des Moines Gas company.

TELLS MORE OF BRIBERY

Detective Who Trapped Detroit Aldermen Again on Stand.

Testifies at Arraignment of Glinnan, Head of the Council.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 21.—Detective Walter J. Brennan, the prosecution's star witness yesterday at the arraignment of Thomas E. Glinnan, president of the Detroit common council, charged with having accepted a bribe of $1,000, again faced cross-examination today.

It is expected that Brennan's testimony will be completed today and there is some possibility of the prosecution then placing on the stand Former Council Committee Clerk Edward R. Schreiter.

Told of the Trap.

The testimony of Brennan was the feature of the examination yesterday. It was Brennan's evidence that resulted in the arrests of the eighteen aldermen and Common Council Clerk Edward Schreiter, the latter having since made a complete confession.

Brennan went into all of the details of the trapping of the aldermen up to the time he alleges that he, representing himself to be an official of the Wabash railroad, paid Glinnan $1,000 for his influence in granting the railroad request for the use of the city street for building purposes.

The cases against Aldermen Watson, Ellis, Zoeller, Merritt, Hindley and Skrzycki were postponed until Aug. 30. Alderman Theisen's case will come up next Friday. Disposition was reserved in the cases against Aldermen Brozo,

SMUGGLE OPIUM IN MAIL SACKS

Honolulu, Aug. 21. — Smugglers of opium, in their efforts to circumvent the customs authorities at American ports, have been using mail bags as carriers of the contraband drug. Discovery of this method taken by the smugglers was made some time ago, but has been kept secret while an investigation was under way.

On the steamer Manchuria, which arrived at Honolulu from the Orient on Aug. 8, a mail bag was found which, instead of containing letters, was stuffed with $5,000 worth of opium. Either mail bags long have been surreptitiously used for this purpose by collusion between postal employes here and at some Oriental port, or the bag had been opened aboard the Manchuria during the voyage, its mail matter destroyed, and the tins of opium substituted.

It is believed investigation will be extended to all calling ports of the steamships that ply between Manila and San Francisco.

Assistant United States Attorney General Gordon went from here to Japan and it is said his mission is to extend the investigation to Japanese ports.

To Renew Fight Later.

Washington, Aug. 21.—When advised of the senate's refusal to pass the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill over the president's veto, Chairman Fitzgerald of the house appropriations committee announced that the house would appropriate for the commerce court until March 4, and resume the fight on the court when congress convenes in Decemebr.

GRAFT PROBE COMES FIRST

Will Precede Trial of Alleged Assassins of Rosenthal.

Zelig's Testimony Before the Grand Jury Bears Out Rose's Story.

New York, Aug. 21.—A John Doe police graft inquiry is to be undertaken several weeks before the calling of the trials of those indicted for the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal.

The preliminary proceedings before Supreme Court Justice Goff are expected to strengthen the case against Police Lieut. Becker and the six others indicted yesterday for the Rosenthal killing, by unearthing new evidence of police corruption. The John Doe inquiry will cease during the murder trials, but will be resumed after they are concluded.

Police Lieut. Becker and those indicted yesterday will be called to plead in court tomorrow. The grand jury also will have a brief session on Thursday, after which it will adjourn for ten days.

The grand jury will be asked to consider the testimony of "Big Jack" Zelig, who told yesterday of his arrest by two members of Lieut. Becker's "strong arm" squad. These two detectives swore they found a revolver on Zelig. Five witnesses testified before the grand jury that Zelig did not have a revolver when arrested.

The grand jury may indict the two detectives for oppression and perjury. These men will be accused of placing a weapon in Zelig's pocket so as to

USES NEEDLE TO KILL HIMSELF

Los Angeles Man Sticks Steel Into His Head.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 21.—Calvin H. Bullard, formerly a post-office inspector, who died in the county hospital Monday, committed suicide by thrusting a sack needle three inches into his head. The county coroner thus decided today, waiving aside a murder theory.

Bullard was found lying on a road near Newhall, with the needle in his brain and a posse spent several days searching for his supposed assailant.

CALUMET & HECLA DIVIDEND IS RAISED.

Boston, Aug. 21.—An increase of $2 in the quarterly dividend of the Calumet & Hecla Mining company, raising it from $10 to $12, was voted today at the annual meeting of the stockholders in this city. The retiring directors were re-elected. The by-laws of the company were changed so that the next annual meeting will be held on the second Thursday in June instead of the third Wednesday in August.

BREAK NEWS TO SHERMAN

Committee Notifies Him of Renomination for Vice Presidency.

He Responds By Praising Taft, the Party and the Convention.

Utica, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Vice President James S. Sherman, the first man to be twice nominated by the Republican party for the office he now fills, formally was notified here today that he was again the choice of a Republican national convention.

"This distinction was not sought by me," said the vice president, after United States Senator George A. Sutherland of Utah had delivered the speech of notification, "but unsolicited, it is the more appreciated. I cannot but recognize your message as a mandate I must obey."

The ceremony was in the open air in Roscoe Conkiln park. Mr. Sherman was escorted to the place by a procession of Republican clubs. In his speech accepting the nomination, the vice president declared his party was fortunate "in the fact that our opponents are divided into two camps."

Occupying "Vacuum."

"The new party," he said, "thrusts itself forward into the vacuum left by the phantoms of other third parties which have passed into oblivion."

Of Governor Wilson he said:

"The Democratic candidate is Bryan and Parker over again without the oratory of the one or the legal training of the other, but with the free trade prejudices of both seemingly intensified."

About twenty members of the committee of notification were present, headed by United States Senator George

LODGE SPEAKERS ATTACK EKERN

La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 21.—State Insurance Commissioner Eckern was attacked at the Insurgent Woodman state convention here today for alleged favoritism to old line insurance companies.

John L. Sundean of Minneapolis, organizer of the Modern Woodman assembly, criticized Mr. Ekern for his support of the so-called Mobile law and for his vigorous championship of rates under which the speaker maintained that fraternal companies could not exist.

C. B. Culbertson of Stanley, Wis., member of the insurgent law committee, referring to the policy of Commissioner Eckern to the effect that insurance companies must put away 4 per cent of their receipts each year to pay insurance losses, said:

"I cannot afford to protect my children after death by starving them while I am alive in order to pay excessive insurance premiums. No man shall deny me the right to possess a cheap insurance plece."

J. B. Murray was elected chairman, and A. J. Rik of Weyauwega was chosen for secretary of the convention.

PENROSE'S TALK TO COME LATE IN DAY

Washington, Aug. 21.—Senator Penrose will make a statement late today to the senate regarding certain correspondence between himself and John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company. He is expected to speak about 4 p. m.

TAFT VETO AGAIN IS OVERRIDDEN BY THE HOUSE ON PAY BILL

Commerce Court Abolition Cause of Rejection By President.

Senate Is Said to Be Certain to Refuse to Join Action.

Members' Anxiety to Adjourn Helps Plan of the Executive.

SENATE REFUSES TO OVERRIDE THE VETO

Washington, Aug. 21.—The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill failed of re-passage in the senate over President Taft's veto. The motion to repass the measure received 34 votes to 27 in the negative. The two-thirds necessary to override the veto was 41.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Within one hour after President Taft had for the second time vetoed the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill because it carried a provision to abolish the commerce court, the house today re-passed it 154 to 53 over his veto. It now goes to the senate.

President Taft today vetoed the bill because it still carried an amendment to abolish the commerce court, which the house and senate insisted upon including in the reframed measure. The provision to limit tenure of office of civil service employes to seven years, which was an additional reason for the president's first disapproval, has not been included in the bill a second time.

After the message had been read, Democratic leaders prepared to pass it over Mr. Taft's veto a second time. Representative Underwood declared, however, that if the senate refused again to over-ride the president's veto, the house finally would agree to recede from its provision to abolish the commerce court and permit an adjournment probably on Saturday.

The president returned the twice vetoed bill with a short message, saying he disapproved it on the same grounds as he had set out at length in his message last week.

Senate May Balk.

Among the leaders there was doubt that the executive disapproval could be over-ridden in the senate. The test vote by which the upper house retained the provision to abolish the court, against the majority report of the appropriations committee, did not command a two-thirds vote necessary to pass a bill over a veto.

By vetoing the bill President Taft held up his own salary, that of cabinet officers, every member of congress and every judge and employe of the United States courts.

LIKES HOUSE POSTAL PLAN

Hitchcock Asks Conferees to Drop the Senate's Scheme.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Postmaster General Hitchcock today submitted to the house and senate conferees on the postoffice appropriation bill a recommendation that the house parcels post proposition be substituted for that of the senate.

"I believe," wrote Mr. Hitchcock, "that the broader powers given the department by the house measure will enable it to establish a parcels post system more effective and businesslike than would be possible under the senate bill. It provides for lower postage rates, and increases the limit of parcels from eleven to fifteen pounds.

"It carries, also, an exceedingly important provision relative to railway compensation that will secure to the government as advantageous charges for transportation as the railways grant express companies. The department is also authorized to grant fair indemnity in case of loss or damage of parcels."

LOWER FLAGS IN HONOR OF BOOTH

London, Aug. 21.—Out of respect for the memory of the late Gen. William Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, who died last evening, all the flags floating on Salvation Army headquarters throughout the country have been half-masted.

At the international headquarters in the center of the city, a constant stream of messengers bringing telegrams and letters of condolence from every part of the world flowed in all day. Among those who sent messages of sympathy were many prominent personages.

MOOSE MEET TO PICK NEXT MEETING PLACE.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 21.—The question "who will entertain the Moose in 1913" will be decided by today's session of the annual convention of the Loyal Order of Moose. Many cities are contesting for the honor. Cincinnati and Winnipeg seemed to have the best chance when the convention was called to order.

The annual parade of the order will be held tonight. Five thousand men, including delegates and their friends, will be in line.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

SENATE.

Senator Bacon introduced a resolution authorizing an investigation of the recent landing in Nicaragua by American forces.

Passed bill creating a division of markets in bureau of statistics, department of agriculture.

Senator Penrose announced he would speak late this afternoon on correspondence between himself and John D. Archbold.

Passed Pomerene bill for uniform bills of lading.

Postmaster General Hitchcock indorsed to conferees on postoffice appropriation bill, the house proposition for parcels post, instead of the senate's.

Refused to repass appropriation bill over the veto.

Senator Williams attacked Col. Roosevelt for his published criticisms of Thomas Jefferson and other historical figures.

HOUSE.

Message from President Taft, vetoing legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill because of proposition abolishing commerce court, was read.

Repassed legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill over president's veto.

Repassed legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill containing commerce court provision over president's veto.

BRING MEXICO VICTIM'S BODY

Burial of Rowan Ayres Will Be Held in Cincinnati Next Week.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 21.—The burial of Rowan Ayres, the Cincinnati man recently beheaded in Mexico, will be held here probably some time next week. A telegram was received last night from E. R. de Steigeur, the civil engineer, sending the first news of the killing to the Ayres home, saying that he had the body and would arrive in San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 22.

Vigorous Inquiry.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The Mexican government is conducting a vigorous inquiry into the circumstances attending the killing by rebels of the young American civil engineer, Rowan Ayres, near Patzcuaro, state of Michoacan, last week. Mr. Lascurain, the Mexican minister of foreign affairs, assured Ambassador Wilson that every facility would be afforded by the Mexican government for the conveyance of the body to his parents' home in Cincinnati.

DEMOCRATS IN GEORGIA VOTE

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 21.—Georgia Democrats today are naming their election ticket for next November. Contenders in the primary for gubernatorial honors are John M. Slaton, president of the state senate; Joseph Hill Hall of Macon, and Hooper Alexander.

United States Senator A. O. Bacon is opposed by only one candidate, H. H. Perry of Gainesville. Congressman William Schely Howard has no opposition.

PROGRESSIVES MAY NOT FIGHT

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 21.—Whether a Progressive state ticket shall be placed in the field was expected to be decided at a meeting of the Progressive state central committee today. All the Progressive leaders stated early today that the meeting was for the purpose of campaign plans, the matter of a third ticket, it was said, was the paramount issue.

QUART OF WHISKY BUYS INDIAN ROBE.

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Harry Bottler, who traveled extensively in the Hudson Bay country, has a wonderful robe made of the fur of hundreds of rabbits and skillfully sewed by the Indians. A quart of whisky was the purchase price of the robe, one of the finest examples of Indian handiwork.

"UNWRITTEN LAW" PLEA ACQUITS HANCOCK MAN.

Houghton, Mich., Aug. 21.—Jacob Ehler, the Hancock merchant tried in circuit court here for killing Ernest Hendrickson, a traveling man for alleged intimacy with his wife, was acquitted. The plea of the defense was the "unwritten law" and self-defense, it being claimed Hendrickson was about to shoot Ehler when the latter fired.

SURVEY OF CITY BUDGET FOR THE COMING YEAR

Pruning Problem Confronts Members of the Conference Committee.

What the Department Heads Ask and What They May Get.

The conference committee met for its first preliminary survey of the budget of 1913 at the council chambers yesterday afternoon. The conference committee consists of the mayor, city comptroller, city treasurer and the heads of the various boards and departments.

The situation was discussed in a general way but no definite action was taken upon the levy of any department. The problem before the committee is not easy and the various members will give it considerable thought before the next meeting, which will be held Sept. 10 in the council chambers.

City Comptroller McCormick has prepared a complete statement of the expenditures of the different departments in the past; an estimate of the needs of the different departments for 1913, and a tabulation of the estimates which the departments themselves have sent in to him.

The conference committee will have more leeway this fall than in the past because of the recent charter amendment making the maximum levy for funds Nos. 3 to 16, 11 mills on the assessed valuation, but many new requirements must be taken care of and much planning will be necessary to make the budget balance and meet the requirements. The comptroller estimates that $968,000 will be needed to run the city in 1913, of which $795,000 would be raised by taxation, giving a city rate of 15.9 mills on a valuation of $50,000,000. The departments estimate that they will need $1,138,150, of which $1,005,540 would be raised by taxation, increasing the city rate to 20.11 mills. The latter would be too high to meet the approval of the taxpayers. The comptroller has pruned the estimates of the departments considerably, but he is still within $19,000 of the maximum which can be raised for funds 3 to 16. In other words the total which can be levied for those funds is $550,000 and the estimates of the comptroller for those funds total $531,000.

Fire Department.

No changes are made in the interest and the sinking funds. The fire department asks for $180,450. The comptroller cuts this to $146,000. A large part of the difference comes in motor apparatus desired by the department, which would cost about $30,000, and in extra men, whose salaries would be about $4,000.

The police department asks $114,610 and the comptroller puts it at $105,000. The comptroller eliminates a patrol wagon and ambulance, two motor cycles and additional men.

The light and water funds are unchanged. The engineering department asks $37,875 and the comptroller places it at $26,028.59, cutting out extra help. The board of public works asks $98,000 and the controller's figures call for $85,265.41, the reduction coming on amounts for storm repairs and general maintenance.

Cuts Health Fund.

The health department asks $56,490, which is dropped by the comptroller to $20,000. The department wants $20,000 for municipal garbage collection, $9,000 for a municipal bathhouse, $2,500 for an automobile, $3,000 for an emergency ambulance and several other things. The final allowance will be much nearer that of the comptroller than that of the department. The conference committee spent some time on the matter of garbage collection yesterday and it did not appear that the majority favor the establishment of a system of municipal collection at once. The sentiment was that the garbage collection should be extended on the present plan until such time as the finances of the city will allow of the municipal collection without charge. It is believed that several more wagons will be purchased and the collection continued on a small fee basis, estimated to cover the expense. It is certain that most of the things asked for cannot be allowed.

The municipal court, the salary and the printing and supply funds will remain about as they are. The library board asks $27,250 and the comptroller reduces this to $20,000. The board needs more money than formerly for the maintenance of the West Duluth branch and wants more for general purposes.

The Park Fund.

The park board asks for $82,700 and the comptroller's estimate calls for $20,000. The park board asks $3,000 for play grounds, $1,700 for skating rinks, $1,000 for band concerts, $15,500 for the maintenance of the parks, $5,300 for the maintenance of the eastern end of the Boulevard and $4,000 for the maintenance of the western section, $6,000 for the west extension of the Boulevard, $3,500 for trees and culture, and $34,000 for the acquisition of lands in addition to the money which can be derived from the sale of $60,000 of park bonds.

The permanent improvement fund will be the subject of much discussion, as it will have a great deal to care for. Out of it the committee must provide for the repairs to the police station, which amount to remodeling. This will cost from $15,000 to $20,000. In his estimate the comptroller has $20,056.03 as the city's share of the cost of paving Michigan street, between Eighth and Twelfth avenues west, but some believe that this sum should come from the street maintenance and repair fund. The latter is not included in the 11 mill limitation, and by making the transfer that much more can be used from the permanent improvement fund for other purposes. From this fund will also come the money which will be used in putting the route to New Duluth in shape for street car traffic. Many minor improvements will also be taken into consideration.

The estimate of the comptroller of the street maintenance and repair fund is $25,000 and of the street intersection and storm sewer fund, $50,000.

The funds necessary for the board of public welfare will get much attention. Considerable interest attaches to this and the estimate returned by the board is as follows:

Salary of secretary	$ 2,000.00
Salary of clerk	720.00
Printing and supplies	500.00
Contingent fund	500.00
Municipal farm (500 acres @ $25.00)	12,500.00
Tools, etc., for clearing and making road	3,000.00
Maintenance farm	1,000.00
Crushing rock	1,000.00
Salaries probation officers	2,100.00
Municipal lodging house, furnishing, superintendance and maintenance	4,000.00
Social center work, superintendance, etc	2,500.00
Total	$29,820.00

Relative to the fund the charter reads:

"The comptroller, the conference committee and the common council shall include in their annual estimates and apportionment of funds, a sum of money to be set aside out of the general fund for the exclusive use of the board of public welfare for the ensuing year, and when so set aside said fund shall be used for no other purpose and separate accounts thereof shall be kept by the treasurer and comptroller."

To this the comptroller has appended this explanation:

"Since the adoption of the present charter in March, 1900, no tax levy has been made for the general fund, the fund being supported wholly by liquor licenses, municipal court fines and fees, and miscellaneous licenses and receipts. The receipts from said sources for the year 1913 will only be sufficient to cover obligations already devolving upon the general fund. In order to make provision for funds desired by the board of public welfare it will be necessary to create additional revenue for the fund, said revenue to be supplied by taxation."

ELWELL ROAD APPROVED

Conuty Board Acts Favorably on Portion of Duluth-St. Vincent Highway.

Fifty-Two Miles to Be Built to the Itasca County Line.

At a short meeting of the county board this morning a resolution was adopted approving the route of this county's portion of the proposed state highway from Duluth to St. Vincent, and also approving the estimated price, $44,000. This proposed highway will be built under supervision of the state highway commission, and under the provisions of the Elwell law, the state will pay one-half of the cost, the counties through which it runs will pay one-quarter, and the owners of land benefited will pay the other quarter.

An effort was made some time ago to have this highway built under one contract, but legal difficulties arose so it was proposed that each county build its portion. All counties but Clearwater have agreed to this, but it is expected that that county will agree.

The county surveyor in each county maps out his route and makes his estimate. If this meets with the approval of the county board, it is then submitted to the state highway commission and, meeting its approval, the county board then advertises for bids and proceeds to build the highway, the work being done under the commission's supervision. This is in accordance with the Elwell law so that the benefit of the state's standing half the expense is obtained.

The route planned in St. Louis county is: From Duluth over the Miller Trunk road to its intersection with the Culver road; along that to the Schussler road; then a new road of fifteen miles in length from the Schussler road will have to be constructed to Floodwood; thence west along the Island road, past the Hartley farm to the westerly line of the county, where it will connect with the Itasca portion of the highway. The length of the road in St. Louis county will be fifty-two miles.

The counties through which the road will run will be: St. Louis, Itasca, Cass, Hebbard, Beltrami, Clearwater, Red Lake, Polk, Marshall and Kittson.

The county board also awarded the contracts for building the proposed judicial road in St. Louis and Itasca counties, the commissioners of the two counties working together. Eight miles will be constructed in this county. The road will be in the Bear River country, between towns 61 and 62-21 in St. Louis county, and between towns 61 and 62-22 in Itasca county. It will cost $5,240. Those to whom the awards were made are: Martin Rein and R. Dolson, J. D. Olson, J. A. Westling, Peter Palm, Arne Hanson, Ed Peterson, B. Peterson and Jack Randa and Martin Jackobson.

GOOD OATS ON SARGENT FARM

A. B. Hostetter Receives Sample for State Fair Display.

A. B. Hostetter, superintendent of agriculture of the Commercial club, has received from William H. Sargent samples of some of the best oats ever grown in St. Louis county. The plants are over five feet high and are well filled out. The oats were raised on Mr. Sargent's farm in Rice Lake town.

The St. Louis county building at the fair is now being redecorated for the exhibit this year. Mr. Hostetter is working on the preparation of the exhibits. The season has been a little backward, but Mr. Hostetter is taking the best exhibits he can find and believes that the whole display will be up to former St. Louis county exhibits.

The homecroft exhibit will be one of the attractions in the St. Louis county building. It will consist mainly of preserved products from homecroft gardens, with views of gardens in Duluth, in photograph and in lantern slides.

The moving pictures of farm scenes and mining in St. Louis county should be a great attraction in the St. Louis county building. To many of the fair visitors, the pictures of the open pit mining operations will be especially attractive, and they should draw large crowds to the building.

ATTRACTIONS FOR DULUTH DAY

Entertainment Provided for Visitors to County Fair at Hibbing Aug. 31.

The management of the St. Louis county fair at Hibbing is making special preparations for the entertainment of fair visitors on Duluth day, Aug. 31.

There will be three aeroplane flights that day by Hal Cantner. A sham battle between Company E of Duluth and Company M of Hibbing, Company F of Eveleth participating will be another of the attractions. The free-for-all, which will be run that day, will have twenty-three starters.

These will be special attractions, but the greatest attraction will be the agricultural exhibits and farm display. Exhibits are being received at Hibbing from all parts of the county. The agricultural building will be filled with displays of grains, grasses, fruits and vegetables, indicative of the agricultural wealth of St. Louis county.

The cattle display will include entries from Island farm at Floodwood and from farms at Meadowlands. There will also be an exhibit of horses that will include some of the finest animals to be seen anywhere.

The Commercial club committee, which is promoting the excursion from Duluth to Hibbing Aug. 31, reports good progress. The indications are that fully 500 people will make the trip.

BURIED AT CLOQUET.

Cloquet, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Maribel, the 11-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Drum of Superior, died here Monday afternoon at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Derosier, of pneumonia. The parents were visiting in Brookston when the child became ill, and they brought her to Cloquet for medical attendance, but it was too late. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the Catholic church and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery in Cloquet.

RINGDAL AND PETERSON AS LABOR DAY SPEAKERS

P. M. RINGDAL.

JAMES A. PETERSON.

Peter M. Ringdal of Crookston, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, and James A. Peterson of Minneapolis, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator, will very likely be the Labor day speakers in Duluth.

The committee on arrangements, appointed by the Trades and Labor assembly and the Union Labor Pavilion association has invited Mr. Ringdal and Mr. Peterson to make addresses and both are expected to accept.

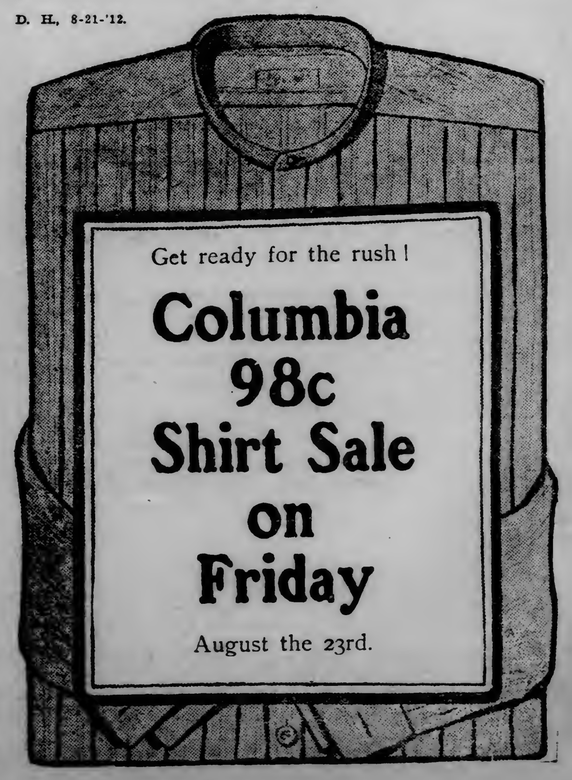

Two Progressive candidates for office on different tickets, speaking from the same platform, will be an attraction that will draw large crowds to the Labor day celebration, in addition to the usual crowd of Labor day celebrants. Both men take an advanced stand on public questions and their utterances are expected to clearly outline the Progressive attitude in their respective parties.

Mr. Ringdal in his platform published recently takes a strong stand for a workingmen's compensation act and other subjects of great interest to laboring men. As chairman of the state board of control and in other positions in public life in Minnesota, he has come to be one of the most prominent figures in the state.

Mr. Ringdal and Mr. Peterson will both speak on general lines, as they will not appear in the character of candidates, but as students of public questions, they will discuss issues which are now agitating the people.

Preparations for the Labor day celebration are going forward, and the members of the committee believe that the demonstration of union labor strength in Duluth will be greater than ever before.

FIGHT OVER SHACK RESULTS IN ARRESTS.

Williston, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—By putting all three parties under a peace bond of $100 each, Justice Aaen settled a rather serious mix-up over the possession of a claim shack in Williams county. The shack is located on a piece of land which was lately thrown open for entry and numerous parties hope to make filing by squatting. Mrs. Mary E. Hetherington and Theodore Good followed this policy and took possession of a shack which H. T. Smizer claimed to own. When Smizer demanded possession he was driven off at the point of a revolver. The arrest followed.

Prepare Yourself to Judge—

To intelligently judge the worth of a player piano you must know. We have prepared a special booklet that shows why one player piano may be worth twice as much as another—this booklet will enable you to instantly ascertain whether or not the instrument you are looking at contains the latest improvements. And if you'll send your name we'll send the book.

Do you know that the Apollo Player Piano strikes down on the keys—down like a human being?

Do you realize that its Transposing Device enables you to play in any one of eight different keys? Do you appreciate the advantages of the Metronome Motor which is so smooth running and accurate in adjustment that it rewinds the rolls without pedaling? No other player piano in the world will do this.

Melville Clark's Solo-Apollo, the only instrument of its kind that accents the melody or omits it altogether at the will of the operator, is the only player piano that produces true music. And basic U. S. patents make this feature exclusive.

Find out about these things. Fix player piano improvements clearly in your mind before you start out to buy an instrument. We'll give you the information and show you how to verify our statements. Write today.

GEN. BOOTH, FOUNDER OF SALVATION ARMY, IS DEAD IN LONDON

Succumbs Long After Operation to Restore His Sight.

Suggestion Is Made That He Be Buried in Westminster.

London, Aug. 21.—Rev. William Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, passed away at 10:30 o'clock last night. He was born at Nottingham in 1829.

The veteran Salvation Army leader was unconscious for forty-eight hours previous to his death. The medical bulletins had not revealed the seriousness of the general's condition, which for a week past, it is now admitted, was hopeless.

Twelve weeks ago Gen. Booth underwent an operation for the removal of a cataract in his left eye. For two days after the operation indications justified hope of the general's recovery. Then, however, septic poisoning set in, and from that time, with the exception of occasional rallies, the patient's health steadily declined. The general recognized that the end was near and often spoke of his work as being finished.

Son Was With Him.

Throughout the commander-in-chief's illness, his son, Bramwell Booth, chief of staff of the army, and Mrs. Bramwell Booth, gave their unremitting attention to him, both night and day.

The aged evangelist died at his residence, The Roostone, Hadleywood, some eight miles from London, where he had been confined to his bed ever since the operation. Present at the bedside when the end came were Mr. and Mrs. Bramwell Booth and their daughter and son, Adjutant Catherine Booth and Sergeant Bernard Booth; the general's youngest daughter, Commissioner Mrs. Both-Hellberd, and Commissioner Howard, Col. Kitching and Dr. Wardlaw Milne.

Burial Place Not Decided.

Where Gen. Booth will be buried is not decided. While every English member of the Salvation Army is convinced that no man was more worthy of interment in Westminster Abbey, it is not expected this honor will be awarded to Gen. Booth by the Abbey authorities. It is the general belief that the commander-in-chief's last resting place will be alongside that of his wife, who twenty-one years ago was buried in Abney park, Stoke Newington.

Almost the last words of Gen. Booth were uttered just before he lost consciousness. He was referring to God's promises, and, speaking with great difficulty, said:

"They are sure—they are sure—if you will only believe!"

Starting his career alone as a soap box preacher in the slums of Nottingham, Eng., at the age of 15 years, William Booth ended it at 83, as head of an army of millions of Salvationists scattered through fifty-four countries.

He fought many real battles in the streets of London, and often was in peril of losing his life in the cause, but with those who rallied to his support he forged the nucleus of his great movement, which was given the name of the "Christian Mission."

The present Salvation Army was never foreseen, nor was the name ever deliberately chosen by anyone. Mr. Booth was dictating to a stenographer when he used the words: "The Christian Mission is a volunteer army."

When he looked over the paper later he substituted "salvation" for "volunteer" as the stronger word, and the phrase struck fire among his mission workers, who seized the militant spirit from it.

Recognized By Wolsely.

So great was Gen. Booth's faculty of handling and inspiring men, that Marshal Wolsely once declared that the British army had taken lessons in methods of organization, distribution and control from the Salvationist.

Gen. Booth's last message to his followers was written last June, while blindness was overtaking him.

"Pile up all my losses," he then wrote. "They are many and serious, I admit, but look at the mercies still with me. First, there is my confidence in God; I am not going to allow the existence of a few things which are in conflict with my judgment to interfere with my confidence in His wisdom—confidence that is inspired by life-long knowledge of His loving care. Then, I have not lost the assurance of my own heart relations with my own Heavenly Father; I have not lost the confidence and love of my own dear people; I have not lost the inestimable blessing of life.

"I want the continued loyalty of my own people and the hearty co-operation of all men and women whose hearts are fired with the same purpose as my own. In a few weeks' time I hope to be once more found on the battlefield. Anyway, my dear comrades, in the light or dark, you may count upon your general to trust in God and go forward."

Children in the Work.

Surviving Gen. Booth are several children, carrying on the work he started, most prominent being Bramwell Booth, the eldest son, who is acting as chief of staff in London and who is expected to succeed his father as general of the army.

Two other sons, Herbert and Ballington Booth, are widely known in evangelical work, the latter having been particularly in the public eye because of a break with his father sixteen years ago, since when he has led an independent organization known as the Volunteers of America.

Of the daughters, in addition to Miss Eva, who is commander in America, there is Miss Lucy, commander of the army in Denmark and Miss Mary, who worked with her father in London.

Sutherland of Utah, the chairman. They were escorted to the Sherman residence by thousands of citizens, massed in different organizations and headed by bands and military companies, moving through a street gaily decorated and lined with multitudes of people.

From the Sherman residence the throngs went to Roscoe E. Conkling park, where an immense stand had been erected and where the speaking took place.

Mr. Sherman was ill recently, but has been steadily improving for the last fortnight and was quite fit to meet the demands of the day.

Sherman Accepts.

Vice President Sherman, in accepting the nomination, said in part:

"Gentlemen, you represent the forty-eight states of the Union, and the 1,000,000 Republican voters in our wide domain. You bear the commission of the convention which, representing them, met in Chicago in June. The annals of the American parties do not record the proceedings of a political gathering conducted with more openness, fairness and deliberation, sobriety and worthy purpose than that for which you speak.

"Not deceived by the clamor of those who attempted to bolster up claims without basis, by hundreds of contests resting on a foundation so flimsy that, in the light of investigation, most of them melted away like snow in a furnace, and were rejected by quite or nearly a unanimous vote, the convention adopted a platform that rings true for patriotism and constitutional government, and worthily bestowed a renomination upon our present chief executive.

His Experience Unique.

"Our party has never before conferred a second nomination for the office of vice president upon any man. This distinction was not sought by me, but, unsolicited, it is the more appreciated.

"Our opponents are divided into two camps, rivaling each other in their efforts to excel in disturbing the civic and economic order of the country. The new party thrusts itself forward into the vacuum left by the phantoms of other third parties, which have passed into oblivion. Oblivion, too, awaits it."

The speaker commented upon the platforms of the Democratic and Progressive parties and read excerpts from a volume written by Governor Wilson, whom he declared a pedagogue, not a statesman.

He upheld the protective tariff and said the thoughtful could see no promise of betterment "in the frantic cry for a change." He commended the recent vetoes of tariff bills by President Taft and said the vetoes called for the support of every citizen.

"Crime of the Age."

Continuing, he said:

"The crime of this 'new age' is frenzied speech and action; lack of thought, a spurning of deliberation and of the weighing of consequences. Fakers with projects to 'get rich quick' draw gaping crowds.

"We ask that the Republican party and its candidate be tried upon the record of service and accomplishment. We near the end of President Taft's first term of service with our government at amity with all the foreign powers, amid domestic tranquillity and with our people blessed with prosperity and abundance; our navy among the foremost of the world; our army in a high degree of excellence; our postal service, for the first time in its history, self-sustaining; the colossal dream of the centuries, an isthmian canal, almost a complete reality; our foreign and domestic commerce in a condition of activity, vigor and health, meeting the desires of the most optimistic, and every department of the government rendering proper and efficient aid to law-abiding citizens in every calling.

"Confident that the American people are not yet willing to destroy and discard the Constitution which has stood the test of more than a century, they have not yet forgotten the direful result of the mistake of 1892, we calmly await the result of November."

Telegram From Taft.

Washington, Aug. 21.—President Taft today sent a telegram to Vice President Sherman congratulating him and the Republican party on his renomination. The president's message read:

"I am very sorry that the public business prevents my presence at the ceremonies at which you are to receive formal notification of your second well-deserved nomination by the national Republicans for the high office you hold. I congratulate you and the party on your nomination.

"The Republican party continues to be the party of the Constitution, the defender of our guarantees of civil liberty, private property and pursuit of happiness and other civil rights, the upholder of law and order, the opponent of Socialism, the sturdy supporter of high compensation for wage earners and our industrial success through a protective tariff. I am proud again to be a joint standard bearer with you for that party of conservatism, sanity and progress."

municate with Gen. Mena directly, supposedly the head of the revolutionary movement, his messenger, Capt. E. H. Conger, a marine officer, though traveling under a flag of truce, was arbitrarily detained by Gen. Zeledon at Barranca. Upon learning of his detention, the American minister dispatched a note of protest to Gen. Zeledon by a special legation messenger, and on Sunday night Capt. Conger returned safely to Managua after having delivered Mr. Weitzel's note to Gen. Mena.

Massacre 500 Soldiers.

Managua, Nicaragua, Sunday, Aug. 18, (delayed in transmission)—Nearly the entire detachment of 500 Nicaraguan troops, comprising the garrison of the city of Leon, in Northern Managua, was massacred by a force of insurgents last night, according to reports which reached the capital today.

On Friday news was received by the government that the liberals at Leon had risen, and Gen. Chamorro dispatched troops to suppress the movement and reinforce the garrison of the city.

The government troops, on reaching Leon, camped on the plaza in the center of the town. The insurgents, who greatly outnumbered the government forces, attacked the city Saturday, and after a fierce engagement the garrison surrendered. Instead of holding their captives prisoners of war after the submission, it is reported that the troops were slaughtered by the rebels. Out of a force of 500, all were killed except 70.

In the repulse of the insurgents last Wednesday night after a four days' battle at Managua, the American marines and bluejackets from the gunboat Annapolis and from Panama played a prominent part as defenders of the capital.

Fighting Is Continuous.

Corinto, Nicaragua, Aug. 20.—(Delayed in transmission.)—Fighting between the Nicaraguan government forces and the revolutionaries at Chinandega, about ten miles from this port, has been almost continuous since Sunday.

The town was turned over to the rebels Sunday by the government troops, and all communication, both by the telegraph and railroad, between the coast and the capital was cut off. The government troops today defeated the rebels and recaptured the town.

It is reported here the government forces are gaining strength both at Leon and at Managua, and that they have received reinforcement at Granada, on Lake Nicaragua.

TELLS MORE OF BRIBERY

Rosenthal, Lynch, O'Brien and Koenig, and the examinations of Aldermen Deimel, Mason, Ostrowski, Tossy and Walsh will follow that of Alderman Gilman. Clerk Schreiter has also been remanded for a week.

Went to Detroit in April.

Brennan, upon taking the stand explained that his right name is Walter J. Burns and that his home is in Boston. He told of coming to the city in April and taking offices in the Ford building as a representative of the real estate department of the Wabash railroad. He also engaged an adjoining office and had "New England His-torical Society" printed upon its door.

The detective then told of getting himself acquainted with the different aldermen, of impressing upon them the urgent desire of the railroad for the rights to the street, and of opposition to the proposal that was expressed by several of the councilmen. Finally, he testified, Glinnan came to his office and arrangements were made for the closing of the street.

"Glinnan told me at that time that he wanted to use me as a pipe line to St. Louis," said Witness Brennan. "He had wanted for years to get on the Wabash railroad, he said, and thought he could serve the company by looking after its taxes and other matters in the city hall. He said he would want about $100 a month for his services.

Could "Adjust" Difficulty.

"I interrupted to say, 'Alderman, this street closing case has been referred back to the committee and I guess there is some difficulty, isn't there?'

"'Yes, but I think we can adjust that,' he replied."

"He then gave me a list of some aldermen and said he would see them and pay them. I had already arranged to give him some money for the passage of the resolution closing the street. The amount that he decided upon at that time as necessary for the purpose was between $1,700 and $2,000."

The witness then went into the details of further visits with Glinnan, conferences at the alderman's home, and meetings in the city hall. At last, he said, all arrangements were complete for the payment of the bribe money. It had been planned for the aldermen to go individually to Brennan's office in the Ford building and get their share. Glinnan was to go last and get what was left, which Brennan had told him would be at least $1,000.

Appeared on Schedule.

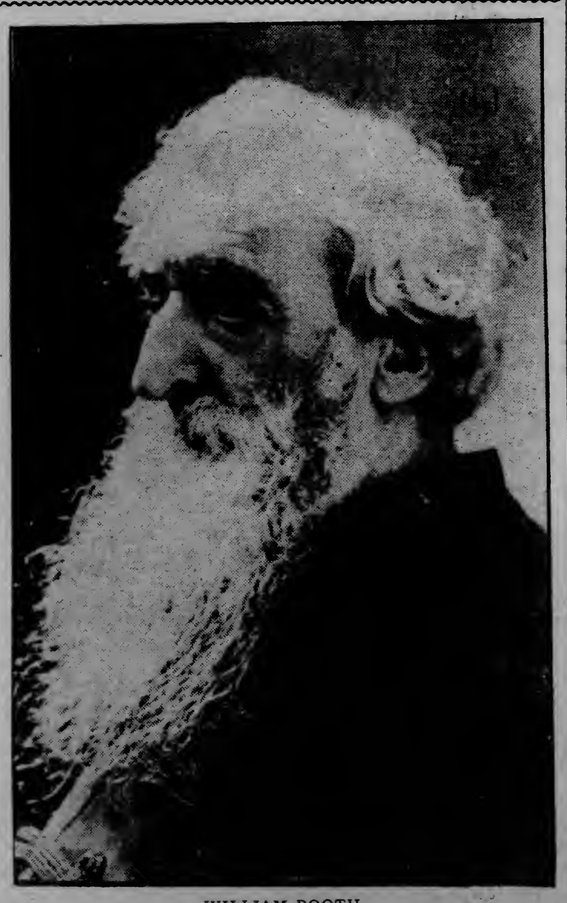

According to the testimony, Glinnan appeared promptly on July 26 for the money.

"I took out a roll of bills," said the witness, "and counted them. I said, 'Glinnan, here is the $1,000 that I promised you for voting for the Wabash closing.' He thanked me and put the money in his left inside pocket. As he left, I took him into the next room. Mr. Burns was there.

"I said, 'Mr. Glinnan, allow me to present Mr. William J. Burns,' and Glinnan said 'Pleased to meet you.'"

The witness then testified that Glinnan, when he realized his situation, handed back the money and made a complete confession.

FIRST RACES OF NEW CLUB

Contests for Three Classes of Motor Boats Are Planned.

Western Club Has Good Success in Securing New Members.

The Western Boat club, which was organized last week by a number of West Duluth residents, will hold its first motor boat race next Sunday afternoon over the club's measured course at the foot of Sixty-third avenue west. The first race will be called at 2:30 o'clock.

The members of the racing committee met last evening at the West Duluth Commercial club and arranged the program for the day. Invitations have been sent out to motor boat owners to enter the various races. Among these are the following with their respective entries:

Class A—Jean du Luth, Dotremo, Buster, Hickory.

Class B—Du Pont, Split Rock, Gee Whiz, Clipper, Semego, Bizibber, Goshen, Cali, Cito, Randall, Odell.

Class C—Capitol, Hawkeye, Spike, Chaperon, Blue Bell, Fritz, Hawk, Hugo.

The class A boat race will be run first, after which a one-mile canoe race will be featured. The entries in the canoe race are Iltis, Carey, Meldahl and Dunn. The distance for the class A race will be three laps or twelve miles; class B, 2 laps, and class C, one lap. Entries in any of the races will be received by Ernest Larson, chairman of the racing committee, up to 2:15 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The other members of the committee are: M. H. Murray, Warren Crosby, Charles Dahl, Melvin Olson and Frank Wade.

A large crowd is expected to watch the races, which are the first to be held by the new organization. The membership committee has been working the past week and reports that residents in this end of the city are pleased with the plans of the Western Boat club. Reports by the various committees will be made at the regular meeting to be held tomorrow evening at the West Duluth Commercial club. Any one interested in the organization is invited to attend the meeting.

ROYAL LEAGUE SCRIBE HONORED BY MEMBERS

Lucien A. Barnes, one of the organizers of the West Duluth council of the Royal league and its scribe for the past seven years, was honored by 300 members of the league at a grand reception held last evening at the West Duluth Commercial club. The Superior and Duluth councils were present at the reception, which was called "Barnes night."

The celebration was given by the West Duluth council, No. 255, of which Mr. Barnes has been scribe since its organization seven years ago. He has always taken an active part in the lodge, and the affair last evening was an appreciation on the part of the members of the organization. H. H. Stone, state organizer, was in charge of the meeting. C. E. Piper of Chicago, supreme scribe, who was expected at the celebration last evening, is in St. Paul this week attending the fraternal congress, and was unable to get here last evening. He sent his regrets by a telegram.

West Duluth women who were planning on forming an auxiliary order, decided last evening to join with the present council. A class of thirty women and fifteen men was initiated into the council, which is now one of the largest in the state. Zenith Council No. 161 and Superior Council No. 235 took part in the festivities.

Rev. W. J. Lowrie of Brainerd, Minn., former pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church and a member of the West Duluth council, made one of the principal addresses last evening. Addresses were also made by Mr. Stone, Mr. Barnes, Charles S. Palmer and O. S. Kempton. Mr. Stone gave a musical selection. Edward Fischer of Minneapolis played a piano solo during the evening.

Following the regular program, those present played cards for a short while, and then the evening was given over to dancing. Refreshments were served by the women.

REV. W. J. LOWRIE,
Who Spoke at Reception Last Evening.

Back From Camp.

The following West Duluth young people, chaperoned by Mrs. J. J. Lumm, returned yesterday from a two weeks' outing at Lake Nebagamon: Misses Florence Brown, Fern Brooks, Hazel Allen, Ruth Brown, Fanny Lumm, Hazel Kent, Margaret Gilpin and Mesdames A. M. Johnson, M. E. Allen and McLean.

Begin Work on Market.

Work was begun yesterday on the new public market place at the corner of Ramsey street and Fifty-sixth avenue west. A crew of men is now removing the material from the site to make room for the structure. A large shed with ten stalls and a row of sheds for the horses will be built. The two sheds will cost $500 and will be ready for use by Sept. 1.

Dinner for Guests.

Miss Gertrude Fish of Los Angeles and Miss Hattie Wanamaker of Youngstown, Pa., are the house guests this week at the home of Miss Ursula Briggs, 520 North Fifty-sixth avenue west. A dinner party was given in their honor last evening by Miss Briggs. Covers were laid for eight.

Women Give Social.

The Ladies' Society of St. James' Catholic church, Fifty-seventh avenue west and Kinnear place, held a social yesterday afternoon at Gilley's hall, 322 Central avenue. Following the social hour, the members made plans for a chicken pie social, to be held the early part of next month.

Meeting Postponed.

The New Duluth Commercial club postponed its meeting last evening to next Tuesday evening. Plans will be made for the fall and winter, and Dr. C. J. Wallace, president of the club, will outline the work for the remainder of the year. The meeting will be held at the Becklinger hall.

West Duluth Briefs.

Mrs. B. F. Clawson of Rob Roy, Ind., left for her home yesterday after spending the past week at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. B. Randall, 4601 Magellan street.

Mrs. A. L. Merritt of 4603 Oneota street has returned from Pike Lake, where she camped with relatives for the past two weeks.

Miss Josephine Wenner of 322 Central avenue has returned from a short visit with relatives at Gilbert, Minn.

Mrs. M. Brigham of Fond du Lac has as her guest this week, Miss O. Holbrook of Brighton, Ill.

Miss Julia Gratz, 322 Central avenue, returned the fore part of the week from Chicago and the Twin Cities with the finest line of fall millinery ever shown in West Duluth.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Our Savior's Norwegian Lutheran church will meet tomorrow afternoon in the church parlors, Fifty-seventh avenue west and Wadena street.

Mrs. May Treble of Minneapolis has left for her home after visiting for the past week at the home of Mrs. D. L. Bishop of Fond du Lac.

Messenger boy wanted at West Duluth depot.

John Gurns and family of Fond du Lac have moved to Wrenshall, where they will make their home.

For rent—Modern house, very desirable; also several cottages and flats for rent. W. B. Getchell, 319 Central avenue.

Miss Iva Winkle of Marquette, Mich., is a guest this week at the home of Mrs. Thomas McNulty, 24 North Sixty-third avenue west.

Mrs. C. Murray of 419 North Fifty-ninth avenue west has returned from a short visit with relatives at Bennett, Wis.

Watch repairing, Hurst, West Duluth.

COST OF LIVING BILL IS PASSED

Washington, Aug. 21.—A division of markets, in the agricultural department, to act as the clearing house for farmers and consumers in distributing farm products and reducing the chance of shortage or over-supply, is authorized in Senator Hoke Smith's bill passed by the senate today.

Information as to supplies of farm produce and the condition of the market in different cities would be distributed by "farmers, farmers' organizations and societies of consumers."

The bureau also would be authorized to investigate and report on co-operative systems used in the United States or foreign countries, whereby farm products are more economically placed in the hands of consumers.

HORSE THIEVES ARE FRUSTRATED

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to he Herald.)—An attempt to steal nine horses from O. Monson, a farmer living near Argusville, at 1:30 this morning was frustrated after a pitched battle with revolvers and rifles between Monson's employes and two thives.

George Gratias, employed on the farm, was aroused by a noise near the barn. When he ran out two men had nine horses outside and were mounted. They fled, firing revolvers. Other employes came with rifles and twenty shots were exchanged, but the thieves escaped.

FLANDRAU ESTATE PAYS STATE TAX

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—While the celebration at New Ulm and Fort Ridgley was in progress today, a notice was received by S. G. Iverson, state auditor, that inheritance taxes aggregating $1,710.92 had been paid to the treasurer of Ramsey county from the estate of Rebecca B. Flandrau, widow of the late Col. C. E. Flandrau, who was in command of the troops which fought off the Sioux Indians in the New Ulm battle.

The estate is valued at approximately $70,000 and will be distributed to three surviving sons. Mrs. Flandrau died Dec. 5, 1911.

Eight inheritance taxes, aggregating $4,522.49, reached the auditor's office today. From the estate of Clara McQuillan of Ramsey county $1,495.61 was paid, and from the estate of Joseph Lockey, also of Ramsey county, $228.73 was paid. The others included $68.97 from the estate of Leonard Garding of Stearns county; $271.91 from the estate of Andrew Anderson, Washington county; $232.50 from the estate of Hugh M. Roberts of Blue Earth county; $330 from the estate of James Cameron Scott of Carver county, and $180.85 from the estate of Herman A. Behrns of Marshall county.

WILL APPEAL TO LIBRARY BOARD TO RETAIN WEST DULUTH GIRLS

That Miss Lydia J. Marble, librarian of the West Duluth branch for the past five years, has served most faithfully in her capacity, that she is liked by every one in West Duluth and that she was instrumental in obtaining the present Carnegie library, is the claim of business men, professional men and ministers living in this end of the city, who have taken up the campaign for the reinstatement of of Miss Marble and Miss Maybelle F. Robb, her assistant, both of whom will be dismissed Sept. 1.

A special committee was appointed by the West Duluth Commercial club to take the matter up with the board for the purpose of having the order rescinded or reconsidered at the next meeting of that organization to be held on the first Monday in September.

Among the West Duluth residents now campaigning in behalf of the two young women are: Charles Applehagen, L. A. Barnes, Father D. W. Lynch, F. C. Harris, Paul Thompson, Adolph Homer and M. J. Filiatrault. The men are confident that their wishes in the matter will be heard by the board before it is too late. They claim that Miss Marble and Miss Robb have both served diligently during the past few years and that West Duluth is pleased with their work. Mr. Applehagen said this morning that Miss Marble is in reality largely responsible for the building of the new Carnegie library, as she took a prominent part in the campaign for the building. "It is a shame to dismiss her," said Mr. Applehagen," after what she has done for West Duluth and the library. If it had not been for her, West Duluth would never have secured the Carnegie library."

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

ENTRY LIST IS LONG ONE

Play in the Head of the Lakes Tennis tournament, on the courts of the boat club at Oatka, started this afternoon. It was expected by those in charge of the tournament that the preliminary round would be played off and that several games would be completed in the first round.

There are a number of players from out of the city here to take part in the tournament. St. Paul and Minneapolis have sent several representatives while the ranges are also represented by some of the best racquet wielders of Virginia, Hibbing, Gilbert and some of the other towns.

Officials of the club are confident that the tournament starting today will be the best, outside of the state tournament, that has ever been played here.

Following is the draw:

Singles.

Preliminary round—Ray Withrow vs. T. Hansen. Jos. Horak vs. J. B. Becker.

WESTERNERS WIN TITLE

Newport, R. I., Aug. 21.—Maurice F. McLoughlin of San Francisco and Thomas C. Bundy of Los Angeles, won the national lawn tennis championship in doubles on the Casino courts today by defeating the 1911 title holders, Raymond D. Little and Gustave F. Touchard of New York in three out of four sets. The scores were 3-6; 6-2; 6-1; 7-5.

OFFERED JACK JOHNSON $50,000 FOR TWO FIGHTS.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 21.—"The statement by Jack Johnson in Chicago, that Hugh McIntosh has not offered him (Johnson) $50,000 for his meetings with Langford and McVey in Australia is not correct," said T. S. Andrews, representative for Mr. McIntosh here today.

"The fact is," continued Andrews, "Johnson signed a contract to meet these two men for $45,000 and $5,000 expenses, also three tickets which is the same as $50,000 for the two bouts. Mr. McIntosh wanted to deposit the $10,000 forfeit in a Chicago bank, but Mr. Johnson objected, insisting that $5,000 expenses be put up at once. Finally Mr. McIntosh agreed to post the money with Mr. Tearney and all Jack has to do is to say the word and the money will be turned over to Mr. Tearney. All Mr. McIntosh asks is a guarantee that Johnson will go to Australia and carry out his part of the agreement."

MILLER VOTES AGAINST VETO

(From The Herald Washington Bureau.)

Washington, Aug. 21.—Representatives Miller, Steenerson, Davis and Lindbergh of Minnesota voted today to override the president's veto of the appropriation bill, which contained a provision abolishing the commerce court.

GLIMPSES OF CHINESE LIFE

Returned Missionaries Will Give Lectures in Oriental Costumes.

Telling of their experiences as Chinese missionaries, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Giffin of 1927 West Second street, dressed in Mongolian costumes, entertained at a "Missionary day" this afternoon at the Central Baptist church, Twentieth avenue west and First street. The program this afternoon was given for children, while a similar series of addresses, recitations and character sketches will be given for the adults this evening. No admission fee is charged and any one interested is invited to attend.

Rev. and Mrs. Giffin returned last Christmas from a seven-years' stay in the Orient, where they did missionary work for the Baptist church. When they returned they brought with them a large collection of curios from China, Japan and the cities of the Hawaiian islands. These curios were on exhibition this afternoon and will be shown again this evening.

Rev. and Mrs. Giffin were assisted by their two children and five members of the church, all of whom were in Chinese costumes. Addresses on the customs of the Chinese were made by both Rev. and Mrs. Giffin. They also gave two character sketches, showing the life of a Chinese family. There was also a program of Chinese musical numbers rendered during the afternoon.

This evening a similar program will be given, starting at 8 o'clock. Besides the addresses, the following character sketches will be rendered: "A Chinese Lesson," showing how a missionary works in China, and "An Eastern Romance," displaying the various features of an Oriental wedding. A program of music and recitations will also be rendered.

Rev. and Mrs. Giffin will leave Oct. 1 for another stay in China, where they will do missionary work for the next seven years. They will be accompanied by their two children, a boy and a girl.

FIFTY GARDENS IN WEST END COMPETITION.

Dr. O. A. Oredson, chairman of the garden committee of the West End Commercial club, and William Anderson, secretary of the club, have fifty applications on file in the prize garden contest.

Beginning next week a special committee of garden experts will make a tour of the West end and inspect the gardns entered in th contest. In all probability A. B. Hostetter, agricultural expert of the Duluth Commercial club; C. E. Roe, head of the American Homecroft society in Duluth, C. P. Craig and several others will constitute the award committee.

Dr. Oredson stated yesterday afternoon that only the gardens, whose owners have entered their names, will be inspected by the committee. Any school child under 15 years of age is eligible in the contest, the prizes of which will be awarded the first week in September. If arrangements can be made, a program will be given at one of the local schools, where addresses will be made and the prizes awarded to the winners. The total cash prizes amount to $30, of which $10 will be given for the most beautiful garden and the remainder in $5 prizes for the best flower garden, the best potato patch, the best strawberry patch and the best vegetable garden.

FARMERS DO A LIVELY BUSINESS

Every Stand at West End Market Place Is Occupied.

Every stand at the West end market place was occupied this morning and the farmers conducted a lively sale from the opening at 7 o'clock until shortly after noon.

Each farmer had a large supply of produce and fruits which easily found purchasers during the morning. Several hundred West end residents visited the market place this morning and purchased fruit and vegetables for the week. Many of the women bought large quantities of fruits for canning purposes.

Saturday is the next market day this week.

VICTIM OF DROWNING KNOWN IN WEST END.

Fred Johnson, 512 Twenty-fifth avenue west, and Oscar Peterson of New Duluth, were notified last evening of the finding of the body of Gust Lans floating in the bay at Two Harbors.

Letters and a notebook found in the pockets of the drowned man identified him and gave Coroner Christianson information as to his friends, B. E. Welberg, 1927 West Superior street, also knew Lans.

Lans was a laborer and worked for three years at Coleraine. Last winter he was employed by Peterson at Kelsey. Evidently his body had been in the water since March, and the manner of his death is unknown. The Lake county coroner is holding the body for disposition.

DRINKING FOUNTAIN FOR FARMERS' HORSES.

A drinking fountain for horses is being installed at the intersection of Twenty-fourth avenue west, Piedmont avenue and the boulevard. The construction of the fountain was ordered at a recent meeting of the council, following the introduction of a petition signed by a number of the residents in this vicinity.

The newly completed Hutchinson road and the culvert are now open to traffic and are constantly used by the farmers driving into the city. The fountain will be ready for use by the latter part of the week.

First Annual Picnic.

Duluth Assembly No. 595, Equitable Fraternal union, held its first annual picnic yesterday at Lincoln park, Twenty-fifth avenue west and Third street. A program of races and field events was featured during the day, under the direction of the following committee: W. F. Humerichous, chairman; George Walk, Edward Anderson, Ernest Gosselin and Samuel La Fave. The women members served refreshments the latter part of the afternoon.

Improving Dock.

Work has been begun on the improving of the Twenty-first avenue dock, which was authorized at a recent meeting of the city council. The dock is being connected with the new pavement, while an old shack facing the avenue is being razed. The water front will also be improved at a cost of $1,000.

Camping Party.

Chicago Pastor Here.

Rev. Carl Benson of Chicago, who represents the Mission Convent, arrived in the city today and will preach this evening at the Swedish Mission church, Twenty-first avenue west and Second street. During his stay in the city Rev. Mr. Benson will be the guest of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Daniels, 215 North Twenty-first avenue west.

Schaffer Funeral.

The funeral of John Schaffer, 80 years old, 2713 West Fourth street, who died Sunday evening of old age, was held at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon from the residence. Rev. George E. Silloway officiated and interment was at the Greenwood cemetery in Superior.

Gorby-Heiam.

Miss Lucille Gorby, daughter of Mrs. Rose P. Gorby, and Oscar Charles Heiam will be married Wednesday evening, Sept. 4, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. C. W. Rickard, 211 North Twenty-seventh avenue west. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner will be served to the near friends and relatives.

West End Briefs.

Miss Julia Holdeen of St. Paul has left for her home after spending the past week at the home of Miss Edith Staky, 2106 Piedmont avenue.

Mrs. Walter Villett of Minneapolis has left for her home after spending the past two weeks as the house guest of Mrs. George Buren, 722 Garfield avenue.

Mrs. M. Horton and granddaughters, Misses Irna and Gladys Baillie, are spending the month with relatives at Eau Claire, Wis.

Miss Margaret Grannis of West Third street has returned from a week's visit with relatives at Faribault, Minn.

Rev. George E. Silloway of the Grace M. E. church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, will conduct the weekly prayer meeting tomorrow evening.

Miss Alice Bruce of Minneapolis left for her home yesterday after spending the past week at the home of Mrs. Oscar Bjark, 2217 West Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Geistman returned yesterday from a wedding trip in Michigan and Southern Wisconsin. They will be at home at 2118 West Third street after Sept. 1.

The Women's Mission Society of St. Paul's English Lutheran church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, held its regular meeting this afternoon at the Lincoln park auditorium.

Mrs. John Slatt and granddaughter, Miss Ethel Aberson, of Grand Forks, N. D., have left for their home after spending the past week at the home of Mrs. John Moir, 320 North Twenty-seventh avenue west.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Second Presbyterian church was entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Butchart, 2531 West Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Anderson of 1825 Piedmont avenue left yesterday for a week's outing at Lake Vermilion.

JUVENILE BAND COMING HERE

Odd Fellows Will Be Entertained By Children From Home.

The Juvenile band of the Odd Fellows' home at Northfield, Minn., will be the guests of the Duluth Odd Fellows Saturday afternoon and evening and Sunday until 2 o'clock, when they will leave for Northfield.

The band is looked upon one of the best in the state and is stopping in Duluth after finishing a trip through the Mesaba and Vermilion ranges. Saturday afternoon the members will be taken for an automobile trip over the boulevard and to the principal points of interest in the city. During the evening they will be the features of the entertainment which will take place at Odd Fellows' hall at 18 Lake avenue north. Several local people will complete the program. The members of the order and their friends are invited to attend.

The band is traveling under the direction of Supt. William R. Palmer, formerly a Methodist minister at Biwabik. When they left Northfield they had expected to make but a short trip, going direct to Biwabik, where Supt. Palmer is well known. The band made such a hit that requests for them came in from the other lodges in this part of the state. Supt. Palmer was glad to comply wherever possible to show the different lodges one of the features of the home which they are maintaining in the southern part of the state. The band has not been traveling for financial reasons, no admissions being charged at any of the cities where they have been appearing.

The band consists of boys and girls, with the former in the majority. They are expected to reach Duluth Saturday noon, coming from Tower on the Duluth & Iron Range. The Odd Fellows will be assisted by the Rebecca lodges in entertaining the visitors.

ACCIDENTS SHOW BIG DECREASE

Shop Inspection and Safety Devices Are Having Their Effect.

William F. Houk, state labor commissioner of Minnesota, has just issued his annual report for the year ending July 31, in which he attributes the decrease in the number of industrial accidents in the state during the past three years to the shop inspection work done by the state department of labor, and the installation of new safety devices.

The report states that during the year ending July 31 last, the number of fatal industrial accidents in the state was 139, against 191 during the year before and 251 during the year before that. The number of non-fatal accidents during the year ending July 31 last was 5,324 against 8,164 during the year before and 8,134 during the year before that.

Mr. Houk says: "Accident prevention has unquestionably made more progress in the United States during the past three years than during the fifteen years previous," states the report. "The tables of accidents show a decrease during the past three years of 23.6 per cent for the fatal accidents and of 28.6 for the non-fatal accidents."

IS STRUCK BY AN AUTOMOBILE

Little Girl Steps From Behind Wagon Into Path of Car.

Vera Niles, the 8-year-old stepdaughter of Dr. F. C. Drenning of 723 East Superior street, was knocked down and seriously injured at Eighth avenue east at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by the automobile of C. H. Bagley. The little girl had her right arm and left leg broken and sustained a severe scalp wound.

The car was occupied by Mrs. Bagley and the chauffeur, David McCloud. After she had been struck the child was picked up and hurried to St. Luke's hospital, only a short distance away. She was given the best medical attention and it is stated that she will undoubtedly recover. It appears that the girl was crossing the street and stepped from behind an ice wagon in front of the auto, which was coming from the opposite direction.

CONSERVATION CONGRESS TO MEET IN MINNEAPOLIS.

St. Paul, Aug. 21.—Governor Eberhart has issued a proclamation calling a second conservation congress to be held in Minneapolis, beginning Nov. 19, and ending Nov. 22. It will be in session during the land show of the Northwestern Development association.

Among the speakers will be President Taft, the governors of twelve western states, Walter Fisher, secretary of the interior, President Arthur T. Hadley of Yale, and President George Vincent of the University of Minnesota.

NEAR RIOT ABOUT WOMEN CAMPAIGNERS.

New York, Aug. 21.—At an executive committee meeting of the Woman's National Wilson and Marshall organization, Mrs. J. Borden Harriman was elected president. The place had been offered to Miss Ida Tarbell, but Miss Tarbell said she thought she could be more useful writing about the tariff.

Mrs. Harriman presided and spoke at a women's meeting in Union Square at noon. A near-riot occurrred when the speakers had finished and Mrs. Harriman and several other women began throwing campaign buttons to the crowd in front of the speakers' stand. In a few minutes hundreds of boys and men were scrambling for the buttons and soon the crowd surged upon the platform. Mrs. Harriman was almost knocked down and the other women on the platform fared the same. Policemen were obliged to draw their clubs to drive the excited crowd from the platform.

Later Mrs. Harriman attended a luncheon of the Housewives' league, where she spoke for the Democratic party, while Miss Helen Varick Boswell represented Republican national headquarters and Mrs. William Grant Brown presented the claims of the Progressives.

MILWAUKEE TO GET CATHOLICS

Federated Societies Approach Close of Convention at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 21.—The eleventh annual convention of the American Federation of Catholic societies went into what was expected to be its final session early today. Milwaukee, it was a foregone conclusion, would be chosen as the convention city for 1913.

Definite action aiming at the formation of a national federation of Catholic women, distinct from the federation, though affiliated, was expected before adjournment.

This convention is the first one that has been open to newspaper men.

Limited divorce was frowned upon by the Federation when the convention adopted a resolution setting forth that the delegates "unflinchingly hold to the uncompromising attitude of the Catholic church in opposition to divorce on whatever grounds." The resolution was in response to a recommendation introduced by the law committee, in which it was proposed that the federation favor a divorce from bed and board, re-marriage of neither party to be permitted, though division of property follow.

Adopt Resolutions.

Other resolutions pledged the federation to work for amelioration of the conditions of work and living of the laboring man; to fight the white slave traffic, and insist that "all schools contributing to good citizenship are entitled to equal support from the state; that they protest against introduction of Bible reading in the public schools, and note the work of the St. Luke's guild, especially in New Orleans and Boston.

At a mass meeting, Archbishop Bonzano was heard in a brief address of greeting; Bishop James A. McFaul of Trenton, N. J., delivered an address on the "Apostolate of the Laity." Rev. J. H. Dorsey, one of the few negro clergymen of the church, and Indian Chief Hollow Horn Bear, were also heard. Chief Hollow Horn's message was translated by Rev. Henry W. R. Tropp, for twenty-five years missionary among the Sioux Indians in South Dakota.

STUMP TOUR FRAMED FOR GOVERNOR JOHNSON.

New York, Aug. 21.—Progressive national headquarters has arranged a partial itinerary for the projected trip of Governor Hiram Johnson of California, candidate for vice president.

Governor Johnson will leave San Francisco Aug. 27. He will go direct to Utah and will speak as follows, so far as has been arranged:

Salt Lake City, Aug. 28, evening; Denver, Aug. 31; Topeka, Kan., Sept. 2, evening; Kansas City, Kan., Sept. 3, morning; Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 3, evening; Columbus or Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 5; Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 6, morning; Watertown, N. Y., Sept. 6, afternoon.

At Lincoln, Governor Johnson will speak at the Nebraska state convention of the Progressive party. He will also speak at the Ohio and the New York state conventions.

For Nashwauk Postmaster.

Washington, Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The president has nominated Paul H. Tvedt to be postmaster at Nashwauk, Minn.

Decides Romero Is All Right.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The senate has again confirmed President Taft's nomination of Secundino Romero as United States marshal for New Mexico. After once confirming Romero, the senate had reconsidered its action because of charges against him.

SUMMER SKIN DISEASES

During the summer most persons are annoyed with pimples, boils, rashes, or eruptions, while others suffer more severely with Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, or some kindred skin disease. The eruptions may be glossed over and inflammation reduced by the application of washes, cosmetics, salves, etc., but no skin affection can ever be permanently cured in this way. Only pure blood insures a healthy skin and the circulation is therefore the point at which treatment should be directed. S.S.S. cures Skin Diseases of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. S.S.S. builds the circulation up to its normal strength, increases its nutritive powers and adds to its purity in everyway. Then the skin instead of being irritated, burned and blistered with acid humors and impurities, is nourished and healed by a plentiful supply of pure, rich blood. WANT RATES MADE LESS

North Dakota Shippers Make Showing Before State Railroad Commission.

Present Figures to Show How State Is Getting Worst of It.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Express rates in North Dakota, compared with those of Minnesota and South Dakota, are being considered here today before the state railroad commission, which called the special hearing to give shippers and the express companies an opportunity to be heard on the question of reducing the rates. Recently the commission issued a statement of a proposed express rate schedule, and it is on that tariff that today's hearing is being held.

The Grand Forks Commercial club appeared as the most prominent agency today in an effort to bring about the reduction of rates, and in support of its claim, the club presented briefs and statements covering the rates of this state as compared with those of Minnesota and South Dakota, showing that even the proposed new rates is higher than those of either of the other two states.

Big Differences in Rates.

There is the greatest difference between the rates of this state and of South Dakota, as indicated by the following comparison of merchandise rates in the two states.

Miles.	New N. D. Rate.	S. D. Rate.
10	$ .40	$ .30
30	.50	.30
40	.60	.30
50	.75	.35
70	.35	.35
100	1.00	.35
150	1.25	.50
200	1.40	.70
250	1.60	.90

At the conclusion of today's hearing, the commissioners will go to Fargo, where they will conduct a session tomorrow.

RANIER OFFICER USES HIS WEAPON

Sends Bullet Through Thigh of Man Who Attacked Him.

International Falls, Minn., Aug. 21.—Special to The Herald.)—Attacking an officer at Ranier, the nearby town on the Canadian Northern, proved disastrous for a man named Hudson a few nights ago as he is in a hospital here nursing a bullet wound through his thigh. Hudson accompanied by another man and two women went to Ranier and while the two men were in a saloon taking a drink the women who were left standing in an alley were accosted by Officer Bump of Ranier, who inquired what they were doing.

One of them answered insultingly, when the officer started to lead them to a street lamp to identify them. The woman called to their companions, when Hudson rushed to their rescue and struck the officer. The officer was felled by the blow and Hudson kept up the assault. He was warned that he was striking an officer but of no avail. Bump then pulled his gun and fired.

The women in the case were arrested and will have a hearing.

EBERHART AT NEW ULM.

Governor's Staff Is Taking in Big Celebration.

New Ulm, Minn., Aug. 21.—Governor Eberhart and staff arrived this morning for the fiftieth anniversary of the New Ulm massacre by Sioux Indians, to take part in the celebration today of the fiftieth anniversary of the first attack on the settlement. Large crowds are attending the celebration.

At a banquet here last night, tendered by the junior pioneer society, every survivor of the tragedy of fifty years ago, was present.

Thirty Indians from the Lower Sioux agency, all descendants of the "Little Crows" are here and have set up their typical Indian village. Their appearance attracted a large crowd, but it was noticeable that scarcely any of the survivors of the massacre, or of the other pioneers greeted their former foes, the old time feeling, it is said, against the Indians, still existing. The Indians know, too, that they are still disliked by the pioneers, and refused to attend the celebration, until they were promised immunity from all forms of violence.

NAVAL MILITIAMEN QUIT.

Fourteen Said to Have Mutinied in Milwaukee Bay.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 21.—Under cover of darkness, while a heavy fog overhung the lake Monday night, fourteen naval militia men from the training ship Dubuque and seven from the Yantic, are said to have left the ships in Milwaukee bay. Officers, who accuse them of mutiny, are searching for them.

The men on board the Dubuque, which hails from Chicago, charge that their discipline is too severe and that they were not satisfied with the food. The crew of the Yantic alleges the punishment meted out to seven men was severe. Members of both crews on shore assert that these are the reasons that the men mutinied.

If the men do not return to the ships within ten days they will be charged with desertion and subjected to court martial. On being brought back now they will be thrown into the brig for six or seven days on a diet of bread and water. The alleged mutineers are believed to have made their way to Chicago.

POSTAL BANK POPULAR.

Brainerd Institution Liberally Patronized By Shop Employes.

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Brainerd's postal savings bank was instituted on Aug. 19, 1911. There were nine depositors the first day, who turned over $195 into Uncle Sam's bank. In one year the depositors have increased to 131 and the amount deposited to approximately $10,000. Shop pay days always see a large amount of savings placed in the bank. The bank is presided over by William Spencer, and his never-failing courtesy has assisted to build up the bank. The First National Bank of Brainerd is the depository of the funds of the postal bank.

CASS LAKE'S MAYOR BECOMES A BENEDICT

MAYOR ANDREW JOHNSON.

Cass Lake, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The wedding of Miss Emma Lottie Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, to Mayor Andrew W. Johnson occurred at the home of the bride's mother this evening, Rev. G. C. Parish, pastor of the M. E. church, officiating. The couple is well and favorably known here, the bride until recently having been employed in a department store. Mr. Johnson is held in high esteem by every resident of Cass Lake and holds many positions of trust, the most important being that of mayor, to which office he was elected last spring.

The couple left last night for the Twin Cities to spend a few days, after which they will leave for a three weeks' trip to the East, going by boat and returning by rail. They will be at home in Cass Lake about Sept. 15.

CLEANING UP STAPLES.

Campaign for Law Enforcement Is Being Waged.

Staples, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—This city continues its campaign for law enforcement, especially against saloonkeepers alleged to violate the law. Joe Beaver has been having trouble with city officials. He is accused of selling liquor to minors and a movement has been started to deprive him of his license. Beaver has appealed to the county court.

GOLD PIECES ON CAKE

Given Cass Lake Couple Celebrating Fiftieth Anniversary.

Cass Lake, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The reception Monday night at the residence of Archdeacon and Mrs. Parshall in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gilmer, who celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary, was attended by over 100 of their friends. From 8 to 10 a steady stream called to honor the couple and they were served with coffee, waffers, ice cream and cake. The dining table was decorated with gifts from friends, most notable of which was the wedding cake, on the icing of which was placed ten $5 gold pieces, the gift of Cass Lake friends. Gold presents were also received from Bishop and Mrs. Morrison of Duluth, as well as from friends at Faribault, Sauk Center and Spokane, Wash.

SEEKS TITANIC FUND.

Michigan Woman Desires Her Share of Survivors' Fund.

Iron Mountain, Mich., Aug. 21.—Attorney Chester Knight of Norway has left for New York city, to present the claims of Mrs. Agnes Davies of Iron Mountain, who with her little son was one of the survivors of the Titanic disaster. So far Mrs. Davies has received $300 from the Red Cross fund and $200 from the ladies' committee, a total of $500. There is $750 coming to her from the New York American Titanic Disaster fund and from the National Surety Company of New York, and it is to present these claims that Mr. Knight went to the metropolis.

Brainerd Concerts Ended.

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—As the amount collected by subscription for the Brainerd City band has fallen short of the sum needed to maintain concerts, they will be discontinued. The sum of $436 was raised for the band by shop subscriptions, down town contributions and by two tag evenings. It requires, however, $800 to maintain the concerts throughout the summer.

BURY MURDERED OFFICER.

Owen, Wis., Marshal Killed By Hobo Borne to Grave.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Aug. 21.—The funeral of Fred C. Griffin, the Owen constable shot while arresting three ruffians at Owen some weeks ago and who died of his wounds, was held here yesterday afternoon from the residence of Henry B. Coleman. There was a large attendance.

Fred Griffin, marshal of the town of Owen, died at St. Joseph's hospital Sunday noon, from injuries received while performing his duties on July 31.

Mr. Griffin attempted to follow three hoboes who had held up a farmer a short distance from Owen. One of the men drew a gun at his approach and fired pointblank at Officer Griffin, who in turn emptied his revolver at the fugitives before he fell with a bullet through his lungs. He was brought to the hospital and was improving rapidly until last week, when he caught cold and pneumonia developed.

The three men were not captured. Soo Line detectives have been put upon the trail, and it is hoped they will be traced and brought back to pay the penalty of their crime.

Mr. Griffin was born in New York state fifty-one years ago. He came to Wisconsin twenty-five years ago and was married to Miss Jennie Lashway of this city soon afterwards. He was a saw filed and had resided in Owen for the past four years.

He is survived by his wife and two daughters and four sons.

STAPLES MAN WEDS.

Charles Long Takes Bride at Marquette, Mich.

Marquette, Mich., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The marriage of Miss Ida Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richardson, to Charles W. Long of Staples, Minn., was solemnized at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Richardson home, North High street, the Rev. Joseph Dutton, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating. Miss Viola Richardson, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Ralph Long, a brother of the groom, was best man. After a short wedding trip to Canada and several Eastern points, Mr. and Mrs. Long will make their home at Staples, Minn., where they will be at home to their friends after Oct. 1.

CAT MOTHERS BLACKBIRD.

Ishpeming Man Brings Feline and Bird From England.

Ishpeming, Mich., Aug. 21.—William Jenkins of North street, who, with his wife, recently returned from a visit to relatives in his native home in England brought back with him a blackbird that had been reared by a cat. A short time before Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins left for America, an artist employed on one of the Cornwall papers, called at their home, and took several pictures of the strange family, consisting of the foster mother and the two birds.

The cat adopted the two birds when they were hatched from the eggs and made a fond and devoted mother for them.

Great Falls Plans Fine School.

Great Falls, Mont., Aug. 21.—The school trustees have let a contract for a new high school building to be constructed as an annex, and to cost, including furniture, $175,000. The building will contain an auditorium, which will seat 1,250 persons and a gymnasium, modern in every appointment, for high school athletes.

Weds in Menominee.

Menominee, Mich., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Rowena Harmon Taylor, daughter of the late M. S. Harmon, for many years cashier of the Lumbermen's National bank, and Victor Templeton Srteator, of New York, were married Tuesday afternoon at the family residence here, Rev. Daniel E. Long officiating.

Wisconsin Briefs

Ashland — Youthful robbers broke open the warehouses of H. D. Ewer and the Armour Packing company Sunday and stole and destroyed a lot of goods. They scattered candy and fruit around in the Ewer place, not content with taking what they could carry. In the Armour plant they broke open a number of cases containing canned goods but did not carry very much away.

Marinette—Frederick Miller, associated with his brother, Sopus Miller, in the Miller sash and door factory, died at the Menominee River hospital following the amputation of his leg.

Appleton—Fred Kersten, wife and six children of Wittenberg, had a narrow escape Monday when their automobile, in which they were making a trip to this city, went into a ditch filled with water and turned turtle about three miles east of Hortonville. None was seriously hurt.

Waupaca—This city is getting ready to entertain many visitors on Sept. 5 and 6, the occasion being a big potato bake. Hot potatoes will be served from giant pyramids to all who come.

Oshkosh—John Dettlaff was adjudged insane by Judge Fred Beglinger and was committed to the Northern hospital for the insane.

Depere—David Johnson of Oneida was shot in his arm and leg by his son during a quarrel Saturday night. The son was placed under arrest.

Peninsula Briefs

Crystal Falls—There will be a special election here primary day, Aug. 27, to vote on the proposition to nominate all city officers by direct vote instead of delegates chosen to attend a convention. The election was brought about by the filing of a petition by a requisite number of electors last spring, asking that the method of selecting candidates be changed.

Negaunee—Capt. Moore, an old mining man, who formerly lived in Negaunee, and who some years ago succeeded Capt. James H. Rough at the Lucy mine, is on his way here from England, and will again reside in this city. He is accompanied by his wife.

Republic—Next Saturday evening Republic's new theater, which is now being completed, will be opened to the public, but the formal opening will not take place until the scenery is in position. The theater will be used for general purposes, including dancing.

Ishpeming—R. N. Morgan, who took Carl Winkler's place as traveling representative in the upper peninsula for Winkler Bros., candy manufacturers of Duluth, is in the city. He said that the firm has decided to erect a three-story candy factory, with ground dimensions, 150 feet in length by fifty wide, on Michigan street and Twenty-second avenue.

Marquette—Miss Petra Louise Hansen, daughter of Mrs. Mary Hansen, and Harry C. Davis of Urbana, Ill., were married Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride, 305 East Michigan street, the Rev. P. T. Amstutz officiating.

Marquette—Sylvester J. Lock, who is said to have been born and reared in this city, and to be a brother of Mrs. John Peters of Cedar street, is wanted by the United States authorities for deserting from the Tenth company, coast artillery corps, stationed at Fort Winfield Scott, Cal., July 22, 1912. A circular bearing a description of the deserter, two pictures and an offer of a reward of $50 has been received here.

Ishpeming—Dr. R. A. Burke, for the last six years a member of the Ishpeming hospital staff, has resigned and will move to Diorite to take charge of the practice now being taken care of by Dr. Spinks, who is leaving the location to take a post graduate course in a Chicago medical school.

Marquette—W. E. Fish, night agent at the South Shore depot, has been promoted to the office of agent at Eckerman, near the Soo. His place will be taken by J. E. Tubbs.

Houghton—Arrangements have been made by Pilgrim lodge, I. O. O. F., of Houghton and Mystic lodge of Hancock to jointly welcome Grand Master Fred Hamburger at a meeting in Odd Fellows' hall, Houghton, next Friday evening, Aug. 23.

Calumet—Mrs. Millicent Northway of Benton Harbor has arrived in Calumet and has taken charge of the work at the Calumet & Hecla hospital as successor to Miss Cross. Mrs. Northway comes here well recommended.

Hancock—Fred Francis, alderman from the Second ward of the city of Hancock, was seriously injured Aug. 19 while working with the bridge crew of the Copper Range Railroad company. He was using an ax when the blade slipped off and struck him in the back, inflicting a dangerous wound.

Calumet—Negotiations have been in progress for several days with a prospective purchaser of the lot upon which the old fire hall now stands and it is possible that a deal will soon be consummated whereby the lot will pass from the hands of the village.

Hancock—The fourth quarterly conference of the Hancock M. E. church will be held in the church Friday evening when annual reports will be submitted. It is expected an invitation will be extended to Rev. W. E. Marvin, the pastor, to return for another year.

Dakota Briefs

Grand Forks, N. D.—Miss Andrea Paulson, aged 26, who has been receiving treatment at a local hospital for the past three days, died early Monday morning. The remains were shipped to her home in Mayville for burial. Her father is a wealthy farmer living near Mayville.

Denhoff, N. D.—The Sheridan County Thrashers' Protective union has been formed. The purpose of the union is to maintain a set schedule of prices for thrashing and a set scale of wages, and to otherwise protect the members. The following officers were elected: Joseph Engle, president; Fred Bender, vice president; Milo G. Wood, secretary, and John Wacker, treasurer. The next meeting will be held in the secretary's office in Denhoff Aug. 26.

Rolla, N. D.—Joseph G. Lambert, charged with criminal assault, was sentenced to sixteen years in the state penitentiary by Judge Cowan. Joe Lambert, who has been working for Charles Jolliffe this summer, broke into Miss Freda Jolliffe's room and attempted to commit an assault.

Grand Forks, N. D.—Acting in accordance with the resolution passed at the conference held some time ago, the county commissioners have passed a resolution calling for a second vote on the courthouse proposition at the general election this fall.

Fargo, N. D.—Oscar E. Brandmoen, a well-known citizen of Nome, N. D., died at one of the local hospitals Monday from liver trouble. He was 22 years old. The deceased was a son of Ole P. Brandmoen, a farmer residing near Nome. The remains were taken home for burial.

Minot, N. D.—A train load of twine a day is necessary to supply the demand for twine in the Minot territory, according to Minot implement men.

Hot Springs, S. D.—A movement is on foot for the location of another hospital here, to cost not less than $150,000 at the outset. The Commercial club is working on the proposition and has interested leading Presbyterians of the state, and the synod of South Dakota has appointed a committee to report on the matter.

Minnesota Briefs

International Falls—George R. Strickland, teller of the First National bank, and Mrs. Edna Kay, the lady who visited Mrs. G. F. Swinerton this summer, were united in marriage at noon Wednesday, Aug. 15, at Hudson, Wis.

Bemidji—A. C. Clausen, secretary of the state railroad and warehouse commission, has set Wednesday, Aug. 28, at 10 a. m., in the capitol at St. Paul as the time and place for a hearing on the matter of the abandonment of the Nebish spur and station by the Red Lake road.

Crookston—Mayor Larson vetoed the $250 appropriation made by the city council at the last meeting for the armory fund, as provided by the state law. The council has been making this annual appropriation and it is not known what grounds the mayor takes in vetoing it.

Mankato—G. W. Allyn's general mercantile store at Madison Lake was entered by 'yeggs' Sunday night, but nothing was taken. They tried to break into the burglar proof strong box inside the safe, but failed. The 'yeggs' entered the store by breaking the glass in the rear door.

Little Falls—John Brown was in the city Sunday and made arrangements to have his furniture shipped to Duluth, where he will make his home and left Monday with his family for his new home. Mr. Brown is a conductor for the Northern Pacific on a run from Brainerd to Duluth.

Mankato—Otto Majchow, one of the proprietors of the M. & K. studio, while in an apparent fit of despondency Sunday afternoon, it is alleged attempted to commit suicide by taking a large dose of muriatic acid.

Rochester—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hoffman have arrived from Kenatson, Saskatchewan, with the body of their 6-month-old son, Gilbert, who passed away there. The funeral was held Tuesday morning at the home of the infant's grandmother, Mrs. Charles Hoffman, and interment was in Oakwood.

Moorhead—Ole O. Brakke, residing on section 2, in the township of Holy Cross, died Saturday at a St. Paul hospital of cancer of the brain. He went to St. Paul a short time ago for treatment. Mr. Brakke was one of the old settlers of Holy Cross township and enjoyed the respect and esteem of all.

Fergus Falls—Mayor E. T. Nelson, who as head miller at the Red River mill has occasion to watch the river closely, states that the flow is not nearly as great as might have been expected, considering the enormously heavy rainfall of the present summer. The river is not low, of course, but it is no higher than it was three or four years ago, and there is little or no raise after a heavy rain.

Winona—F. A. Rising, 70 years old, cashier and trustee of the Winona Savings bank, the oldest banker in Winona from the point of years in service here, died Monday afternoon following a serious operation in the Presbyterian hospital at Chicago. Besides the widow, Mr. Rising is survived by three children, viz: Mrs. Coy, Frank C. Rising, Minnewaukan, N. D., and Miss Mary Rising, at home.

Minneapolis—John W. Clark, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Fire Insurance company, died Sunday at St. Barnabas hospital, aged 51 years. Two daughters, Myrtis and Mrs. W. H. Cahn, and a son, John, Jr., survive.

Woman's Realm

With Jane Addams taking the stump for Roosevelt, Miss Mabel Boardman for Taft and Mrs. Harriman for Wilson, it would seem that the cause of woman's suffrage has made great strides in the past four years. Four years ago such conditions would not have been considered.

The Republican party in Iowa has for the first time placed in its platform a woman's suffrage plank.

Brand Whitlock, mayor of Toledo, has ordered "Votes for women" stamped on every letter which leaves his office. Portland, Or., has placed its parlors and assembly rooms at the disposal of the suffragists without charge. Following are some of the reasons why the women of Kansas are asking the Kansas men to vote for the suffrage amendment next November:

"Because—We prepare the children for the world and we want to help prepare the world for the children.

"Because—Government is housekeeping and home making.

"Because—We need the vote to protect the working girl.

"Because—By keeping women out of politics the soul of our country is diminished by one-half.

"Because—More men vote when women vote too.

"Because—One sex bears arms and the other bears soldiers.

"Because—We need the vote to protect our home.

"Because—The feeders of mankind want votes to help lower the cost of food.

"Because—The only means that men have devised for getting what they want is by the ballot."

RICHARDSON-LONG.

Marquette Wedding of Interest Here.

An event of much interest to many Duluth people took place on Monday morning, Aug. 19, when Miss Ida M. Richardson, a former resident of Duluth, was married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Richardson, 1025 High street, Marquette, Mich., to Henry Long of Staples, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. Long left for Toronto and other Eastern points on their wedding trip, and will be at home in Staples after Oct. 1.

TENNIS POPULAR.

Mrs. Thompson Wins—Country Club Players Start Contest.

The women of Duluth have become greatly interested in the game of tennis this summer, more so than usual, and a new tournament is being planned at the Northland Country club which will be started about the first of the month and the finals will be an event of the fall meet for women at this club.

The boat club tournament in which forty-two women played, was finished Monday afternoon when Mrs. J. F. Thompson and Miss Katherine Chamberlain met in the finals, Mrs. Thompson winning, 6-1, 6-1. The game was watched by a large number and her playing occasioned a good deal of favorable comment. The finals were to have been played at the ladies' day events next Saturday at the club but Mrs. Thompson is leaving the city for a visit and the game had to be played earlier.

Surprise and Farewell.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. LeMay who returned last week from their wedding trip and William Poirier who will leave soon for Thief River Falls, Minn., to reside, were the guests of honor at a surprise party given by a number of their friends last evening at the home of the latter, 2403½ West Superior street.

For Bride-to-Be.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sullivan entertained at an informal dancing party last evening at their home, 323 West Third street, in honor of their neice, Miss Sadie Kathryn McNamara, whose marriage to John Oliver Borgeson will take place at the Cathedral tomorrow morning.

The library was used as the ball room and was prettily trimmed with red with a large wedding bell in the center from which ribbons were festooned about the room. In the dining room red and white was the color carried out with roses, cupids, hearts and bells. On the decorated table the gifts were shown. The parlors and reception hall were in rose colored trimmings and cupids and the mantel was banked with golden glow and a large number of the same flowers were used about the room. Seventy-five guests were present.

The marriage of Miss Sadie Kathryn McNamara and John Oliver Borgeson will take place tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock at the Sacred Heart cathedral. A wedding breakfast will be served at the home of the bride's parents to members of the two families and relatives. After a short wedding trip the young people will be at home in this city.

Mrs. V. L. Anderson and children of Eros, La., and Miss Gertrude Tague of Spokane, Wash., are here to attend the wedding.

Card Party.

Misses Helen and Beatrice Forsyth entertained at a card party last evening at their home. Five hundred was played and the prizes were won by Miss Lois Curtis and Harold Quigley. Among the guests were:

Misses—
Edith Curtis, Marie Elston, Ivy Holgate, Vivian Kerr, Lois Curtis, Susie McLean, Merle Penton, Minneapolis, Elsa Bieberman.

Messrs.—
Roderick McLeod, Sherman Powell, Thorton McLean, William Craig, Irving Lee, Harold Quigley, Harold Bradley, Rex St. Clair, Bruce Sibbald, Howard Quigley.

For Miss Bowden.

Misses Lois and Edith Curtis of 215 East Fourth street will entertain at a card party tomorrow afternoon at the Wau-Pee-Ke club cabin on Lester river in compliment to Miss Florence Bowden of Los Angeles, Cal., formerly of Duluth, who is spending the summer here.

Staples-Holgate.

The wedding of Miss Lou Staples and Philip Holgate will take place this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Staples, 1023 East Second street, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. Dr. Robert E. Yost, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will read the service at 8 o'clock. The bride will be attended by Miss Ruth Carr as bridesmaid and Roy McCrea will be best man.

After the ceremony a wedding reception will be held from 8:30 to 10 o'clock, to which a large number of friends have been invited. Mrs. R. E. Johnson will preside in the dining room, assisted by the Misses Pearl Hector, Helen Haig, Winnifred Warner, Ruth Wilcutts and Helen Majo.

Go to Isle Royale.

Misses Harriet and Virginia Harrison left today on the steamer America for Isle Royale, where they will enjoy an outing. Among other Duluth passengers for the same resort were H. A. Leach, P. L. Cobb and party, H. W. Gray and party and Mrs. George A. Upton and J. P. Gehry.

A party of tourists, including H. B. Smith of St. Paul, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Weart of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Bergeson of Bismarck, N. D., and K. Frazer and family of Port Arthur were here today and left on the America for Isle Royale.

Cards at Club.

Mrs. T. W. Brooks will give a bridge party Saturday afternoon at the main house of the boat club. A large number of invitations have been issued for the affair.

For Guests.

Mrs. W. J. Irwin was hostess at a luncheon at the Woodland cafe of the St. Louis hotel yesterday in honor of her guests, Mrs. C. A. Monahan and daughters of Minneapolis. A color scheme of pink and white was effectively carried out with Killarney roses and Japanese lilies and after the luncheon the hostess sang several charming songs. The hotel orchestra played a program of music during the luncheon.

Two-Piano Recital.

An interesting recital will be given Tuesday, Aug. 27, at Foresters hall, Fourth avenue west and First street, by Miss Margeret Scheib and Misses Marguerite and Genevieve Fitzgerald, all of Fond du Lac, Wis., who are visiting Mrs. G. D. Jewell for a short time. These young pianists are remarkably fine players, Miss Scheib, who is only 11 years old, having already won many admirers here by her playing in recital here two years ago. Miss Marguerite Fitzgerald has won a diamond medal from a Chicago school and her sister will also receive one after her 18th birthday anniversary, her work having won her this place. Their program for what they call a "two-piano recital" will be as follows:

Concerto D minor.....Rubeinstein
Genevieve Fitzgerald.
Concerto G minor.....Mendelssohn
Margaret Scheib.
Marche Funebra (trio).....Chopin
Misses Scheib and Fitzgerald.
Concerto E flat major.....Liszt
Marguerite Fitzgerald.
Folk Dances—
"Maid of the Mist"—Spanish Dance
Margaret Scheib and Genevieve Fitzgerald.
Interpretative Posing and Dancing—"Spring Song," "Greek Flower Dance," "The Wind and the Waves".....
Genevieve Fitzgerald.

Children's Party.

Miss Harriet Holmes Arnold and Luther Bishop Arnold, Jr., entertained a large number of their little friends this afternoon at a garden party at their home.

Will Receive the Income From $2,000,000 Estate —Copyrighted by the Bain News Service.

MRS. BURKE-ROCHE.

This photograph of Mrs. Burke-Roche was made in Newport recently. According to the state tax appraiser's report issued recently Mrs. Roche will receive the income of $2,000,000 from the estate of her late father, Frank Work. In his will Mr. Work made elaborate provisions for the distribution of his estate. In fifteen codicils he traced the matrimonial history of his daughter, Mrs. Roche. He at one time cut her off altogether and later provided that the trustees should have power to give her an adequate income. The will provides that Edmond and Frank Roche, sons of Mrs. Roche, should become American citizens and change their name to Work. So far as known neither of the boys has taken steps to change his name. Their share of the estate is $2,716,917 each.

RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Washburn Will Introduce Sons and Their Brides.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Washburn have cards out for a large reception at their home at Hunters' Park on Wednesday evening, Aug. 28, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Claude C. Washburn and Mr. and Mrs. A. McC. Washburn. Both sons have brought their brides to this city to reside within the last few months, and this function is planned to introduce them formally in social circles here.

W. R. C.

Mrs. Armstead Will Be Hostess at Regular Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Relief corps will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Memorial hall of the courthouse. Mrs. J. T. Armstead will be the hostess during the social hour.

Picnic Luncheon.

The following young people enjoyed a picnic luncheon yesterday at Chester park:

Misses—
Mary Whipple, Helen Grimes, Eva Potter, Margaret Clark, Ethel Smith, Ruth Geddes, Bertha Hanford, Elsa Myrberg.

Bundle Shower.

Miss Jean Wanless, who will be married in September, was the guest of honor yesterday at a bundle shower given by Miss Nonie Leader of Superior.

At Country Club.

A number of small dinner parties are being arranged for tomorrow evening for the regular dinner dance at the Country club. These small affairs on dinner-dance night there have been popular with hostesses this summer and advantage has been taken of them each week.

Last Saturday at the club Miss Merrill was hostess at a dinner party of sixteen covers in compliment to Miss Betty Clements of Bay City, Mich., who is the guest of Miss Dorothy House.

Dance for Debutante.

Mrs. D. G. Cutler was hostess at a charming dancing party last evening at the Northland Country club in honor of Miss Carolyn Marshall, one of the debutantes of the season. Thirty couples enjoyed the dancing to music by La Brosse's orchestra. The club house was effectively decorated with yellow and white flowers prettily arranged.

Week-End Party.

The following people who were guests of Miss Gladys Shaw at a week-end house party at Crescent cabin, East Fond du Lac, have returned to their homes:

Messrs. and Mesdames—
Robert Harper, F. E. Smith, W. L. Bloedel, Will Harper.

READY SALE FOR PRODUCE

Farmers Making Good Use of the New Public Market.

Fresh Garden Stuff Is Most Attractive and Cheap.

With as fresh looking garden stuff as ever was grown, produce farmers from the district near the city were on hand bright and early this morning at the new public market in the basement of the Third Regiment armory at Second avenue east and First street.

Nearly all the stalls were taken and the produce, nearly all of which was taken from the soil last night, looked fresh and inviting.

With baskets to carry home their purchases in, Duluth housewives were on the scene almost as soon as the garden stuff had been laid out on the tables. Prices were reasonable and they bought freely.

Fresh produce neatly done in bundles was arranged on the tables and Duluth women had carried most of it home by 10 o'clock. So great was the demand for Duluth grown produce that many of the young women who waited upon the trade stated that they regretted that they did not bring a larger stock to the city.

Twelve bunches of fresh green onions, each bunch containing three, were sold at 15 cents. Three bunches of radishes, six in a bunch were sold for 5 cents.

Parsley and sage were sold at 5 cents the bunch.

In bunches of three, large winter radishes were sold at 5 cents a bunch. Black radishes were the same in price.

Rutabagas were sold at 5 cents a bunch, each bunch containing three large roots.

Four large carrots comprised a bunch and each bunch sold for 5 cents.

Potatoes sold at 80 cents a bushel or 25 cents a peck. Peas are 5 cents a quart. Beans are the same.

Cauliflower sold at from 5 to 15 cents according to size.

Celery was 5 cents a bunch. Cottage cheese was sold at 10 cents a pound. Chickens were sold at 25 cents a pound dressed.

Safety, comfort and enjoyment can all be had on the new Soo afternoon train to the Twin Cities. The country through which the new line is built furnishes hundreds of delightful forest, lake and river pictures. Coaches, parlar cars, cafe-library-observation cars. Leaves Duluth 2 p. m., Superior 2:30 p. m.; arrives St. Paul 6:15 p. m., Minneapolis 6:50 p. m. Ticket office, Superior street and Sixth avenue west and 430 Spalding hotel.

Duluthian Writes Song.

Songs composed by Duluth men are giving the city considerable advertising.

J. R. McKinnon of 711 East Sixth street, Duluth, has written a new song, "The Girl and The Duke" which has been set to music by Jack Stanley. The three stanzas of the song tell of the unsuccessful wooing by a foreign nobleman of an American heiress.

Mr. McKinnon has written some clever verse, samples of which have appeared from time to time in The Herald.

TO MANAGE ESTATE OF LATE FRED KARSTE.

Bessemer, Mich., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—James Devoy was appointed special administrator for the insolvent estate of Frederick Karste, the late proprietor of the bankrupt Bank of Ironwood, which closed its doors a few days after the death of its owner. Mr. Devoy has had charge of the affairs of the bank since its closing. He is considered to be one of the best men obtainable for administrator of the estate.

Mrs. Frederick Karste, the widow of the late Frederick Karste, who was expected to appear before the probate court and protest the appointing of Mr. Devoy did not appear during the session.

BIBB, PETERSON AND FOWLER FILE FOR OFFICES.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charles V. Bibb of Minneapolis, an insurance agent, today filed for the Democratic nomination for state treasurer.

A. B. Peterson of Twin Valley filed for the Republican nomination for representative from the Sixty-first legislative district.

B. F. Fowler of Two Harbors filed for the same position from the Fifty-first district.

THREE SUITS ARE FILED

Personal Injuries, Dissolution of Partnership and Recovery of Commissions.

One damage suit for personal injuries, one for dissolution of partnership, receivership and accounting, and one for recovery of commissions on the sale of machinery constituted the filings in the office of the clerk of district court this morning.

The damage suit is that of Jack Wilson, administrator of the estate of Erik Wilson Ruthas, deceased, against the Shenango Furnace company. He asks $5,000 for the death of Ruthas, who was killed while working in the Webb mine near Hibbing on March 21, last. It is claimed that the breaking of an ore chute which precipitated tons of ore on the man was the result of a defect, and consequently the carelessness of the company. The young man's parents were dependent upon him.

Andrew P. Wallin is suing his partner, J. M. Corcoran, and asks the court to order a dissolution of the partnership and a settlement, that a receiver be appointed and that Corcoran be enjoined from disposing of any of the property belonging to the partnership. The connection was effected in order that they might erect a building on the west half of lot 163, and all of lots 165 and 167, in block 66, Duluth proper, Second division. Wallin claims that he paid $3,500 for a half interest in the lot and that he paid also $434.64 in cash for labor and materials. He further alleges that $1,250 borrowed to help in the building was appropriated by Corcoran for his own use.

Albert Forest, in a suit he filed today, claims that the National Iron company owes him $580 commission on the sale of an improvement to a derrick, patented by him, and manufactured by the company. He asks a recovery of that amount.

FOUR CANDIDATES FOR ONE COUNTY OFFICE.

Ellendale, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The fight for the office of county superintendent of schools in Dickey county is getting warm. The present incumbent, Mrs. G. M. Lovell, who was defeated in the Republican primaries by Mrs. H. E. Miller, has entered the race as an independent candidate. Miss Mary Belle Flemington is the Democratic candidate, having filed since Bert Wanaka of Forbes, who received the Democratic nomination in the primaries, filed his resignation. Prof. L. B. Field is the fourth man mentioned, and though he has not yet filed, he very likely will run on the Socialist ticket.

BUTLER ADMITS HE HAS STOLEN $20,000 JEWELS.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 21.—The theft of $20,000 worth of jewelry was admitted to the police today by Frank Masse, a butler who was arrested as he was attempting to steal a bicycle.

Masse confessed, according to the police, that he had been stealing from different employers for six months. The greater part of his loot was from Mrs. E. W. Hopkins of this city.

MILLER HAS FILED FOR RENOMINATION.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representative Clarence B. Miller of Duluth filed with the secretary of state today for renomination for congressman from the Eighth district. Mr. Miller announced some time ago that he would again seek the place.

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Getting Off the Beaten Path.

What a blessed thing is adaptability to circumstances! And what a humdrum, cut-and-dried existence is that of a good many who have not the gift, inborn or acquired, of bearing "a heart for any fate."

The good dame who emerges from her room, coiffed and corseted, to eat just such meals at just such hours and go through her wonted routine of shopping or calling or church-going until bedtime, is apt to be a nuisance on an impromptu picnic expedition or at any sort of informal function, the cards of which have not been sent out days in advance. If, as is often the case in such hastily planned affairs, the carriages fail to meet the party at the appointed time, or the butter is forgotten, or some such minor mishap occurs, such a woman is distinctly out of her element. She fumes inwardly, while trying to conceal her perturbation and distress. She simply cannot adapt herself to anything but her accustomed routine.

While it is easy to deprecate the Micawberish waiting-for-things-to-turn-up attitude, there surely is something to be said for the philosopic acceptance of variety in life. It is an excellent thing, also, to have acquaintance with more than one avenue, lest the long-traveled one becomes suddenly closed to one's feet.

One of the most pitiable objects I ever saw was a man who, for over sixty years, had walked over the same road, to carry out my simile. He took the same car each day to his office, where he was treasurer of a conservative mercantile concern. He went out at 11 for a dignified toddy, returned, worked and went to dine at 1:30 on steak and fried potatoes. He almost invariably returned to his office thereafter and at 5 o'clock rode home by the same car.

Nothing impromptu ever touched his life. All was planned to the fraction of a hair. One day, however, the business, supposed to be as safe as the Bank of England, collapsed, and with it the value of his shares. His position and comfortable salary also departed, and on top of that his pretty, selfish, invalid wife died. His whole existence was changed in the twinkling of an eye; all the routine of his business life was gone and his family life, too, for there were no children. Under these blows he was unsettled completely and took to walking up and down the downtown streets in aimless fashion, or boring kind-hearted relatives with the virtues of the dear departed, until one day nature was kind and stilled the heart of that faithful, dull man who had never been off the beaten path and knew not how to go.

The hastily thought out trip, even as slight a thing as an impromptu picnic to a new place, has warded off desperate men and women from what they shuddered to realize was in their thoughts—afterwards. Had they to plan or anticipate or be under any responsibility, the charm would have been gone. Just the quick impulsive throwing of themselves into the spirit of the impromptu jaunt does the trick. Through the diverging path they find themselves refreshed and strengthened, back on the main-traveled road, with "a heart for any fate."

A LIFE WELL LIVED.

A wonderful career ended yesterday when General William Booth, founder and head of the Salvation Army, died at the ripe age of eighty-three.

The lesson of his life should discomfit those who sit in idle dismay contemplating the extent of the world's misery, and feeling that because there is too much for one man to cure it is not worth while for one man to try.

Out of the personal initiative and religious zeal of this one noble man has grown one of the mightiest and most valuable movements in the history of religious and social activity. Today the Salvation Army labors for the Lord—and for man, which is the same thing—in fifty-six countries. Millions of adherents fight its battle against the powers of evil. Hundreds of thousands of saved drunkards, thousands of fallen women set in paths of right living and self-respect, thousands of orphans and widows fed and comforted, thousands of souls saved to the service of the Master—all combine to testify how much worth while it is for one man to assail the forces that drag men down and to extend his hand to lift men up.

The Salvation Army has no church in quiet, comfortable residence sections. Where men need most, there it is. It does no long distance fighting—it fights the devil hand to hand. It recognizes that "a man's soul cannot be well reached and benefited while his body is suffering or his material circumstances are such as to preclude the blessing received from becoming permanent," to quote Miss Booth; and so it has industrial homes, farm colonies, workingmen's hotels, rescue homes, children's homes, food depots, labor agencies and the like. It has done and will do wonderful work.

It is a wonderful man who has died, and he has done great good in the world, both by his achievements and by the example of his life.

Appreciated.

George R. Sheldon's memory has earned him the job of Republican treasurer all over again. So it can't be said that the senate inquiry into campaign finances has been entirely without fruit.

JUST SIMPLE JUSTICE.

Chief Justice White of the United States supreme court and Associate Justices Lurton and Vandevanter are engaged upon a task that promises incalculable good to the country. They are revising the rules of equity procedure in our federal courts. They expect to have the work completed by the time the supreme court resumes its sessions, and if their proposals meet with the approval of their colleagues, the new rules will be promulgated for enforcement throughout the federal courts of the United States.

It would be impossible to estimate the gain to the nation which can be secured by a revision of these court rules. The need of change was acknowledged by Justice White some months ago, and he has set about the task in a spirit that promises the realization of much-needed reforms. The rules in force at present have been the guiding power of our court procedure for many decades. The law, to be sure, is generally regarded as a stable thing, and probably that attitude has been responsible for the neglect to change the methods of its application. But with the constant changing of conditions and the introduction of new phases into both public and private life, there has developed the necessity of an alteration in these methods.

In the eyes of Justice White, the old rules have become instruments of delay and invitations to tremendous expense. Judges, attorneys and laymen have protested against the application of some age-old principle to modern conditions. But the established order of things prevailed, and indeed it was necessary that it should prevail until some universal change could be made. Otherwise our courts would have degenerated into chaos.

What the public wants of the courts—and what it has a plain right to demand—is simple justice. The practice of equity itself was brought into being that there might be a means of securing and enforcing justice in legal form when the letter of the law failed to provide means for securing it. Now that the forms of equity have themselves become the instrument of defeating the very purpose for which they were created, it is high time they were amended. Chief Justice White and his associates are engaged on one of the most important tasks that they could have taken up.

When Will He Get Around To You?

It was only natural, when that Chicago man gave away $637,000 on his fiftieth birthday, to look up the tables to see how many more birthdays he is entitled to expect.

"FURORE TRANSITORIA."

It begins to look as if the Bernstein trial at Chicago is to become an epoch-marker in American jurisprudence. The case itself is not particularly promising. As the evidence has developed it has been fully as sordid as is customary in such affairs. There was nothing to indicate that there would be any saving feature to lift the trial out of the ordinary class of homicides, except possibly the social prominence of the defendant.

But as the trial progressed and the state concluded its presentation of evidence, it became evident that the defense would rely chiefly upon the plea of "furore transitoria," which being interpreted into the more common phraseology seems to mean nothing in the world but that old friend of the Thaw trial—"brainstorm." Or, carried still further, we find the thing resolving itself into the much too familiar "insanity plea."

But the court, in the person of Judge Honore, refused to admit the plea. He listened to the testimony of medical men as to the character of the "furore transitoria," and decided that the cause of justice would not be helped by the admission of evidence along the line proposed by the defense. And the verdict will have to be rendered without reference to the "brainstorm" theory.

It was predicted that whichever way the verdict might go, there would be an appeal based on Judge Honore's ruling. That will mean that we are to have the "brainstorm" issue ruled upon by the highest court in the land. In the light of some cases that have been tried in the last few years, there is sure to be a very decided hope on the part of the public that the plea that has operated to free so many slayers of fellowmen will be thrust for good and all out of our courts.

It would be hard to convince the general public that any person could be perfectly sane and rational all his life with the exception of a given period of perhaps a dozen minutes or less, and that that period would come just at the particular instant when opportunity offered tc do away with a person whom the sufferer wished out of the way. The idea of the brainstorm was recognized as a clever piece of legal jugglery when it was put forward in the Thaw trial. Its cleverness apparently impressed the jurors then, and its success in that case has led to its being raised many times and in many forms in subsequent murder cases.

But the theory never has found favor in the eyes of the general public. There is too much of the nature of legal and medical jugglery in it. It may be that now we are to be rid of the "brainstorm," by whatever term it may be called. At any rate, there appears hope for an authoritative determination of the judicial standing of the expert alienist. Such determinations as these are sadly needed. There will be little general regret if it is held that the era of judicial recognition of the "brainstorm" has in fact been a period of "furore transitoria" in our court procedure.

Useless Thought.

The new battleship is to cost $15,000,000. Just to think, that if we had ever collected that Standard Oil fine we could have built two such with it. And now Standard Oil has dissolved and it's forever too late.

YES WITH A BIG "Y."

"If you people want your government, you can have it," declared a public speaker the other night, and never was a statement more unqualifiedly true. The only question is, Do we want it badly enough to take it?

It is many years since the people of this country have in fact had their own government. They have seemed to have it. Perhaps a majority of them really believed they had it. But the events of the last ten or a dozen years have proved their mistake even to those who labored under the delusion that they really were self-governing.

The first unpleasant suspicions that perhaps we were the victims of a delusion came with the realization that there were forces at work in our national life over which we, as the governing body, had no control. Immense combinations of capital had sprung up, all unnoticed, and the first we knew intimately of their existence was a realization that we were no longer free to accomplish the utmost of which we were capable in the transaction of our private business. In the words of Woodrow Wilson, the young men found opportunity embarrassed and the older men found business difficult to renew and maintain.

Then came a natural search for the causes back of these conditions. It was found that they were due, to quote Governor Wilson again, to the fact that circumstances of privilege and private advantage had interlaced their subtle threads throughout almost every part of the framework of our laws.

Various remedies were sought and suggested, and there finally developed a system of laws designed to end the evil. But just when we thought we had solved the difficulty, there would crop out a conditional clause, a variety of meaning and interpretation, that nipped our hopes in the bud.

Then we began to learn the truth—that we were not in fact self-governing, but that our government had degenerated into a creature of the interests that had grown up without our suspecting their existence. Within the last four years the most serious and incredible conditions have come to light. And in that time every well-meant effort to overcome those conditions has been overthrown.

The intolerable climax came when the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill became a law, proving beyond the shadow of a possible doubt that our government was so far from being our own that those who were in possession of it dared to defy us to our faces and work their own will upon us and ours.

Then the people awoke to the truth. They made the first determined move toward retaking their government. Throughout the last two years the struggle has been sharp and bitter, but the cause of the people has advanced and still is advancing.

Now it only remains for the people themselves to decide what the outcome shall be. They can, if they choose, let the old regime continue. They can continue in power the man and party under whose administration the forces that have seized the power of government attained to their boldest self-confidence. Or they can restore to executive authority the man whose administration led up to that condition and one of whose last acts in office was to do his utmost to accomplish the nomination and election of the present administration.

There is a third alternative. It is to wrest the government from the grasp of the usurpers, by putting into office a man and an administration who owe nothing to the predatory powers; who appreciate and understand the situation into which the nation and the people have been misled; and who will do the will of the people instead of rejecting that will for the benefit and at the command of private interests.

"If you people want your government, you can have it," said Woodrow Wilson in his speech at Hoboken.

In order to have it, we have but to reach out our hands and take it.

Do we want it?—Yes—with a big "Y."

Col. Roosevelt says Taft is a dead issue. Inasmuch as the colonel was the first to raise the issue before the public, he ought to know.

A New York man killed himself because he was afraid he couldn't finance a dancing bull moose. Here's a significant object lesson for George W. Perkins and his pals.

The tendency of bright sunlight to put a dark tinge on some things may be the reason why some politicians are so fearful about letting their campaign financial records get into the light of day.

While most protected manufacturers were ashamed of themselves even back in 1890 for selling their goods at greatly reduced prices to foreigners and were certainly not parading the fact that they were discriminating against our own citizens—who pay the tariff taxes and who are therefore entitled to all the "benefits" of "protection"—yet it was comparatively easy in 1890 to obtain the export prices of most exported articles. In fact, two export journals, the American Mail and Export Journal and the Australasian and South American, then published the export prices in Spanish, while a monthly issue of the Engineering and Mining Journal contained a "price current" with the statement that "discounts are for export only."

Of course many leading Republicans and protectionists then denied that protected manufactured goods were commonly sold cheaper for export. Such prices, they said, were given only in rare instances and under exceptional conditions. Moreover, they claimed that the lower prices quoted to foreigners were for the wholesale trade alone. To refute these statements the New York World published a letter from the Engineering and Mining Journal which freely admitted that the lower (export) prices quoted in its "price current" were the actual prices at which any foreigner could buy our goods in our domestic markets and that "our domestic subscribers are barred from the prices quoted in these columns." The letter stated that in a number of instances "houses have written us: 'Prices furnished are for export only, and it would be most injurious to us if these figures were circulated in the home market.'"

Ten years ago, before American manufacturers had established so many agencies abroad, it was easy for the foreign purchaser to get American goods shipped to him in retail quantities direct from the manufacturer at the export price quoted in the discount sheets. But in this year's investigation the Tariff Reform committee's "export agent" frequently met with such limitations as this:

"We already have the Australian territory covered and would, therefore, not be in a position to allow you to make any export shipments to that country."

Of all the manufacturers from whom our "export agent" sought prices on goods for Newfoundland, only one denied giving special rates for export lower than domestic prices. This one happened to be a manufacturer of agate ware from whom our "exporter" actually had purchased goods when he was engaged in the export trade on his own account, and the concern did sell cheaper abroad than at home.

The large manufacturers generally have representatives in New York who now look after their foreign sales, and for these agents many of our "exporter's" inquiries were referred. Dun and Bradstreet were asked to look him up, and his office was besieged by salesmen anxious to press upon him at special discounts the goods he had inquired about in his letters.

There are about 22,000,000 households in the United States. That not one of them escapes the greed of the tariff-protected manufacturer will be very plainly seen by comparing export and domestic prices on articles of common use in the home.

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters should not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

STILL TALKING ABOUT THAT CONVENTION.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Upon my belated return from the rotary convention I found the papers which you so kindly sent, and assure you that it was a great pleasure for me to read them over carefully yesterday. They brought back to my mind recollections of a most pleasant week spent in your delightful city. I have attended many conventions, both large and small, but never in my experience have I had the pleasure of attending one which was so thoroughly interesting as the one held at Duluth.

For public spiritedness your citizens cannot be equaled. One was immediately made to feel perfectly at home, and in walking along the streets and seeing the banners in every window stating that the city was ours, and that you were glad to see us, made us feel that we were truly welcome. It seemed that the rotary badge was the only thing necessary to gain entre into any office or bank, and this feature made it exceedingly enjoyable.

One thing that impressed me very strongly was the willingness of all of our citizens to place at the use of the delegates and their friends their automobiles. When one stops to think that in a city the size of Duluth 130 automobiles can be put into service at once, it certainly proves to us the loyalty of every citizen and the desire of each one to make an event of this character most enjoyable to the participants.

You may rest assured that every Rotarian who attended this convention will be a lifelong booster for Duluth, and I believe that your city will feel the result of this convention for many years to come.

Again thanking you most cordially for your personal kindness in sending these papers to me, believe me, Yours very truly, W. S. MILLER.

GOVERNOR EBERHART AND THE SCANDINAVIANS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

The News Tribune is trying to induce the Scandinavians to vote for Governor Eberhart, addressing to them some kind words about their fighting ability. Have we come so far that we are no more citizens of the United States, Americans, but Swedes, Norwegians, Danes, Finlanders, Russians, etc. Not we, but the interests backing Eberhart. They see the defeat certain before them. To try to get the Scandinavians to support Governor Eberhart for re-election, because he is a Scandinavian, is the last hope of those corporation interests. The Scandinavians realize, however, that the political battles in this country like everywhere are not fought along nationality lines. Every political movement is only a reflection of prevailing economic interests. It is more than evident in this country right now, when the trusts are using the political institutions to perpetuate their allmightiness on the economic field robbing everybody and everywhere. Governor Eberhart's record shows, that he and his party have been servile to the trusts. If allowed to ride into power they will follow the same course. The Scandinavians are not benefited by the trusts. The product of their labor is taken from them by the trusts, because they are wage workers, farmers and small business men. A vote for Eberhart is a vote for more trust rule.

A SUGGESTION.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I have been a regular reader of The Herald for a number of years and have watched its progress through "thick and thin" with the keenest enjoyment possible, therefore I might give a few helpful suggestions (not criticisms).

Much is being said upon the progressiveness of Duluth, but every one knows, deep down in his or her heart, that Duluth is not growing or progressing as fast as it should. I lay the blame to the fact that this city is not advertised enough and furthermore its streets and parks are in a disgraceful condition. Superior street, our main thoroughfare, is rarely to be found clean. First street is almost as bad, while Fourth street from Sixth avenue east on becomes a swamp after a light rain, and remains so for some time. Only part of this street is to be paved. Its parks, with a slight annual expenditure, might be made the most beautiful in the United States.

Every true citizen of our city knows that the newspapers have done all in their power to gain the points just spoken of, but I ask The Herald as a favor to Duluth to set aside a little of its valuable space each evening under an appropriate heading, in which these points again should be vigorously advocated until it is accomplished, then another taken up.

Thanking The Herald for the space in this column. L. N.

Low Pay and No Ambition.

Chicago News: According to a recent article in an English journal devoted to the interest of working women, nearly all classes of woman workers in England are greatly underpaid. Less than $2.50, it appears, is the average wage for a full week's work for more than one-fifth of the adult women in twenty trades.

The writer of the article sees two fundamental causes underlying this low standard, but a closer examination appears to reduce these two causes to one. "The low estimate in which women's work is almost universally held" is closely related to the second cause assigned, that "the majority of the girls at work are from 14 to 20 years of age and they consider the work period as a mere marking of time preliminary to matrimony." As a result of this mental attitude, the writer of the article says, "they do not believe in becoming highly trained workwomen, as it is not worth while to strive for the highest pay for a merely transitory episode of life. The employers will not pay them higher wages, as their services are inferior and never indispensable."

Here is touched the most difficult point in the complex problem of adequate vocational education. Dr. Kerschensteiner in Germany and Mr. Cooley in Chicago build their plans on an appeal to motive. They recognize the interest in one's vocation to be the most powerful motive available. If a boy is filled with a desire to become master of his trade he is on a sure road. It will not be hard to make him see after a while that genuine success involves not only high personal efficiency but a recognition on the part of the worker of his place in the whole scheme of society. The idea of the rights of other persons and of the state grows out of a clear view of his own possibilities for advancement as a result of just and orderly social conditions. Thus the good citizen develops out of the good workman, whether he be a mechanic, a farmer, a lawyer or a bank president.

But the appeal to this motive as a rule fails utterly in the case of persons of no occupation, or persons engaged in unskilled labor. Dr. Kerschensteiner, whose vocational work in Munich is famous, confesses that at this point he has no remedy to suggest. How to appeal to unskilled labor and raise it to a higher level is one of the unsolved problems of vocational education. To put the case more hopefully in the light of the great educational advance of the last few years, one may say that it is a problem still to be worked out.

Cornering the Lifeboats.

Shipping Illustrated: One has never heard of successful corners in things connected with shipping. However, there has, it appears, recently been a corner in ships' lifeboats in England, which seems to have been very successful. After the disaster to the Titanic, the cry was heard of "boats for all," and a shrewd member of the Baltic, a well-known ship broker, at once began cornering lifeboats. He purchased all the second-hand lifeboats he could find, and all those which were building. When the Atlantic shipping companies were suddenly faced with the fact that they would have to fit their vessels with sufficient lifeboats to carry all the passengers and crew, there was a scurry round to obtain the necessary boats, and the wily ship broker smiled and said that he could supply quite a lot of nice lifeboats at £200 apiece, which same boats had cost him, it is said, £50 each. As there did not seem to be any other source of supply, the representatives of the various companies concerned, with many a malediction, had to agree to the terms of the "man who cornered lifeboats."

Kismet.

London Opinion: Fate cannot be evaded. A grand vizier asked his master, the sultan, for permission to depart at once for Smyrna.

"You may go, vizier," the sultan answered. "But why this sudden departure?"

"Alas! sire," said the grand vizier, "I have just seen the angel of death among the throng before your throne and he looked at me so long and strangely that I am sure he must have come for me."

"Go, then. Go at once," the sultan said, and after the vizier's departure he beckoned the angel of death to him and asked:

"Why did you gaze so strangely at my grand vizier?"

"I was only wondering," the angel answered, "why the man was here, for I have orders to kill him late this afternoon in Smyrna."

MINNESOTA OPINIONS.

The Non-Voter.

Hawley Herald: The non-voter is not only not a good citizen; he is a bad citizen. He is in direct conspiracy with the political prostitute, for his failure to exercise the franchise makes it easier for the political prostitute to create a majority. Every man who fails to vote doubles the value of the vote of him who votes for a consideration. The non-voter is a political klepto-maniac. By increasing the relative value of the dishonest vote, he steals from the honest voter the relative value of his vote. Such a thief is more reprehensible, than he who steals a horse; a stolen horse can be replevined, a stolen vote is beyond recall.

Vote Second Choice.

Northfield News: Every voter who wishes to see a nomination made at the approaching primaries which will properly represent the wishes of a majority of the people of the election district should make it a point to indicate on his ballot his second choice.

No Speculation.

St. Peter Free Press: Mr. Lee, one of the candidates for governor, makes a strong point when he insists that the state cease to assist in making it possible to buy state lands for speculating purposes. He insists that the state does not need the purchase money and that if it is profitable for a private party to hold the land for a rise in price it is also profitable for the state to do the same thing. State lands should be sold to no one but bona fide settlers. The present law, making it possible for speculators to get state lands, was passed last year and is no particular credit to those who voted for it. It should be materially modified.

Worst Is Yet to Come.

Luverne Journal: It does no harm to repeat that the important thing for the consideration of Minnesota Republicans just now is "whom will we nominate for important state offices?" The Taft—Wilson—Roosevelt debate can be considered after the primaries of Sept. 17.

Extravagance.

Fergus Falls Journal: The state treasurer issued a statement Thursday showing that the per capita cost of running the state of Minnesota was $3.98. These figures do not agree with those given out by Mr. Congdon and quoted by Mr. Lee, which placed the cost at $6.08. The special taxes may have something to do with the discrepancy, but even if the $3.98 is correct, it shows that the state government of this state is being run in a grossly extravagant manner, when the per capita cost in Iowa is as low as $1.87.

Limit Term of Judges.

Preston Times: Instead of the recall of judges and judicial decisions, there should be an amendment to our constitution limiting their term of office. But for the life term of our federal judges the recall agitation would not have made any headway, but all must concede that a life strangle hold on any office is liable to make the strangler arrogant, haughty, overbearing and in some instances corrupt. A ten year term, for instance, would give the people a chance to kick an unworthy judge out of his place without resorting to the more cumbersome impeachment proceedings.

Business Goes on.

Red Wing Republican: This year seems to promise a phenomenon in the business experience of the country. Heretofore a presidential campaign has always called a halt in business plans, but everything indicates that a great revival of prosperity is to take place this fall regardless of the political discussions and uncertainty. The business men are going ahead with their plans confident that there will be little disturbance in monetary affairs, whichever one of the candidates for the presidency wins out.

Going Down!

Clear Lake Times: President Taft's course in vetoing the tariff bills passed at this session of congress is rapidly losing him what few adherents he had in this locality.

Still in Business.

Boston Globe: A striking illustration of what the whirligig of time can accomplish in politics is furnshed by the Populist party convention of this year, which consisted of only eight delegates and which has just affirmed the platform of 1892 and added a few modern planks * * * the Populists seem to have had their thunder stolen by all the leading political parties, although none of them have adopted the view of the framers of that platform of twenty years ago, which opens with these dire words: "We meet in the midst of a nation brought to the verge of moral, political and material ruin." It was bad enough, to be sure, but not as bad as all that. We have recuperated somewhat and are still at it.

Doesn't Stop to Argue.

Baltimore Evening Sun: Roosevelt's method of argument reminds one of the free silver debate between the Georgia farmers when the campaign of 1896 was raging. The free silverite got the first go, and spoke long and vehemently, making all kinds of statements his opponent wouldn't admit. He allowed no interruption. The other man couldn't get in a word edgewise. As soon as his opponent rose to speak the free silverite left the platform.

"Now, that ain't no way to argue," exclaimed the "gold bug." The 16-to-1 advocate replied, as he moved off:

"Why, I wasn't arguing with you. I was a-tellin' you."

The Place for Him.

Dallas News: A police lieutenant who can save $200,000 in a few years out of a $2,200 salary ought'n't to be criticized for monkeying with Wall Street. He belongs there.

Are the Dogs Muzzled?

New York World: If it be true that there are 3,000,000 cats in Chicago, it must be due to the long-continued misuse of dogs in the industries of that city.

THE PRINCIPAL ISSUE.

Houston Chronicle: The tariff is the principal issue. It is the issue of the almighty dollar. The government spends. The people pay. The people are vitally interested to have a government that gives them their money's worth.

By means of the tariff, as the Constitution of the United States prohibits direct taxation, the government raises its revenue. The Democratic position is that the government should stop its tariff when its revenue needs are met. The Republican position is that protection is beneficial to industry. The Republican party has a plutocratic tariff record. It not only imposes a tariff for the government's revenue needs, but goes beyond and makes the schedules so high as to shut out foreign competition for the benefit of the manufacturers, that they may charge high prices to the American people. The Progressive party is vague as to the tariff. It is not quite so enthusiastic a standpatter as the Republican party; it is inclined to hold out to the people some hope of relief and to reassure the tariff beneficiaries by indorsing the principle of protection; it holds to no principle like that of the Democratic party, which declares for a straight course and favors a tariff for revenue only.

Now, for a long time the people have been deceived about the tariff. The Republican party has used to cover up its wrongdoing by waving the bloody shirt. This was only given up when the North and South could no longer be kept estranged. Then we were told that the Republican party was the party of prosperity. It took credit for sunshine, rain and the crops. Our infant industries, it was argued, needed protection. They grew to be giant industries, but the more they grew the more protection they needed, the Dingley law being higher than the McKinley law and the Aldrich-Payne law higher than the Dingley law. Finally it began to be found out that because of the tariff American manufacturers were selling American goods abroad cheaper than at home—that is, that the tariff, which was making money for the American manufacturer, was "socking" it to the American consumer, and that the foreigner was buying American goods for less money than Americans were required to pay.

Because of this monstrous injustice Taft promised tariff revision downward. He broke his word and signed the tariff revision upward law, and since then has vetoed every downward revision bill the Democrats, with the aid of the Progressives, have sent him.

The Progressive candidate was originally a tariff reformer. But when he went into politics he became a protectionist. For seven years in the White House he was a protectionist. He is still a protectionist, although he is inclined to hold out hope of tariff reform to catch tariff reform votes.

Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic nominee, believes in tariff for revenue only; that the government instead of taking the millionaires alone into partnership in fixing the tariff schedules, shall take all the people into partnership, and that the tariff shall be revised in such a way as not to disturb business.

The American people elected a Democratic house in 1910 because the Republican party broke its pledge as to tariff revision downward and in 1912 will probably elect a Democratic congress, house and senate, and a Democratic president, in order that an honest tariff that does not plunder the people for the benefit of the predatory rich may be enacted into law.

Waiting.

Serene, I fold my hands and wait,
Nor care for wind, or tide, or sea;
I rave no more 'gainst time or fate,
For lo! my own shall come to me.

I stay my haste, I make delays,
For what avails this eager pace?
I stand amid the eternal ways,
And what is mine shall know my face.

Asleep, awake, by night or day,
The friends I seek are seeking me;
No wind can drive my bark astray,
Nor change the tide of destiny.

What matters if I stand alone?
I wait with joy the coming years;
My heart shall reap where it has sown,
And garner up its fruit of tears.

The waters know their own and draw
The brook that springs in yonder height;
So flows the good with equal law
Unto the soul of pure delight.

The stars come nightly to the sky;
The tidal wave unto the sea;
Nor time, nor space, nor deep, nor high,
Can keep my own away from me.

CRITICIZES THE JOHNSON MEMORIAL

Cass Gilbert Protests Against Position Chosen for the Monument.

Designer of State Capitol Writes at Length of His Views.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Declaring the placing of the John A. Johnson memorial statue on the front steps of the state capitol to be a "damaging mistake," and the pedestal on which it is to rest as "wholly out of character with the building," Cass Gilbert, architect of Minnesota's $5,000,000 statehouse, has voiced a vigorous protest against the commission's proceeding further with its plans. In a letter to C. W. Ames and in another to E. E. Corliss, custodian of the building, Mr. Gilbert ridicules the location of the statue and pleads that the site be abandoned.

Just south of the driveway in front of the capitol, on the top of what might be termed the second landing, workmen are preparing to erect the pedestal on which the statue will stand. The spot selected, Mr. Gilbert says, is entirely the wrong place, and his artistic temperament is aroused.

Is Much Disturbed.

In his letter to Mr. Ames, he said:

"I have been much disturbed about the proposed location for the monument and have given it much careful thought since your letter and Mr. O'Connor's reached me. If the monument is placed at the location suggested, it will be a grave mistake, and it ought not to be done. I have endeavored to give the commission my very best and most disinterested advice on the subject, and I am still of that frame of mind. I am sure the commission would not want to locate the monument in a place which would be unfortunate both for the monument and for the approach to the capitol, and I therefore have no hesitation in putting the matter squarely before you.

"In the first place, the steps south of the roadway constitute only a fragment of the final design, as you will see by reference to any of my sketches, made several years ago, and particularly by reference to the drawings which I made for the city of St. Paul about two years ago. These steps, as they stand, are entirely inadequate for a monumental approach, and the walk from the steps down to Wabasha street is to be regarded only as a temporary arrangement and was so understood by the capitol commissioners.

Would Need Another.

"The location of the monument as proposed would imply a corresponding monument of exactly the same type in the corresponding space between the steps to the east of the central axis, and even if we were sure of getting an exactly corresponding monument for the vacant space, it would be undesirable because these monuments would be of such scale and dimension that they will not be well proportioned to the design as a whole.

"Moreover, the monument or monuments would not look well at this location because the background against which they must be seen is the main entrance pavilion of the capitol, which is the most complex portion on the entire structure. You will therefore have only a confused effect, detracting particularly from the monument.

"The monument will also be dominated by the highest part of the building; namely, the great dome, with its complex architecture and strong effect of light and shade. A monument of this character, for its own sake, should be placed where the background is as simple and direct as possible.

Like Picket Fence.

"You can try it for yourself. If you will set any small article in front of a picket fence, you may perhaps be able to see the object, but the picket fence will dominate. Now then, if you hang a sheet over the picket fence and set the object in front of that, you will find that the object itself has a relative importance and is distinctly and clearly seen.

"Another illustration: When you place a small object in front of a large one, the small object seems smaller and the large one seems larger. This is exactly what will happen if the Johnson monument is placed in the location proposed."

Mr. Gilbert severely criticizes some noted statues in Europe and this country, declaring their attractiveness is lost because they are placed too near great buildings. This, he declares, is what will happen if the Johnson statue is placed where proposed in front of the Minnesota capitol.

The place Mr. Gilbert recommended was on the grass plot just in front of the governor's office, between Aurora avenue and the terraced balustrade. There he would have it surrounded with gardens.

Referring to the pedestal for the statue drawn by Mr. O'Connor, Mr. Gilbert said:

"The designs of the pedestal which I saw were wholly out of character with the building. The sculptor, Mr. O'Connor, who is, so far as modeling and sculpture goes, satisfactory, is not a good designer of architecture, and his design for the pedestal at this location is far from satisfactory. He offered to employ me to design the pedestal, but I did not wish to have any part in it if located at that point because it would mar the capitol and would itself be a failure."

GROWTH OF SAVINGS DEPOSITS INDICATES PROSPEROUS TIMES

"The general business situation is very strong," said John H. Dight, cashier of the First National bank, today. "Every sign points to commercial activity and I do not think the people are paying any great heed to the political situation as a factor in business. I believe there is a good prosperous year ahead, whoever is elected.

"The savings deposits have been growing, both in amount and in number of depositors. This is certainly a sign that wage workers are doing well. There is an abundance of employment in this part of the country. Harvest hands are in great demand to handle the big crop and at the same time there is plenty of work up on the range for those who desire that kind of employment.

"There has been and is still a great deal of activity on the iron lands, notwithstanding the lower prices that are now paid for certain grades of iron ore. There have been big ore shipments this year. It looks to me as if the time would come when the high grade ore would play out, for it is not being developed so fast as it is being shipped out. There are ores of lower grades that are ignored now, but which may have to be mined some time in the future when iron ore is scarcer and higher and it will pay to handle the low grade ores, which yield no profit in mining now.

"Many people talk of the money that the big crop of the Northwest will put into the farmers' hands, making them better customers of the jobbing houses. There is another factor of the situation that is not so generally known and that is the fact that there are certain things that the Western Canadians must have from this country, and they will probably be excellent customers during the coming crop year, for Western Canada, like the American Northwest, has a bumper crop to sell. Canadians buy American automobiles, countless little devices of American manufacture, American coal and many other products of this country, and their trade is quite a factor in the commerce of this country. When they are prosperous they make good customers."

CHIEF JUSTICE START SPENDS HIS VACATION WITH HIS BOOKS

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Chief Justice Charles M. Start of the Minnesota supreme court is having a vacation. While traffic of a busy city moves about the great stone capitol and while judges of other courts are away in secluded spots, Chief Justice Start may be found each day in his private chamber reading decisions of law, devouring scientific articles in magazines and pondering over legal questions that have come before him for review.

To him, his private chamber, banked with law books and reports from courts of other states, provide recreation. While the associate justices are spending their time at home or enjoying recreation in the woods, the chief justice walks regularly to and from the capitol each day, content with his books and magazines. Last year the chief justice took a trip into Canada with two companions and later on this summer or in the early fall he may go away again. But for the present his vacation is with favorite authors and learned judges who write opinions in law.

A few days ago a janitor approached the chief justice and told him he wished to give his private chamber the usual summer renovating.

"Let me know when you are ready," the justice is quoted as saying, "and I will arrange to spend the time in Justice Brown's rooms."

When the April term of court adjourned, it was agreed among the associate justices and the chief, that they would take turn about at the court chambers to be on hand to issue routine orders and look after minor matters that constantly arise in connection with the court. The chief justice has been on hand himself since the agreement was made. Associate Justice Bunn goes to the capitol for a short stay most every day and occasionally other members of the court drop in. But Chief Justice Start is the member who really is "on the job." Justice P. E. Brown is at his home in Luverne. Justice Holt is at his home in Minneapolis and Justice Calvin L. Brown has been fishing on a lake near Bemidji.

Chief Justice Start is with his books and authors.

SPECIAL LAW ON CANAL REFUSED

Senate Committee Declines to Report the Taft Resolution.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The Panama joint resolution asked for by President Taft in a special message to congress to make clear the rights of a foreign ship owner to carry into American courts the question of free tolls in the Panama canal, was turned down by the state committee on inter-oceanic canals.

By a vote of 8 to 6, the committee determined not to report the resolution asked for by President Taft. This is taken by leaders of the senate to mean that there will be no resolution passed supplementary to the Panama canal bill, which now lies on the president's table awaiting his signature. The resolution has not as yet been formally introduced in either house, but the senate committee took a direct vote on the proposal as embodied in the president's message.

Wanted Special Law.

The request of the president was for a special law that would permit the United States courts to determine whether the Panama canal bill, in giving free tolls to American coastwise vessels, violated those sections of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty with Great Britain which guarantees equal treatment to the ships of all nations. All of the Democrats of the senate committee voted against the proposed resolution, with the exception of Senator Thornton of Louisiana. The vote stood:

For the resolution—Chairman Brandegee, Senators Perkins, Page, Jones, Townsend and Thornton.

Against—Senators Borah, Crawford, Bristow, Simmons, Johnston of Alabama, Percy, Chilton and O'Gorman.

Those who voted against the resolution expressed the opinion that President Taft would not veto the bill now before him, even if the supplementary resolution is not acted on by congress. This argument was based on the statement in his message that he did not consider the bill a violation of treaty rights with other nations.

WILSON PLEASED AT RECEPTION

Returns to Sea Girt From Two-Day Campaign—Rejects Maine Plan.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 21.—After two days of hard campaigning, Governor Woodrow Wilson returned to Sea Girt last night, pleased with the reception given him wherever he spoke, and satisfied with the progress made by the campaign committee.

The governor motored to Sea Girt with Frank S. Katzenbach, who ran on the Democratic ticket against Governor Fort in 1907 and again in 1910 was Governor Wilson's chief opponent for the Democratic nomination. Mr. Katzenbach spoke at the Democratic rally at Trenton with Governor Wilson.

The governor delivered his speech at Trenton in a grove of trees in the fair grounds, and was frequently interrupted by outburts of enthusiasm. He deprecated the existence of special privilege in the country, and predicted Democratic success in November.

After the speech at the fair grounds, the governor returned to the statehouse, where Representative Burleson of Texas talked with him for an hour. Mr. Burleson said after the conference that he had discussed details of the speakers' bureau, of which he is in charge. Asked as to the itinerary of the more prominent speakers, Mr. Burleson said:

"Mr. Bryan, of course, will make up his own itinerary and formulate his own plans for the campaign. The committee will conform with anything he desires. He knows best where he wishes to speak and at just what time."

Governor Wilson announced that he had decided not to go campaigning in Maine until after the gubernatorial election on Sept. 9.

GIRL 12 YEARS OLD MURDERED IN OREGON.

Eugene, Or., Aug. 21.—Mildred Green, the 12-year-old daughter of Rev. H. A. Green, pastor of the Baptist church here, was found dead in bed with her throat cut. The child occupied a room directly above that of her father, who said he had heard no disturbance during the night. The coroner's inquest failed to bring out any motive for the crime.

SHE GOT BACK HER HEALTH

Duluth Doctors Successful in Curing Goitre Without a Surgical Operation.

It is nothing uncommon to see a young middle-aged woman weigh two hundred pounds and over. Such was the case with Mrs. Anderson of Hancock, Mich., when she came to Duluth in search of her health two months ago. She had developed asthma, and the doctors told her that her heart was getting fatty, and that she was in danger of life when she exhausted herself. Her case became worse when her trouble was complicated with Basedow's disease, commonly called "Goitre." The doctors in her home town advised her to have her goitre taken out, but she was afraid of the operation as her heart had become very weak. In that condition she came to Duluth and consulted the Electro-Medical Doctors at No. 26 W. Superior street.

In these two months' time she has reduced her weight to 149 pounds, the goitre is nearly gone and "the asthma has left her for good," as she said. Cures like these are remarkable if one considers the time in which they are done, and the consulting doctor said that "that is nothing remarkable." Electricity is a tremendous power which penetrates all the tissues of the body and takes the remedies into every organ which is weak and diseased. It breaks up the poisons as well as the fatty tissue without causing the least pain. This is a triumph of medical science that eventually will revolutionize the whole medical practice. Why should we move fast in every way nowadays and be slow alone in regaining our health? The broken down, weak and nervous man has no cause to spend years in getting back his health under Electro Medical treatments. He improves at once and gets better from the first treatment he takes.

Electro Medical treatments cure ninety cases out of a hundred of those who have been pronounced to be "incurable." If it does this with obesity, fat and goitre, with heart disease, cancer and rheumatism, why shouldn't it on other chronic diseases which are not nearly as bad? It seems as though all diseases are alike to these great specialists. They have cured diseases of all descriptions, and have cured them that not a sign of them has ever returned.

They have cured diseases like Arthritis deformans, old crippled Rheumatism, Stomach Troubles, Impure Blood, blood poison and diseases peculiar to men. They have healed in a short time female troubles, Bright's disease, diabetes, neuralgia, bronchitis, consumption, low vitality, nervous debility, eczema, tumors. They have repeatedly renewed the youth and vitality of run down men and women, and have instilled into jaded men and women that vitality and strength which brings light and happiness. All consultations are free. Married ladies must be accompanied by their husbands, minors by their parents.

MINNESOTA POLITICS

Judges and Clerks of Election May Take Affidavits and Notaries Will Not Be Needed at Polling Places—New Registration Laws Apply Only to Cities of the First Class—Towns, Villages and Cities of Fourth Class Not Affected.

No Notaries Needed.

Election judges and clerks at the primary election will have authority to take affidavits of voters who have failed to register at one of the first two registration days.

Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith has so held, and it will not be necessary to have a notary at each polling place in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth. The attorney general has prepared a blank form so prepared as to be attested by the judges of election. A supply will be printed and forwarded to the three large cities.

The attorney general's opinion is based on section 2682, revised laws of 1905, which provides:

"All persons holding office under the laws of this state, including judges and clerks of election, shall have power to administer such oaths as they may deem necessary to the proper discharge of their respective duties."

Any voter in a city of the first class, who shall fail to register on Sept. 3 or Sept. 10 may vote at the primary election only on filing an affidavit of residence corroborated by two freeholders. The law provides that no compensation may be received for taking the affidavit. It was feared that the presence of a notary would be necessary at each polling place, and many wondered how the compensation of the notary was to be provided. The decision of the attorney general clears that away. The election judges and clerks may receive the affidavit and may take no compensation for it.

• • •

Only Cities Affected.

On account of the discussion of the new registration laws in cities of the first class, there is probably some confusion in the minds of voters of those cities.

Registration days in cities of the first class, which are cities over 50,000 in population, are Sept. 3, 10, 17 and Oct. 26. Voters must register on one of the first two days or they may not vote at the primary election except on filing an affidavit of residence, corroborated by two free-holders of the election district. Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth are the only cities of the first class.

In cities of the second and third class the primary election day is the first registration day, and the others are Oct. 29 and Oct. 22. Voters may vote at the primary election without formality other than registration.

Under the 1910 census, there are no cities of the second class in Minnesota, and the only cities of the third class, which are cities having between 10,000 and 20,000 population, are Winona, St. Cloud, Virginia and Mankato. In a case now pending in district court, the question of whether the 1910 federal census or the 1905 state census shall govern in fixing the class of Virginia, A decision will probably be obtained in time to fix Virginia's status for the coming election.

The new law made no changes in the registration laws applying to towns, villages and cities of the fourth class, which are cities of under 10,000 population. In those districts, the boards of registration must meet on the primary election. In cities of the fourth class the boards must make lists of the people entitled to vote at the general election, the names being arranged in alphabetical order, and for at least thirty days copies of the list shall be posted in three public places in the district. In cities of the fourth class the board must also meet on Oct. 29 and remain in session all day to make changes in the list. On election day any person offering to vote and whose name is not on the list may have it entered after satisfying the board of his right to vote, and taking the oath.

Knox May File for Senate.

A report comes from St. Paul that T. J. Knox of Jackson may file for the Democratic nomination for the United States senate against Daniel W. Lawler. Mr. Knox is one of the best known Democrats in the state. He was a delegate-at-large to the Democratic convention at Baltimore, was prominently mentioned for the governorship, and would have been a candidate for congress in the second district had Congressman Hammond entered the race for the governorship. Just what basis there is for the St. Paul report that he will file for the senate is not known. Thus far, Lawler has the field to himself.

First District for Wilson.

Julius J. Reiter, former mayor of Rochester, who was in St. Paul yesterday, said that the Wilson sentiment in the First district is well formed and is growing. The First district Progressive Republicans are more inclined to La Follette than to Roosevelt and many of the La Follette adherents will vote for Wilson. The Roosevelt movement in the First district is without definite leadership, and Mr. Reiter believes that Wilson will carry the district over both Republican candidates. Mr. Reiter has not decided whether he will file for the state railroad and warehouse commission. If Andrew French, former state dairy and food commissioner, gets into the race, Mr. Reiter will stay out. Mr. French's home is at Wabasha, which is also in the First district.

• • •

Matthews Files for Judge.

M. E. Matthews of Marshall has filed on the non-partisan ticket for the nomination for judge of the Ninth district, consisting of Brown, Lincoln, Lyon, Nicollet and Redwood counties. Judge I. M. Olsen, Republican, is a candidate for re-election. Mr. Matthews is one of the veteran Democrats of Minnesota, and is well known in Duluth. He attended the state convention here this year, and for many years has been high in the Democratic councils in the state. He was a candidate against Judge Olsen six years ago and was defeated by a narrow margin. This year under the non-partisan law, he is conceded a good chance of election.

• • •

Was Known in Duluth.

Duluth Democrats were pained to learn of the death in Rochester, Minn., of John M. Deull, who attended the Democratic convention at Baltimore as an alternate on the proxy of Julius J. Reiter, also of Rochester. Mr. Deull had not missed a Democratic national convention for thirty-six years, and at Baltimore sat with the Minnesota delegation for the first time. It is believed the excitement of the convention hastened his death. On his return from Baltimore, he lost his voice and declined rapidly.

Three or four days before the Democratic state convention here, Mr. Deull appeared on the scene, full of Democratic spirit. He boosted for Mr. Reiter for delegate-at-large from Minnesota to Baltimore, and was a conspicuous figure at the convention. When Mr. Reiter, who was chosen an alternate, was unable to go to Baltimore, he gave Mr. Deull his proxy.

Ringdal and Peterson.

It is expected that P. M. Ringdal, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, and James A. Peterson, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator, will be the speakers at the Labor day celebration here. It will probably be the first visit of both to Duluth during the campaign. With candidates of different parties speaking from the same platform, the occasion will be a notable one politically.

In the Fourth District.

The withdrawal of Ambrose Tighe from the race for the Republican nomination for congress in the Fourth district leaves the primary field clear for Congressman Fred C. Stevens. However, Hugh T. Halbert has announced that he will file as a Progressive, on petitions after the primary election. Mr. Halbert has had a congressional bee for a long while, and he may be expected to stick to his decision. That being the case, Mr. Stevens will have the fight of his life at the general election. Three candidates are in the field for the Democratic nomination and all are strong men. The Democratic candidate will have a big advantage in a three-cornered race, and members of that party are looking forward with hope and longing to the election of their man.

Dr. Clark Files.

Dr. Floyd F. Clark filed with the county auditor this morning for the Republican nomination for coroner of St. Louis county. He is the third to enter the race. Coroner C. F. McComb and Dr. James C. BATTLE IS NEAR IN KANSAS "WAR"

Bridge Controlling Fort Leavenworth Approach Is Center of Operations.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 21.—Down in the valley of the Kansas river today 6,000 anxious, fighting men, eager for a combat, are marching towards each other bent on winning the first real "battle" of the Kansas war maneuvers.

Confident of victory and with sealed orders from the war department at Washington, the Red army broke camp at Lawrence at daybreak. The Blue army was not much later in getting away from Harkers Grove, where it spent the night. Recent rains have made roads almost impassable, but even with this handicap both armies planned to make Bonner Springs by night.

The Blues have an advantage because their outposts have already gained control of the bridge that spans the Kansas river at Bonner Springs. It is over this structure that both armies must pass to arrive at Fort Leavenworth, which both commands are striving to reach, the Red army with a desire to attack the fort and the Blue army to reinforce the little garrison of defenders now inside it. The Blue problem also is to attempt to ward off the Red army and prevent it from reaching Leavenworth.

If the main force of the Blue army can reach the bridge and cross it before the Red army arrives the structure then will be theoretically destroyed and the Red army will be forced to erect another bridge before it can proceed to Leavenworth. In any event an important "battle" is probable today in the vicinity of the structure.

NO MONEY TO MAKE TOY MOOSE; KILLS HIMSELF.

New York, Aug. 21.—Fear that he could not raise money enough to launch a dancing bull moose novelty he had invented was the only reason his friends could give for the suicide of Albert Funk. The man was found dead in bed at his lodging house with the end of a gas tube between his teeth. About the room were several models of his invention and sheets of paper covered with figures, indicating that Funk had spent the last hours calculating the cost of manufacturing the toy.

AMUSEMENTS

"THE SHOW GIRL."

Popular-Priced Mixture of Musical Comedy and Vaudeville.

Probably the most pleasing feature of "The Show Girl," which is being presented this week at the Lyceum theater by the Welch-Francis company, which gave the opening performance last evening, is the juggling by Kinzo, a Japanese master of the art. His rolling of a plate and later of a dollar on the upper side of a Japanese parasol, as he spun it around, drew forth many bursts of hearty applause from the large audience that gathered in the theater last night. This was only one of his many clever feats.

"A Royal Reception," a vaudeville revue in three acts, comprised the main part of the program. This included several new comic songs, some of which were received with demonstrations of pleasure, particularly the one entitled "Oh, You New York! Oh, You Chicago!" The dancing by the "Maids from Manhattan" seemed to make a hit.

It is a popular-priced attraction, and the theater was well filled last evening. The audience seemed to enjoy the performance as a whole.

SUNDAY IS THE CIRCUS EMPLOYES' DAY OF REST

Sunday is the circus man's day of rest and relaxation. After the pitching of the menagerie and the smaller tents, necessary to the accommodations of the animals, the day is granted for freedom and enjoyment. The start from the Saturday stand is always made the same night, and the Sabbath respite is generally improved for long railroad runs.

The route is so planned in advance that on no one night except Saturday is the journey so long that everything favorable, there will be no tardy arrival. It is not deemed expedient to risk a longer "jump" than 100 or 125 miles. The trips of a greater distance are generally reserved for the night which precedes the day of exemption. So it is that the circus folks, ending their slumber, find the train still on the move, with a possible prospect of several hours more in their cramped quarters.

Chairs are soon placed on platforms and at windows, and the workingmen gather in groups on car tops or under the ample spread of the wagons. These Sunday morning pilgrimages carry the circus through all climates and localities, and unless too protracted, afford a sense of keen enjoyment. There are inviting expanses of woodland and water, moor and mountain. Smiling cities and beautiful villages pass in procession. The gazing native is bombarded with interrogations as to the proximity of the circus train's ephemeral goal. Sometimes there are brief stops at wayside stations, while the engines take water or give place to other iron haulers. Then occurs an exodus from the cars. Men, women and children improve the opportunity to exercise their cramped bodies. There is generally a hurried dash for the humble railroad restaurant. Never before has its composure been so suddenly disturbed. Coffee is gulped down eager throats, and the return to the train is made with hands and pockets overflowing with sandwiches.

Few of the trainers, performers and members of the executive staff go to the show grounds for the Sunday meals. They register at the local hotels and spend much time in writing and reading. They like to get away from their cramped sleeping quarters. In the evening a large number attend church. On the show grounds a sermon is generally preached by the minister of the circus. They are representatives from almost every creed, both Protestants and Catholics. To offset any unharmonious feelings the sermon is seldom very orthodox but rather a practical moral talk in which the followers of the circus are warned to beware of the various pitfalls which confront them.

With the Al G. Barnes circus the spiritual wants of the showmen are looked after by the Rev. Cadesmas Pope. Early in the summer a revival meeting lasting a fortnight was conducted under the direction of Dr. Lyman Bennett, a representative of the Salvation Army in New York city. The management of the show paid all the expenses of the minister and his assistants while they traveled with the show.

Circuses of today and those of other days are widely different. Today they are conducted along sound business principles. Sober industrious employes are sought. They are taught to save their money and to improve their conditions. It is a well known fact that in bygone days many men of bad repute were connected with tented enterprises.

Next Sunday morning the Al G. Barnes Big Three Ring Wild Animal circus will arrive in Duluth. This time, however, the run will be the shortest of the entire season—five miles. The show is coming from Superior, where two performances will be given Saturday. The circus will take up an encampment at Twenty-ninth avenue west and Superior street. Two performances will be given Monday in the big waterproof arena tent, at 2 and 8 p. m. A monster street parade will leave the show grounds at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning and will pass through all the principal downtown streets.

HOMELESS BOY IS GIVEN CARE

Carson City, Mich., Youth Driven From Home By Grandmother.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Found exhausted after wandering aimlessly about the streets Cecil Gillee, 12 years old of Carson City, Mich., was picked up by the police today. When his father and mother died several years ago the boy said he went to live with his grandparents. A year ago his grandmother died and his grandfather remarried recently, his new grandmother forcing the boy to leave home. Cecil is being cared for temporarily by the poor authorities. He declared he had slept in a bed only once in a week and had eaten but little.

BOUNDARY LINE BEING INSPECTED

International Boundary Commission Traveling Down the Lakes.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The members of the international boundary line commission, left here on their trip down the lakes after making a thorough inspection of the boundary line established through the St. Maries river last summer.

The tour started at Port Arthur and will terminate at St. Regis on the St. Lawrence river and is being made on a Canadian revenue cutter. The members of the commission are: O. H. Ernst of Washington, D. C.; Edward Wilson of Buffalo; George Clinton of Buffalo, and E. E. Haskell of Cornell university; Sir George C. Gibbons of London, Ont.; Thomas Cote, W. J. Stewart and Lewis Caste of Ottawa.

EXPELLED FROM ORDERS.

Fargo Red Men and Eagles Don't Want A. M. Knight.

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Following his expulsion from the Red Men, A. M. Knight last night was expelled from the Eagles for conduct unbecoming a member of that order. Desertion of his wife and being a fugitive from justice are charged. He was secretary of the Red Men and the local Eagles, also of the state Eagles. He disappeared last spring after being short in his accounts in both fraternal organizations and in business deals.

WALKS UNDER WATER.

Old French Sailor Has Small Apparatus That Works.

Paris, Aug. 21.—Maurice Ferenz, an old sailor, has caused a mild sensation by giving an exhibition in the Seine of a simple apparatus he has invented which enables him to remain under water.

Attired in an ordinary bathing suit and equipped with his appliance, which is almost small enough to be carried in the pocket, Perenz made several walks under water at the bottom of the river, each lasting from ten to twenty minutes. The apparatus consists of a tube and mouthpiece, arranged to permit of exhalation. A bicycle pump, operated by an assistant either in a boat or on shore, forces air into the tube. Officials and doctors who superintended the experiments declared the apparatus a success.

HILLSIDE CLUB.

Welfare Board Work Will Be Explained at Open Meeting.

A representative from the public welfare board will address the members and friends of the Central Hillside Improvement club at the Franklin school this evening at 8 o'clock, on the scope of the work and advisability of appropriating the amount asked to carry on the work.

Any Seventh street property owners who have not signed the petition to grade East Seventh street will have an opportunity. These meetings are open to the general public and everybody is invited to come and take part.

POLISH CATHOLIC PRIESTS ORGANIZE.

Bay City, Mich., Aug. 21.—Polish Catholic priests representing societies from eleven different states met at St. Stanislaus church yesterday to perfect the organization of the Polish Priests' Union of the United States. The constitution submitted by the executive committee was adopted with a few changes. The states represented by delegates are, New York, Massachusetts, Maine, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan.

Bishop Rhode of Chicago is presiding at the meetings, which will continue throughout Wednesday.

Women Delegates Expected.

Minot, N. D., Aug. 21.—Two women delegates from each county will attend the Progressive state convention to be held at Fargo, Sept. 6, for the purpose of nominating a full state ticket according to a supplementary call issued by Dorr H. Carroll, chairman of the state central committee today. Each county will send eight delegates, six men and two women.

GLEANED ALONG THE POLICE RUN

Right off the reel you might not appreciate it, but most cops make good nurses—that is, in the way of taking care of kids.

Big and blunt and gruff many of them may be, but they seem to make a hit with the youngsters. Leave it to the youngsters not to become chummy with any one they don't like.

Taking care of lost children is one of the duties of a police force of which one hears little. But it is nevertheless quite an important part of the police administration. Scarcely a day passes but one or more lost boys or girls are returned to their homes by the bluecoats.

Sometimes they are taken into headquarters or the West end or West Duluth stations to await the coming of their parents. While there it seems to be up to the cops to entertain them, which they do with surprising success. Strange and foreign to a child's comprehension as is a police station, it's the exception to hear a kid crying within its walls. And if the tears should start to stream it is not long before they are stayed. The youngster soon seems to make himself at home and acts according to nature. Some of them laugh and rollic and have the jolliest kind of a time with the policemen, while others seem content to amuse themselves quietly and unobtrusively.

As often as not the kids come in with faces through which the color of the skin is perceived with difficulty. It does one good to see a 200-pound copper pick him or her up in his arms, carry him to the back office and wash away the dirt, comb the hair and brush up and fix the clothes. Most kids leave the station looking better than they did when they were brought inside.

This morning Patrolman Hood found a toddling youngster at Fourth avenue east and Fourth street. The child had been there an hour and no one had claimed it, according to people in the vicinity. The policeman lifted the baby to his saddle. He rode about with the little one for a couple of hours in an unsuccessful search of the parents. While there the child was having the time of its life, enjoying every minute to the limit and objecting to leaving when the officer dismounted at headquarters. Up to noon nothing had been heard from either father or mother, but they will undoubtedly put in an appearance before the afternoon is far spent.

In the course of several years but one child has had to remain in headquarters over night, being cared for there from afternoon until the next morning. Frequently the police have descriptions of children who have been lost before they are brought to the station, the parents having telephoned in ahead of their straying offspring.

Matt Ylimaki said he couldn't remember anything that happened last night when he was brought into police court today to answer a charge of discharging firearms in the city limits. The court directed that a plea of not guilty be entered and the hearing set for this afternoon. Matt was pinched while trying to break glass insulators on the top of the telephone poles on St. Croix avenue.

• • •

Floyd Harley refused to subside while quarreling with another young man in the West end last night and was sent to headquarters on a charge of disorderly conduct. He entered a plea of guilty this morning and as the offense was not serious the court suspended sentence.

• • •

Andy Cole was arrested at 2:30 o'clock this morning for creating a disturbance at the Hazelwood Park hotel on Thirty-ninth avenue west. He pleaded guilty and got $5 and costs or five days in the county jail.

• • •

Clement Clemetson was arraigned in police court this morning on a warrant sworn out by his wife charging him with having called her some nasty names. He emphatically denied his guilt and his trial was set for tomorrow morning. Bail was fixed at $25.

• • •

William Reeves, the colored porter of the barber shop in the union station, was found not guilty of having stolen a 5-gallon keg of whisky after a trial in police court yesterday afternoon. It appeared that the booze had been left on the floor by Gust Johnson and Andrew Anderson and that Reeves had taken it into the barber shop for safe keeping at the direction of a depot employe. The booze was valued at $7. "Too cheap to make it worth while swiping," commented a bystander.

• • •

D. A. Fitzpatrick of the Cody hotel swore out a warrant this morning for the arrest of Louis Karpanen on a charge of beating a board bill of $11. It was reported that Karpanen had been found in a Superior resort and placed under arrest. The same report had it that he was "broke," having spent the last of his money in carousing below the dead line.

The explosion of a lamp which had been turned low while the family was absent is believed to have caused the fire which badly damaged the home of C. O. Hoyt at 2522 Minnesota avenue last night. The property, a one-story frame cottage, is owned by L. D. Campbell. The loss is estimated at $500 to $600.

Objects to Tax Levied.

W. W. Freeman of Gilbert has petitioned district court to have the taxes in his town, Gilbert, equalized with those of surrounding towns, and points out that the reason why he has not paid his taxes for two years is that his property has been assessed at three or four times its value. He owes taxes on 250 lots and the amount involved is between $3,000 and $4,000. The matter will come up before Judge Dibell tomorrow.

Ask for Divorces.

Marie Brusso of Virginia wants a divorce from her husband and the custody of her child. In her application to district court for the separation from her lord and master, she says that he is not supporting her and the child. Stella Mehalick would also give her husband, Joseph, a ticket of leave and has asked the court to help her out. Desertion is the charge.

Gust Jarvi, Prohibitionist, has filed for the office of county commissioner in the Seventh district.

Board Adjourns.

The board of equalization met this morning at the court house, but after a very short session adjourned until tomorrow.

Sept. 6 an Exception.

Contrary to the usual rule that hearings on applications for admission to citizenship should be held at the courthouse on the first Friday of each month, on Sept. 6, the next regular day, the hearing will be omitted. This is because of the law which forbids such a hearing within thirty days of an election, and as the primary election falls on Sept. 17, the September hearing must be excepted. The next hearing will be on Oct. 4.

County Treasurer Operated On.

County Treasurer W. A. Holgate was operated on by the Doctors Mayo at Rochester, Minn., yesterday, and reports have been received to the effect that he is getting along well. A tumor was removed from his stomach.

Candidate for Coroner.

Dr. F. F. Clark filed this morning for the Republican nomination for coroner. This makes three filings for the office, the others being Dr. C. F. McComb, the present incumbent, and Dr. James C. Anderson.

RAILROADS

PRESIDENT GRAY TO INSPECT LINE

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Great Northern cutoff between Fargo and Minot, will be officially inspected tomorrow. President Gray and other officials will arrive tonight from St. Paul and make an early start. The last steel rail was laid into Fargo two weeks ago. Since then the track has been ballasted sufficiently for trains to run over the line.

GREAT NORTHERN SUED

For Failure to Provide Telephone in a Depot.

Coteau, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Great Northern Railway company is being prosecuted for failure to install a telephone in the depot here as required by law. This is the first case of the kind to be tried since the law was passed and is being watched with interest.

The complaint was sworn by Jim Uglum and the summons served on the agent. The case will be called next Monday when the railroad company will be given an opportunity to either waive examination or stand trial. If convicted the company will be fined.

GETS GRADING CONTRACT.

H. J. McCarthy to Extend the Fargo-Moorhead-Dilworth Line.

Moorhead, Minn., Aug. 21.—H. J. McCarthy has been given the contract for the grading of the roadbed for the Dilworth extension of the Fargo & Moorhead Street Railway company. Mr. McCarthy has just returned from Montana where he had a big contract for grading an automobile road over the mountains. His grading outfit has arrived from the West and he began upon his work Monday.

The contract calls for the completion of the grading in twenty-one days. A penalty of $15 per day attaches for failure to complete the contract within the specified time of twenty-one days, and a bonus of $15 will be paid for each day less than twenty-one days.

Three carloads of poles arrived yesterday over the Northern Pacific for the new line, and the rails are at Dilworth. The ties are on the way and everything points to the speedy completion of the line to Dilworth.

SWITCHSTAND COLORS HAVE BEEN CHANGED.

Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Yellow has superseded white as one of the colors of the switchstands in the local yards. The other side is painted the regulation red. Yellow can really be seen at a greater distance than white and does not strain the eyes so much.

KNIFE FALLS BOARD FAVORABLE TO ROAD.

Cloquet, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The town board of Knife Falls has agreed that a road running south from the experimental forestry road for two miles and joining that road near the Sarchet farm would be of benefit to the settlers, and has given permission for the opening up of a highway. There is no money in the town treasury at present to build the road, and not much will be done by the town until next spring, but the action of the board gives the settlers the privilege to cut out a highway and use it, if they desire to do so, improving it to any extent they see fit, for their own convenience.

Hibernian Picnic.

The Son of Erin who inhabits the hilltop station of the weather bureau provided the first fine day in more than a week for the annual picnic of the Ancient Order of Hibernians division No. 1.

The picnic is being held this afternoon at Lincoln park. There is a program of sports this afternoon, and this evening there will be dancing.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Salvation Army Workers Will Pay Tribute to Gen. Booth.

The Duluth corps of the Salvation Army will hold services this evening in honor of the memory of Gen. Booth, the founder of the Army, and who has just died in London, England. The corps in practically every city of the world will hold memorial services this evening, and it is likely that the members of the Army will wear mourning for a stated time because of the passing of their great leader.

The deepest sorrow is felt over the death of Gen. Booth not only among the members of the Duluth corps, but among religious workers in general in the city.

MILLER RECOMMENDS TWO POSTMASTERS.

(From The Herald Washington Bureau.)

Washington, Aug. 21.—Two postmasters were recommended for appointment by Representative Miller today. A new office has been established at Pokegama, Pine county, the summer home of Senator Clapp, near Lake Pokegama. E. B. Daugherty is likely to be in charge. Peter M. Olson was recommended as postmaster at Grayling in place of Mr. Borg, resigned.

TIONESTA'S CLOSE CALL.

Marquette, Mich., Aug. 21.—Plowing its way through the fog three hours late out of Marquette, the Tionesta, with 250 passengers on board, came within a hair's breadth of colliding with the steamer George King, with the lumber barge Botsford in tow, at 8:30 Monday night. The Tionesta was but a short way outside of the Marquette breakwater and was heading down the lake as fast as her powerful engines could drive her. The George King was coming down the lake from Duluth and was heading for Marquette to take aboard the engine and machinery recovered from the Luti, that sank off Lighthouse Point last fall.

Both boats were going at a fairly rapid clip, although the King's speed was not nearly equal to that of the Tionesta. Both were enveloped in the fog, so thick that it was impossible to see more than ten feet ahead. The lookouts on both vessels saw the other steamer at practically the same moment. A number of hoarse yells, a few quick movements on the part of the wheelsmen, and the danger was past.

You May Now Buy the Famous Wooltex Garments at This Store!

We now carry in stock a complete line of Wooltex coats, suits and skirts. As the Wooltex makers will not sell to more than one merchant in any town, this means that we have exclusive sale of the Wooltex line.

There is immense importance in this announcement for the woman who wishes to dress well at moderate price.

Wooltex is the best known line of women's wear in America.

We must confess, however, that this has not weighed so much with us as the fact that Wooltex garments are the best made—or the fact that they represent style and quality which cannot be duplicated at the moderate Wooltex prices.

Wooltex Styles come direct from the famous Wooltex Fashion Bureau of Paris. It costs the makers $50,000 a year to maintain the style supremacy of Wooltex—but the money is well invested, as every Wooltex wearer will admit.

Wooltex Tailoring is of the highest grade. Only the finest custom tailored clothes equal Wooltex—and for them you must pay twice or three times the price of Wooltex.

Wooltex Fabrics are pure wool; not a thread of cotton in them. Chosen with greatest care for superiority of texture, finish and pattern, and for exclusive, "custom-made" effects.

The Wooltex Guarantee is the most liberal known to the trade. Protects you against every possible weakness. Wooltex garments must give two full seasons' satisfactory wear. This guarantee extends even to the linings.

Wooltex Tailored Suits for Fall $25 to $65

Wooltex Coats for Fall . . . . . $25 to $45

And the suit, coat or skirt that you particularly want for this season is sure to be here in this full assortment. Come and see for yourself—and enjoy the showing at its best.

SOX LOSE IN EXTRA FRAME

Grand Forks Bats Out a Victory in Tenth Inning.

Stark and Jarnigan Engage in Hard Pitchers' Battle.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 21.—Jarnigan held the Duluth White Sox to two scattered hits yesterday and the Deacons took the second game of the series by the score of 2 to 1, the game going ten frames. Stark pitched good ball, but he was outclassed by the local star, who whiffed nine of the visitors, allowed but one pass, and should have had a shutout to his credit. Grand Forks scored on Jarnigan's single and errors on the part of McGraw and Sours. Two singles, a steal and a sacrifice gave the locals their final run:

SUPERIOR TAKES TWO AT PEG

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 21.—Superior won both of the games today, getting to Hirsch in the fourth inning of the first game and scoring four runs, winning the opening contest by the score of 5 to 4. Cummings again proved the hoodoo of the locals. Glass had nothing but an imposing presence in the second game, the visitors getting the game by the score of 7 to 3. Ford featured at the bat.

GIANTS TAKE ALL GAMES OF SERIES WITH ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 21.—Wiltse was effective with men on bases, while Harmon was hit when hits meant runs. New York winning the final game, 5 to 1, this afternoon, and making a clean sweep of the series.

Myers started the third inning by taking first base when Harmon hit him. Fletcher was out to Magee. Wiltse singled, Myers stopping at second. Snodgrass wthen tripled to left center, scoring Myers and Wiltse. Doyle's single brought Snodgrass home with the third run. Becker singled and Murray ended the inning by hitting into a double play.

In the fifth inning the leaders scored another run on Fletcher's walk, Wiltse's sacrifice and Doyle's single.

Herzog singled and went to second on Oakes' fumble in the seventh. Myers was out and Fletcher reached first on Huggins' error, Herzog scoring on Wiltse's third hit of the game.

Smith's double, followed by Konetchy's single after two were out in the eighth inning, gave the locals their score: Score: H. H. E.

REDS DIVIDE DOUBLE HEADER WITH BOSTON.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 21.—Cincinnati and Boston broke even in a double-header, the locals winning the first game, 4 to 0, while Boston took the second, 4 to 1. The first game was a pitchers' battle for eight innings when Dickson weakened, four hits sending over a like number of tallies. Boston drove Benton from the box in the third inning of the second game. Fromme allowed but four hits the balance of the game. Donnelly was effective at all stages. Scores:

First game— R. H. E.

CUBS TAKE TWO GAMES FROM PHILADELPHIA.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Philadelphia was defeated by Chicago in a double header, 6 to 1 and 13 to 3. Lavender held the visitors safe in the first game, while Chicago bunched hits on Alexander. Three Philadelphia pitchers were used in the second contest, Moore starting and lasting four innings. Reulbach started for Chicago and was retired in the third when he injured his side. Smith relieved him and the visitors did not get a hit until the seventh. He slacked up here and the Philadelphians got their three runs in the seventh and eighth. The scores:

TWO UMPIRES INJURED IN GAME AT PITTSBURG.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—In a double header here between Pittsburg and Brooklyn, Umpires Brennan and Owens were both injured in the first part of the first game, and two players were called upon to act the rest of the first game, and all of the second. As far as known, it is the first time both umpires have been hurt in a major league game. The two teams split even in the double header, Pittsburg winning the first 3 to 2, and Brooklyn the last 9 to 1. Umpire Brennan, during the first inning of the first game slipped near second base, injuring his kneecap. Umpire Owens who was behind the bat, was hit by a foul tip off Jack Miller's bat in the second inning of the same game, his breast bone being broken. It was then decided by the managers of both teams to use players as umpires. Catcher Phelps of Brooklyn and Hyatt, utility man of the Pittsburgs, were called upon to act, and umpired the rest of the afternoon. Umpire Owens was unconscious when taken to the hospital. Physicians, it is said, will have to use an X-ray to ascertain the extent of his injuries. Umpire Brennan is not seriously hurt. The scores:

TIGERS DROP THREE STRAIGHT TO BOSTON.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 20.—Wood won his twenty-sixth game of the season, and Boston made it three straight from Detroit by a score of 6 to 2. Stanage was forced to retire in the third, when he was spiked by Ball on a double steal in which the latter scored. An error and a passed ball assisted Detroit to its two runs. Score: R. H. E.
Boston .....4000002 0x—6 8 4
Detroit .....0001000 01—2 6 3

Batteries — Wood and Cady; Dubuc and Stanage and Kocher. Umpires—O'Brien and Dineen.

JOHNSON HAS FIFTEEN STRAIGHT VICTORIES.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Washington won both games of the double-header with Cleveland, 4 to 2 and 2 to 0. Walter Johnson established a new American association record by winning the first game, making fifteen straight victories. Cashion pitched a no-hit, no-run game in the second, though it was called at the end of the sixth inning to allow the visitors to catch an early train for Boston. The scores:

First game— R. H. E.

NEW YORK AND ST. LOUIS DIVIDE DOUBLE BILL.

New York, Aug. 21.—New York broke even in a double-header with St. Louis, losing the first game, 4 to 3, and winning the second game, 2 to 1. Ford's support failed in the eighth inning of the first game, when three errors and two hits enabled St. Louis to score three runs. McConnell bested Mitchell in a pitchers' battle in the second game. Sterrett's triple in the second defeated the visitors. It scored Hartsell and Sterrett came home on Sweeney's single. The scores:

First game— R. H. E.

BREWERS TAKE TWO FROM THE COLONELS.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 21.—Hovlik pitched the second no-hit game of the American association season when he shut out Louisville in the first game of a double-header without a hit or a run. The big fellow was in wonderful form, and there was not a semblance of a hit made throughout the game. He walked three men and fanned six, but one man getting to second base.

In the second game Slapnicka was in good form and he won by a score of 7 to 0. A great throw from deep center to the plate by Leibold, cutting down Burke, featured the game. Scores:

SHOOTERS WILL COMPETE SUNDAY

Northwestern Gun Club to Hold Final Open Meet of Season.

The closing and by far the largest shoot of the present season will be put on next Sunday by the Northwestern Gun club. Starting early in the morning the marksmanship contest will continue throughout the day, lunch and dinner being served on the grounds to the members of the club and their friends.

During the course of the day the class shoots for the prizes offered in A, B, C and D classes will be contested for. There will be a prize for the high man in each class and the best competition of the season is looked for.

There will be a bus running from the end of the street car line to the grounds. As this is the final open shoot of the season, officials of the club are looking for the biggest crowd that has ever attended one of the club contests.

The Northwestern Gun club has done much to boost the gun game around these parts. The present season has been one of the most successful in the history of the club, and it is expected that the shoot of Sunday will bring the season to a fitting close, as far as the open contests are concerned.

Members of the club are invited to bring their wives along and make the day an event that will go down in the annals of the club. Following is the result of the last competition of the Northwestern shooters:

	Shots.	Broke.

RICH STAKES FOR WINNERS

Grand Circuit Is Having a Big Day at Salem, N. H.

Baden Is Favorite in Granite State Event Against Classy Competitors.

Salem, N. H., Aug. 21.—The Grand Circuit had a big day at Rockingham park today with the Granite stake $5,000 for 2:10 trotters, the two year old trotting division of the $11,000 horse breeders futurity, the championship trotting free-for-all, and two $1,000 class races billed for this, the second day of the meeting. Baden, 2:07¼, the hero of two $10,000 stakes this season, was the favorite in the Granite state against such racers as Esther W. Bergen, Queen Worthy and others.

The championship will bring to the wire, Billy Burke whose 2:03¾, is the fastest mile trotted this year. Colorado E, 2:04¾, the world's three-year-old trotting champion, may start, together with Gay Audubon, King Brook, Anvil and Bruce Gindle.

Lord Allen with the credit of having won the fastest heat this year by a two year old, 2:13½, will meet in the horse breeders futurity Now-a-Day Girl, holder of the world's record of 2:16½ for her age over a half mile track, Tom Minton and other fast travelers.

Showers early yesterday made the attendance very light at the opening of the Grand Circuit meeting at Rockingham park. This was the first time in the history of the Grand Circuit that it has touched Granite state soil.

"The Hub" for 2:05 pacers, valued at $3,000, was the feature of the afternoon. "Long Shot" Cox, the noted New Hampshire driver, had the winner in Branham Baughman, famous as the biggest money-winner of all pacers in 1911. He led all the way in each of the three heats.

Frank Murphy of Suffield, Conn., captnured the 2:18 trot with Keynote in a handy way. Susie Wood, the province mare, scampered off with the initial heat, and the battle from that point was to determine which of the field could drive out the winner.

Al Dillard, who has been so successful over the half-mile tracks the last two years, had no bother in taking the 2:11 pace, Edna B., getting second money just as easily.

W. Snow of Buffalo was never in danger of losing the "Pyro" race for three-year-old trotters with Senorita.

EAST AND WEST MEET AT TENNIS

Doubles Being Played, Two California Players Being the Challengers.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 21.—Interest in the national lawn tennis championship at the Casino courts centered today in the struggle in doubles between the East and West, represented by the title holders, Raymond D. Little and Gustav F. Touchard of New York and Maurice E. McLoughlin and Thomas C. Bundy of California, the challengers. An hour before the match was called it was stated that Bundy had apparently fully recovered from the slight illness of Monday night which had caused the postponement of the contest yesterday.

In the singles tournament the committee started the fourth round with one single match in the third round still to be completed. Of the thirty-three survivors in the singles New York was represented by twelve, Boston by eight, Philadelphia by six, California by three, Providence by two and Short Hills and Trenton, N. J., by one each.

The contest in doubles is the first time in many years that the West has been a challenger. The national championship in doubles has been as far west as Chicago once, when C. B. and S. R. Neel carried it away in 1896. Some years later the Doherty brothers took the doubles championship to England for two years in succession, but with these few exceptions the title has remained in the eastern part of the country. Before the match began McLoughlin and Bundy were the favorites, some wagers being laid on them 3 to 1.

LAWLER AT PROCTOR.

Former University Star Developing Basket Ball Team.

Baseball at Proctor is being given a boom the present season by the presence of Frank Lawler, crack University of Minnesota basket ball player and baseball man. Lawler is one of the physicians of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railroad and he has taken an active interest in the athletics of Proctor.

In the event of the former college star remaining at Proctor the present winter the boys of Proctor are planning to have one of the best basket ball teams in the state.

While at Minnesota university Lawler was considered by far the best basket ball player in the West. He was the unanimous selection three years for the All-Western team and up to last season he scored more points for his team than any player east or west. Stangle last season made a higher score than the Minnesota star.

Ball Players Suspended.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Failure to report to the Montgomery club of the Southern league resulted in suspension for C. R. Brown, a pitcher, whom the St. Louis club recently sold, according to the official bulletin of the American league made public. Eugene Krapp, a pitcher with the Cleveland club, also, was suspended for failure to get into condition.

Commission Delays Action.

New York, Aug. 21.—The state athletic commission further delayed action regarding the proposed matches between Jack Johnson with Sam Langford and Sam McVey, booked for Sept. 25, the meeting of the commissioners postponed from Monday, being again put over. The regular weekly meeting is due today and fight enthusiasts are hoping that the commissioners will then make known their decision whether the fight will be permitted.

SHILLALAH WINS IN LIGHT BREEZE

Lake Geneva Yacht Takes C Class Race at Oshkosh, Wis.

Oshkosh, Wis., Aug. 21. — Shillalah of Lake Geneva Country club won the class C race, the second of the series in the Inland Lakes Yachting association regatta, finishing nearly ten minutes ahead of Cygnet of Minnetonka. The breeze was so light that the Class B race was called off when the time limit of three hours expired at 1:15 o'clock.

At that time Scout of the Oshkosh Yacht club had a lead of over two minutes and twenty-five seconds over Cubanola of White Bear. The boats went to windward and returned.

The time of the class C boats was:

Boat—	Start.	Finish.
Shillalah, Lake Geneva	12:20	12:45:23
Cygnet, Minnetonka	12:20	12:54:57
Outagamie, Lake Geneva	12:20	1:02:56
Bull Moose, White Bear	12:20	1:09:00
Edith, Butte Des Morts	12:20	1:14:32

Sayonara and Lockhurst did not sail. This gives Shillalah one first place and one second place. Outagamie has one first and one third place and Cygnet has one second and one third place.

MAY FIGHT FOR TROPHY IN COURT

Bitter Feeling Between New and Former Owner of Motor Boat Cup.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—J. Stuart Blackton, owner of the power boat Baby Reliance II and member of the Atlantic Yacht club of New York, was declared the winner of the William Wrigley, Jr., $22,000 trophy, by the judges at the water carnival.

It is probable that Blackton will have to make a fight in the courts to obtain the trophy. James A. Pugh, owner of Disturber III, who asserts his boat is entitled to the trophy, retained an attorney to seek an injunction to prevent the judges from presenting the cup to Blackton.

Pugh refused to race his boat against Baby Reliance II, asserting he had already won the trophy. He averred that Disturber III had beaten all other entrants but Baby Reliance II, and that the New York boat was not legally entered in the race. Baby Reliance II negotiated the course alone, making the 25 miles in 46:25 2-5, and was declared the winner of three heats. Baby Reliance II and Disturber III previously had won two heats each. In neither of the heats which Disturber III took was Baby Reliance II a contestant.

Bitter feeling has developed between Pugh and the promoters of the carnival as a result of the dispute. He avers he has been unfairly deprived of the trophy, and the officials answered his charge by saying he feared Baby Reliance II, knowing it to be a faster boat than his.

Although Blackton has won the trophy, he must turn it over to the club of which he is a member. He will be presented with a $500 replica of the cup.

The one boat race yesterday brought the carnival to a close. The carnival started on Aug. 10. Bad weather and high seas caused the management much trouble, but plans already are being made to hold another exhibition next year.

GIANTS STOP OFF AT WINDY CITY

Chicago, Aug. 21.—En route from St. Louis to Pittsburg, the New York Giants stopped off in Chicago today to play a postponed game with the Cubs.

Fair weather was predicted and a large crowd was expected. Ground rules were necessary at each of the three games between the two teams last week and it was thought they would prevail today. Thus a hit into the crowd would count for only two bases.

Richie, who has fallen heir to Jack Pfeister's old name "the giant killer," because of his effectiveness against the New York club, was slated to pitch for Chicago. Tesreau, who won for the Giants in the second game of their last series here, was to pitch for New York.

Before the game the Cubs were five and one-half games behind the Giants. At the beginning of their last series with McGraw's men they were six games behind.

Tooley Goes to Newark.

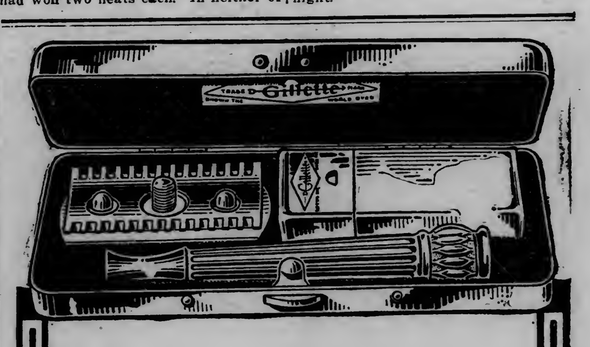

New York, Aug. 21.—The Brooklyn club has ordered Shortstop Tooley to join the Newark club at Buffalo. Upon Tooley's arrival there today, Infielder Kirkpatrick of the Newark club will leave for St. Louis to join the Brooklyn Nationals. The Brooklyn club has purchased outfielder Callahan and Infielder Getz of the Elmira, New York state league club. President Ebbets today emphatically denied the rumor that he was enlisting Cincinnati capital or proposed to sell the Brooklyn franchise to Cincinnati men.

Balloon California Lands.

Santa Monica, Cal., Aug. 21.—The balloon California, which sailed from this city with five men and became lost to view in the mists over the ocean, landed in Santa Paula after midnight, according to messages received from J. J. Unger, the California's pilot. Another message from Santa Paula this morning stated that the balloon again had been sighted in the air after daylight, floating out to sea. This indicated that the California's crew had essayed to make a return trip.

PENNANT LOOKS FAIRLY SAFE FOR THE DARBYITES

Sox Can Lose a Large Part of Remaining Games—Cummings Has Helped the Dooks to Hold Place.

(BY BRUCE.)

At the present writing it looks as if the White Sox had the gonfalon fairly well half-neisoned. We are exactly six full games ahead of the Peggers, and it might be stated here that there are a couple of protested games that might be figured in the losses of the Canadians when the ruling is made on these contests.

There are fifteen games to be played before the close of the season, unless there are some postponed games that will be worked in. Of the fifteen games that remain to be played, four will be played on the home grounds. Of the four, the White Sox are pretty certain to break even at the worst reckoning, while we should get the big end of them, as the closing season series comes with Superior.

While Duluth and Superior are closing the season, Grand Forks and Winnipeg will be fighting it out, and Jarnigan is liable to give the Peggers some trouble, as he is effective against the Canucks.

Unless the White Sox take an awful slump at the present time and lose about all the remaining games on the schedule, the pennant, the second in the last four years, will come to the head of the Lakes.

When "Ivory Dome" Jim Brown permitted Pat Cummings to go to Superior he little thought of the consequences this act was to bring him. It might be stated without serious fear of contradiction that Cummings has been the stumbling-block in the path of Winnipeg's success. Thanks to the Superior team, we are at the head of the percentage column at the present time, and it has been the pitching of Cummings that has beaten the Peggers.

The game today and the one of tomorrow will finish out the series at Grand Forks. Then comes the series with the Peg, and one of the few last of the week series we have had at the Peg.

Thereby hangs one of those drooping tales. In the kindness of their hearts those who had to do with the early negotiations of She-Eye baseball left the schedule making to one de Chevreral of Superior. That gent promptly seized the opportunity firmly by the throat and proceeded therewith.

He scheduled all of the latter week games of the road for Superior at Winnipeg. The result has been that Superior has drawn the plum of attendance all through the present season, while we have opened on blue Monday and the first of the weary week.

To go on with the story—we open at Winnipeg on Aug. 23. We have a double-header with the Peggers on Saturday and rest on Sunday, as they are strictly against Sunday baseball at the Western Canadian metropolis. On Monday the hostilities will be resumed, and on Aug. 27 we open the last series of the season, battling at Superior.

Taking everything into consideration it looks as if we had the rag nailed to the mast head. It has been the hitting of the Dooks that has gained the lead and then kept the team up in front. Darby's pitching staff has never heen any too strong, though it was more dependable during the first part of the season than it is at the present time.

Brackett looks the real goods; all wool, the latest pattern and all that sort of thing. He is a good life saver for the final games of the season, as Hoffman, Worman, Johnson and Stark haven't had much more than their gloves during some of the recent games.

As there are but a few more at home chances to see the Sox—four to be exact—it is up to the fans to get out and root for the finish. Don't forget the Booster Day program. There will be more than the usual baseball games. Red Ehlhim, our crack sprinter, will run against the fastest man on the Superior team, and McArthur, the big sprinter who was beaten at the recent field day sports by several of the members of the White Sox, has started to train, vowing that he can beat any member of the team.

Invitations were sent yesterday to George E. Lennon, owner of the St. Paul club, and Mike Cantillon, president of the Minneapolis Baseball club, to be present on Booster Day.

The idea is to show the Twin City magnates that we can get out a good crowd here on occasions. Following the close of the present season it is the plan of the directors of the Duluth club to go to the Twin Cities and thrash out the question of placing teams in the Twins.

The time has come, and larger league magnates are beginning to realize it, that they must give their help to the smaller leagues. If they don't, Claude, there won't be no core, as the youth said.

It is in the minors that the players are developed. They are the nursery of baseball. The great national game is getting to be a business proposition more or less, and when men lose money year after year, it is rather difficult to get them in the game. Therefore, it is up to the larger leagues to lend a helping hand or see the foundations of the game begin to crumble.

Back to Booster Day. All your help is needed. Get out and hustle and make this day by far the largest attended baseball game that we have had in the history of the game in Duluth.

BADGERS EXPECT A STONG ELEVEN

"Bill" Juneau Arrives and Looks Over Conditions at Madison.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 21.—The arrival of Coach-elect William Juneau, star varsity end back in the days of 1900-1904, when Badger football was paramount in the West, in the Cardinal stronghold today gave rise to a revival of football talk among the students who are here attending summer school.

The man who has directed the athletic destinies of Marquette university ever since it dropped the title of "college" and added "university" to its official name, lost no time in getting acquainted with the conditions here and the prospects for the coming fall. After a long talk with Director Ehler, who has now in his possession the scholastic standing of every man who is considered as having a possible chance for the varsity this year, Juneau stated that with an even break in the luck, the 1912 team would be one of the best that the Badgers have ever had.

There is a wealth of material here at the present time, according to the reporting registrar, nearly all are now eligible and the few that are down in their work will have ample opportunity to get straightened away before the season opens. This news has completely removed the doubt that was expressed up to this time as a result of the wholesale graduations that depleted the ranks of the regulars last year. When the season closed with the defeat of the Badgers by the Maroons in memorable battle on Marshall field, seven stars doffed their football toggery for the last time. The number included "Keckie" Moll, the stellar little quarterback, who was afterward selected for the All-Western and "Charley" Pollock the dean of the Badger halfbacks since the days of "Norsky" Larson.

Coach Juneau expects to have a fair team on the field during the first day with Mauer in at center, Younger and Moffett, guards; Van Gluent and Butler, tackles; Captain Hoeffel and Ofstie, ends; either Gillette, Tormey or Bellows, quarter; Van Riper and Bright or Gillette, halves, and either Tandberg or Samp, fullback. The men have been ordered to start getting into condition on Sept. 1, and to be on the ground and in suits on Sept. 20.

HEINE LIKES VARIETY.

The leading hitter of the National league and the batting sensation of the majors, Heinie Zimmerman, is an odd fellow off the field. His biggest hobby is neckties. He carries at least 100 ties on every trip the Cubs take, and keeps adding to the collection. Zim changes three times a day. Every time he sees some one wearing a necktie he likes he finds out where he can get one like it.

Zim does not carry many clothes outside of neckties. He never has a collar laundered. He wears a collar once, throws it away and buys more—generally of a different pattern. He has worn every style of collar on the market.

Outside of baseball Zim likes to play "rum," a new game among ball players, and pinochle.

WATER SPORTS WILL CLOSE OATKA SEASON.

The last water baseball game of the preset season will be played this evening at Oatka between the crack Superior team and the stars of the boat club.

In addition to the water baseball there will be a number of elimination contests for the canoe racers.

As the sports this evening will be the last of the season at the Oatka branch it is expected that there will be a very large crowd on hand.

Kid Harris, the crack twirler of the superior team, has stated that he is going to have his revenge on the locals and the game is expected to be warm, despite the weather, from the very start.

EITHER FIGHT OR BE A QUITTER

McIntosh Puts It Up to Champion Johnson in Strong Language.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 21.—Tom S. Andrews, United States representative of Hugh McIntosh has received a cablegram from Mr. McIntosh in which he agrees to put up a forfeit of $15,000 with Alderman Al Tierney of Chicago to bind the proposed matches with Sam Langford and Sam McVey.

According to Andrews, Johnson has been holding aloof from the matches giving as an excuse the failure to secure the forfeit. Andrews now says every demand of Johnson has been agreed to and that it is up to the colored champion to either close up the matches or be classed as a "quitter."

LICHE SHOULD HAVE WON EVENT

St. Louis Athlete Says That German Is Greatest Jumper in World.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 21.—In his own story of the winning of the world's high jumping championship at Stockholm, told to friends on his return here, Alma W. Richards declared that his victory over Horine was due to Horine's "form."

"In America," he said, "a slim cane pole is used for a bar, and when Horine jumps he bends the bar down, but so skillfully that it does not fall from the pegs. At the Olympic games they use a stick an inch and a half thick, and held by very short pegs so that the slightest touch knocks it off, requiring an absolutely clean jump. Horine was not accustomed to this, and he fell down on his work.

"In the case of Liche, the German, defeat was due to stage fright. Liche is the greatest jumper in the world and should have won."

NOT MAKING MUCH MONEY

Duluth Fortune-Tellers Say They Are Making a Scant Living.

Speculators Are Best Customers—Patching Up Family Quarrels.

In Duluth, at least, the way of the fortune teller is not easy. Business is not brisk and the city government heartlessly demands a monthly contribution which reads like a bookkeeper's salary. Were it not for the patronage of business men the going would be bad.

That is what The Herald was told by the only fortune tellers in the city who have the ambition or the coin to advertise. There are only two, where a few years ago the city was honeycombed with them. But the high license and the loss of interest on the part of the people gradually drove them out, so that now Duluth has only two, and one of these carries on the clairvoyant business merely as a side line.

The fortune tellers of Duluth are interesting talkers and seem to take themselves very seriously. One is a man who has lived here and been in the business in Duluth for ten years and the other is a woman who has been in the business here for three years. The man has the appearance of a dreamer and is an interesting talker. The woman is the possessor of a pair of very shrewd and searching eyes.

Both agreed yesterday that the clairvoyant business in Duluth is not on a par with other cities and the license price is fearful. Clairvoyants are required to pay to the city of Duluth $50 a month, or, if they pay six months in advance, $150 for that period, and they are subjected to the closest scrutiny. Business, they say, does not warrant that amount, but they have to pay it to be allowed to take in any money at all; so that, they are agreed, there is merely a living in the business.

The male clairvoyant told The Herald yesterday that were it not for the consultations he has with business men and speculators he would have a sorry time of it.

Men Best Patrons.

"Most people imagine," said he, "that our clientele consists of women who wish to find out if their husbands are true or the color of the moustache of the chap they are going to marry, and ignorant people who want to be told that they will soon receive a fortune and all that sort of thing, so that their spirits will be bolstered up for a time at least. But that is not the case. I have regular consultations with business men and speculators, the names of most of whom would astonish you were I to break my confidence. These men get tips on business, on stocks, on whether or not to make certain moves or investments as they have been contemplating and other practical things. Last year I made one man on the Board of Trade $67,000 in one deal. He is one of my regular clients.

"There are some people for whom I will not sit. When a man's future is black, perhaps death not far off or financial ruin inevitable, what is the use of taking his money and giving him an anticipation of woe. Hope springs eternal you know, and he may as well live in that hope as long as he can without a clairvoyant depressing his feelings for him. Perhaps it is foolish not to take the money of such people, but I haven't the heart to do it.

"And I hate a domestic reading. It really makes me angry—although I cannot afford to show it—when some woman or man comes to me with the obvious desire to dig out some infidelity or shortcoming of a husband or wife. And scores of these come. Now as to these domestic squabbles and separations, I have seen into hundreds of them, and where love once existed between two such people, I have yet to find where it is not still latent and is depressed only because of some foolishness. And I have yet to find where the fault was all on one side either. I have helped patch up many a separation.

"Too many people, my researches have shown me, get married with the wrong idea. Often it is a case of where one of them wants to be 'boss' and practically announces it, arousing at once the antagonism of the other. Why should this be? The stronger character of the two will take the lead in the natural course of events and there is no need of trying to be 'boss.' In fact it is a partnership where that question should never arise. Any person marrying with that idea is more or less of a fool. Then another fatal thing, is the withholding of secrets from one another. That deception creates suspicion, and when suspicion on the part of either husband or wife toward the other is once aroused, goodbye happiness. Instead of remaining in check, it grows, and the quarrels, snarlings and separations follow.

"Married people should not only be partners, but chums. When that divine feeling of chumship exists, marriage is the ideal state and one feels impelled, not compelled, to tell his or her chum the worries or joys of the day; and in such a case, too, the fatal step of deception will not be taken."

ASK PROBE OF ROGERS' DEATH

Resolution in Congress May Lead Three Nations Into Mixup.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Representative Norris of Nebraska has introduced a resolution requesting the president to send to the house all information he has regarding the case of James Wood Rogers, a Californian who was killed in the Central African jungles as the result of a hunt of British soldiers who were ordered to kill or capture him. The resolution was referred to the foreign affairs committee. The resolution follows:

"Resolved, That the president of the United States be, and is hereby, requested, if not incompatible with the public interest, to transmit to the house of representatives all information that may be in his possession or in the possession of the department of state in regard to the alleged killing of James W. Rogers, an American citizen, by British soldiers in Africa, and to inform the house of representatives what action, if any, has been taken or is contemplated to investigate the killing of the said James W. Rogers."

State Department at Work.

Representative Sulzer of New York, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, communicated with the state department, and was advised that the department was investigating the matter, and that all the facts that could be obtained would be furnished to the committee.

Mr. Norris said he regarded the shooting as an outrage on an American citizen, so far as the available confirmation shows. He declared it seems that Rogers, as an American, charged with offenses that did not warrant killing him, was fatally shot under ironclad orders of the British government, carried out on Belgian soil.

At the state department, which has no direct confirmation of the tragedy, it was stated that the house resolution would have to be made the basis of an inquiry directed to the American embassy in London. The embassy, it was stated, would have no difficulty in securing access to the report of the British surgeon on the tragedy.

Belgium Involved.

Regarding the right of the British soldiers to kill a poacher without trial, officials of the state department would express no opinion.

The question reported to have been raised by Rogers as he was dying of the right of the British troops to attack on Belgian soil, complicates the case, though the issue involved would appear to concern Great Britain and Belgium, according to unofficial opinions of department heads. If it should appear, they pointed out, that Rogers was killed in Belgium territory and there was any ground for demanding redress, the United States might look to Belgium instead of Great Britain for justice, leaving Belgium to seek reparation in turn from Great Britain.

TWO SCORE HURT IN FALLING SEATS

Grandstand Collapses at Marshall Notification Ceremonies.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 21.—Five persons were seriously injured and forty were bruised and cut in the collapse of a grandstand seating 300 in University place Tuesday afternoon during the formal notification of Governor Thomas R. Marshall of his nomination as Democratic candidate for vice president. The injured were carried into the Indiana Democratic club near by or taken to hospitals, and the notification ceremony proceeded.

The grandstand had been put up on the asphalt pavement, directly back of the speakers' platform. Alton B. Parker of New York, representing the notification committee, was in the midst of his address when the stand swayed and sank slowly to the street, and men and women in the seats were piled together among the tangled timbers of the structure.

Taggart Prevents Panic.

Several thousand people, massed in front of the speakers' platform, crowded about the fallen stand, and many men helped the unhurt to scramble to their feet and bore the injured to the clubhouse, where they were cared for by hurriedly summoned physicians.

Thomas Taggart, national committeeman for Indiana, quieted the crowd by shouting that no one was seriously injured, and Mr. Parker went on with his speech. He was followed by Governor Marshall, accepting the nomination.

The most seriously injured in the collapse were:

David Strouse, Rockville, Ind., leg broken.

Mrs. H. E. Greene, Indianapolis, injured internally.

Joseph H. Rice, Cincinnati, foot injured and face cut.

Mrs. J. Hartsock, Indianapolis, leg broken.

John Flashkamp, Indianapolis, internally injured.

BARS ROOSEVELT ELECTORS' NAMES

Judge Smith McPherson Issues Writ in Kansas Case.

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 21.—A temporary order restraining the state canvassing board from certifying to the secretary of state the names of the eight Roosevelt electors nominated at the recent Kansas Republican primary, was filed late last night with the clerk of the federal district court here. The order was granted by Judge Smith McPherson at Red Oaks, Iowa.

The injunction was granted by petition of attorneys representing the defeated Taft electors. The action was brought in the names of D. W. Bemuth and others, who signed the petition of the Roosevelt electors. They charged that they signed the petition under a misapprehension, believing the electors would vote for the convention nominee, and alleged that many Republican voters practically would be disfranchised by the electors voting for any other than the Republican nominee.

Returnable Sept. 2.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 21.—Judge Smith McPherson of the United States circuit court stated to the Associated Press over the long distance telephone that the restraining order enjoining the Kansas state officials from placing the Roosevelt electors in the Republican column on the state ballot was a temporary one, returnable Sept. 2. He indicated it would be heard in Denver by a circuit judge other than himself.

McCOMBS GOES TO REST IN COUNTRY.

New York, Aug. 21.—William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee, who dropped active campaigning ten days ago under his doctor's orders, has left this city for a rest of two weeks or more in the country. He was accompanied by his sister. In order to insure his having absolute quiet and respite from politics, the place of his retreat was not disclosed.

CEMENT RATES TO THE NORTHWEST SUSPENDED.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Proposed increases in transportation of paving and roofing cement, asphaltic, coal and petroleum tar and similar commodities from Chicago, Milwaukee and other points to destinations in North and South Dakota, Montana and other Northwestern states, are suspended by the interstate commerce commission until Dec. 30. The advances average approximately 15 per cent.

STURGEON LAKE FOREST RESERVE

May Result From Examination Being Made By Forestry Service.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—A. J. Oppel, J. R. Brownlie and R. F. Eddy, of the state forestry are in the Sturgeon Lake country, looking into the feasibility of establishing a state forest reserve at Sturgeon lake.

On the shores of Sturgeon lake is one of the last big bodies of white and Norway pine standing in Northern Minnesota. Lumbermen are now working there and within a short time it will all be removed.

Would Preserve Beauty Spot.

Many people felt that some of the timber should be left in its natural state as it is one of the famous beauty spots of that section and accordingly the Farmers' club of Bear River sought the interest of other Commercial clubs on the range in getting the state to secure a forest reserve there. That the matter is being seriously considered is indicated by the presence and investigation being conducted by the representatives of the state forest service.

FOOD INSPECTOR STARTS AT WORK

Hibbing's New Official Will Look Over All Food Supplies.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Dr. F. G. Mason recently appointed village meat and food inspector, began his duties yesterday. He announces there will be a weekly inspection of meat markets and if it is found necessary the inspection will be made twice a week. Local food supplies also to receive attention, particularly meat that is peddled about the city and foodstuffs shipped in from outside points and sold at retail here. There will be an inspection of all cattle, hogs and sheep killed here for home consumption. Dr. Mason is the first officer of the kind to be appointed by any town on the range, but several other cities are now planning to adopt a similar plan for meat and food inspection.

VIRGINIA WOULD CONTROL DANCES

Ordinance Introduced Barring Certain Styles of Dancing.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Election boards were named by the city council last night to act during the coming primaries and polling places designated.

An ordinance to license public dance halls was given its first reading. The ordinance will regulate the dances commonly known as Saturday night dances.

Passionate Dances Barred.

One of the sections of the ordinance follows:

"No person or persons shall dance or shall any licensee hereunder permit or suffer any person or persons to dance, in any public dance hall, any indecent or immodest dance or any dance which is characterized by immodest swaying or moving of the pelvic portion of the body, and those dances commonly known as the "Slow Rag," "Lover," "Two Step and Waltz," the "Jelly Wiggle," "Angle Worm Glide," "Bear Cat" and all variations of the same, and all dances which are danced in the dark are hereby declared to be indecent and immodest dances within the meaning of this section. No licensee of any public dance hall shall permit any male person under the age of 21 years or female under the age of 18 years to be or remain therein, nor shall he permit any persons to dance therein, or any persons except employes to be or remain therein between 12 o'clock midnight and 6 o'clock in the morning."

The charter commission appointed in 1908 and whose terms expire Aug. 22, through the secretary, Otto A. Poirier, turned over to the city council all papers and untransacted business for the new members to act upon, who are yet to be appointed by the judges of the Eleventh district.

EARLY POTATOES NOW IN DEMAND

Superintendent McGuire Issues Advice to Tuber Raisers.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Supt. A. J. McGuire of the Northeast state experimental farm here, has issued an open letter to farmers of Northeastern Minnesota upon potato marketing and potato handling in the course of which he says:

For the past three years the Producers Co-operative Market association has been advertising Northeastern Minnesota potatoes. As a result the big buyers have come into Northeastern Minnesota and are establishing local markets at many points where the acreage grown is sufficient to support a market. They have come to recognize Northeastern Minnesota as a potato growing section and potatoes of high quality.

The Producers' Co-operative Market association is not buying potatoes this fall but it is endeavoring to find the best market for farmers who have potatoes to sell. The association can give but little help to the individual farmer who has less than a carload, unless he co-operates with his neighbors. Wherever a community of farmers will club together so that their combined crop will amount to carload shipments the association can find them a market. The association is now in communication with nearly all the large potato buying companies and many of these companies will establish local markets wherever the business can be shown to warrant it. Any community of farmers, who have potato to market may get in communication with reliable buyers by writing to me, as secretary of the Producers' Co-operative Market association.

Want Early Potatoes.

The market is now looking for early potatoes and the Early Ohio is by far the best seller. Farmers having tho Early Ohio or Early Rose or any other pink or red variety should put them on the market before Oct. 1, if they do not intend to keep them for seed trade in the spring. After Oct. 1 the demand will be for white potatoes of the Carman or Burbank types.

The market don't want small potatoes or frosted potatoes or potatoes of mixed varieties, especially of different colors. Sort your potatoes if you want to sell them and if you want the buyers to come again next year. Potatoes that will go through a 1¾ inch screen are regarded as culls on the market and should be kept at home. The more plentiful the crop the more particular the buyers. The market not only demands potatoes of a certain kind and size, but it wants them put up in a certain sized sack.

Time to Dig Potatoes.

Potatoes should be out of the ground by Oct. 10 at the latest, better Oct. 5. Early potatoes should be dug soon after the vines die.

The practice of pitting potatoes in the field does not pay if there is a root cellar on the place. As a rule they are not improved by pitting and the danger of frost is almost invariably increased. Thousands of bushels of potatoes froze in pits last fall.

Start the digger in the early morning. Allow the potatoes to remain on the ground two or three hours before picking up to dry off as much as possible. Dig only what can be picked up and put in the cellar by night.

If the root cellar is well ventilated and the bins not too large or deep, the potatoes will dry out better in the cellar than in a pit in the field. A little air slackened line scattered over the potatoes as they are put in the bin will help them to keep. Don't wait for your potatoes to mature after Oct. 1. Dig them.

SENT $10,000 TO OLD COUNTRY

Large Amount Is Sent Home as Result of Hibbing Pay Day.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—$10,000 was sent across the sea yesterday, following the regular pay day of the mining companies in the Hibbing district. The postoffice did the bulk of the business, sending $3,500. The banks and express offices sent the remainder. The foreign exchange business, however, is falling off considerably here. A feature of the local business situation following the payday this month is that more money is reported paid by local merchants on overdue accounts than at any payday of the present season.

LETS SOME CONTRACTS.

Itasca School Board Has Awarded Some Work.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.) — The board of directors of school district No. 1 have let a number of important contracts. Stockwell & Tracy of Cohasset received the contract for the Swan River school building at $845. The Effie building was let to Fletcher & McKinnon of Cohasset at $965. The new vault in the Central school, Grand Rapids, will be constructed by John Lofberg of Grand Rapids at a cost of $268.

Contracts for the transportation of school children to the consolidated schools were let as follows: Pokegama Lake school, J. F. McCormick, $65 a month; McCormick school, Duncan Harris, $37; Cohasset school, Amos Forsythe, $65; Cunningham school, Nick Johnson, $20; Blackberry school, R. D. Shepherd, $55.

TWO HARBORS 1968 CLASS ENJOYS REUNION.

Two Harbors, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The class of 1968 held a reunion last night at the Commercial hotel with a theater party afterwards. All the members who were in the city attended, and enjoyed a delightful time. Those present were Misses Gretchen Rothfus, Hattie Falk, Anna Lusch, Mildred Breiden, Lillian Dyer, Charlotte Paulson, Mary Hagland, Anna Houle, Harriet Owens, and Messrs. Henry Doerr, Jr., and Fred Belland. The party enjoyed a chicken dinner at 7 o'clock after which they adjourned to the Star and then to Lakeview park.

PIONEER MINE EMPLOYE HURT

Foot Is Crushed Under Ore Car, But Surgeons May Save Limb.

Ely, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Ed Carlson was injured at the Pioneer mine yesterday, his foot being crushed under the wheels of an ore car. He was taken to the Shipman hospital. An amputation will probably not be necessary.

Gets Bullet in Leg.

Joe Pushavic was brought in from Twin Lakes in a serious condition from a gun shot wound in the leg, the accident having occurred on Sunday by the discharging of a revolver. After an X-ray examination the surgeons extracted the bullet.

Jack Maki a local policeman, became very ill and an operation for appendicitis was found necessary. His condition is not serious.

TOWER IS READY FOR COUNTY CLUB

Plans to Entertain Many Visitors on Thursday Afternoon.

Tower, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—This city is all ready for the special meeting of the St. Louis County club here tomorrow afternoon. It is expected many will arrive on the Iron Range train about noon and others from the Mesaba range by automobiles. The business meeting will be held at 1 p. m. and as soon as it is disposed of the visitors will be taken for a "Bouillon" on Lake Vermilion. The Mary Bell and Erma D. will leave Lakeside at 3 p. m. for a few hours' cruise on the lake, after which they will stop at Wadman's Point. Here Dr. F. E. Thomas, the "bou yah" expert, will serve chicken "bou yah."

All the business houses of the city have agreed to close up at noon so the business men can go on the lake trip.

BUTLER BROS. STARTING JOB

Stripping Contractors Begin on Big Arthur Mining Contract.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Butler Bros., who received the contract for stripping a property for the Arthur Iron Mining company near the Dale mine, have started a force of men cutting a road into the ground and steam shovels will probably be started there within a short time.

It is estimated the overburden to be removed will require about eight months' work.

BOVEY TO CELEBRATE.

Will Observe Labor Day in Fitting Manner.

Bovey, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Labor day, Monday, Sept. 2, will be fittingly observed here with a celebration to be given for the farmers at which prizes will be distributed among those showing the best products and free dinners will be served. This celebration will take the place of the Fourth of July celebration that was not held this year.

Secretary Franti of the Commercial club is in communication with the following in the hope they will come here and speak: Congressman C. B. Miller, G. G. Hartley of Duluth; Dr. John Shellman of Nashwauk; Cyrus M. King of Deer River; Senator C. C. McCarthy, County Attorney R. A. McOuat and George H. Spear, all of Grand Rapids.

It is expected that the Dupont Powder company will send a representative to speak on how to clear land and to give a demonstration of Dupont powder action.

The exercises are to be held in Athletic Park should the weather be propitious, and in the Opera house block should it be otherwise. Plenty of funds have been subscribed and the various committees are hustling their stunts to a finish.

GIVE FAREWELL PARTY

At Winton for Mrs. Murray and Children.

Winton, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the Torinus hall Tuesday evening, a farewell party was given by the Misses Signa Anderson and Lydia Lindy, in honor of Mrs. P. S. Murray and children, who are soon to leave for La Paas, Can., to join their husband and father.

The evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by the Simpson orchestra. The hall was decorated with streamers of different colors, and everything else was so arranged so as to insure comfort for over 150 couples, invited guests. One hundred Winton couples received invitations, while forty couples from Ely were listed. Beside this the following out of town people were in attendance: Miss Minnie Brown of Duluth, Miss Williams of Iron River, Wis., Rex St. Clair of Duluth, Rahlf St. Clair of Section Thirty, and Miss Drew of Minneapolis.

Punch was served throughout the evening by the Misses Florence Smith and Rosali Meyers.

Mrs. Murray was very pleased with the affair, and very happy at having the opportunity of meeting all her old friends together again. She will leave for her new home in Canada, Aug. 25, accompanied by her daughter, Myerial, while her son, Meador, will go to Menomonie, Wis., to attend the Stout Institute.

MELLIN'S FOOD

saved these twins' lives

"I am writing to let you know how your Mellin's Food helped two twin baby boys. They were so poor when I commenced feeding them with Mellin's Food that we did not expect they would live from one day to another. Now they are as fine babies as anyone would wish to have; as fat and happy as can be. One weighs sixteen pounds and the other eighteen. I am so thankful that we tried Mellin's Food, as I know that they would not have been living today if we had not. Now if this testimony will help some other poor mother having trouble with her baby, by all means use it."

GAME WARDEN TAKEN

On Suspicion of Being One of Cohasset Bank Robbers.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.) — There appears to be no new developments in the Cohasset bank robbery of last week, when two men held up Cashier Stockpodle for nearly $1,600 in cash and finally got away. It is the current belief they escaped to Canada, but, of course, this is only a surmise. Sheriff Riley is still hoping to get the pair. One of the detectives hunting for the robbers came across a game warden near Bovey a few days ago who bore such a resemblance to one of the wanted men and besides had a gun that he took him in tow. The "suspect" soon proved an alibi and was released.

GETS BETTER JOB

So Principal Trover Will Not Return to Hibbing.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Frederick Trover, for the past two years principal of the Brooklyn schools, has wired Supt. Blair of his resignation. Mr. Trover was elected to the place by the school board at an advance in salary over the figure he received last year, but is understood to have a more attractive offer and will not return to Hibbing. Supt. Blair is now in Minneapolis trying to fill the vacancy caused by his resignation.

LOVE'S DREAM SOON OVER

Gilbert Young Couple, Married Few Months, Separate.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Hanna Burnanen, 17 years old, has filed suit for divorce from Matt Burnanen. The couple were married at Gilbert Feb. 23, 1911, and it is alleged that the husband deserted the wife April 25, the same year.

A boy was born to them, and while the wife seeks the custody of the child, she states that she has no proper home for him.

ELY MINOR FINED

Youth Warned to Drink No More By the Judge.

Ely, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Peter Bartol was fined $7 and costs in the police court yesterday for being drunk and disorderly. On account of being a minor he was let off easily with a warning that any further offence would be dear to him and also the saloonkeeper who was found selling him drinks.

VIRGINIA'S NEW LIBRARY WILL BE VERY FINE.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Work is progressing rapidly on the new library building. Some idea may now be gained as to the architectural beauty of the structure. It will be a gem among the buildings of Virginia. The two great white limestone columns, weighing two and one-half tons each, which mark the entrance to the building, are in place and the bricklaying is going ahead rapidly. It is expected the building will be completed by the first of November.

KITTSVILLE'S FIRST ELECTION TO BE WARM.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The village of Kittsville will hold its first election of officers next Tuesday. There is a warm fight for the office of recorder. Mark Yahrman and Alfred Dimmateo are candidates. There are about sixty votes to be cast. Other candidates so far announced are: President, John Meadows; trustees, John Pakich, Tony Russ, Marco Morelt; treasurer, John Kochovar; justices of the peace, Peter Polga and Matt Severinski.

TWO TOWER MEN HURT.

Tower, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—William Nopier employed on the train of the Cook & Ketchum company, was hurt Monday night when his horse took fright and ran away throwing him from the train, breaking his collar bone in a couple of places and otherwise injuring him about the back and hips.

Axel Johnson, another workman on the train, was severely injured a few days ago when part of the train gave way. He was hit on the back with falling timber and had to be taken to the hospital.

Cusson Couple Wed.

Tower, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Casper C. Campaigne, son of Mrs. W. H. Campaigne, of this city, was married to Miss Mabel Nelson of Cusson. After the wedding the young couple came here for a week's outing on Gold island. Mr. Campaigne has been employed by the Duluth & Rainy Lake railroad at Cusson for a number of years and he and his bride will return there to reside.

Tower Woman Surprised.

Tower, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—A number of Mrs. Anna Colberg's friends surprised her Monday evening, in honor of her birthday. After a very enjoyable evening of games and music, refreshments were served in the dining room. The guests presented Mrs. Colberg with a handsome piece of furniture.

To Change Mine's Name.

Chisholm, Minn., Aug. 21.—The Adams mine, near here, known as the section 27 mine, a Great Northern property, at present being stripped by the Winston-Dear company, will probably be called the St. Louis mine. There is already an Adams mine on the Mesaba range in the Eveleth district, and some confusion is apt to result from two properties bearing the same name, so it has been practically decided to call the Chisholm property the St. Louis.

violence of the impact. They also assert that a number of the passengers were panic-stricken, and that one woman called on everybody to kneel and pray.

The students assert that 100 tons of ice fell on the ship's deck and that there was nineteen feet of water in the hold last Sunday.

The crew, they said, were unable to sleep in the forecastle after the collision and several of the passengers had narrow escapes. Stevens continued:

"Several Italians on board were seized with panic, grabbed their bags and jumped into the boats. If we had taken to the boats there would have been no chance of being picked up, as the fog bank was said to be 100 miles wide. As a matter of fact, we did not sight a boat for two days."

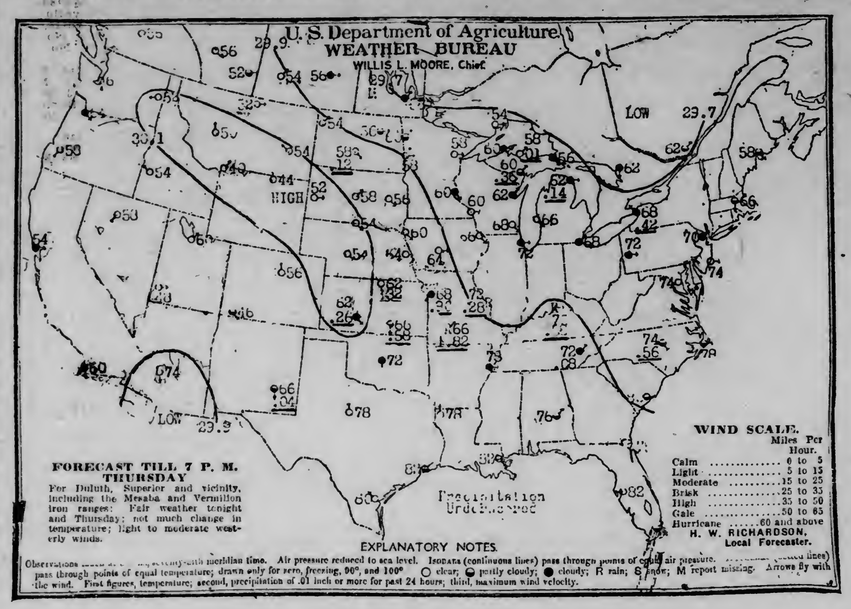

Denied By Captain.

The captain asserts that the Corsican did not ship any water.

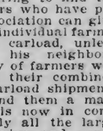

The passengers held a meeting today, shortly before their arrival, and presented Capt. Cook with a gold watch and a purse of gold.

OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER

FAIR

The weather man has shaken off his grouch, for the time at least. After J. Pluvius had made several spasmodic attempts to re-establish his dominance last evening, the sky cleared and the stars shone. Today is cool and delightful. Continued fair weather is promised for tonight and tomorrow.

Fair weather prevailed a year ago today.

The sun rose this morning at 5:13 and it will set at 7:09 this evening, giving thirteen hours and fifty-six minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"Light to heavy showers fell during Tuesday or last night in Northern Michigan, Western New York, North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Kansas, New Mexico and North Dakota. Temperatures ranging from 90 deg. to 100 deg. prevailed Tuesday in Kansas, Oklahoma and Southern states. The outlook favors mostly clear weather in St. Louis and Douglas counties until Thursday and possibly during Friday."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, Aug. 21. — Forecasts for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Thursday:

Upper Michigan—Fair tonight and Thursday.

Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, North and South Dakota and Montana—Fair tonight and Thursday.

Upper Lakes — Moderate westerly winds and generally fair weather tonight and Thursday.

GRAFT PROBE COMES FIRST

make it appear he was carrying concealed weapons.

Said Zelig Was "Framed."

"Bald Jack" Rose previously had told the grand jury that Zelig had been "framed," that they might get him under his power. Becker sent word to Zelig that he would either have to furnish the men to kill Rosenthal or go to prison for a long term for carrying a revolver, Rose declared.

Zelig says he furnished the men, and that was all he had to do with the Rosenthal shooting.

While the grand jury is taking recess, evidence against certain police inspectors and those "higher up" will be sought.

The members of the grand jury were so pleased yesterday when they found that the vote to indict the seven men for the Rosenthal murder was unanimous, that they applauded.

An investigation has been commenced by Commissioner of Accounts Fosdick into the charges that aldermen accepted graft for licenses to news dealers. Testimony was given that $400 is the regular price for the more prosperous stands, and an election district captain swore he had taken $800 for a news stand license.

Immunity for Schepps.

Sam Schepps has been promised full immunity in the Rosenthal murder case. Before testifying before the grand jury, where he furnished corroborative evidence to the confession of "Bald Jack" Rose implicating Police Lieutenant Becker in the killing of Rosenthal, Schepps obtained a written agreement from the district attorney's office that he was not to be indicted.

This agreement was signed by Bernard Sandler, counsel for Schepps, and an assistant district attorney.

Schepps can only be held a short time on the vagrant charge, but, as his counsel says, Schepps feels it is safe to remain in the custody of the district attorney until he has given his testimony in the trials. Schepps, however, demands that he be taken care of in a first-class hotel and his demand will be granted.

Startling Information.

District Attorney Whitman conferred today with Detective William J. Burns, going over the plans for the graft investigation which is to be started by the grand jury. The word has gone out that Burns has supplied Whitman with startling information, and this report has been verified by a man in touch with the district attorney.

LIDGERWOOD ACADEMY.

Funds Being Raised to Start Girls' Institution.

Lidgerwood, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—An academy conducted by the Sisters of St. Dominic, a Catholic teaching order, will be opened here in the near future if the efforts of the business men meet with success. At a mass meeting called to discuss the proposition, sentiment was in favor of the school and Rev. Father Duerr, A. P. Bonzer and M. Lynch were named a committee to solicit subscriptions to secure the location.

If established the school will be headquarters for the St. Dominic order in this state and they will supply teachers for all parochial schools in addition to conducting the academy.

STUTSMAN COUNTY FARMERS RAISE CORN.

Jamestown, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Farmers of Stutsman county are taking a great deal of interest in raising corn and alfalfa as a result of the activities of the North Dakota Better Farming association. For some years there were several fields of alfalfa grown successfully, but the farmers as a whole paid little attention to them. It remained for the association to spread the doctrine.

Many fields from 1 to 5 acres each have been maintained this season, and the farmers have been so successful that the acreage will be greatly increased next year. The average cuttings from the fields have been two a season and the yield about two and a quarter tons an acre. Several fields will be cut for seed this year.

Drain Commissioners Win.

Mohall, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The board of Mohall drain commissioners won the first round of its legal battle before Judge Leighton in district court at Minot when he dissolved the temporary injunction that had been granted because his court had no jurisdiction. The injunction proceedings were brought by F. H. Stoltze and he has twenty days in which to appeal the case to the supreme court.

MEETING OF COUNTY CLUB

Duluth Will Be Well Represented at the Tower Gathering.

Range City Making Plans to Entertain the Visitors.

Duluth will be well represented at the meeting of the St. Louis County club at Tower tomorrow.

Among those who will go are W. A. McGonagle, chairman of the public affairs committee of the Commercial club; J. H. Hearding, president of the County club; H. V. Eva, secretary of the Commercial club; Dr. B. M. Rastall, secretary of the industrial bureau of the Commercial club; P. H. Martin, vice president of the West Duluth Commercial club; C. P. Craig, L. B. Arnold, Millie Bunnell, H. Johnson, Ralph Moore and A. C. Le Duc. They will be accompanied by W. R. Mackenzie, secretary of the Northern Minnesota Development association. Thomas Owens and other Two Harbors people will join the party at Two Harbors.

The Duluth, Missabe & Northern car, Missabe, and the Duluth Iron Range car, Vermilion, will be attached to the regular train over the Duluth & Iron Range road tomorrow morning for the accommodation of the party.

Tower has made preparations for the entertainment of 150 delegates from the other range towns, Two Harbors and Duluth. After the business meeting, the visitors will be given every opportunity to see the beauties of Lake Vermilion and the surrounding country, and will partake of the famous Lake Vermilion "bouillon."

Steamers and launches will be provided to take the party around the lake during the afternoon, and the "bouillon" will be served at Wadman's at 6 p. m. Many of the visitors will remain in Tower over night.

Tower has made application for a summer meeting of the county club at every meeting since the club was organized. The meeting to be held tomorrow was called some time ago, and Secretary Fred B. Myers of Biwabik has sent out urgent notices to the affiliated commercial and farmers' clubs to have complete delegations at the meeting. Business of importance to St. Louis county will be discussed, and in addition the delegates will have an outing that they will long remember.

Especially fine for ladies traveling alone or with children. The new Soo Line afternoon train to the Twin Cities. A traveling palace costing you no more than ordinary trains. Leaves Duluth 2 p. m., Superior 2:30 p. m.; arrives St. Paul 6:15 p. m., Minneapolis 6:50 p. m. Ticket office, Superior street and Sixth avenue west and 430 Spalding hotel.

$3.50 Recipe Free, For Weak Men

Send Name and Address Today—You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Healthy.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, failing memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his health, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop drugging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest-acting restorative, upbuilding, SPOT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 4671 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid recipe in a plain ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $3.00 to $5.00 for merely writing out a prescription like this—but I send it entirely free.

SUNNY SKIES OVER WEST

Favorable Harvest Weather Has Bearish Effect on Wheat.

Chances for Ripening of Flaxseed Forces Values Downward.

Duluth Board of Trade, Aug. 21.—There was a general easing off in the price of wheat on the leading North American markets during the first part of today's session by reason of the reports of bright, clear weather, much needed for harvesting and thrashing, and though there was some recovery before the session was over, most of the changes for the day were bearish.

Duluth September wheat closed unchanged but December closed ⅞c lower. Cash wheat on the Duluth market closed only 2 cents over the September. This cash wheat was of the new crop, whereas the cash wheat that has been selling at 10 cents over September was old wheat. The old wheat is much better for milling. Durum closed half a cent off. Rye, oats and barley were unchanged. Duluth September flaxseed closed 5 cents lower, October 3 cents lower and November 4 cents lower.

The vast area of clear bright weather over the Northwest beared wheat on the markets of North America today. With the exception of cloudy and rainy spots at wide intervals, the weather as shown by the official map was sunny today over the whole region between the Great Lakes and the Pacific ocean, the clear skies extending as far south as Kansas and northward over the international border line into Southern Canada. Such weather as this has been needed for a long time and is worth untold money to the farmers and all other classes of inhabitants of the Northwest. The American primary wheat receipts today as usual showed a vast increase over those of a year ago.

Duluth September wheat, which closed yesterday at 93½c, opened today at 93c and at noon was selling for 93¼c. Minneapolis and Chicago September wheat at noon showed some decline as did also Winnipeg October.

Liverpool wheat closed unchanged today. Earlier in the day it was inclined to be bearish. This was due to clearing weather in the United Kingdom, weakness at Paris, more favorable reports from Russia, the pressure of Russian offers for sale, crop reports from France for a large yield and excellent Canadian prospects. Late in the session, however, there was a reaction, which wiped out the decline.

Flaxseed Is Weak.

The improved weather conditions, much needed for the development and ripening of flaxseed, had a bearish influence on the market at Duluth. There was much heavier country offers. There was some scattered demand, but it was not sufficient to hold up the price. Duluth September flaxseed at noon today was 4c off at $1.78 and October was 3c off at $1.69. Winnipeg October at noon today was ½c off at $1.59½ asked. Buenos Ayres October closed last night unchanged at $1.65. London Calcutta August and September today closed unchanged at [illegible]. There were two cars of flaxseed on the track for inspection today.

MARKET GOSSIP

"Polk county has a very good yield of grain this year," said C. L. Conger, banker and farmer of McIntosh, Minn., who was visiting on the Duluth Board of Trade today. "In the western part of the county I am told that the crops are larger than ever before. In the eastern part the yield is also good. The farmers have done their cutting of everything except flax, but as no thrashing has yet been done, it is hard to tell what the yield per acre will be of any of the grains. The flaxseed is not yet ready to cut. It needs three or four weeks of just such favorable weather as there is today, without any frosts. The recent rains have kept the seed from ripening and caused the formation of new bulbs. The appearance of the new bulbs will do no good, for the additional seed will not have time to develop and ripen and at the same time the seed that might have ripened had the weather been bright has been kept green. The young green seed will be an incumbrance in thrashing out the ripe seed. What the flaxseed crop will be is a weather problem. Some of the farms have magnificent yields, but much of the seed is very late and needs much warm, clear weathr for its development. Last year we had a crop running about 17½ bushels to the acre, but I do not think it will run that high this year. Oats will also probably be a smaller crop in our county than last year, but I think wheat will be more. In the eastern part of the county some of the fields may run 18 to 20 bushels per acre, while others will probably not go above 12 or 13, but in the western part I am informed that the yield will be much greater.

"Immense fodder crops and fine pasturage make corn look relatively high, but the trade feels that this has been discounted for the time being and the markets oversold. Shorts are covering, fearing more delay in the movement of new grain, and the continued export demand for wheat and oats is helping to make strong markets of it. The scarcity of ocean tonnage and advancing freight rates may limit export sales somewhat, but the fact that prices are down to an export level is a good sign. Shorts are likely to scare in more freely and bring about a further advance shortly. If so, all futures are probably a sale on hard spots, as there is a lot of grain waiting to move as soon as the weather and the railroads permit.

"Timothy seed, like grain, is being delayed by the weather. Late samples are much poorer in quality. The trade fears that thrashing operations will be resumed before the grain and seed is dry enough. This would undoubtedly result in poor keeping quality. There will be decided holding policy on account of the lower prices, and this, with cars scarce, is sure to result in a slow distribution of the crops. It will, however, insure plentiful supplies later on and perhaps prevent any permanent advance of moment, just as at present it is making strong markets.

"The trade wants sharp, dry barley. Consignments are in order, but barley of soft quality should be held in the country until thoroughly seasoned. We expect to see the full buying demand take hold soon, perhaps by Sept. 1. The market is already becoming more active. The offerings include a lot of badly damaged, yellow, low grades, unfit for malting.

"The railroad companies are making every effort to prepare for the heavy grain movement, but it will be a short time only when country elevators are full and cars hard to get. It would not be surprising if the demand for barley overtakes the supply for a time, and consignments of good malting barley are likely to strike higher prices."

Le Count wired from Indian Head, Saskatchewan: "The weather today is warm, clear and favorable. All crop reports are good and the crop is expected to be of better quality than last year. Farmers are busy in the early fields."

* * *

John Inglis wired from Kansas City: "Through central Missouri corn is coming forward rapidly. I find more double-eared stalks and fewer barren ones than is usually the case. It is hot and showery today (Tuesday) which is bad for wheat and oats."

* * *

For the first time this year there was a considerable amount of new wheat received on the Duluth market for inspection. There were twelve cars in all. Heretofore there has been just a car now and then. Of course this is a very small amount in comparison with what will be received when the crop movement is really under way. Thrashing has barely begun in Western Minnesota and North Dakota, where the new wheat arriving today was raised. The wheat has been grading about average in comparison with the grading of recent years, although this year there has been an unusual and undesirable abundance of late summer rain. This has been handicapping the movement of wheat and other grains and has to some extent reduced the grades. It is thought, however, that with the coming of dry weather that has just appeared over the American Northwest, the quality of the arrivals will be much improved, and they will grade higher. From now on nearly all of the wheat received on the Duluth market will probably be new wheat, though there will undoubtedly be a car of old here and there.

New rye has been arriving for about a week. Today ten cars were received. A little new barley has been coming from time to time for several days. Four cars came today. Occasionally there is a car of new oats.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Wheat Is Bearish on Crop Movement Outlook and Weather.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Expectation of increased movement of spring wheat, backed by a clearing weather forecast, tended today toward a bearish market. The cash demand was not insistent, though shipments from here were liberal. Early trading was light with prices unchanged to ⅜c lower. December opened ⅛c down at 92⅛c and all deliveries kept within narrow limits.

Values fell off slightly with heavier offerings and rallied a little on covering trades. The close was steady with December ⅛c higher at 92⅜c. September closed unchanged at 93⅜c.

Influenced by fine crop conditions and better shipping weather corn opened easy with trading scattered. September started ⅛c down at 70½c and eased off ⅛c soon afterward. December opened a shade to ⅛@¼c lower at 53⅝c to 53⅛c and steadied at 53⅝c.

Improved cash demand and covering by shorts gave an upturn to the market later. The close was firm at near the top. September finished ⅞c higher at 71½c. December closed ⅜@½c up at 54⅛c, a shade beneath the high point.

Weather conditions also governed oats, September started rather easier than the distant deliveries. The volume of early trading was not large. September at the outset was ⅛c to ¼c lower at 32c to 31⅞c. December opened unchanged to a shade higher at 32⅝c to 32⅝@¾c, resting at 32⅝c.

Heaviness of grain weakened provisions. Initial sales varied from 5c lower to 2½c higher, with October delivery $17.95 to $17.97½ for pork, $10.85 for lard, and $10.82½ for ribs.

GAINS ARE WIPED OUT

Sagging Tendency Overtakes Stock Market in the Last Hour.

New York, Aug. 21.—Smelting, Steel and Amalgamated, in the order named, were strong today with dealings largest in Steel. Business was more diversified in the sense that it comprehended many railroad issues as well as specialties. The coalers, Harrimans and Hills reflected underlying strength, with no marked change, but Canadians inclined to reaction. Tobacco stocks, such as Liggett and Myers, Lorillard and Snuff, were up 1 to 3 points. Pullman was easily the feature of the equipment group, gaining almost 5 points. Idleness followed the activity of the first hour.

Bonds were strong.

The only feature of prominence at the opening of today's market was the further heaviness of Canadian Pacific, which soon declined a point. Elsewhere in the active list there were some fractional gains with a sprinkling of losses.

Speculation was later more evenly divided between the railroads and specialties, many of which recorded advances. Smelting, Biscuit and Snuff rose a point, with 4½ for Pullman.

The market closed steady. Practically all gains were obliterated in the last hour when a sagging tendency overtook the general list. The reversal was not attended by any pressure, but seeemd to originate in a lack of further bull initiative.

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 21.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: Inquiries received indicate a good demand for big draft horses for use in the logging woods, and dealers anticipate heavy clearance of big horses during the next sixty days. Several carloads of big draft horses weighing from 1,500 to 1,800 pounds were among the day's receipts. Fair retail demand for general purpose horses for farm work throughout the Northwest, shipments being made to numerous points in Minnesota, Dakota and Wisconsin. Common classes and mules find few takers. Values for good big horses hold firm.

Cotton Market.

New York, Aug. 21.—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 7 points to an advance of 2 points, near months being relatively easy in response to weak cables. There was a big demand around the initial figures however, with leading spot brokers heavy buyers and before the end of the first hour prices were about 13 to 15 points net higher on this support and heavy covering by recent sellers. There seemed to be no particular factor in the news to accept for the advance but there were reports of an increasing demand from spinners. Private crop advices continued generally favorable.

COPPERS REACH HIGHER LEVELS

Most of the active copper stocks were quite strong today and closed higher. North Butte made quite a spurt, closing $1.75 to $2 higher than yesterday. Paine bought up a large number of shares of this stock on the Boston exchange today. On the Boston exchange alone 8,858 shares of this stock changed hands today. It is believed that the buying is being done by certain interests who have inside information in regard to some valuable development in the company's holdings. There were gains today also in Giroux, Calumet & Arizona, Butte & Superior and Cliff. Chief Consolidated and Hancock lost a little. The general level of the stock market of New York at the close today was without much change from yesterday. The London copper metal market was bullish today, spot closing 7s 6d up and futures 6s 3d up.

* * *

Paine, Webber & Co. today received from Foster at Boston the following closing copper letter: "The local coppers enjoyed the best day they have had for several months. The recent rise in Amalgamated has greatly increased confidence and the buying was general all through the list. North Butte was the most active stock, advancing 2 points to $32.87 and closing at the top. The buying of all classes of coppers is considered good and there is every reason to expect a continuation of the advance.

* * *

Gay & Sturgis received from Hall at Boston the following copper closing letter: "The market was fairly active in the first hour and showed advances which held well up to 1 o'clock. Amalgamated and Anaconda were especially strong and active and showed new high marks for this movement. Locally, Calumet & Hecla declared a $12 dividend which had a stimulating effect on the coppers and a better tone prevailed through the entire list. North Butte was active and the buying was considered excellent. It would not take many days like today to change sentiment, when we would have a good broad market, and we believe it is near at hand."

SAARI MEETS MOOSE CHIEFS

(From The Herald Washington Bureau.)

Washington, Aug. 21.—John Saari of Duluth is conferring with Senator Dixon and other leaders of the Roosevelt movement at the New York headquarters today. Mr. Saari will sail tomorrow on the Cincinnati for Europe, landing at Hamburg. Mr. Saari expects to go to Stockholm, where he will see Minister Graves, formerly of Duluth. He expects then to visit Helsingfors, Finland. Mr. Saari will return to this country early in October.

DEMOCRATS OPEN CHICAGO OFFICE

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Democratic party leaders from many states met in Chicago today to open Western headquarters for the presidential campaign. Joseph E. Davies of Wisconsin, national committeeman from that state, took charge as director of the western division.

Director Davies exhibited a telegram from Governor Wilson in which the presidential nominee approved of Davies' plan to make the Chicago, or Western, headquarters equal in importance with those in New York for active campaign work. Mr. Davies said seven of the fourteen members of the campaign executive committee would make their headquarters in Chicago.

Congressman Lloyd said congressional headquarters will be established here as soon as congress adjourns.

Leaders in the Progressive party will hold an important conference at headquarters tomorrow, it was announced today.

Marshall Going East.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 21.—Governor Marshall, the Democratic nominee for the vice presidency, today prepared for his first speaking tour of the campaign, which will open at Portland, Me., Aug. 26. The governor will leave for the East next Saturday. Further than the Maine trip, his itinerary has not been arranged, but he expects to make an extensive tour of the West.

SUPERIOR

Marshals Arrest Eight.

Only eight arraignments were made yesterday in the federal court out of the sixty warrants issued for alleged liquor law violators. Deputy Marshals Pugh and Applebee were unable to bring in more prisoners because the latter are scattered all over the county. Six Indians were among those arrested yesterday. Among the number charged by the deputy marshals there are three women and twelve Indians, who will be brought up within a few days.

Bartender Stabbed.

Fred Riggs, a bartender at 728 Tower avenue, was yesterday afternoon slashed with a knife by "Carp" Moon, a lodging house keeper on Hughitt avenue. Riggs is at a local hospital, where his wound is considered dangerous. Moon is being held at the police station.

Gets Fifteen Years.

Delancey Sharlott, the negro who was arrested two weeks ago on the charge of having shot Lazo Knezevich, was given fifteen years in the penitentiary this morning. A warrant charging him with the murder was sworn out yesterday by District Attorney McKay and he was arraigned this morning.

Body Is Identified.

The body of the man found floating in Tower bay Monday by several boys was yesterday afternoon identified by Rev. Harry Millford, superintendent of the Lake Superior Mission, as Chris Frederickson, a former roomer of the mission, who has been living here for several years. It was also found that Frederickson leaves about $1,000 in two of the local banks. An attempt will be made to locate any relatives.

WILLIAMS PRESIDENT

Duluth Man Chosen Head of the State Bar Association.

W. E. Greene Elected Member of the Governing Board.

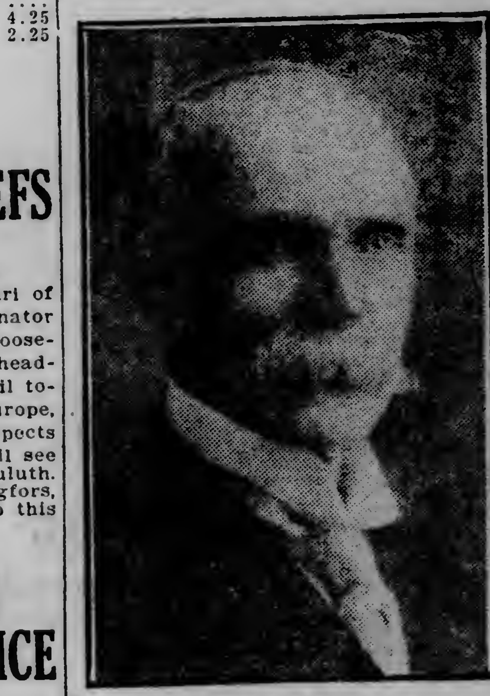

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—John G. Williams of Duluth was elected president of the Minnesota State Bar association at the close of its annual meeting in the Leamington hotel in Minneapolis today, succeeding C. A. Severance of St. Paul, whose term of office was declared by the associatio nto have been clared by the association to have been the organization.

Hugh V. Mercer of Minneapolis was elected vice president, Royal A. Stone of St. Paul re-elected treasurer and Charles W. Farnham of St. Paul re-elected secretary. John M. Bradford of St. Paul was chosen assistant to the secretary.

The board of governors was re-elected as follows: F. A. Duxbury, Caledonia; H. L. Schmitt, Mankato; W. C. Odell, Chaska; C. L. Caldwell, St. Paul; Daniel Fish, Minneapolis; A. H. Brennan, Little Falls; S. H. Hudson, Benson; W. E. Greene, Duluth, and E. E. McDonald, Bemidji.

Debate Washburn Plan.

The closing session was marked by spirited debate, following the report of the committee on jurisprudence and law reform by Stiles W. Burr of St.

JOHN G. WILLIAMS.

Paul, chairman. The proposition which evoked most discussion was a resolution by J. L. Washburn of Duluth favoring giving to the state in a criminal action the final argument before the jury. This was strongly opposed in debate, but was referred to the committee, with instructions to present a bill to the legislature, by a vote of 32 to 13.

The working men's compensation act, which received so much attention at the session, was referred to the committee with instructions to correct it according to the sentiment expressed in the meeting, and then refer it to the legislature.

The legislative committee was also instructed to urge changes in the corporation laws so as to prohibit corporations with small capital from entailing heavy indebtedness, and to do all in its power to further state aid for the anti-tuberculosis association.

No Action on Morris.

No action was taken on the case of William B. Morris, the negro attorney, whose right of membership in the American Bar association has been questioned. It was the sentiment of the membership that this was not a state matter.

By a vote of 60 to 11, recall of judges was opposed by the Bar association, and by a vote of 61 to 8, the association went on record as opposed to the recall of judicial decisions.

Among the speakers at yesterday's session were Judge Lorin Cray, Mankato; Frank B. Kellogg, St. Paul; R. G. Brown and H. V. Mercer, Minneapolis, and T. J. Knox of Jackson.

"Workmen's Compensation" was the topic of an address delivered by Seth Low, former mayor of New York and president of the American Civic federation. Mr. Low commented favorably upon the draft of workmen's compensation code made by a committee of the Bar association, and to be presented to the Minnesota legislature next winter. During his address he also made a plea for uniform state laws.

Members of the association were guests at a banquet given by local attorneys last night.

BOOTH'S SON IS NEW COMMANDER

New York, Aug. 21. — William Bramwell Booth, eldest son of the late William Booth, commander of the Salvation Army, has been appointed head of the army to succeed his father. This announcement was made at Salvation Army headquarters here this afternoon after a cable message announcing the appointment had been received from London.

DELAYED BY THE FOG

Brings Large List of Tourists and Several Automobile Parties.

With several hundred tourists on board and getting into port several hours late on account of the fog over Lake Superior for the past few days, the steamer Juniata of the Anchor line docked at N. P. No. 4 shortly before the noon hour today.

The fog was so dense that the big boat had to come a part of the way at about half speed. This accounts for her delay in getting into port.

The fog of the last week has interfered with the dispatch of boats engaged in all trades. A heavy pall has hung over Lake Superior and some of the boats have had to go to anchor at sheltered spots at different times during the week.

The Juniata brought in a large passenger list this morning, one of the largest of the present season, in fact, in one hour's time the tourists were distributed all over the city. It is getting along toward the fag end of the tourist season. From this time on the tourist business is expected to show a decided falling off until the middle of September when it will be practically over.

The Juniata brought several Minnesota automobiles. Minnesota parties have been touring the East freely this summer. Among those who toured the East and shipped up their cars by boat, intending to make the return trip to Minneapolis by auto were Dr. D. K. Breckenridge of Little Falls and Dr. A. N. Thomas of Austin, Minn.

The steamer Minnesota and Hamonic also brought in heavy passenger lists and the city is today flooded with tourists.

FORT WILLIAM LABORERS GO OUT

Join Forces With Port Arthur Strikers and Demand Wage Increase.

Fort William, Ont., Aug. 21.—One thousand dock laborers employed by the Canadian Pacific railway in Fort William joined the 1,000 Canadian Northern men of Port Arthur who quit work last night. The night shift, comprising 700 men, stopped at the gates, only six passing the timekeeper.

Pickets were placed at the Canadian Pacific gates and when it came time for the night shift to go on duty, more than 1,000 men gathered there. The entire police force was hurried to the place and the crowd was dispersed with difficulty.

During the evening a mass meeting was held at which inflammatory speeches are reported to have been made.

The situation at Port Arthur is unchanged, the men refusing to go to work unless their demand for higher wages is granted. There have been no acts of violence there so far.

They demand 27½ cents an hour, an increase of 5 cents.

The Canadian Northern officials chartered an excursion steamer to bring strike-breakers across Lake Superior from Houghton, Mich.

STEAMER STEWART GOES TO BUFFALO

Grain Cargo Lightered, Makes Port Under Her Own Steam.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 21. — The steamer A. E. Stewart, which ran aground at Sturgeon point, twenty miles south of here, on Sunday morning, was floated last night after 20,000 bushels of her cargo had been lightered.

STEAMER MOORE IS IN DRYDOCK.

Messages received in the city this morning by vessel agents stated that the steamer John W. Moore, up-bound with coal, is in dry dock at Sarnia.

The Moore, it is stated, picked up a long wire cable which is jammed in between the stern bearing and the hub of the wheel with such force that it stopped the engine. The boat had to be taken to dry dock for repairs.

It was also reported this morning that the steel freighter Edwin F. Holmes crashed into the tug Hebard at Buffalo yesterday. The hull of the tug was so severely damaged that she is out of commission for the time being. Details as to how the accident happened are lacking. It is known that the big boat caught the tug between herself and a dock, crushing her badly.

BUSINESS GOOD, SAYS LEISER

Proprietor of String of Retail Stores Is an Optimist.

L. Leiser, proprietor of the Leiser stores at Duluth, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Chicago, Lima, Ohio, and Quincy, Ill., says that the business at his Duluth store is better than the business of most of the other stores in his string.

"Business is very good over the country and we have bought accordingly for our stores," said Mr. Leiser. "The business at the Duluth store is better than at most of the others. When Mr. Blumenthal and I were East we bought heavily, for the simple reason that the business here warranted it. As a result we have some very nice things to offer here.

"Speaking generally of the conditions, I believe that we are going to have a great fall. Outside of the fact that politics may interfere slightly with business, there is nothing to prevent a heavy increase in various lines of industrial activity. The crop is good, the demand in various lines is exceeding the output. The circulation of money has increased and likewise the activities of the legitimate investor. The signs of the times can be read most favoraoly."

Mr. Leiser left today for a lake trip. While in Duluth he went over the stock of the store with Ben Blumenthal, the local manager, and is satisfied that Duluth patrons have the best that the East can provide.

Mr. Blumenthal has just returned from the East with the statement that business is looking most promising. ('We brought a heavy stock simply because the business outlook warranted an extra outlay of goods," said Mr. Blumenthal.

"Business is showing an increase over the country and the general increase is being reflected here. Taking the country as a whole the business outlook is excellent."

CUBAN TROUBLE OVER.

Declares Fergus Falls Man Back From Island.

Fergus Falls, Minn., Aug. 21.—J. H. Durrell, superintendent of the twenty-eight branch banks of the National Bank of Cuba, is visiting his father, J. G. Durrell, in this city. Mr. Durrell states that the negro revolution has been utterly crushed in Cuba but that there is still much political unrest and he is none too sanguine as to the future. He says that the negro revolt was brought about by the desire of the negroes for the offices. They argued that they constituted the largest percentage of the army of liberation, and that they were entitled to far more offices than they were securing under the present government.

BUY PERHAM MILLS.

Fergus Falls People Propose to Operate Plant.

Fergus Falls, Minn., Aug. 21.—Messrs. Tennant and Windsor of the Fergus Flour Mills company have purchased the Globe flour mills at Perham, and will proceed to put the plant into shape for operation at once. They have associated with them a number of Fergus Falls capitalists and a corporation will be formed with $50,000 capital. This assures a sufficient capital to carry on the business, and as they have been successful millers for a long time it means that this plant will be put in better shape than it has ever been before.

The Globe mills, which were controlled by Peter Schroeder, the well known brewer, before his death, had a capacity of 450 barrels a day, and had a large trade on the line of the Northern Pacific and through Northern Minnesota.

LIGHTNING HITS BED; SLEEPING BOY UNHURT.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Aug. 21.—The residence of Mrs. Elizabeth McCurdy was struck by lightning. The bolt passed through seven or eight rooms, knocking off the plaster and playing queer pranks. It struck a bed in which Allen McCurdy, a son, was sleeping. The lad was stunned for an hour, but has recovered.

INDIANS WAX RICH PICKING BLUEBERRIES.

Kelliher, Minn., Aug. 21.—Indians in this vicinity have cleaned up $16,000 in the last month by picking blueberries. They have brought in 8,000 bushels and sold them to local shippers at an average price of $2 a bushel. About 250 Indians have picked the bulk of the fruit.

CONSULAR NOMINATIONS MADE BY PRESIDENT.

STATE LAND SELLS WELL

Twelve Buyers Appear at Monthly Sale in the Courthouse.

An Average Price of $5.50 an Acre Is Paid for the Land.

Twelve men took advantage of the sale of state lands in St. Louis county, which was held this morning in the county board room at the courthouse. About 500 acres were sold and the average price paid was about $5.50 an acre.

Theodore Nelson, manager of the land sales department of the state auditor's office, conducted the sale. He says that it is surprising how the sales have kept up all over the state in July and August, the busiest months of the year to farmers. Mr. Nelson said today that the interest in state lands is steadily increasing and the demand for them is keeping pace. Each sale, he says, brings out more people and even the busy months fail to cut down the attendance at the sales as much as expected. About twenty-five men were present at the sale today. The next one will be held on Sept. 18, and a larger transfer of lands is looked for them. Said Mr. Nelson today:

"It is only recently, as a matter of fact, that farmers throughout the state have paid a great deal of attention to the state lands, but they are certainly breaking into them now. One gratifying thing everywhere, and which is shown in the sale of this morning, is that the speculator is not predominant. I find that in St. Louis county in particular, the Finnish people buy a forty, cultivate it, and when they get that working well, add another forty and so on, until the first thing you know they have a good-sized farm with every inch of the ground being worked. That is what the state needs—a lot of small farms well worked, and the state sales are resulting in just that.

"It is too bad that so many people fail to look up Minnesota land before going to Canada. Conditions are far better here. Not only can they buy land to better advantage and on better terms in Minnesota, but they are nearer to markets and do not have so hard a climate to combat. A good many, I find, go to Canada, look over conditions, and come back. We get a great many of these in our department. After seeing land elsewhere the Minnesota state land looks pretty good to them. I am looking for the sales this year to far out-strip those of last year in number of acres sold and in the matter of numbers of settlers sold to."

Among the purchasers this morning was John B. Ward, publisher of the St. Louis County Record at Gheen, a new town on the Canadian Northern road. He bought a lot in the town. Some time ago the state divided a forty-acre tract there and after one or two lots had been sold, interest waned. But now is is understood, a concern is about to put in a stave mill there and interest is being awakened. It is expected that all of the lots will be disposed of soon. Others who bought land in St. Louis county at the sale this morning are: Ernest C. Parish of Biwabik, John J. J. Parish of Grand Rapids, John L Parish of Nashwauk, R. J. Hancock of Gilbert, Isaac Maki, Jacob Alanen, Victor Lauhala and Adam Ranta of Hibbing, Alex Anttila of Chisholm, Matt Nybacka of Gilbert, and Victor Lahta of Angora.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE.

Default having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage made and delivered by Lovisa Lindgren and Louis Lindgren, her husband, mortgagors, to Jane E. Fitzgerald, mortgagee, dated June 6th, 1908, which said mortgage covers land, the title to which was duly registered under the Torrens law in the County of St. Louis and State of Minnesota on February 3rd, 1906, which said mortgage was registered on the 10th day of June, 1908, at 8:30 o'clock A. M. as document No. 2143 in Book 11 of Register of Titles on Page 45, as a memorial on Certificate of Title No. 3020, in the office of the Registrar of Titles of St. Louis County, Minnesota, which said mortgage was thereafter duly assigned by said Jane E. Fitzgerald by an instrument in writing dated July 9th, 1912, to the St. Louis County State Bank, and registered on July 9th, 1912, at 3:30 o'clock P. M., as document No. 9662 in Book 11 of Register of Titles on Page 45, as a memorial on Certificate of Title No. 3020, in the office of the Registrar of Titles of St. Louis County, Minnesota.

Such default consists in the non-payment of Forty-five and no-100 ($45.00) Dollars, the semi-annual installment of interest due June 6th, 1912, by reason whereof said assignee of mortgagee has elected to exercise the option given by the terms of said mortgage to declare and it is hereby declared the whole principal sum secured by said mortgage, with all accrued interest thereon to be now due and payable. There is claimed to be due and is actually due on said mortgage debt, at the date of this notice, the sum of One thousand five hundred fifty-five and no-100 ($1,555.00) Dollars, principal and interest and no action at law, or otherwise has been instituted to recover said debt or any part thereof.

NOW THEREFORE, notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the property therein described, situated in St. Louis County, Minnesota, to-wit:

The Southerly Thirty-three feet (Sly 33 ft.) of Lots Thirteen (13), Fourteen (14), Fifteen (15) and Sixteen (16), in Block Nine (9), Hazelwood Park Division of West Duluth, according to the recorded plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for St. Louis County, Minnesota, which said premises with the hereditaments and appurtenances will be sold by the Sheriff of St. Louis County, at the office of the Sheriff in the Court House, in the City of Duluth, in said County and State, on Saturday, the 31st day of August, 1912, at ten o'clock A. M., at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt and interest and Fifty and no-100 ($50.00) Dollars attorney's fees, stipulated for, by and in said mortgage, in case of foreclosure and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption within one year from date of sale, as provided by law.
